Hill Prince Wins BASEBALL Preakness Fame

By Oscar Mraley BALTIMORE, Md., (UP)—The name of a colt called Hill Prince was inscribed on the roll of Preak-WANTED: For quick effecient refrigerator and electrical service, ness Champions and the racing fraternity predicted even greater clories and a possible spot among the all-time titians of the turf for Virginia thoroughbred.

One of the first to go all out for the Cavalier colt was Syl Veitch, trainer of the rival C. Whitney chargers, Mr. Trouble

Hill Prince convinced Veitch, and a lot of others, when he roared down the stretch at Old Pimlico to finish five lengths on top of Kentucy Derby Champion Middleground in the run for the blackeyed susans. Another five lengths back came Veitch's Dooly, who was six lengths in front of his more highly-regarded stablemate.

Now the crowd was gone and Vietch stood in the ancient Pilmico club house, looking wistfuly out at the deserted track where he pock marks of flying hoofs dill showed. "Hill Prince is a very, very good colt — and today he was a great one," Veitch said, his words choing hollowly through the emoty room, "From the way he ran oday, nobobdy is going to catch m in the Belmont Stakes." A lone waiter whisked down the

Now to the next serious thing. It looks like some of our high publie officials have decided to turn 1950 into 'Love Germany' year.

From 1941 to 1945, It was 'Hate Germany' years. And we've been going along in these post - war years neithen hating or loving the Germans especially. We've acted like an adult people, fully aware that the Germans were the tinder box that lit three wars-1871, when they defeated France; 1914 when they almost de-

In Ranger, you make they came mighty close to defeating the World:

Any country that takes that kind of discipline, any country that can make those kind of wars, three running—aren't too be loved to heartily.

Even worst than this is the decide.

Even worst than this is that some of our officials have decided that we can't do without the lower echlon Nazis. They half-admit the Nazi claim to being the 'master race' by saying that the U. S. has got to have them as admin istrators.

Some of our officials are forgetting that this country was built on the premise that leadership should and must come from the

Now the big arguement on the side of these sudden lovers of the Germans and Nazis is that we've got to build up Germany as a bulwark against the Red Russians.

It follows the same old pattern as after the first World War when certain people in England and the United States decided we had to build up Germany to fight the Reds. So we built them up.

And your Nazi apologists will now answer that this is different -Russia is now a very serious threat. . Check.

But are we fighting Russia in the proper way. One thing you can say for the Reds—they are sell-

So if you haven't been counted yet; or if your neighbor hasn't been counted, report it to R. V. Galloway, Chamber of Commerce Manager or mail in the census report clipping. Help yourself, help your neighbor.
