

Pres. Returns From Pacific

By Merriman Smith
KN ROUTE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN, Oct. 16 (UP)—President Truman flies back to the United States from Honolulu today to give the American people a detailed report on his secret conference with Gen. Douglas MacArthur on Wake Island.

White House informants said it was unlikely that the president would proclaim a new United States policy toward Asia. Instead, Mr. Truman was expected to restate the United States attitude when he speaks to the nation from the War Memorial Opera House in San Francisco tomorrow night.

The President was scheduled to take off at 6:30 a. m. Hawaii time (11:30 a. m. EST) after a long night's sleep in a modest Navy guest house overlooking Pearl Harbor. He is scheduled to arrive at San Francisco International Airport at 6 p. m. PST (9 p. m. EST).

There were indications that the Republican party may be planning to beat Mr. Truman in the political fray by labeling the conference an election-year move to win favor for the Democrats from independent voters who now associate the administration more closely with the MacArthur-led victory in Korea.

The White House staff was irritated no-end by insinuations that the President's trip was "politics." The official version was that the President needed an across-the-table conference with MacArthur before Congress resumes.

The White House staff was well aware that many Americans were puzzled at the shortness of his conference with MacArthur. Mr. Truman was closeted with the General alone for an hour and the two met with their top advisors for another hour.

One White House official explained it simply: "he just wanted to take a look at General MacArthur. They'd never met before."

At the same time, the President was said to have spelled out administration policy, particularly as it involves Formosa, in such a way as to cut off any possible objection from MacArthur.

Whether any new policy on Formosa will be laid down remained to be seen. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said the speech would open with a report on the Wake meeting.

'SENIOR COLLEGE LINE' TOO MUCH FOR RANGERS AS THEY LOSE TO ODESSA, 12-0

One foot equal, 12 inches, but Saturday night that distance was as good as a mile when the Odessa Wranglers stopped the Rangers' one scoring threat on the one-yard line and went on to win the conference game, 12-0.

Odessa's massive line was the deciding "grindstone" that wore down the lighter Ranger forward wall. Even though RJC gained only 14 yards net rushing the first half, and a game total of 4, for the first two quarters the game was a good, head-banging defensive show.

But the second half was all Odessa except for that goal try by Ranger in the fourth quarter. The Wrangler's first score came in the second quarter on a 52 yard ground and aerial attack. From the Ranger one, Joe Howell, halfback, went over standing up. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful as Odessa went in front 6-0.

Early in the fourth quarter tackle Van Horn bounded on the opponents' 21 yard line. Hamrick passed to Wilson who almost got away before being knocked down on the Odessa three. A first down try got nothing. Hamrick then hit through the center to the one on a quarterback sneak.

With third and goal to go, Ranger punted up about half a yard. The fourth down try saw Neal take a hand off only to be stopped a foot shy of the goal. From there Odessa took over and punted out of danger. An interception of a Ranger pass halted another threat of the local team on the Odessa 25.

In about 12 plays, Odessa marched 75 yards for their final tally.

Clovis Riley scooted through center 27 yards for the touchdown. The Wranglers again missed the conversion but the 12 points were good for the win.

Ranger's best pass play came in the third quarter when Barrett completed one for 20 yards to Stanbridge. Two plays before Bobby Williams had recovered a Wrangler lateral on the Ranger 38. But another Odessa interception again stopped the Ranger drive.

Bobby Boynton, Neal Rollins, Holland, Lyndon Williams, Keller, and Elder pulled some good tackles against their heavier opponents.

Wichita Falls Ready To Draft Married Men

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 16 (UP)—The Wichita County Selective Service Board today prepared to draft childless married men in the first action of its kind since the end of World War II.

Wade Starnes, spokesman for the draft board, said only childless husbands between the ages of 19 and 25, inclusive, would be affected.

Starnes announced last week that "all" married men without children in Wichita County would be subject to induction, but later revised his statement.

He said the drafting of married men who have no children and are in the 19-25 age limit was necessary because of a shortage of eligible manpower in Wichita County.

Russ Minister Complains US Getting Tough

By Harry Ferguson
United Press Staff Correspondent
Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky complains that the United States is getting tough. He made a speech in the United Nations last Friday urging us to go back to our World War II policy—the days when we were giving Russia almost anything she asked for in our common fight against Hitler.

When a Russian diplomat makes a speech, what he doesn't say often is more important than what he does say. What Vishinsky didn't say was that international Communism has taken a licking in the past six weeks on both the military fronts. United Nations troops are almost at the gates of the Korean Red capital of Pongyang. That is the military defeat. Russia apparently has decided that she does not want to run the risk of another world war by going to the rescue of the Korean Communists. That is the diplomatic defeat. She has lost face throughout Asia.

President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur have just completed a conference in the Pacific. Mr. Truman summed up the conference by saying the United States had three assets in the cold war: (1) devotion to peace (2) unity with the peace loving members of the United Nations and (3) "our determination and growing strength."

From long experience, the diplomats of the Democracies did not interpret the speech as an invitation to lasting peace. They interpreted it as meaning that Russia is temporarily battered and winded. She wants "time out," as the athletes say, so she can rest up to resume the fight.

Wild Week-end Draws Record Crowd In Dallas; Sally Rand Show Makes $15,000 Saturday

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 16 (UP)—Almost everyone knows by now that Oklahoma defeated Texas, 14 to 13, and Southern Methodist emptied Oklahoma A & M, 56 to 0, in the Cotton Bowl Saturday.

But the doubleheaded football feature—which drew some 151,000 fans to the concrete saucer on the State Fair Grounds—was rivaled by some other hi-jinx in Dallas' wildest week-end.

For example: Attendance at the State Fair Saturday was 289,307, a world's record for a single day in any annual exposition. The old record was 283,000 on labor day at the Canadian National Exposition in Toronto.

No one knows how much money the revelers spent, but the 289,000 fairground visitors Saturday and another 221,000 yesterday bought 1,500,000 rounds of soft drinks. Total take: $150,000.

Saturday football fans bought 35,000 hot dogs from Cotton Bowl concessionaires. Laid end to end, Texas' unseasonal streak of summer weather was scheduled for another performance today.

Only rain during the past 24 hours was 29 at Salt Flat.

70,000 ALLIED TROOPS RACE TOWARD CAPITAL

By Earnest Hoberecht
TOKYO, Tuesday, Oct. 17 (UP)—Four Allied columns raced through the rain drenched Korean hills today in a converging sweep toward Pyongyang, the Communist capital city which lay only 30-odd miles ahead off our vanguard.

Some 70,000 American, South Korean, British and Australian troops were fanning through North Korea, some of them at breakneck speed. They were bent on reaching Pyongyang this week. The hour of decision for the shattered Communist army was at hand.

The South Korean 1st Division led the big push on Pyongyang. It drove through sporadic resistance to the area of Suan, 38 miles southwest of the capital.

The veteran U. S. 24th Division, first to fight in Korea, stormed back into action on the left wing of the Allitid drive. It struck up the west coast toward Haeju, 63 miles south of Pyongyang. It was the eighth division, plus a British-Australian brigade, to join the push.

The plight of the Communists was reflected in a communique from Pyongyang. It said the North Koreans were "continuing the bitter battle with the advancing enemy on all fronts." Fresh forces were thrown into an attempt to crash through the center of the Communist defense line, it said, admitting that in one sector the North Koreans were "falling back in order to reach more advantageous defense positions."

As the plans for the final victory over the North Koreans shaped up, high officials of the South Korean government said in Seoul, that plans were being pushed to appoint local and provincial officials in North Korean towns loyal to the Republican government.

The officials said that in order to avoid the label of "carpetbaggers" the administrators were being picked carefully from among North Koreans who fled south ahead of the Communists. Whether the plans were in open defiance of the United Nations interim commission in Korea remained to be seen.

Front reports said the Communists were putting up no better than sporadic resistance anywhere. The speed with which the Allied forces were advancing along the main roads of North Korea attested to the virtual collapse of the North Korean defenses.

AMERICAN-LED TROOPS RACE FOR NORTH KOREAN CAPITAL IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE 1,000 US WAR PRISONERS FROM SLAUGHTER

By William Chapman YONGCHUNG, North Korea, Oct. 16 (UP)—An American-led task force raced west today toward Pyongyang, capital of North Korea, in an attempt to save an estimated 1,000 American war prisoners from possible slaughter by their Communist captors.

Fears for the safety of the Americans were aroused by the discovery of the mutilated bodies of more than 500 South Korean war prisoners shot, bayoneted or burned in this east coast city by the retreating Reds.

The dead included 100 wounded or killed as they lay or knelt in a schoolhouse prison. A portrait of Soviet Premier Josef Stalin looked down on the carnage.

Civilian refugees reported yesterday that up to 1,000 American prisoners had been seen in a railroad tunnel 17 miles southwest of Yonhung, between Inhung and Songnae, three days earlier.

There was little hope that the Americans still were in the tunnel, but it was believed they might be found a little farther west along the railway which runs north to Pyongyang.

Col. Dick Emmerich of New Ulm, Minn., senior American military advisor to the South Korean 3rd Division, hurriedly arranged for South Korean troops to try to rescue the American prisoners.

Three truckloads of infantry led by Maj. Malcolm Smith, 32, of Altadena, Calif., senior advisor to the South Korean 20th Regiment, set off along the railway late yesterday.

"I am much concerned over the fate of our American prisoners of war," Emmerich said. "I want to assure everyone that necessary action will be taken in an all-out effort to save these men from the fate of the South Koreans massacred here."

Two of the five survivors of the Yonhung mass murders said 100 American war prisoners had marched with the South Korean prisoners from Seoul to Yonhung. But they said the Americans were separated from the doomed South Koreans and marched off toward Pyongyang before the massacre began Friday. These Americans were not believed part of the group last reported in the railway tunnel, however.

More than 400 of the South Koreans had been slaughtered with grenades, rifles and bayonets in an apple orchard on the southern edge of this town, 25 miles north of Wonsan.

Opening apples still hung on the branches. But the trees also were littered with pieces of flesh, torn clothing and pitiful personal bundles of the victims.

The two survivors told us that North Korean guards forced the prisoners to line up in files of four. Each man behind the first clasped his arms around the waist of the man in front of him.

In some cases, a single bullet from the enemy's Russian rifles penetrated all four bodies. As fast as they fell, the South Koreans were pushed into shallow trenches and ditches, doused with gasoline and set afire. Some were burned alive.

Ranger's Kayo Of Dublin Knocks Lions From Unbeaten Class A List; Littlefield, New Braunfels Roll On

By United Press
 LUBBOCK, Sweetwater, Longview, Pasadena and Big Spring in Class AA and Dublin, Mount Pleasant, Lockhart, Uvalde and Henrietta in Class A tumbled from the state's schoolboy football undefeated list last week.

But, not all of them were upset victims.
 Longview, Big Spring, Dublin and Henrietta generally were expected to lose their top records and there were distinct pre-game possibilities that Lubbock, Pasadena, Dublin and Uvalde might fall.

The surprises came on Midland's 21-6 defeat of Sweetwater and Lockhart's 19-18 loss to San Marcos. Midland's hefty team was among the unbeaten, but hadn't figured to stop the Mustangs.

Unbeaten, untied Pampa tripped Lubbock 27-21, Texarkana barely nosed out Longview 7-6, Comroe stopped Pasadena 20-12 and San Angelo knocked off Big Spring 32-7.

Ranger kayoed Dublin's hopes 34-25. Mount Vernon emerged as perhaps the No. 1 East Texas power by knocking out Mount Pleasant 29-12. Brady dropped Uvalde 22-13 and Newcastle defeated Henrietta 20-0.

The entire list of four undefeated but tied Class AA teams were victims of week end play, leaving an even dozen teams in that section with perfect records (no losses, no ties).

Meanwhile, other schoolboy powers continued to roll up impressive records.

Breckenridge stopped Dallas Tech 47-7, but had its goal line crossed for the first time this season. Cleburne blanked Hillsboro 10-0; Lamesa whipped Mineral Wells 13-0; Palestine beat Paris 14-0; Fort Arthur whipped Corpus Christi Miller 35-0; Freeport downed Harlingen 20-7; Galena Park defeated Port Neches 27-6, and McAllen stopped Kingsville 34-0 to stay among the unbeaten, untied in Class AA.

Houston Lamar chalked up its first city conference triumph by disposing of what loomed as its toughest bayou city competitor, San Jacinto, 26-13, and remained the only unbeaten big city eleven.

Defending state champion Littlefield of Class A rolled by Muleshoe 51-13, Olney beat Electra 26-6, Arlington blasted Carrollton 54-20, Hearne eased by Groesbeck 18-14, La Vega coasted past McGregor 37-0, Brenham breezed by Bellville 46-0, Gonzales beat El Campo 13-0, Laminque romped over Aldine 32-0, Sinton beat Frow 26-0, Mercedes defeated Rio Grande City 27-5, and Pearall blanked Del Rio 53-0 to stay unbeaten and untied in Class A.

Abernathy bowled over Crosbyton 60-12, Shamrock stopped LeFors 19-0, Crowell beat Seymour

26-20, Terrell stopped Plano 43-0, New Braunfels kept its point-a-minute pace by whitewashing Luling 50-0, Beaumont French stopped Vidor 6-0, Wharton rolled over Lamar Consolidated 40-7 and Donna beat Raymondville 18-0 to stay unbeaten, but tied in Class A.

Louis To Fight Again To Pay $150,000 Tax

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (UP)—Overwhelming pride and an undersized pocketbook kept Joe Louis backpedaling dizzily toward a doomed and inevitable dead end.

Negotiations already are underway for Louis to come out of a "retirement" that lasted all of two weeks and two days.
 James Norris, the International Boxing Club impresario, has announced that Louis probably will be matched with Cesar Brion, a willing but awkward Argentinian on Nov. 29 at Chicago.

Louis, in his last ring appearance against Ezzard Charles on Sept. 27, was little short of pathetic. He left the ring a battered, sorry bulk, his features puffed like overbaked biscuits and his pride severely wounded.

From that bout came a courageous Charles, the new world heavyweight champion, and then the downcast Louis, not even an authentic pretender to the throne.

Entering his dressing room after the fight, Louis was peevishly quiet for a long time. Then, in answer to a question, he curtly mumbled he was finished, "through fightin' for good."

A pressing debt, however, has cut the ex-champion's memory short. It is understood he owes the government $150,000 in back taxes and probably the only way he sees to pay it is to pound it

Oil has been ready!

Today the U. S. oil industry will be called on to supply the United States with 6,400,000 barrels of U. S. oil. It supplied that amount every day last week, and will supply it every day this week and next. It is a million barrels a day more than the peak of World War II, and it is 65% more than it was in 1940.

An increasing amount of today's oil goes to the needs of national defense, but the bulk of it supplies power for the millions of cars and trucks on American highways, the hundreds of thousands of tractors on American farms, and for the industries that make all the things that add up to a high American standard of living.

More cars, more tractors, more industries mean a need for more oil, year after year. This need has required the oil industry to look far ahead, to keep itself more than ready to supply current needs. It must be able quickly to meet increased demands.

And it is. Since World War II, U. S. oil companies have plowed back into the development of U. S. oil resources about $8 billion to find more oil, to increase oil production, to extend pipe lines and build tankers, to increase and improve refining capacity.

So the oil industry has been ready for the Korean emergency all along. It supplies today's greatly increased demand for oil in its stride. As still heavier demands are placed upon it, the industry is confident that it can supply them, too. It will be a big job. And make no mistake about it: it will involve many problems; consumers may be called on to make sacrifices; the job will require time for change and adjustment. But the oil industry is better prepared than ever before to take it on.

SCENES AROUND RANGER

Games like the Dublin affair are what ulcers thrive on. Between pumping up at the open press box on the Dublin field and listening to the Lion heebers, I was nearing nervous exhaustion.

I was all frowns and swearing like a muleskinner when Dublin had that 12 point lead. When the Bulldogs came back to take the lead, I was all smiles and full of gentlemanly conduct. Dublin fans reacted in the opposite manner of course. By the time Comacho was shaking loose on those runs, people around me were yelling, "Kill that number 21. Stop Comacho." And they murdered Comacho's name about as bad as mine has been mutilated. They called him everything from "Comanche" to "Comancho." I just grinned and politely tried to tell them the correct pronunciation. But they were in no frame of mind to listen.

By the end of the game, Dublin people were saying that if they had Randolph, Comacho and Cunningham, they could take on Notre Dame. That's an insult, seeing as how the Irish are having a rough time this year.

Coach Warden pulled a good one after the Dublin game. We were in the bus ready to leave and the boys were whooping it up. Coach Warden, trying to keep the Bulldogs from getting overconfident, reminded his players that they had to get ready for "Comacho" next week. Course, he meant "Comanche"—but that remark did it. The laughs drowned out the fan's yells for two blocks around.

And Saturday night at the RJC game, Coach Warden almost broke his neck. Yep, it was the bottle that did it—an empty Coke bottle that is. Coach stepped on the thing and fell flat on—well, he fell flat down a row of seats in the stands. Result, one slightly bruised Coach. But he'll be ready for the Comanche game.

A Bulldog player told me after the game that Rev. Ralph Perkins' half-time prayers were a big boost to the team. The player said that the Reverend is sort of an unofficial sponsor of the team.

320,000 Texas Children Ride School Buses

AUSTIN, Tex.—The number of school children to be transported during the present school term will show an increase over last year due to increased population and better school attendance, the Texas State Teachers' Association pointed out today.

Facilities for transportation were expanded during the last school term to take care of the 320,000 living two or more miles from the school attended. This represented an increase of 25,212 pupils over the number transported during the 1948-49 school term.

Although better than $10,000,000 was provided by the state to reimburse the districts for the cost of transporting school children, there is every indication that the amount provided was inadequate in many school districts. L. P. Sturgeon, Associate Commissioner of Education, stated that the official records show that only 23 counties were reimbursed by the state in amounts equal to the actual cost of operation. This means that the remaining counties received less money from the state than it cost them to operate the buses. The financial loss to some counties and school districts was small while in others it was heavy.

Such losses had to be made up by the individual schools from local funds. In many cases school systems had to reduce other vital phases of their program in order to pay the cost of transportation. Sturgeon pointed out that official reports show that the actual cost of transportation in Texas exceeded $12,000,000 during the last school term. This means that the districts had to supplement funds provided by the state in the amount of $2,000,000.

Previous surveys show that 22 per cent of the school buses have been in operation for more than six years and should be replaced. This means an additional burden to local districts since reimbursement from the state is less than actual cost of operation.
