JIMMY WHEELER IS VALUABLE TO RANGER HI SCHOOL TEAM

By Darrell F. Holmes, Jr.

Jimmy Wheeler is young in both age and football experience. He isn't particularly fast and he isn't overly large in stature. But he is a convenient guy to have around in an important game.

Jimmy, a quite likable youngster, is another ball player of the type that you don't notice from the grandstand. You could see him play a game and hardly realize that he was out there unless you were playing with or against him on that football field.

He is aggressive, tough, plays smart, heads-up ball, and knows how to handle himself when the going gets almost out of hand. He is the same type of ball player as Herbert Williams.

Charles Massegee, who is having a hard time deciding whether to become a Baptist preacher or professional ball player, or both, is looking better every day. He runs hard, blocks well, and isn't afraid of anything or anybody on the field. He looks like a boy who will make the grade.

Wayne Hargraves was his usual self during the afternoon with a series of savage blocks and hard tackles. Hargraves is the most improved ball player on the field since the spring training began.

Roddy Carter is improving every day and is developing into a first rate ball player. Carter is 14-years-old and a Freshman in high school. He plays a rugged brand of ball and never stops hustling. Watch for him this fall.

Lee Hill played a whale of an afternoon at defensive tackle. He didn't look to be overly sharp on offense but he really banged up the line when he was on defense.

The coaching staff stated that the tackles and ends looked a little weak and that the linebackers had a lot to learn. But both Sam Aills and "Stubby" Warden seemed agreed that all in all the boys had learned a lot in the spring training. They stated that the improvement in blocking and tackling was more evident every day and that with a "little luck they may have a first rate ball club."

But both coaches stressed that it wasn't all a lot of fun and going to and playing Friday night games. One coach said that he believed that most of the boys realized that it took hard work and plenty of it to put out even a piece of a team. He said that it took a great deal more work on the part of the boys and coaching staff to put out a team that could win a championship.

This writer agrees that it takes a whale of a lot of hard work to put out a team but believes that the coaching staff of Ranger High School has done a tremendous amount of work toward whipping the boys into football players. When they take the field as champions this fall, Coaches "Stubby" Warden and Sam Aills are due a big salute. They took good boys and are building them into good football players.

Troops Okayed For Ike's Army

WASHINGTON, April 5 (UP)—American troops will be alerted within a few days for transportation to Europe and the Atlantic Pact Army, military sources said today.

The go-ahead was given with senate approval of troops-for-Europe resolutions yesterday to build up American strength in Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Pact Army to six divisions.

The divisions earmarked for Europe are the 4th Infantry Division now at Ft. Benning, Ga., and the 2nd Armored at Ft. Hood, Tex. These are regular army divisions. They will be followed later by two as yet unidentified National Guard divisions now in training.

Two divisions already are in Europe.

Local Store Gets New Wallpaper In Stock For Spring

A gay springlike design that will add a new note to winter worn homes is the first in the Wallpaper of the Month series to be presented through the Spring and Fall by L. & J. Supply Co., 403 W. Main-ph. 202-Ranger.

These new styles created by Nancy Warren Wallpapers, are promised to be beyond the ordinary selection and will give the homemaker an opportunity to add a fresh touch to her home all through the decorating season with a wallpaper never before shown in the stores.

Butterfly Bush, the first wallpaper of the month is a delicately drawn floral pattern. The design of this wallpaper is important and styled for wallpaper by the Nancy Warren Company. Its design is adapted from the Budlea Bush, which dies down completely in the Fall and grows anew in the Spring, blooming throughout the summer with lilac like sprays of flowers.

County Near $6000 Quota In 1951 Red Cross Funds Drive

Eastland County was very close to making its quota of $6000 for the 1951 fund raising campaign for the American Red Cross early this week when an accounting was made. Mrs. John Love, campaign chairman announced, and every indication showed that the quota would be reached when a few outstanding reports came into the county office. Earl Woody, county treasurer reported $4454.69 in the bank Tuesday, and reports coming in showed a further total of $5893.12. A few workers have not yet turned in their reports.

Cisco had gone over its quota last week with a total of $1809.63 turned in and accounted for. Eastland went over its quota with a reports of $1568.84 and perhaps a little more to come. Ranger reported $1,525 today with expect-tations of some more to come thus beating their $1800 quota. Rising Star sent in a check for $507.90. Gorman told the office by phone to record $500 for them.

In the rural areas reports were almost all in and finished. Desdemona (Howard Star) reported $114; North Star, $16.50; Carbon, $27.10; Cheney and S t a f f $76.65; Colony, $10.00; Flatwood, $26.55; Lake Cisco $16.50; Morton Valley, $41.50; Nimrod, $21.85; Okra, $51.00; Shady Grove and Word, $21.75; Lutheron, $27.10; Reich, $9.85; Sabano, $5.45; Salem and Alameda, $22.50; Olden, $25.87; Crocker, $11.00; Pleasant Hill, $9.75; New Hope, $9.00.

A final check will be made next week when all reports are turned into the county office.

Former Resident Heads Okla. Club

Steele's father was a business man of Eastland more than half a century ago.

Twenty Men Report For Practice As Ranger Junior College Starts Their 1951 Spring Football Work

Rookies and veterans alike took stock of themselves this morning and probably found a lot of painful muscles following two days of hard work outs in the opening of the 1951 spring training of the Ranger Junior College Football Team.

Under widespread pressure of the opening of a spring training, the coaching staff took measure of the team and found that a lot of freshmen, transfers, and last year squadmen will have to take over the spots left open by graduation and enlistments into the armed forces.

Smiles slipped across the faces of the coaches when such names as Dean Elder, Jim Patterson, Dale Hatley, and Bob Holland were called. There were boys that any coach could count on to come through when the going got rough. The coaches stressed a lot of running and physical training in the opening days and hope to have the team in top shape before long. There is a lot of work to be done and not much time to do it in.

From where this writer sits Dean Elder and Dale Hatley look to be as nice prospects as there in the school. Elder is a former Ranger High School griddler and started at the junior college last season. He should play a lot of ball this fall.

Dean isn't large but he packs a lot of punch in his frame and is very aggressive. He charges nicely and can handle blocking assignments when called upon to do so. He looks like a linebacker through these eyes.

Hatley, a product of Lampasas is a cousin of the famous high school and junior college athletic John "Bull" Hatley. Hatley, a 265 pound, six-foot-three inch, 10 second man, starred in all sports at Uvalde High School and at Southwest Texas Junior College, as well as playing for Baylor. If Dale is anything like John then fans will see some good football.

There are a lot of other boys on the team and more prospects are expected to come in this week to try out. There are approximately 20 men out for the sport thus far.

Next week should mark up some rugged football playing when the training shifts into high gear and more boys are out for football. There should be a larger crop of boys out next fall because a number of football players at RJC are also on the track team and are busy with that sport at this time.

This paper will carry a paragraph or so on the progress of the team throughout the remainder of the season along with pictures. The same type articles as have been written about the high school will be continued over to the college.

Authorities Wait For Doc To Move

DES MONIES, Ia., April 5 (UP)—Iowa authorities waited today for Dr. Robert C. Rutledge to make the next move in his fight to avoid serving a 70-year sentence for killing the alleged seducer of his wife.

Rutledge lost his appeal of the second degree murder conviction in the Iowa Supreme Court yesterday.

However, state authorities said he can still file for a re-hearing before the state, high court or appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court within the next 30 days.

They said they don't plan to issue a warrant for him or try to bring him from his Houston, Tex., home until Rutledge has indicated whether he wants to make one last attempt to stay out of jail.

Rutledge, formerly of St. Louis, was absent from his home and the bustling Children's Clinic he operates at Houston today. His mother said he had left town with the six-foot, honey-blond wife who was the star attraction of Rutledge's sensational trial at Cedar Rapids, Ia., in May, 1948.

The state accused Rutledge of stalking Byron Hattman, a St. Louis engineer, to a Cedar Rapids hotel room and stabbing him to death in revenge for the seduction of his wife.

Mrs. Rutledge testified that Hattman wooed her with flattering attentions and sailboat rides until one night, after he "drugged" her with cocktails, he seduced her in the Rutledge apartment.

Rutledge, 29, served part of his sentence after the conviction, but has been free almost a year under a $40,000 appeal bond.

Cooking School To Be Held Here

The Recreation Building in Ranger will be the scene of the Texas Electric Service Company's Reddy Kilowatt Cooking School to be held April 9th and 10th, it was announced by Al Larson manager for the company.

The school will begin at 2:00 p.m. on each of the two days. The recipes prepared at each day of the Cooking School are different, so you won't want to miss either session. Several complete meals will be prepared each day, including over meals, broiler meals, surface meals, with recipes also for the refrigerator and home freezer. These demonstrations will include suggestions of many money saving ideas.

In addition to special door prizes to be given away each day, all foods prepared during the school will be awarded to the homemakers audience.

The cookery demonstrations will be given by Miss Anna Hines, home service director of the Texas Electric Service Company and nationally known home economist, cooking school lecturer and authority on the use of home electric appliances. She will be assisted by Miss Joyce Chambers, the assistant home economist of the Company.

In conjunction with Cooking School the electrical appliance dealers will display the latest Refrigerators, Home Freezers, and Electric Ranges.

These electrical appliance dealers will be: White Auto Store; Ranger Furniture Exchange, Killingsworth's, Crawley and Tibbels, Hardware, Johnson's Appliance Co., Montgomery Ward and Co., Western Auto Store, Frozen Food Locker Inc., Moffett Electric.

They Are Continuing To Raise Fuss About Mickey Cohen In Three States

LOS ANGELES, April 5 (UP)—Gambler Mickey Cohen said today he had received "dozens of letters from people in Texas apologizing to me for this thing" and charged that "the officers in Texas ought to stop trying to make fools out of Texas citizens."

The dapper gambler's blast came when he learned that extradition on a contempt of the state legislature indictment would not be pushed.

Rep. Fred V. Merdith, chairman of the House Crime Investigating Committee at Austin, said it "wasn't worth the time nor money" to have Cohen extradited. "Nobody has trouble finding me," Cohen said. "Besides, that Sheriff (sic) ought to stop kidding the public. He knows the charge is misdemeanor and not extraditable."

Cohen, whose trouble with the law switched this week from Texas to Arizona, also said he was upholding his plans for taking over a drug store at Tucson.

He said he'd await the outcome of a Federal Grand Jury looking into his income tax reports before

Rural Areas Turn In $610 In Red Cross Campaign For 1951; Home Demo Clubs Backed Drive

The women of the Eastland County Home Demonstration Clubs have completed work in the rural areas of the county in campaigning for the 1951 fund raising drive for the American Red Cross and have turned up with a total of $610.94 as of Monday of this week, more than the rural areas have ever turned in as their contribution in previous years.

Last year was the first time any of the clubs ever solicited for the Red Cross, and in the county three new clubs which have been organized within the last few months have also worked for the first time. The three new clubs are in East Hill, and Carbon.

The communities of Colony, Pleasant Hill, W. Greiger has acted as chairman for the rural areas and she and her workers have done a particularly good job, Mrs. John Love, 1951 fund raising chairman said this week.

Workers in the rural areas for the county include: Pioneer, Mrs. H. C. Fridge, Mrs. Will Foster, Mrs. A. J. Freeman, Mrs. B. G. Ruddy; Sabano, Mrs. J. L. King, Mrs. A. B. Gage; Nimrod, Mrs. Ed Townsend; Salem, Miss Allene Penville, Mrs. D. Rodgers, Mrs. Electra Haddock, Mrs. Bill Tucker, Cheney, and Staff, Mrs. A. D. Dean, Mrs. B. B. Freeman, Mrs.

RESISTANCE STIFFENING AS UN ADVANCE ON 40-MILE LINE

By EARNEST HOBERECHT United Press Staff Correspondent TOKYO, April 5 (UP)—U. S. tanks and infantry stabbed eight miles north of Korea's 38th Parallel today toward the heart of a Communist offensive build-up of 500,000 troops.

They rumbled three to six miles north of the Parallel along a 40-mile front against stiffening resistance from Red forces screening the build-up of more than 500,000 Chinese and North Koreans.

The Communists brought their heaviest guns into action in a futile attempt to stop the advance. Big 150-millimeter howitzers shelled one American task force

LIONS CLUB CHANGES DATE TO EAT LUNCH

Picnic Postponed

The Sunday School picnic planned for 7 p.m. Friday by the Nazarene has been postponed until Friday, April 12, because of school activity and other conflicting services.

RJC Enters A&M College Rodeo

COLLEGE STATION, April 5 (UP)—Texas A&M's three-day intercollegiate rodeo will open here tonight with gridiron great Slingin' Sammy Baugh headlining some 111 collegiate cowhands who will compete.

The former Texas Christian University passer will compete with Fred Dalby of Stonewall County in roping events.

Among 15 schools participating in the second annual rodeo are: A&M, Sul Ross State College, Arlington State College, Colorado A&M, South Texas Junior College, Ranger Junior College, Oklahoma A&M, Texas A&I, New Mexico A&M, West Texas State, Southwest Texas State, Baylor, The University of Texas, Texas Tech and Texas Christian.

Houston University Plans Television

HOUSTON, April 5 (UP)—The University of Houston may operate a television station for educational shows and high type entertainment. Dr. W. W. Kemmerer, acting president, said today.

He said he will ask members of the Board of Regents at their meeting April 17 what they think about the operation of a campus TV station.

Should the Regents approve of filing an application for a station, it will be done, Kemmerer said. He explained the campus station would not be in competition with commercial TV stations.

Dr. Kemmerer said the minimum equipment necessary to start a television station would cost $100,000 to $150,000.

which penetrated nearly six miles north of the pre-war frontier.

The Reds also threw three minor counter-attacks against the Western end of the line above the Parallel today. All were repulsed.

Four U. S. Divisions with attached UN units and one South Korean Division were stabbing into the enemy homeland on the Central Front. They captured the important Communist centers of Yongpyong and Yonggong yesterday.

A sixth division—the South Korean capital—at the same time extended its bridgehead across the Parallel on the East Coast and captured Kangsong 10 1-2 miles North of the old border.

Still other Allied divisions were poised within a few miles of the Parallel all along the 140-mile front across the Korean Peninsula to strike into Communist North Korea.

United Nations Forces in Central Korea were across the Parallel in force at key points all the way from north of Seoul to north of Chunchon. Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, commander of the 8th Army, flew to the front and crossed the parallel above Chunchon yesterday.

Americans, South Koreans, British, Canadians, Australians, Greeks and Thais (Siamese) were in the vanguard of this second battle of North Korea. Most crossed the Parallel yesterday.

They were trying to throw the Communists off balance, break up their troop concentrations and delay an expected spring counter-offensive.

The Reds still were bringing up supplies and reinforcements despite the UN advance and a non-stop aerial bombardment, however. U.S. planes spotted more than 1,600 vehicles on the move through North Korea last night and attacked more than 470 of them. At least 70 were destroyed or damaged.

Northeast of Chunchon and just south of the 38th Parallel, UN troops stormed across the Soyang River in assault boats under a hail of Communist shells and seized strategic heights on the North Bank yesterday.

Although beaten back by the Communist barrage several times, the troops had taken all their objectives by nightfall. Five North Korean soldiers surrendered after being subjected to heavy artillery fire.

At sea, UN warships carried their non-stop bombardment of the enemy's east coast port of Wonsan into its 47th straight day.

MOTHERS INDIGNANT OVER ARMY'S FOOLISH CLAIM

By Elizabeth Toomey
The army might as well quit taking bows for cooking. The mothers of servicemen are not impressed, even though the U. S. Army food counselor did say that troops in Europe were eating better than if they were home enjoying "mom's cooking."

In fact, a couple mothers were downright indignant. "Who's kidding?" Mrs. Tillie Pusar, a Brooklyn mother, wanted to know. Her son, Norman, is an army private stationed in Cheyenne, Wyo. "He's my only child. Can you imagine him being better off with Army food than what I give him? He says army food is all right. But it's no comparison to home cooking."

"They don't get much milk," Mrs. Mary Kelleher said defensively when she heard that restaurateur George Mardikian had announced in Frankfurt, Germany, that six out of 10 American mothers can't cook, and that an army food counselor he compared the cooking with the best restaurant food in the United States. "At home my boys could go to the refrigerator and get a quart of milk whenever they wanted it. Now my boy writes from Camp Pickett, Va., that they only get half a pint of milk for breakfast," a d d e d Mrs. Kelleher, another Brooklyn mother.

The mothers were inclined to feel the Army wasn't doing any better feeding the boys in Europe than the camps in this county, and this job, they sniffed, was no reason to high hat home cooking.

"I consider myself a good cook, and I don't think I'm an unusual mother," Mrs. Kelleher said emphatically.

Even though they resented the criticism of their own cooking, the mothers didn't retaliate by complaining their sons were underfed in the Army. But if they're eating better, they claimed it was just because Army life made the boys hungrier, and Army discipline required that they clean their plates.

"I have to admit that my son wouldn't eat any vegetables for me and now he eats everything," Mrs. Mae Phourbhoron, Brooklyn mother said. "He used to make a meal of things like cheese sandwiches and apple sauce." Her son, Lt. Frank Phourbhoron, 21, had just come home on leave after 3 years in the Army.

"But we had turkey for him the day he got home, and he still likes my cooking better than the Army's," she added hastily, "vegetables and all."

Mother And Baby Are Doing Well

FORT WORTH, April 5 (UP)—The wife and new-born daughter of a Fort Worth man slain in Indonesia a month ago were reported in "excellent condition today" in a Fort Worth hospital.

An eight pound two ounce daughter was born Tuesday to Mrs. M. B. Jones, Jr., Her husband, operations superintendent in west Java for Standard-Vacuum Sales Co., was injured fatally March 5 after a week-long period of violence against foreigners in Java.

Ben Hogan Is Choice Of Fans

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 5 (UP)—The greats of golf teed off today in the 15th Masters Golf Tournament and the man with the best spectator's seat would gladly have traded it for a spot in the entry list.

Alling Bobby Jones sat on the porch of his white cottage near the 18th green as champions in all divisions competed for the crown he established himself when he laid out the beautiful Augusta National Course.

Jones, chair-ridden by a spinal ailment, was in the spotlight although he can no longer play in the Masters, for many years his lone competitive appearance. And sharing it with him was a man who himself practically crawled off a death bed to record one of sports' major comebacks—Ben Hogan.

Hogan was far and away the favorite on the basis of his apparent complete recovery from grave auto accident injuries received in 1949. Surprisingly, Big Jim Ferris, the ex-Australian from San Francisco was only mildly liked.

JAPS LIKE THEIR JOKES

By Earnest Hobercht
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO, April 5 (UP)—H. D. Quigg, finished with his tour in the Korean war theatre, has headed for Hawaii. He left in a hurry without writing his piece for today. I volunteered for the job.

Quigg has worried about what I might write, but I promised him it would be okay and something along the line he turned out in Korea.

One of his best stories from Korea was on Korean humor. So this is going to be about Japanese humor—old Japanese jokes.

Here is a Japanese joke that is more than 200 years old. A man tripped on a stone and fell down. He walked on a few yards and tumbled again.

"D a r n i t," he swore, "I shouldn't have picked myself up!"
Now is that doesn't seem funny to you, it's not my fault. Two hundred years ago the Japanese laughed themselves sick over it.

Here's another two-century old Japanese joke:

A blind man stepped on a dog and the dog yapped loudly. The man walked on and stepped again on the dog that kept running in front of him.

"Heavens, what a long dog!" the blind man exclaimed.

Are you laughing?

There is the 100 year old Japanese joke about hair tonic.

Actually it's about the directions on the hair tonic bottle which read as follows:

"When applying this excellent tonic, it is most imperative that you use a brush. If you use your fingers, the inevitable result would be hair fingers."

Down through the ages the Japanese have placed a lot of importance on a sense of humor—and jokes. The Japanese believe that a man without a sense of humor is unrefined and uncouth.

The oldest Japanese documents, dating back to 710 A.D. are full of nice little stories. Some contain waggish legends about happy Japanese gods.

They have mother-in-law jokes, drinking jokes and even jokes about suicide. This old joke is a good example:

"As people very often throw themselves into the river from the Ryogoku Bridge, city officials found it necessary to post a guard there, all night to prevent these unfortunate actions.

"One night a woman came along, put stones in her pockets and if the sleeves of her kimono and was about to jump from the railing when the watchman caught her from behind.

"I've caught you at last," he cried. "So you are the one who's been jumping from the bridge every night."

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Haynes accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Howard Upchurch, and sons, to Itasca last week end where they visited with Mr. Upchurch's parents.

MAN WALKS IN DALLAS GRILL, OPENS FIRE WITH PISTOL, AND MURDERS TWO PERSONS

DALLAS, April 5 (UP)—Two men were killed last night when a mysterious gunman walked into a Dallas cafe and opened fire before patrons knew what was going on.

One of those killed was John L. Zupancic, an ex-convict police were looking for in connection with yesterday's bombing of a leather-goods store.

The other was John C. McDowell, 39, owner of "Mac's Grill" where the shootings occurred.

Dallas police issued a statewide alarm for the short gunman who fired in a 1951 Chevrolet sedan after taking pot shots at a passer-by and a passing automobile as he ran for his car.

Police also were searching for a man and woman who were with Zupancic when he was shot.

A waitress at the cafe, Miss Marjorie Farmer, said the trio had been sitting in a booth for about one hour when the gunman appeared. As soon as he entered the door, the waitress said, Zupancic's companions climbed out of the booth and the gunman opened fire.

Four shots entered Zupancic's body. The gunman fired twice more rapidly, one of the bullets hitting McDowell who was walking toward the rear of his cafe.

The gunman wheeled and ran toward his car, firing as he went. Zupancic's two companions followed immediately.

McDowell had been to the booth and was returning to the bar when the gunman opened fire. McDowell crumpled to the floor

Coast Guard Says That Tug Boat Sank

GALVESTON, April 5 (UP)—The Galveston coast guard station reported today that the tugboat Comanche sank in the intracoastal waterway about 14 miles east of here, but said it was believed the eight men aboard escaped safely.

A spokesman said the sinking was being investigated from New Orleans and that no other information was available here.

The tug reportedly went down last night. The pilot house remained above water in the shallow canal.

without saying a word, Miss Farmer said.

Paul Miller, the pedestrian fired at by the gunman as he left the grill, said three or four persons were in the car in which he fled.

Mrs. Green, who was in the car with her husband and Mrs. J. A. Holston, said that after three shots were fired at them, the two men she saw leave the grill jumped into a late model car, believed to be a Chevrolet, and sped away.

Bulldozer Is Used To Put Out Fire

DALLAS, April 5 (UP)—Damages of $15,000 were estimated today as the result of a three-alarm fire in West Dallas that destroyed four small houses, a barn, tool shed and seven stacks of used lumber.

The blaze raged for two hours yesterday before firemen, aided by a bulldozer, could extinguish it.

The fire was believed to have started from burning paper which blew out of a nearby dumping area.

Grandma Goes On The March Against Sin

BRENNHAM, April 5 (UP)—Mrs. Johnnie Mae Shaulfer, a "crusader against sin" in the tradition of Carrie Nation, tried to convert fellow prisoners to "the better way of life" today as she waited in jail for a hearing on charges of raiding a liquor store.

Jailer Walter Schoeneman said Mrs. Shaulfer, 50, "kept us all awake most of the night" as she prayed, sang religious hymns and shouted to three other jail inmates that they should turn to religion.

"Some of the people who live near here said they were awakened by her repeated denunciations of liquor and movies in particular, and sin in general, the jailer said.

The gray-haired grandmother was hauled into jail yesterday on charges of disturbing the peace, as the result of her raid Tuesday on a liquor store and a neighboring motion picture theater.

Liquor store owner, Arthur Volpert said Mrs. Shaulfer, whom he had seen, entered his store and abruptly "threw a doorstop at the shelves." She succeeded in breaking six bottles of liquor, he said. "She only missed hitting me by about a foot," Volpert said. "Boy, I was knee deep in glass and whiskey when she left."

Volpert said he was too stunned to say anything as the crusader picked up a box of cigars on her way out and said "I'm Mrs. Shaulfer, charge these to me."

Then she took the cigars next door to a theater exhibiting the film "Better Rice" with signs warning "strictly for adults."

She crumpled the cigars on the carpets in the foyer, then used the cigar box to smash glass in a sign over the picture of a scantily-clad movie queen.

Another blow from the cigar box broke a neon sign. Volpert, who called officers as she left his store, said police found her in a rest room at a nearby service station.

Her foray, she said, was "a climax to my many years of crusading against sin."

Jailer Schoeneman sleepily admitted today he'd be glad "when they have that hearing."

He said charges were filed today yesterday for a bond setting. "We didn't have any place else to hold her so we had to keep her in the jail," he explained.

The Saga You Are About To Read Is Not A Feature; It Isn't News It's Just A Guy I Knew And Liked

DARRELL F. HOLMES, JR. "Gonna take a sentimental journey... Sentimental journey home..." the nimble fingers of the piano player ran over the ivory keys. I was sitting with Dan Howard in a popular bar in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

It was a place called Tony's just of the main plaza where a lot of Americans went. A picture-sque atmosphere engulfed the smoky room. Dan had been drinking a little to much and was feeling pretty low about something or another.

"Wanta tell me about it fella?" I asked him. "No I don't Darrell," he replied, beating a cig against the counter with his thumb and forefinger.

"You know you can tell me anything you want to Dan."

"Haven't anything to tell, just pour me another drink bartender," he interrupted what he was saying to me grab the arm of the waiter and order another highball.

"Don't bring him anymore drinks," I told the waiter in pseudo Spanish.

The waiter looked at me a minute and then nodded his head. I turned back to Dan.

"Fella, you are going to feel pretty rugged in the a.m. unless you get a hold of yourself." I pushed aside my coke. "You have a big day tomorrow."

"What's so big about driving to

Mrs. Al Mayfield of Baxter, Tenn., and her sister, Mrs. H. C. Williams of Christoval are visiting here with relatives and friends.

Mexico City?" "It's a long way. Come on, lets get out of here."

"What's your hurry?" "I've got classes in the morning."

"Okay, one more drink then."

"No more drinks... lets go, pronto!"

It was later that night speeding toward a small Mexican village just south of the border town of Nuevo Laredo that I learned for the first time the truth about Dan Howard.

Dan was in love with a girl and she wanted to marry him. He was a part time student in a Texas College and worked with his father the rest of the time. His father was a cotton buyer who had built up a large supply of wealth. What was Dan's problem?

I didn't know what to say when Dan told me his story. It was one of those times when an understanding but silent look had to handle the situation as best it could. There was nothing to say...

It seems that Dan was once a member of an infantry outfit somewhere in the Pacific. There he received an injury which took him off of the line and to a hospital at Pearl Harbor.

Dan was later discharged from the service and told that he would live on borrowed time. He was further indoctrinated in the way the injury would effect him and in how he could tell when his time was nearly up. He had been home nearly four years and apparently the Army Doctors were wrong. He could tell no difference in himself from what he had felt before ever being draft-

d. For a couple of years he had stayed away from girls except for an occasional date. He would never date the same girl twice. Then he met Judy Carter. He couldn't stay away from her. He continued to go out with her and soon found that they were in love.

He never told her of his condition because he didn't want her to feel sorry for him. He thought that he was all right. Then one day, a few minutes before our talk, he noticed that his vision wasn't clear and his head began to clog up and he would feel faint when ever he sat up for long.

It stopped in a day or so and hadn't bothered him again. But he nd marry him. They could have some time together the way and he may have a little longer to live than he thought.

He didn't want to tell her. He hadn't even told his people. He had just taken his car and left. He was going to Mexico City alone. I couldn't see why he wanted to torture himself that way but it was his life, so long as it lasted.

After he let me out back in Laredo, Texas, that night, I always felt that I should have made some effort to have persuaded him to go back home. I thought about him for several days and then chalked it all off to something that he had dreamed up while drinking. He really had had a little too much to drink that night.

A month and a half later, I received a letter from a small town which is located below Mexico City. It was written by Dan. Dan was dying...

Quite a bit of water has run over the dam since then and probably a lot more will continue to run before I ever forget that night when I realized just what a guy could go through in silence and without accepting it as anything more than just part of living, growing up and then dying...

Ex-Cop Plans Escort Bureau

HOUSTON, April 5 (UP)—Handsome Dick Satterfield, the young ex-rookie policeman who was fired for running an elite call girl service as a sideline, said yesterday he planned to operate an escort bureau here for tired, but rich businessmen.

A charge of procuring filed against Satterfield after the October "affair" was dismissed when the state's two chief witnesses failed to appear in court.

"It has been said that I can't associate with women except for immoral purposes," the former officer said. "I'm going to prove it's not so. I'm going to get me the prettiest girls in town—office workers, and so on, who'll work under strict rules. They'll behave or they won't work for me."

"You know how it is when a businessman or an oil man comes to town. He likes to have a girl for dinner parties, or for a dance, or some local men entertaining out-of-town clients want a well-

Search Is Still On For Tex. Thug

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., April 5 (UP)—A southwide search narrowed today to the one remaining member of a Texas Safe-cracking mob still at large after eluding a trap here.

James Robert Todd, 35, who created a sensation at the Dallas Airport recently by trying to take nitroglycerin aboard a commercial airliner, continued to avoid capture while his two companions were held under guard at a hospital here.

Police believed Todd was hurt in the machinegun crossfire which wounded his pals and had holed up somewhere. The head of the bandit ring, George W. "Jettie" Bass, Texas No. 1 Badman, was under an oxygen tent with 14 bullet wounds. Nick Cascio was in the same hospital in less serious condition.

Bass was captured immediately after the three desperadoes walked into the trap set by police at an apartment village where they were blowing a safe. A woman tipster was reported to have provided officers with the bandit's plans to rob the apartment office.

Satterfield said his planned escort bureau would be strictly legitimate.

"There'll be a curfew and the girls will have to report back to the office after their date," he said. "I'm going to get me a real nice office downtown."

Satterfield said he will be out of the Navy in a month or so, then he is going to establish the bureau.

"I'm going to seek vindication," he said. "I've always wanted to be a rich, but honest cop, but now I'm going to be the next best thing—a rich, but honest ex-cop."

"At the same time I will bring joy and romance into the lives of tired businessmen."

The 22-year-old ex-officer joined the Navy after leaving Houston and after his wife divorced him for his part in the call girl service.

When he turned up for the trial, he had a new wife. She is the former Marilyn E. Cantrell of Birmingham, Ala., and she'll be 17 April 13. She and Satterfield were married, he said, Jan. 13 in Lufkin, Miss.
