Truman Uses The Taft-Hartley Law In Copper Strike

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (UP) Federal and union officials oked today for quick settlement of the nationwide copper strike before an anti strike court order actually is obtained. President Turman invoked the national emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley act last nightprelude to getting an injunction the vital defense industry.

A fact-finding board was ap pointed and told to report to Mr. Truman by Tuesday. After that he could seek an 80-day strike-staying order.

But union officials and federal nediators were optimistic it would not be necsssary. Representatives of left wing mine, mill and smelmions and the Kennecott Coper Corp., were nearing agree pent on a settlement when the resident acted last night.

Mr. Truman said the industry wide strike of 50,000 members of ions and Railway Brotherhoods, continue.

Already the walkout, which started last Monday, had stopped nearly all copper production in the country and threatened the entire defense program.
