OIL PROGRESS WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED HERE OCTOBER 18

The big job which lies ahead for thousands of American oil companies to meet defense and civilian requirements for petroleum products that are climbing faster than 10 per cent a year will be discussed at a joint meeting of the Lions and Rotary Clubs and the Senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce Thursday, Oct. 18, at the regular meeting of the Lions Club at the Gholson Coffee Shop.

A talk by French Robinson of Abilene is being made in connection with the observance of Oil Progress Week in Ranger. He speaks with authority as he is president of the West Central Oil and Gas Association.

Robinson will point out that, although military oil requirements of the United States have risen steadily during the past year and a half, it is soaring civilian demand which keeps his entire industry on its toes. He will describe how this civilian demand has necessitated a post-war, industry wide expansion program requiring a capital investment of more than two billion dollars a year.

Using an approach similar to that employed by many companies in making annual reports to their stockholders, Robinson will explain how the competing units of the oil business are drilling new wells by the thousands, engaging in extensive research, re- extending their transportation, re- refining and distribution facilities to insure the continued production and distribution to the American people of more and better petroleum products.

David D. Pickrell, superintendent of the Premier Oil Refining Company is chairman of Oil Progress Week observance in Ranger, and urges every business man in Ranger, whether or not he belongs to either of the sponsoring organizations, to be at the meeting Thursday, Oct. 18, and hear Mr. Robinson's message. The program will start at 12 o'clock.

RJC-San Angelo Meet Saturday

Play in the Pioneer Conference championship race begins this week as two top-flight league teams, San Angelo and Ranger, square off against each other at San Angelo Saturday night.

The Ranger Junior College Rangers, currently boasting the best record of any team in the league on the basis of the full season's play, give promise of being a real road block as the San Angelo Rams launch a drive to annex their second consecutive conference title.

The Rangers boast one of the better running backfields in the loop, with Caddo Sanders, Buddy Hamrick, Rusty Talbot, and Kenneth Burton in the stellar roles. The Rams, on the other hand, have the advantage of playing at home. They have a well balanced offense featuring the passing of Ed Armstrong, and the running of Jerry Corbin and Douglas Cameron.

Other members of the conference will continue their schedules against non-conference opponents Thursday night. Schreiner, dumped from the league leadership in absorbing a 41-13 defeat at the hands of powerful Del Mar of Corpus Christi last week, will face the Henderson County Cardinals, who bowed 21-6 to Arlington State last Thursday.

Mexican Baptist Mission To Have 4 Day Revival

Clark Scanlon, of San Antonio, will be the visiting singer in a revival which is to be held at the Mexican Baptist Mission of Ranger. Mr. Scanlon, who recently returned from a summer of student mission work in Central America, will conduct the congregational singing, and will sing special hymns in Spanish.

Services, which will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Paul Bell, are scheduled to begin on Thursday night, October 11, and will continue through Sunday morning and night of October 14. The services, which will begin at 7 p.m. each evening, will be conducted in Spanish. The public is cordially invited to attend these special meetings.

The revival is being sponsored by the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church.

Community Chest Directors Set $6500 As Chest Goal This Year

A budget of $6,500 was recommended by the budget committee and accepted by the directors of the Community Chest Tuesday afternoon at their meeting at the Chamber of Commerce.

F. A. Brasher was elected as vice president to fill the place of Morris George, resigned.

Agencies represented in the Chest include the Red Cross, the Child Welfare, Girl and Boy Scouts, Salvation Army, Community Public Library and the Ranger Youth Center.

As requested the directors turned in names of workers, who will be contacted and asked to attend the kick-off breakfast, which will take place as soon as the organization is completed.

Mrs. J. P. Morris, secretary of the Chest, has grouped the business and professional firms into classifications and a chairman will be appointed for each group to see that cards and other literature are placed in their hands, and each employer will be asked to be responsible for the solicitation of his employees.

This is the first time that the Red Cross budget has been included in the Community Chest drive and Ranger firms will not be bothered by another drive during the year for welfare purposes.

It will take the combined effort of every individual called on to work during the campaign, according to Charlie Joe Owen, the president of the chest and he urges that all be in readiness for the kick-off breakfast, the date of which will soon be announced.

It is planned to have enough workers that it will not require more than a very few hours' time for each worker to complete his list, according to Owen, and if this is done it will all be over in quick time and many man hours saved by the combining of seven drives into one.

Community Chest Member Helps Ranger Children

For the past 29 years Ranger's Child Welfare Club has provided food for children that might otherwise have gone hungry. The money it obtains from Ranger citizens makes it possible to obtain school lunches, provide medical assistance and furnish clothing for those Ranger children unable to afford those necessities.

The responsibility of investigating and aiding unfortunate families has fallen, for the past several years, upon the Child Welfare Club. Now with the aid of our Community Chest, this agency hopes to perform a better and more complete service.

Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, president of the Child Welfare Club for the past 11 years, explained the organization's work. A school principal is contacted and along with the recommendation of a teacher, and only after the strictest investigation, lunches and other assistance are provided for the needy children.

At Christmas time, women of the Welfare Club personally pack baskets of groceries and deliver them to families. The Child Welfare Agency is not a fly-by-night organization. It is a competent, expertly directed agency, performing a necessary service to the community.

Ranger "Pups" Remain United, And Undefeated

The Puppies of the Ranger Junior High swept through the four quarters of the football game Tuesday night like a steam roller as they rolled up a score of some 20 to nothing against the Junior High Team from Comanche.

Benny Robinson an Jerry Wharton are co-captains of this team and were responsible for the touchdowns last night with Benny Robinson making one and Jerry Wharton two with Douglas Williamson booting the extra points. Another boy on the field that kept the fans on their feet many times was wearing a jersey with No. 10 on it. He made good runs, but we do not have his name just at the moment but you will be seeing him make some gains on these football teams.

Although the puppies drew several fifteen yard penalties it didn't "put cold water" on them in the least, they just came right back and gained more yardage on the next plays.

The Junior High squad is made up of the following boys: Charles Walton, Jerry Jones, Tommy Young, Gene Bagwell, Jerry Cantrell, Benny Robinson, Jerry Wharton, T. R. Floyd, Johnny Gray, Bobby Weeks, Douglas Williamson, Bobby Goforth, Donnie Carver, John Hagaman, Lawrence Rogers, Mac Jones, J. P. Tidwell, Alton Nail, Harris Tibbels, Otis Jacoby, Archie Robinson, Darrel Prynor, Bobby Baker, Jack Blackwell, Jimmy Boyse, Dorby McCrary, Clifford Estes, Roy McCrary, Frankie Landtroop, Jerry Bradford, Gerald Shockey, Edwin Mewborn, Mike Dean, George Hill, Charles Tibbels Charles Bonney an Charles Simmons.

All of these boys are to see action in the games as they strive to keep their record of undefeated, and unscathed on for the second season.

Public Invited To Rangers Club Meet Thursday

The Ranger Club will hold its first post-organizational meeting Thursday at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of Ranger Junior College.

The theme of the meeting will be the introduction of the players and the coaches of the college to the public. The entire team and both coaches will be present at the meeting Thursday evening and will be introduced individually to the public.

This meeting is not restricted to just the members of the Rangers Club, but is for all the Ranger fans. The club invites everyone, men, women and children to be at the gathering Thursday night to become acquainted with the team and coaches.

Oil Allowable May Be Cut By Commission

BEAUMONT, Oct. 10 (UP)—The Texas oil allowable for November will be set next week, according to Commission Chairman Olin Culberson. There were indications of a 95,000-barrel-per-day reduction.

A preliminary hearing on the allowable here Tuesday disclosed a difference of opinion between members of the commission and Bruce K. Brown, of the Production Administration for Defense, on the November needs.

In a letter to the commission, Brown said production probably should be increased because of the lost production in Iran. Culberson said, however, that the 3,000,000-barrel increase last week in stocks of crude now above the ground might indicate a cut.

General sentiment among oilmen attending Tuesday's hearing favored a production cut. If the 95,000-barrel reduction is ordered, it would mean a 23-day production period for November, rather than the current 25-day allowable and 24-day average.

Brown told the commission that the U. S. is in a period of peak consumption and "although we approach this period with adequate stocks, it is possible that we may require from this country more than we have anticipated to meet our own demands and for those formerly supplied with Iranian crude from the Abadan refinery."

He said distribution of oil from Abadan is unlikely during the first quarter of 1952.

Culberson said the allowable will be set for November next week, and hearings on the December allowable will be held Nov. 15 or 16.

Bail-Jumping Red Returned To U. S.

LAREDO, Oct. 10 (UP)—Bail-jumping Communist leader Gus Hall was escorted back into the United States today under heavy guard after his international flight to escape jail ended with his capture in Mexico City.

Four plainclothes agents of the U. S. and Mexican governments accompanied the 41-year-old secretary of the U. S. Communist Party.

They took Hall and his luggage from an ancient sedan and led him into the Immigration Office. He was not handcuffed, and he said nothing.

Hall stopped just before entering the Immigration Office and looked back at the International Bridge. Then he entered where Immigration officials waited to interview him.

He was captured in Mexico City Monday night. Hall was wearing a neat brown suit, gray hat and carried an overcoat over his arm.

He crossed the bridge at 3:07 a.m. (CST) after a 750-mile drive along the Pan-American Highway.

Ranger's Request For Traffic Light At Main, Highway 80 OK'd

The efforts of Police and Fire Commissioner Herchel Angus have finally been successful in securing for Ranger a traffic light at the intersection of Main Street and Highway 80, according to advice received yesterday from Resident Highway Engineer Pritchard and Assistant District Engineer, Milliken, who were in Ranger with the plans and specifications for the installation of the light.

Under regulations adopted by the Texas State Highway Commission in 1947 traffic lights can only be placed at intersections with streets and State designated highways after a traffic count made by the Highway Department discloses that a given number of vehicles pass through the intersection during a prescribed period. At the request of Commissioner Angus such traffic counts have been made periodically, but until the last count, which was made in March of this year, we have not had the prescribed number of vehicles entering the intersection from Main Street, although we did have more than enough going through the intersection on Highway 80.

According to Mr. Pritchard and Mr. Milliken the light will be in the center of the intersection and will be tied in with the warning light on the railroad crossing so that when a train is coming the traffic light will flash red to traffic turning into Main Street, and yellow to traffic going through on the highway. They also asked the City Commission to prohibit parking along the East side of Highway 80 from a point past East Main, or Lamar Street. They also stated that the large sign in the center of the approach to the railroad crossing, belonging to the Parliament Hotel would have to be moved from the street.

Mr. Angus, and the other City officials have realized from the time they took office that the Main Street and Highway 80 intersection constituted a hazard to vehicular as well as pedestrian traffic, and one of the first official acts of Commissioner Angus upon entering office in May of 1947 was to request the Highway Department to make a count of the traffic which as stated above disclosed that there were inefficient vehicles going through the intersection to meet the minimum requirements of the Highway Department, and his request for a light was refused at that time.

Operation "Killer" Designed To Stop Fighting On Key Hilltop

By Jack James

United Press Staff Correspondent

8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Oct. 10 (UP)—Fifty U. S. tanks and nearly 3,000 infantrymen routed terrorized Chinese troops in a daring stab eight miles into Communist territory today.

The powerful U. S. 2nd Division task force made its hit-run "killer" raid in an attempt to end the Communists' month-long stand on bloody "Heartbreak Ridge" on the east-central front.

The tanks rolled up the valley west of the ridge with guns blazing, thundered through the tiny village of Mundung, 23 miles north of the 38th Parallel, and pushed on two miles beyond the embattled northernmost peak of "Heartbreak."

The task force returned safely at dusk, leaving death and chaos in its wake. It had struck just as elements of a Chinese army corps 30,000 strong were replacing battered North Korean troops on the west side of the Mundung valley.

Told of the success of the mission during a visit to 2nd Division headquarters, 8th Army commander Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet said:

"I am delighted to hear about it. I hope it will be the end of the 'Heartbreak Ridge' fighting. This is very good medicine to welcome them to the front with intense fire."

In the air, 32 American Thunder jets damaged and probably destroyed two of 25 Communist MIG-15 jet fighters which jumped them over "MIG Alley" in northwest Korea. No American losses were reported.

It was too early to assess the result of the armored raid in the Mundung valley on the fighting on "Heartbreak Ridge."

Latest reports said Communist grenades and small arms fire had stopped cold an assault by the 2nd Division's 23rd Regiment on a small ridge line west of the peak.

However, other 2nd Division infantrymen won two hills west of Mundung valley against only moderate opposition.

A tank-infantry force also struck up Satae valley east of "Heartbreak Ridge" and blasted Communist bunkers and fortified positions before returning to its lines.

The main armored raid jumped off under cover of an early morning fog.

A tank officer said the Reds broke and fled "in every direction" under withering fire from the tanks and supporting infantry. The 76-millimeter guns of the tanks also blasted mountain positions on either side of the valley.

A division briefing officer said Chinese troops also were observed fleeing one mountaintop position, but did not make it clear whether this was on "Heartbreak Ridge."

In an adjacent sector north northwest of Yangju, however, a battalion-sized Communist counter-attack forced United Nations troops to make a slight withdrawal.

An 8th Army battalion also reported a battalion-sized enemy counter-attack northwest of Yonchon on the western front, but said it was repulsed without loss of ground.

North northwest of Yonchon, the communists said, attacking UN forces made limited gains during the morning and counted 200 enemy killed in the vicinity of one hill.

On the central front, it said, a UN task force raided the area southeast of P'yongyang, at the apex of the old Communist "Iron Triangle."

The UN command also carried the war to the enemy in the air. B-29 Superfortresses blasted two airfields at P'yongyang, the North Korean capital, with 130,000 of high explosives. They ran into light enemy anti-aircraft fire.

Bail—

(In Washington, the Justice Department announced that Hall would be placed immediately in a federal correctional institution.)

However, deputy sheriff A. C. Canales said he had prepared a third-floor cell in the Webb County jail for Hall.

"As I understand it, he will spend the night there," Canales said. "Of course, the FBI hasn't definitely said that. They aren't talking to nobody."

He was right. Newsmen were not permitted near the Red leader.

"Get it from Washington," one FBI agent snapped in reply to a reporter's question. "They have all the details."

Extra precautions were taken to make sure there was no slipup while Hall was brought across the border.

Officers in cars and on foot patrolled the entire area of the bridge spanning the Rio Grande.

Hall, the fugitive secretary of the U. S. Communist Party who jumped bail with three other convicted Red leaders to escape prison terms, was in custody of two FBI men and Mexican Secret Service agents when he left Mexico City in a special car early yesterday.

The FBI gave curt "no comments" to all queries on Hall's movements. They refused to confirm he would arrive here.

All FBI offices in the state refused to discuss the case. U. S. Commissioner Frank Y. Hill said he was not notified of the impending arrival. Ordinarily, a fugitive must appear before the U. S. Commissioner at the point of entry.

"Nobody has told me anything about it," Hill said. "But in this case, I'm not sure they have to."

The Moscow-trained, 41-year-old Red, who once said he would take up arms against the U. S. if the time were ripe, was seized after he entered Mexico City late Monday night. In the car with him were two men and two women.

Hall was held in Immigration jail briefly, then shuttled into the official car for the run to the international border.

To forestall legal complications on Hall's return, Mexican officials ordered the husky Communist deported to the U. S. for being in a foreign country without immigration papers.

Hall was spotted by Mexican undercover agents stationed on the outskirts of the city as his car entered the capital Monday. He was trailed to an auto court where he was arrested at 11 p. m. on his 41st birthday.

The three other fugitive Communist leaders still are missing. Hall jumped $80,000 bail last July along with Gilbert Green, Henry Winston and Robert Thompson, following their conviction with seven other members of the U. S. Communist Party's Political Bureau.

U. S. Agents had been watching Mexico City as a possible hiding place for the fugitive party leaders, but until Hall's arrest no positive lead on the missing four had turned up.

There was a report that Thompson had been sighted in Minneapolis late last summer, but he had vanished before authorities could close in.

Hall, born Arvo Mike Halbert Oct. 8, 1910 at Virginia, Minn., went to Russia in 1931 and took a two-year course in Marxist dialectics and Communist tactics.

He was made district organizer of the young Communist League for Minnesota, Wisconsin and Northern Michigan after his return in 1933.

From there he moved to Ohio to do organizational work around Youngstown and later rose to state chairman of the Ohio Communist Party.

In November, 1950, he took over the job of trying to build up the circulation of the faltering Daily Worker—a job he held until he fled.

Hall had a police record of several arrests during his Communist career.

Girl Asks For $450,000 In Damage Suit

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 10 (UP)—An 18-year-old Stillwater girl asked damages of $450,000 from a Tennessee airline president and his son today on charges that the son broke into her apartment and beat her brutally with a pistol butt.

Named in the damage suits were William Stone Stewart, Oklahoma A & M college freshman, and his father, Sidney Stewart, president of the Chicago and Southern Airlines, Memphis, Tenn.

The suits were filed by Eula Mae Leach, secretary in the County Farm Agent's office here, who was severely beaten by a man she described as "tall and terrible looking."

Young Stewart, who is 21 and six feet, eight inches tall, has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon and breaking and entering. He was sent to Central State Hospital, Norman, last night for a 60-day mental examination before trial.

The suits ask $150,000 from young Stewart for personal injuries and another $150,000 for compensatory damages. A third suit asks $150,000 in compensatory damages from the boy's father.

Miss Leach was found in her bloodstained apartment by officers last Friday night after her screams and those of a roommate brought police.

A piece of the handle grip on the pistol used by the assailant was found in Miss Leach's room. Police said it matched the broken grip on one of a number of pistols found in Stewart's room, and that Stewart's fingerprints were found on the girl's window.

Payne County Attorney Max Sater said that young Stewart had been a patient several times in mental institutions.

Bucking the Line of Scrimmage—

... if we may borrow from football parlance, is the sort of exercise that toughens fibre and prepares the participant for heavy duty ahead. As in sports, so it is with those who attain success in life. The weak falter while the strong survive. Getting the job done is bucking the line, a sure demand of the public in business life. Some call it success, but we like to think of it as a lot of hard work. In a nutshell, that's it!
