Engineer Says No By-Pass Of Ranger Planned By Highway 80

The first of a series of group meetings of Ranger business men was held Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce, it being for the service station operators and a surprisingly large number were present.

B. A. Tunnell, chairman of the projects and planning committee opened the meeting with a few remarks explaining the purpose of the meetings and then introduced E. M. Pritchard, resident highway engineer, who explained the details of the highway program in prospect and then answered questions from members of the group regarding the program.

The meeting was then thrown open for a general discussion, conducted by J. E. Meroney and service station men regarding projects that would benefit them and particular stress was put on a program for the service station men and owners of other businesses on Highway 80 to improve the appearance of their business property, also signs at the entrance of town in both directions welcoming the traveling public to Ranger and inviting them to stop and have a check-up of their gas, oil and other needs.

Mr. Pritchard assured the group that so far as he knew, no by-pass of Ranger is contemplated by the highway department for years to come, but that a four-lane highway free the city limits of Eastland to the city limits of Ranger would probably be started next year.

This was the first small town that the caravan had visited and they were very highly impressed by the turnout.

Some of the performers and directors of the show said that as compared to towns of larger size the Ranger reception was one of the best they had received.

Ranger Economy Depends Largely On Oil Industry

The citizens of Ranger should stop and think of what oil means to us right here at home. Not on a national scale, but how does it effect my every day life, am I in any way dependent upon it for an existence.

Look at the operating oil industry and related concerns in the immediate area. The Premier Oil Company, The Service Pipe Line Lone Star Gas, Gulf Oil, Sinclair, Humble Oil and Refining Company, Magnolia, the numerous independent operators and companies, all of these companies contribute directly to the economy of Ranger.

In a majority of the cases the people here are working for them in the actual operation and maintenance, or supplying them and their workers with the necessities of life.

Having been the scene of the world's largest oil boom during the first World War, we right here at home should know and respect more than ever the part played by the oil industry in the community and national welfare.

Many products that we use from day to day in our routine life are either direct products from oil, or they come from energy supplied in the way of fuel for the production of these commodities.

Each time you get in your car to travel from one place or another you depend directly on the products of the oil industry. Gas cooks your food and heats your house, both are by-products of oil that has been undertaken by oil men to supply the nation and home and the armies abroad, you must think of oil's many uses.

Atomic Vacuum Cleaner Put On City Hall

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16 (UP)—An atomic vacuum cleaner has been set up at the Los Angeles City Hall to catch radioactive atomic dust thrown into the air by the forthcoming atomic war games at Frenchman's Flat, Nev.

The "atomic dust station" is one of 20 established throughout California to test the long-range effects of radiation from the Nevada tests.

The device is a vacuum engine attached to an eight-foot pipe with a nozzle on the end. Inside the nozzle are filters designed to capture dust in the air.

CHAMBERLAIN NO. 2 ALLMON COMPLETED; GOOD SHOWING

Jack Chamberlain's Allmon No. 2, located in the extreme northwest outskirts of Oiden, was completed last night. This well is being closely watched, for it gives promise of being something out of the ordinary.

Drilling ceased at the depth of 1,520 feet. The drilling crew knew several days ago that it was no ordinary test. At a depth of 1,480 feet they began preparing to bring in a real well, and they were not surprised when they penetrated a 30-foot strata of oil saturated sand.

Today, according to Mr. Chamberlain, a Schlumberger picture will be made and pipe will be set. Oil producing sand in this locality is seldom more than 15-feet,

Public Urged To Attend Joint Club Meet, Thurs.

Those in charge of the program for the joint meeting of the Lions, Rotary, senior and junior chambers of commerce, Thursday, Oct. 18, urge that every business man in Ranger attend the meeting and hear French Robinson, president of the West Central Oil and Gas Association give facts and figures regarding the efforts the oil fraternity is making to cope with the increased use of oil and its by-products, both by civilian and military consumption.

The meeting is in observance of Oil Progress Week and Mr. Robinson is an interesting speaker.

The meeting will be held at 12:00 o'clock at the Ghoson Coffee Shop, and the regular price for one dollar will be charged for the lunch of those who are not members of either organization.

Ladies are extended a cordial invitation by the civic organizations that are sponsoring the appearance of Mr. French here, as well as others who do not belong to any of the above organizations.

The plates will be one dollar each, and in order to know how many to guarantee the coffee shop they are asked to either phone or see Pat Thomas, Lions president, Lester Crossley, secretary, or call the cafe and make a reservation.

riots which began when a mob set fire to a British Services Post Exchange.

The spokesman said earlier when announcing the troops, action he had "no idea of the number of casualties, if any."

Egyptian police were standing by passively during the disorders he said.

Travelers from Ismailia said the situation was under control. In London a British way office spokesman said a British soldier had been stabbed in daylight yesterday in Ismailia. It was not known if the stabbing was fatal. The war office said it had no reports yet on British troops being in "action" there.

The spokesman said the British troops were members of the 1st Lancashire Fusiliers.

The Cairo newspaper Al Bahagh, organ of the governing Wafd party said the Ismailia rioters set fire to some British Army equipment. Trucks also were overturned and fired, it said.

An Egyptian army unit was sent to Ismailia to reinforce security forces, the newspaper said. The rioting followed the Egyptian parliament's approval last night of the government's plan to junk the 1936 Anglo-Egyptian treaty under which Britain keeps forces in the canal zone.

The parliament also approved government action to put the Sudan under the Egyptian crown of King Farouk. This would end an 1899 agreement under which Britain and Egypt shared in the administration of the Sudan.

Other developments in the hectic hours following last night's meeting of parliament included: 1. Some 70,000 Nationalists carried a police ban on demonstrations and a state of emergency to surge through downtown Cairo in anti-British demonstrations.

2. The newspaper Al Bahagh said the government had cut off communications between the British Embassy in Cairo and Alexandria and the British mid-eastern command posts at Fayid and Ismailia, both in the canal zone.

3. Other newspaper reports from the canal zone said Egyptian railway men, telegraph and telephone operators, and taxi drivers had begun a "voluntary" boycott of British troops there.

The demonstrators in Cairo pressed through the streets shouting: "Down with Britain! Long live Farouk! One Nile, one nation, one King!"

Cave-In Kills Two Lubbock Men

LUBBOCK, Oct. 16 (UP)—Cave-in of 10 foot deep ditch today killed two men and critically injured a third.

Monterez Hernandez, a 34 Mendeno Flores, employes of the Panhandle Construction Co., were buried under four feet of earth. A third workman, Lias Romo, was revived after being dug out of the clay and sand, but his condition was critical.

The men were in a crane digging a trench for a water line when the top edges crashed down. Thirty men with shovels rescued Romo within 35 minutes, but bodies of the others were not recovered for more than an hour.

Admiral Joy In Tokyo To Confer With Gen. Ridgway

TOKYO, Oct. 16 (UP)—Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy, head of the United Nations armistice team, flew here today for an urgent conference with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway on the deadlock preventing resumption of Korean truce talks.

The Communists came up with a new proposal at today's liaison meeting in Panmunjom, Korea, but it left the armistice talks as far from resumption as before.

The UN rejected a UN demand for a "cease-fire" in the conference neutral zone and proposed instead its "substantial enlargement," a UN command announcement said.

The proposal would increase to about 175 square miles the area in which incidents could occur. The liaison officers nevertheless will try again at 10 a.m. tomorrow

(8 p.m. today EST) to "reconcile the divergent views," the UN announcement said.

Joy and Maj. Gen. Laurence C. Craigie, another member of the truce delegation, gave up waiting for the armistice talks to begin and flew to Tokyo immediately after the liaison session ended.

They were closeted with Ridgway, Supreme UN Commander, in his downtown Tokyo headquarters for an hour. There was no indication how long they would remain in Tokyo.

Only a few hours earlier, Ridgway had told a press conference in Tokyo that: 1. Once the truce talks are resumed, the UN negotiators will insist upon the battleline as the basic cease-fire line in Korea no matter how far north the 8th Army has driven in the meantime. 2. The UN command never will yield to the Communist demand that the cease-fire line be along the 38th parallel, now far south of the battleline.

3. The UN plans to install searchlight and radio beacons at Panmunjom, site chosen for resumption of the cease-fire talks, and take other steps to prevent further violations of its neutral status.

4. The B-26 light bomber pilot who accidentally strafed the Kaesong neutral zone Sept. 10 has been given a reprimand.

5. The names of UN personnel involved in admitted violations of neutral zones will be withheld because the men were only "trying to do their best in the execution of their war duties."

6. The UN command will henceforth release more detailed information on the progress of the truce talks.

7. The UN command wants the neutral zones for the armistice talks to be as small as possible to lessen the chance of further violations.

Heart Disease Is Number One Child Killer

AUSTIN, Oct. 15 — Rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged ten to fourteen, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its cause and spread is not completely established. No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid fever, diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough has yet been developed, for its prevention and control. We do know, however, some of the danger signals and with the physician's accurate diagnosis some of the damaging results of the disease may be prevented.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, points out that in general the danger signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows or wrists. The pain is usually felt in one of these centers and spreads to the others. Often times a child will get irritable and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this attitude; he may cry easily or develop habits of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once in such a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

Exposure to frequent chilling, damp or overcrowded living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold or other infection caused by certain streptococcus germs are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever.

According to Dr. Cox the best safeguards against this disease are to have each child and adult examined at least once a year by a physician, to have the right kinds of foods for an adequate diet and to have plenty of rest, when the disease is suspected of being present, a doctor should be consulted at once.

Former Envoy Claims Britain Wrong On Oil

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (UP)—Henry F. Grady, recently-retired U.S. Ambassador to Iran, said today that Great Britain had made a "great mistake" in taking the Iranian oil controversy to the United Nations.

By appealing the oil nationalization issue to the UN, Grady said, the British have given Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadegh "the chance of a great forum to tell the world how this (Anglo-Iranian) oil company has oppressed the Iranian people, how western capitalism is tending to control and possibly destroy other countries in the undeveloped part of the world."

In a sharply critical attack on British strategy during the oil controversy, Grady claimed in a copyrighted interview with the weekly magazine, U. S. News & World Report, that the British should have continued to negotiate with Iran.

AUSTIN, Oct. 16 (UP)—Attorney General Price Daniel pre-

Daniel said he offered his assistance to Galveston County Attorney Raymond E. Magee in a suit seeking confiscation of 106 slot machines.

Justice of Peace James L. McKenna of Galveston ruled Oct. 8 that the 106 machines, from which payoff mechanisms had been removed, had not been proved to be gambling devices.

"Lady in White" Hunted In Baby Kidnap Case

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Oct. 16 (UP)—A mysterious "woman in white," said to have left St. Anthony's Hospital with a bundle in her arms at the time a five-day-old baby was kidnapped, was sought for questioning today.
 Machinist John Boehlein told police he saw a woman in a white uniform leave the hospital nursery about the time that tiny Lawrence Lyons was stolen from his crib there Saturday.
 Boehlein said the woman walked down the hospital corridor with her bundle clasped in her arms and descended in the front elevator.

Earlier it has been thought a link existed between the "woman in white" and a practical nurse who hurriedly left the city soon after the infant was discovered missing.

However, Det. Capt. Charles Hanke discounted any connection between the two, except that the disappearance of the practical nurse was a "possible lead."
 "It was just a case of a nurse leaving town," he said. "We ran a check on her and we found she was clear. Our notion that she was involved just didn't live up to expectations."

However, the Michigan City police were expected to ask the FBI in Milwaukee to check on the whereabouts of the practical nurse who told relatives here that she would be in the vicinity of the Wisconsin city.

Meanwhile, 2,000 volunteers resumed their block-by-block search of the city for the infant. Darkness halted the search last night after the residents had poked through trash cans, swarmed over vacant lots and inspected abandoned buildings.

Bandleaders Hat Insured For 50 Thousand Stolen

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 16 (UP)—Someone has stolen band-leader Ted Lewis' famous old top hat, police said today.

The battered trademark of the "is everybody happy" musician disappeared from Lewis' dressing room at a local supper club some time after the late Saturday night performance.

Detectives said a souvenir hunter probably took the hat. Lewis offered a $100 reward for return of the hat with "no questions asked."

The ancient topper is insured for $5,000.

U. S. SABREJETS DOWN NINE RED MIG'S IN RECORD RUN

8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS Korea, Oct. 15 (UP)—U. S. Sabrejets shot down a record nine Communist jet fighters and damaged five more in mass air battles which raged the length and breadth of "MIG Alley" in northwest Korea today.

Eight of the Soviet-built MIG-15 jets were destroyed in a single battle lasting only 15 minutes. It was the biggest one-day and one-battle bag of enemy planes in the history of jet air warfare.

No American losses were reported in the 175-plane battles.

On the ground, bayonet-wielding United Nations forces pushed within six miles of the big Communist base of Kumsong and hacked ed out limited gains in a new assault to the west.

Maj. Gen. Paik Sen Yuk, commander of the 1st South Korean Corps and a former member of the UN truce delegation, said the Chinese and North Korean armies have been so badly battered in recent weeks that they will have "to seek some sort of peace."

"We know the enemy has been badly hurt," Paik told UP War Correspondent Robert C. Miller at the eastern front. "We are taking more prisoners than we have in months and all of them are thoroughly demoralized and ready to quit."

There were two big air battles in "MIG Alley," which runs from Sinuiju on the Yalu River Manchurian frontier to Sinsaju, 75 miles to the southeast.

Twelve sabrejets escorting a photo-reconnaissance mission near Sinuiju ripped into an estimated 30 MIG jets in the morning battle.

One enemy jet was shot down by Col. Benjamin S. Preston of Hollywood, Calif., commander of the 4th Fighter Interceptor Group, and the rest fled across the border into Manchuria. All American jets returned safely to their base.

In the afternoon, 33 American Sabrejets accepted three-to-one odds and took on more than 100 Communist MIG-15s. They sent eight of the Communist sweepback wing jets crashing to earth and damaged five others. Twin UN ground offensives on the east-central and west-central fronts touched off some of the bitterest fighting since the fall of "Heartbreak Ridge" last week.

The Communist battled fiercely and launched several sharp counter-attacks to save their mountain defenses on the approaches to P'yongyang, the North Korean Capital, in the west, and the port of Wonsan in the east.

Authorities took a "boys-will-be-boys" attitude today toward a fraternity fracas at Emory University, where a moonlight serenading party ended in a police-defying battle of oranges and eggs.

"I guess every house on the row" was mixed up in it before it ended," said Dekalb County Police Capt. Johnny Johnson. But Johnson, Emory's long-time campus cop, said no one was injured, no damage was done, "and the boys were just having a little fun."

Before the fun was over, one university-owned patrol car was swiped and barricades were thrown up to block police reinforcements called to quell the "300 to 400" rampaging students.

Economist estimate there are 170 automobiles for every service station in the United States.

Star's Gowns in Twinkly Tradition

This is the wardrobe designed for actress Eleanor Parker by Don Loper for a personal appearance tour. Short evening gown (left) is gleaming gold sheath covered with cut-out gold-embroidered black velvet and topped with black velvet coat that has huge black fox cuffs. Costume for late-day (center) is raspberry red faille taffeta worn over pleated petticoat of moonstone blue. Cape-coat (right) in black-and-white wool is lined in red crepe to match slim sheath dress beneath.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—There are stars in Hollywood who always adhere to the rule that when a movie star goes on a personal appearance tour, she should look like a movie star. Actress Eleanor Parker is one of these. No mink coats flung over slacks for her, no unkempt hair, no loafers.

On tour in connection with her newest picture, "A Millionaire for Christy," Miss Parker wears the wardrobe designed for her by Don Loper. The fashions in it are clothes any woman would like to own and might like to copy, adapting them to her own way of life.

A favorite of Miss Parker's for evening wear is a short gown that's a gleaming gold sheath dramatized by cut-out gold-embroidered black velvet. Over this goes a black velvet coat, and the cuffs have huge circles of black fox trimmings.

Mrs. A. D. Wynn doesn't get to spend much time conversing with her husband, but they write each other and also exchange articles of interest that they find. Mrs. Wynn received an article today from Mr. Wynn, who is working in Louisiana, she said she got a kick out of the article and would like to pass it on to others, it read:

Lake Providence, La., Oct. 14 (Special) "An unidentified negro who apparently jumped the gun on the squirrel season was found dead today near the Old Floyd Settlement with a dead rattlesnake and nine dead squirrels beside him.

Clara Warren, East Carroll Parish jailer stated that J. J. Rody, a resident of the Corbin Serry neighborhood told the story to him. It was presumed that the negro had killed the snake after it had bit him and dying shortly thereafter.

The squirrel season opens tonight at midnight. The limit daily is restricted to eight. No other details of the incident could be obtained today."

Youth Program To Be Discussed

A very vital subject to the community will be discussed Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Club house.

The 1920 club will sponsor a program in the form of a Town Hall affair on youth conservation. This program is being held in order to find ways and means of doing more in this community for the young people and every citizen of Ranger should be interested in this most vital subject.

The people of this community will have to provide wholesome recreational facilities for the youth or they will find it other places that may not be what they should have.

G. B. Rush, Superintendent of the schools will be the forum moderator for the evening and various citizens selected from the town will join in the discussion with a period open for questions from the floor.

The public is invited to come and assist in this program and to get behind the youth program of the city.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16 (UP) — Bernhart Levysen, a 74-year-old Spanish-American War veteran from Arkansas who arrived here clad only in a pair of dirty overalls, gets his life savings of $8,800 back today.

Levysen told an almost incoherent story of losing $8,800 in bonds and $100 in cash when he turned up at a Traveler's Aid Station Oct. 2. The bonds, tucked into an unsealed envelope, were found yesterday by Albert Gillum of Brooklyn, Ill., in East St. Louis, Ill.

Levysen, a native of Van Buren Ark., has been staying at a shelter for homeless men.

King Thinks His Belly Dancer Can Win Mother Over

CAIRO, EGYPT, Oct. 16 (UP) —Sheppard W. Abdullah King III was certain today the "kind heart" of slow-eyed skinny dancer Samia Gamal will win over his wealthy mother.

King said he was "happy and extremely surprised" to hear his mother, Mrs. Boner King, of Houston, Tex., had changed her mind and would not disown him when he marries King Farouk's favorite belly dancer.

King, 26-year-old wealthy former Marine, said he had not expected his mother would "soften up" her attitude toward Samia, as reported by his 19-year-old sister Patricia.

When King announced his engagement to the Auburn haired dancer, whom he met in a Paris night club, early this month, his mother announced she was disowning him.

"Things seem brighter between my mother and us," King said today.

The Texan changed his name to Abdullah, which means "slave of Alla," and became a Moslem in order to marry the 27-year-old Egyptian known for her "Virgin of the Nile" dance.

"I know my mother can't help liking Samia when she meets her because she is so wonderful and has such a kind heart."

Samia said she was "very happy about the news because I want my fiance's mother to like me and I know I'll like her in turn."

Russia Voices Threat Against Norwegians

LONDON, Oct. 16 (UP) —Russia formally threatened reprisals today if Norway permits the North Atlantic Pact Organization to establish bases on Spitzbergen and Bear Islands.

The Soviets charged that Norway already has violated a nine-power treaty signed in Paris Feb. 9, 1920, by agreeing to place the two strategic Arctic islands within the "competence" of the commander of the western defense forces.

The Soviet warning was contained in a stiff note handed the Norwegian Ambassador in Moscow yesterday by Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky. A summary of the note was broadcast this morning by Radio Moscow.

It accused Norway of permitting Norwegian territory to be used for the preparation of war against the Soviet Union and also charged the Norwegians with carrying out a "vast" military program of their own.

The note berated Norway for joining the Atlantic Pact. It said that the Norwegians had assured Russia in a note on Feb. 15, 1929, that they never would concur in a policy aggressive to the Soviet Union and never would permit Norwegian territory to be used for such purposes.

The Soviets were particularly sharp in their references to the status of Spitzbergen, which lies midway between the north pole and the northern tip of Norway, and Bear Island, another 140 miles to the south.

The islands represent the last western islands on the arctic approaches to the Soviet Union. From Alaska to Spitzbergen it is only 2,000 miles across the polar region and from Spitzbergen to Leningrad, 1,500 miles.

The 1920 treaty prohibits use of the Spitzbergen group forever for war-like purposes and bans any fortifications or garrisoning. How-
