It is a mighty good practice to advertise in the newspapers for publicity purposes—but hard work and cooperation of all is necessary to bring a town and respect to the respec to bring a town and county to the attention of people in a state as big as Texas. Every city and county has its strong points, and Castro County and Dimmitt will come into its own some day with cooperation.

- Remember Pearl Harbor -

The need for a cheese plant may be created here by the farmers and business men as well. In other places the cheese plant has proven an asset to the farmers and business men alike. But the demand for the cheese plant must start at home. Uncle Sam is crying for increased production in dairy and poultry products, as well as beef steaks to feed the army. We can make money and do our country a great service by pitching in there and doing something about these

- Remember Pearl Harbor -

Why, even the Editor is going to have to buy more beef steaks-big T-Bones and thicks tender loins—since there is a big boy in his family. Man, you can be sure he is a boy just by looking at that hair and that little mug. In a few months he will make Stubb Jones' boy pictured in his Castro Drug ad this week look like a sissy!

- Remember Pearl Harbor -

This has really been Boy Week, besides being Boy Scout Week. There's the boy above mentioned, Boy Scout Program at High School and the Father and Son Banquet for boys. Just read the short story "Education for Death" in the February issue of Reader's Digest and you will want to fight for our boys and girls, and fight to liberate the boys and girls of Germany and other dictator countries. As Professor H. C. Pender says, the boy who is taught the state is of supreme importance above his parents and the church will have no respect for the latter two. Not so with the American boy! He enjoys the companionship of dad and mother and the rest of the family. He reveres the church and he respects the state. Dimmitt has had a good Boy Scout Week, and we are indeed glad the planners of the Father and Son Banouet did not limit invitations to Boy Scouts but included all boys.

"I noticed the sheep were disturbed about something the other day, and I went over to see what was the matter. As I came close to the sheep and a coyote ran out a ways and stopped. The "lone wolf" had killed a lamb.

"I had an idea about where he would stop, so got in the pickup and went to the house for a gun. My wife wanted to try her hand at getting the fellow, and came back to the pasture. We spotted him near where I figured he would

in the near future.

The Farm Security Administration has done much to further dairving in Castro County as many of their clients have purchased good bulls and good cows. This has come about chiefly due to the wowrk of L. A. Hudson, Castro County Farm Security supervisor, who knows that dairying will increase every farmer's income. At the present time, Farm Security cows, and 8 registered and wnurered bulls, making them have the majority of registered dairy cattle in the county. These farmers are doing much to help increase milk production, which is so badly needed for National Defense.

Farmers who own registered Jersey cowsw, registered or purebred bulls in Castro County, are Simpson, Frank Huseman, O. A. Woefle, W. C. Copeland, S. C. Webb, S. W. Liley. Harold Strickand. and B. J.
