PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 140

SEEN OR HEARD

The Ranger "Pups" play their last game of the season when they meet Cisco here tonight at 7:30.

That broken leg Charles Massege suffered in the Dublin game must be giving him a lot of pain.

The football team has the sun porch at the Ranger General Hospital pretty well snowed up this year.

Light Vote Is Expected For Five Amendments

AUSTIN, Nov. 13 (UP)—Mild temperatures, mixed with a few clouds and flying dust in West Texas, greeted voters today as they went to the polls to ballot on five proposed amendments as well as to select 11 state legislators.

But the favorable weather conditions did little to improve the outlook for a heavy vote and the prediction that only about 20 percent of the state's 1,500,000 eligible voters would actually cast a ballot still stood.

The five amendments to be voted upon were:

To raise the ceiling on public welfare grants from $35,000.00 to $42,000.00.

Raise the total amount of bonds that may be issued by the Veterans Land Board from $25,000,000 to $100,000,000 and make eligible for the program veterans of the Korean war as well as veterans of World War II.

Authorize a statewide system of retirement and disability pensions for county appointive officers and employes, not including elected officials.

Authorize a maximum tax rate of .50 cents on each $100 property valuation in rural fire prevention districts to enable such districts to pay for fire-fighting equipment and personnel.

Permit investments of the University of Texas permanent fund in securities other than U. S. government bonds and certain blue-chip municipal bonds.

The 11 legislative races were to pick successors to the following former House members: Paul Wilson of Geneva; M. B. Etheredge, Jr., of Huntsville; William A. Swindell of Commerce; Austin E. Westbrook of Gainesville; Jimmy Adams of Mexia; William R. Stump of Georgetown; Callan Graham of Junction; Earl Huddleston of Oglesby; Hiram Staton of Waco; Vernon McDaniel of Wichita Falls and John E. Morrison Jr., of Chillicothe.

Most of the opposition was against the Welfare Fund amendment. The opposition claimed it would permit the addition of "thousands of aliens" to the state's relief rolls, though Rep. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth, who sponsored the measure in the legislature, denied this.

Only mild opposition spoke out against the others, but historically a large majority of such amendments offered have been turned down by Texans.

Representative Jack Cox Will Speak At Chamber Commerce Meet

State Representative Jack Cox of Breckenridge will address those attending the Chamber of Commerce monthly membership meeting to be held Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 12 o'clock at the Ghoson Coffee Shop.

Cox's subject will be "Wanted—Ten Million Heroes." This talk has been demanded of Rep. Cox in all sections of the state because of his record for an incessant fight against government control and for individual enterprise, and will be both informative and interesting.

This will be the first of a series of monthly membership meetings after suspending them for the summer months, due to the hot weather. President Harris of the Chamber of Commerce urges each member to attend and hear this talk and also get some idea what your Chamber of Commerce is doing for Ranger.

The meeting will start promptly at 12 o'clock and will continue until 1 o'clock. Last year a series of these meetings were held each month and the interest continued to grow until they were suspended during the summer months. The attendance being from 40 to 75.

A charge of 50 cents will be made for the meal and each member is asked to pay for his own plate. Letters of invitation to members are being mailed with a self addressed postal card enclosed and each member is urged to mail this card as soon as it is received and make reservations.

Monday at noon the coffee shop will have to be notified how many to prepare for and for this reason your card should be mailed as soon as it is received.

Senator Charges News Blackout Unfair To Public

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (UP)—Rep. Edward H. Jensen charged today that President Truman's secrecy directive drew "an iron curtain over a large part of the federal government's operations."

The Illinois Republican, who is editor of the Paris (Ill.) Beacon-News, said that "the entire executive branch—has eagerly accepted Mr. Truman's directive as a signal to put up the bars on what the American people may be told about their own government."

"There is a special evil to the for official use only kind of censorship," Jensen said. "Such news suppression is based entirely on administrative whim, without even the most rudimentary safeguards to prevent its abuse."

Mr. Truman has denied that his order of Sept. 25 established government censorship. He said the directive would protect national security by extending to civilian agencies much the same restrictions on giving out information as are imposed by the military.

Detective Jailed

PENSACOLA, Fla., Nov. 13 (UP)—Private detective William Henry Moquin 40, was sentenced to nine months in prison yesterday for stealing three cigars from a blind man's stand in the post office here.

U. S. Delivers Stinging Rebuff To The Russians

PARIS, Nov. 13 (UP)—The United Nations delivered two stinging rebuffs to Russia today in key areas of the cold war—Germany and China.

First, the General Assembly voted 30 to 8 with 13 abstentions to debate Nationalist China's charge that the Kremlin is threatening China's independence.

Second, the assembly agreed by a vote of 47 to 6 with abstentions to discuss the establishment of a UN commission to determine the possibility of all-German elections to unify the split nation.

Russia fought bitterly against both moves.

On the German issue, which was the first step in the western big three's peace plan, Israel sided with the Soviets, but for different reasons. Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Sharet charged "the Nazi spirit has risen from the ashes of the Hitler regime" and any thought of German unification or rearmament.

UN Rejects Red Cease Fire Bid

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Nov. 13 (UP)—The United Nations rejected today a virtual Communist demand for an immediate cease-fire in Korea.

A UN communique said acceptance of the Red proposal at this point might delay if not forestall the release of thousands of Allied war prisoners in Communist hands.

The UN will not agree to end the shooting until the disposition of war prisoners and enforcement of the truce have been assured, a UN spokesman said.

The showdown came during a marathon five-hour meeting of the joint subcommittee seeking to trace a cease-fire line and buffer zone across Korea. The subcommittee will meet again at 11 a.m. tomorrow (9 p.m. today EST).

The UN communique said the Communists made it clear that ever before that they want a cease-fire to take effect as soon as the truce line has been agreed upon "rather than when other essential matters are settled and an armistice is signed."

"Today's stand by the Communists was virtually a renunciation of their previously stated position that hostilities should continue during the armistice talks," the communique said.

"They would thus obtain success from the UN military operations. Agreement on other agenda items, including the question of prisoners of war, which is viewed with extreme importance by the UN command, could be delayed thereby, if not forestalled."

The Communist proposal specifically called for the cease-fire line to be based on the present battleline, with each side withdrawing two kilometers (1 1/4 miles) to form a buffer zone.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuekols, the UN spokesman, said the Reds previously had tried to give the impression they were willing that the cease-fire line should move forward in accordance with the shifting battleline during the remainder of the truce talks.

But on Tuesday, he said, they "made no attempt to hide" their desire for an immediate de-facto cease-fire.

NEWS BRIEFS

By United Press

WASHINGTON — Senators complained today that too many generals, admirals and civilian employes are tending to make the defense effort "inefficient, wasteful and dangerous."

The senate preparedness subcommittee in its 33rd report on the mobilization program said there are almost as many generals, admirals and civilian defense employes in the capital now as there were on V-E day.

MILAN, Italy — Wind-driven rains which in the past week have caused 35 deaths and millions of dollars worth of damage began to subside today.

Floods and landslides were reported throughout northern Italy. Four persons were killed yesterday when an avalanche crashed across the International Railway Line between Domodossola and Varese.

Train Collision Kills 20; Injures 49 Others

SIX VICTIMS TRAPPED UNDER FIVE LAYERS OF WRECKAGE

By CLIFF A. MILLER United Press Staff Correspondent EVANSTON WYO., Nov. 13 (UP)—Railroad crews today worked to separate a pile of wreckage "five layers deep" to reach six bodies trapped in the remains of two Union Pacific steamers that crashed yesterday, killing 20 persons and injuring 49 others.

A giant railroad crane, bulldozers and tractors tugged and hauled the mound of ripped steel and snow-covered upshottery.

The pile of wreckage was moved clear of the three-way tracks. The eastbound line on which the crash occurred was cleared at 9:15 a.m. (MST) (5:15 a.m. EST).

Railroad officials said the bodies still in the wreckage were badly mangled. They were sighted near the center of the mound of debris.

"The wreckage is in layers," a worker said. "So far we've got down just two—there are three to go yet."

Lights were rigged at the wreck scene and snow—which caused the City of Los Angeles to slow down just before it was struck by its sister train the City of San Francisco—swept down from the surrounding hills.

The temperature was below zero. Meanwhile, authorities planned to question a badly injured fireman to learn the cause of the crash.

John Branettter, 38, Evanston, was the only survivor of the three men in the four-unit diesel engine of the City of San Francisco that plowed through the rear four cars of its sister east-bound train, the City of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles to Chicago train had halted briefly at the Wyuta siding, four miles west of Evanston, so its engineer could determine if a snow-covered signal indicated he should proceed.

The City of Los Angeles had just started up again when the City of San Francisco smashed through the silver-painted observation car, ripping it apart like a tin can, and telescoped on through three pullmans.

Witnesses said there were several moments of horror-filled silence before screams of the injured rose from the snow covered wreckage.

A woman who saw the scene described it as looking "like my boy's train when he goes to bed at night."

All the passengers who were killed were on the City of Los Angeles. So were most of the 49 who were injured, 10 seriously.

The Los Angeles rear brakeman, two porters and the observation car steward were killed.

Witnesses said that the fact the City of San Francisco was moving relatively slowly because of poor visibility prevented the casualty list from being much higher.

The trains smashed at 11:32 a. m. (MST) (2:32 p.m. EST) yesterday. They left their namesake cities on the west coast at 5 p.m. Sunday, carrying slightly more than 200 passengers— an extraordinarily light load. Normally, they run 10 minutes apart from Ogden, Utah, 70 miles west of Evanston, to their terminals in Chicago.

OPS Will Use The Singing Squibs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (UP)—The government is going in for singing squibs.

The Office of Price Stabilization revealed today that OPS officials in New York are lining up "name" talent to record squibs plugging price controls for use on radio and television station breaks.

In possible deference to listeners who don't like singing commercials, OPS said the idea would be tried out in the New York area before the squibs are aired nationwide.

Big Crowd Seen For Shrine Circus

FORT WORTH, Nov. 13—Advance ticket sales for the annual Shrine Circus, to show at Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum November 16-25, indicate the biggest attendance ever, Roscoe L. Carrnike, general chairman of the circus, said today.

"And that's the way it should be because this year's show will be the absolute best we have presented," Carrnike added.

There will be 10 night performances and six matinees. Cream of the circus crop, assembled by Shriners include:

The only woman in the world who walks a wire from the ground to the high wire will do so at the coliseum.

She is Josephine Beronini, and when she arrives at the high wire other feats are in store.

A Czech, Josephine is the fifth generation of a circus family. Not long ago she was in a family act, but disaster struck a brother. His fatal injuries on a high wire caused the act to disband. Josephine continued as a solo.

Stellar attractions are many. The Aerial Huetreus engage in the odd occupation of acrobatics atop a 132-foot pole that sways 80 feet or more.

The Great Barton, whose services could be put to good use in Washington, is a balancer. As a climax, he balances—on one finger—aboard a street light globe.

Animals will be all over the place, with perhaps the most stirring collection that of Prof. George Keller. Tigers, lions, leopards, jaguars, pumas and a rare black panther are put through their paces by the professor.

What's unusual about that? Quite a bit, for the professor does not use a gun, whip or chair as his less stalwart contemporaries do.

And to elch their claim to producing circuses of professional caliber, the Shriners cite you the fact that the Big Top—the Ringling Brothers Circus—studiously has avoided Fort Worth while pitching their tent in many other Texas cities. Could be, the Shriners say, that the Ringlings have heard of the 70,000 Texan who prefer the Shrine spectacle each year.

Brannan Warns Against Germ Warfare

BILOXI, MISS., Nov. 13 (UP)—Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan warned today that the nation's livestock and crops might be attacked by germ warfare in the event of war.

Brannan told the National Convention of Commissioners, Secretaries and directors of Agriculture here to be alert in detecting and reporting "unusual occurrences" of livestock and crop diseases and pests.

"We cannot afford to ignore the fact that our farms and ranches, are the source of so much that is vital to our existence, could be targets for attack by an enemy, either openly or through sabotage."

The first criminal case styled The State of Texas vs. Horace Walker, of Dallas, was called for trial in Breckenridge early yesterday, the jury was chosen and the taking of testimony began shortly after noon.

Walker is charged by indictment with embezzling funds from Eastland county. The case was transferred from Eastland to Stephens county.

He is being defended by the Law firm of Erwin and Erwin of Dallas, Jimmy Martin of Dallas, and Ben J. Dean Sr., of Breckenridge.

The prosecution is being led by Elzo Bean, district attorney of Eastland, assisted by Frank Sparks of Eastland and E. H.

RJC Homecoming Largest Held By Exes; Rangers Lose Game

The Ranger Junior College Homecoming Day held here Saturday turned out to be the largest ever held by the ex-students. The day got underway when the special train arrived here bearing the Arlington Football team, band, Sam Houston Rifles, and fans.

The parade started immediately upon the arrival of the group from Arlington on the train. The Arlington band left the train and formed ranks adjacent to the railroad station, where they swung into the strains of "Dixie," the Arlington Rebels school song.

The band was followed by the Sam Houston Rifles, a very well known precision drill team made up of ROTC students at the school.

Before the band and drill team could reach the Main Street the students had fallen in behind and staged a short pep rally as the band traveled to Main.

The visiting Arlington band led by the colors started the parade of bands, floats, and the drill team from the visiting school.

Eight high school bands and the two college bands, floats from the various organizations at the college, and most of the leading merchants and places of business of Ranger highlighted the very colorful parade.

Some sixty ex-students of the college registered at the Community Clubhouse for the banquet.

RJC Thanks To Ranger For The Homecoming

Just thanks, Ranger Junior College wishes to say thanks for Ranger's part in making the Homecoming a success.

You helped to do the job in a grand way.

The college wants to be a vital part of Ranger.

Thanks again, Dr. G. C. Boswell, President RJC.

Horace Walker Case Called For Trial; Witnesses Begin Testimony

Griffin, district attorney at Breckenridge.

Walker was originally hired as an attorney to collect delinquent taxes in Eastland county. It was while he was working here that the alleged shortages were discovered. Very recently he was arrested by Federal authorities on a charge of using the mails to defraud. Bond was made and he was released to appear for trial in Federal District Court in Abilene.

Many Eastland people are attending the trial, some as witnesses and others because of their interest in the case.

A night session was held Monday, and the further taking of testimony was resumed today.

Prison System Manager Gets Re-Appointed

HOUSTON, Nov. 13 (UP)—O. B. Ekins, General Manager of the Texas Prison System, was re-appointed yesterday to another 4-year term by the State Prison Board at a meeting here.

There was not a dissenting vote cast and B. A. Stufflebeme, Grand Prairie board member, apparently summed up the feeling of the seven members present when he said:

"Never has a man devoted himself more wholeheartedly to the task before him than has Mr. Ekins since he took over in January of 1948. He has had a large share in making the Texas Prison System one of the best in the country."

In another decision, the board voted to channel $58,500 of the record $104,154 prison rodeo income into prisoner recreation and entertainment and about $30,000 for expanding the rodeo arena.

A total income of $171,014 was realized from the four rodeos shows this year, with $66,860 going for expenses.

French Robertson, Abilene board member, asked that the $58,000 be spent the following way:

Ten movie units, barbershop and beauty shop training equipment, about $13,000; school equipment, $10,000; athletic equipment $10,000 and religious needs, $500.

Tenant Farmer Faces Assault Case For Look

YANCEYVILLE, N. C., Nov. 13 (UP)—A Negro tenant farmer faces trial here tomorrow on a charge that he assaulted a 17-year-old white girl with intent to commit rape by merely looking at her imperiously.

A grand jury indicted Mack Ingram, 44, yesterday on the charge, arising out of Willie Jean Boswell's accusation that Ingram started across a corn field "looking at me funny."

Superior court was to hear Ingram's appeal tomorrow on a recorder's court conviction of assault on a female. But Solicitor W. B. Horton said the trial would be on the more serious charge specified by the grand jury.

At the earlier trial, quickly dubbed the "assault at 75 feet case," the girl testified Ingram got out of his car and stared at her as he walked across the field. She said she fled and Ingram chased her until she was in sight of her father and brothers.

Horton explained that Ingram can be tried on the assault with

L. G. Bounds was named warden of the Clemens Prison Farm in Brazoria county, replacing I. K. Kelley, who resigned.

Dr. T. R. Marvins, Brownwood board member, said prison escapes were at an all-time low. Only 21 escapes, 11 of whom were trustees, had occurred through Nov. 1. This is down from 117 in 1947.

Schoolboy List Has Two New Members Today

DALLAS, Nov. 14 (UP)—Two newcomers were named to the top 10 class AAAA teams in Texas in the Dallas Morning News weekly poll today but Lubbock, for the second straight week, held the top spot.

Dallas Sunset and Waco were rated 9th and 10th respectively, the first time either was named to the elite group picked by 16 sports writers.

They replaced Texarkana which dropped out from eighth place last week after its 33 to 13 loss to Waco, and Amarillo which dropped from 10th place after losing to Pampa 26 to 14.

Fort Worth Arlington Heights gained, from 9th to 8th place in the ratings while Pampa dropped from 6th to 7th despite its victory over Amarillo.

Odessa and Fort Arthur both moved up one spot, to 5th and 6th respectively.

Selections, in order, were Lubbock, Houston (Lamar, Corpus Christi Ray, Baytown, Odessa, Port Arthur, Pampa, Fort Worth Arlington Heights, Dallas Sunset and Waco.

Egyptians March Through Streets Of Cairo Today

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 13 (UP)—Two hundred thousand Egyptians marched through the streets of Alexandria today in the largest demonstration in Egyptian history, protesting British occupation of the Suez Canal Zone.

The almost three-mile long procession snaked through the shuttered heavily-guarded streets of the Egyptian summer capital. The demonstration marked "national struggle day", anniversary of the 1919 revolution against the British.

(From Valletta Malta, it was reported units of the British Mediterranean fleet had been alerted for possible trouble during the day's demonstrations. Three squadrons of aircraft were loaded aboard the carrier Ocean to standby. The flagship cruiser Liverpool and the frigate Mermaid left Valletta harbor for an undisclosed destination.)

Police declared a state of emergency in Alexandria. All of the city's political, social, religious, commercial and industrial organizations were represented in the demonstration.

The demonstrators massed at Mir Station Square to start a five mile march to Raselin Palace, the Alexandria residence of King Farouk.

Special guards were placed around all foreign consulates. The city has a foreign population of about 250,000 mostly Greeks, Italians, British and French.

The demonstrators were ordered to disperse at the end of the march to avoid anti-British riots.

Prison Breaker Caught Despite His Boasting

LAREDO, Nov. 13 (UP)—An Omaha prison breaker, convicted of the kidnap-assault of a 14-year-old girl, was to face a judge here today for the second time since he boasted he never would be taken alive.

Federal officers indicated a hearing would be held for Raymond Clifford Ellis, 28, who escaped Oct. 11 from the Omaha, Neb., county jail while awaiting sentence.

FBI agents arrested Ellis yesterday as he started across the international bridge into Mexico. Special Agent F. H. McIntire, in charge of the FBI's South Texas District, said Ellis offered no resistance.

The convicted kidnaper had boasted before his arrest in Indianapolis last June on the assault charge that no jail in the country could hold him and that he would never be captured alive, McIntire said.

Ellis pleaded guilty to kidnaping the girl at Council Bluffs, Ia., last June 11. The girl said he took her to his trailer home near Omaha and raped her.

The FBI agent said Ellis escaped by sawing through bars on the jail's sixth floor and sliding down a rope to freedom.

Marines Land In Mock Fight

CAMP LEGEUNE, N. C., Nov. 13 (UP)— Waves of Marines slashed ashore at Onslow Beach today to grapple with "defensive" forces in the final phase of operation "Lantflex '52," largest Atlantic fleet maneuvers since World War II.

Warships, standing off the beach, blasted shore installations and carrier planes bombed and strafed the beach as the first wave of "attackers" splashed through the chilly surf at 9 a.m. (EST).

An armada of more than 200 ships carrying 18,000 men maneuvered into attack formation several miles off the beach. Officers called the formation "something entirely new, designed to minimize the affect of an atom bomb blast."

The landing climaxed Lantflex, which designates Atlantic Fleet Exercise, Fiscal, 1952. The maneuvers started in the Caribbean in the vicinity of Puerto Rico and moved up the Atlantic seaboard. The troops are members of the Second Marine Division.

Underwater demolition teams made up of the Navy's famed "Frogmen" paved the way for today's assault by destroying simulated beach obstacles set up by the "defenders."

Battle conditions were simulated as nearly as possible without actual shooting. Artillery and small arms blasted away with blank cartridges. Smoke bombs and amplified recordings of actual battlefield noises created a bone-shaking roar around invading landing craft.

More than 1,200 umpires stuck with both invading and defending forces to evaluate the Marines' readiness for combat.

Hunting Water, Finds Oil; He Is Disappointed

DURANGO, COLO., Nov. 13 (UP)—John Ashback was a little disappointed today—he drilled a water well recently and struck oil.

He'd rather have the water. "Oilmen have been out here all week, driving us crazy," Ashback said. The oil started bubbling out of the ground last week when the water well reached a depth of 375 feet.

Ashback was more excited a bout water than oil because the water flows 20 gallons a minute through an eight-foot bed of underground charcoal which filters it until it is 96 per cent pure.

Area Baptists To Hear F. Ivy Boggs At Cisco

The men of the Cisco Baptist association will have as their speaker Mr. F. Ivy Boggs, president of the Men's Brotherhood of the Baptist General convention of Texas, on November 13, at 8 p. m. in the First Baptist church in Cisco.

Mr. Boggs, an outstanding business man in Dallas, has made an enviable record as "an estate analyst," being recognized over the southland as an "expert." Mr. Boggs was recently elected for the second time as president of the state brotherhood movement. As a Christian, deacon, layman, he has no peer. He is a man who loves the Lord and all his work. In recent years Mr. Boggs has started a "Man and Boy Movement" wherein a man active in church work will enlist a boy who is out of church work and attempt to direct his path toward the church. This movement has spread across the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mr. J. Lloyd Clem, president of the Cisco Associational Brotherhood work urges all the men of the association to be present at this first meeting this year. He also urges that each church whether it has a brotherhood or not, bring their men to hear this outstanding speaker. It is not often, Mr. Clem states, that we can secure the president of the state work to visit our association and we should have a good representation from all the churches in this association.

What does oil mean to me?

The development and conservation of the oil resources of West Texas mean a lot to every American; but a lot more to you.

Yes, you.

To the average American, oil means gasoline for his car, power for his factory, strength in the sinews of national defense. It means all of that to you, too.

But it also means to you, and to everybody living and working in West Texas, some of the money you pay the grocer, the doctor, the landlord; some of the money to send your sons and daughters off to college; some of the money for your travel and vacations. It means school houses and highways, new businesses and civic improvements.

The value of crude oil produced in West Texas* in 1950 was approximately a billion dollars. This is productive money. It pays taxes, salaries and wages; it buys equipment and supplies; it goes to landowners as royalty and lease payments, to stockholders as dividends; a heavy percentage of it is reinvested in the further development of the region's petroleum resources.

Productive money. It means progress, not only for the oil industry, but for all of West Texas, including you!

* The shaded area is the region called West Texas by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Home Haircut Coming Again

DETROIT, Nov. 13 (UP)—The home haircut was on its way back in Detroit today.

Detroit department stores reported a rush for home haircutting equipment. The largest department store in the city said it had only two sets of clippers left while another store said it was sold out. A third store said the rush was the biggest it has ever seen for such items.

Behind the rush was an announcement by Detroit barbers two weeks ago that the price of a haircut probably would be raised 25 cents to $1.50 before Christmas.

All But Impossible to Believe!

It is very difficult to believe—but, each month, there are literally thousands of people who pay as much for their motor cars as it would cost them to buy Cadillacs . . . and, yet, they don't get Cadillacs.

As we said, this is very hard to believe—but the reasons for it make it more or less understandable.

In the first place, a great many people simply don't know what a Cadillac costs. They don't understand that the lowest-priced Cadillac actually costs less than certain models produced by numerous other manufacturers.

They only know that Cadillac is the world's most renowned motor car—and they assume, from this, that it must also be exclusively priced.

Too, some people get discouraged because they can't walk in and order a Cadillac and get immediate delivery—as they can with so many other makes of cars.

This, too, is largely due to a failure to get all the facts and think them through to the inevitable conclusion.

You have to wait a while for a Cadillac because so many people want one—and want it so badly that they are willing to wait for it. And that, in turn, is because Cadillac is recognized everywhere as the Standard of the World.

So if you want a Cadillac—and research indicates that a vast percentage of motorists do—come in and talk with us about it.

We'll give you the facts concerning comparative costs. And we will also talk frankly with you about delivery dates, so you may know what to anticipate.

You really owe it to yourself to do this. For, surely, you don't want to pay the price of a Cadillac—and still not get one!

If we already have your order for a Cadillac—stand firm in your conviction—for each day brings you closer to your heart's desire.

It is true, of course, that you can get quicker delivery on other makes of cars. But, in all the world, there is no other car like Cadillac.

So be patient—and you will have your reward!

U. S. Delivers—

ment was intolerable to his nation and the Jewish peoples of the world.

The proposal for a UN commission on Germany, is "morally unacceptable and legally unjustified," Sharrett said.

"To Israel and to Jews throughout the world, harried as we constantly are by poignant memories, anything tantamount to the readmission of Germany to the family of nations and any acceleration in the progress of such readmission cannot be in these circumstances but appear as a desecration of the memory of the martyrdom of my people," he added.

Sovjet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky assailed the three-power German proposal as a western plot to delay reunification. He declared that only the big four foreign ministers are competent to discuss any German problem.

By taking the German issue before the UN, the big three made the first step to implement the global defense plan described last week by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Russia opened up a blast of name-calling in its efforts to block the Nationalist Chinese item from the assembly's agenda. Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik shouted "slander," "Provocation" and "American aggression" in vain at the delegates.

He repeatedly accused the United States of aggressive aims in the Far East.

It is "the aggressive action of the United States in unleashing aggressive war against Korea" that has caused all the trouble in the Far East, Malik said.

Malik insisted that the Communist regime was the only government representing China. He spoke derisively of the nationalists as the "Kuomintang Clique."

"The Soviet Union has exposed the slanderous and provocative and bankrupt Kuomintang Clique which is doomed to failure," Malik said.

The vote marked another setback in Russia's efforts to seat Red China at the UN in place of the Nationalists. The Assembly's General (steering) committee voted last Saturday to defer the question of Chinese representation for this session.

Yesterday Nationalist delegate Tingfu F. Tsiang charged the Chinese Reds had "liquidated" 1,176,000 persons in the year ended Oct. 1, 1950.
