SEEN OR HEARD

Some three people in Ranger are going to have more money to spend for Christmas than they planned on.

The hard working three that take the three prizes in the CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN that will be undertaken on Monday will accomplish two things.

First they will get their property in a much more presentable condition second they will be given some of that filthy lucre for their hard work.

Virge Johnson said Mr. Paul Rogers, Principal of Hodges Oak Park, told him he wished he had known about this thing sooner. They hauled two truckloads away from the school the other day and Mrs. Rogers felt sure that would have won the prizes.

From all the talk going around by the people sponsoring Santa and his Reindeer in Ranger next Wednesday this must be the thrill of a lifetime of the children.

This is the first time real live reindeer have made their visit to Ranger other than when old Santa comes sneaking in on Christmas night.

Ripley's Believe It Or Not exhibit seemed to be drawing quite a crowd yesterday. The exhibit set there on Main Drag all day for the benefit of the people wishing to see what they had.

Virge Johnson said this morning that he guessed the ten dollars for the three prizes in the trash pickup Monday would come out of the Firemen's treasury as no one had made an offer to aid in paying off for the biggest bunch of trash.

That would be a very noble gesture for some one to make the firemen a donation of ten dollars in that they are giving their time for two days and their funds come only through donations.

Also, the cash on hand for the Volunteer Firemen right now is very short. In fact you might call it cash-on-finger if it is so meager.

Rabbit Shoots Man

BALTIMORE, Dec. 13 (UP)—When a man shoots a rabbit it isn't news.

But Julius Monroe got shot by a rabbit.

Monroe said he was awakened by a sharp pain in his hand. There was his pet rabbit peering at him over the sights of a .22 caliber rifle lying on a chair.

Monroe figured the curious cotontail hit the trigger when it hopped on the chair to investigate the rifle.

JUDGE CALLOWAY SPEAKER AT ROTARY MEETING WEDNESDAY

Judge J. J. Calloway of Cisco made a very stirring speech of the responsibility of the individual citizen at the Wednesday meeting of the Rotary club.

He also stated that through cooperation with one another that Ranger, Eastland and Cisco could alleviate the critical water supply and give new life to these three towns.

Judge Calloway also mentioned the part Rotary was playing. At the present the different Rotary clubs are bringing in speakers

222 Texans Will Die During The Christmas Period

AUSTIN, Dec. 13—Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today released the prediction of his Statistical Division for the number of violent deaths which will occur in Texas during the eleven-day Christmas holiday season this year.

According to Garrison, N. K. Woerner, Chief of the Department's Statistical Division, estimates that 222 persons will meet violent deaths during the period. Of these, 115 will die in Texas traffic accidents, 42 will be suicide or homicide victims and another 65 lives will be claimed by miscellaneous accidents such as fires, drowning, etc. Director Garrison pointed out that Mr. Woerner's predictions for holiday periods and even for complete years have been consistently accurate in the past. He appeals to all citizens to furnish the utmost cooperation to the members of the Texas Highway Patrol and to their local police this year in an endeavor to prove the experts wrong.

"This," says Garrison, "can be accomplished by a strict observance of the traffic laws and by the exercise of the utmost caution with fires, firearms, and boating excursions."

Clayton Rand Says

Dr. George W. Calver, 64, attending physician at the nation's capital, who has doctored congressional ailments for 23 years, appeals to us to give our 96 senators and 435 representatives a much-needed rest. After the 10-month stint of "stress and strain" he thinks Congressmen made a mistake to go home where they are pestered.

Congressmen get little sympathy. Oklahoma's Governor Murray, son of former Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, took a friendly crack at Congressmen in his speech before the Southern Governors' Conference at Hot Springs. Talking on the need for public economy, he showed how Oklahoma's spending budget had increased from $72 million in 1921 to $286 million in 1951. During this period, he said, Oklahoma had lost "enough population to lose three Congressmen." "The loss of the Congressmen," he observed, "is the only economy we have effected in the whole period."

I found economy-minded Congressman Ken Regan of Midland, Tex., a little tongue-tied in a speech before the American Institute of Mining Engineers at El Paso. He'd sent his pants out to be pressed just before his speech, omitting to remove his wallet. It isn't easy to connect one's thoughts when one has just been separated from $600.

However, if more Congressmen were relieved of their wallets more often, they'd realize how the rest of us feel, whose pockets are picked every day by the federal government.

from clubs of other towns for their program each Wednesday. He said that through the friendliness and spirit of cooperation gained through Rotary work more accomplishments could be made between the two towns.

The Rotarians had some very distinguished guests visiting with them yesterday, among them were Congressman Omar Burleson, Billy Butler of Eastland, Earl Dickson of Van Horn, and O. D. Dillingham of Abilene.

Plans were also made at the meeting for a ladies night to be held at the Community Clubhouse on December 20.

SANTA BUSY FILLING ORDERS

You Are Invited To Make Ranger Your Shopping Headquarters For Christmas

Ranger is sure taking on that holiday look as more and more of the stores complete their Yule decorating. Another factor making it seem like Christmas this early in December are the crowds that are coming to Ranger on Friday and Saturday to take advantage of the money saving bargain days that the Ranger merchants are sponsoring this year.

All the members of the Retail Merchants Association held a meeting sometime back and agreed to have their big bargain Christmas shopping days on Friday and Saturday the three weeks ends prior to Christmas. That means this will be the second of these bargain days leaving only one more before that last minute rush a few days before Christmas.

There was some worry that there might be a shortage of desirable gifts at the latter part of the shopping season this Christmas. The Ranger merchants after being contacted stated they are well stocked to fill the needs of any member of the family this year for Christmas.

If you haven't been to town you should come in and see what they have in their stores for you this year. A very cordial invitation has been extended to everyone to come and visit with the Ranger Merchants by the Retail Merchant Association who has been responsible for all the pre-Christmas festivity.

The Christmas lights are up in town and Santa Claus is bringing four of his live reindeer here Wednesday, December 19 for the children. The RMA is sponsoring Santa and the Christmas program again this year as they have done in years past. It seems that Santa will have candy for the kids when he and his reindeer get here next Wednesday. The merry man with the white whiskers will also stop and talk with the kiddies on their big day.

A majority of the businesses here in Ranger feature lay-away or credit plans to ease the financial burden of Christmas season buying.

Taking all into consideration, costs, service, and complete lines of any commodity you will find shopping in Ranger second to none.

Revis Services Held Today At First Christian

Services for James Daniel Rev. 78, were held at the First Christian church this afternoon at 2:30, with the Rev. A. Lynn Robbins officiating.

Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Palbearers were Ott Roacher, Love Wallace, J. A. Seay, Roy McCleskey, Dick Jones and C. O. Stevens.

Choraleers to Present Program

The high school choraleers will present their Christmas Cantata, "The Christmas Song of the Ages" Monday evening, December 17, at 7:30 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

Mrs. C. C. Harris is the director and they extend an invitation to the public to attend.

HELP NEEDED: Chest Drive Is Short Of Goal

The Ranger Community Chest Drive is slowly climbing to the top of the pole as week after week goes by.

There is $4791.51 in cash on deposit, and $1077 still out in pledges, making a total of $5,868.51 gathered by the Community Chest.

Mrs. Morris, the chest secretary, said this morning that there are a number of firms and individuals that have not turned in their cards and money. And if everyone would get down to work the drive could be completed quickly.

In the event the drive falls short of the $6500 goal set for the seven member agencies, their budget will be reduced on a percentage basis.

Several Ranger firms and businesses have given one hundred per cent to the drive, they are: Ranger Junior College, Commercial State Bank, Art's Tool and Supply Company, Ranger Clinic, Lone Star Producing Company, the Warehouse, Office, and engineering departments of the Lone Star, Anderson Chevrolet, West Texas hospital, and the L. E. Gray Barber Shop.

Donors may call Charlie Joe Owen, president of the chest, at the Owen Implement Company, and give him your pledge or contribution.

Nephew Of Mrs. Singleton Has Operation

Mrs. D. C. Singleton on Spring Road received word this morning that her nephew, David Gray, had undergone surgery for the second time and was resting well.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gray, Winters, age 10, was accidentally shot when removing his .22 rifle from the tractor November 16, and seriously wounded him.

He was placed in the Hendrick Memorial hospital at Abilene where he underwent surgery and then a week later was removed to John Sealy hospital at Galveston where he underwent surgery again yesterday.

Volunteer Fire Chief Virge Johnson has been tearing around like mad trying to get YOUR town cleaned up.

He has been speaking to schools, getting trucks and men from Ranger firms to haul the trash, and getting his team captains ready to start things moving Monday.

This project deserves all the help the citizens of Ranger can possibly give. Some people may feel that their lot is clean, why should I have to work for someone else who is too lazy to do his own job?

You won't be working for the other guy, you will be working for yourself and the community. If polo hits here it won't stop just at the places where there are high weeds and trash lying around.

Disase is one of the most democratic things in the world, it makes no division, everyone gets their share.

Saturday the Volunteer Firemen are going to burn off the high weeds and trash in the two streams running through Ranger. The county is bringing a bulldozer over to level the stream off to get rid of the standing pools of water that remain after rains. Then the streams will be sprayed with DDT

Yesterday's Kill Sets New Record For One Day

By WARREN P. FRANKLIN United Press Staff Correspondent 8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, Dec. 13 (UP)—American Sabrejets destroyed a record-breaking 13 Russian-built Mig-15 jet fighter planes today in blazing air battles over northwest Korea.

Two more Migs were probably destroyed and one damaged in the "Mig Alley" dogfights. American losses, if any, were not given.

Never before in the history of combat solely between jet planes has one side lost so many aircraft in a single day. However, U. S. B-29 Superfortresses and escorting American jets together shot down 14 Migs last April 12.

United Nations troops and tanks also took the offensive on the ground. They staged two major raids deep into no-man's land on the western and west-central fronts and killed scores of enemy troops before returning to their own lines.

The twin raids were the largest scale allied attacks since the 8th Army issued its famed "no aggression" directive two weeks ago. Despite the raids, the 8th Army insisted there had been no change in the directive.

The first of the day's air battles saw 36 Sabrejets pitted against an estimated 100 sleek Communist Mig-15s in a 20 minute dogfight just south of Sinanju.

Four enemy jets were sent crashing to earth in that battle—two of them before the guns of Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., of Lubbock, Tex., who thereby raised his Korean war tally to seven Migs and three enemy bombers destroyed.

One Mig was damaged in the dogfight.

On the ground tank-supported infantrymen with fixed bayonets made their second big offensive raid into no man's land in 24 hours.

This time the armored task force stabbed 2,000 yards—more than a mile—in front of the UN west central front in an attempt to encircle and trap an enemy outpost on a peak.

The Reds fell back to their main line of resistance, however, before the raiders closed their ring about the peak. The Communists called in artillery and mortar fire on the UN force and it returned to the Allied line.

HELP NEEDED FOR CLEAN-UP

Volunteer Fire Chief Virge Johnson has been tearing around like mad trying to get YOUR town cleaned up.

He has been speaking to schools, getting trucks and men from Ranger firms to haul the trash, and getting his team captains ready to start things moving Monday.

This project deserves all the help the citizens of Ranger can possibly give. Some people may feel that their lot is clean, why should I have to work for someone else who is too lazy to do his own job?

Saturday the Volunteer Firemen are going to burn off the high weeds and trash in the two streams running through Ranger. The county is bringing a bulldozer over to level the stream off to get rid of the standing pools of water that remain after rains. Then the streams will be sprayed with DDT to kill all remaining traces of contamination.

Are you going to stay at home and listen to the radio and let someone else protect your community from disease and infection?

These Ranger firms have shown their intentions by offering men and equipment to help: the schools said they would cooperate, the Lone Star will have a truck and some men here, Art's Tool and Supply Company will furnish a truck and a man, Rattliff's Feed Store will also have a truck and a man, the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company will have a truck and a man, the Southern Ice Company will send one of their trucks and a driver and the Ranger Peanut Co. will send 3 trucks and 3 drivers.

If you will give your time or your equipment to this community effort, call the Fire Station at 324, or the Ranger Daily Times at 26, and let us know what to expect in the way of men and equipment for Monday.

Tallulah Bankhead Awaits Call In Maid's Trial

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (UP)—Actress Tallulah Bankhead fumed and fussed in the wings today waiting for her on-stage cue in the trail of the former maid who has accused her of spending heavily for sex, champagne, cocaine and marijuana.

Miss Bankhead's big entrance was to have been yesterday, when she was scheduled to take the stand and deny the charges. But the star was kept off the stage by a man she refers to freely as "what a ham."

That man was State Senator Fred G. Moritt, attorney for the "forgotten woman" in the case—the defendant. Moritt's client is Mrs. Evelyn Cronin. She, not Miss Bankhead, is on trial—charged in a 32-count indictment with stealing $4,284.60 from the actress during 18 months as her personal maid and secretary by raising the amounts on incidental-expense checks signed by Tallulah.

Moritt spent the entire court session yesterday cross examining Benjamin Nadel, an accountant who for 10 years has prepared Miss Bankhead's income tax returns. Moritt, who contends that the 59-year-old defendant's check kiting was done at the direction and order of Miss Bankhead, brought out from the accountant Nadel that his firm received the figures added to some checks, raising the amounts, were in an ink color different from the original figures, Nadel's firm had not questioned them.

When asked whether his books listed "items given to William Langford," Nadel said he had a "recollection of a savings bank account in his name in which deposits were made for him." Langford, an actor who is tall, dark and handsome, had a part in the Bankhead starring play "Private Lives." He sat with Tallulah in court during the first two trial days but did not appear yesterday.

Soaking Rain Needed by Texas

AUSTIN, Dec. 12 (UP)—Light rains and drizzles over most of Texas during the last three weeks have provided temporary surface moisture, but soaking rains are still needed, the U. S. Department of agriculture reported today.

that scattered rains over the eastern third of the state have allowed small grains and winter legumes to make fair to good development, while snow which covered much of the northern high plains last week will enable the wheat crop to "continue to hold its own."

In South Texas, early-planted flax was generally up to a good stand, and conditions were favorable for a continuation of planting in that area.

Strong winds and dust delayed the cotton harvest in the southern high plains.

Commercial vegetables, the USDA said, made "exceptionally good progress" during the week ending Dec. 10.

However, dry range and pasture feed supplies continued to be steadily consumed and supplemental feeding of cottonseed cake, range cubes and roughage was necessary over most of Texas. In the northern high plains, snow covered wheat pasture and most of the stock on these fields was shifted to dry bundle feed for a few days. Chilling winds for the weekend caused further shrinkage, the USDA reported, of all unprotected livestock.

SPORTS EVENTS

First Round Of RJC Basketball Tournament To Open Tomorrow

Friday afternoon the Ranger Junior College Invitational Basketball tournament opens in Ranger.

On the scheduled for the two day affair of the eight teams, are four RJC's Pioneer Conference opponents and four other schools usually having top basketball teams.

The first game Friday afternoon will feature Deatur Baptist College and Tarleton State College. This game starts at two o'clock followed by one at three-thirty between the Freshmen of Abilene Christian College and Arlington State College.

That evening Ranger Junior College will meet the Cosco Wranglers in their tournament opener at 7:30. Next will be San Angelo and Howard County at 9:00. That will round out the first day of activity for the tournament.

Arlington, Tarleton, San Angelo, and Ranger are the four Pioneer Conference teams that are entered in the meet.

Ranger has played two games this year, both of them against teams that are entered in the tournament the Rangers lost to Howard County, but then came right back and defeated the Cosco Junior College Wranglers after trailing them by twelve points at the half.

Tournament tickets are on sale now that permit you to see all or part of the game at a reduced price.

Tickets can be purchased at Swaney's or Crawford's Drug Stores or the Paramount Hotel in Ranger.

RHS Cagers Go To Dublin For Tournament

The Beauties and the Bulldogs journey to Dublin this afternoon where they will come up against some top basketball teams in the tournament there.

The two teams have taken all their games thus far this year against much weaker opponents than they will find in the Dublin meet.

Coach Sam Aills had the team going full blast yesterday afternoon in preparation for the tough games coming up. A long hard scrimmage, with Aills driving them all the way, was in session at the gym during the daily workout.

The boys play their first game against Comanche at 6:30 this evening and the Beauties open against Grandbury.

Lubbock Major Becomes Top U. S. Jet Ace

5th AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Dec. 13 (UP) — Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., shot down two more Communist MIG-15 fighters today to become the world's leading jet ace with 10 enemy planes to his credit.

The F-86 Sabrejet pilot from Lubbock, Tex., has been credited with the destruction of seven Russian-built MIG-15 jets and three TU-2 Tupolov twin-engine propeller-driven bombers. In addition, he has one MIG "probably destroyed"

RFC Reenters Scandal Show

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (UP) —An Alabama lumberman, arrested by the FBI, had a contract to cut timber from the land of Rep. W. Boykin when the Alabama Democrat helped him get a $455,758 "bail out" loan from the RFC.

This is revealed in information locked in the files of the Senate's Permanent Investigating committee which is looking into operations of Stutta Lumber Industries, Inc., Thomasville, Ala. Investigators also have other evidence showing Boykin's interest in the loan.

Boykin admitted in Mobile, Ala., last night that he helped lumberman W. P. Stutta get the loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corp. in 1949, but said the case was as "clean as a hound's tooth."

Stutta and two bank officials were arrested yesterday by the FBI at Thomasville, Ala., in connection with an $800,000 bank overdraft which the FBI said was used largely to finance the company's operations.

Arrested with Stutta were J. Moody Drinkard, president of the Thomasville Bank and Trust Co., and his cashier, Mrs. Myrtle N. McCrory, a stylish widow.

Although Boykin has no known connection with the bank, both it and the lumber firm are in his southern Alabama district.

The Stutta firm got a $455,758 RFC loan on July 16, 1949, only three days after its application was received in Washington, RFC records disclosed.

The investigators have been told that Boykin was "highly inboard to approve the loan to Stutta" in urging the RFC

PROBES G.I. LOANS — Rep. Olin Teague (D., Tex.), above, heads a House committee looking into alleged irregularities in G.I. housing loans in the San Diego, Calif. area. Some 40 Veterans Administration officials, contractors and officers of lending and mortgage concerns have been subpoenaed to appear at the hearings in San Diego.

At the time, large land holdings of Boykin and his family were under contract to the company, which was paying for timber it cut.

RFC records show, it was learned, that $200,000 of the original $455,758 loan was used almost immediately to cover overdrafts which the Stutta company had piled up with the Thomasville bank.

House Tax Investigators Still Busy On $500,000 Shakedown

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (UP)—House tax investigators hoped to learn today why Charles Oliphant, resigned chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Bureau, took special interest in Abraham Teitelbaum's tax troubles.

Oliphant was scheduled to testify after the House Ways and Means subcommittee investigating tax scandals finishes questioning Bert K. Naster, Hollywood, Fla., businessman (beginning at 10:30 a.m. EST). Teitelbaum, attorney for the late Al Capone, has accused Naster and gambler-promoter Frank Nathan of attempting a $500,000 shakedown to fix his tax case.

Naster denied under oath yesterday that he ever had suggested that Teitelbaum pay him any money. Nathan, influential peddling friend of ousted assistant Attorney General T. Lamar Caudle, also has denied Teitelbaum's accusation under oath.

Meantime, Attorney General J. Howard McGrath revealed that former Attorney General Tom C. Clark, now a U. S. Supreme Court Justice, apparently recommended Caudle for the Justice Department post without waiting for Caudle to reply to charges of irregularities.

McGrath, whose immediate resignation was demanded yesterday by Rep. John W. Byrnes (R. Wis.), a subcommittee member, said that police chief Frank N. Littlejohn of Charlotte, N. C., accused Caudle in 1945 of "irregularities" in handling alleged price ceiling violations by Carl W. Davis and Keith, Beaty, both of Charlotte, while Caudle was U. S. Attorney for the western district of North Carolina.

Beaty is a long-time friend of Caudle, who told the subcommittee that he accepted airplane rides and bought cars at a discount from him while Beaty was under investigation for tax fraud.

McGrath said Clark told Caudle of Littlejohn's accusation, and that Caudle replied with a 27-page memorandum dated July 30, 1945. McGrath said Clark recommended Caudle for assistant attorney general when he (Clark) became attorney general July 6, 1945, indicating that Clark did not wait for Caudle's reply to Littlejohn's charges.

McGrath said he made this information public in line with his promise to the subcommittee to reveal "complete information" about previous testimony that Caudle's Justice Department file contained certain "derogatory" data.

Juvenile Court Judge James H. Montgomery of Richmond, Va., a former FBI agent at Charlotte, said an FBI report of Caudle's questionable activities had been forwarded to Clark before Caudle's nomination was approved.

Clark was not available for comment.

Texas Oilman To Build Hotel

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, Dec. 12 (UP)—Texas industrialist Glenn McCarthy has given Guatemalan capitalists 60 days to subscribe to 49 per cent of the stock in a $6,000,000 hotel he will build here.

McCarthy said yesterday he had received permission from President Jacobo Arbenz to build the resort hotel, the first in a proposed chain of hotel in Guatemalan tourist centers.

The Texan said the hotel would be built on the site of the San Jose Army Barracks, which was destroyed during the revolution of Oct. 20, 1944. It will have 250 rooms, a swimming pool, a garden and other modern facilities, McCarthy said.

Grigsby caught the big fish and became so excited that he wrapped it in wet rags to keep it alive. He then drove 36 miles home in his pickup truck and invited neighbors out to view his catch. McCarthy confirmed that Frank

Shelly Winters Changes Mind

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 13 (UP)—Shapely Shelly Winters said today she has returned the "friendship" ring actor Farley Granger gave her because the top man of her life now is Italian actor Vittorio Gassman.

The blonde actress insisted Granger's ring was merely a token of "friendship" but she "gave it back anyway" because she did not want to complicate her romance with Gassman.

House Group May Investigate Cotton Report

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (UP) — Chairman Harold D. Cooley said today that the House Agriculture Committee may look into the Agriculture Department's 2,000,000-bale "error" in estimating the 1951 cotton crop.

The North Carolina Democrat told the United Press in a letter from his home in Nashville, N. C., that he will discuss the crop estimates with committee members

"immediately upon my return to Washington when Congress convenes."
"The fact that such a large error was made by the crop reporting board may make it necessary to schedule committee meetings to the end that proper action may be taken to avoid such errors in the future," he said.

Cooley wrote in answer to questions about Rep. Thomas G. Abernethy's demands for a Congressional investigation into the reporting board's methods of gathering crop statistics. The Mississippi Democrat, also a member of the Agriculture Committee, has charged that "unreasonable" government miscalculations caused cotton farmers to lose millions of dollars.

The government estimates of this year's crop have fallen from early expectations of nearly 17,000,000 bales to a final December estimate of 15,290,000 bales. The November crop report showed a 1,160,000 bale decline, the biggest recorded in a one-month period in history. Immediately after the report, cotton prices on New York markets shot up to the $10 limit permitted in one day's trading.

Spokesman for the reporting board said this year's cotton crop was hit unusually hard by bad weather. They also claimed the reports were as accurate as possible within the limitations of funds and personnel. Law requires that the department issue monthly reports.

Messiah To Be Presented Sunday And Monday In Three Towns

THE MESSIAH, composed by G. F. Handel will be presented this weekend in Breckenridge, Eastland and Ranger under the sponsorship of the Department of Fine Arts of Ranger Junior College. Co-sponsors are The Ministerial Association of Breckenridge, Eastland and the Methodist church of Ranger.

Singers from all the churches in Breckenridge, representatives of all churches of Eastland, the Choir of the First Methodist of Ranger, and the Chorus of Ranger Junior College will sing the Choral parts.

Mr. Charles Kiker, head of the organ and the piano departments of Ranger Junior College, will conduct the MESSIAH. The organist who will accompany is Mr. D. Edwin Young, head of the Department of Fine Arts, Hardin-Simmons University.

Soloists include Olive Halbach, Abbott, Soprano, Newman, Oklahoma. Mrs. Abbott was formerly a soloist with the Starlight Operetta and has appeared on TV and radio programs originating in Dallas and Wichita Falls. Mrs. Virgil Ransdell, Breckenridge, will sing the Aria—HE SHALL TEED HIS FLOCK. Tenor soloist are Pat McAllen and Jack Mc-Clure, both of Breckenridge. Also from Breckenridge are Mrs. Mont Rina, Contralto, and Lambeth Cribb, baritone. Mrs. Virgil Seabury, Jr., Contralto of Eastland and Kenneth Wright of Ranger Junior College, complete the list of soloists. Miss Peggy J. Patterson, head of the Theory Dept. of Ranger Junior College will play the piano accompaniment to the chorus numbers.

The final rehearsal will be Friday evening in the First Baptist church in Breckenridge. The performance will be sung Sunday afternoon in Breckenridge at the Baptist church at 3:00 p.m., Sunday evening in the Ranger Methodist Church at 8:00 p.m., and Monday evening in Eastland Methodist church at 8:00 p.m. The public is cordially invited to hear this presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Huffman who reside at the Lone Star Plant received word that their granddaughter, Judy Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Bartlesville, Oklahoma underwent surgery Thursday morning at 8:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffman did not get to be there but will go later.

Bill Bullock To Attend S. S. Clinic January 2 In Miami

Mr. Bill Bullock, Educational Director of the First Baptist church will leave Jan. 2 for Miami, Florida where he will attend a south-wide Baptist Sunday School Clinic. The Clinic will begin Jan. 5th and continue through the 15th. Some of the South's most outstanding religious educators will be present to conduct the clinic which will be carried on in three phases. In the morning Mr. Bullock will attend classes conducted by these educators from Southwestern Theological Seminary and Southern Theological Seminary. In the afternoon he will work in one of the local Baptist churches in Miami, then in the evening he will teach a Sunday School Study course book.

Bill Bullock

Mr. Bullock has been with the First Baptist Church of this city since the 25th of July accepting the position here after serving some time in evangelistic work. Prior to this he was Educational and Music Director at the Church of the First Baptist in Fort Worth.

The nature of the Clinic in Miami made it necessary that the personnel involved be limited in number, therefore only 500 persons were selected from the entire Southern Baptist Convention area to participate in the clinic. Mr. Bullock is one of 300 Educational Directors to be chosen as Clinicians who will work in the Clinic.

Party Postponed Until Friday, 22

The Christmas party for the Primary Department of the First Baptist Church has been postponed until Friday week, December 21.

All members and workers are asked to take note of this change.

Intermediate Department Honored With A Christmas Party Tuesday

The Intermediate Department of the First Baptist church was entertained Tuesday evening with the group singing Christmas carols lead by Lee Russell and accompanied by Peggy Russell.

Each of the eight classes presented a stunt which afforded a variety of entertainment. Some of the stunts were a tight rope walker, bubble gum chewing contest with the teachers and students competing with each other, and Miss Anise Locke was presented by the departmental officers in an original skit when she demonstrated on the piano how the person played that only knew one piece and did not want people to know that she could not play any other.

A variety of games were entered into and enjoyed by the entire group.

The hall was beautifully decorated with a Christmas tree and other Yuletide decorations by Diana Pumley and her committee.

After the fun of the evening, Rev. Ralph Perkins lead in a devotional period and Bill Bullock rendered the number, "Dreaming of a White Christmas" with the group joining in on the chorus.

Lee Russell offered the prayer of thank before an attractive Christmas plate was served to 54 guests.

Mrs. Kltty Hicklin called her sister this morning to report that their son, James Weldon would undergo major surgery in the Memorial Hospital at Quannah Friday morning at 8:30 a.m.

All of the Methodist preachers of the Cisco District are the guests of the District Supt. and Mrs. Leslie Seymour in Cisco today for a turkey dinner. Rev. Garland Lavender attended.

Christmas Party Held In Elder Home Tuesday

The Pricilla Sunday school class of the First Baptist church met Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. J. W. Elder Jr. for their monthly business meeting and Christmas party.

The Christmas decorations included a beautiful tree in the living room and a candle burned throughout the evening which was attractively displayed on the coffee table.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Bill Bullock gave an interesting devotional on "Hopes and Fears."

Gifts for the kitchen were exchanged among those present.

An attractive play of fruit and coffee carrying out the holiday theme was served to Mmes. Ralph Perkins, Eva K. Milmo, Earle Pittman, Melba Richey, Mildred Herweck, Joe Weeks, J. T. Belnap, J. M. Hunt, T. J. Huling, Bill Bullock, Alvis Woods, Earle Blackwell Jr., R. E. Nichols, Onus Warden, Wilson Guesst and the hostesses, Mrs. Hardin Bridges, Mrs. Allan Smith and Mrs. J. W. Elder Jr.

McMath Elected IOCC Chairman

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 13 (UP)—Gov. Sid McMath of Arkansas was elected new chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission today.

McMath's name was the only one placed in nomination today at the closing session of the commission's meeting in Little Rock.

Earlier reports had indicated that two names might be placed before the commission by the nominating committee, but committee chairman Jeff Robinson said committee members who wanted an opposition candidate finally agreed to go along with McMath's nomination.

Robinson was elected first vice-president of the commission. He is also chairman of the Kansas Corporation Commission.

G. E. Eddy, State Director of Conservation in Michigan, was named second vice-chairman, and Earl Foster of Oklahoma City was reappointed executive secretary of the commission.

The Arkansas governor succeeds Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas as commission chairman.

Earlier today, Gov. Shivers warned that the nation's excess oil-producing capacity remains a dangerously slim margin between "just barely enough and not quite enough."

Four Die When Water Tank Falls In New Mexico

TUCUMCARI, N. M., Dec. 13 (UP)—At least four persons died and several others were injured early today when a 3,000,000-gallon water tank collapsed, flooding a section on the west side of this town of 8,500.

One of the victims was identified as Steve Gallegos, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gallegos. Grady Maples, radio station owner said he helped lift the roof of a house off the lad.

The others were identified by E. F. Dunn, owner of a funeral home, as a Mrs. San Miguel and her baby and a man, Deal Elliott.

Another funeral home operator—Marvin Doughty—said that he had joined officials in counting the people believed to be in the area and "we think we've got them all."

However, he said National Guardsmen and other researchers were still searching debris for possible victims. In addition the State Highway Department has been asked to furnish bulldozers.

Doughty said that "as of now, officials are inclined to think the tank was blown up." He said several railroad workers saw a blue flash just before hearing the noise of the tank giving way.

He said that natural gas lines in the area were still leaking and it has been impossible to use torches in the search for more bodies.

"Pieces of that steel tank are strewn all over," he said.

Dunn, whose funeral home was located nearby, placed the time of the accident at about 4 a.m. Maples said there were two other children in the Elliott house when part of the big steel side of the tank "literally went right down on top of the family." He said Tony's twin brother, Tommy, was removed from the wreckage by Phillip San Miguel, his 17-year-old brother who was staying with his sister at a nearby home. A six-year-old girl, Annabelle, escaped unaided.

Phillip then stood by and watched his mother, brother and stepfather pried from the wreckage and taken to a funeral home.

Lee Gallegos, 64, said a change of habit last night saved his life. The room in which he usually sleeps was crushed beneath a sheet of steel, but for some reason he had moved to a different room.

Electrical power was cut off in some sections of the city and radio station KTNM was off the air. Water was being carried to the general hospital by hand but officials believed water in two other tanks would serve the city on an emergency basis.

Maples said the large metal city equipment barn was swept

Marines Adopt Word and Queen

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 13 (UP)—The U. S. Marines accomplished two things today: They adopted a new word—and a movie queen to go with it.

"Orality" is the word. It means "a desire to be kissed frequently and thoroughly."

Lana Turner is the movie star. Cpl. Arthur Franklin, who speaks for the Bachelors Servicemen's Club of the guided missile base at Point Mugu, Calif., says they adopted the word from a former university professor, one Silas Medford Wesley, Ph. D.

Seems Mrs. Wesley got a divorce last week because her learned husband objected to her "orality."

Now, the Marines feel right sorry for the missus—but they latched onto that word like they stormed Iwo Jima.

"It's sweeping our base," Cpl. Franklin reported. "We've been looking for a word like this for a long time. Something that'd describe that wonderful feeling we get when we see a beautiful girl."

And they get it the strongest, he grinned, when they think of Lana Turner.

"She's tops on our 'orality curve,'" he added. "In fact, our 'orality' for Lana is so potent you don't even have to see her to reach the peak of anticipation. Just the mention of her name hits the 'orality' jackpot.

"The slumbering passion in those eyes—aaah! And that mouth—it's provocative and innocent and exciting all at once."

Cpl. Franklin says he thinks the word will go down in history with the other servicemen's expressions. The printable ones, that is.

"It's a word we've wanted for years," he beamed. "Now we've got it and we won't let go."

The Marines picked four other voluptuous beauties as runners-up in the "pucker-up poll."

Jane Russell came second. Franklin sighed happily. "Because she's so smolderingly temptatious. We'd all like to put out the fire."

"Faye Emerson is third. Her neckline did more for our morale

Jerry Lewis Got All Wrapped Up In His Clowning

FOR TBNENING, Ga., Dec. 13 (UP)—Comedian Jerry Lewis got "all wrapped up" in his act while clowning on a paratrooper training platform here and almost his life.

Lewis, here for the filming of the movie "Jumpin' Jacks", accompanied 15 recruits yesterday to a six-foot high platform used to give rookies "the feel" of being suspended by parachute shroud lines.

"Just for a laugh," he wrapped the shrouds around his neck in a comical manner only to be swung hangman fashion through the air after jumping with the other at the jump master's signal.

His pendulum motion enabled him to get his feet back on the platform and save himself from strangulation.

Lewis' only complaint was of a "sore neck."

than all those service clubs put together.

"Ava Gardner's fourth. Even if she did marry Frankie-boy. We can still dream from afar."

"And fifth? Lili St. Cyr—who else?"

REDS STAND PAT ON REFUSAL TO NAME UN WAR PRISONERS

PANMUNJOM, KOREA, Dec. 13 (UP)—The Communists stubbornly refused today to tell how many United Nations war prisoners they held and backed down on a 1950 promise to abide by the Geneva Convention in their treatment of the captives.

The UN retaliated by refusing even to consider a Communist five-point prisoner exchange program because they feared any mass release of allied prisoners under present circumstances might lead to a "death march in reverse."

Both the joint UN-Communist subcommittee discussing an exchange of prisoners and another trying to work out a method of policing an armistice found themselves deadlocked at the end of the day. However, both will meet again at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

In the "policing" subcommittee, the Communists strenuously opposed the UN demand for continued rotation of American troops during an armistice.

They also reiterated that the UN demand for a ban on new airport construction and inspection behind their lines other than at ports of entry for trade violations constituted interference with North Korea's internal affairs.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Song Cho conceded in the other subcommittee that North Korea had pledged itself in 1950 to "strictly observe the principles" of the Geneva Convention on the humane treatment of war prisoners.

But he said that did not mean the Communist regime had promised to observe the convention "as a whole."

For the third straight day, he turned down Allied demands that he disclose the names and whereabouts of UN prisoners in Communist hands and permit international Red Cross representatives to visit them.

He pressed instead for adoption of a five-point Communist proposal calling for an exchange at Panmunjom of all war prisoners held by both sides.

But Lt. Col. Howard S. Levie, spokesman for the UN delegation, said there can be no agreement on the exchange problem until the Reds come through with the demanded information.

For all the Allies know, Levie said, the Reds may be holding all UN prisoners on the Korean east coast 200 or more miles from Panmunjom.

an eye to solving such problems as those that led to a recent walk out on a Tiptonville, Tenn., cotton plantation.

Rep. E. C. Gathings (D-Ark.), a committee member, said the group will go into every phase of the South's foreign labor problems with one of its major aims being to assure adequate labor for the 1952 cotton crop.

Cotton growers were expected to appear before the subcommittee to demand changes in the Mexican labor agreement, particularly a clause which requires payment to the government of $15 for each Mexican hired.

"Farmers are making things now for next year's crop," he said, "and they want to know well in advance if there's going to be plenty of labor available."

After an investigation of the Tiptonville walkout, the U. S. Labor Department reported Mexican cotton pickers there had not been paid the required prevailing wage and that living quarters were not up to par.

The R. C. Reeves family visited in Clyde Friday and Saturday, with Mrs. Reeves parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hallmark.

Texas Oilman To Build Hotel

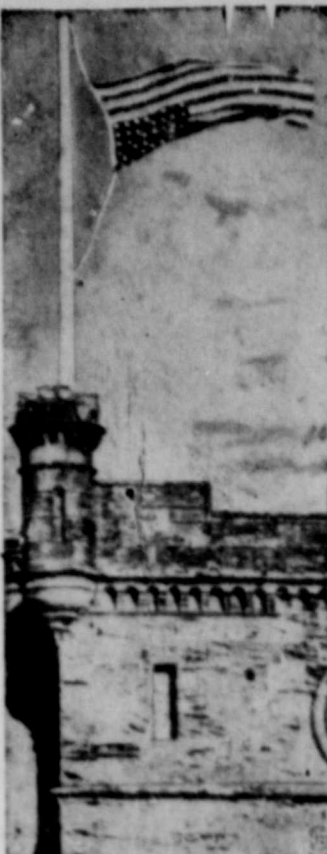

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, Dec. 12 (UP)—Texas industrialist Glenn McCarthy has given Guatemala capitalists 60 days to subscribe to 49 per cent of the stock in a $6,000,000 hotel he will build here.

McCarthy said yesterday he had received permission from President Jacobo Arbenz to build the resort hotel, the first in a proposed chain of hotels in Guatemalan tourist centers.

The Texas said the hotel would be built on the site of the San Jose Army Barracks, which were destroyed during the revolution of Oct. 20, 1944. It will have 250 rooms, a swimming pool, a garden and other modern facilities, McCarthy said.

McCarthy confirmed that Frank Casone, who accompanied him here, participated in the hotel negotiations.

President Arbenz has offered full government cooperation, McCarthy said.

BUNGLED BANNER — The Star Spangled Banner was hoisted over Colzean Castle, Ayrshire, Scotland, in honor of visiting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. It was General Ike himself who noted that the flag was flying upside down, an international distress signal. The embarrassed Scots hastily corrected the error.

Soaking Rain Needed by Texas

AUSTIN, Dec. 12 (UP)—Light rains and drizzles over most of Texas during the last three weeks have provided temporary surface moisture, but soaking rains are still needed, the U. S. Department of agriculture reported today.

However, the department said that scattered rains over the eastern third of the state have allowed small grains and winter legumes to make fair to good development, while snow which covered much of the northern high plains last week will enable the wheat crop to "continue to hold its own."

In South Texas, early-planted flax was generally up to a good stand, and conditions were favorable for a continuation of planting in that area.

Strong winds and dust delayed the cotton harvest in the southern high plains.

Commercial vegetables, the USDA said, made "exceptionally good progress" during the week ending Dec. 10.

However, dry range and pasture feed supplies continued to be steadily consumed and supplemental feeding of cottonseed cake, range cubes and roughage was necessary over most of Texas. In the northern high plains, snow covered wheat pasture and most of the stock on these fields was shifted to dry bundle feed for a few days. Chilling winds over the weekend caused further shrinkage, the USDA reported, of all unprotected livestock.

Schedules For Ball Games In Abilene Changed

ABILENE, Dec. 11 Scheduling of the Breckenridge - Temple High School football game in Abilene Saturday afternoon has caused major changes in the annual meeting of the West Central Texas Oil & Gas Association.

President French M. Robertson said today that the portion of the annual technical session scheduled for Saturday afternoon will be moved up to Friday afternoon. The Saturday morning program will not be changed, he said.

The meeting proper will now start at 2 p.m. Friday, at the Windsor Hotel, with a paper by C. S. Noland, Abilene, on "The History of Oil Development in Stonewall County."

Also on the Friday afternoon program will be the following papers:

"Sprawberry Review," by Walter M. Wilkinson, Abilene.

"Two Improvements in Acidizing Procedure," by P. Morrison, Fort Worth.

"Secondary Recovery in the Redin Field," by James E. Russell, Abilene.

"Waterflooding Operations in the Marble Falls Lime," by P. S. Ervin, Tyler.

"Oil for 1975," by Lt. Gen. Ernest O. Thompson, Austin.

"Performance of Limestone Reservoirs," by R. C. Craze, Houston.

"We are happy to cooperate with the Breckenridge and Temple High Schools and move our Saturday afternoon program to Friday afternoon," Robertson said.

"A block of 200 tickets for the game has been reserved by the association and will be available at the registration desk," he said.

The meeting will be climaxed Saturday morning with a banquet at which Russell B. Brown, IPAA general counsel will be the main speaker.

Fish Taken For Ride Then Gets Away
 FORT WORTH, (UP)—Here's one about a 56-pound catfish that got away after taking a 30-mile drive. Neighbors of R. E. Grigsby will vouch for its veracity.

Grigsby caught the big fish and became so excited that he wrapped it in wet rags to keep it alive. He then drove 30 miles home in his pickup truck and invited neighbors out to view his catch.

SIMPLICITY should be the keynote for a summer buffet or TV party. For beverages, choose carbonated ones to serve with the meal. Thoroughly chilled to insure maximum carbonation, they always add zest and refreshment.

For the main course, serve "franks in a ring." They can be prepared ahead of time. A tangy accompaniment is something new — Tomato Lemon-lime Aspic.

Franks in a Ring
 (Serves 6-8)

Twelve frankfurters, 1 cup flour, 1½ teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, few grains white pepper, ¼ teaspoon celery salt, 2

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Grapes, French toast, butter or fortified margarine, syrup, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Cheese omelet, buttered peas, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, tea, milk.
TV OR PORCH PARTY: Franks in a ring, potato chips, olives, tomato lemon-lime aspic, hot rolls, butter or fortified margarine, chilled carbonated drinks, coffee.

Lt. Sam Stone and family of Montgomery, Alabama are here visiting in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Speer and family of Haskell, were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. Mary Speer.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Harris and Lou and Sue, of Stinnett, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Saturday night.

Mrs. Charley Harrison of Gorman, visited with Mrs. L. C. Underwood one day last week.

Mrs. Clyde Bethany returned home Saturday, after an extensive visit with relatives in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Merl Miller and daughters, Glynda Kay and Erla Ray of Snyder, visited her father over the weekend.

tablespoons butter, 6 tablespoons milk.

Cut frankfurters in half. Sift flour, baking powder and seasonings together. Cut in butter with pastry blender until mixture has texture of coarse corn meal. Add milk and blend.

Place dough on floured board and roll out to ¼-inch thickness; cut into 1-inch strips about 3 inches long. Wrap dough around the middle of frankfurters. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Serve at once.

Note: If frankfurters are to be prepared for baking in advance, spread butter around dough to prevent drying out. Store in refrigerator until needed.

Tomato Lemon-Lime Aspic
 (Serves 6)

One and one-half cups tomato juice, 2 crushed bay leaves, 1½ tablespoons gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1 teaspoon celery salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon onion juice, ¼ cup cubed green pepper, 1 cup lemon-lime carbonated beverage, chilled.

Simmer tomato juice and bay leaf for 5 minutes. Remove bay leaf. Soften gelatin in cold water. Add tomato juice and seasonings to gelatin. Cool. Slowly add chilled carbonated beverage and green pepper.

Rinse 6 molds with cold water and fill with aspic. Chill until set. Garnish with green pepper rings and serve on crisp lettuce.

John Kent Gilbert of Denton, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gilbert.

Hubbard Gilbert visited his mother, Ratha Gilbert and family, and Mrs. Lena Stubblefield, in Spur.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Price of Mexia, were weekend guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. Mack Stubblefield returned home Monday from Corsicana, where she has been at the bed side of her mother, Mrs. Burnett.
