PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 28

SEEN OR HEARD

"Politikin" hit high gear here yesterday. Omar Burleson spoke before a joint meeting of the Ranger Lions and Rotary Club. Mr. Burleson's speech was non-political, and he came as a guest of the town as their congressman to Washington.

After four p.m. Jack Cox and a mass motorcade of his supporters, accompanied by a "Dixie Land Band" from among the Buckaroo Band at Breckenridge, made a bid for the crowds' attention and vote in front of the Gholson Hotel.

As seems to be customary with most politicians, Mr. Cox referred to his opponent as a man who was helping undermine the government of the people.

Shortly before this Burleson had talked about the same thing, only with no political references to himself or opponents.

Cox's own backers made up a majority of those at the rally he held here, and the speech he made from a sound truck yesterday. Very few Rangerites gathered to hear what Mr. Cox had in the offing in his candidacy for the congressional post.

Cox referred to tidelands, taxes, governmental regulation, moral rights, etc., the same ground that Omar Burleson had covered in an earlier speech without the benefit of a band and card passing friends.

We see that the Volunteer Firemen decorated the town in preparation for the Jaycee Rodeo last night. And also that a painter had been at work painting the front of some of the stores.

His artistic ability is boosting the rodeo at every turn, seemingly.

The Jaycees are going to work again tonight, or so we have been told by president Charlie Milliken some days past.

Advance ticket sales open for the rodeo at the Gholson Hotel Saturday. Get your choice seat before they are all gone. If old man weather treats the boys right they are expecting four big crowds.

Saturday, a group of the Jaycees are going to make a tour of some of the neighboring towns. With Zeke Williams and his western band, to let our neighboring cities know that the rodeo exists, and tell them of its many merits.

By the way you might care to know that Mr. "Bobby Jones" Gallaway has declined to set a date for a return engagement of cow pasture pool.

Seemingly age has crept up on him rapidly after saving his wounds last Friday by lucking out on me. He'll slip one of these days and we'll cut down on the "spot" we were allowing him, and pin his old ears back, maybe.

Personally we think a number of people who know nothing about the game of golf would enjoy playing were they to ever start.

It is a game in which you never reach perfection, you are confronted with a new problem on each shot, and must rely entirely upon skill.

You must also refrain from hitting opponents to hard with clubs—damage your club beyond repair.

While we can only state from persons having been there—they say you can see a ball up in the fairway or the in bounds part of the course—throwing the ball back over the fence on one of the holes where most of us go out of bounds is also prohibited.

Likewise—kicking the ball on through water hazards. Water hazards at Ranger are "water" hazards in name only. Were there water in them someone would have pursued it out long ago.

You are also requested not to cut firewood on the course. In other words when lying behind a tree do not sneak out an axe and remove the obstacle. The same applies to moving from behind the tree. The trees are there for a purpose—and it is not for squirrels to live in, either.

Golf is a wonderful game. And is dependent upon stamina, good heart, even temper, honesty, ability to follow a white pill around, and utter disregard for thought of wife and families being widow and orphan.

The wife is said to be the biggest obstacle to golf. Description is grounds for divorce—that, they claim, is what happens when you go to the course.

Try it sometime.

General Clark Re-organizes Korean Command

SEOUL, Korea, July 10.—Gen. James A. Van Fleet was ordered Thursday to give up all his routine duties and concentrate on his most important job—fighting the Korean war.

In a major streamlining of his United Nations command, Gen. Mark W. Clark announced creation of a "communications zone" command in Korea to take over a multitude of jobs formerly held by Van Fleet.

Clark announced from his Tokyo headquarters that the reorganization "will permit General Van Fleet to give his full time and attention to the vigorous prosecution of the United Nations military effort against Communist aggression in Korea."

The new command will include all Korean territory south of the combat zone. Commanded by Maj. Gen. Thomas W. Herren of Dadeville, Ala., it will operate and defend supply, evacuation, transportation, service and other agencies supporting the fighting units. On the war front, a savage North Korean counterattack drove UN forces from a newly won hill on the eastern front early Thursday.

UN troops had gained the ridge against little resistance, but the Red soldiers, supported by 2,464 rounds of artillery and mortar fire, managed to retake it just before dawn after desperate fighting.

The Allies estimated they killed 42 North Koreans and wounded 55.

It was the second defeat in two days for Allied foot soldiers.

Wednesday Chinese Reds won a hill from the UN forces on the eastern front.

In the west, tank-supported UN infantrymen attacked "Dagmar" hill northwest of Chorwon for two hours, then retired.

Eighth Army headquarters announced the First Marine division is in action on the western anchor of the Korean front, including the truce site at Panmunjom. It was formerly on the eastern front, around the Punchbowl area.

Texas Pro-Ike Delegates Seated At GOP Convention

IKE EXPECTED TO GET 37 OF 38 VOTES ON SECOND CALL

CHICAGO, July 10 (UP)—In one wild, exciting moment the Republican national convention early Thursday seated Texas pro-Eisenhower delegates and sent the Lone Star state's "old guard" GOP dynasty down to ruin.

When the first roll call on the presidential nomination is taken, probably Friday, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will get 33 Texas votes and Sen. Robert A. Taft five.

One the second ballot, the odds were good that Eisenhower would get 37 of the 38 votes.

The Texas fight, a classic in political invective since the Mineral Wells state convention in May, came to its crashing climax on the floor of international amphitheatre at 12:38 a.m. when the Taft people surrendered without a roll call vote.

Porter Group In Place

Jack Porter, leader of the pro-Eisenhower faction, was in the section under the Texas placard—along with most of his followers. Principals in the rival faction, led by national Committeeman Henry Zweifel, were not on the scene.

The decision had been anticipated ever since the convention, in a parallel contest involving Georgia, went easily to pro-Eisenhower contestants. Porter chain smoked and grinned while the Georgia vote was taken.

Porter was a study in confidence and he disclosed that a new "compromise" offer was made to him shortly before the night session opened.

"They offered to give me the delegation if I'd agree to keep Zweifel as the Texas' national committeeman. I told 'em 'hell, no,'" he said.

Temporary convention Chairman Walter S. Hallinan called the Texas case immediately and the long sometimes feverish speeches began. When the oratory was finished, Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts stood up and demanded a roll call. But before a formal second of the motion was heard, Hallinan called out: "The chair recognizes the delegate from Iowa."

Taft Men Surrendered

Ernest Palmer Jr., Taft leader in the Iowa delegation, then brought down the house by announcing that he had been authorized to propose that the roll call be eliminated and the pro-Eisenhower delegation seated by unanimous consent.

The great television lights overhead, which had been turned off only a few minutes earlier, came up in a blaze. In the next minute, the deed was done.

Porter, besigned by photographers and newsmen, got a kiss from a lady delegate and congratulations all around.

A Texas state flag, concealed through the evening, was hoisted suddenly by Ben Gully of Pampa. And over the podium came the strains of "The Eyes of Texas"—rendered with vigor by the convention band.

Porter said: "We have scored a magnificent victory. This opens the way to a two-party system in Texas. We are going to nominate Ike Eisenhower for president, and elect him and a real Republican party in Texas."

Texas Get Pop Talk

Sen. James Duff of Pennsylvania gave the Texas delegation a pep talk before it left the hall, singing and ringing cowbells.

"When the Taft people took on Texas, they took on too damn much," Duff told the cheering delegation.

It is a matter of mere formality now for Porter to take over the national committeeman's post, occupied by Zweifel as an "heir" to the late R. B. Creager of Brownsville, undisputed boss of the Texas party until his death about two years ago.

As the new top man in Texas Republican circles, Porter is pledged to "build up" the GOP make active campaigns at state as well as national levels and go hunting for "new, young blood."

The "Old Guard" regulars, Porter said, did not try to build up the party because they feared loss of control if it became more "than a private club, run from the top down."

On the first presidential nominating ballots, five of the Porter delegates are under instructions from their district conventions to support Taft.

"And by damn, I'm going to see that the instructions are carried out," Porter said. "Even though we'd like to have those votes for Eisenhower."

"On the second ballot, I think four of the five will come over. The 38th vote belongs to H. L. Hunt, Dallas oilman who's for Gen. Douglas MacArthur although he pledged to Taft. I expect he will vote for MacArthur."

Price Daniel Will Meet Area Voters At Gholson Saturday

Price Daniel, who is campaigning for the post of U. S. Senator now held by Tom Connally, will be at the Gholson Hotel in Ranger at 11:00 a.m. Saturday.

Prior to his Ranger visit Daniel will have been at Cisco at 8:00 and at Eastland at 10:00 a.m.

Friends of Mr. Daniel have said that there will be no speechmaking, or street corner ballyhooing, but that Daniel will meet anyone who wishes to talk with him in the lobby of the Gholson. His visit here will be in the form of a reception at which everyone is invited.

Daniel is completing his third term as Attorney General for Texas, being elected twice without opposition.

He is a past member of the House of Representatives and in his third term was elected speaker of the House by his friends at Austin.

Daniel is a World War II veteran. He entered the Army as a private and attained the rank of captain before he was discharged in 1946. That year he made an amazing race and won the post of Attorney General. He has served as Attorney General of Texas since his first election that year. The latter two terms he was elected without opposition to the post.

Gorman Is To Have "Indian Trail Festival"

Gorman will celebrate her annual "Indian Trail Festival" on July 10, 11 and 12. This is sponsored by the Quarterback Club and proceeds will go to the improvement of the Frank A. Gray Memorial Park here.

Festivities will start Thursday afternoon at 5 p.m. with a big street parade consisting of floats from all business firms of Gorman as well as many from out-of-town. Eastland has the V.F.W. Post float in the parade, and the Eastland County Farm Bureau has entered a float.

Following the float parade Beverly's Chuck Wagon gang will render a musical program, and Thursday night the coronation of the princess will take place. Following the coronation will be the Ceremonial dance by Comanche Indians of Sterling, Okla.

Friday night there will be a bathing revue, consisting of four groups of seniors, juniors, children and a song group of men dressed as beauties (for comedy's sake). The Indians will render their portion of the program in native costume and tongue.

Saturday night there will be a great political rally for all county, district, precinct and local candidates.

Remember Sykes Gospel Singers Here Tonight

Folk—don't forget the Ranger Lions Club presentation of the Sykes Gospel Singers here tonight at eight o'clock in the Recreation Building.

The singing groups will not only sing hymns, but negro spirituals, and folk music. And has been said, "only in the way the people of their race can do."

The proceeds of this appearance go to the "Lions Night Conservation Program" which buys glasses for needy and underprivileged children.

In the past year alone the program has purchased at least eight pairs of glasses for children in Ranger.

The Lions are depending upon you in their plans for a better sight conservation program. Plan now to hear this fine group of singers and help some one in need.

British Spy Found Guilty

LONDON, July 10 (UP)—William Marshall, a pale, young British foreign office radio operator, was convicted Thursday of betraying official secrets to a Russian diplomat and sentenced to five years imprisonment.

Marshall, 24, could have been sentenced to 14 years but the 12-man jury recommended "utmost leniency" on grounds he had been "led astray" during the time he coded and uncoded foreign office messages to British diplomats aboard.

The jury found him guilty of three charges of passing information in a series of "cloak and dagger" rendezvous in London and of a fourth charge of recording information which might be useful to an enemy.

Everton Makes Statement To County Voters

To the people of Eastland County:

I was born February 4th, 1899, in Comanche County, near Gorman, in Eastland County.

When less than one year old, my parents moved to Kokomo, in Eastland County. I resided there and in Gorman forty-three years of my life. I grew up on a farm and know what it is to work hard. I have worked in the oil fields and I taught school in Eastland County for several years and later was in the Life Insurance business. My home has been in Eastland since the death of my father in 1944. I am a member of the Missionary Baptist church of Kokomo, also a member of the Gorman Masonic Lodge.

Thirty-two years ago Roy Nunnally, a former teacher of mine, asking for ten. I consider that he spired me to someday try to be District Clerk of Eastland County. My folks and I have assisted others to hold this office and other offices. In my experience I have found that if you want to accomplish anything in life, you have to fight for it; some office holders will never give the other fellow a chance to realize his life ambition.

Our present District Clerk has held the office for eight years and asking for ten. I consider that the people have been extra nice to him; having held the office longer than any other District Clerk.

January, eight years ago, I was the first person to announce for office of District Clerk, but due

Panther Jitters Hits East Texas

WACO, Tex., July 10 (UP)—Central Texas had the panther jitters again Thursday.

W. D. Carter, a Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad telegraph operator at Hewitt, five miles south of Waco, reported to sheriff's deputies he heard something like a panther scream "about 150 yards from the depot" at 1:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Deputies rushed from Waco to investigate and said Thursday they took one shot at something that look like "animal's eyes in the dark." But they found no further evidence of a panther.

Clubs Hear Burleson Assail Enormity Of U. S. Government

Congressman Omar Burleson soundly denounced our ever expanding government speaking before a joint meeting of the Ranger Lions and Rotary Club Wednesday.

But, you denounce the growth, resulting depletion, and said "we have grown so large I wonder sometimes how long we can go without sinking in our own footsteps."

He compared the enormous size of today's government with the large beast of old who reputedly roamed the earth some million years ago, and were reputed to have exterminated themselves in the California tap pits by their own size and weight.

He referred to the Hoover Report and said he had been told that some sixty per cent of it had been cut off, with a reported savings of some six billion dollars. But this fact to him was hard to realize.

The only way in which inherent powers may be returned to the people, according to Burleson, is the people becoming conscious of the wrongs. And that those in government are using their political powers to undermine moral rights.

Burleson took a lusty verbal swing at government monopoly and services using the past office as an example. He termed the post office a losing proposition that in the beginning had been stolen away from private enterprise.

Texas also came within the governmental beating administered by the Congressman seeking re-election to that same government he so lustily reprimanded.

Burleson said when the taxation for government we reaches confounding point we are losing all our inherent rights, both moral and constitutional.

Burleson answered questions after his address from the floor. Pat Thomas asked him whether he thought the much publicized RFX was still necessary. Burleson said so, that he thought the RFX had

There will be several special singers from over this county and surrounding counties, including the girls from the Church of God in Eastland. Also the ladies quartet from Eastland, the Rhythmeters, from Stephenville and the Clyde Fisher quartet from Eastland.

Local Softball Team To Play DAV's Friday

Local softballers will travel to Eastland Friday night to meet a team there known as the DAV's at 7:30.

The Ranger team is a group of boys, most of whom are on the football team, who are playing ball for the sake of playing ball alone. They've otion had one or two practice sessions in preparation for this game.

Reports from the Eastland camp indicate that the manager of that team scheduled this game as a "holiday" for his boys. Indications are that he will only play a pitcher and catcher and possibly four men in the infield against Ranger.

The Eastland team is older and has had more experience than the local boys, but you can bet that it won't be a walkoff if the Rangerites will try.

Those of you interested can go give the boys your support Friday night.

GOP PLATFORM PROMISES AIR BUILD-UP LESS FOREIGN AID, AND NO CORRUPTION

By Frank Kleazer
CHICAGO, July 10 (UP)—The Republican party Thursday unveiled a 1952 platform pledging a speedy buildup of U. S. air power, reduced foreign aid spending and "an end to corruption" in government.

The 4,500-word campaign document, sent to the convention floor for approval Thursday, charged that the rearmament program is "ungracefully lagging" under the Truman Democratic administration.

It called for the "quickest possible" achievement of a "completely adequate" defense force with emphasis on air power and atomic weapons "in abundance."

Agreed on Foreign Plank

The foreign policy plank—a compromise carefully tailored to satisfy both Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft—rejected isolationism and pledged GOP support of "collective security."

But it said foreign aid programs can and should be conducted more economically lest the United States "bankrupt" itself trying to bolster its Allies and further protect the rights of labor, management and the public.

The GOP also promised to do away with "injurious wage and price controls" and to balance the budget so that "a general tax reduction can be made."

No Serious Trouble Expected

Republican policy-makers anticipated no serious difficulty in winning approval of the platform by the full convention.

But a watered-down civil rights plank, with no specific provision for a fair employment practices commission, drew rumbles of discontent from some Negro delegates. They hinted they might try to make a floor fight for a stronger plank.

The platform was approved in a 6 1/2 hour secret session of the GOP resolutions committee Wednesday.

It also contains the following key points:

1. "More efficient and frequent" mail delivery.
2. "A farm program aimed at full parity prices for all farm products in the market place." In other words, high government supports for farm prices. The administration's Brannan Plan was roundly condemned.
3. State ownership of the so-called tidelands.
4. Retention of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act with "such amendments—as time and experience show to be desirable and which further protect the rights of labor, management and the public."
5. Opposition to "all powerful federal socialistic valley authorities," and to administration efforts "to undermine state control over water use."
6. Opposition to federal compulsory health insurance "with its crushing cost, wasteful inefficiency—and debased standards of medical care."
7. Expanded social security to cover "those justly entitled to it but—now excluded," and "a thorough study of universal pay-as-you-go pension plans."
8. No censorship or "tag order" on letting the public know "what their government is doing"—a slap at President Truman's information security order.
9. Government reorganization as recommended by the Hoover Commission.
10. "An end to corruption, to oust the crooks and grafters—and to restore honest government to the people."
11. "Overhaul loyalty and security programs" to keep Communists out of government.
12. "Immediate" statehood for pro-Republican Hawaii, statehood for pro-Democratic Alaska "under an equitable enabling act," and "eventual statehood" for Puerto Rico. "Self-government and national suffrage" for the District of Columbia.
- The Civil Rights plank called for federal legislation to end lynching and poll taxes and to "further just and equitable treatment in the area of discriminatory employment practices."

Rids The "ROCKET" And Saves Osborne Motor Company, Eastland

As the new top man in Texas Republican circles, Porter is pledged to "build up" the GOP make active campaigns at state as well as national levels and go hunting for "new, young blood."

The "Old Guard" regulars, Porter said, did not try to build up the party because they feared loss of control if it became more "than a private club, run from the top down."

On the first presidential nominating ballots, five of the Porter delegates are under instructions from their district conventions to support Taft.

"And by damn, I'm going to see that the instructions are carried out," Porter said. "Even though we'd like to have those votes for Eisenhower."

EVERTON—

to the fact that I was employed in defense work, I withdrew and did not make the race; however, I came back to Kokomo and Eastland and voted. I have never voted out of Eastland County but one time in my life, and that was when I was in defense work. Before I went into essential war work, I was rejected for the Army, because of an injury, but I am not asking for one single vote because I was rejected for Army service. I considered it more important to remain with the defense work, than make a political race, at that time. I feel that if the people are not willing for me to be District Clerk now, they never will be.

I have always been interested in court procedure. Early during the boom, due to a large amount of litigation, the 91st District Court was created, even then, the dockets of the two courts were crowded. Several years ago one court was discontinued. The salary of the District Clerk is larger now, than during the oil boom.

In my campaign, I appreciate the support and encouragement of my friends both old and new. It is nice to hear a voter say: "Keep knocking these doors, as you are now." Sometimes an office holder is inclined to brag how he performs the duties of the office. It is the duty of any public officer to perform his services politely, honestly, and efficiently; if he cannot or does not, he is not worthy of the honor that the people have bestowed upon him.

If the office of the District Clerk is a good thing, pass it around; if it is a burden, let someone else bear it for awhile. I would like to be that person. I assure you that if I am elected, I will not ask for $50 nor eight years in office. I am asking the people of Eastland County for a fair chance and consideration, please give me your vote.

Sincerely,
L. T. (Lois) Everton

Korean Armistice Talks Enter Their Second Year

By WENDALL MERICK

PANMUNJOM, Korea, July 10—Korean armistice negotiations entered their second year Thursday with a 40-minute secret session described by a UN spokesman as "just another day."

There was no ceremony or any kind of observance at Panmunjom to mark the occasion. The truce talkers walked into the green conference tent, talked for 40 minutes and walked out again.

The year had brought the United Nations and Communists to within one paragraph of agreement on ending the shooting in Korea. The only issue remaining is exchanging prisoners of war.

There was no information on what took place in the seventh secret meeting Thursday.

"Just another day," said Brig. Gen. William F. Nuckols, official UN spokesman. Asked to say something about the beginning of the second year of negotiations, he cautiously commented:

"We are one year closer to the possibility of an armistice than a year ago."

He had "no prediction" for the coming year.

Some 33 correspondents, photographers and newsmen cameramen the largest press delegation at the talks in several weeks, were on hand for Thursday's meeting. They found nothing unusual. The only excitement was generated by Allied fighter-bombers which bombed and strafed a Communist mortar position on a hill overlooking the truce village.

Smoke and flame billowed up on the skyline when the warplanes dropped bombs and napalm on the position. One pilot flew so low over the target his plane disappeared for a second behind a ridge.

The Red mortars had been dropping shells on a U. S. Marine position on a hill overlooking Panmunjom.

Water Action Postponed
SAN ANTONIO, July 10—A decision on the Lower Rio Valley's request for a water injunction remained under advisement of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals Thursday.

Chief Justice W. O. Murray said it was an "important and complicated case" when he postponed the decision Wednesday.

Disagreement Among Nonsan POW's Reported

PUSAN, Korea, July 10—

Twenty-four prisoners of war were injured, one seriously, in a fight between two prisoners groups in a compound at the Nonsan POW camp, it was announced Thursday.

The compound held North Koreans who had declared themselves anti-Communists.

The clash started shortly after midnight Wednesday when some 40 prisoners armed with clubs made from tent poles and stakes began tearing tents apart and at-lacking other prisoners. American guards armed with tear gas and bayonets broke up the fight shortly after without using their weapons. In all, 130 prisoners became involved in the melee.

During the fighting, 16 prisoners crawled under the barbed wire surrounding the enclosure and sought refuge with prison guards.

$4.5 MILLION FIRE SWEEPS WARNER FILM STUDIO LOTS

By WILLIAM BEEB
BURBANK, Calif., July 10—Detectives searched for evidence of Aaron Thursday in the charred back lot of Warner Brothers film studio, where more than $4.5 million worth of sets and equipment were destroyed by flames that finally burned out in nearby hills.

The fire, described as much worse than a blaze that razed 25 acres of studio property last May 16, was brought under control late Wednesday night after it covered about 75 acres and swept into hills behind the studio.

Total damage was estimated at between $4.5 million and $6 million.

Sheriff Suspects Arson
Officers of the sheriff's arson squad investigated the possibility that the fire was started Wednesday by an arsonist and pointed out that it apparently began simultaneously in two different locations on the studio back lot.

Four youths seen near the studio fence earlier in the day were questioned by detectives, but they later were released.

Studio officials first saw the blaze broke at about 3 p.m. on a boat dock at the south end of the lot. The dock and an ocean liner movie set were destroyed quickly, and brisk winds swept the flames on to other sets, a property storage shed, a generator shed and a train shed.

Planes, Trains Destroyed
One of the first structures destroyed was a large metal hangar containing real and model airplanes. New and old-fashioned trains were destroyed in the train shed.

The property shed contained props accumulated by the studio over a period of 30 years, and studio officials said the loss there alone would exceed $1 million.

Also leveled was a 1200-foot scene deck, where backdrops are stored. Damage to the generator shed and the electrical equipment it housed was estimated at $1 million. The charred sets included one originally constructed for use in the film "Anthony Adverse" and used often since then, and many street scenes.

Record Breaking Cold Memory As Temperatures Up

By United Press
Memories of a cool spell lingered, but it was the same old weather story in the Southwest Thursday: Hot and dry except for scattered thundershowers which brought no real relief to parched farmlands.

The cool front which passed through the week produced some soaking rains in Oklahoma and Missouri, a record-breaking drought in Kansas and Missouri.

It also dropped temperatures into the 40's and 50's throughout the area and broke low temperature records for early July in several cities, including Denver, Oklahoma City, Dallas and Fort Worth.

But the Southwest was an anti-section again Thursday with only the usual scattered thundershowers forecast. The mercury climbed steadily. Showers in the Southwest Colorado mountains Wednesday represented the only precipitation in the Wyoming-Coronado area, and Wyoming temperatures were running from five to 15 degrees above normal again.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture at Austin, reported that intense summer heat was crippling Texas' feed crop and pasture. The USDA weekly crop report for Texas said soaking rains were needed in all sections.

Some temperatures included a low of 61 at Dallas, a second consecutive all-time low mercury reading for the date, July 5, and these warmer ones, all state highs:

Cotulla, Tex., 97; Gage and Guyton, Okla., 92; Russell and Hill City, Kans., 90; Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo., 86; La Junta, Colo., 83; and Sheridan, Wyo., 93.

Earthquakes Jar, Damage Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, July 10 (UP)—A light earthquake jarred the Los Angeles area early Thursday, and some slight damage was reported.

The quake gave downtown Los Angeles only a light shaking, but it was sufficiently strong to break a water main and crack a gas main. In nearby Long Beach, police said it was preceded by an explosion-like sound that frightened many residents.

Compton police said several persons who heard the windows of their homes rattling called headquarters to report prowlers in the neighborhood. Police switch boards in all three cities lighted up with call from alarmed residents.

In downtown Los Angeles, the tremor shook buildings as if a large truck had passed by, but one resident of Inglewood said the tremor "dinned near shook me out of bed."
Long Beach police at first believed there had been an explosion and sent radio cars to investigate. They were recalled, however, after it was learned there had been an earthquake.

BILL OF RIGHTS GUARANTEES INALIENABLE PRIVILEGES

The American "Bill of Rights", consisting of the first ten amendments to our federal constitution, all adopted at one time in 1791 specifies in some detail a number of basic civil rights of the individual citizen. Unaltered by subsequent amendments and jealously guarded by our courts, these privileges must still be respected by our governing bodies today.

Among the most familiar of our constitutional guarantees are those relating to freedom of religion, of speech, and of the press. The same article protects the right of peaceful assembly and the privilege of petitioning the government for redress of grievances.

Another amendment secures our persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and specifies that no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, and unless supported by oath or affirmation.

The due process of law amendment encompasses not one but several guarantees. Every American is secured against being placed in legal jeopardy for the same offense; against being compelled to be a witness against himself in a criminal case; against having his private property taken for public use with out just compensation; and against being held for trial for a capital (death penalty) or other infamous crime, unless upon a presentment or indictment of a grand jury. And, of course, no person may be deprived of life, liberty or property without orderly court procedures, on due process of law.

The right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury, in the locality where the crime was committed, the right to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, and the rights to compel attendance of defense witnesses and to have the assistance of defense counsel in all criminal prosecutions are secured by another section of the "Bill of Rights."

Excessive bail and fines, and cruel and unusual punishments, are prohibited in Amendment VIII, other articles insure the right to bear arms and ban quartering of soldiers in private homes during peace time.

NEWS FROM OLDEN

The old Union schoolhouse was torn down Friday and Saturday by the men of Olden. The lumber is to be used by the school. Ladies served a basket lunch for everyone during the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cole and girls of Kermit spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodges and Ann of San Angelo visited friends in Olden over the holidays.

Then, to make quite clear to our governing bodies the underlying intent of the preceding provisions, the Ninth Amendment states: "Then enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people."

The Tenth Amendment further emphasizes this basic theory by providing: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Thus, that fundamental philosophy expressed in the Declaration of Independence, that men are endowed with certain unalienable rights, and "to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed," has been carried forward into the highest law of our land.
