Alias Basil Willing

By Helen McCloy
THE STORY: Private Detective Jack Duggan borrows Dr. Basil Willing's name and dies. Linked with Duggan's poisoning is the death of Miss Katherine Shaw, aged and blind, who apparently was in need of Duggan's services. Duggan's murder with Stephen Lawrence, the poet, Perdita, the poet's daughter, faints Basil, at Lawrence's request, to consult with Dr. Zimmer, who is a psychiatrist as in Basil, about his daughter. Basil goes to a newspaper office to talk to Frank Lloyd, a reporter who is engaged to Perdita.

comfortable living room. A bookcase with books on criminology. Duggan wasn't literary. A large black cat with golden eyes strolled from behind the sofa and rubbed his back against Samson's leg.
"Duggan's?"
"Yes," Samson looked sheepish. "I gave him some canned milk and liver I found in the refrigerator. I was thinking of taking him home to my little boy."
Basil looked at the cat and said, "Duggan was lonely."
"He had a mother and a sister in Nebraska," said Foyle. "No close friends in New York."
"Anything else?"
"We've tested an extract of Duggan's stomach tissue," the inspector went on. "No quantitative analysis yet, but Lambert, the toxicologist, made a guess that Duggan had at least 10 grains of cocaine in that what you wanted to know."
Basil nodded. "And what personal items did you find here? We don't know much about the man."
"THERE'S an odd key here that doesn't fit any of the locks. He was an ideal tenant, the janitor says, clean and quiet. And he must have been out of town in March. He left the cat with the janitor and canceled his milk order from March 21 to March 21."
"Was he any good as a detective?"
"He did all right. He had two assets; he worked alone without any operatives to share a secret, and he looked so commonplace that no one was likely to suspect that he was a detective. His forte was discretion and honesty. They don't always go together in that racket. But he was the sort that family lawyers recommend to timid clients."
"The sort of detective that Katherine Shaw might hear about from some friend," mused Basil.
"No link with Katherine Shaw or anyone else we care about."
Foyle exhaled a weary breath. "The reports would have to be verbal—or have you forgotten? Duggan had no assistants and Miss Shaw was blind."

THE NEW LAKE And HIGHWAY 80
The two most important projects in 1953 for Ranger, Eastland and adjacent communities will be the construction of the New Lake on the Leon and the improvement of Highway 80 from Eastland thru Ranger.
As a member of the Board of Directors of the Eastland County Water Supply District, I am vitally interested in getting the new lake constructed on the Leon River in 1953. However, I am no less interested in seeing Highway 80 converted into a 4-lane Highway.
It is going to require a solid front and full co-operation of all the citizens to complete these two improvement projects in 1953. Both of these projects will demand numerous contacts and negotiations with the State Board of Water Engineers and the State Highway Department at Austin. To have a Representative in Austin in full sympathy with both of these projects will be a valuable asset to us all. Our present State Representative, Mr. L. R. Pearson, has had numerous contacts with both the State Board of Water Engineers and the Highway Department and personally knows all the members of the two departments. He rendered invaluable service in getting the Highway Department to pave the Cad-do Road and convert it into a Farm to Market Highway. Also, he assisted materially in getting the Ranger-Morton Valley Road widened and improved. I am convinced Mr. Pearson will and can render us more valuable service than any other candidate for Representative in the 76th District. His election will save the local water board numerous trips to Austin in connection with the new lake. The election of Mr. Pearson to the office of State Representative will materially assist and improve our chances to get the new lake constructed and Highway 80 converted into a 4-lane highway in 1953.

Miss Joyce Jones Becomes Bride Of Gene Gilley In Home Ceremony

Miss Joyce Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jones of Ran-

Her mits, which came to a point at the wrists, were of chantilly lace.

Miss Janice Page of Ranger, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress of navy organdy, over sheer cotton and white accessories.

Tom A. Shaw, Jr. of Weatherford was the bridegroom's best man.

A reception for the couple was held following the ceremony.

The table was laid with a lace cloth, over powder blue linen. An arrangement of Majestic daisies, flanked by white candles in crystal holders, centered the table.

Mrs. Tom Davis labbed the punch from the crystal punch bowl. Mrs. A. G. Langley served the four-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Gilley was wearing a pink and white shantung suit with purple accessories, and a pink carnation corsage from her bouquet, when the couple left on their honeymoon to Carlsbad, New Mexico.

The following were guests at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gilley, Mr. and Mrs. Bob England, Mr. and Mrs. La Verne Gilley, and children, Mrs. C. R. Mansfield, Mrs. Ed Castleberry, Miss Rheta Beth Westlin, and Miss Betty Lou Hagaman.

Mrs. Gilley graduated from Ranger High School and attended Abilene Christian College.

Mr. Gilley graduated from Weatherford High School and attended Ranger Junior College.

The couple plans to make their home in Ranger, where both of them are employed. The bride is employed by the Bell Telephone Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Killingsworth had as their rodeo guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pounds, Jr., and daughter, Diane, and Miss Sydna Phillips, all of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith and children have spent several days this past week in Farmersville, with Mrs. Smith's mother.

Weather Varied Past 24 Hours

Texas temperatures again climbed toward the 100-degree mark Tuesday, as the sun poured down through clear to partly cloudy skies.

Widely scattered thundershowers and strong West Texas winds provided the only variety in a weather picture that showed hot, dry all over the state.

Big Spring recorded blowing dust Tuesday for the second day in a row. Winds throughout West Texas were generally southwest at more than 20 miles an hour, with some gusts of 30 miles an hour.

Six stations reported rain in the latest 24-hour period. Dalhart had the most, .24 inch. Brownsville had .02, Amarillo .01, and Corpus Christi, Palacios and Marfa each had a trace.

Marfa and Dalhart shed honors as the coldest points in the state Monday night with minimums of 64 degrees. Corpus Christi had the high minimum, 84.

TEXAS FUTURE FARMERS END CONVENTION; ELECT LEADERS

DALLAS —Joe Dan Boyd of Wimbora was elected 1952-53 state President of the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America at the 24th Annual State Future Farmer Convention in Dallas, Friday, July 18. The new President succeeds Franklin Brandt of La Grange.

The three-day meeting, attended by 3,505 Future Farmers, highlighted the election of officers, a public speaking contest and the presentation of awards and scholarships. Fort Worth was chosen as the 1953 convention site.

New state Vice Presidents of the Texas Future Farmers are Duane Strop, Canyon; Joe Stephens, Lamesa; Oran Little, Schulenburg; Norman Evans, Graham; Donald Stodghill, Rockwall; Ralph Bachmayer, Taylor; Garland Carroll, Cleburne; Benny Hamilton, Naogdoches; and Clyde Fisher, Victoria.

In a business session, the Future Farmers voted to send 200 pigs to Korea in order to help improve the breed of swine raised in that country. The project is being carried out in cooperation with CROP, Christian Rural Overseas Program, and the details are being worked out by the Vocational Agriculture state staff of Texas.

The young farmers also voted to add the following projects to their 1952-53 program of work: Encourage each chapter to offer a special award for Chapter Star Farmer; encourage more cooperative projects on a chapter level; and to provide bulletins and plans for improving homes and farms.

Jack Earl Harrison of Huntington, winner of the state public speaking contest, will compete in a Tri-State contest August 1 at Oklahoma A & M College in Stillwater. Topic of his talk is "Protect Our Soils and Save America."

Second, third, and fourth place winners in the State Event were Bill Hunter, Dimmitt; Joe N. Stephens, Lamesa; and Larry Umberson of Potts, a member of the West Lamar Future Farmers.

The Future Farmers chose Sarah Reynolds of Pittsburg as their 1952-53 State Sweetheart. Runners-up were Margaret Epperhart, Lubbock; Sue Glass, McLean; and Barbara Seale, Honey Grove.

The Texas Future Farmers selected Jerry Johnson of Naogdoches to be nominee for a national Future Farmer office. He will be considered by a national committee which makes the nominations.

AMARILLO, July 22—Bonnie Ruth Robison, a 23-year old brunette, was held Tuesday without bond on a charge of murdering the 38-year-old father of two children she'd gone with for "some time."

Officers said Miss Robison admitted in a signed statement she pumped six .32 caliber automatic bullets into Oran Reddoch, a service station operator, after they argued over the telephone Monday and she went to his station to talk with him.

Reddoch, 36, staggered from the doorway of his station in northeast Amarillo, a witness, Fred Killion said, and died after mauling her chest with murder and malice.

Pop Corn Both Fun And Food

Chances are you have been popping corn all these years just for fun, and because it tastes so good. Well, hold onto your pop corn bowl! A government agency recently announced that pop corn has more food energy units than 96 per cent of all foods listed as edible by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

All this time, when you probably have been mentally rebuking yourself for being unable to stop eating until the last tender morsel has disappeared, you actually have been doing your body a favor.

Pop corn, according to the government report, is one of those rare foods combining a delicious, almost universally-liked flavor and high food value. Every kernel is literally packed with energy units.

Everytime you joyfully consume a 3 ounce bowl of pop corn, you are supplying your body with (1) one-third of your daily requirements of phosphorus (2) one-fifth of your daily requirements of iron (3) one-sixth of your daily requirements of calories (4) one-ninth of your daily requirements of Vitamin B1.

A comparison of equal servings shows pop corn to contain more calories than all vegetables and most meats. In proteins, pop corn is not quite as rich as meats, but much better than candy, cereals, milk, vegetables and bread.

Pop corn provides almost as much iron as spinach and is ahead of oatmeal, beans, cabbage and many other foods in supplying vitamins.

On the basis of overall food value, pop corn is one of the healthiest foods for your family. So next time you reach for the pop corn bowl, don't hesitate — help yourself to a big handful. You'll be giving both your palate and your body a treat.

"get a doctor." Killion said Miss Robison, standing only a few feet away, was trying to reload the gun. She offered no resistance when other passersby disarmed her.

The attractive brunette, told officers she had been acquainted with Reddoch, a married man, about three years, and had been going with him for "some time."

She said the service station operator paid her room rent and bought her clothing and food. She was charged with murder and malice.

White House In Hopes Settlement Of Steel Strike

WASHINGTON, July 22—The White House clung Tuesday to hopes for a negotiated settlement of the 51-day steel strike but moved ahead "reluctantly" with plans for partial seizure of the industry.

Informed sources said Acting Defense Mobilizer John E. Steeman probably would call for new bargaining efforts by leaders of the steel industry and the CIO steelworkers if he found the parties could possibly be budged from their adamant stands.

Steelmen talked by telephone with both sides late into Monday night in hopes of finding some basis for resumption of across the table talks. His efforts came in the face of a statement by union President Phillip Murray to his wage-policy committee Monday that the dispute was "hopelessly deadlocked."

Meanwhile, the Defense Department and munitions board drew up plans for seizure of some plants under the Selective Service Act to force resumption of essential steel production. The act allows the government to seize any plants that "fail or refuse" to fill direct defense orders.

It was learned that defense of-officials, in meetings led by Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett, already have "laid the groundwork for limited seizure."

However, a Defense Department spokesman and other government officials insist that "no decision" had been made on "if and when" the government will act.

At its meeting in Pittsburgh, the union's wage-policy group called on Murray to hold out for a full union shop. Government sources here believed, however, the union would probably settle for a modified union shop on the terms on which it has come so close to agreement with the industry in the past.

Fly Control Is Health Problem During Summer

AUSTIN, July 23—The control of fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city, community, and individual in the state, declared Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The most effective measure for fly control is to prevent their breeding. Flies breed in filth and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her life time of several months, one fly lays from 600 to 1,000 eggs.

To eliminate flies, the breeding places must be destroyed. Manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise, they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections, which they later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink, and by unwashed hands and utensils.

See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not molest your family. See that your grocer keeps meat, vegetables, and fruit screened from flies.

The use of DDT and other sprays for the control of a variety of adult flies and fly larvae have come into wide usage. However, their use should be after all trash and breeding places have been eliminated. Otherwise, spraying will give only temporary relief, and a false sense of security.

Truce Teams In Session For 5 Minutes Today

By WENDELL MERICK PANMUNJOM, Korea, July 22—Truce negotiators met for only five minutes Tuesday amid dimming hopes for an agreement on prisoner exchange and an end to the shooting in Korea.

Allied and Communist negotiators met under a news blackout which produced only a tight-lipped "no comment whatsoever" from Lt. Col. Joseph J. Horchert.

It was the shortest session of the 15 secret meetings. However, both sides agreed to another meeting.

Despite the secrecy, there were indications the Communists and the Allies are as bitterly divided as ever on repatriation of war prisoners, the sole issue holding up a truce.

A Peiping radio broadcast again berated the UN for continuing its "plot" to retain 100,000 Red prisoners and Brig. Gen. William P. Nuekols, retiring UN spokesman, said in a farewell statement that the Communists are liars "thoroughly without honor."

Nuekols, who is retiring to his old post as Far East Air Forces public information officer, has been at the truce negotiations for 54 weeks.

"First at Kaesong and later at Panmunjom," he said, "the enemy has shown repeatedly that they interpret as a sign of weakness any UN willingness to compromise . . ."

"Every time we yield on a point in the hopes of reaching an armistice, the Reds make additional demands."

"The Communists, no matter what their nationality or the color of their uniforms, are all tarred with the same brush. All are thoroughly without principle and without honor."

Nixon Will Join Running Mate At Fishing Retreat

By Rex Chaney DENVER, July 22 (UP) — Sen. Richard M. Nixon, Republican vice presidential candidate, will fly here Saturday for a conference with Dwight D. Eisenhower, GOP presidential nominee, it was announced Tuesday.

The two will confer at Eisenhower's vacation retreat near Fraser, Colo., in the Rocky mountains some 70 miles west of Denver. Eisenhower left here last Thursday to spend a brief vacation on a private ranch near Fraser.

The reason for the Eisenhower-Nixon conference was not disclosed. However, Nixon has accepted an invitation to address the Ohio state Republican convention July 31, and it may be that he wants to discuss the contents of his speech with Eisenhower before

Commission Sets 1952 Hunt Dates

AUSTIN, — The Texas Game & Fish Commission Friday voted to renew its efforts to persuade the United States Fish & Wildlife Service to zone Texas for duck and goose hunting.

The Commission recommended that, should the zoning plea fail, the waterfowl season in Texas open October 31. It recommended that, if the state is zoned for water fowl, the season open in the north zone October 31 and in the south zone on November 21.

The Commission, in considering hunters' preference for the seasons, reported "a surprising amount of sentiment" in South Texas for an early November waterfowl opening.

The Executive Secretary of the Commission pointed out that while the duck bag limits may not be increased from the five a day and ten in possession of last year, that the improved waterfowl conditions might warrant a longer season. Texas had a non-zoned 50-day waterfowl season last year, beginning November 9 and ending December 28.

The Executive Secretary of the Commission will personally take the Texas zoning appeal before the Fish & Wildlife Service at a meeting in Washington, August 5.

The Commission recommended that the Federal authorities who also set dove hunting regulations, designate the opening in the north zone of Texas for September 1 as last year and designate the opening in the south zone for October 1, with shooting restricted to afternoons only. The south zone season opened November 15 in 1951.

The Commission recommended a white-winged dove season for the Rio Grande Valley for September 12, 14 and 16. Regular shooting hours of 4 p.m. to sunset would prevail with a 10-bird limit.

The Commission decided not to open the antelope season in the Big Bend country because two dry years have reduced the herds.

Other seasons in the nine-county area west of the Pecos, over which the Commission has regulatory authority, were authorized on the same basis as last year. Then hunters were allowed to take on male deer, blacktail or whitetail, from November 20 to November 25, inclusive, and to take twelve quail a day or have 36 in possession during the month of December only.

The Commission made only one change in the 28-county Panhandle area over which it has regulatory power. It left deer and turkey hunting regulations as they were last year but closed the hunting of both deer and turkey in Cottle and Motley Counties. The Panhandle big game seasons will be from November 15 to November 24, both dates inclusive.

The Commission acted on recommendations of sportsmen and ranchers who explained that both counties lacked both deer and turkey and that some hunters merely used the area as a means of illegally taking deer from adjoining counties outside the regulatory area.

The usual deer, turkey and quail seasons under state law will be open this fall.

The Commission took under advisement an engineers' report on Yarbrough Pass dredged across Padre Island last winter. The action came on suggestions that maintaining the Pass might prove excessively costly.

The Commission voted to confer with the Fish & Wildlife Service about whether Pitman-Robertson funds would be available to purchase for refuge purposes 702-acre goose refuge now maintained privately by the community and the owner, J. C. Gambill of Paris.

DEAR VOTER:

I take this opportunity to answer a vicious, scandalous and false newspaper article calculated to injure and defame my personal character and integrity. This attack is a last minute attempt to mislead and prejudice the people of Eastland County in order to obtain the office of District Judge by a distortion of the truth.

THE FACTS ARE THESE:

The Commissioners Court of Eastland County made a contract with Horace Walker to collect delinquent taxes, which contract was approved by the Attorney General and Comptroller of the State of Texas. I, as an attorney at law, was employed by Mr. Walker to examine abstracts of title in connection with this contract; I performed those duties, I had no authority whatsoever over the tax monies collected, or the prosecution of tax suits, nor have I done anything in connection with this tax matter, which seems to have been made a political football, which has not been in the least dishonorable.

In connection with the cases against Mr. Walker, I will say this: if Mr. Walker is guilty he should be punished to the fullest extent of the law. I have had no part or parcel in these cases, except that I have been subpoenaed as a witness for the State of Texas.

With reference to the property in Limestone County: My opponent evidently is unaware that it is quite customary and usual for real estate men and Attorneys to purchase and handle property for their clients, and this was done by me in several instances. There is absolutely nothing wrong in that.

It strikes me as very strange indeed that inasmuch as investigations have been going on for several years that I have not heretofore been attacked until this late hour in a political campaign with the imputation of a wrongful act.

I have made several campaigns and in no campaign has anything unfair, derogatory or un-Christian-like ever appeared against any of my opponents. I have always contended that a man who is unclean in politics will probably be unclean, unfair and unjust in public office.

It is regrettable that any person who is a candidate for such an honorable position as that of District Judge would countenance any article such as has just appeared by letter and in the press of Eastland County, and would conduct a campaign for such a high office on such a low political plane.

"Deliver me not over to the will of mine enemies; for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty." Psalm 27:12.

Respectfully submitted,
Earl Conner, Jr.

Reds Throw UN Troops Off Hill In Savage Fight

By ROBERT UDICK
SEOUL, Korea, July 22.—Savage Communist Chinese, attacking under cover of a murderous artillery barrage, drove UN troops from bloody "Old Baldy" hill Tuesday in the fifth day of fighting for the strategic height.

It was the third time since Friday that the bomb and napalm blasted hill west of Chorwon on the west-central front has changed hands.

Allied troops spread off the height at mid-morning by what appeared to be a company of Chinese lads, backed down slowly to the bottom and awaited their chance to launch a counter-attack.

UN fighter bombers zoomed in on the victorious Reds and softened them up for the forthcoming attack with bombs, rockets, machine gun fire and napalm.

Allied artillery, based in on the embattled hill, lobbed in shells on the Chinese.

Eight Army officials estimated the first four days of fighting costs the Communists 1,093 casualties.

For the first time, Okinawa-based B-29 bombers were brought in to the UN's plan to wreck the Communist power system. The superforts blasted the Chosen reservoir hydroelectric plant No. 2.

It was the third straight day that UN warplanes hit the heavily-damaged plant. On two previous Princeton and Bon Homme Richard bombed, rocketed and strafed the installations.

All three attacks caught the Communists as they attempted feverishly to repair damage to the important plant, first hit June 23 in the same series of bombings that wrecked the Suiho power plant on the Yalu river.

Mossadegh Once Again Returned As Premier Iran

TEHRAN, Iran, July 22 (UP)—Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi named Mohammed Mossadegh premier again Tuesday amid unconfirmed reports his deposed predecessor, Ahmed Qavam, had fled the capital to escape avenging mobs.

The shah issued a firman directive authorizing the 73-year-old ultra-nationalist leader to form a new government after the lower house of parliament voted 61-0 in favor of returning him to power.

Mossadegh, who resigned in a huff last Wednesday after the shah refused to grant him dictatorial powers, was scheduled to call on the ruler Tuesday afternoon.

Crowds in the street embraced and kissed when the shah's firman was announced. Flags which had been flying at half staff in mourning for the dead in Monday's rioting were raised to the top of the poles.

The Majlis lower house of parliament formed a special eight-member committee to investigate the killing of at least 23 civilians by army troops during rioting against Qavam.

FDR, Jr. Cheered At Convention

CONVENTION HALL, July 22 (UP)—He smiled a wide smile, a confident smile, and for the moment there appeared the ghost of FDR.

The huge audience at the Democratic national convention caught it too and roared with cheers at the magic name of Franklin D. Roosevelt—this time, Junior, congressman from New York.

Standing in the full glare of television lights early Tuesday, he took the acclaim with the same poise, the same cock of the head that his late father displayed when president.

Young Roosevelt went before the convention to urge approval of a resolution by Sen. Elmer Moody that delegates do their best to see that party nominees get on state ballots in November.

This was distasteful to southerners. Sen. Spessard Holland of Florida offered a watered-down substitute.

Young Roosevelt, 37, using a voice that may not have enunciated as soundly as his father's, showed, however, that he had learned his father's way of putting over biting sarcasm.

"Your state laws," he told the delegates, "do not prevent you from putting the Democratic nominees on the ballot in November, do they?"

Then he brought rousing cheers and whistles when he thundered: "Do not take this wishy-washy, do-nothing, say-nothing amendment of Senator Holland."

REPLY TO AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Mr. Conner:

In your open letter published in the Sunday morning papers in Eastland County, wherein you attempted to reply to what you term a "vicious, scandalous and false" attack and an effort to mislead the voters, you state:

"I, as attorney at law, was employed to examine abstracts of title — I had no authority whatsoever over tax monies collected, or the prosecution of tax suits. . ."

Do you mean by this statement that you did NOT adjust, or help to adjust, any tax suit? That you had nothing to do with the prosecution of any tax suit? That you never collected tax monies in such a suit and deposited to Horace Walker's credit in the Eastland National Bank? That you had no part in any tax sale? That you were without authority to do any of these things in the name of Horace Walker?

If you were employed only to examine abstracts, why was it necessary for you to maintain a public office in the Eastland County Courthouse, without the aid of a law library in that office, keeping it open daily to the public during Mr. Walker's prolonged absences?

The voters may wonder why your abstract work was so heavy, when ordinarily there are no abstracts of title involved in tax sales. Please name one single abstract of title that you examined in connection with Walker's tax prosecutions.

You also indicate that you were acting for a client when you took title to scores of pieces of property in Limestone County. If so, why didn't you say so and name your client? Why was your client unable to take title in his own name? Have you helped this client, or others, in the purchase of tax titles you helped to foreclose upon? Are you associated with him in the ownership of such property in Eastland County?

We believe that the voters of Eastland County are entitled to know the truth about these questions when you ask them to elect you District Judge. You are not being persecuted, Mr. Conner, as much as you may wish to appear so. The Walker matter is a serious issue. The taxpayers of this county are still holding the bag for over $100,000.00, according to the Auditor's Report.

It is difficult to see how any one could be associated with Mr. Walker as his attorney, for a period of several years, and still know nothing of his affairs.

We ask you for more facts and less Scripture, Mr. Conner.

Sincerely yours,
EASTLAND COUNTY VOTERS.
