Coal Miners Take Ten Day "Memorial Holiday"

THE PINCH-HITTER SAYS:

We have been running around all over the county this week, hunting a little news. To say that we have failed in putting a fact very mildly, though we have had a lot of experience. But we can't trade experience for groceries. Due to the lack of news we have been going pretty heavy on propaganda, which we admit is not very elevating. Fact is it wouldn't elevate a cow.

We visited a neighbor the other night, and during this visit we accumulated a college education on the subject of witchcraft. We were visiting at the home of James Reed, prominent Eastland foodman, and it so happened he was drilling a well, by hand. We dropped out to the location and found a fairly good sized, but very dry hole, some 23 feet deep. We asked him why he was drilling at this place, and he brought the water witch subject up.

Immediately we grinned and said haloney—there ain't no witch, water or otherwise. He argued with us, and produced a kind of "v" shaped limb of a tree, and demanded that we watch. He grabbed both ends of that stick, like a dog would grab a bone, and began walking toward his location, and just as he got to the well the thing began turning in his hand and the point of the "v" dropped right over the hole. "Water, sure," he said.

We began to pull his stunt again, and with the same results. "Visit" visitors tried, and finally we said we would like to try the thing ourselves. We knew it was a trick, but we wanted to be sure. We grabbed the stick and began marching, and just as we got to the well that thing began crawling out of our hands, and the first thing we knew it was again pointing straight down to the well. This was proof enough. We were sold on the idea of witchcraft, and got a license to practice. But here is the rub: We saw James today and he told us that while he had been drilling all week he hadn't struck water, and was on his way to town to get a sign writer to fix him up a sign reading "Duster". Wonder what made that switch turn?

Now we will have to go off and take a post graduate course, so we can tell when the stick is lying. However witchcraft is no more than a left handed monkey-wrench, and we remember at one time during our tender years, we put in two full, hot days running over town looking for one of these things. We suppose we would still be hunting for this thing if a kind hearted old gentleman hadn't stopped us. We knew less about more things than anybody we have ever met.

By the time you read this, Texas voters will have "shot their wad." A few people will be considering the easiest way out, while the others will be getting ready to take over the best job they ever had. Running for office is a lot like the liquor or dope habit. Once you get started you just can't quit. It is also a big game, and while the average enforcement officer will arrest you if he happens to catch you shooting craps, he never looks upon himself as a gambler.

When he decided to run he bet several hundred dollars cash and 6 months of hard labor that he could get more votes than anybody in the county. The bigger the office the higher the stakes. Democrats have bet Republicans that they can defeat Ike with Stevenson. Millions of dollars will be changed hands, but nobody will be arrested for gambling.

But a two-bit crap game always ends up in a "ice court." We talk about "justice", but if we really got it a lot of us might be doing time in the cane patch. We have heard old numb-skulls demand justice. Justice is all they want, they say, but the average prisoner at the bar seldom asks for justice. If he got it they would hang him sure. What he wants is a kind-hearted Judge, an oily tongued attorney and whispered testimony. If he can get this and a "good" jury he will come clear.

Ranger Junior College, Debt Free, Begins 27th Term September 8

Ranger Junior College, established for the purpose of preparing young men and women for a useful life, will begin its twenty-seventh year in September. The college is coeducational, state-supported and local tax supported, and is a member of the Texas Association of Colleges, American Association of Junior Colleges, Southern Association of Junior Colleges, Texas College Music Association, National Commission on Accrediting, approved by the Texas Education Agency, and is a member of the Pioneer Athletic Conference. The fall semester will begin on September 8.

There are two important facts about Ranger Junior College. It is a two years college, training for the academic field and for the non-academic, which permits its students to enter senior colleges and universities on a junior level at the close of the second year, or prepare its students for these phases of education. It is a very valuable addition to the college plant.

The college officials are on the upward march trying to meet all the needs of students in various fields by providing buildings and teaching equipment necessary for these various fields. During the past year Boswell Hall was completed, which is a brick building used for music and agriculture, and the building is well equipped for these phases of education. It is a very valuable addition to the college plant.

Many people are making contributions, either through the living endowment or direct scholarships to the college. These contributions are not only given by the Ranger citizens but come from people many miles away. The college boasts of the Cooper Library, which was a gift of O. R. Cooper of Tyler. It is well planned and has excellent references for college students.

The college is debt free. Its buildings have been erected without any bond or tax levy. They are the results of some very generous people who are interested in junior college education. These interested parties feel that the junior college offers to the academic student and the terminal student courses under an able faculty whose classes are not too large to afford the faculty mem-

Is John Lewis Cooking New Miners Strike?

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22—John L. Lewis has informed the Federal Mediation Service that his recent secret negotiations with the coal industry failed to produce agreement on a new wage contract, it was learned Friday.

His report amounted to official notice that he may call a strike in northern soft coal fields on Sept. 20, and in southern and anthracite fields on Sept. 30.

United Mine Workers contracts expire on those dates and the union has a rigid policy of no contract, no work.

The mediation service confirmed that it had received a notice from Lewis, but declined to discuss its contents.

FIDO GETS A BATH—It isn't raining but its just as wet say these youngsters as they give Fido a shower bath from a gushing water main in a Dallas suburb. Eastland Girl Polio Patient in Abilene

Eastland county's first polio patient was announced Friday.

Janie Arthur, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Arthur, Sr., of Eastland. Her condition Friday night, according to a statement made by a sister, was described as serious but possibly not critical.

Janie complained Tuesday of a severe headache, and on Wednesday her neck began aching. A physician was called and he diagnosed the case as polio.

Thursday she was moved to the Hendrick hospital in Abilene and is now in the polio ward there.

Final Rite For M. M. Scott Sat.

Rev. J. Morris Bailey of Eastland, had charge of the services at the chapel, though Masons conducted the graveside services.

Mr. Scott has had a very active life, and at one time was considered as one of the best detectives in the Chicago and New York areas.

He is well and favorably known all over the county. He was a Methodist and a Mason. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mable Scott of Eastland; two step-daughters, Mrs. W. P. Woods of Abilene, and Mrs. Lois Groves of Olden; three sisters, Mrs. Nora Banks of Stamford, Mrs. Lizzie Banks, Wingate, and Mrs. Cora Latson of Cisco. Also two brothers, Oran Scott of California and Howard Scott of Chicago. Interment was in the Eastland cemetery.

Mrs. Karkalits Services To Be Held Sunday

Funeral services will be held in Lubbock Sunday for Mrs. C. S. (Cy) Karkalits Jr. who died following injuries received Thursday in a car wreck at Seely, near Houton.

Clyde Karkalits, former Eastland County Tax Collector and Miss Louise Karkalits now of Cisco left Saturday morning for Lubbock.

C. A. Rogers Of Ranger Injured In Auto Crash

C. A. Rogers, 30, of Ranger, is in an Abilene hospital as the result of injuries sustained, when his 1947 Chevrolet overturned at a point two miles west of Abilene, Friday afternoon.

The seriousness of his injuries are not known at this time, though attending physicians think it is possible that he has only minor bruises. Highway patrolmen stated that his car hit the shoulder on one side of the road and then the other, after which the car overturned in a ditch.

Ranger Schools To Open September 8th; Registration Is To Begin On Sept. 4th; Many Improvements Made

Ranger Schools will open Monday, September 8th, and with one exception, an instructor for the Commercial Department, with a complete faculty. This vacancy will be filled in the very near future, in view of Superintendent G. B. Rush.

The first general faculty meeting will be held at 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening, September 4th, with other general and individual school faculty meetings on Friday and Saturday of the same week. The buildings and equipment have undergone many changes, and many improvements have been added, during recent months. Among these we mention a Public Address system, new curtains, Cyclorama and reconditioned seats. Asphalt tile has been placed on the second floor halls, and rooms throughout the high school building have been redecorated. Now you will find them neatly painted in pastel colors. This will improve vision, as well as offer other comforts for the teachers and pupils. Rooms and halls have been repainted at the Hodges Oak Park School and Young School.

Parent-Teachers now have a new lunch room that is ready for operation. Mural painting at the Hodges Oak Park school will be found at the new cafeteria. Battle-ship linoleum has been laid in the cafeteria at Young School, while halls and windows have been repainted at Hodges. Slaughter school has received a new coat of paint and concrete porch. It may be readily seen that buildings, as well as all equipment, are in good condition. All buses have been repainted and repaired, and have been certified at inspection centers. Delivery of one new bus is expected by September 1st. Delivery date for a suburban carry-all, in which all colored pupils will be transported to Eastland, is October 8th. Colored pupils in classes higher than the sixth grade, are taken to Eastland.

Young School faculty for the years 1952-53 include Mr. Morris Jeffries, Principal, Miss Young, Mrs. Bobo, Mrs. Landers, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Penney for one-half day. Hodges School faculty will include Mr. Rogers, principal, Miss Lemley, Miss Wallace, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Wilhelm, Miss Worden, Miss Balch, Mrs. Ballenger and Mrs. Penney for one-half day. High School and Junior High will, of course, be headed by Superintendent G. B. Rush, with H. L. Coody as principal. Other members are Miss Wilson, Miss Parmelee, Mrs. Wilhelm, Mr. Garrett, Mr. Turner, Mr. Steffy, Mr. Warden, Mr. Ails, Mr. Koenig, Miss Jenkins, Miss Miller, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Hagaman, Mrs. Owen, and Mr. Dudley. To date the Commercial position has not been filled.

Registration for High School is as follows: Seniors, Tuesday, September 2; Juniors Wednesday, September 3; Sophomores, Thursday, September 4, and Freshmen on Friday, September 5.

Registration for all other grades will be held Monday, September 8th.

With everything in complete readiness, faculty members are of the opinion there should not be any hitches or delays, and that class work should get underway on the first day, September 8th.

Economic Stabilizer Suggests Boycotting Scarce Food Items

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (UP)—Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam suggested Saturday that housewives help bring down record high food prices by boycotting scarce items.

In a radio-TV interview with columnist Robert S. Allen, Putnam blamed congressional Republicans and "reactionary" Democrats for some of the highest food prices in the nation's history. He said they forced through passage of a weakened Defense Production Act which deprived him of much of his price control powers.

"But we haven't given up the ship," he said. "There are a lot of controls we still have and we are putting on a fighting campaign to control everything we can."

He announced today that band rehearsals will begin on Tuesday night of next week, which is August 26 at 7:30. He urges that all members of the band, as well as youngsters who plan to enter this year, be present at the Tuesday meeting.

FULL SCALE STRIKE IS EXPECTED

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 23 (UP)—A 10-day "Memorial holiday" began Saturday for 475,000 coal miners through the courtesy of John L. Lewis, their union president, in what may be a prelude to a full scale strike.

Lewis ordered his men out of the pits in tribute to fellow miners who had died or been maimed in mine disasters during the past ten years.

Simultaneously, the bottlenecked chief of the United Mine Workers urged operators to improve safety conditions in their pits during the 10-day work stoppage, which is permitted under the present contract.

Off Five Working Days

The short layoff was not expected to deliver a paralyzing blow to the industry. Since two full weeks of the Labor Day holiday fall during the period, the miners will be out only five working days.

Speculation that Lewis would call a strike of 400,000 soft coal miners and 75,000 hard coal miners in northern and southern fields next month grew Friday when he told the Federal Mediation Service in Washington secret negotiations had failed to win a new wage contract.

It was apparent that Lewis already had posted the 30-day strike notice required under the Taft-Hartley labor law.

Contracts End in September

Contracts between miners and soft coal operators in the North end Sept. 20 and terminate 10 days later in the anthracite fields of eastern Pennsylvania and the South.

The memorial without meant that the miners, already hit hard by the recent steel strike, could count on only two weeks' pay during the next month.

Yet all of them obeyed Lewis' command, though some of them felt there was no pressing need for such a vacation at this time. Though Lewis, as usual, did not reveal specific contract demands, it was considered a certainty he would ask for a hefty raise in the miners' $16.55 base pay for each seven-hour day and "fringe" benefits.

Local National Guard Honors Its Captain; Special Program Rendered

Your local national guard unit, 648th Armored Field Artillery, 648th Armored Service Battalion, Texas National Guard, gave Captain R. Bruce Harris a surprise going-away party.

Last Thursday night August 14, 1952, Captain Harris was presented an electric clock by the members. Before the presentation of the clock and for some after dinner fun, Captain Harris was Court Married by a Judge and Jury composed of members of the battery. 1st Sgt. Jess Cole acted as judge with WO JG James L. Cunningham was prosecuting attorney and Sgt. Allen T. Rushing as defense attorney. SFC J. C. Wright, SFC William T. Archer and PFC Robert L. Hamrick acted as Jury. Captain Harris was found guilty of the offense as charged and was sentenced to open a "very nicely wrapped package" presented to him by the presiding judge. The Court Martial was taken by Captain Harris in the spirit intended and he very nervously opened the package. It contained three rolls of toilet tissue and three bars of G. I. soap. After the fun and laughs had subsided from the Court Martial proceeding, Captain Harris was then presented another package. (In fact some members were holding their breath) hardly expecting the clock that was included therein. Captain Harris then expressed his appreciation to all of the members for the nice gift and for the thoughts behind it.

Present for the party which was held at the Dixie Grille where a good fried chicken dinner was enjoyed by all were—Capt. R. Bruce Harris and wife, WO JG James L. Cunningham, WO JG Homer L. The winners were:

WINNERS in the annual model car competition of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild are Charles R. Feenema (upper right), of San Angelo, who took first state honors in the Junior Division (ages 12 through 15), and James R. Both boys' models went on to take regional honors and a chance to win a university scholarship.

ward winners with the highlight of the first day of the Guild's four-day convention and was made amid all the pomp and ceremony that the nation's motor capital bestows upon the youthful craftsmen. University presidents, scientists, and superintendents of public schools from some of the larger cities who comprise the Guild's Honorary Board of Judges and Advisory Board mingled with executives of the automobile industry to pay honors to the group in the grand ballroom of Detroit's swank Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

L. G. Goad, executive vice president of General Motors, interviewed the winners on a national radio and television network, carrying to thousands of Guild members throughout the country the news and inspiration of the event.

Each boy had spent an average of 500 hours of his spare time in the design and construction of his model car. Each proudly carried his car into the banquet room to display it as the festivities began. They were all original designs, each boys idea of what the motor-car of tomorrow should look like, and were various colors. Some were carved from wood. All had the excellent craftsmanship necessary to produce a winner.

The judges, of the competition, who were members of the Central Motors Styling Section, industrial arts instructors from Detroit schools, and the Guild Technical Department, were unanimous in stating that the quality of the models entered his year was very high.

On the first day of the convention, the boys visited the GM Styling Section to see how the professionals went about their work. After having luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club they took a short trip through Canada before preparing for the award banquet.

The remainder of the week will be spent at Detroit's Old Club on Harsen's Island in Lake St. Clair.

"All my life I've wanted to own a Buick"

POWER STEERING on the Roadmaster and Super

Power Steering now available on Super as well as Roadmaster—optional at extra cost.

It seems that owning a Buick is something that a lot of folks dream about—plan for—and finally do.

We say that because, so many times, they say so in words like those above.

Those words make us happy, of course—happy to know we sell a car which means so much to those who own it.

But they make us feel just a little bit sad as well—sad to realize all the years of fun such folks have been missing for no good reason at all.

For the fact is this: If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

You can afford the thrill of bossing around that big Fireball 8 Engine that purrs forth a mighty flow of power.

You can afford the gas bills—as any owner of a 1952 Buick will tell you—because that high-compression, valve-in-head marvel gets a lot of miles from a gallon of fuel.

You can afford the extra luxury of a real million dollar ride—the silken smoothness of Dynaflo Drive®—the extra room and comfort and style that have put Buick popularity right up at the top of the list, next to the "low-priced three."

So if you want to own a Buick—there's just one thing to do: Come in—pick the one of your choice—and let us show you how close the figure that goes on the bill of sale comes to what you'd pay elsewhere.

As we've said before, your first car can be a Buick. Why not take the Big Step right away—today?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

THE PINCH—

No, it isn't justice he wants—he wants to "beat his case."

If our courts meted out "Justice" in every case, it wouldn't be long until there wouldn't be enough of us left to serve as jurors.

We were taught as a child that politicians were nothing more than successful lawyers, but every since Harry discovered the "Red Herring" we have had our doubts.

There must be some kind of a law, written or otherwise, that takes care of all theft cases where the amount involved was more than a million dollars. If you steal less than a million you will likely go to jail and pay a small fine, but if the amount is over a million it is "high finance" and not "theft."

When you reach the "high finance" stage, you become qualified for high office, and may hold membership in any party without thought of criticism. Of course down here in Texas we don't like such shenanigans, but what are we going to do about it? Those politicians do not ask us what we want—they tell us what we are going to get. And this is not "justice" at all.

In Eastland people are perishing for water, while 10 miles away at Ranger, they are almost giving it away to farmers and ranchers. We know both towns pretty well, and so far as we can tell Eastland pays their preachers as well as Ranger. So there must be something else wrong. Something was said a few weeks ago about praying for rain, but to date we haven't heard any squeaky knees. Every-

San Antonio Gets New Publicity Manager

Bill Adams, former public information officer at Randolph AFB and South Texas newspaper man, has been named manager of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce publicity department.

Harry J. Krusz, executive vice-Supt. 1. He replaces Jack Mullen who will take over his new duties Supt. 1. He replaces Jack Mullen who has accepted a position with St. Mary's University.

Adams will be assisted by Mrs. Marie Yeager, who will continue as editor of the Chamber's weekly publication, The San Antonian.

In announcing the new appointment, Krusz said, "We are delighted to secure the services of Adams and feel that he will strengthen the Chamber of Commerce staff."

"Adams' experience during the past 21 months at Randolph AFB has given him close contact with Chamber publicity, transportation and military affairs and a fine working relationship with the local papers, radio and TV stations. He is well grounded in experience which would normally take a long time to acquire," Krusz pointed out.

A graduate of the University of Texas, Adams has served as city editor of the Alice Echo and managing editor of the Alice Daily Echo. He also was sports editor for the Victoria Advocate.

A World War II veteran, Adams served in England, France, Trinidad and Brazil with a troop carrier command. He is a graduate of the Armed Forces Information School, Fort Slocum, N. Y.

He is a member of the Episcopal Church, Pi Kappa Alpha National Social Fraternity and a parliamentarian of the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Adams is married and has two daughters, Joli and Nina. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norwick O. A. Adams, live in Alice, Tex.

Outstanding in Tests and Counseling

Every Freshman takes a vocational aptitude test, the American Council on Education tests on science, mathematics, social science, and English; and a psychological examination. Those students who wish to transfer to a four year college, after taking the Associate in Arts degree from Ranger Junior College, secure approval of their degree plans from the senior college to which they expect to transfer, thus eliminating all elements of misunderstanding and possible loss of credit. Those students who wish to take terminal courses are aided in every possible way so that they will be able to hold good positions on completing the two-year course in Ranger Junior College. Efforts are also made to secure employment for those who need it. Conferences are held with the student in relation to personal problems. Wilson Guest, Sunday School Superintendent, urges all members to be present Sunday morning to join in the Study of the Bible.

The morning worship hour will begin at 10:55 a.m. Congregational singing and special music will precede the morning message by Rev. Perkins who has returned from his vacation.

The Nominating Committee will meet at the church at 2:30 p.m. The Committee has been at work securing officers and teachers for the coming year. They have been appointed by the church to serve the entire year in the capacity of the selecting workers for all of the church organizations.

The Training Union hour will be at 7:00 p.m. with unions for all age groups. The Evening Worship hour will be at 8:00 p.m. with Rev. Perkins bringing a message for the Youth of the church.

You are invited to be present for any or all of the Sunday Services.

Sermon Topics At First Christian Church Sunday

In keeping with the nice hot weather, Rev. A. Lynn Robbins' sermon topic for the Sunday morning will be: THE COTTON PICKER'S SPECIAL. Despite the title, this will not be a demonstration of how to pick cotton; but will be something a little different in the way of sermons. The Morning Worship and Communion service for the local First Christian church is 11:00 a.m.

Mark 3:7-8 will be the text for the Evening sermon: NOW-HEAR THIS! which will be presented by the pastor at the 8:00 p.m. Evening Service. As usual this meeting will feature the popular period of Fellowship Singing and Evening Meditations.

Your attention is called to the fact that the Church School, with classes for all ages, has now set its opening time for 10:00 a.m. each Sunday morning. Lawrence Bryan and Mrs. A. Lynn Robbins are leaders in this work of the church.

The Christian Youth Fellowship, under the sponsorship of Mrs. B. G. Prickle, will meet at the church at 7:00 p.m.

You are extended a most cordial welcome to attend these and any services of the First Christian church, a small friendly church where a genuine Christian welcome awaits you. The building is completely air conditioned for your comfort. Remember to attend the church of your choice this Lord's Day.

Faith Class To Meet Tuesday

FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

People ought to be careful whom they call "narrow-minded." "Narrow" means limited, or circumscribed. Most denominational preachers claim people are saved BEFORE they become members of any church. Then they take them and separate them because of doctrinal differences and practices, limiting as many as they can in their church.

One denominational preacher can preach for an hour condemning the doctrine of another church that claims sprinkling is baptism. The preacher who believes sprinkling to be baptism, in his turn, condemns the doctrine of the first that teaches impossibility of apostasy, that is, once saved—always saved. Neither gets angry and accuses the other of being "narrow-minded." Let a gospel minister come along and show by the scriptures that both are wrong—what happens? Both sing at him in unison—NARROW-MINDNESS!! WHY? Listen—when the first preacher finishes his sermon condemning the other's doctrine, he will admit that you can be saved whether you believe what he has said or not. So, also will the other preacher. When the gospel preacher finishes, he begs people to accept what he has proven to be the truth and turn from false doctrines, unsupported by the scriptures. It is then that he is branded "narrow-minded."

Do you wonder what Jesus thinks about this? Let us see—Mark 16:15, 16 says, "Go . . . preach the gospel to every creature . . . HE THAT BELIEVETH NOT SHALL BE DAMNED." That is a never failing test for gospel preaching. When a preacher tells you that you do not have to believe the doctrine he preaches to be saved. HE IS NOT PREACHING THE GOSPEL, for Jesus said, HE THAT DOES NOT BELIEVE THE GOSPEL SHALL BE DAMNED. Evangelist in the church of Christ strive to preach the gospel which must be believed and obeyed or we shall be lost. We stand ready at any time to stand the test of public discussion to prove that the things we teach are supported altogether by the Bible.

Methodists Have Student Day Sun.

Special emphasis will be given to "Student Day" at the regular services of the First Methodist Church, Sunday, August 24. Members of the congregation who will attend college this year will be recognized and the $5.00 plan, sponsored by the local church and parents of these students will be discussed.

The morning service will begin promptly at 10:50 a.m. with the Chancel Choir leading in the congregational singing and responses. The male quartet will bring the special music, under the direction of Fred Baumgardner. The pastor will use for his sermon topic: "When Are We Alive?", based upon St. John 17:3, "And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

The evening service will be one of hymn singing, Christian fellowship, and a gospel message by the pastor. The sanctuary at the Methodist Church is comfortably cool and the fellowship is great. CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

As it is seen that God is the Mind of man, peace and harmony reign in the hearts and lives of men, according to the Lesson-Sermon titled "Mind" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, August 24.

The Golden Text states, "Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. O let the nations be glad and sing for joy; for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth" (Psalms 67: 34).

This counsel of Paul's to the Romans is included in the Bible citations: "Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likened unto Christ Jesus; that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 15:5,6).

Mary Baker Eddy writes in the Christian Science textbook: "When we realize that there is one Mind, the divine law of loving our neighbor as ourselves in unfolded; whereas a belief in many ruling minds hinders man's normal drift towards the one Mind, one God, and leads human thought into opposite channels where selfishness reigns" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 205).
