

SEEN OR HEARD

don norris

Now in progress is another long holiday week-end on which millions of Americans try to commit suicide or badly maim themselves with the automobile. Others die in other accidents, drownings and fires which are usually caused through personal neglect on their, or someone's part.

Eastenders will probably spend their three days hunting extra water for the next week. They are searching out every possible means of supplementing their non-existent supply until it might rain.

* That rain question is a good one. We've heard several prognosticators give their date that it will rain. In fact several of them have done so and it has already passed that time and still no rain.

Charles Campbell, local Ford man, was down here the other morning and we asked him when it would rain. He, being too smart to volunteer a guess if he had one, said if he knew he would be a millionaire pronto.

Several people can see whereby they might capitalize on rain if they knew when it would fall hereabouts.

It is a shame that the person committing the lowly act that forced the closing of the swimming pool had no regard or respect for anyone but himself. Had this not happened the pool would have been open through this next week.

The city officials are very anxious to make a present to someone of the one hundred dollar reward for information leading to the arrest of the criminal.

They say they have a suspect and are only waiting for this information that will lead to the arrest and conviction to make things uncomfortable for the person.

The colored citizens of Ranger will be denied their day of swimming by this low act. They are usually allowed to swim on the last day of the season at Ranger and seemingly enjoy their day in the pool very much.

The bringing to light of the person low enough to do a thing like that might prevent any future recurrence.

Start getting the old jalopy in top shape, the first local football game of the season is only a couple of weeks away.

We were telling a newcomer that Ranger leaves town when the football teams are on the road. He seemingly felt that we were pulling his leg with our description of the few people left on the streets when the games are out of town.

We weren't kidding a bit, and he'll see for himself when football season rolls around this year.

As far as we know Major Hoopole of the Eastland Telegram has not cast aside his self esteem and came to Ranger for a drink of water since he was pinch-hitting.

The Major forgot to tell you about the wonderful garden he planted this spring, and the beautiful flowers that he swore were going to grace his homestead.

His garden failed to compare with his bragging and he's buying his beans at the grocery store.

C. E. May is seemingly doing a booming business with his free bill fold size football schedules for Junior College and the Bulldogs.

Last we heard most of the original batch he ordered were gone, with the remainder going like hot cakes.

If you want to get one from C. E. you better hop on down before they run out. They're sure hand; little articles, with both schedules on one card that fits easily into your billfold. We mooched a couple of them for ourselves.

Ranger school kids have one more week of freedom before the bell rings for the opening round of the battle between pupil, teacher, and knowledge, for another nine months.

Teachers must be especially endowed with the greatest of patience to put up with little Johnny eight hours a day. Yet, they, like the other working people, are able to go home each evening apparently as composed as they were that morning.

Ranger kids never were known for their docile attitude toward anything, especially schools, so our

BEAUTIES IN THE NEWS—"I did it on purpose," striptease dancer Dawn Glory, right, told police after she jumped twenty feet from the balcony of the Burbank Theatre in Los Angeles clad only in a flimsy bra and frilly panties. The dancer, whose real name is Dorothy Hart Burkenstock, was "Miss New Orleans" of 1946. Her condition is reported good. Yolande Betbeze, left, who won the "Miss America" of 1951 title in a bathing suit, wrapped cloak of dignity about her in New York and said she was considering running for Congress. Ranger Dry Cleaners Use New Process

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Weaver of the Ranger Dry Cleaners have announced that they are offering an entirely new process in the way of dry cleaning garments. The new method is Lifering the garments.

This method is said to add additional life to the garments and a body that resembles more the original type of finish of the new garment.

The Weavers mentioned that you save 20 per cent at their firm by using cash and carry.

McCleskey Station Gets Remodeling

The Roy McCleskey Service Station on Highway 80 is being redecorated from top to bottom.

The rest room floors are being covered with tile, the walls, ceiling and fixtures repainted or replaced to make them more attractive to the customer.

In addition the interior and exterior of the station is being repainted and re-arranged to make service more convenient for the station operator and the patrons.

The station, when completed, will be among the most attractive and modern in Ranger serving the traveling and home town auto owners and operators.

FIRST GAME, JACKSBORO, SEPTEMBER 12

Bulldogs, With Host Of Veterans, Open Practice On September 1st.

Come September 1 morn all eyes that have been scanning the kies around Ranger for flying saucers will lower their level of observations to cast an appreciative eye on flying footballs. At nine o'clock in the morning on that date and again at four that afternoon for the first week the larger Bulldogs will make their initial entry in 1952 football.

The pressure is on the defending district champs. They'll face a powerful newcomer the second conference game of the season when they meet Stephenville on Stephenville's home field. The fellow jackets dropped down into District 2A-10 with the Bulldogs, Cleo and Comanche this season. Last year they fielded a team that lost only to state champion Breckenridge.

Coaches O. C. "Stubby" Warren and assistant Sam Aills will be working with approximately 26 men who will compete for the 11 starting positions. Among them will be two three-year lettermen, and Herbert Williams and J. L. Barnes, a convert from tackle to fullback for this season.

Two year veterans that will grace the gridiron and fill Bulldog uniforms this year will be guard Wayne Hargraves, Chick Mendoza at end, Jimmy Cantrell an ex-end and a prospective halfback, guard Bobby Justice, quarterback Gerald Bagwell, and fleet-footed running back who is listed at half, Charles Messager, Al Tule at guard. These seven boys have all seen plenty of action in past years and will form the nucleus of the Bulldog eleven.

Tackle Lee Hill, Tackle Bill Braden, guard Jimmy Wheeler, tackle Eddie Joe James, center Boyd Rush, and halfback Eddie Wallace can wear one Bulldog letter as the season practice starts and will add their experience and play to the prospective champs of this year.

Some ten additional bodies coming from the "B" team of last year or newly arrived fresh-

Great Lakes Ship Burns

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 30 (UP)—A triple-decked Great Lakes passenger ship was destroyed by fire as she lay at dock in the harbor here early Saturday. Authorities said there were no casualties.

The S. S. Hamilton, used for picnic excursions, moonlight cruises and sight-seeing trips, burned to the waterline in two hours.

Harbor police announced that no passenger had been aboard. The Hamilton usually carries as many as 400 passengers on its trips in Lake Ontario.

The fire started from an undetermined cause. Fire stations rushed equipment to the scene and the harbor fireboat moved up to the Hamilton's berth, but Deputy Fire Chief Chris Boyle said, "We didn't have a chance of saving her."

A skelton staff on the boat calmly walked to shore when the fire began.

Churchill And Truman Urge Settlement Iran, British Oil Dispute

Daniel Rebukes Truman Remark About Tidelands

BEAUMONT, Aug. 30 (UP)—Price Daniel, attorney general and U. S. Senate nominee, says President Truman is wrong in his statement only a "few oilmen and others" have any interest in Texas tidelands.

"Every Texan owns an interest not only in oil, but in all other resources of our submerged lands," Daniel said Friday.

President Truman made his statement Thursday at a press conference, when he said he did not believe Gov. Adlai Stevenson's stand in favor of federal ownership of the offshore lands would cost the Democratic presidential candidate Texas' electoral votes.

"I can just hear President Truman assuring Gov. Stevenson that no matter how hard he kicks Texas in the face we will not have the courage to vote against the Democratic party label," Daniel said.

Both Daniel and Gov. Allan Shivers have repudiated their own party's presidential nominee, although neither has come out for Republican standard bearer, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Daniel, in Beaumont to attend a three-day meeting of former Security Intelligence Corps members also announced he would formally answer President Truman's press conference statement in a statewide broadcast Monday night.

The attorney general said he would, at the same time, give his reasons for refusing to support Stevenson and discuss the "moral issue of the tidelands."

The half-hour speech will be broadcast at 9 p.m. Monday, Daniel said.

Floating Mine Sinks USS Sarsi, Two Were Killed

TOKYO, Aug. 30 (UP)—A loose enemy mine floating off Korea's east coast sank the U.S.S. Sarsi Friday and two sailors were killed, three are missing and four were seriously injured, the Navy announced Saturday.

The 205-foot Sarsi plunged to the bottom of the ocean off Hungnam 16 minutes after the explosion but 92 officers and men survived the disaster.

Lt. William M. Howard, of Norfolk, Va., commander of the tug, was among those who escaped.

The Navy said the detonating mine's explosion damaged the tug's communications equipment and prevented the sending of distress signals.

For those of the Purple and White of Ranger Junior College. He and three other seniors were all that will not adorn the field from the last year's champions.

Coaches and fans alike expect long running Charles Messager to take up the slack left by the loss of Camacho and keep the touchdowns rolling up for Ranger High. Despite time out for sickness during this past season Messager rolled up a record that made him all-district in the coaches opinion and was so voted by the district.

Warden declined comment on the position he expected his team to finish in the district race this year. Likewise for the weak and strong points of the '52 team. He said more could be said in the latter matter about three weeks hence when he was more familiar with the workings of the squad.

The Bulldogs roll back the curtain this year on September 8 at Jacksboro and Ranger fans and followers will get their initial full-scale preview.

NEW COMMANDER—Lewis K. Gough, left, newly elected National Commander of the American Legion, is congratulated by Donald Wilson the outgoing Commander at Madison Square Garden. Heartbreak Confronts The Sergeant

SIoux CITY, Ia., Aug. 30 (UP)—It had been too much for the sergeant and he broke down Saturday.

T-Sgt. Charles R. Buggy, 28, had come a long way to learn that polio killed his son and had stricken one of his two daughters.

His crippled wife needed an operation.

He himself had transferred from a ship to a plane in the Atlantic ocean and he arrived shuffling the strain in red eyes and by his chain-smoking.

"He went all to pieces when he got here," a relative who sheltered him and his wife said.

"He's not in condition to talk to anyone," his wife's foster aunt said. "He's too broken up to think of anything."

Later, he met his wife at her aunt's home and embraced her tenderly. She wears a brace on her back as a result of automobile injuries years ago.

His four-year-old son, Charles died of polio four days ago. His daughter, Kathleen, six is a polio patient at St. Joseph's hospital. She was reported out of danger.

The Army, the Air Force, and the Coast Guard co-operated in the mercy mission of getting Buggy home.

A B-25 was assigned for the final leg of the mission on the personal order of Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff. When he arrived, Col. John Carey who commands the air base here, took Buggy aside. The colonel told Buggy his son had died.

Dove Season To Open Sept. 1st

AUSTIN, Aug.—The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission said the Texas dove season opener September 1 is expected to be heavily patronized.

He said the fact that Monday is Labor Day and that mourning doves are reported plentiful in some areas could combine to produce a record turnout for the North one opener.

The North Zone season runs September 1 through October 10. The South Zone runs from October 1 through November 9.

The Executive Secretary said field reports generally indicate a good fall shoot on the fleet mourning doves.

He emphasized fact that the old saying "here today, gone tomorrow" best applies to these game birds. They are very sensitive to weather and food conditions.

Here are some major provisions of the mourning dove regulations:

The shooting hours are from 12 o'clock noon until sunset.

The daily limit is ten mourning doves.

The possession limit is ten mourning doves.

Shotguns must be permanently plugged to three-shell capacity.

Shotguns may not be larger than 10 gauge.

No hunting permitted in game refuge and game preserves.

The Executive Director asked hunters to cooperate with wildlife biologists and send in hand-found on doves' legs together with data on date and place they were harvested. He said this routine provides vital information.

The Executive Director also cautioned hunters to be extremely careful with fire because of the tinder dry grass and brush.

Iranian Premier Confers With U.M. British Leaders

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (UP)—President Truman and Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Britain personally appealed to Iranian Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh Saturday to accept a new formula providing "an early and equitable solution" to the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute.

The dramatic, joint plea was delivered to the aging Iranian premier in Tehran.

"We are attaching proposals for action which our two governments are prepared to take and which we sincerely hope will meet with your approval and result in a satisfactory solution," the message said.

The two statesmen told Mossadegh that if he agreed to let the international court rule on compensation for the seized British oil industry in Iran and resume negotiations on a resumption of oil production, that:

1. The United States would immediately grant Iran $10 million to meet its critical budget problem.

2. Britain would lift its boycott on exports to Iran and Iranian use of British controlled sterling.

3. Officials of the British Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. would make arrangements for movement of oil already stored in Iran and appropriate payments made as soon as agreements on price and physical conditions of loading permit.

First Meeting Held TEHRAN, Iran, Aug. 30 (UP)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh conferred Saturday with U. S. and British envoys on the joint appeal by President Truman and Prime Minister Winston Churchill for quick settlement of the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute.

The meeting came after Mossadegh reported to the shah of Iran on the Anglo-American proposals for settling the dispute.

Government sources said the shah told Mossadegh to take the opportunity to settle the dispute "to Iran's advantage" but added that Mossadegh still resisted the Anglo-American suggestion that compensation for the nationalized Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. be submitted to arbitration.

The developments in the oil dispute came as the Iranian Communist Tudeh party pressed its campaign for the withdrawal of all American advisers in Iran.

One Of Nation's Ten Most Wanted Men Is Captured

HOUSTON, Aug. 30—Joseph Franklin Bent Jr., one of the nation's 10 "most wanted" criminals, was brought to Houston for arraignment Saturday after he fought the officers and FBI agents who captured him "like a crazy man."

Police and federal agents closed in on Bent, who once boasted he'd never be taken alive, at nearby Texas City where the 25-year-old fugitive was living with a beautiful burrnet.

He ran from officers who stopped his automobile on the edge of the Texas City business district and was shot in the leg. He received only a flesh wound.

Fought "Like Crazy" A. F. Lorton, agent in charge of the Houston FBI office, said officers then tackled Bent, but he "fought like a crazy man" for several minutes before he was subdued and handcuffed. He was not armed.

Bent, the supermarket robbery and fast getaway specialist and object of an 18-month nation-wide hunt, had in his pockets only $20 and a paycheck from Belleo Industrial Piping Co. of Texas City.

Lorton said Bent was wanted in dates throughout the West, Southwest, including Wisconsin, Ohio,

Sunday's worship Services

The morning and evening services at the First Baptist Church will be filled with many interesting highlights. The increased attendance in Sunday school has been a thrill and a joy to all forces of the church. To date, the attendance for both July and August has been greater than any recorded month back to the late 30's. Although some 30 of our faithful members have moved from the city within the past few weeks, there have been others moving in and the church is greatly encouraged with the new folk and at the same time hate to see the others move away.

The pastor will be in the pulpit for the morning services, speaking on the theme "Disciplined with Christ," depicting His love for sinner, and his gift to the Christian. Special music will be given by Mr. Bill Bullock.

The training union department under the leadership of Mr. Walter Arterburn will meet at 7:30. A full corps of workers for all departments will be on hand to present programs for all age groups.

First Christian Sunday Services

"The Christian and His Daily Work" will be the sermon topic of Rev. A. Lynn Robbins, at the Morning Worship and Communion Service of the Ranger First Christian church this Sunday at 11:00 a.m. The subject and material for this sermon will be used from the suggested programs for Labor Day Sunday issue by the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Each year, on Labor Day Sunday, outstanding leaders from the ministry, industrialists, and labor unions meet together and publish important suggestions that will help to a better understanding and relationship among the churches and labor and industry. In that Ranger is largely a working man's town, with the oil and gas industries located nearby, this sermon should be of vital interest to the community.

At the Evening Service at 8:00 p.m., the sermon subject will be "The Apportioning of the Twelve." There will also be the popular period of fellowship singing and evening meditations. This week we're planning for the people to outnumber the crickets at the service.

The Church School, with classes for all ages, meets at 10:00 a.m. Sunday morning; and the Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at 7:00 p.m.

We sincerely hope that you will accept our invitation to these and any of the services of the First Christian Church. We are a small, friendly church and we'll do all within our power to make you welcome and to receive a blessing from the services. Remember to attend the church of your choice this Lord's Day.

Charlie Hargrave Will Preach For Second Baptists

The Reverend Charlie Hargrave will fill the pulpit of the Second Baptist Church Sunday, Rev. Hargrave is a native of Ranger, having finished high school here, then going to the navy, and upon his return from service entered Hardin-Simmons University in 1949, with a B. A. Degree. Entering the Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary that Fall, he graduated in May 1952 with a Bachelor of Divinity degree. Rev. Hargrave has already received denominational approval and is now awaiting a call into the Chaplains Corps of the United States Army. The Hargraves are making their home in the city during Rev. Hargrave's service with the Armed forces.

A cordial welcome is extended to all the friends to visit the evening services.

Church. The T. U. is for all members and there are parallel departments corresponding with all departments of the S. S. from Nursery through the Adult department.

There will be promotional programs and installation programs for all of the Training Union officers.

The Elementary Department will have their regular meeting on Thursday at 10:00 in the lower auditorium. Departmental directors are: Primary, Mrs. Albert Koenig; Beginner, Mrs. Corvis Beck, and Nursery, Mrs. Dwaine Dennis.

Methodist Topics For This Sunday

The Methodists in Ranger will observe their regular schedule of church activities on Sunday, Aug. 31. W. F. Deaton, general Supt., will be in charge of the church school program which meets at 9:45 with a general assembly for all adult classes, Intermediates and Young People. Charles Hummel will be the devotional speaker for this occasion, after which the various classes will assemble in their respective places for Bible study. The Children's Division, under the direction of Mrs. Lavender, will meet in the basement of the church for study and work. The morning worship will begin promptly at 10:50 with Miss Mildred Balch at the organ.

The choir will take its place at 10:55 to lead the congregational singing and give the responses. Fred Baumgardner will direct the choir. The pastor will bring the morning message, using for his subject: "Who Shall Command the Battle?", based on 1 Kings 20:14.

The first 20 minutes of the evening service will be devoted to an informal "sing-song," in which members of the congregation will select the hymns they love best. "This has proved to be a very popular thing among those who attend the evening worship," states the pastor. The evening service will also include special music, a gospel message, and an hour of Christian fellowship.

The sanctuary is as cool and comfortable as one can find in Ranger. Your Methodist friends invite those who have no church home to worship with them on this coming Lord's Day at the church with a cool sanctuary but a warm heart.

Mr. and Mrs. William Witt of Mincus will be the holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton.

Translation Marries Wrong Spanish Pair

EDINBURG, Tex., Aug. 30

(UP)—Juanita Cantu de Leon sought Saturday annulment of her marriage to Victor DeLeon, claiming the whole thing was an error in translation. Her petition said she and DeLeon stood up for another couple taking vows before County Judge Milton D. Richardson. Juanita and DeLeon were considering marriage, too, and inquired about getting a license.

Richardson, who speaks little Spanish, concluded both couples wanted to be married and performed a double ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. DeLeon decided several days later they no longer were in love. It was then they learned they were married.

Thanks Folks. We Got Elected—

... and it is a nice tribute to be favored with the confidence and good-will of one's neighbors and friends. Getting elected, you well know, may apply to business as well as politics. I doubt if we could get very far in a political race, but when it comes to making quality abstracts a host of customers far and near have for more than a quarter century favored us with a vote of confidence, and still do. And for that we are deeply appreciative!

FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

Indifferent:—"unconcerned; unimportant; mediocre; regardless." Indifference—"the state of being indifferent; absence of preference or interest;—mediocrity." Many "big" preachers say that "what church you belong to" or "what you believe" is a matter of "indifference". People are urged to be "indifferent" toward any appeal to serious consideration that might lead to a change in religious affiliation. This is an insult to God, Christ, and to the character and intelligence of you and me. Let us look at it.

If they mean for you to be "indifferent", you are to be "unconcerned" concerning where you spend eternity—in heaven or in hell. Also, if this be their meaning, you are to resign yourself to a state of "mediocrity", accepting "preachers" only as capable of religious thought. What an insult!

If it is meant that "what church" is a matter of indifference, then Christ was a fool for dying and shedding His blood to purchase it—Acts 20:28. Remember, no preacher has yet appeared intelligent while pleading that "the church" includes all the various denominations. He but shows his ignorance of the Bible.

If what is meant is that "what you believe" is a matter of indifference, then Christ lied when He said that all who do not believe the gospel shall be condemned—Mark 16:16. Again, we are reminded of the insulting attitude of all who so urge the people. They are accurately described in Jeremiah 5:30, 31—"A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so; and what will ye do in the end thereof?" The church of Christ does not believe in indifference in anything—does not care for the "mediocre" classification such would place upon us.

Long And Costly Battle Against Disease Is Ended

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—The United States and Mexico on Monday wind up one of the longest and most costly battles ever waged against animal disease when Mexico is formally declared free of the deadly hoof and mouth virus.

The disease broke out in Vera Cruz herds in 1946. Alarmed American officials, fearing decimation of U. S. herds, quickly banned importation of all Mexican livestock and with Mexico set out on a joint eradication campaign which only now has come to a triumphant conclusion.

The fight cost the American taxpayers more than $123 million. This was because Mexico was not equipped to wage a lone battle. It also resulted in the slaughter of a million Mexican cattle and the vaccination of 60 million head with a serum made in a joint Mexican-American laboratory.

To Open Borders

Lifting of the quarantine will open the border to imports of Mexican livestock. These totalled about 5000,000 head annually before the ban. It also will mean millions of dollars to American ranchers who own thousands of head which they graze in Mexico but could not sell this side of the border.

The quarantine will be lifted through a joint declaration by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan and Mexican officials. They will point out that there has been no new outbreak of the disease since August, 1951, and decree that Mexican cattle may, once again, cross the border.

At the height of the eradication campaign more than 3,000 Mexicans and Americans were employed by the joint eradication commission. A part of the drive was a tight patrol along the entire, 1,900-mile border.

1939 Tariff Act

The quarantine was imposed the 1939 tariff act which bans importation of cattle, sheep and swine or fresh, chilled or frozen meat from a country where the disease exists. That also is why the Canadian border was closed last February.

It is not known as yet how many Mexican cattle will cross the border. Since the embargo was declared Mexico has gone in for meat processing on a fairly big scale and may decide to keep the plants going.

This could mean that Texas cattlemen will find their once easily accessible supply of stocker and feeder cattle from Mexico reduced from what it was before the virus struck.

The last outbreak of hoof and mouth disease in the United States hit California in 1929. The most serious epidemic kindred to our own occurred in 1914 when the disease spread to 22 states and the District of Columbia.

The virus has been rampant in western Europe for many years and the United Nations agriculture organization hopes to develop an international plan to curb it. Europe's livestock losses for the past 12 months are estimated at $400.

McFadden Goes Dancing After Paris Display

PARIS, Aug. 30 (UP)—Chipper Bernard McFadden said Saturday he was considering asking permission to parachute into Russia's Volga river—if the Soviet invites him and foots the expense.

Heartened by the success of his Paris jump Friday, the 84-year-old physical culturist and "flying grandfather" also admitted he was looking at other European rivers as jumping targets.

McFadden said he might take a crack at London's Thames river "if the British aren't too stuffy" to give him permission.

He went nightclubbing Friday night and danced at the Lido Club only a few hours after he leaped from a twin-engine French airplane and landed in a vacant lot — instead of in the Seine river as he had planned.

Wanted Many Places

He was charged with attempted murder and armed robbery in San Diego, with armed robbery in Cincinnati, and was indicted in Cherokee, Wyo., for assault with intent to murder. Lorton said Bent also was wanted for unlawful flight after conviction and sentencing to 25 years in Leavenworth for robbing a post office sub-station at Grand Junction, Colo., and for holdups in Baton Rouge, La., and Minneapolis.

Lorton said the FBI received a tip from a resident of Anchorage, Alaska, some time ago indicating that Bent might be in Monterey, Mex., and an investigation pinpointed him in Texas City.

The fugitive was seen leaving an apartment building and drove off in a yellow 1951 Ford convertible. Police and FBI agents followed Bent as he drove through the Texas City business section. They confronted him when he parked his automobile.

The FBI agent said the fugitive had been living at Texas City for several weeks with a Monterrey woman identified as Alice Lartag. She told officers she met Bent in Monterrey, but knew nothing of his criminal background.
