

Ike Will Fire 'Both Barrels' Tonight

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (UP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and President Truman peppered Dwight D. Eisenhower on two fronts Wednesday as the Republican presidential candidate rolled up his heavy artillery.

Stevenson attacked Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's tactics for the second time in as many days as he invaded the controversial Republican's home state. In a speech prepared for delivery at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, the Democratic nominee pledged to fight "those who, in the name of anti-communism, would assault the community of freedom itself."

Mr. Truman, in a speech prepared for delivery at the annual Sherandoah, la., pancake festival, ridiculed Eisenhower's farm policies as "unbelievable . . . a condensation of generalities, platitudes, half truths and plain misrepresentation."

Defending the Brannan farm plan, the president accused Eisenhower of "some cheap name-calling" in criticizing the project of Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan.

The Eisenhower special rolled into California with the GOP standard bearer's aides predicting he will "let loose with both barrels" in a major speech in San Francisco Wednesday night. Eisenhower recently derided Mr. Truman's "harmless blanks," but a member of his camp said "it's now the general's turn to fire some heavy salvos at Mr. Truman—some real heavy ones."

Other Developments
Sen. John J. Spaulding, Stevenson's running mate, told a rally in Huntington, W. Va., that Eisenhower would be "sniped at and snatched . . . if he should ever be elected to office along with this bunch of Republican hatchmen who are now hanging on to his military toga." The Alabama said the "steady procession of compromises" made on the GOP nominee to his party's conservative wing would be "only a sample" of what he would be up against as president.

1954 YEAR RANGER, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1952 PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 92

2 Ciscoans Die In Train-Truck Crash Tuesday

Sam B. Mize was instantly killed, and Sam Moran, both of Cisco, died in Eastland Memorial hospital at 7 p.m. Tuesday evening as a result of a truck-train crash some 6 miles west of Eastland at 1:15 p.m., yesterday.

The truck, a large 6-wheeler, was loaded with telephone poles and had just turned off highway 80 to a country road when it passenger train No. 2, going east. So far as is known there were no witnesses to the crash other than members of the train crew.

Mize, who was killed instantly was taken to Thomas Funeral Home in Cisco, while Moran was brought to the Eastland Memorial hospital. According to the attending physician he suffered a fractured skull, brain concussion, the loss of one leg and an under-estimated number of internal injuries. He passed away at the hospital at 7:00 o'clock last night.

Both the men were residents of Cisco, and both were married.

Sam B. Mize, 22, is survived by his wife, Allene, formerly Allene Marsh, two sons, S. B., Jr., and Ronnie, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Mize, Sr., two brothers, Robert Earl and David Lee, all of Cisco. Five sisters, Mrs. G. Stull, Grand Island, Neb., Mrs. Frances Reeves, Eastland; Mrs. E. L. Rice of Carbon, and Misses Norma Sue and Mary Lou Mize of Cisco.

Sam Moran, who died in Eastland Memorial hospital Tuesday evening, has been moved to the Thomas Funeral Home in Cisco. Funeral arrangements are pending, though in all probability they will be held in Cisco some time Thursday.

PALO PINTO DEMO LEADERS SWING TO BACK EISENHOWER

PALO PINTO, Oct. 7 — The high command of Palo Pinto County's Democratic Party, the loyal administration backers who went down the line for two decades with FDR and his New Deal, the FDR third and fourth term crises, and Harry S. Truman's Fair Deal, swapped horses here Monday afternoon.

In a special meeting held in district courtroom of this county seat, the top brass of the county's tight-knit party organization formed a county-wide "Democrats for Eisenhower" group and mapped an intensive four weeks drive to reach into every precinct to "get out" the vote for GOP presidential candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower and his running mate, vice presidential aspirant Sen. Richard Nixon.

W. O. Gross, one of the county's big Democratic guns and one of a handful of key Mineral Wells leaders who have been in control of Palo Pinto party politics for many years, opened the session as temporary chairman, and the group representing nine of the county's precincts elected A. H. Brackman, Palo Pinto ranchman, as chairman of the new pro-Eisenhower Democratic organization.

The Palo Pinto stockman charged: "There's no longer any chance of recognition for the south" and then urged, "Let's box our necks. Let's don't go to the polls any more as slaves."

"We need a housecleaning" in Washington, the life-long Democrat declared, "and Stevenson can't do the job. He's Truman's man. He's been led in the wrong direction by the wrong crowd."

High Gridders Prepping Hard For Hamilton

It'll probably be dog-eat-dog when the Ranger High Bulldogs and Hamilton High Bulldogs clash in a non-conference battle out at Bulldog Stadium in Ranger Friday night at 8 p.m.

And so Coaches Stubby Warden and Sam Aills, pepped up and highly optimistic after their charges' impressive showing in their 13-7 triumph over the Winters Blazers last Friday night, put new zing into Maroon & White drills this week.

Adding to the peppery spirit of the RHS warriors as they prepped for their fifth contest of the '52 campaign was the cool, sippy break in the weather.

The Ranger high squad will be lashed through its last rugged head-knocking session this afternoon. Tomorrow it'll be a light drill tapering them off for their highly touted Friday night foes.

The Bulldogs' Hamilton have a classy-looking ball club this year and their crew of school-boy gridders average 160 pounds per man.

Reports from the embattled central front said French and South Korean forces alone have killed or wounded 2,000 to 3,000 Chinese Reds on Whitehorse mountain and Arrowhead ridge since Monday.

Red Drive Is Stalled By UN

Allied Troops Smash Biggest Attack In Year

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 8 (UP)—Averting United Nations forces recaptured two lost outposts from battered Chinese Reds and bottled for two hours in savage counterattacks Wednesday after stopping the biggest Red drive in 12 months.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet announced an enemy's 12,000-man "little offensive" of Monday and Tuesday before the Reds could penetrate the main Allied battle positions.

"Action has been limited to outposts and the enemy has been eluded in that zone," he told newsmen.

Reports from the embattled central front said French and South Korean forces alone have killed or wounded 2,000 to 3,000 Chinese Reds on Whitehorse mountain and Arrowhead ridge since Monday.

The crew of Arrowhead has changed hands 12 times since the Chinese assault began.

Morale is high
Van Fleet said the morale of UN troops "has never been higher" than in the current fighting.

SAN ANGELO, RANGER BATTLE OPENS PIONEER CONFERENCE TITLE SCRAMBLE FOR 1952

The Pioneer Conference title chase opens this Saturday when the San Angelo Rams, reigning loop champions, play the Ranger Junior College Rangers at San Angelo.

B. A. TUNNELL is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the turkey barbecue honoring the visiting committee of the Southern Association of Colleges which will be held at the Ranger Country Club today at 6 p.m. The affair is sponsored by the Ranger Chamber of Commerce and a large attendance is expected.

San Angelo by virtue of a terrific 34-7 victory over a strong Victoria Junior College eleven last week will be clearly favored over one of the classiest Ranger teams in years, according to a publicity report issued by Pioneer Conference headquarters in Arlington.

The Rams, coached by Max Baumgardner, former Texas Longhorn star, have impressive victories not only over Victoria, conqueror of Schreiner, but also over Del Mar and Wharton both of whom have beaten the awesome Tyler Junior College Apaches 10-0 fall.

Rams Are Tough
Paced by Ken Henson, Jack Bridges, Jack Freeman, and Ten Parker, the Rams possess an explosive passing and running attack and their defensive platoon, manned almost exclusively with veterans of last year's championship team is rated the strongest in the league.

Catch Boone Yarborough's Rangers, sparked by Caddo Sanders and Bud Hamrick, may be able to compete with the San Angelo offense on even terms. Sanders is the league's leading runner and Hamrick is an excellent passer and center. But the Rangers, beaten 19-0 by Navarro last week, probably will not be able to match the Ram defense.

Other conference teams: will continue their schedules against non-league opposition.
Thursday at Stephenville—the Tarleton State Pioneers will play the East Texas State B team of Commerce. Tarleton's impressive 27-7 victory over a strong Little Rock Ark. Junior College eleven last week indicates that the Pioneers are greatly improved over last season. The passing of Joe Bill Fox of Fort Worth is one of the chief reasons.
Watch This One
Arlington State's power laden Rebels, starring the pitching of Sam Howard and the running of Alf a dozen good backs, will be seeking their fifth consecutive victory of the season in Corsicana Saturday when they play the strong Navarro County Junior College eleven. Navarro's 12-0 upset of Ranger last week indicated that the Rebs, who have scored 131 points while holding four opponents to 13, will get their sternest test thus far this season in Corsicana.

C-C Directors Hold First Meet New Fiscal Year

New President—Charlie Joe Owen presided at the first meeting of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce directors for the new fiscal year at the Gholson Hotel last night at 6 o'clock.

During the session the directors decided to resume the monthly membership luncheons, discontinued during the summer months, and heard reports from various chamber committees were presented.

The C of C leaders also appointed Shelby Parnell as its director on the Ranger Community Chest.

A new welcoming committee was formed with its members consisting of C. E. May, B. A. Tunnell and A. N. Larson.

VOLUNTEER WORKERS THANKED FOR EFFORTS IN BLOOD DRIVE

Mrs. James P. Morris and Sgt. Jess Cole, co-chairmen of Ranger's recent blood donor drive which netted 113 pints of the vital fluid for fighting men overseas, today expressed their thanks for the success of the recent campaign.

"Our thanks," they said, "to Rev. Ralph Perkins and the First Baptist Church, to the Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., and Mr. M. L. King, Ranger Junior College for the typists, Granville Jones for securing so many donors, the boys who loaded the trucks, the ladies who furnished the cookies, and to Pat Moseley who took over when Jess Cole was called out of town."

The Ranger blood collection effort was headed by co-chairmen Mrs. Morris and Sgt. Cole and these chairmen: Mrs. Lee Dockery, personnel, Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell, canteen, Mrs. Howard Elwood, kitchen, Mrs. Glenn West, transportation, Mrs. P. M. Kaykendall, receptionists, Mrs. J. A. Bates, telephone, Mrs. S. B. Zucaro, typists, John White and W. P. Watkins, doctors, and R. V. Galloway, publicity.

Also cited by leaders for their efforts were these volunteer workers:
Misses Joe Nuesell, H. M. Bagwell, Buck Wallace, Joe Collins, Stanley McAnelly, Rudi Marshall, C. L. Dinmore, W. A. Robinson, R. W. Gordon, W. M. Eyley, J. Clem, R. F. Webb, M. L. King, W. C. Palmer, Saule

B. A. Ratchford Heads 5 Trades Day Winners

B. A. Ratchford, 601 Pershing, is the week-end and wonder man this week—and no wonder. He's richer to the tune of $50.

Ratchford was the top winner in the weekly Trades Day drawing, sponsored by Ranger's retail merchants, which was held here last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

More than 1,000 shoppers from Ranger and the surrounding area were registered for Saturday's drawing, reports Mrs. Mae Belle Oyer, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association.

Other lucky winners: Clifton Welton, Rt. 2, Eastland, $25; S. T. Eaton, Ranger and Mrs. J. B. Baker, 444 N. Austin, also this city, $10 each; and Mrs. Lillie Marlow, 207 Gord St., $5.00.

Criminal activity within the confines of the city of Ranger has been so negligible lately that the municipal bastille only use it as a sobering-up ward for over-indulgers of alcoholic beverages.

Chest Drive To Open October 21; Goal Is $7,400

Ranger's 1952 Community Chest drive will open on Tuesday, Oct. 21, with a goal of $7,500. W. C. Whittle, president of the local fund-raising group, announced today.

Strawn Meet Of Ike Backers Set For Thursday

Strawn Democrats, disaffected with the candidacy of Demo presidential nominee Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, have been called for a special meeting to be held at the City Hall in that community on Thursday afternoon, October 9 at 2:30 o'clock.

Both were released Tuesday morning on payment of fines of $15.70 each.

28-YEAR-OLD WIDOW, MOTHER OF SEVEN, ENROLLS AT TCU

With a green cap set on her head and her heart set in determination, Mrs. Stella Jennings, 28-year-old widow and mother of seven children, has enrolled in Fort Worth with Texas Christian University freshmen, taking her first step toward a future that promises more than "just a job." Mrs. Jennings has set a goal and she intends to reach it: "I want to become a Certified Public Accountant, so I can have my own business at home and be with my children at the same time," she declared.

Her children—Sigrid Ann 9; Harriet, 8; James, Jr., 7; Belinda, 4; Oveida, 3; and twins Sharon Sue and Sheila Lynn, 3 months—are delighted with the idea of their mother going back to school. "They all remind me not to forget my freshman cap," she laughed, "and the little one (Oveida) warned me, 'Don't let them make you do anything funny, mama.'"

The three older children attend Mary Louise Phillips Elementary School and are looking forward to their mother studying along with them. "When are you going to help me with MY homework?" was one of the first questions they popped," she said.

The Jennings moved to Fort Worth, a year and a half ago and the adults worked at Conair.

Widowed in January
Mrs. Jennings' husband, James Walter Jennings, died last January from a heart attack. The identical twins were not born until June. In March Mrs. Jennings was in Houston discussing financial arrangements with her father and a Certified Public Accountant when she decided that she wanted to become a CPA.

"I wanted some type of future," she explained, "besides just a job. That's what brought me to TCU."

VACATION TIME

By Margaret Rorke

From the mountains folks are pouring
For a visit to the plains,
From the cities they're exploring
In the mountainous terrains.

They are rushing by the legion
North and south and east and west,
Each to see the other's region
At a vanderlust's behest.

They are golfing, fishing, hiking,
They're in ships and cars and planes.
They are swimming, dancing, biking,
They're in motor boats and trains.

They're the folks across the nation
Oh, so tired, as they'll attest,
That they needed a vacation
Just to get a little rest.

Chili Popular Dish In Texas: How To Make It

Chili is a favorite dish for many families in this country. A nourishing, tasty food that can serve as a main dish for an important meal, or an item of delicacy for special treats, chili has as many different recipes as there are people who cook.

Louise Masor, foods and nutrition specialist for the Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M College, says people's taste for chili differ as much their methods of cooking. "Taste and tell," is her suggestion for becoming a good chili maker. Develop your own methods for seasoning.

The specialist suggests for nutritive value in chili, the use of one-third or one-fourth as much pork as beef. If you prepare your meat at home, chop or grind it coarsely. "You don't want your chili made of finely ground hamburger, so use meat in chewy-size pieces," she advised.

For a highly seasoned chili use freshly ground pepper pulp and comino seed for characteristic flavor. Onions and garlic are essential but beans are optional. Grate a little cheese on top of each serving, and be sure no grease is floating around.

The specialist suggests for a supper with chili as the main dish, try a tossed green salad, sour pickles, tortillas or crackers, and coffee. If you have dessert, make it fresh fruit or pean pralines.

If you are interested in canning a supply of chili, ask your county home demonstration agent for directions.

Why Should I Have an Abstract?

... is a question often asked of abstracters and one we like to answer. When ownership of real property enters your business life then title problems also come in. Buying, selling, mortgaging and otherwise dealing with real estate require correct title information. The abstract reflects the true record title and therefore has everything to do with values. That's one answer, there are many others.

PLUG 'N TRIGGER

This is the time of year when sportsmen cast their eyes toward star-lit skies on crisp nights and whisper a hopeful, "It won't be long now."
 The hunting season soon will be here and in many states already has opened on several species of small feathered and furred game.
 The difference between an enjoyable and successful hunting season and a total waterhull may lie in the manner in which you have planned your fall hunting activities.

Just planning your hunting season involves a world of pleasurable anticipation and reminiscing that only the hunter and the "gun nut" can understand.
 Last, but not least by any means is the fact that planning fall hunting activity usually takes in safety factors that otherwise may be overlooked.

The velocity or killing power of present day hunting weapons is terrifying. Our modern guns are designed to kill, not cripple, and they do kill with a stunning impact that in grandpa's days would have been considered impossible to achieve in anything other than a cannon.
 This correspondent has emphasized again and again that there is no excuse for hunting accidents. Yet they happen every year, despite educational campaigns on safety afield.

The final analysis reveals that it is truly the responsibility of each individual hunter to practice safe gun handling rules at all times. This—and this alone—can eliminate hunting accidents.
 That's a broad statement, I know, but if every sportsman and sports woman would just observe the simple fundamentals of gun handling, safety accidents would disappear from the records. The problem is as simple as that.

The biggest danger on your hunting trips lies in your own carelessness. Remember to treat EVERY gun with the respect due LOADED guns.
 The pointing of an unloaded gun in fun violates every cardinal rule of good sportsmanship. And it automatically brands you as a thoughtless novice, unfit for companionship with good sportsmen, and a careless and dangerous shooter with whom it's unsafe to go afield. Do it even unconsciously and you run the same risk.

Watch that gun barrel. Never indulge in horseplay or pranks that involve your gun or that of your companions.
 Never carry a loaded gun in a boat or car. Before firing, first make sure that the barrel of your gun is free from foreign obstruction. And always check the barrel in the event you stumble or fall.

Always keep your safety on and check it frequently. Never shoot at a sound or movement in the brush—always be certain of your target.
 If you can't see it clearly and without doubt, don't point that gun until you can.

Encourage your hunting friends to practice safety on every hunting trip. I have yet to hear of a nimbler sportsman than you.

NOSE, THROAT, and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."

REDS AND FREE WORLD VIE OR JAPAN'S TRADE

By Victor Kendrick
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 TOKYO (UP)—Japanese businessmen are in the enviable position of being able to sit back and enjoy the free world bidding against each other for the privilege of doing business with Japan.

Nationalist China, with an encouraging nod from the United States, is intensifying its efforts to divert Japanese trade away from the Communists occupying the mainland. It is part of a dual-purpose effort to strengthen its own economy at the expense of the Reds.

Former Nationalist Prime Minister Chang Chun, now visiting Japan as Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's personal representative is spearheading the fight by daily contacts with Japanese businessmen in all parts of the country.

His biggest asset is the presence of some 12,000,000 Chinese scattered throughout southeast Asia, most of whom are loyal to the Reds. Chang believes he can offer Japan the cooperation of these Chinese in exchange for giving up trade with Red China. The Japanese are still undecided.

All parties are aware that Japan must trade in order to survive. They also recall that mainland China before World War II was a big factor in Japan's economy, taking roughly a third of Japan's total exports while supplying such vital raw materials as coal and iron ore.

Japanese merchants have been exerting increasing pressure on the United States and its allies to be allowed to trade with Red China, and shortly will be admitted into the Paris organization set up by the five principal Western powers to coordinate their trade policies toward nations behind the Iron Curtain.

With that opening wedge the Japanese fought for a less rigid interpretation of the type of goods on the allies' embargo list, and won further concessions: permission to ship textile machinery, woolen goods, paper and dyestuffs to Communist China.

Now Japan is preparing to seek more concessions.
 The Chinese Communists shopping for strategic materials and aware that trade is a time-honored method of political infiltration, seem just as eager as the Japanese for mutual trade. They have offered a $30,000,000 trade agreement and are reported willing to settle accounts in yen through a Japanese bank in addition to shipping first and collecting payment later.

The Chinese Nationalists, eyeing these developments with growing concern, began urging Japanese firms to cease, and even started compiling a black list of firms which they will boycott for trading with the Reds.
 But their biggest ace in the hole is the goodwill of Chinese merchants in Southeast Asia, where they control most of the business. Chang Chun has proposed a conference of these loyal merchants to be held in Formosa next month, at which they will be urged to cooperate with the Japanese.

Our Congressman, Rep. Oma Burleson of Anson, is slated to move into the chairmanship of the Administration Committee.

Congressman Burleson, incidentally, has refused to make any campaign speeches on behalf of the Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

SIXTEEN STATES FIGURE IN ELECTORAL VOTE SHIFT; TEXAS GAINS, NOW HAS 24

By Frank Eleazer
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP) — As many voters have to be reminded from time to time, but as politicians never forget, presidents actually are elected by an institution known as the electoral college.

That is why, when the presidential nominees lay out their campaign tours, they keep one eye on the map and the other on a state-by-state list of electoral votes. It's the electoral vote that counts.

Here's the way it works.

Each state has a vote equal to the number of its house and senate members. The least populated states — Delaware, Nevada, Vermont and Wyoming — have only three electoral votes each. New York has the most with 45. The total electoral vote is 531. It takes 266 votes to elect a president.

Normally—except when an elector bolts as one did in Tennessee in 1948—each state's entire electoral vote is cast for the nominee who gets the biggest popular vote in the state.

Campaign managers recall that in 1948 a few thousand extra or changed votes in three big states—Ohio, California and Illinois—could have switched the outcome in those states and elected Thomas E. Dewey instead of Harry S. Truman.

That is why, in states where political sentiment is pretty closely divided, both Republicans and Democrats this year are putting on the pressure to get out every possible vote.

Because of population shifts recorded in the 1950 census, the electoral vote this year has been increased in seven states and decreased in nine. California, which had a big boost in population, scored the biggest increase in electoral strength, jumping from 25 to 32 votes.

Florida gained two votes and Maryland, Michigan, Texas, Virginia and Washington one each.

Pennsylvania lost three votes. New York, Oklahoma and Missouri lost two each. One vote was lost by Arkansas, Illinois, Kentucky, Mississippi and Tennessee.

Here is a table of electoral votes by states, four years ago and today:

Poll In Korea Reveals Gifts GIs Want Most

(UP)—With the deadline for mailing packages to Korea for Christmas approaching, wives, parents, sweethearts and friends of servicemen in Korea probably are wondering what to send overseas for Christmas.

A survey conducted by the "First Word," official news daily of the First Marine Division, indicated that the Marines have no need for Argyle socks, plaid mufflers or long-handled underwear.

Regulation cold weather clothing and gear issued is more than adequate for their needs.

In their place, the Leathernecks would welcome inexpensive wrist watches of the waterproof-rust-proof variety, portable radios with extra batteries and cigarette lighters.

Candles Welcome Heavy-duty old-fashioned candles are welcome always and can be used to light up the inside of a dark bunker during the long winter nights.

Gasoline lanterns are issued to the front line troops but there are never enough to go around. If you send your Marine a gasoline lantern, be sure you include extra gas mantels and several extra generators.

To feed the inner man eliminate the cakes, candies and cookies and in their place substitute cheese, packaged soups, good soluble coffee, tea, bottled meats, crackers, sardines, or other delicacies in jars or cans. Fresh fruit of any type is at a premium during the winter but it must be well-packed to keep it from freezing.

Reading Rates High To feed the soul, send your man plenty of reading material so he can keep up on current events. Books, magazines and home-town newspapers are high on their list. A pin-up calendar will brighten a bunker's drab interior and he will be able to mark off the days bringing him nearer home.

Last but not least, send plenty of pictures. Girl friends and wives not ashamed of their figures should send one taken in a bathing suit. It will keep your Marine warm during a cold winter.

Tips On Winter Care Of Car

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UP)—In case you have trouble starting your car during winter months, here are some of the tricks employed in the "far north" where temperatures often drop 30 degrees and more below zero:

Some motorists use five-weight motor oil, instead of the heavier conventional weights. In cold weather this makes it easier to turn over the motor since the oil doesn't get as thick.

Some drivers start their cars at least every four hours and let them warm up thoroughly to prevent them from getting "too stiff" and "too hard to turn over."

Motorists also use "head bolt heaters"—electrical bolts which fit into the head of the engine and attach to electrical outlets — to keep oil and grease in the engine from getting "too still." Also used are "electrical dip sticks" which are put in cars in place of the conventional oil-measuring dip-sticks. Plugged into electrical outlets these also serve to keep the car warmed up.

Most motorists make it a point to keep their gas tanks at least half-filled to help prevent moisture condensation which could lead to freezing of the gas line. The fuller the gas tank is kept, the better.

EVERY now and then we see cut prices on nylon hosiery—but they still look like a million. It's hard to convince neighbors that a man and his wife are one when they sound like a dozen.

for God for Nation

THIS IS OUR MINUTE IN TIME.

It may not come again.

This is our minute to think, not to dream. To speak, not to listen. To lead, not to follow.

Each of us — you, your family, your friends and neighbors, can . . . must do something to fill this minute with greatness.

Soon our country will select its leadership for the next few years. It is important that we select wisely. It is important that each of us register a choice by voting. But voting alone is not enough.

Let's do something more. Because only by "something more" can our leadership be made truly wise and this minute made great.

Our duty and our privilege are simple.

We need Faith —

To bring God to the Halls of Government; to restore Him to the Councils of Business; to return Him to the Front Room of Life. Let's do as wise men of old have always done. Let's spend our minute with God.

And as we reach for the ballot or the voting machine lever . . . let's reach into our hearts and find a prayer. Then, truly, this minute . . . our minute . . . will be great, that peace and happiness may visit our children.

Miss Juanita Briden Weds Glen Duncan In Breckenridge Rites

Miss Juanita Briden, a former resident of Ranger, was married to Glen Duncan in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday evening, October 4 at the First Christian Church in Breckenridge. The Rev. J. E. Montgomery officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Briden of Breckenridge and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. P. Duncan of Bryan.

Nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Gwen Dean, organist, and Miss Helen Gresham, vocalist. The altar was draped with white gladioluses flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers. The candelabra was backed by an arrangement of greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina length gown of white imported chantilly lace over ice blue satin, fashioned with a moiled bodice, scalloped sweetheart neckline and full gathered skirt. Flow length lace mitts completed the ensemble.

The short veil was attached to a blue satin eolot fashioned with chantilly lace and encrusted with seed pearls. For something old and borrowed, she wore pearl ear screws belonging to her cousin. For something new, she chose a single strand of pearls. Blue garters completed the traditional theme. The bride's bouquet was an arrangement of white staphenotis, centered by a single white orchid on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Vernon Johnson of Fort Worth, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of deep blue taffeta with a cascade arrangement of yellow Fuji mums and yellow roses. Carlyle Duncan of Burnett, served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother wore a two piece crepe dress of teal-blue, with a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a two piece taffeta dress of black and white with a white carnation corsage.

Ushers were E. J. Douglas of Ft. Worth and Tommy Briden, brother of the bride. Candelighters were Flora Simon and Tommy Briden.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 1119 West Elm. Guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Briden, Mrs. W. P. Duncan and the newlyweds.

The home was decorated throughout with baskets of white gladioluses and the bride's table was laid with white organza over lace. The three tiered cake, iced in blue and topped with white wedding bells, centered the table. The cake was banked with arrangements of greenery, yellow roses and tall white tapers in silver candelabra.

Mrs. C. P. Dooley presided at the punch bowl and the cake was served by Mrs. Glen Simon. Miss Peggy Dooley of Ranger registered guests in the bride's book.

For her going away ensemble, the bride wore a navy suit with pink and blue accessories. Following a ten day trip through Missouri and Arkansas, the couple will make their home in Bartlett.

The bride is a graduate of Ranger High School and Brantley-Draugh Business College in Fort Worth. For the past six years, she has been employed by the Department of Agriculture in Ft. Worth.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklin High School and A&M College. At present he is employed by the Department of Agriculture in Bartlett.

Dooley and daughter, Peggy of Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Duncan of Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Lee of Desdemona, Mrs. W. P. Duncan and Misses Irene Duncan and Patricia Sartain, all of Bryan.
