County Livestock Outlook Brighter for '53

By Ray B. McCorkle

What about the livestock industry in Eastland County? Is it as stable as it was a year ago? Do we have as many head of cattle—and what about prices? What is the feed situation, and are pastures going to be worth anything to us during the coming winter months?

Those and similar questions are being asked each day, but the average layman is not in position to give worthwhile answers. So this week the writer took a few hours and sought information on a wholesale basis. After talking to several cattle raisers, we visited the Faircloth Livestock Auction Sales office at Eastland, where we inserted our journalistic pump and operated it to full capacity for almost an hour. Sig Faircloth, Jr., our victim, answered many questions, and we shall pass the answers on to you. He admitted that all he knew had been gained in conversation with ranchers, farmers and others directly interested in the livestock business.

Our first question was, "What is the general outlook for 1953?" He replied that it is encouraging to say the least. "Conditions have been unstable for some time, but most of our customers feel that after the first of the year, things will level off and conditions should be pretty stable."

We learned that while many beef cattle have been sold during recent months, the county probably has about as many breeders as it had a year ago. This means that cattle, at least not too many of them, have not been sacrificed because of drought, high priced feed and scarce water. The growers have just taken it on the chin, and stayed in and pitched.

Prices have not been so good. Early last Spring fat calves were sold for as high as 36-38 cents. Today they are bringing about half that amount.

Hogs are holding their own pretty well, both in price a n d number. Only a small portion of hogs raised here are shipped away to market.

Business, so far as sales are concerned, will likely pick up immediately after the first of the year, Mr. Faircloth predicted. There are several reasons for this, though the most likely is that producers will not have to enter them on income tax reports at this time.

Good, fat calves are now bringing 22, 23 and even 24c and higher, at this time.

Attendance at the weekly sales has been good all along, though offerings have not been as heavy as usual during recent weeks.

Ranges in Eastland county have been benefitted by recent rains and showers, but they are far from good. In valleys and along creeks and low lands you will find plenty green grass, though on prairies and level land there is little sign of good grass.

Feed prices, especially hay, is still very high, and it seems next to impossible to find hay of good quality, no matter what type you buy or how high the price.

All in all, Eastland County is in pretty fair shape. Farmers and ranchers have suffered and are still suffering, but it appears they will tide over and be in fair fettle for another year.

SOMBRE CEREMONY—Governor Allan Shivers designates January 2-31 for the 1953 March of Dimes in a Statehouse ceremony climaxed by his official signature in the presence of General Robert J. Smith, Chairman of the MOD in Texas. Shivers noted that Texas has made "another first" but that it is ironically in the number of polio cases and in the amount of patient care funds advanced by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Holiday Death Toll Climbs In State, Nation

Although there were no violent deaths in Eastland County over the Christmas holidays period, the statewide toll of victims of accidents and tragedies reached the 112 mark.

Traffic deaths late Monday totaled 63, other accidents accounted for 23, and suicides and homicides have taken 26 lives.

Over the weekend highway crashes, shotguns, pistols and fire pushed Texas toward the prediction of 202 violent deaths earlier forecast for the state by the Department of Public Safety.

The heavy loss of life in accidents over the entire nation during the long Christmas week-end may have one good result, a lower death toll during the New Year holiday period.

The final tabulation Monday of accidental deaths during the four-day Christmas period showed a total of 740. This included 552 traffic deaths, 82 fire deaths and 106 deaths from various other accidental causes.

These deaths occurred during the 102 hours between 6 p.m. Wednesday and midnight Sunday.

Another 102-hour stretch of holiday fun and festivity begins Wednesday night — New Year's Eve.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, expressed hope that the long Christmas-death list will inspire caution during the New Year holiday. He said:

"The New Year traffic toll can be held to half of the Christmas toll if each of us will drive as if our life depended on it—and, believe me, it does."

There is still a chance that winter legumes and small grains planted for pasture now will pay big dividends in the spring; especially if no other grazing is now in sight.

1,710 Over 65 Years Of Age—

County Folks Grow 'Older' Census Says

Eastland County, Texas, and the nation in general are becoming "older," according to a report of the U. S. Bureau of the Census in Washington.

Approximately one in 14 Texans has passed his 65th birthday, the bureau revealed in its disclosure that the United States is steadily, on the basis of the age of population, becoming an "older" nation.

On the basis of Census Bureau findings, approximately 1,710 men and women in Eastland County are over 65 years of age.

And—more than half of the county's aged population reside in the section's three largest cities—Cisco, Ranger and Eastland.

According to population breakdowns, about 372 residents of Cisco are past the 65-year mark, an estimated 283 Rangerites are numbered among the aged, a n d approximately 257 Eastland men and women are over 65 years of age.

A census official said 540,000 Texans, or 7 per cent of the state's population, were 65 years old or more when the latest census estimates were made on July 1, 1951.

This means that Texas is "younger" than the national average. Census figures show that 1 in 12 civilian Americans, or 12,759,000 have passed the 65-year mark.

New Mexico is the "youngest" state in the nation, a census spokesman said. Only 5.1 per cent of the population of Texas' western neighbor is 65 years old or more. In New Hampshire, the nation's "oldest" state, the figure is 11.1 per cent.

Fifty years ago the proportion of civilian population 65 years old and over was only 1 in 25 persons, or 4.1 per cent. In 1930, still preceding federal social security legislation, the figure had jumped to 5.4 per cent—or 6,634,000 persons who had passed their 65th birthday.

Census officials point out that while the population of the nation has doubled during the last half century, the number of "old folks" 65 or over has quadrupled.

Dinner, Dance For Members Of Ranger Guard

Members of the Ranger Service Battery of the 648th Armored Field Artillery Battalion of the Texas National Guard and their wives and guests will be honored at a dinner and dance to be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 30, on the roof of the Connelice Hotel in Eastland. The dinner will be served at eight o'clock followed by dancing.

Brigadier General and M r s. Clayton P. Kerr of Dallas, commanding general of the 29th Armd. Division, were to have been guests at the dinner but due to a change in the inspection schedule, the General found it necessary to be in Marshall. In a wire to Sgt. Jess Cole, General Kerr stated "I regret that I will not be able to attend the annual dinner. Best wishes for a happy and successful new year." He will be represented by Col. and Mrs. Luther Orrick of Wichita Falls.

Other guests will be Lt. Col. and Mrs. Ralph M. Troinger of San Angelo, commanding officer of the 648th Armored Field Artillery Battalion, Capt. and Mrs. Willard H. Krueker of San Angelo, adjutant of the 648th Field Artillery Battalion, Capt. Frank N. Sayre and wife of Eastland, commanding officer of Btry. A., 648th Armored Battalion, Cisco, Mayor and Mrs. Price Crawley of Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tanner of Eastland, secretary of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. West of Ranger, former Captain of Service Battery, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Carr of Ranger.

Four Arrested For Drunkenness Over Weekend

Four persons—three men and a woman, all out-of-town residents—learned something about the high cost of intoxication here over the weekend.

Sunday morning at 3:05 a.m., officers of the Ranger Police Department picked up a Sweetwater man and jailed him on a charge of being drunk in his car.

Later Sunday morning he was released from the jail in City Hall on payment of a fine of $35.

Little less than 24 hours later, a trio of Ciscoans also learned that over-indulgence in alcoholic spirits is also a costly habit—at least, in the eyes of the law.

A Cisco man and his two companions, another Cisco resident and his wife, were picked up Monday morning at 1:30 charged with drunkenness.

The trio was released several hours later on payment of fines.

Those four arrests—all within a span of 24 hours—constituted all the activity at the Ranger Police Department, reports W. G. Pounds, chief.

COUNTY WILL OBSERVE NEW YEAR'S HOLIDAY

Climax of the 1952 holiday season in Eastland County, Texas and the nation neared today.

And Old Man '52, hovering on the brink of retiring into history, has only slightly more than 24 hours remaining before he'll exit and Infant 1953 arrives on the scene shortly past midnight tomorrow—at 12:01 a.m. Thursday, to be exact.

In compliance with a custom of long standing, banks, post offices and most all business firms over the Eastland County area will be closed for the traditional New Year holiday on Thursday, Jan. 1, 1953.

Residents are reminded to transact necessary business and complete their shopping before business closing hours Wednesday.

H. H. Inzer, 82, Dies In Gorman; Buried Saturday

Dr. H. H. Inzer, 82, of DeLeon, passed away in the Gorman hospital Friday, Dec. 26, and was buried at 2:30 Saturday afternoon in the DeLeon cemetery.

Dr. Inzer had practiced medicine in the DeLeon area for more than 30 years, and had many friends who regret his passing.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Among other relatives to mourn his loss are I. C. Inzer, nephew, and H. F. Hodges, cousin, both of Eastland.

Rites For Uncle Four Eastland Countians Friday

Funeral services for Max Huffman, 88-year-old uncle of four Eastland County residents, were held at the First Baptist Church in Junction Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was in Junction cemetery.

Mr. Huffman, a pioneer retired ranchman who was well known in Junction and Kerrville areas where he had been engaged in ranching for many years, died suddenly late Tuesday at his home in San Antonio.

He was the brother of the late W. A. Huffman of Ranger, and his wife had preceded him in death eight months earlier.

Mr. Huffman had been a life-long member of the Baptist church. Among survivors are two nieces, Mrs. J. H. McKinney and Mrs. Frank Hicklin, both of Ranger, and three nephews, Edgar Huffman of Ranger, Harvey Huffman of Cisco, and Claude Huffman of Fort Worth.

Rains Drench County Area

Welcome showers drenched most sections of Eastland County this morning.

The morning moisture-letting, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau, was due to end during the day, however, with dark, overcast skies clearing this afternoon.

The weathermen predicted fair weather for Wednesday.

Today's highest temperature, according to forecasters, will be recorded near 55 degrees this afternoon, and the mercury will dip down into the mid 30s tonight.

Wednesday's high will be in the mid-50s.

Skies are due to be partly cloudy but little change in temperature is expected over the Eastland County area.

On the basis of reports at 10 a.m. this morning, heaviest Eastland County precipitation, somewhat general over this and the surrounding region, was being gauged at Ranger.

The official U. S. Weather Bureau gauge at the Ranger Daily Times at that hour measured 1.34 inches of rain which had fallen during the Tuesday morning period.

A report by the Eastland Daily Telegram at the same time revealed that total moisture recorded at the Eastland County capital city at that time was .55 of an inch.

RJC President Resigns—

Boswell Ends 40-Year Career As Educator

The Board of Regents of Ranger Junior College accepted—with "regret"—the resignation of Dr. Grover C. Boswell, president of the co-educational collegiate institution for nearly 12 years, during a special called session in Ranger Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Boswell, who submitted his resignation to the regents Saturday morning, has accepted a position in the General Land Office at Austin and is scheduled to assume his new duties there on Monday, Jan. 5.

A. E. Crawley, president of the RJC board of regents, announced that Dean W. W. Smith was appointed acting president and that a successor to Dr. Boswell will be named in the "not too distant future."

Prior to coming to Ranger Dr. Boswell had served as president of Weatherford College, Weatherford, for five years. His resignation Saturday brought to an end a 40-year career as an educator.

Dr. Boswell, born in Elkhart, Tenn., where he remained until he was 13 years of age, began his career as a rural school principal. Later he served as superintendent of schools at Megargel for four years, headed the system at Ringgold for three years, was superintendent at Byers for five years, served in the same capacity at McLean for three years, and then he became dean of McMurry College, Abilene. He held that post for three years prior to ac-

DR. G. C. BOSWELL
Resignation Ends Long Career as Educator

The newly-resigned president of Ranger Junior College came to Ranger in 1941. He is a life member of Texas State Teachers Association, and also holds memberships in the National Education Association and Texas Historical Association.

Dr. Boswell is president of the Texas Junior College Athletic Association, a member of the board of directors of Texas Southern University, Houston, and a member of the Methodist Conference board of education for the past 16 years.

The Ranger educator, well known over the Southwest, is a member of the Methodist Church, is a Shriner, and is listed in "Who's Who in America."

His wife, the former Miss Mary Anna Murrell of Seymour, is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, Denton, and the couple has three children—two daughters and a son.

The son, Morris Boswell, is associated with the Amarillo Public Schools.

Their daughters are Mrs. Job B. Frantze of Austin and Miss Genevieve Boswell, also of that city.

Mrs. Frantze's husband is a member of the faculty of the University of Texas, and Miss Boswell is a member of the teaching staff of Allen Junior High School in Austin.

Dr. Boswell Issues Statement To Citizens Of Ranger

To the Citizens of Ranger:

After eleven and a half years as a school administrator in Ranger, nine of these years heading both the college and public schools and the remainder as president of the college only, I am asking the college Board of Regents to release me as president of the college.

My administration speaks for itself and in the main has been a pleasant one for me. I well remember the financial condition of the schools when I came into them, but with your loyalty and your cooperation we hurdled many problems.

Ranger is to be congratulated on having a good junior college. Board members, faculty, students and citizens have worked with me long and diligently in building a sound junior college of which the town and surrounding territory can be justly proud.

Many of you have given money for scholarships or provided jobs for deserving students. A generous gift from Mr. Oddie Cooper made possible the Cooper Library and many improvements have been made to the school plant through the help of those interested in the college.

Many long days and a lot of nights were spent in finding and securing building and equipment so that the college could have its own plant.

The citizens were not asked to vote bonds for the buildings. In the expansion program the Commercial State Bank was helpful in making loans which were repaid before the notes became due. The men who have served as board members have been men of vision and have given their time and service unstintingly.

I have no fears for the future of the college. Its buildings and equipment are paid for and in addition it has some rental property which is a financial aid to the college.

The Junior College Executive Committee, of which I am a member, has worked out a plan to submit to the next session of the Legislature requesting a Foundation Program for junior colleges similar to the Gilmer-Aiken plan for public schools. Should this pass the Legislature—and it should

'Acid Test' Coming This Weekend—

Bulldogs Top Wells, 48-35, for Fifth Win

A fair-sized audience of round-ball fans watched Coach Sam Aills' Ranger High Bulldogs, yet undefeated in hardwoods play, rack up their fifth straight cage win at the Recreation Building Saturday night as they outscored the Mineral Wells Mountaineers, 48-35.

The Maroon & Whites' offensive attack was paced by Tommy Hinds, Bulldog pivot man, who hit the mesh for 17 tallies. Forwards Chico Mendoza and Roddy Carter trailed their mate with 12 and 11 points respectively.

Other A-squadders who saw a ction in the humping of the Mineral Wells visiting cage crew were John Boyd Rush, guard, Charles Masseege, guard and forward, Scott Forney, who also alternates between the two posts, and Bill Brazds, forward.

In another encounter on the Saturday night double bill, the Ranger "B" stringers wound up a scrap with Mountaineer reservists on the short end of a 33-25 count.

B. H. King, Jr., was high-point-er for the losing Bulldogsmen, scoring nine of the RHSS' total of 25. Runner-up point-maker was Jerry Simmons. He canned a i x points.

In action for the "Bs" in addition to King and Simmons were Benny Robinson, Johnny Swaney, Cruz Vasquez, Rex Warren and Dan Mitchell.

During this week's holiday vacation, Coach Aills is putting his round-ball charges through rigorous daily drills.

They'll climax the week's grueling hardwoods prep activity with competition in Cjeman High School's fifth annual basketball tournament which will be staged at the host school Friday and Saturday.

Teams entered include Ranger, Brownwood, Winters, Brady, Stamford, Stephenville, Sweetwater, Novice, Anson, Coleman, Breckenridge and Comanche.

The Bulldogs performance in the week-end tournament will prove the acid test for the undefeated eagles who, in addition to dropping Mineral Wells in their most recent contest here Saturday night, have humbled the Eastland High Mavericks twice, also dined the Dublin Lions, and also held a win over Brock to stack up a perfect five-win record.

BTU Program For New Year Is Outlined

The Adult Department of the Training Union of the First Baptist Church is entering into a new phase of programs, study, and Bible readings. The new 1953 theme is, "Learn From Me," and will be the basis of programs for the entire year.

The theme for January: "The Truth About Human Life," and the four Sunday evening programs: (1) Human Nature is Bad; (2) "Where Human Culture Falls"; (3) "Christ Gives a New Nature"; (4) Can We convince Lost Millions that God Loves Them?"

There are three Unions in the Adult Department: The Challenge Union includes all married couples up to thirty-five years of age. Mr. Lewis Thomas is president.

The groupings are merely for the convenience of arranging Unions in smaller groups. Progressive churches have been using age as a basis for organization for the past twenty-five years.

All members of the church and those who would enjoy Bible study and inspiring programs are invited to attend and join one of these Unions. Mr. Morris Jefferies, is Director of the Adult Department and extends to all a most cordial invitation to attend the opening assembly program Sunday evening at 6:30 and the Union programs following.

New Year's Eve Rites At First Baptist Are Set

The annual "Watch Night Program" that has become traditional at the First Baptist Church comes forth with another meaning that promises for all spiritual purposes to be the finest yet planned. This program has been sponsored through the years by the Training Union of the church, and according to Walter Arterburn, director, all age groups will have something to do right on through the old year and begin the New Year in the right way.

The mid-week Bible study, led by the pastor, and at 8:15 the choir practice. Beginning at 8:15 the entire congregation will convene in the main auditorium for the choir rehearsal, song-fest, choruses, conducted by Mr. Bill Bullock. At 8:45 the deacons of the church will meet in a special conference in the library. Mr. Carl Page chairman of the deacons, urges all to be present for the supper, the prayer meeting and the deacons meeting. This is an important meeting and all the men should be present.

From 9:00 to 12 a program has been arranged by Walter Arterburn and Bill Bullock and they will be assisted by the departments of the Training Union. There will be observed the ordinance of Baptism and those awaiting baptism will be expected to be present.

There are many people living in Ranger and the area who do not have a church home and to each of these a hearty welcome is extended to come and enjoy this spiritual feast of the "New Year Watch Program."

For those who can come but are unable for any reason to stay through until the New Year, you are urged to attend and stay as long as possible.

The last hours of the old year, like the hours of life, "speed swiftly on" and each Christian ought to commemorate their all to the master for the year of 1953.

THE STORY: Private Detective George Kendall has been retained by the wealthy Albert P. Sutworth to end his daughter Marilyn's romance with an ex-convict named Max Arno. While working on the case, George persuades Marilyn to slip away from Arno. As they talk, George Arno himself tells Marilyn that he would like to live on a farm, George then asks the girl if she would like to be a farmer's wife. He had intended the question to be impertinent, but the way he said it made it sound like a proposal of marriage.

XIX GEORGE KENDALL awakened the next morning with the violent ringing of the telephone. The clerk downstairs told him, a little bit hysterically that someone had delivered a cow to the hotel.

"Weren't you told about having pets in your room?" the clerk asked stiffly. "Pats! That's no pet of mine."

"But the animal is addressed to you," said the clerk. "We signed for it, but you'll have to take it somewhere else."

George showered and dressed and then summoned Verna Denton from her room. Quickly he told her about the cow.

"Old MacDonald had a farm, but I didn't think he ran one in a hotel," she said. "Go bury yourself," said George. "No thanks, I'm going over to the gym to see Max."

"In the lobby he managed to get the cow taken away to a stockyard or wherever cows are kept, and after breakfast he returned to his room. The phone rang. George lifted the receiver and found himself talking to Marilyn.

mind for him. All he wanted out of life was a small farm, or a small cottage in a small town like Seneca Springs. There'd be land to till, cows to milk and maybe a family to feed.

Well, even if he didn't live on a farm, he might go into some nice quiet business. This was the kind of life he wanted, the kind he'd lived when he was a boy. The kind of life he wanted to return to. And if Marilyn would accept that kind of life—it would be perfect.

It was an hour later. He'd shaved, cleaned up, even went out for a quick cup of coffee, but now, back in his room at the Seneca Springs Hotel, there was a knock at the door. He opened it.

A wallet hit him in the face. "George Kendall, I think you're the lowest thing that ever lived."

"Don't baby me," Marilyn snapped. "I've had some pretty low tricks played on me, but yours takes the cake."

"I don't understand, Marilyn. 'Don't act so innocent,' she said. 'I got weaker just before I came over here. I had to be snooty and look inside your wallet and guess what I found? Father's New York address. You've been working for Dad all along, and all this stuff about you and I getting married—it was just to get me away from Chief Big Bear, wasn't it? Go ahead. Deny it.'

"Marilyn— 'Please don't make any explanations.' She was crying. 'I wouldn't believe anything you told me now,' she sobbed. She pivoted. 'George Kendall, I never want to see you again as long as I live! I'm going to marry Max!'

She turned on her heels and started out of the door. George, who had been conscience-troubled about making a clean breast of the whole business, now sought to restrain her. Whether he was really in love with her or not, he couldn't stand to have her think this of him.

She hurried down the hall and Kendall ran after her, down the stairs, through the lobby and onto the street. He pleaded with her to listen, but she wouldn't even look at him.

What is Meant by "Title"?
. . . is another common question asked of abstracters especially by those who are buying real estate for the first time. As the term "title" relates to real property it means ownership—the right to use, possess, enjoy, dispose of and mortgage. The indisputable evidence of title in this sense is a dependable abstract, not just any kind of an abstract but one with some financial responsibility behind it. Do you have a dependable abstract to your home in town or to your farm?

"America has never been known as a nation of teetotalers," he states. But today "there is a decided increase of alcoholism in all groups and ages."

The figure of a million chronic addicts includes only those who have been treated in a hospital. In addition to these and the heavy drinkers, the doctor says there are forty million "social drinkers."

"Daddy, what is a bachelor?"
"A bachelor, my boy, is a man who didn't have a car when he was young."

It is with much regret, not to mention the initial shocked surprise, that we have chronicled elsewhere in news columns of The Ranger Daily Times the resignation of Dr. Grover C. Boswell as president of Ranger Junior College. In the course of our reportorial duties we have contacted Dr. Boswell on many occasions, including countless telephone confabs, and have enjoyed several visits to his office. We have even learned, finally, to appreciate his sense of humor. Our best wishes, along with similar sentimental expressions of hundreds of other friends and admirers, go with him as he embarks on a new career . . . At 10 a.m. this morning skies were continuing to weep profusely over Ranger. Not so profuse, however, was the moisture-letting at Eastland and Cisco. "Heavy misting" . . . "drizzling" . . . and much similar terms were offered in reports from those neighboring cities . . . Eastland County's voting strength for the new year will be "way down. Due, of course, to 1953 being an "off-election" year. Stanley Webb, tax assessor and collector, predicts that poll tax payments will total around 3,000—far under the 7,000-plus voting strength of Eastland County during 1952—a torrid election year. All-out drive for poll tax payments will get under way after New Year's with sub-stations over the county pushing campaigns. In Ranger, C. E. May, Jr., will head final poll tax payment drive. Final deadline: January 31, 1953. Not far away . . . New 1953 auto license tags will go on sale at the office of the tax assessor and collector at Eastland on Feb. 1. The tags have not been received by the office, but are expected soon—probably by mid-January . . . If your bright new year hopes include the notion that the price of dear old thick, juicy beef steak and other meat treats are due to be dispensed by butchers at lower prices in 1953—just skip it. The experts this week have stuck their necks out—predicting that retail prices will remain at present high levels during 1953. Reason: Increasing consumer demand and decreasing meat supplies . . .

Earl Lebrero: "These are especially strong shirts, madam. Why, they simply laugh at the laundry!"
Customer: "I know that kind. I had some that came back with their sides split."

as it is sound legislation—it would provide a sum of from $200 to $300 for each regular student enrolled.

My first year in Ranger there were 56 students enrolled in the junior college. This year there are approximately 350 students including our evening schools. So you can see we have had a steady growth in enrollment.

I shall always hold the people of Ranger very dear to my heart and Ranger Junior College has become a vital part of my life.

Since I feel that 40 years of school work is long enough for me, I have decided to take on a new assignment. After January 5 I will be associated with the Texas Land Office in Austin.

To my successor as President of Ranger Junior College, I offer my heartiest congratulations and a sincere wish that his work in the college will be as pleasant as mine has been.

Our years of service in Ranger have been busy, happy years and we have learned to love and appreciate Ranger people. We feel that we have many friends here and we know that we will miss you. Mrs. Boswell and our daughters join me in expressing our appreciation for your fine spirit of friendship and cooperation, and I assure you there will always be a warm place in our hearts for Ranger and its people.
Sincerely,
G. C. Boswell.

ment of the increasing number of new victims and for the care of patients of previous year. Therefore I, as Governor of Texas, hereby designate the period January 2-31 for the 1953 March of Dimes in Texas and urge every citizen to contribute as he is able to the success of this worthy campaign."

Mrs. J. A. Bates of Ranger is chairman of the March of Dimes drive in Eastland County.

She and her staff of volunteer workers who'll stage the intensive 30-day fund-raising campaign are urging Eastland Counties to contribute liberally this year.

The county MOD group is asking for donations of a minimum of $1 for each man, woman and child in the area.

Periodic Health Checks Advised By Chief Medic

If you have not had an audit made recently of your physical assets and liabilities, go to your doctor now and have it done, is the advice of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to grown-ups in Texas. It is quite an important to check up on your physical resources as it is to look into the state of your financial possessions. By regular care under your physician's directions, you can conserve your physical assets and avoid an accumulation of destructive liabilities.

Everyone starts with a certain amount of physical capital and as a personal business proposition it is worthwhile to preserve. In infancy and childhood our physical resources, as a rule, are safeguards for us. As we grow older, the responsibility for doing so rests upon the individual. The critical period for many comes in middle life with the sudden realization that the physical capital is yielding diminishing returns in the way of physical well being.

The records of health departments and of insurance companies show that from 10 to 15 years have been added to the average length of life. But the same records show that a majority of the deaths are due to the degenerative diseases of middle age.

Nearly all of these diseases have slow beginnings and their onset discovered through physical examinations before they have gained serious headway. Early detection, adjustment of physical expenditures and better budgeting of activities under a physician's direction will help shift the balance from the unfavorable to the favorable side of the ledger.

New Bulletin On Broilers Is Issued By A-M

Broiler production in Texas is big business. During the past year more than 50 million broilers were marketed and the industry is still expanding.

As an aid to broiler growers, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has released a new bulletin, "B-204, Broiler Production", and it is available at all county Extension offices. Extension Poultry Husbandman W. J. Moore is the author.

Moore says broiler production in Texas has become a specialized industry. Modern breeding and feeding methods, he continues, permit year-round production and this enables the grower to utilize all his facilities and assures a steady source of income. Large scale production results in higher profits, better markets and the maximum use of labor and equipment, says the specialist.

Included in the bulletin is information on baby chicks, brooding, housing, feeding, lights, sanitation and a discussion on the use of battery brooders. The latest research findings and experiences of broiler producers were used by Moore in writing the publication. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Poultry Husbandry Department of Texas A&M College have contributed much to this research especially in the use of antibiotics and vitamins.

Persons interested in securing a copy of the bulletin should contact their local county agent. It is available without charge.

Beth Pearson Becomes Bride Of James S. Cosper Saturday Night

Miss Beth Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Pearson of Ranger, became the bride of James Shafer Cosper, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cosper of Monahans in a ceremony performed Saturday evening, December 27 in the First Methodist Church in Ranger. The Rev. George W. Shearer of Fort Worth officiated at the double ring ceremony. Bill Bullock, vocalist, sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because." He was accompanied by Mrs. Felton Brashier, organist, who played several wedding selections.

The couple was married before an altar which was accented by a tall white column topped with a huge arrangement of white gladioluses, mums and pom poms. Above this was an arch holding white tapers before a solid background of emerald foliage. This arrangement was flanked by graduated columns topped with white gladioluses, mums and pom poms. In the foreground were four floor arrangements of basket flowers. The candelabra, decorated with emerald foliage, was connected with plumose roping. Garlands of pom poms completed the candelabra arrangement. The chancel rail was decorated with basket arrangements and palms.

The kneeling pillow was of white satin, lace and tulle with a lace and satin panel extending over the chancel rail. The panel was caught with a bow at each corner and completed with streamers going to the pillow. The pews were decorated with large white satin bows and garlands of white pom poms. A large arrangement of mums were placed on the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of ivory slipper satin and Chantilly lace, fashioned with a fitted bodice and round neckline of illusion. The long fitted sleeves tapered to points over the hands and the full skirt extended into a chapel length train. Her veil of imported illusion fell from a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace. Her bouquet was of feathered white carnations centered by a white orchid.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Elton Heath of Sundown, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Misses Katherine Adams and Nancy Phillips of Ranger a n d Kitty Miers of Dallas. The attendants were dressed identically in gold gowns of nylon net and velvet fashioned with a fitted bodice touched with shirred net and a detachable fishue. The full skirts were clouds of net over taffeta and headpieces were bands of velvet roses with a wisp of veiling. Their bouquets were crescent shaped designed of brown a n d yellow pom pom chrysanthemums accented with irrigated croton leaves and loops of brown veined ribbons.

William H. Hinkson of Sundown was best man and groomsmen were Elton D. Heath of Sundown, Joe Jernigan of Sundown and James E. Brothers of Strawn. Ushers were James R. Tolles of Snyder, David Rushing of Abilene a n d Champ Pearson of Ranger.

A reception, immediately following the wedding, was held at the bride's home. An arrangement of red chrysanthemums was placed on the mantel and red tapers in silver holders were used on the small table where guests were registered. The color scheme was further carried out by the red chrysanthemums on the end table near the piano. The brides' table was decorated beautifully with the three tiered cake of white a n d yellow. The white and yellow theme was also used in the yellow roses on the table. A silver coffee service and a silver tray holding open faced sandwiches completed the arrangement.

Seven branch candelabrum holding yellow tapers were used on the credenza and another candelabrum was placed on the mantel flanking the floral arrangement.

Miss Electra Pearson cut the bridal cake and Miss Mercedes Pearson poured the coffee. Others in the house party included Miss June Ann Morton, Miss Betty Lou Haggaman, Mrs. James P. Morris, Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, Miss Billye Jeanne Crawley, Miss Nancy Cosper, Miss Betty Cosper, Miss Jacqueline Smith of Strawn and Mrs. James R. Tolles.

Mrs. Cosper is a graduate of Texas Christian University at Fort Worth and Mr. Cosper was graduated from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Levelland.

Mrs. James Shafer Cosper

Miss Pearson and Mr. Cosper Are Honored At Rehearsal Dinner Fri.

A rehearsal dinner, honoring Miss Beth Pearson and James Shafer Cosper, was given in the home of Mrs. M. H. Haggaman at seven o'clock in the evening on December 26. Host and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Haggaman and Mrs. M. H. Haggaman.

The house was decorated throughout in the yuletide theme and a musical church surrounded by snow men formed the decorations for the mantel. Blue candles in crystal holders encircled with silver leaves were used as center pieces for the small tables covered with white madiera cloths. The dining table was completely of white, a white taper centered an arrangement of white and silver flowers and was flanked with white tapers in crystal holders. Small individual place cards bearing the proverbial wedding slipper completed the table decorations. A seven branched candelabra holding white tapers gave a subdued light from the buffet.

The gifts from the bride-elect and the groom, presented to members of the wedding party, were wrapped in colors blending with the entire theme. Accentuating the colorful scene was a large lighted Christmas tree banked before the French doors between the living room and dining room.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Flake Turner had as Christmas visitors in their home, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Merrill a n d children of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Connor and children of Ballinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Kirk and two daughters of Ranger.

Colonel Brashier, Mrs. Myrtle Smith and Tennis Merrick spent Christmas day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brashier in Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Horton have received word that their son-in-law, L. B. Wooten of Banning, California, underwent surgery Dec. 16. His condition is reported to be very good.

Miss Rita Sanchez has returned from Dallas where she spent the Christmas holidays.

Miss Gussie Leverett has returned to her home in Dallas following a visit in the home of her mother, Mrs. T. M. Leverett.

Miss Deanne Sanders has returned to her home in Odessa after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Leslie Jones Sanders.

Anne Margaret Circle Meeting

Members of the Anne Margaret Circle of the First Baptist Church met December 22 in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy for a regular business meeting. The meeting was opened by the circle chairman, Mrs. Earle Pittman and Mrs. A. Kirk was in charge of the program. The program was entitled "Where Jesus Walked." Those participating were Misses Ronald Froot, Pittman and Kennedy. "The Revised Standard Bible" was discussed by Mrs. Marshall E. Jolly. Mrs. Walter Arterburn led the benediction.

The members then moved from the Kennedy home to the church where they were served refreshments and were present when Mrs. Ralph Perkins received her gift from the W.M.U.
