Gorman Legion Is Reactivated; Officers Chosen

Gorman Veterans of the Armed Services have reactivated the Mauney-Bryan American Legion Post 594. Officers were elected and were installed Monday night by Commander Bleck of Eastland at the Fire Hall in Gorman.

The new Post Commander is Willie O. (Bill) Parr.

Post 594 was organized just following World War I as the Mauney American Legion Post, named in honor of Alvin Mauney who gave his life in the Argonne Forest. Later the post became inactive, but following World War II it was reactivated and the name changed to Mauney-Bryan American Legion. The latter name honors the memory of Leland Bryan who died during the Pearl Harbor attack.

For the benefit of some of you weary toilers who've racked your brains regarding choice of a possible change in your respective vocations, Heavy's research department may be of some valued assistance.

For instance, had any of you guys ever thought about such an ideal position as this: Nightwatchman in a mattress factory.

ONYX JOINS IN NEW OIL PRICE BOOST

Strengthening the certain possibility of a coming—and soon—gasoline price boost of from half a cent to a cent and a half per gallon, Onyx Refining Co. and Magnolia Petroleum Co. Wednesday joined the parade of companies meeting the new 25-cent-a-barrel crude oil price hike.

The Onyx announcement was made through Vice-President Jack Levering, who issued the following statement:

"Effective 7 a. m. June 15, 1953, Onyx Refining Co. issued Crude Oil Price Bulletin No. 6, posting a price increase of 25 cents per barrel for crude oil purchased in West Central Texas.

Moisture Dwindling Fast—

Scorching Heat Wave Continues

The current scorching mid-June heat wave is still in high gear and little hope for a let-up was seen today in the forecast of the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The near and over 100-degree temperature trend of the past two weeks is scheduled to continue at least two more days—today and Friday.

Top mercury readings for both days, weathermen say, will be around 100 sizzling degrees.

The low for tonight again is scheduled for the mid-70s.

Skies were scheduled for clear to partly cloudy.

The North Central Texas forecast calls for generally fair weather Thursday and Friday with widely scattered thundershowers in extreme northwest—today and Friday.

Legionnaires Pullman, Murphy and Francis of Eastland were in attendance.

Watch Health During Summer; Prevent Disease

If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 degrees and above.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fatigue. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workers whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt, and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramps is characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

The defense department today reported 443 American casualties in Korea for last week, to bring the total since start of the war to 136,029.

The increase, largest in seven weeks, included 67 dead, 354 wounded and 22 missing.

The new total consists of 24,281 dead, 98,851 wounded, 2,675 missing and known to be prisoners, 8,082 missing and unaccounted for, and 1,540 men who were missing for extended periods but now have returned to duty.

The summary showed an increase of 179 in the number of missing who now officially are known to be prisoners. The increase for the week was the largest since 623 American casualties were reported April 29, and compared with 224 casualties for the preceding seven days.

Spokesmen said the upturn undoubtedly was due to heavy Communist attacks launched to gain a "last grab" advantage in determining a truce demarcation line.

The Army now has suffered 105,623 casualties while the Marine Corps has reported 26,396, the Navy 2,902 and the Air Force 1,468.

SAVOR THE FLAVOR

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. — Light gives milk an unpleasant taste and deprives it of some nutrition, according to Dr. D. V. Josephson, head of animal husbandry at Pennsylvania State College. He says dairymen there that flavor, rather than nutritional value, is milk's best selling point.

SIZZLING SUN IS BIG THREAT — HOME GARDENERS PLAGUED BY WEATHER; RAIN IS NEEDED

The weather—always a favorite topic of conversation—playing hobo with home gardeners. A month ago it was too wet in parts of the state and too dry in others and right now it's on the dry and hot side all over. The yields and quality of garden vegetables will both be cut, says J. E. Hutchinson, horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, unless steps are taken to offset the adverse growing conditions.

Keep down weeds and grass that compete with the vegetables for vital moisture and plant food, says the specialist. Cultivate just deep enough to get the weeds and break the surface crust. Cultivation when properly done, leaves the soil in a loose friable condition so that air and moisture from either rain or irrigation can penetrate. Deep cultivation, explains Hutchinson, disturbs and may even destroy the roots of shallow rooted vegetables such as squash, cucumber, cantaloupes and sweet corn.

A good mulch of organic materials will help conserve moisture that is in the soil and will also help control weeds and grass and lower the soil temperature.

Most garden soils need about an inch of water per week to keep the vegetables coming to the family table. If this amount of moisture is not forthcoming as rain, then supplemental irrigation should be used, advises Hutchinson. He says it takes about 20 minutes of average flow from a common garden hose to apply an inch of water to 100 square feet and that one good soaking every 7 to 10 days is much better than frequent light sprinklings.

And finally, he says, if insects are causing trouble, get them early for if allowed to multiply, they'll soon take the garden.

TEXAS POLIO CASES DOWN DURING WEEK

Texas polio pulled a surprise last week. Despite the state's severe heat, the dread disease tumbled to 46 new cases, 10 under the week previous, the State Health Department reported today.

Ordinarily, polio runs wild in prolonged hot weather. At this time a year ago it had already begun its record smashing pace that eventually led to the worst polio year in the state's history.

This year's total cases rose to 392, less than half the year-ago figure for the comparable period.

Twenty-six counties reported the new cases. For eight counties it was their first incidence this year. Meanwhile, 21,946 cubic centimeters of gamma globulin had been distributed in Texas through June 16 to aid the battle against the disease. The blood fraction, which contains antibodies against all three known types of polio, is distributed free to city and county health officers.

New polio cases were reported by these counties:

Cameron, 6 cases; Dallas and Harris, 5 each; Nueces, 4; McLennan, 3; Jefferson and Lipscomb, 2 each; Bexar, Bowie, Cass, Chambers, Comanche, Cooke, Delta, Denton, Fort Bend, Grayson, Harrison, Howard, Johnson, Navarro, Orange, Panola, Travis, Van Zandt, and Wichita, 1 each.

Poll Reveals Citizens Favor RJC Tax Hike

Sentiment favoring the proposed increase in the tax for Ranger Junior College — to be voted upon by citizens at the polls next Tuesday, June 23 — continued to mount today, according to the poll being conducted daily by The Ranger Times.

Addie Williams, former city commissioner and one of Ranger's civic leaders, says: "We have a good investment in Ranger Junior College — and we simply must protect it!"

Asserting that he'll vote in favor of the 30-cent tax increase next Tuesday, Gaston Dixon, another prominent Rangerite, declares "Ranger Junior College certainly is a big asset to Ranger, and," he adds, "in addition I have a personal feeling about it, too. I have two boys I'd like to send out there."

"I'm in favor of the tax increase for RJC," comments D. E. Pulley, "and I'm in favor of anything that gives our young men and young women a chance to get an education."

Genial young Larry Parefoy, Jewett at E. L. Martin & Sons Department Store, is another Rangerite staunchly in favor of the increased funds over the entire district to build and build the city-owned Junior College. "I'm voting for the measure," Larry says. "We must keep Ranger Junior College open and build toward a brighter future."

Dr. E. R. Green, Ranger chiropractor, sums up his sentiment: "I don't support it. If we don't support it, we're liable to lose it."

More comments of citizens regarding this important civic issue in the coming election next Tuesday at City Hall will appear in tomorrow's Times.

He warned that "as long as the Russian bear is on the horizon, it appears we will have to keep the bear trap loaded!"

ECFB Planning New Drive For Members

Plans for an early membership campaign were discussed at the regular meeting of the Eastland County Farm Bureau directors, on Thursday night, June 11th, in the county court room, at Eastland. County president, A. Z. Myrick, presided.

Guest speaker on the night program was Bob Lilly, Texas Farm Bureau Federation field representative for the 32 counties in District 7. Lilly presented some ideas and suggestions which will prove helpful in the annual membership drive, to be staged shortly. Howard Ingram of Nirmar, is the county membership chairman.

The Queens contest committee met and formulated plans for the county queen who will be chosen from entrants from the various communities, the winner to compete in the district contest, at a later date.

The girls, not less than sixteen years of age and not more than twenty-two by September 1, 1953, who are daughters or sisters of Farm Bureau members, are eligible to participate in the contest. They will be judged on three main points: (1) appearance, (2) poise, (3) personality. The judges will be appointed by the committee in charge.

Costumes of the contestants will be informal cottons, in any desired color or designed in the style which best suits that particular girl. Each girl will receive a beautiful set of costume jewelry and the queen will receive an appointed piece of luggage and will carry an arm bouquet of red roses for the coronation.

Date set for the event, according to Herb Tanner, secretary-manager of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, will be August 7th, during the Horned Teard Derby at Eastland.

The Texas Farm Bureau Federation carried out its slogan—"Protects and Promotes Agriculture"—during the recent 53rd Legislature, was a statement made by A. Z. Myrick, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau, recently.

"One importance of the session, to farmers, was the absence of any real threat to take away the rural road appropriations, the share of the vehicle registration fees or the county road bond assumption monies," Myrick pointed out.

An attempt was made in 1951 to take money from these, plus the farmers refund on tractor gas, for building super highways. This was defeated through the solid efforts

Make It A Picnic Reunion

FAMILY FUN

It's many years since first we rode to a family reunion in a "surrey with the fringe on top," but in essence they are much the same today. Fried chicken, cold glass, and the big plate of ham sandwiches continue to hold places of honor at the picnic table.

However, meals for the big family gathering are not as much work as they were a few decades ago. Hot foods arrive in stove-to-table serving pieces, and salads travel the good way, in plastic covered containers packed in a large kettle of ice cubes. We slip the electric roaster, fried chicken and all into the car. Bread and buns are musts for every picnic, and the wide variety of breads at the bakery offer a greater selection than was available when baking was a home chore.

Suitable fillings for frozen sandwiches are: peanut butter, cooked egg yolk, grated Bleu or process cheese, sliced or chopped cooked or canned meat, fish or chicken. Fillings that should not be used for frozen sandwiches include: lettuce, celery, carrots, tomatoes or other raw vegetables, egg whites, mayonnaise or salad dressing, sliced or cream cheese, jelly, honey or preserves. It is recommended that mayonnaise and lettuce be carried separately and added to sandwiches just before they are to be eaten. Cakes, cookies and pies also may be purchased in advance and stored in the freezer until the reunion day. Two hours should be allowed for the thawing of these items.

Today, with less effort, there is more fun. Foods can taste as good and have as much eye appeal as they had in the good old days of the surrey.

Spiritual Understanding in Day By Day Living Convention Theme

The practical value of spiritual understanding in daily life was the keynote as more than 7,500 Christian Scientists from throughout the world met recently for the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

A special message from The Christian Science Board of Directors told the gathering that materialism not only is being challenged, but is yielding increasingly, to the impact of spiritual enlightenment.

Bearing witness to this were incidents of Christian Science healing read at the meeting which included total recovery from a serious case of poliomyelitis, abdominal cancer, rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart diagnosed as incurable, dislocated hips thought beyond recovery, and accident injuries pronounced fatal.

Through prayerful living of pure Christianity, the Directors said, "painless progress can be made by the individual and by humanity as a whole."

Named President of The Mother Church for the coming year was Mrs. F. Cudworth of Boston, a Christian Science practitioner active in the healing work of the denomination for almost 50

Block-long building of The Christian Science Publishing Society—One, Norway Street, Boston, Mass. Approximately 80,000,000 pieces of Christian Science literature are produced in this building each year. This is the home of The Christian Science Monitor, the denomination's international daily newspaper, read in some 120 lands throughout the world, as well as of the denomination's weekly, monthly, and quarterly periodicals.

other points. More than 400 civilian workers are ministering to hospitalized veterans and members of the armed forces. Fourteen Christian Science chaplains—three of them in Korea—are on active duty with troops.

Officials announced that 34 new branches of The Mother Church were established during the year. They included branches in Casablanca, Morocco; Apeldoorn, the Netherlands, and several in Germany. Christian Science lecturers toured many parts of the world, including Korea.

New translations of certain of the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science into Swedish, Dutch, Greek, and Russian, were announced by the Trustees under her will, who reported a year of "outstanding activity."

Ever Thought of This?

... If you buy real estate without an abstract the chances are good that you will be required to furnish one when you sell or borrow money. It is customary for seller to furnish buyer with an abstract as he usually adds cost of same to the sale's price. So for many reasons all in your favor get an abstract and have it examined by your attorney when you buy real estate.

There's only one answer...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks.

If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical then that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost? That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

Truck Use At New High . . . Taxes Are Too

DETROIT — Federal excise tax payments on new motor trucks are heading for an all-time high in 1953, according to the Automobile Manufacturers Association.

First quarter reports, the AMA stated, show that truck excise taxes are being collected at an annual rate of approximately $200 million. This is more than $12 million above the record total reached in 1952, and a 3,000% increase since 1935.

Total special truck levies in 1952 reached $1.4 billion, or about 35% of all special highway user taxes.

The rapid postwar increase in truck taxes, the AMA said, can be attributed both to higher tax rates and to a tremendous growth in truck use.

The number of trucks built in the U.S. during the past 7 1/2 years exceeds total production for the 36 years from 1900 to 1937.

More than 9.1 million motor trucks came off U.S. assembly lines from mid 1945 through the first two months of 1953, compared with a total of 2.8 million turned out by the end of 1936.

The record-breaking pace of motor vehicle manufacture following the War's end, AMA statisticians pointed out, has practically doubled the size of America's truck fleet. Truck registrations climbed from about 4.5 million at the end of 1945 to a present total of some 9.2 million.

This fleet, outnumbering the trucks in all the rest of the world combined, has grown in response to expanding transportation needs.

As an indication, annual tonnage handled by for-hire interstate motor carriers rose more than 125 per cent from 1945 to 1951. Total annual mileage traveled by all trucks in the country has climbed from 45 billion to 95 billion, and the volume of freight hauled has reached approximately 10 billion tons, or about three fourths of the nation's total freight tonnage. Trucks on farms increased from nearly 1.5 million units to about 2.4 million in 1952.

The number of truck drivers in the country has grown from 2 1/2 million to 5 million. This is only a segment, however, of the total employment resulting directly or indirectly from truck transportation.

The United States not only has the greatest total number of trucks in the world, but also the highest ratio of trucks per capita. There now is one truck for about every 16 persons in the country. For comparison, the ratio in Great Britain is 1 to 54; in Russia, approximately 1 to 150.

AMA statisticians also have figured out that the nation's big truck fleet piles up a total of about 2.5 billion vehicle work days a year, which is equivalent to 16 days of truck service for every person in the country, or 56 truck work days per family.

YOUR FOOD DOLLAR . . . LIVE BETTER

WITH AN Electric HOME FREEZER

Ask any of your friends who own an Electric Home Freezer and they will tell you they enjoy better eating for less money the year 'round. How do they do it? Here are four of the most typical reasons:

- By taking advantage of special prices and food sales . . . storing food for future use when prices are lowest, quality highest.
- Freezing surplus foods in season . . . fish, game, meats, vegetables, fruits.
- Cooking and baking in quantities . . . foods keep perfectly till needed, require only heating before serving.
- Cut food waste . . . fewer leftovers. Even these can be stored for future meals.

Enlarge Your Garden Area By Growing Plants in Air

Pole lima beans make fruitful and handsome garden background.

Vine crops, such as cucumbers, muskmelons, squash and pole beans, both snaps and limas, are usually considered beyond the reach of the home gardener with limited space, because of the room these crops require.

By using the air rights of his garden, however, its effective area can be increased, and some of these luxury crops enjoyed on the same ground area. A picket fence 5 feet tall on the north, east and west sides of a 1,000 square foot area will add almost half as much again to its effective size.

European gardeners have long used garden walls for climbing crops; but in our hot summers walls would reflect too much heat. A picket fence allows air to pass through freely, cooling the plants and keeping them free from mildew.

All the vine crops are tender, and should not be sown until the ground has warmed up and all danger of frost is ended.

Cucumbers, melons and squash are all natural climbers. They are grown as such in greenhouses, but in commercial production outdoors are allowed to sprawl on the ground, because of the expense which supporting them would involve.

Any variety of cucumbers may be grown without providing extra support for the fruit, but the larger melons and squash would require this. Smaller melons and squash are easily supported by the vines.

Seed may be sown in rows about a foot from the fence. Soil should be enriched by spreading commercial plant food in a shallow trench a few inches away from the seed drill, using a pint of plant food for 25 feet of row. When the seeds come up start immediately to dust the seedling plants with lindane, to kill the cucumber beetle, which infests all three of these vine crops. Lindane is a new formulation, which does everything that D.D.T. will do, but is not harmful to the vine crops, while D.D.T. is under suspicion of stunting these plants when applied too freely.

Cucumber beetles concentrate in the growing end of the vine, and eat only out the new growth, but carry a disease which may destroy the vine just when it begins to bear.

To protect the vines the growing end must be dusted every few days so that new growth is covered, until the vine is two feet tall. Cords or wires must be stretched to support the cucumber, melon and squash vines until they are well developed and begin to cling to the fence pickets.

Snap and lima beans of vining varieties give a much heavier yield for the same space than the bush varieties, but take longer to bear.

In addition to the food yield, the leaves of the vine crops provide an attractive background, fully equal to a hedge of shrubby border in decorative value, but without competing with other crops for nutriment, as shrubs always do.

Warehouse Law Will Aid Texas Grain Farmers

The Texas grain farmer now for the first time has adequate protection for his crops held in storage, according to Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White.

Because of the Public Grain Warehouse Bill, passed during the recent 53rd legislative session, a depositor of grain in a public warehouse has his commodities insured against fire, theft, misappropriation, damage due to careless handling, or acts of God, White stated.

Also, for the first time, the farmer may use his stored grain receipts from state bonded warehouses as negotiable security.

In commenting on the bill, White said, "This was a long-needed piece of legislation. I am particularly grateful to Mr. J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation; Mr. C. H. DeVaney, vice-president; Mr. Loys Harbour, Farm Bureau director, and many others for their assistance in helping make this law a reality."

The state farm organization, representing more than 180 organized counties, maintained a legislative office in the state capital this
