Cardinals Still Leading Majors In County Little League Baseball

The Castro County Little League is moving right along with their schedule, unhampered during the past several weeks by inclement weather. In the major league, the Cardinals won the first half of the Little League baseball season and they are on their way to winning the second half with five wins and no losses. The Cardinals have good team work and their fielding is better than good. The Gold Sox are in second place with two wins and two losses. They have a makeup game to play due to recent rains.

The Redlegs and the Braves are trying hard not to be in the cellar. The gallant Redlegs gave the Gold Sox a good game at their last meeting. Mr. Fred Butler, manager of the Redlegs, said some of his better hitters have been in a slump and he feels like the boys will come along strong to finish the season.

The Braves have two makeup games to be played. Their problem has been fielding and base running. With extra effort and more practice, the Braves are still capable of knocking off some of the league leaders.

In the minor league, the league leading Gold Sox took a licking by the Redlegs at their last meeting. The Cardinals are in second place, Redlegs in third place. The Braves are in 4th place and are having a hard time fielding a team.

Dale Prather, president of Little League, said all the teams are playing better and urged everyone to come and see the boys play. The boys are working hard and having lots of fun, Prather said.

RAYMOND WILSON

Wilson Named County Judge

Raymond Wilson is the new Castro County Judge.

His appointment was made by the Commissioner's Court at their regular meeting Monday afternoon. The law stipulates that in case of a resignation in the office of county judge that the Commissioner's Court may appoint a man to fill the vacancy until the next general election. In this case, the next general election will be in November, 1960, which gives Wilson a term of just over one year before election time. He will take office when present judge Robert Estes' resignation becomes effective on September 1.

Wilson was a defeated candidate in the democratic primary election on July 27th last year. However the vote was so close—820-784—that the Commissioners Court felt Wilson had the backing of enough voters in that election to make him the logical choice.

Wilson made no active bid for the office, although he did indicate to the Commissioners Court that he would serve in the post if appointed.

The new county judge is a long-time resident of Dimmitt. He is 52 years old and for many years— from 1929 to 1957—operated a grocery store here known as Wilson Grocery. He sold out in October, 1957 to Bob Goodwin of Tulla and the firm is now known as Bob's Super Market.

Born in Haslett in Tarrant County, Wilson attended Justin Grade School until he reached the fourth grade when his family moved to Tulla where he graduated from High School. He attended West Texas State College in Canyon for four years where he was a member of the Buffalo football and baseball team. He graduated in 1929 and moved directly to Dimmitt where he opened his grocery store. On June 21, 1931 he married Margaret Carrell in Snyder. They have one daughter, Mrs. Patricia Brock, of Dallas. Mr. Wilson is a member of the Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge, Eastern Star, Lions Club and is a past director of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce. He has taken an active part in civic affairs, having been for eight years a member of the Dimmitt City Commission.

Since selling out his grocery business, Wilson has operated an insurance agency here.

"I am getting entirely out of the insurance business," Wilson said this week, "and will devote my entire time and energies to being Castro County judge. It is the only political aspiration I have ever had or ever will have and I will concentrate on doing the best job possible."

Wilson is currently studying the job to familiarize himself with the duties of the office.

Gasoline Tax Refund Deadline September 30

The deadline for filing for a tax refund on gasoline used on the farm is September 30, 1959. The period covered by the claim is from July 1st, 1958 through June 30, 1959. The Federal tax on gasoline is at the rate of 3 cents per gallon. A card for this purpose can be obtained at the County Agent Office.

Vegetable Run Starts

Castro County's fledging vegetable industry began showing signs of awakening this week as potato and onion processing got underway and hit its routine pace.

Added impetus will be given late this week or early next week when the local carrot acreages begin being harvested. The big carrot processor for this area, Pacific Fruit and Produce Company, started its operation earlier on California carrots, expects full local area production to begin early next week.

The carrot market is better than last year, bringing from about $20-$25 per ton, according to one processor.

At Casper Farms processing plant 11 miles west of Dimmitt, management personnel said excessive moisture and hail accounted for about fifty percent cull rate on onions. Culls were being sacked at the processing machine at about the same rate as keepers.

All processing plants in the county will probably run into middle or late September. Pacific Fruit and Produce plans to process about 2,000 acres of area carrots, will use 85 to 90 people in its operation and will market the product of several other processors. Most early carrot acreage was hailed or washed out.

The big move to vegetables in this county came three years ago when Dimmitt produce company completed a processing plant and leased it to Pacific Fruit and Produce. Since that time the vegetable business has been picking up in the county. At present there are four firms processing vegetables in the county. They are H&S (Hill and Smith) Produce Company at Hart; Casper Farms; Dimmitt Vegetable Co., a brand-new processing plant set up by Jack Miller about a mile and a half north of Dimmitt; and Pacific Fruit and Produce.

Vegetable production was seriously hurt by inclement weather this year. However, some carrots were planted as recently as last week for late fall harvesting and they should be a successful crop. There will be a good many carrots produced in the area this year, but they will not compose a bumper crop. Potatoes probably got off lightest, especially where measures were taken to help the vines recuperate. At present No. 1 potatoes are bringing about $2.00 per 100 pound sack at the shed with grades less than No. 1 going down to around 50 cents per sack.

The Casper, H&S, and Dimmitt Vegetable Company sheds are processing potatoes and onions only from the owner's acreages. However, Jack Miller, who built and is operating the Dimmitt Vegetable Company shed to process produce from his farm, said this week he may go to processing potatoes and onions from other farms next season. Most other independent farm producers in the county already have made arrangements with other processors.

Many people connected in any way with vegetables in this county have expressed opinions that, despite setbacks, the vegetable producing industry is beginning to catch on here and will become a major source of agricultural income within the next five to ten years. Castro County is in an ideal diversified farming area and is probably better situated to bear up under marketing fluctuations than any other part of the seat. With a four-way split between grain sorghums, wheat, cotton and vegetables, some farmers are finding they can level their income out much better than before they diversified.

CARROT PROCESSING—These workers at the Pacific Fruit and Produce plant in Northeast Dimmitt are now processing carrots which will be shipped on east. The price is good on this popular vegetable, but the crop in this locality is short due to heavy rains and hail.

POTATOES AND ONIONS—Workers at the Casper Farms vegetable shed are kept busy with potatoes from the large farm operation west of Dimmitt. 150 acres of potatoes and 130 acres of onions will keep the plant busy until well into September.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

A proposal which opens educational and job training benefits to some 4,000,000 veterans, the Post-Korean or Cold War G. I. Bill, is now awaiting action by the U.S. House of Representatives after passing the Senate by a substantial 57 to 31 margin.

This measure is a sound economic and educational investment, and is an example of understanding between our government and the young men who are fighting the Cold War at distant posts. I am hoping key members of our Texas delegation will guide the measure through to passage in the House.

This bill, which I had the privilege to sponsor is closely patterned after the Korean G. I. Bill. It will assist hundreds of thousands of Americans to help themselves by preparing them to earn better livings. This added training will also help increase our national productivity.

As the measure was passed by the Senate, it provided that grants for college training will be continued after the first year only if the veteran is in the upper half of his class.

Those who fall in the lower half of their class may continue in school, but they receive their assistance under a government loan program.

The measure takes up where the Korean G. I. Bill left off, January 31, 1953, and runs through July 1, 1963, when the current draft law ends. It provides a monthly allowance for full time training at the rate of $110 a month for a veteran without dependents, $135

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

Granting a right-of-way comes almost every farmer at one time or the other. It might be for road, a pipeline, a power line or other overhead operation. Usually there is no trouble at the farmer since he is almost invariably dealing with a reputable company. However, so farmers may know the situation thoroughly when approached for a right-of-way, the Texas Farm Bureau has published a list of the do's and don'ts of granting right-of-way privileges. They are as follows:

1. Understand exactly what property will be needed and exactly where the property is located.
2. Establish the dates when property will be needed.
3. Estimate damages to property and make allowance for future damages.
4. Check all documents with a reliable lawyer before signing.
5. Be sure that all possible damages have been recognized.
6. Have an understanding with person seeking right-of-way with regard to clean-up after construction.
7. Know whether or not individual seeking right-of-way has the right to condemn property (right of eminent domain).
8. Use court procedures to establish damages if necessary (see court procedures below).

DON'T:

1. Sign any catch-all easements form.
2. Deed property unless advised to do so by your lawyer.
3. Sign any catch-all damage release statement.
4. Settle for damages before construction job is completed.
5. Be secured into signing papers.
6. Be misled by preliminary surveys that may become permanent.
7. Be forced into agreeing with companies' established rate damage schedule.

PROCEDURE FOR ESTABLISHING DAMAGES UNDER THE EMINENT DOMAIN LAW:

1. Person seeking right-of-way must file statement with county judge in county where property is located to the effect that a settlement cannot be reached.
2. County judge will appoint three disinterested land owners (hereinafter called commissioners) to hear evidence and to assess damages.
3. Appointed commissioners shall hear both parties at appointed time and place.
4. Cost of proceeding before commissioners may be assessed to either party or both parties.
5. Commissioners shall hear all evidence and decide the amount of damages to be awarded.
6. Property owner or person seeking right-of-way may appeal the commissioners' decision to the county court and on through the series of higher courts.

Visits Daughter and family. Mrs. Clarence Bearden is in Dallas this week visiting her daughter, Kay and her husband Bob Finerman. The Finermans are the parents of a new baby girl, born last Thursday.

On hog-killing days, I recall how the men would have a big vat of water boiling over a big fire and have a big tripod set up to hang the hog on for cleaning.

They would bring it into the house, the women would grind up pound after pound of sausage and the men would salt down the bacon...

On beef-killing days, the men would kill, hang and skir the calves and then clean and cut them up. I remember how they'd have a big fire going in the kitchen range and how the women would fry pan after pan of steaks for eating — always saving some out for dinner.

They would usually divide up the liver, hearts, etc. with the neighbors as we didn't have any way to keep them for any length of time...

One time all of the neighbors would meet for coffee or hotchkin at another's home. All of them were there in regardless of the number of boys or calves to be butchered.

The ladies would also get together for quilting days, etc. Each one helping the other. More fun, more gossip, more noise!

On these days, the whole family usually went, too, as the ladies would prepare a big dinner for the working men and noisy children.

No trouble at all for our youngsters, but the adults, well...

Weekly Stock Market Round-Up

Prepared by The Investment Research Department of Hemphill, Noyes & Co. Members of the New York Stock Exchange

July 29, 1959

REVIVAL OF THE CAPITAL GOODS INDUSTRY

Since World War II there have been three important business booms—1946-48; 1949-52 and 1953-57. We're now entering a fourth wave of prosperity. It is interesting to note that in the three previous booms plant and equipment expenditures were in a large way responsible for their creation. Many economists believe that adequate production capacity has been created in many industries did not feel that the current boom would be as great as it has been to date. It is interesting to note that this boom has not been generated by plant and equipment expenditures but more by a sharp upturn in automobile and steel production along with much higher consumer spending for non-durable goods.

The National Industrial Conference Board recently completed a survey (sponsored by NEWS-WEEK) the findings of which indicate that a strong upturn in capital goods (plant and equipment expenditures) is about to take place. This upturn is probably attributable to two factors: First, that the unexpected high level of consumer spending has prompted the companies to step up their expansion plans and, secondly, that more money is being appropriated in modernizing plant and equipment and expanding

"Sparky Sez"

(Editor's note: The following column is slated to appear frequently in the Castro County News. It will be written by Willie John Word, Dimmitt fire marshal and is expected to be published every week in the interest of fire prevention and activities of the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Department.)

Three members of your Fire Department were at the Firemen's training school at Texas A&M last week. There were a total of 1510 in attendance, including visitors from over the state and from over the United States, Canada, and Mexico. There were 1056 students and 242 instructors who were there for the entire week of training. There were representatives from eleven states besides Texas in attendance at the school. It is recognized as one of the best training schools in the United States. This school is provided by the Engineering Extension service of Texas A&M college.

Chief Willie Word took the Fire Marshalls' course which included Inspections, Arson Investigation, and Fire Prevention. Captain John H. Wood took the Fire Department Instructors course which consisted of methods of instruction and practical experience at the job of instructing. Fireman Bill Dowdy took the Basic Fireman's course which consisted of all phases of fire fighting including rescue, hose evolutions, ladder instruction, salvage, pump operations, hose loads and combined operations which is putting into actual practice the methods learned in the class rooms.

By the hiring of a paid fireman, these men attending the Firemen's Training School, and by equipping the Fire Chief's car according to the requirements of the State Board of Insurance, your insurance Key Rate has been lowered from $3.30 to $2.75 since May first of this year. The lowering of this key rate $.01 means about $.01 per dollars worth of fire insurance savings to you.

Home is where more than 7,000 of the 10,000 building fires occur annually in Texas during the past ten years. Is your home completely safe from a tragic fire? Please answer the following questions truthfully to yourself and if the answer is NO, do something about it before it is too late.

1. Do you keep matches in metal containers out of the reach of children? YES NO? 2. Do you extinguish all matches, cigarette butts, and cigars CAREFULLY before disposing of them? YES NO
- Visiting Fireman: "Any nice girls in this town?"
Convention Chairman: "You bet, Buddy! They're all nice girls."
Fireman: "How far is it to the next town?"
Sparky sez so long for this time. See you next week.

HART NEWS

By Mrs. Granville Martin
Sermonette by Fred Butler
Minister, Hart Church of Christ

How often we hear adults bewailing the delinquency of our juveniles. Loud and long are the many cries from those who say, "Our younger generation has gone to the dogs." Yet these same people fail to realize that instead of successfully degrading our youth in the eyes of other people they are severely insulting themselves, for Solomon, the wise man of old by the sanction of the Lord God said in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." Since God's word is true, when a child goes away he should not go, it is the direct result of not having been trained up in the way he should go. It is amazing that many of these depressed persons will dispute this Scripture, however as all of God's Word has stood the test of time this portion will also stand the test.

As the Word of God has given us this truth it also yields a pattern for training up a child. Two Scriptures will suffice to show the way. Paul says, in Ephesians 6:4, "Fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath but bring them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord." Observe first of all this bringing up is the responsibility of the father contrary to the belief of shrieking fathers that it is a mother's duty. Secondly this bringing up should be in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. If more fathers would talk about God to their children then the children would have a more wholesome respect for God. Also note the very words "bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord." They are "force discipline and instruction upon him after he is already brought up."

Solomon declares in Proverbs 13:24, "He who spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent to discipline him." Discipline is an unpleasant thing and never enjoyable, but may be an expression of love to be borne out in future years. Actually in each of these Scriptures the principle topic is not the child but the parent. That the parent is capable of molding a well-behaved, honest, loyal, and respectful being from their children is evident from the Bible. The fact that in some instances it has not been done is an insult to parenthood, more than to juveniles.

I believe that "if" the younger generation has gone to the dogs, they have reached there at the heels of Adults. Construction is under way on an educational building for the Hart Church of Christ. It will consist of six classrooms running west along the north side of the present building. Space now used for classrooms will be combined into auditorium space and is estimated to increase seating by nearly one-half its present capacity. Construction is under Oley Appleton of Tulsa with a large portion of the labor donated by members of the church.

The Hart Redlegs were beaten in both of their games this week bringing the total to three lost and one win this second half of the season. The Nazareth Cardinals won by a score of 12 to 7. Six hits were scored by the Redlegs, three of these were by shortstop Joe Dee Johnson. The remainder of the hits were one each by Jerry Parker, Mark Martin and David Smith. The loss was accredited to pitcher Carl Ward who gave up 7 hits in six innings.
