Moore... ABOUT RANGER

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Credit Patrolman John L. Shooks with persistence. Patrolman Shooks has just added two seals to his "ticket list string." Shooks, as you probably remember, is the patrolman who gave Dr. C. W. Harris, mayor of our fair city, and his own sister tickets for overparking. Well, now he has passed out two more of the friendly reminders. The first one went to Lester Crossley, the city manager. Crossley came in and paid his nickel in nothing flat. The next went to a wayward newspaper editor by the name of Virgil E. Moore.

It's not the nickel, it's our pride that's hurt.

Speaking of tomatoes, and we understand no one was, we found the daddy of them all. Loise Graves of Olden, raised one that weighed just under two pounds. That's some tomato. Fact is we are tempted to send it back to the Magic Rio Grande Valley to show them why we moved to Ranger.

The tomato weighed a pound and 10 ounces.

Deer season is just around the corner. In fact it gets underway the 16th of this month. Here is a suggestion we would like to pass along to deer hunters. It came from the Texas Tuberculosis Association, and is a good one. They suggest that hunters send their deer hides to TB patients to use in occupational therapy classes. Austin Taxidermist Studio in Austin has agreed to pay the shipping and tanning costs for the patients. All a hunter has to do is to send express collect the hide to the studio.

We recently discovered another

Seems that Dr. Walter Prescott Webb, author of the prize winning book, "The Great Frontier" and several other top books, grew up in Ranger.

In fact, at a literary dinner the other night, Dr. Webb told something of his own boyhood and how he used to go into the newspaper office here to get newspapers to read. He told the group that by this means he ran across a magazine, "Sunny South," that he could get a three months subscription for just 10 cents. He scraped and scraped to get the dime and finally his mother gave it to him.

Paul Crane, columnist for the Dallas News, told the story of Webb's good fortune with the magazine.

It seems Dr. Webb, who was then just Walter Prescott Webb, one day sent a letter to the magazine, which they in turn printed. He explained in the letter that he wanted to be a writer and to get an education. He signed it with his middle name and mailed it in. Sometime later, a letter came addressed to "Prescott", in care of the teacher at his school.

The letter turned out to be from a Walter Hinds in Brooklyn, who had read the letter in the magazine. He wrote that he was interested in boys who wanted to educate themselves, and the man and the boy carried on a correspondence for some years.

When Webb was ready, Hinds helped him go to college. Hinds died as Webb was getting started on the career that was to make him known on both sides of the Atlantic, and Webb never got to meet him.

Dr. Webb also wrote "The Texas Rangers" and "Divided We Stand" among other books. We mentioned that we saw an article about him to Dr. Price Ashton, president of Ranger Junior College, and Dr. Ashton brought us up to date on him. We weren't sure Dr. Webb could be claimed by Ranger, but Dr. Ashton assured us he could.

With just one more district game on schedule and the district crown all wrapped up, Ranger fans are beginning to whoop it up. Football fever is high at RJC and students are getting ready to make several additional trips. This could be the year for the Bulldogs to add their names to the all-state list. We kinda think it will be.

Cooperation Of RJC, Times Draws Praise

Dr. Price Ashton Ranger Junior College Ranger, Texas

Dear Price:

Thanks for your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of The Ranger Times featuring your homecoming program. I am very pleased indeed to see the splendid cooperation between you and the paper itself. It shows that both are trying to serve the community to the best of their abilities. When you see Mr. Virgil Moore, the Editor, I wish you would convey to him personally my very great interest in this edition and appreciation for the very fine work he is doing for the college.

This edition of the paper should help greatly in convincing the high school seniors in your area to come to Ranger Junior College. You have a good school, a good faculty and that's all it takes to have a good student body if these seniors will just attend.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Cordially and sincerely yours,

NORTH DISTRICT CUB LEADERS SEE FILM ON 'DEN MEETINGS'

Ranger led in representation at the North District Cub Leaders Pow Wow held Thursday in Ranger. Other cities and towns represented at the meeting were Eastland, 5; Breckenridge, 6, and Cisco, 8.

The film strip "Planning Your Weekly Den Meeting," was shown. This film strip is designed to aid the den mothers work out their weekly programs. Mrs. Chief Brown of Cisco conducted a discussion to help the new den mothers understand more about the program. She also answered many questions concerning the program she had worked out for the rest of this month. It was brought out in this discussion that the parents must be willing to co-operate with the den mothers if the program is to be a success. Mrs. Brown told how she got her husband to help her with the den projects.

Both Cisco and Ranger had exhibits of work that their cubs had done in the past month. They both helped the new den mothers get ideas for their own dens to work on.

It was decided not to have a meeting in December as that is the month of the Council Annual Meeting.

A Junior Leaders Training Camp will be conducted in this district on Nov. 27, 28 and 29. This camp will aid all the troops of this area by training their junior leaders to do a better job.

The junior leaders of a troop are as follows: Junior Assistant Scoutmaster, Senior Patrol Leader, Patrol Leaders and Assistant Patrol Leaders. Scribes and Quartermasters are included in this course, too. The camp will be held at Lake Ringland or out near the Cisco, Eastland and Breckenridge Y.

The exact location will be announced later. All scouts interested should contact their scoutmasters who will have more detailed information as to registering for the course.

The course will be conducted by Jack Merrill of Breckenridge, who spent the summer at Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico learning how to do this kind of work.

The public is invited, and will find plenty to interest them at anytime they should care to come out.

Tax Discount Is Now 2%

Collections zoomed ahead Tuesday as Rangerites took advantage of the two per cent November discount on city taxes. City Manager Lester Crossley said approximately $26,000 has now been paid into the city till.

During October collections totaled $24,908.

Crossley reminded taxpayers that the two per cent discount on taxes would drop to one per cent in December.

Fort Worth Can't Claim Them 100%

Fort Worth's gain is Ranger's loss—but not entirely. Lt. Col. and Mrs. J. E. Fletcher have moved to Fort Worth from Ranger so that Col. Fletcher will be closer to his base, Carswell AFB, where he is stationed. Before leaving Col. Fletcher told a Times reporter, "We are not going to quit calling Ranger home, however."

The Fetters will keep their home and business here. Col. Fletcher owns half interest in the Ranger Machine Shop. His partner is Ralph Reynolds.

They will also keep Ranger as their legal home, paying poll taxes here.

Aurthur Jury Passes Away

Word has been received in Ranger of the death of Aurthur Jury, former manager of the Ghoslon Hotel, in McAllen.

Jury was well known here and was active in civic work in Ranger for many years.

Mrs. Jury is now staying with the Walter Burdens, also former residents of Ranger.

RJC Homecoming Is Termed 'Successful'

"A most successful Homecoming," Dr. Price Ashton said Tuesday in reviewing Ranger Junior College's sixth annual Homecoming Day activities.

And Dr. Ashton's words were being echoed throughout Ranger and many sections of the state by eyes and friends of the college. Arlington State gridiron fans, happy over their team's narrow 13-6 win over the stubborn Rangers, joined in the praise of RJC's homecoming. What other reason could they give for their team's trailing three periods unless they pointed to the fact that the Rangers were keyed up over the Homecoming festival.

Dr. Ashton said he wanted to thank all eyes, townspeople and others who helped make the day a success.

New president of the RJC exec is Wesley Walker of Ranger. Other officers are: Shelby Farnell, vice president; Angus Hamilton, secretary; Norma Mills, treasurer; Phillip Rogers, reporter; and Alvis Wood, parliamentarian.

During halftime at the game Cora Lee Foster was crowned Homecoming Queen by Dr. Ashton. A pre-game invocation was given by Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The game was dedicated to the memory of the late Dr. Grover C. Boswell, a football, with the autographs of the entire Ranger squad, will be presented to Dr. Boswell's widow, who now lives in Austin. Dr. A. W. Brasda accepted the ball for Mrs. Boswell before kick-off time.

In dedicating the game to Dr. Boswell, Dean R. L. Wilson said, "Because he was a great man, a true scholar, a kind friend, and a stubborn soldier in the fight for education, because of his deep interest, optimistic outlook, and a deep devotion to Ranger Junior College; because of his Christian character and his assistance to students and faculty when difficulties arose that seem discouraging; because of his untiring interest in the social, civic, and religious life of Ranger; because of his deep understanding of students, and a firmness on life; and because of his love for clean sports; On the recommendation of our President now, Dr. Price R. Ashton; the Board of Education; the administration, the faculty, the student body and the citizens of Ranger dedicate tonight's game to the memory of Dr. Grover C. Boswell, former president of the college."

Following the game a dance was held at the Recreation Building.

Eastland County's 1st Freeze Drops Mercury Down To Low 24

The weatherman predicted fair weather for Eastland County today and Wednesday with no rain. His forecast called for a low of around 40 to night and a high near 70 Wednesday.

The forecast came after the county had its first freeze of the year. The Eastland reading Sunday night was 24, probably one of the lowest readings in the state. It got down to 31 in Ranger.

Cotton farmers were glad to see the freeze but late planted feed crops were probably hurt.

The freeze was almost a month earlier than the first of last year. A "rough" winter was the forecast of many old-timers in the county.

The forecast for West Texas called for fair and a little warmer Tuesday and Wednesday. No rain predicted.

Boyce House Tells Us

Ex-Ranger Believes In Oil Possibilities Of Eastland

Homer Glover, former Texas Ranger, lives in Tyler but spends about half his time in Eastland because he believes in the oil possibilities of that county. And his faith and perseverance have paid off.

He has drilled several excellent wells, has royalty in others and has some attractive leases which he plans to develop.

Perhaps the most dramatic well he has drilled was north of Ranger. A friend, when shown the farm on the map, exclaimed, "You don't want to drill there! A dry hole was drilled there back during the big boom."

Nevertheless, Glover went ahead and hit a big flow of oil and gas. The well caught on fire and Glover was burned while fighting the flames but the well was saved.

How can you account for a gusher being struck the proverbial "stone" throw from a "duster"?

Glover has an explanation and it sounds logical. He studied the log of the dry hole and the logs of other wells in the area and the dry-hole log did not check with the formations in the record of the other wells. So he figured that the contractor did not actually drill to the claimed depth but faked the log and collected from the owner.

Glover, as a Texas Ranger, solved the cases by studying the evidence, which frequently was circumstantial; and in this instance, he backed his "solution" with thousands of dollars and won out.

He has had a room rented permanently at the Connellee Hotel in Eastland for the last five years and it looks as though he will keep on spending a lot of time in that city. So if you look into the lobby and see a big, ruddy-complexioned man and he has a grin and a friendly greeting for everybody, step up and call him "Homer" and you won't be wrong.

Brother of Mrs. S. Black Dies Monday

Cyrus Knolton, brother of Mrs. S. E. Black of Ranger, died Monday afternoon in a San Angelo hospital.

Mrs. Kimbrough was a member of the First Baptist Church and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Born March 10, 1891 at Lockhart, Tex., Mrs. Kimbrough was married to G. O. Kimbrough at Cisco Dec. 24, 1914.

RANGER BULLDOGS GO TO AIR TO KILL CROSS PLAINS' HOPE OF UPSET; DOGS WIN 48-7

Ranger's High School Bulldogs left their proven ground game behind and went to the airways in sensational fashion Friday night to smash hapless Cross Plains 48-7 for their seventh victory in a row and their eighth in nine starts. The tilt was played at Bulldog Stadium.

One of the smallest crowds of the season watched the tilt. Total attendance was less than 2,000.

The Dog serial game went scotch rushing for the aspen bottle. Ranger, without doubt one of the best—if not the best—teams on the ground in the state, proved they could go to the air when they needed to or wanted to. The Dogs gained 308 yards in the air in completing 14 of 20 passes.

It was Quarterback Scott Forney who was the big man in the aerial game. Forney hurled 14 passes and found his range on 11 of them for an average of 7.86 for the night. End Tommy Hinds was Forney's favorite target.

Ranger, as usual, got things underway in a hurry. Charles Massege, one of the Dogs' top contenders for all-state honors, raced over on the first play of the game from the Cross Plains 36 around right end, his favorite stomping ground. Bill Browning converted to put the Dogs ahead to remain.

The second Ranger TD came late in the initial period when Forney found Hinds out in the open and hit him squarely with one of the best passes of the night. The play started on the Dog 45 and covered 55 yards to paydirt. Browning again converted.

Massege scored again in the second period when he raced over left guard from the Buffs' 11 to climax a 58 yard drive. Browning hit his mark again. The score, 21-0.

The next two TDs came on passes from Forney to Hinds. Hinds pulled in one of Forney's passes early in the quarter and raced 27 yards. Then later in the period he snagged another and kicked 35 yards to paydirt. Browning kicked both extra points.

In the third quarter Quarterback John Swinney jump passed to End Jerry Cantrell from the Dog 30 and the shifty lineman raced the 70 yards to the endzone. This time Browning's extra point try was no good.

Late in the fourth period the Cross Plains eleven, moving against Coach Stubby Warden's reserves, marched 83 yards from their own 17 to score. It took the Buffaloes 16 plays to march the ball over, with Quarterback Homer Robinson capping the drive from the one yard line with less than a minute to play. Bill Sipes converted.

The Bulldogs were not to be denied the honor of scoring last however. With just 15 seconds left to play, Warden sent his first stringers back into the tilt and they needed just four passing plays to put up 54 yards following the kick-off. Most of the yardage was covered when Forney hit Browning with a pass on first down which gave the Dogs first and ten on the Cross Plains' 17. Forney passed incomplete twice and then hit Hinds in the endzone for the final marker. Massege converted.

Glamorous Shrine Circus Shows in Fort Worth, Nov. 20-29

CIRCUS THRILLS! "The greatest show of them all," that's the promise of Paul Hamilton, chairman of the 1953 Mosiah Shrine Circus to play in Fort Worth November 20-29. That's Hamilton in front of the sign board. Among the acts, clockwise, Mosiah's performing elephants, one of the better "educated" animal acts; Linon, one of the greatest tramp clowns in the circus world, and master of the bouncing rope; Renee, beautiful aerialist; Pat Anthony and his snarling lions—tops in wild animal acts; the thrilling aerial ballet of John Gibson and Company, and Florida Zacchini of the human cannon ball act. They'll all be there—daring performers, wizards of the high wire and tight rope and animal acts galore. The Shrine Circus plays at Will Rogers Coliseum. There will be 10 nightly performances and matinees on November 21, 22, 26, 27, 28 and 29. There will be free parking.

bone of the drive. The Rangers missed out on a scoring try early in the second quarter after Gibbs and John Wilson received a Rebel fumble on the Arlington State 11 yard line. Blanton passed to Jimmy Cole on the one foot line for a first down, then the Rangers were penalized back to the 5. Blanton took it to the four and then failed to gain. On third down the Rangers tried to pass and Arlington intercepted in the end zone to halt the drive.

Ranger came close to scoring again moments later. With first and ten on the 11, where Blanton had passed to Cole after carrying to the 21 from the 44, the Ranger star passed to Cole for what looked like another IJC touchdown. The catch was ruled caught out of the end zone, however, and moments later the Rebels again intercepted a Ranger pass to halt the threat.

Arlington almost scored late in the second quarter but time ran out with the Rebs on the Ranger one foot line with first down and ten. The drive started when Arlington recovered a Ranger fumble on the 47.

The Rangers came back strong after the halftime activities and took the kick-off and drove from their own 22 down to the Rebel 12 in 13 plays only to lose the ball on downs two plays later back on the 15.

The Rebels touchdown was set up by a Ranger fumble on the IJC 45. It took Arlington nine plays to go over from there with Halfback Johnny Symark going over around right end from the 22. Kenneth Vavra's extra point try was good and ASC led 7-6.

Fullback Paul Wayne Errat powered his way over from the 16 for the final score of the game. The drive started back on the ASC 47. Ranger had only 10 plays in the final stanza as Arlington dominated the period.

RANGERS FALL 13-6 BEFORE ARLINGTON STATE COLLEGE AFTER LEADING 3 QUARTERS

Ranger Junior College's vastly underrated Rangers put the scare of the season in Arlington State College's Pioneer Conference leading Rebels Saturday night before the Arlington powerhouse struck down Coach Dick Henderson's charges 13-6 at Bulldog Stadium. The game was played before some 3,500 highly enthusiastic Homecoming Day fans.

Ranger, always a thorn in Arlington's side, was especially so Friday night. In a game that lasted almost until midnight and had the warm hearted but outwardly cool fans on the edge of their seats throughout the tilt, the Rangers held the vaunted Rebel offense in check with terrific defensive play until the final stanza. Trailing 0-6, and lucky to be just that far behind, the Rebels caught fire in the final 15 minutes of play to run over four touchdowns—two of which were called back because of penalties.

During the first three periods it was Ranger's game. Paced by 190-

-pound Joe Angel, a lad who made the opposition look like pushovers at times, the IJC defense was too stern for the Rebels to even make a real threat. The IJC offense, which was not nearly so impressive as the defensive stalwarts, managed to score what looked like the winning touchdown in the initial period. Charles Blanton was the big man in the Rangers offensive game.

Ranger's score came on a 66 yard pass play from Quarterback Tommy Wood to Fullback Ray Gilstrap. Ranger faced third and 11 on their own 34 when Wood jump passed to Gilstrap over the center of the line. The pass apparently caught the rugged Rebel defense napping for Gilstrap caught the ball almost surrounded by Rebels just inside of midfield and raced out of their arms and into the open before they had time to make a bid for the tackle. Allen Gibbs' try for extra point was no good and Ranger led 6-0.

Shortly after Ranger scored the Rebs were forced to punt. Then Ranger fumbled and the Rebels recovered on IJC's 31. On the first play Angel broke through to throw the visitors for a 9 yard loss, however, to break the backbone of the drive. The Rangers missed out on a scoring try early in the second quarter after Gibbs and John Wilson received a Rebel fumble on the Arlington State 11 yard line. Blanton passed to Jimmy Cole on the one foot line for a first down, then the Rangers were penalized back to the 5. Blanton took it to the four and then failed to gain. Gift Suggestions That Are Handy For All Car Owners

If several people on your gift list are automobile owners, your chances of finding a handy gift are increased this year, say the Luggage and Leather Goods Manufacturers. For example, consider any of the following:

Attache Case: Perfect for the man whose car is his office a good part of the time; its inner construction gives him a rigid surface on which to dash off letters, notes, observations. Handles business papers as well as a change of linen.

Hanging garment carrier: Excellent for either the vacationer or the business traveler. Holds several suits or dresses, plus accessories; may be slung from a convenient hook inside the car, or spread out in the trunk to discourage Map Case: Made to accommodate standard road maps available at gasoline stations. Many have full-size pockets for additional maps, pencil flashes for night-time navigating. Some feature attached memo pads for marking mileage, making notes; others include a special soft pencil to chart routes on the clear acetate protector.

Key Case or Key Ring: Key cases now available with a "registration" feature; owner's name is recorded with the manufacturer, who assists in returning lost cases. Key rings are novel gifts, especially with rich-looking reproductions of auto insignias, miniature compasses or flashlights.

Trip Books are for the guy who gets around. Contents include maps, space for recording motor and mileage data, travel tips, etc. Visor aid; a kit to clip to the sun visor, contains glasses, tissues, cigarette pack, pencil and other gadgets to make driving easier.

'Cattle Bust of '53' Will Long Be Remembered

Termination of the biggest cattle boom in history has witnessed a drop of about $7,600,000,000 in the value of cattle on ranches and farms, Lewis Noriye reports in the current (September 26th) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

His article, "The Big Cattle Bust of '53," tells that the same old bugaboo that ended many another period of prosperity in the cow business—widespread drought and tumbling cattle prices—have tanned up again to send values downward in a record-long slump.

"So adding was the shock of the fall that men muttered among themselves, blaming one another, the speculators, nuclear fission, and to be sure, Washington," Noriye says. "Some of them claimed that they had been taken as the Indians took Custer—because the Government's program of guaranteeing prices to farmers on out-tensured and grain kept the cost of feed so high that only a banker could finance it."

In its dozen prosperous war and postwar years, the article states, the cattle business attracted many newcomers, who knew no more about a cow than a steer does about biology. Many of these neophytes borrowed money or mortgaged already paid-out property to get into ranching and wound up broke and in debt. They also contributed to the decline in prices by dumping their animals on an already weak market.

Noriye reports that when leaders of the cattle groups continued to stand pat against price supports, the fight was on. Some 517 small cowmen from 72 communities in five states met at Lubart, Texas, and pulled away from the associations. They formed their own, the United Livestock Producers' Association, and it is pledged to battle for price supports.

BRIGHT IDEAS

For Improved Bedroom Lighting

Personally yours... your bedroom. The haven in your home where you rest and prepare for the day's activities should have the lighting that does the most for you, and for the room itself.

Give your vanity table all the light it needs in helping you make up to look your best. A pair of dresser lamps exactly placed will light your face without color distortion.

If you enjoy reading in bed, your bedside table should hold a reading lamp that sheds the proper light on book or paper. Dim or glaring light causes eyestrain and a feeling of tenseness.

For a restful, new look in your bedroom... for the beauty of the room itself... use soft, indirect lighting concealed in valances and behind mirrors. There is no limit to the charm, pleasure and better seeing you can add to your bedroom with the glow of proper light.

"See your dealer... stock up on extra bulbs... fill empty sockets with the right bulb for the right place."

Improved again! Now the BEST gasoline in Texas is even BETTER!

No. 1 in Texas

Esso Extra gasoline, statewide, has consistently led all other Texas gasolines in quality; now, new improvements have widened the margin between Esso Extra and the rest: Humble Esso Extra has no equal throughout the state of Texas.

Tests prove Esso Extra's superior quality!

There are three qualities of a gasoline that are brought out in the performance of your car. In all these three qualities, Esso Extra leads.

Extensive and continuous laboratory testing of Esso Extra and other gasolines proves Esso Extra's superior qualities, and these laboratory tests have been confirmed by road testing in specially equipped automobiles.

Esso Extra leads in quick starting: In comparative tests with other gasolines, Esso Extra's quick starting characteristics were rated "Excellent," while those of other popular gasolines ranked from "poor" to merely "adequate." When you use Esso Extra your engine starts at almost the instant you press the starter button. But quick starting is more than a convenience. It saves gasoline, and it prevents gasoline dilution of the crankcase oil. If you use your car mostly for town driving, you will especially appreciate Esso Extra's quick starting qualities.

And for good measure, Esso Extra contains a patented solvent oil. This oil is not a lubricant. Its purpose is to dissolve the gummy substances that collect carbon on top of pistons and under valves, and thus help to prevent carbon deposits in the upper parts of the engine.

Esso Extra leads in power: Its anti-knock performance assures more power. Since Esso Extra has the highest anti-knock performance in Texas, it gives you more power than any other Texas gasoline. This

See for yourself—test Esso Extra in your own car

Esso Extra will give you the same results obtained by researchers when you test it in your car. Its quality is so superior that you will notice at once that Esso Extra gives you extra quick starting, extra anti-knock performance, extra power.

You'll discover that you enjoy your car more, that it runs better, that you're getting—at last—the performance you expect from a modern automobile. No other gasoline can duplicate Esso Extra's performance in your car, because no other gasoline matches Esso Extra's quality.

Fill up with improved Esso Extra gasoline at any Humble sign—it's the same extra performance gasoline at every Humble sign.

Square Dancers Annual Barbecue Set November 14

Abilene members of the Westerners Association will be hosts and hostesses to a square dance and barbecue to be held at Abilene's Fair Park Nov. 14, at 8 p.m.

The dance is an annual affair and callers and dancers from all over West Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico have been invited, according to Fay Moore, publicity chairman.

The Westerners is the oldest square dance association in the entire Southwest and has as its purpose the preservation of the old time square dance, which is traditional dance of West Texas.

Until recently its members included some of the pioneers who danced at such notable affairs as the Cowboy's Christmas Ball at Anson.

Plans for the dance are being completed by numerous committees headed by Jane Van Hook, general chairman. Mrs. Van Hook reports that reservations from out of town members have already passed the 200 mark and many more are expected before Saturday night. Mrs. Van Hook said the public is invited to attend this event as facilities are provided for spectators.

A special square dance band will be on hand to provide the "temp" and style and music required for square dancing. This band has been awarded numerous prizes for championship fiddle performances and plays for dance clubs throughout this area.

As a further attraction Les Gotcher, world famous square dance caller and instructor, will be on the program. This will be one of his few appearances in Texas this year.

After witnessing the Homecoming activities of your school we almost wish we were an ex of H.C. Of course that would be letting down our old schools—Navarro Junior College and North Texas State—and we couldn't do that. We are proud to say we had the honor of working with Dr. Ashton and the other faculty and student workers on the publicity angle. They made it easy for us.

Have you given to the Community Chest yet? Come on, get on the ball. Why not give once for all and all for once? If you have a pet peeve against the Chest pin your complaint to your check. Whatever you do don't let your own littleness hurt those who need your help so much.
