

Annual Rodeo Begins on Thursday

Dimmitt buzzed with activity this week as rodeo-conscious residents here and elsewhere in the county eagerly awaited the start of the annual rodeo and old settlers reunion.

Owen Cox, president of the local rodeo association, stated this week that some 40 riders, 70 ropers and at least 12 barrel race contestants will probably be on hand for the August 11-12-13 event to furnish fans "plenty of spills and chills."

Old settlers attending the three-day event will probably register in the lobby of the courthouse Thursday morning as has been the custom in past years.

Present plans call for a big barbecue feed on the south lawn of the courthouse for all old timers. The feed will be served after the rodeo parade, which begins at 4 p.m.

At the same time visiting bands, posies and all others are being fed at the fairgrounds. Six hundred pounds of chuck roast have been obtained for the barbecue, which is free to all.

The oldest old timer attending the old settlers reunion will be given a free pass to the rodeo performance scheduled for Saturday night, and the old timer coming the farthest distance will also be presented a free pass.

The gala rodeo parade which will get festivities underway will start at the fairgrounds; enter the southside of the square; turn left at the traffic light; left at Magnolia Service Station and again left at J. B. Moore's auto repair shop; turn south on Broadway; east at Manning's Department Store; and continue on past the city manager's office and back to the fairgrounds.

A chuck wagon representing all old timers will be a part of the parade as will be 11 visiting riding units, bands and other contingents.

Rodeo performances will be given at the rodeo arena each night beginning at 8:15 o'clock. In addition to the women's barrel races, roping and riding events, there will be a wild mare race as an added attraction.

Six mules will be led into chutes with halters on each animal. These men will be designated to handle each animal. Their job will be to saddle the "ornery critter" and ride her to the opposite end of the rodeo arena and back across the finish line.

Winners will be awarded cash prizes. Spectators and rodeo fans from all over the county and neighboring counties are expected to be on hand for the three-day celebration.

All arrangements have now been completed, according to the Rodeo Association president who has been assisted by Joe Smith, vice-president, Bill Keller, secretary, and numerous other rodeo association members working on various committees.

WINNERS ALL in their own right are these pretty county Fair Bureau queen contestants. Actual winner and newly-crowned Castro County Fair Bureau Queen of 1955 is Miss Myrna Thompson (center) flanked by 14 petite aspirants.

PROUDLY SMILING after being named Castro County Farm Bureau Queen of 1955, Miss Myrna Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson of the Mulkey community, poses graciously for the photographer.

Myrna Thompson Honored As County Farm Bureau Queen

Pretty Miss Myrna Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson of the Mulkey Community, caught the eyes of judges Friday night and walked away with the title of "Castro County Farm Bureau Queen."

The petite, young queen was presented a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations at the close of the contest and was crowned by Roy Pyeatt of Hart.

Some 300 persons were present for the gala occasion in the local high school auditorium and smiles were evident on the faces of all contestants as Miss Thompson was crowned queen and Miss Rowean Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Shepard of Hart, was recognized as runnerup or alternate queen.

"Cotton" John Smith of Amarillo, master of ceremonies for the program, also drew loud rounds of applause for the humor and wit he injected into the lively event.

The 16-year-old winner also received an expense-paid trip to the Farm Bureau Institute in Mineral Wells (July 31-August 3). In addition she will compete in the District eliminations at Lubbock in September.

However, if for some reason the newly-crowned queen is unable to compete at Lubbock, her alternate, Miss Shepard, will represent Castro county.

The 1955 queen will be a junior at the local high school this fall. She is active in the music department and is a member of the FHA, high school band, high school combo band or orchestra and the Blue Notes, high school singing group.

Miss Shepard is also a FHA and band member and in addition is a member of the Rainbow Assembly. The 16-year-old runnerup was presented a bouquet of red roses by Roy Pyeatt. Corsages presented each of the winners were made available through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ivey.

Other contestants in the event, all of whom received the audience's applause, were: Patricia Howell, Bethel; Peggy Beavers, Hart; Sandra Hance, Dimmitt; Janie Swindle, Hart; Edith Rue Smitherman, Hart; Wanda Jo Felder, Hart; Blanche Ballard, Hart; Delores Battles, Dimmitt; Rita Holcomb, Bethel; Gail Cooper, Dimmitt; Karen Bell, Dimmitt; Odetta Ball, Nazareth; and O'Lysia Bowden, Hart.

Judges for the event were Mrs. R. A. Boyd, Idalou; Claude Hutcherson, Plainview; and Virgil

City Park Proposal Gains Impetus At Tuesday Lions Club Meeting

A move underway to develop a park for residents of Dimmitt and area gained momentum at a meeting of the local Lions Club Tuesday. Further discussion and ideas were set forth when County Chamber of Commerce Manager Glen Youts briefed those present on a recent park meeting of civic and service organizations.

Youts stated, "We haven't been able to go too far or do too much as we have been depending on the mayor and city manager for information. They have been very cooperative. I think the right time to circulate petitions calling for a park bond and tax maintenance election is after the city has implemented bonds for the coming city improvement election."

Youts added, "I don't know what it will take to put in a park. Personally, I'm not for it unless we vote a ten cent tax maintenance and bonds to pay for a park." Youts also said that he thought the logical way to pay for park bonds is to add 25 cents per month on each resident's water bill. He emphasized that this proposal had been discussed before and was simply a line of thought or a recommendation. "I think this is a better idea than raising funds through donations," Youts remarked.

approved. "We won't have trouble getting a location providing we can get money to pay for a park. It was evident at a recent meeting of local clubs and organizations that Dimmitt is ready for a park," he concluded.

One Lion Club member indicated that a park might be developed at a cost of $12,000 to $15,000.

Acting Club President L. G. Mauney asked members to bear in mind what had been brought out in regard to the city park proposal and give the project careful consideration.

Club guests included Calvin Lippard, Hugo Beyer, Raymond King, Steve Taylor and Allen Webb.

First conviction in the 319 indictments shrouding the veterans land program came last week. A three-year penitentiary sentence was fixed by a 98th district court jury for the program's founding father, Bascom Giles.

Surprised, Giles promised to use all his legal rights to fight the conviction. Motion for new trial was quickly overruled, clearing the way for appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Conviction was on a charge the former land commissioner aided and abetted Brady land dealer B. R. Sheffield in the theft of $6,800. Sheffield was jointly indicted with Giles and still awaits trial.

Involved was the state's purchase last fall of the 10,114-acre Kinney county Rosenow Ranch, subdivided into 54 tracts for resale to 54 veterans. One tract sold for $6,800 to a veteran who testified he thought he was signing up for a $100 loan.

Giles stoutly denied state charges that he over-appraised the land as part of a scheme to defraud the state. He said he knew nothing of $100-per-name purchases of veterans' signatures to put through the transaction.

Many a courtroom spectator had predicted an acquittal prior to the closing argument of young Dist. Atty. Les Proctor. He waved in the faces of the jury a $25,000 check from Sheffield to Giles and called it "corroboration" of state testimony "as to a payoff. Giles had testified it was in payment for a real estate sale in which he acted as agent.

Free on a $2,000 appeal bond, Giles awaits trial again Aug. 15 in San Antonio. He is charged there with accepting a bribe in another land program deal. Other indictments are still pending in Travis and Zavala counties.

State Recovers Land Money

In the second of many civil suits resulting from the veterans land scandals the state last week recovered $89,868.

Byrd Cattle Co. of Dallas was ordered by 53rd district court to repay that amount plus three per cent interest.

Action was initiated by the cattle company. It offered to buy back at the purchase price the 700 acres of Dimmitt county land sold to 15 veterans. Court judgment was necessary, however, to rescind the transaction.

No allegation of fraud was made by the attorney general's department against the company. It did, however, accuse J. Paul Little, Crystal City attorney who promoted the transaction, with making false representation to the Veterans Land Board.

Little is under indictment in Zavala county.

Committee Ousts Morrow

Way was cleared last week for a new Texas Democratic national committeeman.

In the change, Gov. Allan Shivers hopes to regain the vote Texas has lost on the national committee. Wright Morrow has not been nationally recognized since he renounced the Democratic presidential nominee to support Eisenhower three years ago.

To set the stage, the State Democratic Executive Committee last week declared the national committeeman post vacant after stirring speeches.

Morrow bitterly assailed Shivers, who for several months had urged the committeeman to resign.

Shivers, Morrow charged, wanted to replace him with "someone acceptable to Speaker Sam Rayburn . . . and somebody who supported the Democratic ticket in 1952." He challenged any member of the committee to say he could so qualify.

Shivers denied intention to appease Rayburn. He declared Texas conservative Democrats need full representation on the national committee to help get their delegation seated at the 1956 presidential convention.

A successor to Morrow is to be named at a September meeting. Liberal Democrats quickly tried to wedge the conservative breach.

Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin, twice defeated by Shivers for the governorship, extended his sympathy to Morrow. Even though the two have long disagreed politically, Yarborough said he regretted to see any man "double-crossed."

James Sewell of Corsicana, chairman of the Democratic Advisory Committee, spoke up for Morrow as a "victim of political connivers."

Integration Committee Formed
A statewide advisory committee or public school integration problems is meeting here this week.

Governor Shivers invited 33 men and women, both white and colored, to serve on the committee. Additional legislative members were named by Lieut. Gov. Ben Ramsey and Speaker Jim Lindsey.

Shivers said the committee was needed to study critical desegregation problems and prevent "hasty, ill-advised action."

He urged school districts to appoint similar committees. They would study local level problems and serve as liaison with the state group.

Anti-Crime Group Formed
A non-profit corporation pledged to fight crime on a statewide basis will set up headquarters in Austin.

Called the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation, it grew out of recommendations of the attorney general's Citizens Advisory Committee on Law Enforcement. Its aim is to provide a broad program of education in scientific crime-fighting techniques.

It will provide libraries on criminology, make awards to outstanding officers, publish bulletins or new crime-combatting tactics, assist training schools, sponsor additional schools.

Traffic Fatalities Increase
Texas traffic deaths the first six months of 1955 are up two per cent, and June totals are still incomplete.

Dimmitt Teachers Attend Reading Conference; Problems Discussed

Reading problems and techniques were thoroughly aired by some of the nation's leading authorities in the field of reading instruction at a Redding Conference on the West Texas State College campus, July 25-28. Three local school faculty members, Mrs. R. S. Vestal, Mrs. Claude Forson and Mrs. O. K. Howe, represented Dimmitt at the conference.

At least 450 persons attended the reading conference and according to reports of local representatives, new ideas and new thoughts as related to the solution of problems encountered by readers were set forth and much valuable and useful information was gained.

Dr. Ullin W. Leavell, director of McGuffey Reading Clinic at the University of Virginia, and a guest speaker at the conference, stressed the fact that if a child can't read there's a hidden cause for this inability. He pointed out that poor readers often have an eye mixup, that is, one eye may be dominant and there is need for adjustment in order for the person to see to read clearly and correctly. Dr. Leavell added that sometimes people blame children for their inability to read when they themselves have failed to interest the child in reading. He recommended that children be interested in reading and given reading instruction when they are one year old.

Miss Kay L. Ware, director of the reading clinic and general supervisor of elementary schools in St. Louis, Mo., suggested a reading program to fit individual differences. Miss Ware is located in a city that for years ranked first in the nation as far as reading instruction is concerned and still ranks high.

Dr. Dwight L. Burton, associate professor of language and arts at Florida State University, told those in attendance that literature and poetry should be taught with the idea of interesting the student in the story or melody rather than the technical aspects.

All speakers assailed comic book reading and discouraged such a pastime as "it leads up to poorer quality reading."

Ten Churches To Participate In Wayland Workshop

Demonstration groups from 10 West Texas churches of Amarillo, Plainview, Canyon, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Borger, Pampa, Dumas, and Floydada will present model programs before the Training Union Workshop at Wayland College, Aug. 12 and 13, according to Dr. T. C. Gardner, Dallas state secretary, who is planning the area-wide affairs.

Four sessions will be held with President A. Hope Over of Wayland College bringing the welcome address at 9:40 a.m., Friday, and Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of First Baptist Church, Borger, the message of the morning. At the 8:40 p.m. assembly, Dr. Carl Bates, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Amarillo, will bring the message. At the 11:30 a.m., Saturday, assembly period, Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of First Baptist Church, Lubbock, and president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will bring the message.

Throughout the four sessions, demonstrations, exhibitions and departmental meetings are scheduled with such outstanding personalities in Training Union work as leaders: Dr. Gardner; Mrs. T. C. Gardner, State Elementary Union Director; Darwin Farmer, Dallas, Secretary of Association of Training Union Activities; Mrs. John McLean, Dallas, State Approved Elementary Worker; Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of First Baptist Church, Canyon; and Dr. Earl Allen, pastor of First Baptist Church, Floydada.

HOG CHOW DOES THE JOB

We were out at the W. B. Boston farm in the Summerfield community Friday and saw about 30 head of hogs ready for market and approximately 40 well on the way. Mr. Boston has just recently marketed 30 head of hogs and received 21 cent per pound. He says that he has raised hogs a long time but he has never had a bunch to do as good as the ones he now has on the Purina program. On his heavier hogs he is using 100 pounds of hog chow to 700 pounds of grain and on pigs weighing less than 100 pounds he is using 100 pounds of Sow and Pig Chow to 600 pounds of grain. Mr. Boston plans to stay in the hog business and he will have a place to watch in the near future.

SPRAY CATTLE FOR 2 1/2 CENTS PER HEAD

Here's the dope on Purina Range cattle spray:

- Contains 50 per cent Tenthredine plus 0.5 percent Lindane.
- A liquid, it's easy to mix with water.
- One gallon makes 100!
- Controls horn flies for 4 to 6 weeks.
- All this for only 2 1/2 cents per head.

Look over our shipment next time you are in town. Roy Cluck, G. L. Willis, Soapy Holland and several others are using Purina Range Cattle Spray. Ask them how they like this new product.

LOW COST RATION DOES TOP NOTCH JOB

Mrs. Earl Backus of Nazareth was in Saturday to tell us that her 50 Legrock pullets fed on home grown feed and Purina Chowder were in 20 per cent production at 5 months of age. She commented that most of the eggs she was getting were normal size but most of them had double yolks. This may or may not be a good situation. However, she is really in the two rogg business.

The ration fed these pullets consists of 300 lbs. of milo and 100 lbs. of chowder which means that the rations are costing approximately $3.25 per hundred and this is allowing $2.00 per hundred for milo. Should milo sell for $1.75 per hundred pounds this fall, some top-notch poultry rations can be had a very low cost. We have a custom grinding and mixing plant that can save you money if you want to get the most out of your home grown feeds.

APPLY FERTILIZER IN FALL AND WINTER

We visited the Lester Gladen farm recently to observe the results of ammonium sulfate applied to milo stubble last fall and winter and planted back to milo this spring. Lester applied 150 pounds of sulfate per acre and it's really showing up now. If you want to see some good feed and talk to a man that is pleased with fertilizer, talk to Lester Gladen.

Speaking of good crops, if you want to see some 175 bushel corn per acre visit the Dan Bruton farm northwest of Dimmitt.

PROBLEMS?

Weeds? Flies? Insects? Moss? Did you ever have so many unnecessary things? We have herbicidal oil 2-4D, atrazine and sodium Chlorate to help you with your weed problems. Fly bait, range cattle spray, building spray and lawn spray for control of your flies, mosquitoes, roaches, etc. Ortho and Matheson insecticides for your cotton and the insects and bluestone for moss in your irrigation ditches.

BINDWEED AND JOHNSON GRASS

August and September are the months to kill out bindweeds and Johnson grass. Just 5 pounds of Sodium Chlorate per square rod on Bindweeds will give very effective killing. Check with us and we can show you where Sodium Chlorate will kill bindweed cheaper per square rod than any other soil sterilant on the market. Johnson grass can be controlled a little cheaper than bindweed. If you have weed problems check with us and we will go out to your farm and help you decide on the best and cheapest method of weed eradication.

CLASSIFIED AD

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dreup of Nazareth were in Wednesday to tell us of their productive garden. Mrs. Dreup said they planted more garden than they really needed and had a variety of green beans, okra, etc. to sell. Anyone interested in buying fresh vegetables to put in their deep freeze or otherwise can call Mrs. Dreup at 2331 on the Nazareth exchange. She says she will gather the vegetables and sell them for a nominal price.

Wesleyan Guild Picnic Is Held

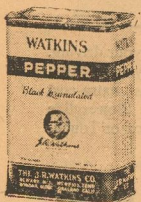

The Wesleyan Service Guild held its monthly meeting in the form of a picnic at the home of Mrs. Pearl Sheffy. Approximately thirty-six people enjoyed fried chicken, salad and home-made ice cream.

The twelve students of Jackie McLeroy's Craft School were guests and their craft was on display for the Guild members to see. Some of their projects were copper pictures, woven bread baskets of straw, small doughnut-shaped stands and many other articles woven of straw.

The officers and committee heads of the Guild will have a meeting next Wednesday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, August 10, in the home of Mildred Bradford. The purpose of the meeting is officers seminar.

Tag Collections Show Large Gain

Collections on motor vehicle license plates in Castro county are running higher at this writing than at any other time in history, according to a check with Kent Birdwell, tax assessor-collector. As of July 12 total collections amounted to $71,479.27, of which the state received $10,292.16. Last year at this time, collections amounted to $61,317.86. The 1955 figure as of the middle of July already surpasses the total 1954 figure and is a gain of $10,161.41. This represents the biggest increase for any one year in the county's history. The main reason for the unprecedented gain, according to Birdwell, is the large population increase over the county.

Brother Of Area Women Succumbs

Services for William Wright, 27-year-old Amarilloan and brother of Mrs. J. B. Farris of Dimmitt and Mrs. Paul Acker of Nazareth, were conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Blackburn-Shaw Funeral Chapel in Amarillo. Burial was in an Amarillo cemetery.

Mr. Wright died Sunday afternoon in Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo of a brain hemorrhage which resulted from injuries suffered in a car crash at Portales, N. M. about a week ago.

Besides relatives in this area, Mrs. Wright leaves five sisters, one brother and his parents.

Attending the funeral from Dimmitt other than relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wood, Miss Shirley Moore, L. C. Dennis and Eulis Davis.

Former Resident Buried At Vega

Funeral rites for Wilbur Leonard Houghtaling, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Houghtaling of Boys' Ranch and formerly of Dimmitt, were held in the Vega Methodist Church Monday at 2:30 p.m. Interment was in Vega Memorial Cemetery.

Young Houghtaling died Friday (July 29) in an Amarillo hospital. He had been suffering from a blood disease for the past two months.

Besides his parents, the deceased leaves one brother, Larry.

Wilbur's parents will be remembered by many friends here. They lived here about two years ago and he served as commander of the Greer H. Estes Legion Post at one time. Mrs. Houghtaling also taught in the public schools here.

Local Club Loses; Tie-Breaking Tilt Set Here Sunday

In their final home game of the season, the Dimmitt baseball club of the Central Plains League dropped a close tilt to the league-leading Friona team by the score of 6-4.

Stan Barrett helped his team overcome a four-run lead in the early stages of the game and go on to defeat Dimmitt. Barrett was credited with the victory while Alvin White took the loss.

The loss coupled by a win by the Hereford club left Dimmitt in a tie with Hereford for third place. The locals will now face Hereford here Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The winner of this game will take undisputed possession of third place and the loser will be relegated to fourth. The third place team will play Umbarger (in second place) and the fourth place club will meet Friona (in first place) in the league playoff series. These teams will play a best two-out-of-three series with the winners playing for the league championship.

Other results Sunday were: Bovina 9, Olton 3; Umbarger 8, Nazareth 3; and Hereford 7, Lazbuddie 5.

The final standings for the season are:

	W	L
Friona	11	3
Umbarger	9	5
Dimmitt	8	6
Hereford	8	6
Bovina	7	7
Olton	6	8
Lazbuddie	5	9

Willis Branscom Describes M. D. Anderson Hospital

(Ed Note—The following story was written by Mr. Willis Branscom of the Big Square Community, who is suffering from cancer. He is a long-time resident of Castro county and is known for his work in area rodeos.)

For the past several days I have been thinking about writing something to my home town newspaper. As most of you know cancer is the number two killer of the whole country and from the amount of visitors, flowers, cards and letters that I have received, I am sure that most of you know that this happened to hit me. All winter long I lay around with what I thought was rheumatism and this and that and I visited the doctors, had a few X-rays made and not once did we ever suspect cancer.

Then all at once it happened. It proved to be scattered all over my body, was a little too much for my home town hospital. Naturally we don't like to give up a fight without going a bit further and seeing what else can be done. So my doctor recommended the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute of Houston, Texas.

Now before this time I had no idea of what the M. D. Anderson Hospital was, how it was established or how it came into being. I had supposed that it may be subsidized by some big oil man or capitalist, but all of you know the American Clyton Company, the great cotton firm that does millions of dollars worth of cotton business every year, not only in the United States, but also South and Central America. In 1939 Monroe D. Anderson of the Anderson and Clayton Company died of cancer. A bachelor member of this firm and in his will he created a foundation.

In 1941 the Texas State Legislature authorized the establishment of a cancer hospital and research institution, and appropriated $500,000 for this purpose. The supervision was to be under the board of regents of the University of Texas. How and where to start an institution of this kind on this amount of money proved to be quite a headache to the regents of the University. The M. D. Anderson foundation came to its rescue by offering to match this amount of money, furnish a place for it to be first located, and other concessions provided it would be located in Houston.

After many more appropriations from the Texas legislature and much more money being appropriated by the foundation and other civic minded people, they have a building here now that is worth approximately ten million dollars. The outside is made of pink Tennessee marble, it is a beautiful thing to behold and it is very, very up to date and modern inside also. About one-half of it is taken over and used exclusively for the purpose of research, and the cure and prevention of cancer. The other half is used by patients.

It has 310 beds and over 800 employees counting doctors, nurses, etc. Patients are actually admitted by state law. You cannot come and enter this institution on your own account, you have to be referred to it by a doctor and then given permission by the head doctor here as when to enter. Preference is given to localities where the facilities for taking care of cancer is not so good. You can see all kinds of people here and all stages and most of them are patients that were given up by other hospitals and sent here. The last few days I was in the Muleshoe hospital, I was very, very anxious to get down here because I believed with all the late gadgets and all the things they had that most any kind of disease within reason could be cured or at least stopped to such a degree that it wouldn't give you much trouble. So I was very anxious to get here.

We had made plans which seemed very good, hired an ambulance to take us to the local airport and a plane from Lubbock to take us to Houston, but at the last minute the weather prevented this. So we got the ambulance and went to Lubbock and again the weather prevented us from taking a plane to Houston, so we made the 600 mile trip down there by ambulance, arrived in pretty good shape, feeling fair. Then we entered the hospital; first thing they did was to take you in and go through all the statistics and history of your family and all that, then they gave me a very thorough examination.

After that they sent me up to my room. When I got up there, it was a four patient room and I made the third one in there. There was one man that was the yellowest man I believe I ever saw and another man in pretty bad condition; of course this didn't look too good to me and when my brother came in he couldn't hardly take it, so we managed around to get the present room that we have which is a single room. It is the last room on the east wing which is 314 on the third floor and has a window all the way across or the east side.

Beautiful scenery out there, trees and parking places and they are building an apartment building over to my left. They have the steel framing nearly all up now and those steel workers pull some pretty good looking stunts up there by walking around on it. So I spent quite a bit of time looking at the steel work go on.

I thought they would be doctoring me in the next few days but the next day after I was here another doctor came in and felt all over me and punched me around and went off and didn't say anything. About the next day another one did the same thing, the fourth day one came in and just felt of my neck. They finally began to X-ray me for this and that but I could never get anything out of them, then along about the eleventh day I got a little impatient with them and wanted to know what they were going to do, so they put me off a little longer.

They finally began to X-ray and test my kidneys, so arrived at the conclusion that maybe they should give me a spinal and check into one of those kidneys. We checked with them on this and asked if they could cure me or just delay it a little while. They said at the best it was an evident fact that it would be just a slowing down process and that there was no chance for a full recovery. So that puts a man king where he stands.

I certainly want to thank and every individual for the best they have taken in me. They never stayed by one so Roy Cards, letters and prayers every one appreciated and don't know how much to a person. So again let me say thank you and thanks a lot.

We decided the best thing me to do at the present time to go home. I was quite sure you people would want to know just what happens to a person when he gets in this condition. I think that we should all our eyes to the fact that the number two killer, should be watched very, very carefully.

Back home in the Amherst room, I have a good north up room and breezes coming in and cool. Of course I don't have an automatic bed, I cannot push a button and let myself down another one to let me up, but I can raise up and down easy like I did down at M. D. Anderson. I don't have a full picture window, or a bath room with running ice water and all the equipment like that but I do have what it takes, that is good care of good nurses and plenty of it and that is more than you can get sometimes at the big hospitals.

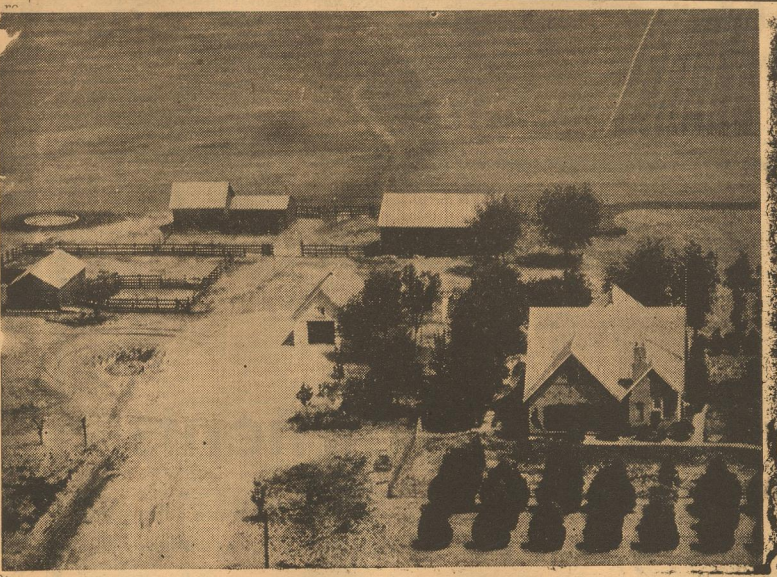

It looked pretty blue when I came back. I took a ride up on the train. We took a sleeper out there and when we got here it was raining and misty and we had the ambulance down there to meet us. The trip was pretty rough and pretty rugged. Got pretty weak, and haven't fully recovered yet, but thought you people might want to know what became of me. After they had no hope for me down at Houston, well our thoughts just naturally turn toward home. We like to be among our home folks and this is closer home and that's why I am here.

Dimmitt Woman Identifies Mystery Farm No. 27

MYSTERY FARM number 27 was correctly identified by Mrs. Dewey Wright of Dimmitt.

The farm, owned by Conrad Schulte, is located one-half mile north of Nazareth. Schulte has owned the farm for 25 years, purchasing it from Henry Lange in 1928.

The Schulte farm was first put under plow the year that the Nazareth farmer bought the place. The farm consists of 165 acres of land. Only about 50 acres of the farm has been cultivated and on this acreage row crops, maize and cotton are grown.

Schulte was married in 1903 and has nine children. All of the Schulte family are members of the Catholic Church.

Mystery Farm pictures appear in the News each week and identification guesses may be turned in by calling the News office not later than Monday noon of each week. Blanton Butane has sponsored the mystery farm series since its beginning in the News early this year.

In the Junior League eliminations, the Dimmitt team drubbed Petersburg 11-1 in five innings. Fred Bradley was the winning pitcher, giving up one hit. TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

Washington Heat

The age old expression, "hotter than a depot stove," is a perfect description of both Washington weather and the closing days of the Congress. The sweltering heat is supposed to be unusual. It must be, because if it lasted very long, everything would be fried to a crisp. Even the rain is lukewarm.

The hectic days of the closing Congress are not unusual. It happens every time Congress starts to adjourn. It is somewhat like Christmas; no one seems to be fully prepared for it. We have gone along at a moderate pace for 5½ months and are now trying to cram about three months' work into three days. The controversial legislation is being handled with dispatch, which is not too good. The trouble is that when you move fast on these complex bills, you do not have time to properly clean them up. This results many times in the defeat of measures that could have been passed if properly and thoroughly considered. Many feel that the fate of the highway was a good example. The gas bill skinned through on about as close a margin as possible. The closeness of the vote was not due to the time the bill was considered. The history of this legislation is studded with close votes. Similar legislation barely passed the Congress in 1950 and was vetoed by President Truman. The legislation in this session was subject to 9 weeks' hearings before the committee. As a member of that committee, I was in attendance at practically every session and could see from the very beginning that the vote would be very close. It was. On the first vote, it was 14 for and 14 against. This meant that the bill failed. However, one of those who voted against the bill was gracious enough to move its reconsideration. The bill was reconsidered by another close vote, and was finally passed out of the committee by a vote of 16 to 15. The bill then went to the Rules Committee, where it received a rule by the very narrow vote of 6 to 5. The first test vote in the House was 210 for the bill and 203 against. On final passage, the vote was 209 for and 203 against. One member who had previously voted for the bill voted present. Many of the members are referring to the bill as the "Close Shave" rather than the gas bill. We hope it does better in the Senate.

The fight on the gas bill, as all of you know, was long and hard, and those of us who have vigorously opposed federal control of our economy are highly pleased with the results of the vote in the House yesterday. There are several provisions in the bill that are distasteful to me and will probably be distasteful to many independent producers, but the main feature of the bill which I have long and ardently supported, freeing the independent producer and gatherer from bureaucratic federal control, is intact. Thank goodness.

The Housing Bill

The housing bill finally cleared the Rules Committee after remaining there under a 6 to 6 deadlock for quite a while. The controversy hinged around public housing, and this will be the center of the fight on the Floor of the House today. Had the public housing feature been in a separate bill, there would have been very little hold-up. The reason that the housing bill as such is a "must" in the President's views, is because it contains authority concerning the entire housing program. If this bill is not passed before Congress adjourns, it could very easily be the cause of disrupting a large segment of our economy and cause great hardship in many sections. The public housing features have been opposed vigorously and have been cut down in prior years. Attempts will be made to cut them out of the bill this year, but it is my prediction that by the time you get this letter, the housing bill will have passed, with Eisenhower's recommendation on public housing included.

A New Fad

Washington seems to have gone hog-wild about the Hawaiian theme. This must be history repeating itself. I remember when I was a child, every vaudeville had to have a Hawaiian act and Hawaiian music. The Chatauqua (remember them?) was never without one. In fact, "Aloha," not knowing whether it was a good or bad word. The new fad involves digging pits in the ground and lining them with hot lava stones and getting Hawaiian chefs to cook whole pigs in them. They also make up quite a few other Hawaiian dishes that all have reputations of good taste. Also involved in the ceremonies is a huge punchbowl full of Hawaiian punch. Everyone is given a large straw and instructed to drink out of the punch bowl. This part of the ceremony reminds one of the old-time round horse trough that used to sit at the northeast corner of the court house. It is not my intention to insinuate that the drinkers from one bear any resemblance to the drinkers from the other. What I had in mind was that in both instances, all are trying to drink at the same time.

Duck Hunting

60-Day Season

Opens Nov. 14

Texas waterfowl hunters seem assured of a sixty-day season this fall, according to the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

He said nesting reports from Canadian marshes indicate that the hatch has been normal, and that the duck and goose population that migrated northward last spring will be increased to "satisfactory proportions."

"We have every reason to believe now that the Washington authorities, who have the final say on seasonal regulations, will follow our Commission's recommendations and allow the full sixty-day shoot," said the Executive Secretary.

"Of course, we won't know definitely before around August 15. The National Flyway Council meets in Washington August 8 to correlate reports from the various flyways preliminary to reaching its final conclusions.

"This group serves as a consulting agency to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, of the Department of Interior, which has final authority on all regulations concerning migratory game birds."
