New Radar Speed Test Held In Area

Motorists Find New Machine Halts Speed

B. BOB KELLY

Better stars, watching that speed a little closer, soon the highway patrol has moved in the radar!!

In a test of the new radar equipment held three miles east of Abilene on U. S. Highway 80 this morning before press, radio and safety officials, P. A. Zeisel, safety section technician with the Texas Highway Patrol, demonstrated the new powers of law enforcement officers.

All cars passing the radar block were clocked. The radar machine indicates the vehicles speed on a dial and on tape. Motorists were warned of the tests this morning by highway signs. Speeders caught will be fined, however.

The power supply for the radar comes from a car battery. The machine will be used in the Ranger-Eastland area soon, but motorists will be warned by signs.

The machine can clock a vehicle's speed from 200 yards away. Zeisel told a Telegram reporter the machine will be used in an effort to curb speeding, which was the cause of 75 per cent of all accidents in the United States last year.

Oklahoma already has the machine in use, and the Oklahoma Supreme Court has upheld them.

INDICTMENTS INCLUDE ONE NARCOTIC BILL

A 91st District Court grand jury returned four indictments Thursday and then recessed until May 10. The indictments included one for illegal possession of a narcotic drug and three for second offense driving while intoxicated.

Indicted on the narcotic charge was William Lewis Robertson, Sibley Carroll Tipton was indicted for DWI, and the other two DWI true bills were secret indictments.

The narcotic charge came following the arrest of Robertson and a companion last March 28 in Eastland. In a signed confession, Robertson took all the blame for the possession of narcotics, despite the fact the marijuana was found on the person of his companion, Ersking Barton, who was not-billed by the grand jury.

Barton is being held as a material witness.

God's Plan Is Bishop W. Martin's Theme At Methodist Youth Banquet

Bishop William C. Martin, president of the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church, president of the National Council of Churches in America, and Bishop of the Dallas - Fort Worth area of the Methodist Church, told the young people at the Annual Banquet of the Cisco District Methodist Youth Fellowship held Monday at the First Methodist Church in Ranger that God has a plan for every youth's life, every youth may find God's plan for his life by searching for it, and the plan that God has will make each individual's life more worthwhile than the individual's own choice for his life with God excluded.

Sammy Miller of Eastland, president of the Cisco District Methodist Youth Fellowship for the past year, introduced Rev. Jackson G. Oglesby, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Eastland, who was master of ceremonies. Rev. Oglesby is the director of youth work in this district.

Rev. Oglesby presented a well known conference director, Jim Flynn, who led the 300 youth in a sing song. Mrs. M. G. Smith was (Continued on Page Four)

Homespun

By UNCLE BOB

What is wrong with our city? Why are the streets vacated? What is the future of Ranger?

Do you ever ask those questions to yourself? If not, you should.

Our ancestors lived their lives on a violent frontier. Their survival depended on their knowledge of terrain, wild life, the Indians and other natural and often violent enemies.

Over period of years we have made the frontier a place of comfort, safe surroundings and a better place to live. We have advanced.

Should we stop now? No! We have a job to do for the tomorrow. We must make Ranger a place where the young people do not leave to seek employment but remain at home to take over when we are gone. What attraction is there in Ranger for a high school graduate, for a college graduate or a returning soldier from Korea?

The real problem will only be solved when it is broken down to the elementary problem of this community, effectively organizing to take courageous steps, in putting their heads together and creating new enterprises for the welfare of the young citizens and for the development of this community. We must take every step to insure a future for the graduates to keep them at home.

It is the responsibility of everyone in Ranger to stimulate the creation of new businesses and to help existing businesses to grow larger and stronger. These small businesses, these small business men, are economic resources in a very real sense. There must be concerted action over a long period of many different private groups working together, and in cooperation with agencies of Federal, state and local governments to see that small business not only survives but prospers.

It is the responsibility of everyone in Ranger to make a name for this city in other localities in the state. A name that will be good in the eyes of the state and nation. Every citizen must be a diplomat where ever you go so that the name of Ranger will be a city well remembering.

To attract new business it is not the responsibility of one organization nor one man, but the direct responsibility of every citizen of this city.

To attract a new business we have a lot of good talking points. Here are a few for your sales talk:

1. We are located out of a high populated and congested area that would likely be a target for enemy attack by H-bombs or etc.;
2. We have available space for many different types of businesses;
3. We have available manpower in the area;
4. We are located on the Texas and Pacific Railroad and on Highway 80;
5. We have available water for any industry with the establishment and construction of the new dam near here;
6. We are friendly people and want to see a business prosper here;
7. We are located in a vast agriculture area that supplies the nation with a large portion of its peanuts, cattle and other farm products.

When you go out of town on your next trip, tell the world about Ranger and what we have to offer. Let's build our city. Not stand still!

The codfish lays ten thousand eggs.

The homely hen lays one.

But the codfish never catches To tell you what she's done.

And so we scorn the codfish, While the humble hen we prize.

Which simply goes to show you, That it pays to advertise.

Circus Performance In Eastland Sunday

The circus is coming. The second largest wild animal circus in the world, Al G. Kelly and Miller Bros. Circus, will have a one performance stand Sunday in Eastland. The matinee show will be held at the old driving range, west of Eastland.

Kelly-Miller moves on 65 new all-steel semi-trailer trucks, employs 450 people, has a block-long menagerie, consisting of 36 cages of wild animals, six herds of elephants, 16 camels, 11 zebras, 107 head of beautiful ring horses and several dens of tropical reptiles. The actual operating expense daily exceeds $2,300.

Six big tents cover more than seven and a fourth acres; the main tent having a seating capacity of almost 5,000.

A large amplifying system is employed in the "main" tent to broadcast the announcements of the various feature attractions during the circus program. Sixteen huge electric fans, keep the big tent at a cool temperature, assuring the guests patron relief and comfort even on the hottest days.

Four monster electric generators set the entire circus grounds ablaze with illumination. Several modern mechanical devices are employed, operated by both steam and electric power, used in erecting and tearing down the "canvas city."

When you visit the showground early on circus day you see the Diesel powered "canvas spool" a time and labor saver and its operation is very interesting. The elephants too do their share in raising the canvas city, as well as their strength being utilized in pulling deeply driven stakes at night.

Gigantic means are employed to feed this city of Kelly-Miller. More than two thousand meals are served daily to its people alone in the vast canvas hotel, said to be one of the largest ever traveled. The giant ranges upon which the fried and broiled foods are prepared are mounted on big wagons weighing upwards of ten tons. It is not unusual to hear the head chef place an order for 5,000 griddle cakes and a proportionate amount of eggs and bacon for a single breakfast. Practically all purchases are made daily in the particular city in which the circus is to exhibit. The average daily expense of running the commissary department is over eight hundred and sixty dollars.

According to reports regarding the size of Kelly-Miller, it is undoubtedly the largest circus that has ever visited Eastland.

Funeral Today For Father Of Frank Penn

Funeral services for Velma Wharton Penn, 77, of Ranger were held at 2 p.m. this afternoon at Thomas Funeral Chapel in Cisco. Rev. Mart Agnew and Rev. Lightfoot, Cisco Methodist ministers, officiated and interment was in Cisco Cemetery.

Mr. Penn, father of Ranger City Commissioner Frank Penn, was born in Indiana and had been a resident of Eastland County for 62 years. A retired farmer and rancher, Mr. Penn came to Eastland County in 1891 when he was 14 years of age.

He died at 11 p.m. Tuesday at the home of his son in Ranger, where he had made his home since his wife passed away last November. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

He is survived by four sons, Mallie Penn of Torrington, Wyo., Frank Penn of Ranger, John Penn and Cecil Penn, of Cisco.

Last Rites For Eley L. Simons Held Tuesday

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 20, at the Second Baptist Church in Ranger, for Eley Lily Simons who passed away April 19 in Ranger. Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

Interment was in Bullock Cemetery with Killingsworth Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers were nephews of the deceased: Jack Waggoner, Irmas, Ted Waggoner, San Antonio; Andrew Beck, Eastland; Billy Langford, Ft. Worth; and Albert Williams and Curtis Beck of Ranger.

Mrs. Simons was born November 29, 1870 in Denton County, Texas, and had lived in and around Ranger for 80 years. She was married to Charlie P. Simons in 1892, just north of Ranger. He preceded her in death in 1932.

Mrs. Simons was a member of the Baptist Church East of Weatherford.

She is survived by three sisters; Mrs. W. B. (Bertie) Williams and Mrs. Willie Langford of Ranger; three brothers, A. J. Beck, G. F. Beck and Charlie Beck, all of Ranger; and a number of nieces and nephews.

College Reports Large Enrollment

A report from the college records indicates 391 registered students in the spring semester in all branches. The college board has announced expansion program to care of one hundred twenty temporary students. They announce that finance of such expansion will be through self liquidating projects and will not increase the tax levy. It is estimated that money wise that expansion of the college to meet the need of this area, Ranger should realize an additional $80,000 income annually.

GIRL WRESTLERS TAKE OVER SPOTLIGHT AT SPORTARENA

The grunt and groan boys will have to take a seat on the second row this Monday at the Sportarena in Eastland, despite a grudge match scheduled between Cowboy Carlson and Roy Graham. Yes, the girls take over the spotlight this week, with Betty White and Babs Wingo, two of the top Colored girl wrestlers, meeting in a 45 minute time limit bout.

The two girls wrestlers are expected to be the biggest drawing card yet at the Sportarena. At least that's what early ticket sales indicate. Promotor Henry Fullman says resrasy seat sales are far above average.

Both of the girl wrestlers are top performers. The favorite tactic of both is hair pulling, press releases indicate, but they both reportedly have a lot of wrestling savvy to go with their other tactics. The bout will be the opening event of the three match card, and will begin at 8:30 p.m.

The main attraction of the evening will match Carlson and Graham in a return grudge match. Last week Graham took two out of three falls from Cowboy, but was disqualified after he refused to stop fighting after the match was over. He didn't like the idea of being disqualified and gave Referee Bill Steadum a hard time before Steadum doubled up his fists and gave the Corsicana rough boy a working over.

Graham told a reporter he could lick Cowboy anytime with "a fair referee in the ring." He claimed he had to fight both men last Monday and sighted the time the referee held him while Cowboy slugged him. (After the match was supposed to be over.)

And the other event of the evening, which is a best two out of three falls affair, also promises to be a thriller. Two villains will meet in that bout, Ivan Kalmikoff and Dick Hutton. Both whipped crowd favorites last week, Ivan making Sugi Sito give up twice on submission holds, and Hutton giving Henry Lenz a bad beating. The match promises to be dirty all the way, with both of the big men fast and mean.

Kalmikoff hails from Moscow, Russia, and Hutton is from Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Reserve seat tickets are now on sale at the Connellee Hotel lobby in Eastland.

Gordon Sets A Record For Payroll Per Capita

Gordon with a population of 404 has the biggest payroll per capita than any other city in the state of Texas, states Mayor E. L. Henegar.

Gordon is located at the western edge of Palo Pinto County and on the Texas and Pacific Railroad. Gordon is connected to Highway 80 by Highways 919 and 193.

The principal industry for this city is the Lone Star Gas Company plant which employs a hundred men and the Southwestern Nut Company. In this area cattle and poultry are raised. This is the chief money for the farmers.

Gordon was one of the many cities that sprang up due to the Texas and Pacific Railroad. The city of Gordon was started in 1879 and today remains one of the finest at small towns in the state of Texas due to the friendly and courteous people that live there.

In Gordon you will find at the Southwestern Nut Company modern equipment for grading and shelling pecans. This establishment averages 24 employees the year round and shells from 12,000 to 15,000 pounds of pecans a day. Pecans from this plant go to the Dallas market where they are prized.

At the last city election Mayor Henegar did not run (Editor's Note) He forgot to put his name in. The new mayor that will take over at the next meeting of the council is Roy Keown, well known civic leader of Gordon.

The present mayor E. L. Henegar was in the drug business in Gordon for 40 years. In 1947 the mayor sold his business and retired. Being an active man he couldn't just set down and take it easy so with the wholesale contacts that he had established over the years he started special ordering merchandise for people. This was not fast enough for Henegar so he put in a little stock that people wanted. Before he could realize it he had a store in Mineral Wells and a first grade furniture store in Gordon.

With the spirit and the type of people that live in Gordon it will continue to grow and be a wonderful place to live.

How The Little Town Of Anton, Texas Built A Youth Center And Made A Dream Come True

(Editor's Note— This story is made up of excerpts from "The Birth of a Youth Center" by Mrs. Madison Newton, which was published in the April issue of The Texas Clubwoman.)

What was once a dream in a few people's minds, became a reality in Anton, Texas. This dream was a youth center or recreation hall for the young people of the community. Through hard work, faith and generous donations from interested persons, the dream gradually materialized.

In the fall of 1952 members of the 1950 Study Club realized the need of such a place, and the idea was born. The club adopted the plans as its project for the year, and it has continued to be its project ever since.

The Anton American Legion offered the use of its building, which was in need of repairs. The "Youth Center" as it was then called, was open one night a week, the only recreational facilities being two ping-pong tables, dart boards and card games which the club women furnished. The center was chaperoned by the club, which also furnished the refreshments the first month. After the first real party on Halloween, the Anton Producers Co-op (Inc) began furnishing the food, and continued to do so until the fall of 1953. The center was recognized at this time and added to the Hockley County Community Chest.

Civic clubs and organizations met in April 1953 and laid out plans for re-decoration, ramps and organization. The young people chose the name, "Teen Canteen." The night it opened, representatives from the seventh through the twelfth grades met with 150 adults.

Generous donations were made by the Lions Club and other civic organizations and many people gave of their time to completely re-decorated the building. Occasionally chairs and small tables, lamps, wall decorations, artificial plants, bamboo blinds, curtain material, and a refrigerator were bought out of the donations. Tennis and badminton courts were built on the grounds with labor furnished by Hockley County; a bar-b-que pit was built by the Lions Club, flood lights were added outdoors and the labor was furnished by Forman Electric of Anton. The American Legion painted the inside walls of the building and repaired the doors and locks. The Legion Auxiliary spent $100 on thirty new folding chairs.

Donations also allowed for new recreational facilities. Tennis balls and rackets, ping-pong balls and paddles, shuffle board, croquet, indoor horse shoes, an assortment of card and table games were purchased. A juke box was also obtained. "Open House" was held with the entire community invited to attend. It was a big success. The Canteen now has a board of directors to serve under the Hockley County Community Chest. The dream is not ended. They have faith that it will be carried on by the generous and hard working people of Anton who desire the very best for their children.

READ THIS ABOUT THE GREAT GULF TIRE

This Gulf Tire can stand up to rough roads and take real punishment. Here's why:

- The Gulf Tire has a considerably stronger carcass. It's built with a new-type cord and has more cord per inch in every ply.
- Then vulcanizing welds all plies together. They work as a unit to resist bruises. And they're interlocked around high-tensile steel wire beads.

This is the 1954 Chevrolet Bel Air 2-Door Sedan. With 3 series, Chevrolet offers a model to meet every individual and family need.

These facts about the New Chevrolet can help you make an important decision

Don't you agree that buying a new car calls for careful consideration? Regardless of make, it involves a substantial amount of money and a lot of future satisfaction. This information can give you a better idea of comparative value and help you decide which make to buy.

A good customer of ours was telling us the other day how he sizes up a new car. Because he's bought a number of them over the years, we were interested in what he had to say. We think you will, too.

Actually, what he does is to ask about seven basic questions. The answers give a pretty complete picture of the car and its comparative value. Here's what he wants to know.

How well do I like its looks?
That's one question, of course, that only you can answer. You're the one who buys the car and you, above anybody else, should be proud of its appearance.

All we can tell you is that we hear a lot of nice things about Chevrolet's new styling. People seem to like the new front-end and rear-end designs, and the way the bumpers curve even farther around the fenders. They like the new styling touches all around the car and the wide choice of bright new colors and two-tone combinations. A good many tell us that Chevrolet has a decided edge over the other cars in its field for smooth and graceful lines.

Who makes the body?
This question takes in much more territory than the appearance of the car. It involves the quality of the interior as well as the strength and safety of the body construction. That's why we think it worth your consideration that Chevrolet has the only Body by Fisher in the low-price field.

You can see the difference outside and inside. We'd especially like you to look over the new interiors. Just sit in the car, if you will. Feel the quality of the fabrics and notice the more generous use of vinyl trim.

In all these ways, you'll find evidence of superior quality and workmanship. And after all, isn't that what you would expect in Body by Fisher? As you know, Fisher is the largest and most famous manufacturer of automobile bodies in the world. Doesn't it stand to reason that Fisher can build extra quality into the Chevrolet body? It's there and you can see it.

What's under the hood?
You hear a great deal of talk these days about engine power. The truth is that the number of horsepower isn't nearly as important as what the horsepower does for you.

In this year's Chevrolet, you get increased power in two finer engines. There's the "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide automatic transmission and optional on all models at extra cost. In gearshift models, you get the more powerful "Blue-Flame 115" engine.

But, actually, the increase in horsepower is only a sort of by-product of design changes made for other reasons. Chevrolet engineers were after greater engine efficiency, not just greater power. So, you get improved acceleration, with greater and safer passing ability. You get quieter, smoother operation. You climb the steep hills with new ease.

How hungry is it for gasoline?
A car's reputation for, and record of, economy of operation is certainly an important consideration to most people. We'd be glad to have you compare Chevrolet in this respect with any car at any price.

And, in the case of this new Chevrolet, you do not have to sacrifice economy for finer performance and more horsepower. That's because the Chevrolet engines are high-compression engines. Their compression ratio of 7.5 to 1 is the highest in any of the leading low-priced cars.

This means simply that the engine compresses, or squeezes, the fuel mixture to a greater degree in order to wring more work out of it. That's how Chevrolet is able to give you an important gain in performance along with money-saving gasoline mileage—and on regular gas, of course.

Is it up to date in features?
We can't think of a new feature or development you might want that you can't have on the new Chevrolet.

Now you can have Chevrolet's zippy and thrifty Powerglide automatic transmission on any model. You can have Power Steering on all models and at a new, lower price. You can have Automatic Window and Seat Controls on any Bel Air or "Two-Ten" model, and you can have Power Brakes on any model equipped with Powerglide. All are, of course, optional features at extra cost.

How popular a car is it?
When you come right down to it, there's no better way to judge the satisfaction a car gives its owners than by its popularity. How many people buy it and keep on buying it?

Well, as you may know, Chevrolet is by far the most popular car in this country. That's true today and it's been true for a good many years now. But it couldn't be true—or wouldn't be true—unless Chevrolet gave its owners an extra measure of satisfaction and value.

How much does it cost?
There's a short, sweet answer to that one. Chevrolet is priced below all other lines of cars. This lower cost is made possible by the greater production facilities and purchasing power of the world's largest manufacturer of automobiles. That is why Chevrolet can offer you all the advantages we've told you about here—and many more, too.

We'd be more than glad to have you see all these things for yourself and to try out this new Chevrolet on the road. We'll be happy to see you at any time.

Digest Blasts Comic Books As 'Blueprints For Delinquency'

"If one were to set out to show children how to steal, lie, assault and break into houses, no better blueprints than the comic books could be devised," declares Dr. Fredric Wertham, writing in the Reader's Digest for May.

An eminent psychiatrist and director of the Lafargue Clinic in New York, Dr. Wertham charges that the unwholesome stimulation of the types of comics which he brands as "unabashed chronicles of violence and sex" contribute markedly to the increased juvenile delinquency of today.

In an article condensed from his forthcoming book, "Seduction of the Innocent," Dr. Wertham contends that the vicious type of comic book, with its accent on crime and sex, leads to actual crime, despite the belief of many adults that the depicted crimes are too far removed from a child's ordinary experience to inspire emulation. The article cites cases of unusual juvenile crimes directly traceable to comic books.

Wertham states that juvenile delinquency has increased about 29 percent since 1947, the period corresponding to the great rise in comic-book circulation. Today's sales of comic books total 90,000,000 a month, with crime comics representing about four-fifths of all kinds. In 1946, the ratio was 9 to 1 in favor of the better type of comics.

Contributing to crime are "lurid advertisements" interspersed among the comics. These "veritable invitations to delinquency" picture air pistols and a "genuine .22 rifle" and show how they may be used to threaten people. An ad for a switchblade knife shows how to hold it; one for a telescope suggests looking into "neighbors' homes", and illustrates a half-nude girl.

Not only do comics breed crime, but they help to promote race and religious prejudice, Wertham charges, by depicting their villains as Negroes, Jews and Orientals.

Wertham makes a distinction between newspaper comic strips and the crime-and-sex comic books pointing out that the former are subject to the censorship of newspaper editors while no agency exists to censor or reject the latter. "A completely unregulated industry," the comic-book publishers "specialize in anonymity," the article says. Titles are subject to frequent change. A book which is stopped because of criticism can be started again under a different title.

Yet every move to regulate the industry is met by outraged protests that the freedom of the press is being violated. Self-regulation has completely failed, Wertham states, as have attempts at comic-book evaluation by PTA and other groups. The author relies on "aroused parents" and "the democratic process" to bring about the eventual end of the crime comics.

Amazing New Tire Developed at Indianapolis Now Available for Your Car

WORLD'S FIRST All-Nylon Tubeless Firestone "500"

TESTED AND PROVED AT THE "500" SPEEDWAY FOR USE ON TODAY'S HIGH-SPEED SUPER HIGHWAYS

Runs safely up to 15 m. p. h. faster than ordinary tires

Withstands continuous high-speed running many hours longer

Endures up to 40° higher summer road temperatures

A combination of race-tire engineering and nylon construction makes the Firestone "500" the safest high-speed tire ever developed. In hundreds of tests at the Speedway, this tire was proven safe at speeds far in excess of normal highway driving speeds, giving the motorist up to 15 mph safety margin over ordinary tires.

The new Firestone "500" is a brute for punishment. With a nylon cord body, a full 91% stronger than ordinary tires, it defies road shocks. Unlike other tires which develop "body fatigue" after a few hours of driving, the "500" can be driven continuously without growing weak or "tired."

The "500" was subjected to thousands of miles of high-speed driving over blistering desert roads where the mercury reached 120° in the shade. Under these torturous driving conditions, ordinary tires frequently "pop" like toy balloons, but the Firestone "500" was proved blowout-safe at these higher road temperatures.

Special Safti-Liner Protects Against Punctures

Safer from flats because the air-tight butyl Safti-Liner that's bonded to the inside of the tire clings to nails to prevent air loss. Since there's no tube to pierce or explode, you get extra blowout protection too.

New Tread Increases Skid Protection

The outer ribs remain open to provide a suction-cup action on slippery pavement, while the inner ribs mesh together to create a positive biting action for sure-footed traction on starts, stops, and turns.

Race-Tire Construction Increases Mileage

An entirely new cold rubber tread compound developed under a new chemical formula makes possible a tread of race tire toughness, providing much longer mileage. Stronger cord body permits more retread miles too.
