

Rain, cold halt harvest

Cool, rainy weather has put Castro County's grain harvest at a near standstill, but above-average corn yields have apparently bolstered producers' spirits.

"Some folks were probably a little disappointed, because expectations were really high," said Fred Bruegel, Jr. of Bruegel and Sons Elevator. "Overall, though, yields were slightly above normal. We've still got about 20 percent of our corn out. We need some good, dry weather to get the rest of the corn in. And, some folks need to get to their milo, too. We've had some milo come in already, and it's excellent quality, with some heavy test weights. But, most folks are going to have to wait on a hard freeze before they cut any sorghum."

Bill Clark, Dimmitt Agri-Industries manager, said his customers are 95 percent through with their corn harvest, with "a little better than normal overall, average yield."

"We need a couple of good weather days to get the rest of this corn out," Clark said.

Clark said grain sorghum was just beginning to come in before the rain started Sunday.

"Some of this sorghum is ready to come in, but the moisture is holding them out."

Don Gregory at Castro County Grain echoed Clark.

"We're still lacking about five percent of our corn. We just need two days of sunny weather to get the rest of this corn out," said Gregory.

"Some folks need to get to their milo now. It's beginning to fall down in some places. It's ready in a lot of places if they can get to it," Gregory said.

Gregory said "a majority" of soybeans, especially early-planted beans, need to be cut as soon as possible, as well as most of the county's sunflowers.

Bob Berry, grain handling division manager at Frito-Lay in Hart, said that about 65 percent of the contracted corn has been cut, but some of the corn is beginning to fall.

"There will probably be a lot of 'neighboring' to get this corn in. Some of them will probably need to use a Corn Saver or a kicker reel in a few places, but I don't think any of the corn is stuck in the mud," Berry said.

Berry also bragged on overall yields.

"I'm really surprised, not just about the yields, but the quality, too. To have been so dry in June and July, and so wet around harvest, we've gotten some really good grain. And the later stuff has been as good as the early-harvested corn," said Berry.

Lynn Ehly, manager of the Oles Grain facility in Nazareth, said corn harvest in eastern Castro County is "virtually through, but the milo harvest is just beginning. It seems as though it only rains after they get out in the fields. The milo is good and heavy, but a lot of it is still too wet to cut. Most folks will have to wait until a freeze before they can cut any milo."

Ricky Byers, at Sunnyside Grain, said growers in the SIGNS OF THE SEASON are evident throughout the county, but more colorfully so at the home of Mike and Maureen Foskey at 1604 Ruskin Circle in Dimmitt. The Foskeys' son, Addison, 7, helped in assembling the scarecrow figure, stuffed with corn husks, which were also used to assemble the corn shock supporting the figure. The husks were cut at the Lawrence Acker farm at Nazareth.

Breakfast, carnival set Wacky Wednesday

Lots of scares, and fun, are in store for Dimmitt next Wednesday for Halloween.

Dimmitt merchants are hosting a "Wacky Wednesday" Fun Breakfast, and the Dimmitt Lions Club will host its annual Halloween Carnival.

Spook house open Saturday

Ghosts and goblins get an early start Saturday night at the Easter Lions Club's Halloween Spook House.

The spook house will be open Saturday night at 7:30, and will re-open Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 6:30.

Visitors to the six different rooms of horrors may purchase tickets at the Easter Community Building for $2 per person. Ticket buyers will be escorted to the spook house.

Various games and activities are planned by Cheryl Pybus for the fun breakfast, set for 6:30 to 8 a.m. at the Expo Building. A meal of eggs, sausage, biscuits, hot chocolate and coffee will be served for $1 per person. The public is invited.

Costumes will be judged, with a $50 prize for the wackiest get-up, and a $25 second prize. The best-represented business will win a decorated cake.

Many Dimmitt businesses will have in-store specials, and several will be accepting entries for a free 13" color television until 4:30 p.m. Wednesday. A drawing for the television will be held Wednesday at 5 p.m. at the chamber office.

The Halloween Carnival will get underway at 6:30 p.m. at the cotton compress in Dimmitt. Thirty-five booth spaces have been set up, with ac-

TDA shorts elevators

In spite of a quick settlement of the grain shortage problem at PLB Warehouse in Plainview, at least one area agribusinessman feels farmers and elevators storing their grain at the nation's largest warehouse did not receive full market value for their corn.

Less than a million pounds of non-Commodity Credit Corporation owned grain was supposed to be on hand at the facility, with that corn owned by 10 different entities. The 10 owned from six to 600,000 pounds of corn at PLB.

Farmers and elevators were able to truck out half of the grain they owned, with PLB paying $3.02 per bushel for the other half. The Texas Department of Agriculture said grain was selling at between $2.72-$2.89 per bushel in the Panhandle area, and Dwayne Brown, manager of Farmer's Grain in Hart, quibbles with those figures.

"While we were happy to get a quick settlement, we wish we could have received more for the grain," Brown said. "It's not anyone's business what we get for our grain when we sell it, but there's a small mark-up. But I guarantee you we, as an elevator could have gotten more than $3.02 per bushel. Growers were making more than that."

"I didn't appreciate the fact that we had no say in what we were going to get for that corn in our cash payment from PLB. The TDA set an arbitrary figure of $3.02 per bushel, and I think we should have gotten more," Brown said.

"A lot of grain has been shipped in here from the north, a lot of out-of-state corn, and that has depressed the marketplace. I would have liked to have seen the TDA make PLB buy corn off the local market to pay us in kind. If (Agriculture Commissioner Jim) Hightower really wanted to help some folks around here, he could have made PLB buy that corn off the local market to pay us, instead of the cash payments," Brown stated.

"I probably wouldn't hesitate to do business with PLB in the future," Brown added. "I had no real problems with them, but I won't do anything until they get squared away with TDA and CCC. I would like to see them have to meet many of the guidelines we have to follow. They were short about three percent, all probably due to shrinkage. We're only allowed one percent shrinkage. If we're one-tenth over that, we have to make up all the difference. PLB probably needs to meet the same guidelines."

County needs easements

Right-of-way easements are needed from three more landowners, or Castro County may lose an opportunity for a new, paved farm-to-market road, county commissioners learned Monday.

The proposed highway would extend FM 303 from Dodd to FM 145 in southwest Castro County.

County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis told the commissioners that most landowners on the proposed stretch have given easements to widen the present roadway from 80 feet to the required 100 feet, but three landowners have not yet given the county the needed 20 foot easement.

"We could go into condemnation proceedings against the three landowners," Davis said, "but that would take at least 30 days in district court. We're facing a Dec. 15 deadline. After that, we may not have a chance to have any road built for many, many years."

Davis said the fair market value would be about $400 per landowner, and commissioners balked when they learned they might be forced to pay the landowners for the right-of-way. Most of the property owners donated the needed land after first learning of the project in July, 1983.

Commissioners urged Davis and Pct. 2 Commissioner Edd Wilson to contact the landowners and attempt to get the needed property as soon as possible.

The Commissioners asked County Auditor Reeford Burrous to try to distribute permanent and available school funds to the school districts in the county.

Two certificates of deposit, totalling over $14,000 in permanent school funds, and an available school fund CD of

KDHN to change owners

The proposed sale and transfer of license of KDHN in Dimmitt was announced this week by potential owner Wayne Collins, and current owner JLP Media.

Collins said, "We filed applications to transfer the ownership to my family on Oct. 9. The application will remain on public file for 30 days, and we anticipate getting formal approval by Nov. 23, or earlier."

Collins, currently serving as Dimmitt mayor, said KDHN will be "attempting to provide good service to the community, including news and sports, and will be trying to support Dimmitt and its endeavors in any possible way."

Collins said that while he will be taking a "fairly active" role in station management, he does not contemplate any changes in station personnel, "although there may be some changes in duties" for the staff.

Richards will be feted at a breakfast Saturday at 8 a.m. at K-Bob's in Hereford. Congressman Charles Stenholm, House Agriculture committee and chairman of the Conservative Democratic Caucus in Congress, will be the Health fair planned

The annual Castro County Health Fair is set for Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the County Expo Building. Screenings, a blood drive, special programs and informational booths are all planned, free of charge.

tions of blood. Screenings will be for adult diphtheria, blood pressure, hearing, glaucoma, diabetes and others.

Alice Hunt, extension service food and nutrition specialist, will present "Stress and the Diet" at 11 a.m. At 1 p.m., Sheriff's Deputy Ron Jenkins will present "Rape Crisis: What You Need to Know."

Informational booths will be manned by the American Cancer Society, Right to Life, Panhandle Chapter of the Texas Head Injury Foundation, American Heart Association and the State Commission for the Blind.

Also, displays will be given by Rhoads Memorial Library, Texas Panhandle Community Action Corp., Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation Center, Multiple Sclerosis Society and others.

The Dimmitt Fire Dept. will have a booth, as well as Castro County Planned Parenthood.

Clerk's office open Saturday

Voters wishing to cast absentee ballots for the Nov. 6 general election will have an opportunity to vote this Saturday at the County Clerk's office.

"We'll be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. this Saturday to give anyone a chance to cast an absentee ballot," said county clerk Joy Jones. "The north entrance of the courthouse will be open for anyone wanting to come by Saturday."

The clerk's office will be open daily from 8 to 5 through Nov. 2 for absentee balloting.

Residents who are out-of-county who wish to cast their ballot by mail must mail their applications from outside the county, and the returned ballot must be mailed from outside the county, according to Mrs. Jones.

Bobby and Wanda Murdock celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary by visiting their son, Brad, and a daughter, Debbie, in Amarillo over the weekend. They ate at The Texas Tumbleweed and then watched Debbie play softball until they froze out. Wanda cooked the meal on Sunday since her kids are like most kids — they would rather have home-cooked meals.

Brad Murdock and his group, Marshall Leeks, and Larry Espinosa, who are with the Entertainment Enterprises Master J. Productions, were the D.J.'s for the high school dance in Dimmitt recently.

On Sunday Oct. 21 Oleta Walser honored her husband, Guy, on his 39th and holding and holding birthday! The Everlasting Arms

This tiny child looking with trust into his mother's loving face and cradled in the safety of her arms feels that her care will be eternal and everlasting. When one matures, one very quickly finds that the securities provided by the transient helps of this world do not offer everlasting security. No matter how much of this world's goods we accumulate, they cannot make life secure against the hazards of it. There is only one place where eternal security is available, and that is within the bounds of a trusting relationship with God who extends to man in love the everlasting arms. Go seek Word of His love in the Church.

Nazareth

Court Archbishop Gerken # 1368, Catholic Daughters of the Americas, celebrated their 40th anniversary Sunday, beginning with a mass at 9 a.m. in Holy Family Church for the living and deceased members. A dinner followed in the Nazareth Community Hall at 12:30 honoring 14 charter members.

Special guests for the celebration were State Regent Rowena Johnson from Weimar and State Treasurer Angela Acker from Nazareth. Cornelia Annen gave an excellent history on the forming of the organization in 1944, with 54 members. The 14 charter members being honored were Rose Annen, Cornelia Annen, Helen Backus, Mildred Ball, Agnes Brockman, Brigitta Dobmeier, Lucille Drerup, Lucille Schacher, Anna Schulte, Meta Stork, Lillian Venhaus, Rose Warren, Thelma Wethington and Rose Mary Wilhelm. A program was also given by Wynon Mayes, County Extension Agent from Hale County, with a take-off on Erma Bombeck. Many members and their husbands enjoyed the occasion.

Lavern and Damian Wilhelm and Gene Hasche returned Monday from Seattle, Wash., where they purchased a square baler. They had a combination business and pleasure trip and also visited with several friends. They enjoyed the beautiful scenery in Oregon, the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone National Park.

Albert Gerber was honored on his 70th birthday with a dinner on Tuesday for his family. Those present were Math and Rosena Albracht, Henry and Ginger Gerber of Amarillo, Bill and Frances Gerber of Umbarger, Toney and Mary Gerber, Leonard, Alvina and Paul Gerber and Meta Stork, all of Nazareth.

Alvin Anderle enjoyed a visit from an old army buddy, Oscar Golden, Sunday afternoon. They had not seen each other since they were stationed in India in 1945. Mr. Golden's home is in Borger, but he is presently working in Muleshoe as a heavy equipment operator.

Meta Stork was honored

By Uirgk Gerber, 945-2669

Sunday morning at mass by receiving a papal blessing in recognition of her 87th birthday in September. It was presented to her by Rev. Harold Waldow.

Florene Leinen is home after spending two weeks in Burke, Va., with Terry and Kathy (Leinen) Hill and family.

Rose Warren is home after spending a couple of weeks in Plains Memorial Hospital. She is doing well and enjoys company.

Bobcats rear up too late, fall 28-13

By JOHN BROOKS

If Charles Dickens were writing this story, he would most likely call it the Tale of Two Halves.

It would be the heart-rending story of how one football team sputtered and popped through one half before putting something together in the second half, only to come up short in the end, and learning something about needing to put two halves together to make a whole.

The starring teams would be the Dimmitt Bobcats and Muleshoe Mules. Dimmitt would basically outplay the Mules, but the Mules would use four big plays to dump the Bobcats, 28-13, Friday at Muleshoe's Benny Douglas Stadium.

Muleshoe wasted no time in getting on the board as tailback Mark Moton, lined up at wingback on the play, took the handoff on the Mules' 45 and outran everyone to the end zone. Ray Vinson converted the first of four PAT kicks to put the Mules ahead, 7-0, less than two minutes into the game.

The next time Muleshoe had the ball, the Mules gave it up. But that was one of the subplots in the story: 'How To Break a Football Team's Heart.'

Nathan Nelson picked off Todd Jones's first throw of the game at the Bobcat 35 and scampered to the Muleshoe 37. The ground-game tandem of Mark Smothermon and Mark Coker accounted for the Cats' initial first down before the Bobcats went to the air game. Quarterback Woody Glass, who ended the game with 8 of 27 throws complete, hit tight end Doug Nelson at the 10. But just before being knocked out of bounds, Nelson had the ball knocked free, and the Mules recovered at their own 6.

Dimmitt's next heartbreak came just moments later, when Doug Nelson forced a shanked punt from Vinson that sailed out of bounds at the Muleshoe 28. An unsportsmanlike conduct penalty moved the Bobcats back to the 41, though, and in spite of a 21-yard completion from Glass to Nathan Nelson, the Bobcats couldn't convert. The Mules took advantage of the Dimmitt disappointment to score their eventual winning points of the game.

Jones pitched to Moton at the Muleshoe 38. On the quick toss to the back, the Dimmitt linebackers faded to the inside, giving Moton free rein on the outside. The speedy Mule tailback raced 62 yards up the sideline for the TD, and a Vinson PAT hiked Muleshoe's lead to 14-0 with 9:57 left in the half.

After forcing a Todd Durham punt, Muleshoe threw together its only sustained drive of the night, an eight-play, 72-yard match featuring Moton.

Moton picked up 46 yards on seven carries, including a 24-yard pickup to the Dimmitt 21, and 15 yards on the next play to the Dimmitt 6. Moton scored two plays later to make it a 21-0 game at halftime.

A short Durham punt of just 18 yards, after the Bobcats had opted to re-kick a 36-yard effort on a Muleshoe penalty, set up the Mules' final score early in the third quarter.

On first down at the Dimmitt 46, Moton once again found a TOUCHDOWN!—It's teeth-gritting time as Dimmitt's Nathan Nelson (30) snares an 18-yard pass from Woody Glass and a Muleshoe defender tries to wrest it away from him at the 1-yard line in the third quarter of Friday night's District 2-AAA game at Muleshoe. Nelson held on and cut the corner of the end zone for his second touchdown of the night—both within three minutes of each other. However, that was all the Dimmitt scoring as the Mules won, 28-13.

clear outside trail for six points. Vinson converted his fourth PAT of the night to put the Mules up, 28-0, with 7:55 left in the third.

Just as it was looking like another 40-point setback, the Bobcats finally found the combination to the end zone puzzle: It was Woody Glass throwing to Nathan Nelson.

After using a time out, Glass found his wingback wide open at the Dimmitt 45. Nelson outraced everyone to the end zone to put Dimmitt on the board at 28-7, following Bobby Nino's extra point. Nino was roughed after the kick, and the ensuing penalty led to the Bobcats' second score.

Kicking off from the Muleshoe 45 after the 15-yard personal foul penalty, up-man Ben Benton punched an on-side kick. Just like a big hop to a shortstop, the ball bounded into Doug Nelson's arms at the Muleshoe 27.

The Bobcats could pick up after three plays netted nothing against a stiffening Bobcat defense. In fact, Dimmitt kept Moton and Co. bottled up for the last 20 minutes of the game, giving up just 13 total yards.

Setting up shop at the Dimmitt 46, Glass threw two incompletions before Coker picked up two yards on a draw play. On fourth down, Glass just overthrew Nathan Nelson at the Muleshoe goal line. Dimmitt coaches and fans demanded a pass-interference penalty, but the referee—who was caught 40 yards upfield on the play—didn't call it.

Muleshoe was able to run only one play before Milton Carrasco forced and recovered a Mule fumble at the Dimmitt 48.

Glass threw to Alvarez for a first down at the Muleshoe 39, and Coker picked up nine yards on two carries before a delay-of-game penalty set the Bobcats back. Glass was sacked at the 40, before a fourth-down incompletoion to Smothermon at the 38. Bobcat coaches argued vehemently that Smothermon had been pushed while the ball was in the air, but the ref didn't call that one, either. Instead, Dimmitt got a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty.

The Mules forced the Bobcats to start their last drive at their own 27 with just 3:05 left in the game. Glass hit Nathan Nelson with a fourth-and-21 over-the-shoulder toss at the Dimmitt 49. Tight end Mike Trevino picked up six to the 43, before a pass interference call gave the Cats a first down at the Mules' 40. Glass hit Doug Nelson with a 14-yard pass, and picked up four yards rushing, but the Dimmitt offense stagnated at the Muleshoe 26.

Moton was the leading rusher in the contest, picking up 242 yards on 23 carries. However, Moton was held in check most of the game, getting only 35 yards on 17 of his carries. The other 207 yards on his other six carries, however, proved to be Dimmitt's downfall.

WHY MR. GRAMM?

On April 4, 1984 -

WHY did you vote to reduce price supports and loans to farmers 60% or $16 billion dollars over the next three years?

On June 6, 1984 -

WHY did you vote to SLASH the Agricultural Research Service, the Extension Service and a variety of other federal and state research programs?

WHY were you one of ONLY TWO Texas Congressmen that voted for the Dannemeyer Amendment on April 4, 1984? (The other was Republican Steve Bartlett) The Dannemeyer Amendment was the substitute budget which would have done the following:

- Slash agricultural price supports and eliminate deficiency payments.
- Reduce federal price support payments and loans to farmers by $16 billion (60%) over three years.
- Phase out farm ownership and operating loans by the Farmers Home Administration and replace them with loan guarantees.
- Eliminate the wool and mohair payment program.
- Eliminate the honey price support program.
- Increase federal crop insurance premiums by an estimated 10%.
- Establish new user fees or increase existing ones for Agricultural Marketing Service cotton grading and warehouse licensing, federal grain inspector service fees, and Agricultural Cooperative Service publications and technical assistance.

WHY HAVE YOU CONSISTENTLY VOTED AGAINST FARMERS AND FARM PROGRAMS? STAND ON YOUR RECORD, Mr. Gramm, you were running on it early in the campaign.

• WEST TEXAS NEEDS A NATIVE BORN TEXAN WITH FARMING IN HIS HERITAGE.

• WE NEED A SENATOR WHO HAS RELATIVES STILL FARMING IN POST, TEXAS.

• WE NEED A SENATOR WHO CARES MORE FOR PEOPLE THAN THE "FARM FORMULA" IN AN ECONOMICS BOOK.

Quick whistle stops Hart, 22-18

Do you like exciting football? Homecoming, big plays, and a controversial call all added up to make for one of the most exciting contests in Hart in a long, long time.

The Longhorns fell to the Hale Center Owls, 22-18, last Friday. It was a loss that all but knocked Hart out of the District 3-AA race, but it was a game folks will remember for years.

Two identical calls made all the difference in the game.

Late in the third quarter, the Owls were forced to punt from deep in their own territory. Defensive lineman Tommy Menchaca blocked the punt, and Freddie Washington scooped up the ball and raced in for an apparent touchdown. However, the referee inadvertently blew his whistle, stopping the play at the Owl 28. Instead of enjoying a 26-14 lead, the 'Horns were forced to give the ball up on downs.

Then, with less than three minutes left in the game, Hart lined up to punt from its own 27. Kerry Newsom's punt was blocked, and linebacker James Pardo scampered in for the winning touchdown. Ronald Phillips added a two-point PAT run to seal the win.

"The official admitted that he made a bad call (on the third quarter block and nullified return) and apologized," said Hart head coach Mark Stroebel. "He blew his whistle inadvertently, but what can you do? I guess those are the breaks of the game."

Hale Center scored first in a game marred by turnovers. Darrell Ethridge fumbled on Hart's first play at the 'Horns 26, and Phillips scooted around the left side two plays later. The two-point conversion attempt failed, and the Owls led, 6-0, with 11:15 left in the first quarter.

The first punt block of the night came on Hale Center's next possession, as several 'Horns got a hand on the kick, and Hart took over at the Owl 39. Hart was forced to punt, but the return was muffed, and Arturo Guzman recovered at the Hale Center 11. The 'Horns' had to convert twice on fourth down, before Freddie Washington dove over from the one with 2:08 left in the first stanza. The PAT kick was blocked, leaving the teams tied at 6-all.

Hart cashed in on yet another kicking game turnover, as Phillips had the center snap sail over his head. Phillips fell on the pigskin at the Owl 17. On the 'Horns first play, quarterback Brent Ritter found split end Junior Salazar open across the middle. Salazar was tackled at the one, and Washington drove in on the next play to put the 'Horns up 12-6, with :36 left in the first quarter.

Hale Center scored with the only legitimate drive of the evening. The Owls covered 64 yards in nine plays, with Michael Peggram going in from five yards out. The Owls went up, 14-12, on a two point conversion pass from Andy Garcia to Ennis Smith.

Hart took the lead back in the first half, as the Owls snapped the ball over the punter's head again. The 'Horns took over at the Owl 23, and Ritter again found Salazar open. The touchdown strike came with 2:49 left in the first half, giving Hart an 18-14 halftime lead.

Naz dumps Vega

By BARBIE STEFFENS
Tailback Chris Gerber supplied all the firepower Nazareth needed as the Swifts ran their record to 7-0 with a 19-6 victory over the winless Vega Longhorns.

The senior tailback picked up 118 yards rushing, scored two touchdowns from scrimmage, returned a punt 90 yards for another score, and converted a PAT.

Gerber's first scoring jaunt came on Nazareth's second play of the second quarter on a 40-yard scamper. A bad snap foiled the PAT.

Nazareth had just one more opportunity to score in the first half, after Mike Huseman recovered a Longhorn fumble. Nazareth coughed up the ball at the Vega 31 with 1:56 to end their drive.

Gerber padded the Nazareth lead to 12-0 with a 90-yard return of the second half's opening kickoff, but he failed to convert the PAT.

Vega tried to make a game of it with a long drive at the end of the third quarter. The Longhorns kept the ball on the ground all the way, and finally converted with 10:41 left to play. The Longhorns PAT failed, giving the Swifts a tentative 12-6 lead.

Nazareth put the Longhorns away for good just a minute later, with Gerber driving into the end zone. Gerber toed the PAT to make the score final at 19-6.

The Shorthorns picked up 320 total yards and 12 first downs in the contest.

Andy Castillo, Junior Washington, Ruben Moran and Larry Brown each scored a touchdown for the Shorthorns. Hale Center's lone first down came on an 80 yard scoring run late in the game.

Cats, Horns face must-win games

Dimmitt and Hart are facing 'must win' games, while the Nazareth Swifts will try to keep their unbeaten string alive in Friday night's action. Hart is the only county team on the road, playing at Springlake-Earth. Dimmitt will host Friona, while Lazbuddie visits Nazareth. All three games kick off at 7:30.

FRIONA AT DIMMITT
The Chieftains and the Bobcats are facing must-win situations Friday night. Friona is 1-1 in District 2-3A after falling to Idalou, 21-0, last Friday. Dimmitt is 1-2 in conference play.

"We've got to win this Friday to have any hope of playing past Nov. 9," said Dimmitt coach Clifford Smith.

The return of tailback Michael Love, who was knocked out of action the last two weeks after suffering a deep thigh bruise against Tulia, should help the Bobcats establish their running game.

"We've got to establish a better ground game," said Smith. "They'll be trying to stop our passing attack with their '27' defense. If Michael can go, he should be a big help."

Friona should be helped by the return of their number one tailback, Alfredo Mata. Mata was sidelined two weeks ago with a shoulder injury, and Smith said Mata will play this week.

"Mata will be just one of the keys to their attack. They like to run straight-ahead power plays with him, and then run the trap with their wingback, John Aguirre," said Smith. "They'll run most of those plays behind offensive guard Matt Osborne. He's their best player on offense and defense."

Dimmitt has a huge lead in the series against Friona, which dates back to 1930. The Bobcats carry a 33-14-1 edge going into the 49th renewal of the rivalry, but Friona has been a stronger foe in the last 22 years, with Dimmitt enjoying only a 12-10 margin over the Chieftains.

LAZBUDDIE AT NAZARETH
Nazareth will be going for its eighth win of the year Friday night against the 2-5 Lazbuddie Longhorns.

The Longhorns are 0-2 in District 2-A North Zone play, "but that's a little deceiving," said Nazareth coach Rex Minshew. "They're real young on offense, but their defense will really get after you."

The Longhorns were 2-3 after five games, but head coach Bo Williams resigned in mid-season, forcing the Longhorns to not only change coaches, but also taking away their quarterback, Williams' son Ben.

"They've had to make some changes, but anytime someone runs the Wishbone offense, you've got to stay on your toes," said Minshew.

HART AT SPINGLAKE-EARTH
The Longhorns will try to find the winning track in District 3-AA Friday night against the Wolverines at Springlake-Earth.

"Springlake-Earth is tough!" said Hart coach Mark Stroebel. "They just line up in the ol' straight T and run power football. They don't try to throw it much at all, it's just a power offense."

The Wolverines, 5-2 on the season and 1-1 in conference

Turnovers halt Dimmitt JV, 14-6

Muleshoe's Junior Varsity picked up six fewer first downs, but used two Dimmitt turnovers to dump the JV Bobcats, 14-6, here last Thursday.

After a scoreless first half, the JV Mules scored with 8:28 left in the third quarter. The PAT failed. Dimmitt then gave the Mules the winning points on a safety two minutes later.

Dimmitt scored on a one-yard run with 3:18 to play, but the tying PAT try failed.

Muleshoe iced the game with a 15-yard interception return for a touchdown on the last play of the game.

play, will be depending on the efforts of fullback Carey Dayton and halfback Billy Smith. The Wolverines, out of their 'split-4' defense, will be needing good performances out of Dayton at linebacker, and tackle Joe John Sisneros.

The Longhorns are all but eliminated from the playoffs after losses to Abernathy and Hale Center. "We are still in the thing," said Stroebel, "but we've got to help ourselves first. We've got to win the rest of our games. This game against Springlake-Earth is now the most important game of our season."

October is Coop Month

October has been declared Cooperative Month in Texas and across the nation.

CO-OPS: WHAT THEY ARE AND DO

Some 60 million people in this country use cooperatives — about 50,000 of them. That's a lot of people and a lot of businesses. And they do many billions of dollars worth of business each year. As one example, the farmer-owned marketing and supply cooperatives did almost $50-billion worth of business at the latest count — in 1981.

What Is A Cooperative?

A cooperative is a business owned by its users. These users — called members — elect a board of directors from their ranks. The directors hire a manager who in turn hires the employees needed and sees that the business is properly run on a day-to-day basis.

The directors, however, retain overall responsibility and authority for operating the cooperative business. Many of our state and national leaders gained experience and stature through their cooperative work — and carried this over into public affairs and other activities.

In a cooperative, the money left after operating costs are paid belongs to the members. Members receive a portion or all of it back at the end of the year as patronage refunds based on the amount of business they have done with the cooperative. Many times they re-invest this money in the cooperative to help finance expansion.

Cooperatives operate under law, regulations, and rules just as other businesses do. They are incorporated as businesses; they pay taxes to their local and state governments just as other businesses do.

One thing about cooperatives is different: the law limits the dividends that can be paid on stock in cooperatives to 8%. This is to keep control in the hands of member users and out of the hands of those who might want to use the business merely as an investment or speculation.

What Does A Cooperative Do?
FOR MEMBERS — Cooperatives do many things for people. They can be places to buy, places to sell, places to get a needed service.

Members use them to market farm products; obtain farm supplies such as petroleum products and fertilizer; get groceries, and other consumer goods; provide themselves with health insurance, housing, and other consumer-type services; obtain credit in the large amounts needed for operating farms and cooperatives through the Farm Credit System; get consumer-type credit through credit unions; and provide themselves with electricity and telephone services in the rural areas.

The purpose of the cooperative is to make money for members, reduce costs for products they buy, and provide better service and quality goods to them.

FOR THE COMMUNITY — Cooperatives not only put money in members' pockets, they also add to the community's financial base.

we're at work at sunrise

Up with the sun — it's a tradition in the countryside. But, today's mornings in the countryside are different from those of "the good old days." Then, kerosene lamps and candles provided the light to cook breakfast, to get farm chores done before school.

Now, of course, we all rely on electricity to light up the dark hours before sunrise.

Rural America once lived without this luxury we take so much for granted. But determined citizens with vision came together to form rural electric systems like ours—consumer-owned and non-profit.

It wasn't easy to bring electricity to rural areas. It isn't easy now—lines and equipment always need to be improved or upgraded, repaired or replaced. But a new generation of citizens with vision and determination—our consumer-owners—will continue to see that the lights stay on . . . and still take time to enjoy the sunrise.

Mr. and Mrs. Dero Sargent

Sargents to observe wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dero Sargent of Plainview will observe their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception Sunday in the Rotary Building located at 3600 West 4th in Plainview. Calling hours are from 3 to 5 p.m. Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Hosting the reception will be their two children, Mrs. Bill Henderson of Dimmitt and Dero Sargent Jr. of Portsmouth, Va., and their eight grandchildren. The couple also has two great-grandchildren.

A family dinner will be held at the building at noon, preceding the reception.

Willie Margaret McCain and Dero Wooten Sargent were married Oct. 27, 1934, in Hugo, Okla. They met at a church revival in Lane's Chapel in September of 1933, and after 13 months of courtship, they were married. Their attendants were Beatrice Butler and Wayne Whitsell.

They lived near Clarksville until February of 1950 when they moved to Hart. In September of that year, Sargent went to work for the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad and is now retired from the railroad. The couple left Hart in May of 1967 to establish their Plainview residence.

Commissioners...

"We need to get together with the various boards and distribute this money as equitably as possible, based on enrollment," said Burrous.

Another $4,000, in a Series H government bond, will not mature until 1997.

Jimmy Ross, local attorney representing American Fructose, soon to be the new owners of the corn-wet milling plant currently owned by Amstar, asked the commissioners to pass a resolution giving American Fructose a continuation of an easement under a county road in the Northeast Dimmitt city limits. The easement allows the plant to run a sewage line under the road to their "farm" northeast of Dimmitt. Commissioners approved the new resolution.

Commissioners also discussed the Texas Association of Counties convention held last weekend in Amarillo. The commissioners learned of a new political action committee, CoPAC, that will be a lobbying arm for county governments in Austin. Commissioners also discussed drafted legislation that would call for counties to devote no more than 10 percent of their annual general fund to southern reaches of the county will need another week before all of their corn is in. "We're just like everyone else, we need a bunch of open weather. Most of the corn has been great down here, but we'll need another week or more. Nobody's cut any milo to speak of. It will probably be Nov. 1 or later before we see a lot of milo." J. R. Brown at Flagg Grain said, "We're about 95 percent through. We just need the weatherman to cooperate." Cotton harvest is also at a standstill, with no cotton being brought in to area gins. Almost 64,000 acres of cotton are waiting to be stripped in the county.

Organizations wanting to set up their booths will have an opportunity from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and next Monday and Tuesday evenings. The building will be cleared at 5:45 Wednesday evening. There is no charge for booth space, but you must make reservations by calling 647-3191. ★ Dimmitt Chief of Police Don Franklin has some Halloween safety tips:

1. Wear reflective or light-colored clothing. Any wigs you use should be non-flammable, and hair sprays are available to achieve many of the desired effects. Reflective strips, patches, or paint will increase visibility.
2. Carry a flashlight with you. Carry toy weapons made of cardboard to avoid injury should you fall.
3. Remain alert for cars, and remain on the sidewalk when possible. If there is no sidewalk, stay way to the left, facing traffic. Never accept a ride from strangers, and have an adult with you when possible.
4. Do not approach an unlit house. Any candy should be unwrapped and inspected by parents before being eaten. All fruits should be washed and cut into small pieces.
5. If you find anything wrong, notify police immediately.

COMBEST COMMENTS

By Larry Combest

Prices, Profits and Jobs

This year most farmers have had good yields—better than we've had in the last few years. But prices are so low that many farmers still won't make a decent profit. Sometimes it seems like the family farmer can't win for losing. If the West Texas weather doesn't get us, low prices do.

The problems facing the future of family farming are complex. No one has all the answers, but I believe the job of your Congressman is to find the causes of these problems and work for their solution.

In this column, I'll discuss what I believe is a fundamental problem with our federal government, one that has hurt our family farmers. I'll also offer a proposal that I believe has great potential to solve this problem and help increase farm prices, profits and jobs.

Farm profits are dictated by prices, and a good way to increase prices is to increase demand. In the last decade foreign exports have contributed more and more to the demand for our products. Last year half a billion dollars in goods and services were exported from our region. One-eighth of our manufacturing jobs and one fourth of our farm jobs depend on our ability to export—at a profit.

Increasing foreign sales offers us our best chance to increase demand for our products; but, unfortunately, our country's international trade policy has been inconsistent, inefficient and sometimes counterproductive.

When it comes to our international trade policy, it seems like the right hand doesn't know what the left hand is doing. Policies adopted for one group hurt other groups more. For example, grain exporters say that during the time we were negotiating an increase of $34 million in cotton textile imports from the Peoples Republic of China, we lost $550 million in grain exports to them.

And the disastrous grain embargo that was intended to hurt the Soviet Union hurt our farmers more. Trade embargoes also hurt our producers' dependability in the eyes of the world. First we're in the market, then we're not, then we are.

The problem is our international trade policy lacks consistency and continuity. Farmers can't predict it. Manufacturers can't predict it.

We've seen what can happen when the State Department dictates agricultural policy, but it's not just the State Department that's involved. Our international markets can be affected by any one of more than a dozen government agencies including the departments of State, Labor, Commerce, and Agriculture as well as the S.B.A., the International Monetary Fund and the Import Export Bank. We've even got export licenses that have to be approved by the C.I.A.

With all these agencies working on their own goals without looking at the big picture, it's no wonder that our trade policy is erratic and ineffective.

I believe these are strong reasons to develop a Department of International Trade, a cabinet level department that would bring all the agencies which now deal in international trade under one umbrella. Much research and study has already been done on this, and there are many benefits:

First, it would provide for a unified, consistent, long range international trade policy. We could then make long term trade agreements with other countries and put the world on notice that we're going to be there, that our policies, our producers and our supply can be depended on. This would greatly strengthen our position in the world market.

Second, it would make international trade an integral part of the farm bill making it possible to adopt farm programs and production levels that can be profitably supported by domestic and foreign demand.

Third, by combining existing agencies that deal with international trade under one umbrella we would reduce duplication of efforts and prevent the actions of one agency from undermining the actions of another. The right hand would know what the left hand is doing and both would be guided by the same unified policy.

I spoke in support of the development of a Department of International Trade in a debate sponsored by the West Texas International Trade Forum. In that debate, my opponent said it was a good idea but he was against it because he thought it would be too costly.

But, as I said here and in that debate, creating this department would reduce costs. It would not add to the agencies already in existence, but would combine the efforts of those agencies. It would replace 25 federal agencies and eliminate job duplication in the many departments that deal with international trade. It will save money by taking people already on the payroll and making them more efficient and effective.

And a consistent, unified international trade policy would increase tax revenues, reduce trade deficits; and, most important, it would help provide new jobs and a brighter economic future for West Texans.

ECONOMICAL 2-ROW STRIPPER

The field-proven John Deere 283 Tractor-Mounted Stripper can reduce harvest cost

You've probably already got the power units (tractors) needed. By teaming those tractors with 283s you'll harvest cotton faster and reduce harvest cost.

A 500-cubic-foot basket keeps the 283 on the row longer and keeps trailers rolling to the gin. With no operator attention, the 283's row units automatically adjust to changing ground contours, saving more low-hanging bolls.

A high-capacity, quiet-running, aluminum-rotor fan supplies more than enough air for good green-boll separation. The net result — improved turnout, which puts more money in your pocket.
