

Junior Class Comedy Gets Friday Test

Two characters, easily singled out, provided many laughs for a large audience that attended "You're Telling Me," the Junior Class play at the high school auditorium Friday night.

Two roles which brought down the laughter were Yvonne Henon who played Isabelle, the heavy, long faced, and inefficient housekeeper, and Bob Downtain who was cast as Bill Andrews, the young brother of the family who was so full of pep and ideas that he wrecks any standard procedure in the home.

Other roles naturally did no harm to the perfection of one of the most comical three-act plays that has ever been seen in this area.

Between the second and third acts the class sponsors, Mrs. George Robinson A. G. Koenig were presented gifts. Mrs. Robinson was presented a rhinestone necklace and earring set and Koenig was awarded a tie clasp and cuff link combination set.

The cast was served ice cream and cookies at the home of Archie Robinson.

Total receipts for the production was $101.

Other characters in the cast included Stanley McAnelly as Professor Andrews; Janis Carter as Jerry Andrews; Marie Chambers as Dolores Andrews; Patsy Shaffer as Beth Robinson; Archie Robinson as Dick Mallon; Edna Halliday as Jean Mayberry and Pete Jansson as Joe Allcot.

The Pathfinder

By Lee Harr

An employee, noted for his energy saw a boy leaning idly against a packing case, whistling.

"How much are you getting a week?" he demanded.

"Thirty dollars."

"Here's a week's pay. Now clear out. You're through."

As the boy pocketed the money, shrugged, and strolled away, the busy man turned to the stockroom clerk. "How long has that kid been with us?"

"Him? Oh, he just brought over a package of nuts and bolts."

Lester Crossley nearly really paid for a little fishing Wednesday.

After returning home from Lake Hagaman where he had been fishing from a small boat with his small grandson, Crossley discovered that his billfold was amiss.

Checking through his house and back out at the boat, the lost billfold could not be found.

Thursday morning he persuaded two boys to dive for the money sack, and in a few moments they hit pay dirt.

Crossley said the important papers were the things that he didn't want to lose.

One of the most cherished so that a newspaperman, like anyone in another type of business can get, is a compliment occasionally along with the many complaints. One compliment outweighs many complaints.

Such was the case Friday morning, when we received a letter from J. F. (Sailor) Byas, who has become quite famous in journalistic circles for the column he authors in the Lone Star Gas Company's magazine, "Blue Blazes."

As Mr. Byas said, the letter wasn't a bid to get his name into the paper. . . in fact we'll just let you read it.

"Dear Mr. Editor:

This is definitely not a bid to get my name in your paper, but a sincere mark of appreciation for a nice bit of reporting in the past few weeks. Namely, 'The American Legion Convention' and especially the recent fracas at our city hall.

This is the type of reporting that we have been hoping for in our home town paper for a long time. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely yours,
J. F. (Sailor) Byas

Such compliments as these has been the necessary incentive for newspapermen all over the state recently to expose some of the most corrupt and evil sins of fraud, theft and dictatorship.

As surely as items as high in importance as those outlined in the letter continue to occur, we can only promise that they will receive the highest amount of attention possible.

However, we are limited in news items of this calibre. You say, it takes a lot of hard work to get these. No, you're wrong. When the news is short is when we suffer agonizing pains and begin to beat the bushes. As long as there is current, interesting news available — newspapering is like eating a piece of cake.

Rodeo Week Is Coming Up For Rising Star

Everything's all set for next week as Rodeo Week in Rising Star.

The Rising Star Roping Club will present its opening performance of the 1955 season at the rodeo arena east of town on Highway 36 at 8 o'clock Friday night, May 13, beginning a series of performances which members of the club promise will be the best ever presented there. At least 16 and possibly 18 performances are planned.

The program will formally open with a parade from the business district to the arena starting at 6 o'clock. The hour for the parade was changed from 5 p.m. as originally set in order to make it more convenient for those who have farm chores to do or who cannot get away from their jobs, until five.

Although the Rodeo committee has ruled out Brahma stock, the steers, broncs and other stock for the performances will be the roughest that can be secured, insuring plenty of action and excitement during the performances.

Purchasing of the stock is now being done under the direction of Curt Butler with a fund of $2,500 raised by the club for the purpose.

Piano Auditions Set At Junior College

Adjudication of 87 piano students in this area began today when Grace Hofmeister of New York arrived to preside at the hearings sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers at Ranger Junior College.

Auditions for piano players, like track meets for athletes, are held every spring in about 500 centers from coast to coast.

Those who take part in the spring may enter, if they choose, the Recording Festival in the fall with aggregate cash prizes of $15,000, early 200 adjudicators are sent a distance from their own communities to hear these auditions.

Each participant gets a signed certificate, a fraternity pin, and comment on his playing from the adjudicator.

Those qualified work for Guild High School Diplomas which often result in scholarships. Beyond this stage are the Collegiate Diplomas, and those who can play 20 numbers of great difficulty plus a large technical examination may take the Artist Diploma. The Pedrowski Medal is won by those who get National Honors for 10 years.

The kind of auditions that once cost $100 in traveling expense and $50 in fee is now available to students for a few dollars in any part of the U. S.

2 District Court Cases Disposed Of This Week

Two suits connected with the oil industry came up for trial in Judge T. M. Collier's 91st District Court this week, but parties concerned settled one of the cases.

The first was Texas Employers Insurance Company versus Ernest L. Hargrave of Ranger, who had sought compensation for injuries allegedly suffered while employed on an oil well rig at Olden. The jury found in favor of the insurance company, which alleged that Hargrave was not an employee of the firm carrying the insurance.

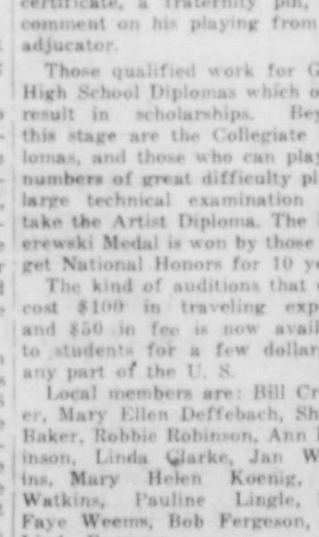

Other litigation was a suit brought by Fred K. Mosley of the Staff community asking damages, claiming that flames from crude oil destroyed his bulldozer which he said was due to negligence of the Acron Drilling and Development Company. Mosley originally had made Acron and the Sinclair Pipeline Company co-defendants but later dismissed as to Sinclair, and Sinclair sued the drilling company for damages as to loss of oil. After the testimony was in, announcement was made that settlement had been reached. Terms were not announced.

Ugly Tide of Crime

The increase of crime in the United States should be of vital concern to every citizen, warns Congressman Omar Burleson.

All of us who at least scan the public prints are inclined to agree with him. Mr. Burleson goes on to give his reasons:

"Especially alarming is the fact that young persons under 18 years of age represented 57.6 per cent of all arrests in 1954 for auto theft, 49 per cent of all arrests for burglary and 43.6 per cent of the larceny. It is significant that crime among young people 17 and under increased some 2.3 per cent, while arrests of those 18 and over decreased 1.9 per cent in 1954.

"As a former Agent of the FBI, I am always particularly interested in the annual report of J. Edgar Hoover, knowing that the figures given are pretty accurate.

"Major crimes in the United States were up 5 per cent, which is a new high."

It is a definite challenge for all who in anywise deal with the apprehension or punishment of violators (and the layman must remember that he has the important role of juror!)—must bend their relenting efforts to stem the tide.

Trouble Afoot is reported by Hoagy Carmichael to Vera Ralston in Republic's Trucolor drama, "Timberjack," at the Tower Theatre Sunday and Monday.

SO YOU'VE been asked to be the "coffee captain" at the next women's club meeting, hm... mm? Well, of all the assignments you could have drawn, this is probably the nicest. Coffee takes most amiably to being prepared in quantity, provided that you follow a few simple rules. Once you know them, you can certainly turn out as good a brew as ever came out of your coffee-pot at home.

To help make things go smoothly for you, and for all who have occasion to make coffee in quantity, we're going to give instructions for making coffee for forty people, counting one average serving apiece. Some simple arithmetic will enable you to adapt the recipe to a larger or smaller gathering, or to allow for as many second helpings as you think will be needed.

If you are going to have a coffee urn available for your brewing activities, your job will be simple. All you'll have to do is follow the suggested coffee-to-water proportions and then proceed to the brewing according to the instructions given by the manufacturer of the urn. If there is no urn available, however, the coffee will have to be steeped coffee, made in an open kettle. You can rest assured that excellent coffee can be made in this manner.

First, measure two gallons of freshly drawn water from the cold-water faucet into the kettle and let it heat to boiling point. In the meantime, measure one pound of regular-grind coffee into a large cloth sugar sack, or a sack you have made from clean sheeting or double-thick cheesecloth. (It must be large enough so that it is not more than half full when the ground coffee is placed in it, to allow for expansion of the coffee when it comes into contact with the water.) Tie the top of the sack tightly with a clean, strong white cord, leaving ends long enough to fasten to the handle of the kettle, to help you to remove the sack after the coffee is brewed.

As soon as the water comes to a full, rolling boil, remove the kettle from direct heat and drop the coffee sack into it immediately. With a clean stick or a long-handled wooden spoon, push the sack up and down so that the water is forced through the ground coffee. Then cover the kettle and allow the coffee to brew over low heat for twelve to fifteen minutes. Do not let the coffee boil. Frequently remove the cover and move the sack vigorously up and down during the brewing time. Then remove the sack, permitting it first to drain thoroughly. Transfer the coffee to the best-looking large serving jug you can find — and there you are!

Of course, it is best to serve the coffee just as soon as possible after it has been brewed. However, if it is necessary to postpone the serving, maintain a uniform temperature somewhat below the boiling point, whether the coffee is in the kettle or the server. Do not allow the brew to boil under any circumstances, as this destroys the flavor.

Desdemona Twirler Gives Only 2 Hits

In a nonconference game on the Lingleville diamond, the Desdemona High School Baseball team defeated the Lingleville team by the score of 8 to 2. Guy Owens regular Desdemona second baseman pitched the entire game and allowed only two hits and one of them could have been very easily taken by Orlington Ash, Desdemona center fielder.

Owens struck out ten batters and walked only one, and scored two runs. Desdemona scored four runs in the second, three in the sixth and one in the seventh. Lingleville scored one in the fifth and one in the sixth. Jimmy Burleson, third baseman for the Desdemona team hit a homer with one on the bases, and on the first pitch to him in the second inning. Errors by the Lingleville team seriously hurt their chances. After an early error at short position, Leroy Nabers of the Desdemona turned in some good fielding plays and some throws to first base that were well gathered in by Bobby Koonce.

The game was the first full game pitched by Owens and his catcher was Leon Rodgers, who turned in a well-caught game.

Eugene Lewis, right fielder for the Desdemona team, retired the last Lingleville batter on a nice running catch in the seventh.

The Lingleville game gave the Desdemona team a total of seven games for eleven played. On Thursday the Tolar High School team will play a return game at Desdemona.

'Safe-Kept' Home Is Wife's Duty Says Plant Nurse, Safety Expert

Most American homemakers could learn about being better "housekeepers" from their husbands.

That's the opinion of Catherine H. Smith, an occupational health nursing consultant for Employers Mutuals of Wausau, Wis., which Miss Smith represents, are falls and burns.

Gardeners who are looking forward to a crop of flowers just like those pictured on the seed packets often harvest a crop of disappointment.

important to know the causes of home accidents as remedy is only possible when one knows what is wrong. The most frequent home accidents, according to the accident prevention department of Employers Mutuals of Wausau, Wis., which Miss Smith represents, are falls and burns.

Most burns, as one would expect, occur in the kitchen. Practices that aid in preventing painful or fatal burns include turning the handles of cooking pans so that they cannot be reached by the children; using non-flammable and non-toxic spot-removers and cleaning fluids; and disconnecting the iron or other electrical appliances when not in use.

Grandmother had a good reason for starching. It made clothes look like new. And even more important, it made them stay clean longer. That was something to think twice about in her day, when every last bit of laundering and ironing was done by hand.

If you like indoor plants, but your thumb is definitely not green, why not try the pretty plastic plant varieties? These look fresh and life-like and they won't have to worry about their lack of water, light or sunshine.

Pixie Pie For A Party Dessert

Pixie Pie is fun to prepare and a happy medley of flavors to enjoy at dessert time. First of all, there's a coconut and butter crust. No rolling necessary for this. Just spread the two ingredients in a pie plate as a crust and bake until a golden brown. Then chill in the refrigerator with a rich chocolate chiffon filling. The chocolate chiffon calls for a blending of sugar, unflavored gelatin, evaporated milk, unsweetened chocolate and eggs. It's a simple top-of-the-range cooking operation. Unflavored gelatin makes the filling high and fluffy.

Coconut Crust:
 1 1/2 cups shredded coconut
 2 tablespoons softened butter
 Spread softened butter evenly on bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie plate. Sprinkle coconut into plate; press evenly into the butter. Bake in a slow oven, (200°F.) 15 to 20 minutes, or until crust is golden brown. Cool.

Pixie Pie Filling:
 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
 5 cup sugar, divided
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup evaporated milk
 1 1/2 cup water
 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
 3 eggs, separated
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 Mix together gelatin, 1/2 cup of the sugar and salt in saucepan. Add evaporated milk, water and chocolate. Stir over medium heat until chocolate is melted and gelatin is dissolved. Do not boil. Blend with rotary beater. Pour slowly over beaten egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return to saucepan and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened, about 3 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in vanilla. Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Gradually add remaining 1/2 cup sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold in chocolate mixture. Turn into prepared pie crust; chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream. Drizzle with mixture of 1/2 square (1/2 ounce) unsweetened chocolate melted with 1 1/2 tablespoons light corn syrup.
 Yield: 1 9-inch pie.

New L.C.F. (Low Cab Forward) Chevrolet Task-Force Trucks

Powered by the most modern V8 in any truck... Chevrolet's new Taskmaster V8 engine!

Chevrolet's great new L.C.F. models bring you all the advantages of a C.O.E. - plus a long list of important new advances you won't find anywhere else.

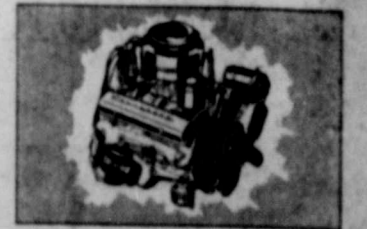

For example, the cab is a full seven inches lower than former C.O.E. models. And it has only two steps instead of the usual three for C.O.E.'s. Just think of the time and effort this will save the driver! Also, the low L.C.F. is handsomer by far than any C.O.E. ever built!

Inside, the L.C.F.'s new Flight-Ride cab has a level floor with plenty of "stretch-out" leg room and offers new driver comfort. The driver has a commanding view of the road - both far ahead and close up front - through the big, broad panoramic windshield. Quicker, simpler maintenance is another big advantage offered by the new L.C.F. Everything's easier to reach in the roomy engine compartment.

In an L.C.F. you still get the easy maneuverability of a C.O.E. plus - new frames, new suspension, a whole truck-load of modern features!

Shortest Stroke V8 of All! The new Taskmaster V8 - the most modern V8 your money can buy - powers the new L.C.F. With a 12-volt electrical system for faster starting!

Year after year, America's best selling truck! CHEVROLET
