Services Held for Granddaughter of Ranger Resident

Funeral services were held in the Hamner Funeral Chapel in Eastland at 2 p.m. July 25, for Frances Elizabeth Smith, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith of Big Spring.

The Rev. Haskell Beck and the Rev. Vigil Barnes, both of Big Spring, officiated at the services, and burial was in Eastland Cemetery.

A drowning victim, the girl, who was born in Breckenridge, was wading in a drainage ditch near the center of town in Big Spring. She drowned when she slipped under the water about 6 p.m. Saturday. Two brothers, Douglas Leroy, a 17-year-old, and a sister, Carolyn Janice, were with her.

Smith, formerly a radio engineer in Abilene and Breckenridge, is an engineer for the Big Spring television station. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mrs. R. E. Duncan of Ranger.

Surviving are the parents; two brothers and a sister; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Smith of Eastland; and her maternal grandmother of Ranger.

Barbecue Given For Teenage Baseball Teams

The Blue Sox and the Hawks, Ranger's teenage baseball teams, were entertained with a barbecue Saturday night, July 22, at the Premier dock, Lake Leon. The barbecue was a family picnic which marked the end of the regular season of play, and the 75 attending included the boys and their families. The menu included barbecued turkey, beans, potato salad, ice cream, and cake.

The Blue Sox, one of four teams in the Eastland Teenage League, won the league Championship with 14 wins and one loss. They will participate in district play some time next week. Munday, Texas, Ronald Bush is coach of the Blue Sox and Charles White, assistant.

While making our rounds in cool Colorado (90 degrees while we were there) I ran across an article by Jack V. Fox, writer for the Denver Post. He has just returned from a trip to Texas and seemed to like what he saw.

He says that this air-conditioned giant (Texas) is booming and bursting as never before and visitors get the feeling that there is a rush, coming on to startle the United States. The day he arrived in Texas there was 35 tornadoes in the Panhandle and he said it was only a foretaste of the spinning air to come.

Fox declares that one out of every four new cars in Texas comes with air conditioning—at a cost of $500 extra. (The price is right, but can't rightly say about the other).

Continuing with his description of Texas he said that the state has 6,000 private airplanes—more per capita than any other—and at one ranch party 53 were parked at the airport.

UF OFFICER—Heading the new Ranger United Fund organization this year will be, left to right, Dr. Charles Gann as president and Herman Cupp, serving as vice president. The fund-raising organization has been completely revamped and streamlined in order to meet the needs of Ranger.

Peanuts CROP Program In Eastland County

The farmers of Eastland County are cooperating with C R O P (Christian Rural Overseas Program) to supply peanuts needed in various parts of the world for hungry people. This is a Community Food Appeal of Church World Service, for CROP works through Church World Service to send food wherever it is needed.

The churches formed CROP in 1947 to accept staple food from the farm people of America and send it to hungry people in war and famine areas of the world. The county CROP campaign is a community action program under the leadership of the churches and farm organizations.

T. C. Wylie is the Community Chairman of the Ranger area. The churches of this area will be asked to cooperate in the program with a CROP Sunday, September 17, at which time the program will be explained to church members and special offerings taken for CROP. This is a program of food, and Eastland County will be giving peanuts, which will be converted into peanut butter and shipped overseas to help relieve the needs around the world.

Multitudes of refugees a n d disaster victims need the help of gifts which CROP provides, and the American people are asked to support the fight against hunger by sharing the abundance in our country.

In thirteen years donations of commodities and cash, valued at $17.8 millions have made available able overseas 500 million pounds of help. This includes U. S. Government surplus. In 1959 CROP shipped about 5 million pounds of food in addition to 60 million pounds of surplus food made available with CROP help.

Texas CROP is the community food appeal of thirteen denominations and ten farm and labor organizations cooperating in this church-sponsored effort. CROP is a way for Texans to show their Christian concern for the hungry people of the world.

Other leaders in Eastland County are as follows: Scranton, Lee Stars; Nimrod, Jack Cozart; Savannah, G. T. Dawkins; Rising Star, Cecil Schult; Gorman, Oda Monroe; Cheaney, John Love; Kokomo, L. R. Higginbotham; Carbon, Glen Justice; Cisco, Jake Morgan; and Eastland, Herbert Ekru.

Miss Karen Killingsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Killingsworth, appeared in a Gilbert and Sullivan Revue in Fort Worth last week. The revue, arranged by Charles George, was presented by the Youth Division of Polytechnic Methodist Church, Fort Worth, on July 19, 20 and 21, in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Main features of the Revue, which was under the direction of Johnny Taylor, Minister of Music of the church, were favorite songs from "The Mikado" and "H. M. S. Pinafore," popular Gilbert and Sullivan operettas.

Miss Killingsworth, a 1960 graduate of Ranger High School, was a freshman student last year at Texas Wesleyan College, where she was also enrolled the first summer semester. She was a member of the chorus of Sisters, Cousins, and Aunts in the Revue.

She has returned to Ranger to spend the remainder of the summer with her parents.

Former Resident Of Strawn Dies In Fort Worth

Mrs. Martha Mae Wilson, a resident of Strawn for 15 years, died July 19 from a fatal heart attack at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. D. Dickey, 6305 Crawford Lane, Fort Worth, where she had lived for the past two years.

The former Martha Mae Wood, Mrs. Wilson was born March 6, 1872. She married Jim Wilson Aug. 26, 1906, at Lingville. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held at the Malcolm Funeral Home at 10 a.m. July 22, with the Rev. Billy Walker, pastor of the Edgewood Baptist Church 1, Fort Worth, officiating. (Continued On Page Four)

Exes Homecoming
To Begin Aug. 4
At Strawn

A downtown carnival Friday, August 4, at 6 p.m. will start the activities for the Strawn Homecoming. Hundreds of ex-students are expected for the homecoming.

A country store is being planned and items can be placed in a box at Ranger Worth Food Mart or Mrs. Charles Bond, 100 Travis Street.

The Homecoming will continue through Sunday, August 6.

New Officers Are Elected For United Fund Drive Here

At a called meeting of the Ranger United Fund on July 20, Dr. Charles E. Gann was elected president and Herman Cupp, vice president of the 1961-62 Ranger United Fund Campaign. They have served as temporary officers since Lewis Conn resigned last February.

Other officers elected were Dwaine Dennis, secretary, and W. F. Creager, treasurer.

Dr. Gann has released the following statement concerning the new United Fund organization:

"A great deal of progress has been made in reorganizing the Fund from top to bottom. The constitution has been amended to bring the organization up to a standard which will better meet the needs of our present community. The Fund will no longer be called the Ranger Community Chest, but is making a fresh start with the new name, The Ranger United Fund.

"The old constitution called for a Board of Directors of only seven members, and the Board had to be completely reorganized each year.

Teen Town Gets New Look In Decorations

Teen Town has been newly decorated for the summer months. Crepe paper decorations have been placed on ceiling and walls and candles put on tables to add a festive note. They will be left as permanent decorations. Each Saturday night is to be designated as "Candlelight Night."

Parents are urged to attend to see the improvements made at Teen Town, which has been given the new nickname of "Upper Cellular" by some of the boys and girls that helped in the decorating.

Two new rules have been made: No one will be allowed to touch the candles on the tables, and no one will be allowed to take advantage of the dark lights on Candlelight Night, for Teen Town is to stay as it is.

The decorating committee was composed of Pat Jameson and Gerald Dempsey. Teen Town sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barker.

Monday Morning Fire Causes Slight Damage

The Ranger Fire Department made a run at 10:15 a.m. Monday to Calvin Ainsworth's garage.

Ainsworth was working on his car and was washing motor parts with gasoline. A spark from an unknown source set the motor on fire. Ainsworth had the fire out when firemen arrived, and the damage was slight, with paint on the hood blistered and wiring burned.

The constitution was amended to include a total of 21 board members, with each member serving a term of three years. However, seven of the members will retire each year. These vacancies will be filled by election through the remaining 14 members.

In conclusion, Gann said that "This arrangement will facilitate organization of the Fund from year to year by always having experienced members on the Board."

The present Board of Directors include the following members: Mrs. H. C. Croom, Mrs. Charles E. Gann, Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, Mrs. E. L. McMillan, Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin, David D. Pickrell, W. J. Sipes, Ronald Carroll, Mrs. John T. Roberson, Mrs. C. E. May, Mrs. James P. Morris, Dr. Charles E. Gann, Dwaine Dennis, Herman Cupp, W. F. Creager, Fred Bennett, Claude Sooter and W. R. Auye shine.

There are still three vacancies on the Board of Directors to be filled at the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, Aug. 7, the place to be announced later.

Campaign headquarters will be set up in the American National Insurance office at 315 Main St. Plans call for keeping the headquarters open two days a week prior to the opening of the United Fund drive and at all times during the drive.

Local National Guard Announces Unit Vacancies

Lt. Bill E. Caffee, Commanding Officer of the Service Battalion of the Texas National Guard in Ranger, has announced that there are several vacancies for non-commissioned officers in the National Guard. Lt. Caffee stated that he had been told that there are several persons in this area experienced in field artillery operations from active duty who would be interested in filling positions within the National Guard Unit in Ranger. Vacancies exist in all levels from private to sergeant. Anyone interested in one of the key positions is asked to contact Lt. Caffee or Sergeant Arnett at the Army in Ranger any time from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The unit drills on Thursday nights twice a month and once a month on Sunday. The members receive a full day's pay for each night drill and two full days' pay for each Sunday drill.

The unit is planning to send a group of local trainees together to active duty to train as a group in the future. High school students and persons who are 17½ years of age and over are encouraged to join the local National Guard Unit today.

Ranger Little League Team Nipped by Breck

Breckenridge's pitching ace, Ronald Bell, calmed Ranger's big bats Monday night to win the area Little League championship. Bell limited the hard hitting Ranger team to just two hits while his teammates put together four hits to post a 5-3 win.

Breck thus earned the right to represent the area in the district tourney.

Only Ranger batters to feel Bell's pitches were Bill Arterburn and Johnny McGee. Arterburn, who got four home runs in helping Ranger defeat Albany Friday night, collected a double, a n d McGee, who had three for five again at Albany, added a single.

Ranger jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first frame, and held on until the third inning when Breckenridge bunched three hits to score five runs. A fifth inning rally fell short when McGee was thrown out trying to steal second, then Bell retired three in a row in the final inning to wrap up the coveted crown.

Jerry Watson and Larry Blackwell divided time on the mound for Ranger and together scattered four hits. It was a short game, with only 24 men going to bat for each team.

Frank Loggans was the leading Breckenridge batter, getting two singles in two tries. Joe Knight and Frank Riney put singles back to back in the third.

The Attainment of the Knudsen Trophies by more than 42 percent of the Pontiac dealer organizations reflects the Division's continuing success in 1961 retail sales.

H. M. Hagwell is the local Pontiac dealer.

State Insurance Board Lists Reasons For Increase In Texas Auto Rate

The State Board of Insurance recently announced some increases in automobile insurance rates effective Aug. 1. This is the first increase in public liability and collision rates since August 1, 1958. In 1959 the automobile rates were decreased by an average in excess of 10 percent. Due to some changes being made in the safe driving plan which was inaugurated on Jan. 1, 1960, for which no compensatory change was made in the rates, the rates, in effect, were reduced further as the realized amounts were smaller than originally computed.

The insurance buyer would doubtless be interested if he could go through the rate making process and see the degree of care that is exercised to compile accurate statistics, and to assemble them in proper form, for use in determining the exact cost of insurance. Insurance rates are made on past experience for use in the future. Classification plans are used to distribute the cost as nearly as possible to those incurring it.

One of these plans is to classify by territory. Thus, Harris County, Dallas County, Bexar County, and other large counties form separate territories for rate making purposes. The rates developed for these counties are based on their losses alone. Smaller counties are grouped with other counties that have approximately the same experience in losses for the purpose of making rates.

Another classification is that of use, whether the automobile is used as a private passenger automobile, and if so whether or not for business use or for nonbusiness use. In this field also is the classification of the driver, whereby male operators under 25 years of age will, under most circumstances, pay a larger premium than an older man. The Texas Safe Driving Plan is a classification plan and permits a further refinement in rate based on the motorist's driving habits as an index for the distribution of cost of insurance by allocating more of it to the groups producing higher losses.

The rates announced recently were an overall average increase of about 15 percent of the present rates. However, in many instances this did not raise the cost of insurance as high as it was in August, 1958.

Generally speaking, using an all-state overall average, basic limits liability coverage on private passenger automobiles, combining bodily injury and property damage, will be about 3.3 percent higher this August 1 than on August 1, 1958, but 75 percent of the drivers who are in Sub-class 0 will have a total premium of 7.4 percent less for this coverage this August than in the same month in 1958. On collision coverage on all types of automobile and sub-classes, averaged over the state, the rate effective August 1, 1961, will be 6.1 percent less than it was in 1958, and for the 75 percent of the drivers in Sub-class 0 their premiums will be 24.8 percent less than they would have been for this coverage in 1958. On medical payments coverage, the all-state average will be 2.7 percent higher rates this August than in 1958, but again the safe driving plan will bring the Sub-class 0 motorist a reduction of 17.8 percent of the August, 1958 rate. On all types of cars, statewide, comprehensive rates will average this August 3.2 percent less than in August, 1958. This is further illustrated in Eastland County, by the following comparisons in reference to one of the higher priced models of the Ford, Chevrolet or Plymouth lines, less than six months old, using a coverage of basic limits public liability, full coverage comprehensive, and $50.00 deductible collision, before application of safe driving plan will show.

Premium as of August 1, 1958—$154.00.
Premium as of August 1, 1959—$141.00.
Percentage of change from 1958—-8.0 percent.

Premium as of August 1, 1960—No change.
Premium as of August 1, 1961—$170.00.
Percentage of change from 1958—+10. percent.

In spite of popular belief that insurance is comparatively high, a comparison of the cost of the automobile with automobile insurance rates in Texas over the past years is particularly revealing. In Travis County on a Chevrolet 4-door sedan from 1958 to 1961, insurance coverages for non-business private passenger automobiles, without a male operator under 25 years of age, have increased a total of 69 percent while the list price of the automobile has increased 179 percent.

Increased costs in the fields of hospitalization, medical expense, repair costs and other items for which automobile insurance pays have also contributed to increase its cost.

The recent hearing by the State Board, however, demon-

Eastland County Girls Cop Honors in Stephenville

Eastland County was represented at the District 8 Girls 4-H Dress Revue by Joy Love of Gorman in the Junior Division and Mary Tonne of Nimrod in the Sr. Division July 20 at Stephenville.

There were 15 girls in each division present from 15 different counties. Joy Love brought home a blue ribbon and Mary Tonne received a red ribbon. These girls won the County Dress Revue, in their respective divisions.

In order for the girls to enter the district dress revue they have to complete a record book in clothing, construct a dress and accessorize it and model their garment in the revue. All three phases are judged and the girl getting the highest composite score receives first place. This year District 8 will be sending five girls to the State Dress Revue, which will be held in Dallas the first week in October.

First Class Mail Embraces Many Types of Mail Not Known to Public
Most people have heard the term "first-class mail," but it is doubtful that many know exactly what type of mail this term embraces, other than ordinary letters.
According to Postmaster Marlene Johnson-Johnson "first-class mail includes letters, postal and post cards, air mail (not exceeding 8 ounces, whether sealed or unsealed); all matter whether wholly or partly in writing; and matter sealed or closed against inspection. Reproduction of handwriting or typewriting mailed in quantities of less than 20 identical copies are also considered first-class mail."
Because of its importance, first-class mail is known as "preferential mail." It is regarded as having priority over the other three classes of mail. Within this preferential category are all kinds of items, from social post cards to "top secret" material in Diplomatic pouches.
Patrons can be assured that sealed first-class mail, while in the custody of the Postal Service, is accorded absolute secrecy. This means that no post office employee, except those assigned to opening "dead mail," may break or permit the breaking of the seal without legal warrant, even though the envelope may contain criminal or other wise unmailable matter.

One interesting fact about first-class mail is that it is not subject to the size restrictions which apply to other classes of mail. There are weight restrictions, however, so if one plans to send anything over 20 pounds by first-class mail he should check with the post office.
Rates on first-class mail are set by the Congress. This is true also of second and third-class mail. Rates on fourth-class mail are set from year to year by the Postmaster General with concurrence of the Interstate Commerce Commission.
When you have questions of any kind about the Postal Service, call your Post Office.

In conclusion Fox said that Texas financiers are making investments felt across the land. Most publicized recently was the Murchison acquisition of the Allegheny Corp. The two Murchison sons are obeying the precept of their father, Clint Sr.: "Money is like manure. Spread it."
We have always known that Texas is the biggest and the best, but to hear an out-of-stater describe our assets, it makes us wonder if we really appreciate the possibilities that it holds for each of us—Ranger included.

The 20th Century Minute Men who help defend America

Since 1941, thousands of folks in advertising, communications, and entertainment have pooled their talents to make U.S. Savings Bonds a household word

The first Minute Men put down their guns in 1783 after winning independence for themselves and their Nation.

In 1941 a new breed of Minute Men came to the aid of their country to help sell U.S. Savings Bonds. These were the actors, singers and musicians who entertained in behalf of Bonds all over the world, backed up by thousands of people in America's advertising agencies, newspapers, magazines, radio, television, outdoor and transit media.

A $50 million budget—free

Put all the Savings Bond advertising on a dollar basis and it would approach $50 million a year—a bigger advertising budget than most of the country's largest manufacturers. The total for 20 years of the Bond Program is estimated at $1.3 billion in free space, time and services.

This amount is swelled every day an uncountable amount by the folks in "above business." Yet not one penny of this cost is paid by the government or the taxpayers.

The built-in features

U.S. Savings Bonds are guaranteed safe by Uncle Sam—and guaranteed to grow in value. They pay 3% interest when held to maturity. You can't lose your equity—your Bonds are replaced if destroyed or stolen. You can get your money back anytime you want it—with interest.

Every Bond you buy is a share in a stronger America. Come to your country's aid—and your own—now.

"The Advertising Council is proud of its role,"

says Theodore Replier, President, The Advertising Council

"Everyone in the advertising and entertainment fields and allied industries who has been involved with the U.S. Savings Bond Program will tell you what a rewarding experience it has been. We're proud of our part in the Bond Program which has helped Americans become owners of $49 billion in Bonds today."

T. S. Replier

You save more than money with

U.S. Savings Bonds

Buy them where you work or bank

For 20 years America's newspapers have published Savings Bonds ads at no cost to the Government. The Treasury Dept. is grateful to The Advertising Council and this newspaper for their patriotic support.

Jose M. Lopez, Sergeant First Class, Company D, 1st Battle Group, 16th Infantry, APO 34, New York, N. Y.

Date and place of action: December 17, 1944, near Kinkelt, Belgium, Ardennes Campaign (Battle of the Bulge) European Theater of Operations, World War II.

The day after the German counterattack that marked the beginning of the Battle of the Bulge, the 2nd Infantry Division was engaged in a gallant attempt to maintain its lines.

Company K, 23rd Infantry, 2nd Division was in great danger of being overrun by advancing enemy infantry supported by tanks. Private First Class Jose M. Lopez, Company M, 23rd Infantry, in a position near the right flank of Company K, saw the dangerous situation of the neighboring company.

On his own initiative, he carried his heavy machine gun to Company K's unprotected left flank. Occupying a shallow hole offering no protection above his waist, he cut down a group of ten Germans. Ignoring fire from an advancing enemy tank, he held his position and cut down 25 more enemy infantrymen attempting to encircle him.

Glancing to his right, he saw a large number of enemy infantrymen swarming in. Although dazed and shaken by enemy artillery fire which had crashed to the ground only a few yards away, he realized that his position would soon be outflanked.

Again he alone carried his machine gun to another position to the right rear of the sector; enemy tanks and infantrymen were forcing a withdrawal.

Blown over backwards by the concussion of enemy artillery fire, he immediately reset his gun and continued to fire. Singlehandedly he held off the German horde until he was satisfied that the company had effected its retirement.

Again he loaded his gun on his back and in a hail of small arms fire he ran to a point where a few of his comrades were attempting to set up another defense against the onrushing enemy. He fired from this position until his ammunition was exhausted. Still carrying his gun, he fell back with this small group to Kinkelt.

Sergeant Lopez' citation states: "His gallantry and intrepidity, on seemingly suicidal missions in which he killed at least one hundred of the enemy, were almost solely responsible for allowing Company K to avoid being enveloped, to successfully withdraw, and to give other forces moving up in support, time to build a line which repelled the enemy drive."

Sergeant Lopez was born in Mission, Texas, and entered military service at Brownsville, Texas.

Austin Report

The first called Session of the 57th Legislature got off to a good start on Monday, July 10. The Speaker of the House, James A. Turman, recognized Representative Bartram for the first motion of the Session; a motion to adopt a resolution of respect in memory of the late Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio. The Honorable Marshall O. Bell, Dean of the House of Representatives, passed away during the interim between sessions.

The next order of business was for the Speaker to call for the introduction of Bills that would come within the Governor's official call for the Special Session. A number of members stepped forward to drop their pet money-raising measures into the hopper. In my case, I introduced a money-saving bill. It is known as the "Budget Balanced School Bill", and if enacted, will bring about a saving of over a million dollars every two years. It passed the House during the Regular Session, but did not make the grade in the Senate.

Shortly after the end of the Regular Session, I had urged the Governor to include the subject of Water Pollution in his official call for the Special Session. Many of us in West Texas who are so vitally interested in water problems were pleased to learn of this action on the part of the Governor. I am the co-author of House Bill 24, which deals with this important subject. House Bill 24 would set up a state-wide Water Pollution Board to deal with pollution problems. Under the present set-up, it is very hard to abate pollution of streams, lakes, and water wells. We must strive to secure and maintain our fresh water supply. I would welcome any advice or information that might be offered on this subject. House Bill 24 comes up for a public hearing on Monday afternoon.

A number of Oil Operators and Landowners have contacted me in the past several months concerning the very difficult problems of locating known and unknown heirs and owners of severed mineral interests in Texas Land. In many cases, the fact that the owners cannot be contacted to sign oil and gas leases have prevented many valuable tracts of land from being leased. Also, in many cases, the surface owner does not even know who owns the minerals under his land, or who contracted the leasing rights therein. After giving this matter careful consideration, it was determined that we should have some legislation enacted to help remedy this situation. Last week, I introduced House Resolution No. 25, asking the Legislature to start a study of this matter and I hope to be able to come up with adequate legislation for the 58th Legislature. I would appreciate hearing from any interested people who might have advice or information along these lines. I can be contacted at Route 3, Cisco, or in care of the Texas House of Representatives, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

CORVAIR WINS AGAIN

LADIES' PRIZE-4,200-MILE TRANS-CANADA RALLY!

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET

The smiling lady you see at left is Denise McCluggage. With navigator Starr Hammen, she's just driven over 4,200 miles in seven days. One reason Denise is wearing the smile is that she and Starr won the coveted Coupe des Dames in this rugged Trans-Canada Rally, topping every other women's team entered. Another reason is that they beat some 90% of all the men's teams entered. In a rally, of course, you're given specific speeds (within legal limits) at which to complete each portion of the route. A minute early, a minute late—and you're penalized. Total penalties for Denise and Starr (remember, this event was 4,200 miles long): four minutes. Four.

Their car was a rally-equipped Corvair Monza Four-Door. This Trans-Canada Rally, competitors told us, was one of the most searing tests of car and crew in the world. They fought snow and dust, mountains and lonely plains, all the way from Montreal to Vancouver, British Columbia.

The Corvairs won the respect of everybody. And "everybody" includes some of Europe's finest rallyists, not to mention a goodly portion of Canada's population. But then, winning respect is an old habit of Corvairs. If you don't believe it, try a drive in one at your Chevrolet dealer's. You'll soon be a true believer.
