Bulldogs To Take On Rotan In Season Opener Friday Night

Experience Gives Rotan Slight Edge Over Locals

The Ranger Bulldogs have shown much improvement since their two scrimmages with Clyde the first of last week. On Friday afternoon they scrimmaged Santa Anna and on Saturday the Stephenville Yellowjackets.

Coaches Ace Prescott and Bill Young said that the game-like experience received in the scrimmages had given the opportunity to spot the weak, as well as the strong points of the team.

The Bulldogs will face likely 6-A Champions, the Rotan Yellowhammers Friday night in Rotan. The Yellowhammers will be slight favorites Friday night due to the experienced players returning from last year's team. Coach Tommy Watkins of Rotan has 10 returning lettermen this year and possibly will have the strongest backfield in District 6-A. In the backfield will be David Baugh, Donald Goodrum, Lenis Polnac and quarterback, Steve Herron. In addition to the strong backfield, a tough and experienced line is expected to make the Bulldogs work hard for each yard gained.

The Bulldogs, short on experience and depth, are working hard to overcome the handicap. Coach Prescott said that Jerry Jones, Richard Guest and Jose Barber were showing up well on defense. On offense, he said that Charlie De Los Santos, Johnny Wells, Donald Ray Lewis and Jesse Renteria are rapidly shaping into first class men. The Bulldogs will run from the wing-T formation this year.

Morale and attitude is high this year with the Bulldogs and this, along with the determination to win, can make a big difference in the scoring department.

A large crowd is expected to make the long trip to Rotan for the first game of the season.

by Dwaine Dennis

Well, I guess that today will go down in history as the last day that you can hear that merry sound of pennies jingling in your pocket, since the new retail sales tax goes into effect tomorrow. But—it's not as bad as it seems—remember when the parking meters went into effect, we all thought that it would take every penny we had just to park our car, but we all managed to have a few pennies left over to enjoy the comforting tune of pennies clanking together.

Since the new retail tax is a necessary evil, we might as well go along with it and have fun. Even though our friends down at Austin have given us the short end of the rope and have fouled things up in general, let's do this tax business up in style, the Texas way, and show everyone that Texans can pull the financial chestnuts of our state out of the fire and make Texas financially sound.

Of course, the legislators can be blamed for all of the fuss and muss, Gov. Price Daniels can also come in for his share.

Let's all get on the merry-go-round together and make the thing work even though it will take a lot of doing on the part of each citizen of the state.

Home Safety Program Kickoff Due Friday

A year-round home safety program will be launched Friday by Lone Star Gas Company and The Ranger Times.

"National Safety Council findings," Lone Star Gas Company Manager, W. T. Eaton said here today, "show that home accidents are fundamentally the result of inadequate knowledge, insufficient skill and faulty attitudes. In line with these findings we have produced, as a public service, a home safety program having as its objective the saving of lives and the prevention of home accidents by teaching the individual how to detect and eliminate home hazards.

"A home accident kills an American man, woman or child every 19 minutes," Eaton, continued, "and injures 480 every hour. These National Safety Council figures are stark reminders that our lives and the lives of our loved ones are in jeopardy every second of the day and night. We must learn to detect and eliminate home hazards now if we are to make our homes safe places in which to live."

Advertisements and stories on home safety will be published in the Ranger Times during September and October.

Other home safety program materials are kits for home study and discussion, and for group meetings.

The home study and discussion kit is designed for effective home study and discussion by family groups. It contains materials describing and picturing home areas in which accidents can occur and suggesting methods of eliminating

Morris L. Newnam, Mayor

Pete Brashier is the proud possessor of a Dallas Texas football that he was able to hang onto when the ball was kicked into the stands last week when the Texans played in Fort Worth. The football is autographed by all members of the team and is something to be proud of.

Pete said that he still has a few bruises that he received when about a half-dozen eager fans tried for the football at the same time that he did. About 15 footballs were kicked into the stands by the Texans as they were introduced before the game got underway. The odds of getting one of the balls was pretty high since approximately

County Well Is Completed; Another to Start

Bottomed at 2,904 feet, the older began flowing from perforations from 2,892 to 2,904 feet in the Caddo lime. Location is in Section 79, Block 3, H&TC Survey. The location is 660 feet from the pool's discovery well, the Franklin, et al. No. 1 Schaefer Estate, which was drilled a year ago.

The Naevie Operating Co. of Abilene have set a drilling schedule for the No. 3 G. Pence, a 1,960-foot rotary for 4 1/2 miles northwest of Eastland in the Courtney (Strawn) Field.

Location is 730 feet from north and 590 feet from east lines of Section 42, Block 4, H&TC Survey.

The tour will start from the Brown Ju' Cafe in Gorman at 9 a.m. Tuesday. Farms to be visited include Albert Taylor, D. B. Warren, Royal Hampton, Odis Rodgers, Claud Fuller, J. L. Butler, Junior Jackson, Bill Andry, Mitchell Campbell, Glenn Justice and Galton Warren.

The group will eat lunch in Gorman.

The peanut farmers of Eastland County as well as the business and professional men of Gorman are being invited to participate on the tour.

Legion Meeting Date Changed

In the past the regularly scheduled monthly meetings of The American Legion have been held at 7:30 p.m. on the first Monday evening of each month.

Labor Day comes on the same date in September, therefore, due to the conflicting dates it has been decided that the Legion meeting will be postponed until the second Monday in September at the same hour.

A motion will be made at this meeting to change the meeting to the second Monday evening in each month so that it will not, in the future, conflict with the Labor Day holiday. A spokesman said that members opposed to the change should be present and voice his opposition to the motion.

Deceit in religion has no equal. From the beginning of the history of the children of Israel until now deceit has been the chief weapon of the false teacher. Of them Paul said, "With their tongues they have used deceit" (Rom. 3:13). Man devises words to make men feel good. I have heard preachers at funerals make it appear that the dead, though he be the worse kind of sinner, had heaven gained and there was nothing to worry about. This kind of preaching puts them in favor with the relatives of the dead and causes them to think they can be saved by being better than the deceased. I have heard the most evil men proclaimed to be good Christians by preachers at funerals. They just open heavens doors and poke them in whether God wants them or not. Drunkards, women chasers, men chasers, thieves, bootleggers, and such like are all declared to be believers, although we all know better. By these men that are supposed to be preaching the TRUTH The so-called protestant world has for years made fun of the Catholic doctrine of purgatory and the only difference is that the Catholic claims to be able to get them back from a place of punishment after death and the denominational preacher stops him before he gets there and sends him on to heaven. Neither is right for neither is taught in the scriptures. When a person has died he is beyond human help and must face the Lord in the judgment. (2 Cor. 5:10). On this side of death we may be of some help in pointing out the fact that man must believe and obey God's gospel (MK. 16:15-16; 2 Thes. 1:7-9), but after death, which all men must come to (He. 9:27), there is nothing that man can do. Opportunity to do God's will is this side of the grave—not the other. So be not deceived by sweet speeches. A man will reap what he sows (Gal 6:7). The obedient will be saved (Re. 22:14).

22,000 fans were present for the affair.

Earl Labredo has been feeling very sorry for Lester Crossley, lately, since he has been limping around, so while visiting his mother-in-law in Graford he got Lester the fruit from a Cacutia Plant so that he could use it for a cane.

The "thing" is 39 inches long and weighs about 10 pounds. Earl says that it is from an Italian plant that is very common in Italy. The fruit is very much like our squash when young, but when left on the vine it will grow up to six feet in length. He says that the plants are grown on trellises in Italy and grown down, making them straight. The one he brought Lester has a very odd twist to it and could be used better as an Australian boomerang than as a cane. Go by the First Federal Savings and Loan and take a look at the "thing".

Earl Labredo has been feeling very sorry for Lester Crossley, lately, since he has been limping around, so while visiting his mother-in-law in Grafard he got Lester the fruit from a Cucurbita plant so that he could use it for a cane.

The "thing" is 39 inches long and weighs about 10 pounds. Earl says that it is from an Italian plant that is very common in Italy. The fruit is very much like our squash when young, but when left on the vine it will grow up to six feet in length. He says that the plants are grown on trellises in Italy and grown down, making them straight. The one he brought Lester has a very odd twist to it and could be used better as an Australian boomerang than as a cane. Go by the First Federal Savings and Loan and take a look at the "thing".

As It Looks From Here

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Smith College at Northampton, Massachusetts, is a very old and highly respected girls' school.

Students in Smith College from 38 States, including one from Texas, recently petitioned the Congress to limit the investigative powers of the Committee on Un-American Activities. These students seemed to believe that the Committee has violated the freedom of individuals provided in the Bill of Rights and under the Constitution of the United States.

They insist that any witness before the Committee should only be there for the purpose of contributing significantly to legislative bills sponsored by the Committee. In other words, they object to inquiring into the activities of individuals engaged in Communist or other subversive activities.

These students are not unusual in their views. There has been a growing interest and influence on the part of students in this country during the last several years. In many foreign nations university and college students wield a very great influence in governmental matters. This is particularly true in Latin America. We have often wondered why this is true. Basically, it is true because education is greatly admired and respected in these nations. Like many other things, we have usually taken it for granted in our own country.

Students embracing the Liberal philosophy usually have a sort of crusading and reforming spirit. Their actions many times appear greater than their number.

There are indications that, both in this country and in some foreign countries, the conservative element in colleges and universities is beginning to make its views heard in opposition to the popular trend.

Unfortunately, student groups in many instances go to the extreme in one direction or the other. The pendulum seemingly swings to the extreme right or left. Of course, a part of it naturally comes from the enthusiasm of youth.

In Latin America there are increasing signs that Fidel Castro may be losing the demagogic grip he has held over the youth in most every country. Many are now condemning the Cuban leader for "selling out" the revolution.

Information from Cuba strongly indicates that the masses of the people at the lower economic level continue to place a sort of blind hope in the revolutionary leader. However, there appeared cracks in the wall after the Havana May Day proclamation of Cuba's "Socialistic Republic." The masses, having little to hang on to other than Castro, continue to support him, but with mounting questions of disillusionment. In Latin American countries, outside of Cuba, students were the first to see their idol topple into the arms of the Kremlin. In San Jose, Costa Rica, 3,000 anti-Castro students demonstrated, demanding that the government break relations with Cuba. Similar demonstrations have occurred in Ecuador and at the University in Puebla, Mexico. In Panama students petitioned the President to recall that Country's Ambassador. Outbreaks have occurred in Peru, Chile, Argentina and Uruguay.

The Cuban Revolutionists depend heavily on student sentiment, and there is some encouragement that sentiment is turning.

A Colleague in Congress says: Khrushchev has called East Berlin "A Communist paradise." Seems strange it is necessary to keep the "Angels in paradise" tanks, guns and barbed wire.
