Behind many "For Sale" signs there is a sad story: A family borrowed more than they could afford to pay for a home, or payments and interest rates were too high; the home had to be sold, often at a loss. This tragedy could often be avoided if the families would seek help from a home loan specialist, such as our Association.

We work with you to arrange for a loan that's as easy to handle as monthly rent.

Scratch The Bottom Lines VOTER

This Saturday March 23rd Wake Up Voters:

We have lost seven businesses in our downtown section in just the last three months.

Wake Up Voters:

We will lose that many over again within the next three months unless something constructive is done to turn the tide.

Wake Up Voters:

The "Drys" have done nothing constructive toward business stimulation and progress. It is doubtful if they ever will.

Wake Up Voters:

Anyone with any sense of responsibility should know that legalized, well kept, and well controlled package stores are better for our community than are the bootleggers that defy your control.

Attend —
and Industrial Services of the University of Oklahoma's Extension Division and by the petroleum extension service of the University of Texas.

Program topics included ignition, instrumentation and controls, preventive maintenance, problems of unattended operations and quality control. All four men are employees of Lone Star in Ranger.

Wake Up Voters:

The issue is not just Wet or Dry. The issue is business progress or decline.

Wake Up Voters:

Progress will not just fall from the sky. Progress will come from a full economy. The half conditions we work under now lead to business stagnation and community decline.

Wake Up Voters:

We are not drunkards. We are well meaning citizens with sound progressive ideas and strong backbones. Qualities to be proud of. Why turn on them when they come along.

Wake Up Voters:

Vote FOR Progress and stop our decline. Vote FOR sound business principles and you will have a bigger and better Ranger in time.

Third Class Mail Bring Polite And Impolite Opinion

"Golf, grandchildren, the weather, and third-class mail have much in common," says the local postmaster. "All are perennial subjects for both polite and impolite conversation."

According to the Postmaster, third-class mail is not the constant villain that it's frequently claimed to be. On the contrary, it is a legitimate and important part of America's system of free enternprise.

Those who do not wish to receive advertising circulars, or "junk" mail, should write directly to the mailer and request that their names be removed from his mailing list. "Though such requests are not always heeded, compliance is usually immediate," the postmaster says.

If unwanted circular matter continues to be received, patrons may write "Refused" on items placed in their box and promptly re-deposit them in the mails. Matter that has been refused by the addressee is returned to the sender if it bears the sender's endorsement, "Return Requested." The sender is charged a minimum of 8 cents per piece for the services performed. Third-class mail which is refused and which does not bear a return request is destroyed at the office of address.

The Postmaster emphasizes that all classes of mail carrying the proper rate of postage and properly prepared for mailing must be handled by the post office in accordance with postal regulations. However, patrons who don't want unsolicited mail matter of any kind can usually find relief through refusal to accept delivery or through written request that their names be removed from the mailing lists involved.

Herman Schaefer New President Of Nimrod Club

Other new officers included vice-president, Mrs. Oliver Harrelson; secretary, Mrs. Barbara Bostick; treasurer, Mrs. Dora Schaefer; reporter, Mrs. Twila Carlile; photographer, Mrs. Hattie Ingram; song leader, Jack Cozart; and refreshment chairman, Mrs. Ed Townsend. Thirty-six members were present for the regular meeting at which Mr. Cozart led the group in singing a hymn. Herman Schaefer led the prayer for the opening exercises.

President Oliver Harrelson called the meeting to order, and minutes of the previous meet were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Bostick. A report on the financial status of the club was given by treasurer, Mrs. Schaefer. In the business meeting, the club members voted to donate $10.00 toward the landscaping project at Cisco Junior College. Voy Wilks and Carl Stroebel volunteered to build a bookcase in the clubhouse to store the large number of books that have been donated to the Nimrod Library. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mmes. Voy Wilks, Ed Townsend and Buford Cozart, Mrs. Carlile, reporter, announced.

Behind many "For Sale" signs there is a sad story: A family borrowed more than they could afford to pay for a home, or payments and interest rates were too high; the home had to be sold, often at a loss. This tragedy could often be avoided if the families would seek help from a home loan specialist, such as our Association.

We work with you to arrange for a loan that's as easy to handle as monthly rent.

Scratch The Bottom Lines VOTER

This Saturday March 23rd
Wake Up Voters:

We have lost seven businesses in our downtown section in just the last three months.

Wake Up Voters:

We will lose that many over again within the next three months unless something constructive is done to turn the tide.

Wake Up Voters:

The "Drys" have done nothing constructive toward business stimulation and progress. It is doubtful if they ever will.

Wake Up Voters:

Anyone with any sense of responsibility should know that legalized, well kept, and well controlled package stores are better for our community than are the bootleggers that defy your control.

Wake Up Voters:

The issue is not just Wet or Dry. The issue is business progress or decline.

Wake Up Voters:

Progress will not just fall from the sky. Progress will come from a full economy. The half conditions we work under now lead to business stagnation and community decline.

Wake Up Voters:

We are not drunkards. We are well meaning citizens with sound progressive ideas and strong backbones. Qualities to be proud of. Why turn on them when they come along.

Wake Up Voters:

Vote FOR Progress and stop our decline. Vote FOR sound business principles and you will have a bigger and better Ranger in time.

Vote For The Legal Sales This Time. Scratch The Bottom Lines.

Third Class Mail Bring Polite And Impolite Opinion

"Golf, grandchildren, the weather, and third-class mail have much in common," says the local postmaster. "All are perennial subjects for both polite and impolite conversation."

According to the Postmaster, third-class mail is not the constant villain that it's frequently claimed to be. On the contrary, it is a legitimate and important part of America's system of free enterprise. Those who do not wish to receive advertising circulars, or "junk" mail, should write directly to the mailer and request that their names be removed from his mailing list. "Though such requests are not always heeded, compliance is usually immediate," the postmaster says.

If unwanted circular matter continues to be received, patrons may write "Refused" on items placed in their box and promptly re-deposit them in the mails. Matter that has been refused by the addressee is returned to the sender if it bears the sender's endorsement. "Return Requested." The sender is charged a minimum of 5 cents per piece for the services performed. Third-class mail which is refused and which does not bear a return request is destroyed at the office of address.

The Postmaster emphasizes that all classes of mail carrying the proper rate of postage and properly prepared for mailing must be handled by the post office in accordance with postal regulations. However, patrons who don't want unsolicited mail matter of any kind can usually find relief through refusal to accept delivery or through written request that their names be removed from the mailing lists involved.

President Oliver Harrelson called the meeting to order, and minutes of the previous meet were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Bostick. A report on the financial status of the club was given by treasurer, Mrs. Schaefer. In the business meeting, the club members voted to donate $10.00 toward the landscaping project at Cisco Junior College.

'Curry Capias Now on Book

Nathan Curry's name has been entered on the criminal docket of the 91st District Court, charging murder, and indicating that he has been formally served with a capias. The capias was issued Feb. 20th, and is shown as having been returned Friday. His parents were in Eastland Friday checking on the status of the case, and reported that Nathan is working in Lubbock.

The family plans to move there, they said, and now have their home in Cisco up for sale.

They also indicated that they are seeking signatures of persons who shared their belief that Nathan could not get a fair trial in this county.

Other capiases recorded include:

Two counts of burning grassland against Gary Lynn Marsh of Cisco; Gus Orman of Cisco, is charged with sale of whiskey and repetition of the offense; and W. H. Bollinger, failure to return to the scene of an accident.

Still unrecorded are the names of the other indicted:

two for robbery, one for negligent homicide and one for rape.
