

Around Town

This is the time of year all students look forward to. Especially the Graduating Seniors. To the grads, we say congratulations.

Delbert Capps of Capps Studio found his car to be the source of a mystery one day this past week. The mewing of an obviously stranded cat could be heard coming from the front of his car. A number of people tried their hand at being a detective without success. Myself included. After a search of the fenders, motor, wheels and other logical places for a cat to be, the little nipper was found, resting comfortably on a portion of the head structure.

To date, our brief history as a newspaper editor has proven to be quite educational. Have found that the best of all possible ways to learn the correct spelling of an individual's name is to misspell it in print. John Tibbels of the Ranger Farm Store will verify this fact.

The Jaycee rodeo grounds will soon look like an East Texas Lumber mill if they bring in any more lumber. Dick Fletcher reports that they have received 15,000 feet of lumber with another 20,000 feet to come. This material will be used to complete the seats in the stands.

It never rains but what it pours, to re coin an old and well worn phrase. The city streets have sustained considerable damage as a result. Street Commissioner Fred Bennett report that repair work is in progress but a little time will be required to put the streets back in good condition.

In the J.C. Penney store there is an apparatus that, as I recall, was one of the most fascinating objects of my childhood. Many Saturdays, when in a store in town, I would stand in awe as the clerks pulled the cord that would send money speeding out of sight to some mysterious place I could not see overhead. In a few minutes, back it would come, with the correct amount of change. Many times, as a child, I longed to pull the cord of that little machine but of course most all childhood impulses are subdued by the strong hand of mother. Some day when I am in the Penney store and no one is looking I am going to satisfy that desire of years ago.

No Baseball Monday Night At Little League

There will not be a Little League game Monday night, May 27, due to the graduation exercises at Ranger High School.

Dodgers and Giants were winners in last Monday night's games.

In the first game, score was Dodgers 16, Yankees 4. The Dodgers maintained and held a lead throughout the game. Pat Miller and Jimmy Cole pitched for the winning team. Yankee pitchers were Alan Thomas and Johnny Cantwell. The second game was Giants 6, Indians 5. The Indians captured a five point lead but lost their hold in the latter part of the game. David Garcia of the Indians knocked his second home run of the season. Giant Johnny Graham also got his honors on the home-run tally when he knocked one over center field. Steve Dempsey and Larry Don Williamson did the pitching for the Giants. Raymond Northcutt carried the pitching job all the way through for the Indians.

CLASS PROPHECY OF HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS RELEASED

SENIOR CLASS OF 1963
CLASS PROPHECY
By Larry Sullivan

Ours is a wonderful world! This is evidenced by all the electronic wonders of the IBM, transistor, ICBM, and stereo. But one of the most fascinating parts of this rapidly growing world of technology is the news media. The newspaper, television, and radio industries bring the news of all these discoveries right into your living room. And to keep pace, the Times have developed a fabulous new electronic computer. This computer is very unusual, for not only does it produce on tape in newspaper style all the local, state, and national news, but — based on current trends, it can also predict and reproduce on IBM tape the news that will be occurring twenty years from now.

I have just been fortunate enough to gain possession of one of these valuable, highly interesting tapes. It is so interesting, in fact, that I felt you would enjoy hearing what will be happening May 17, 1983.

Johnny Wells, famous rodeo star, has just been awarded a trophy for being the most popular arena clown in the business.

Linda Hatton and Carolyn Rose have just become the first woman astronaut team to land on the moon . . . and remain single for more than seventy-two hours.

"Diamond" Charlie De Los Santos, opulent night club owner, has announced the debut of famed singing star Sandi Stardust.

James Cornelius Stephens has just been named Playboy of the Year by Linda Warford, editor of "True Confusion Magazine."

Gay Nell Burnett, just an ordinary housewife, has so much work done by push button that Dr. Ruth Ann Herrington, thumb specialist in the Phlange field, reports a blister the size of a silver dollar on her right thumb.

From the district court we have just received news that Pat Eschberger, well known CPA, has just been charged with the embezzlement of 2,356,713 pieces of Chompy's cherished chewing gum from the double bubble safe of Dr. Watkins' home for retired school administrators.

Prominent publisher Arthur Merritt, who made his fortune selling Red Hot Rocket comic books to retired school marmas, has announced that he will sell his publishing interests to Flashbulb Ewing of Snapshot Industries, Inc.

We have just received word that Fisher, Fron, and Ford have founded Famous Furs for Fine Feminine Furnishings, founded by Ford, Fron, and Fisher.

Flash! Sissy Blackwell has just won a Gold Medal for the US olympic team at the world games in the women's hammer throw. The games are being held in Peiping, China, and are being covered by Barbara Bledsoe for Brooklyn.

Edmonds and Love, psychiatrists, are going to specialize in the treatment of mentally deranged ex-school teachers.

Business consultant Jerry Cole recently won the Noble Prize for humanitarian concern on Wall Street. Jerry succeeded in buying up all the loose stocks available before the famous market crash last year.

Bobby Owen is retiring this year from the army with the distinguished honor of having blown reveille every morning for seventeen years.

Jessie Underwood has announced that she will start her own funeral home. She feels that a woman can be successful as a mortician because people are just dying to give her their business.

Garcia Mendoza and Idelada Garcia have recently gained the unusual distinction of being the first duet to successfully perform an American jazz version of the Mexican hat dance, while accompanied by Milard Herweck's Harmonious Hama, and Sing La Cucaracha in Russian.

Incumbent Pat "Headless" Nail, first Republican Governor since Reconstruction, yesterday declared that her democratic opposition represented the carpet bag interests of North Dallas.

Democratic candidate Larry O'Sullivan blasted the popular Nail regime by declaring, "We must eject those radicals from our new frontiers with much 'vigah!' " O'Sullivan has run unsuccessfully against Governor Nail for six consecutive terms.

Socialite Glynda Wilson reportedly shoved television executive Bobby Beck into the family swimming pool when he refused to give her a full hour television exclusive.

On the Washington scene Senator Tom Joyner and House Speaker Dillard Jacoby are heading up a probing committee which is investigating alleged irregularities in local option elections in a small West Texas community.

A new fad has been started

Last Will And Testament Left By Senior Students

SENIOR CLASS WILL
1962-1963
By Jerilyn Anderson

Faculty, underclassmen, and visitors, greetings. We, the class of 1963 of Ranger High School, are about to cast aside our high school ways and depart for that sedate land of adulthood. Being mindful of the needs of those we leave behind in Ranger High School, we are going to endow them with many of our intangible and very worthwhile riches.

We have given a great deal of time and attention to these matters, and we trust that you will agree that we have acted wisely. Thereby, we of the senior class, being of sound mind and strong body, do hereby designate this as our last will and testament.

1—Our great store of memories we take with us to cherish forever and forever.

2—We leave behind us for other classes to follow, our fine record of athletic accomplishments and scholastic achievements.

3—To the faculty we bestow the right to mourn in secret over the passing of the most brilliant class they have ever known. No doubt they realize that never again will they come in contact with such witty, talented pupils.

4—To the furnace we bequeath our textbooks. It is our hope that when winter winds howl in the coming term, the fire burning in the furnace will cause a warmth in the rooms of this high school, and will bring a reminder of our happy days here.

5—On the sixth table in study hall, the seat nearest the wall, on the under side of the table will be found a wad of gum. This wad belongs to one of our brave seniors who narrowly escaped being detected in the chewing art. We will this wad of gum to the first person claiming it.

6—To the freshmen of next year, we leave our wish for strength to stand the strain of entering high school, our ability to quickly adjust quickly to changing conditions, and our brilliance as freshmen — such brilliance as soon attracted the attention of high school — sometimes to our great embarrassment.

7—To the present freshmen class we leave a warning that if you don't want to work the rest of your years in high school, stop now. Next year will be too late; for by then you will have developed enough school spirit to rival our outstanding record, and that, of course, is impossible.

8—To the sophomore class we leave the title "Upper Classmen," remembering fully how important we felt on becoming juniors. We also request that the sophomores look up our junior record to follow as a perfect model.

9—To the juniors, so eager to become seniors, we will our front seats, our lofty title, and our becoming modestly exhibited in this will, with the wish that your senior year will be as great a success as ours has been.

We, the individuals of the senior class, in remembrance of you, hereby bequeath the following:

1, Jerilyn Anderson, will my nickname, Olive Oil, to Katherine Stroud, and also will my big brother Melvin to Barbara Dawson, that is if she can get his ring away from a certain Gorman girl.

1, Bobby Beck, will all the gum under my study hall table to Pat Fisher.

1, Charlene Blackwell, will all my freshman and sophomore boy friends to the senior girls of next year.

1, Sissy Blackwell, will my majorette suit, my boots, and my baton to Alex Brashier.

1, Barbara Bledsoe, will my ability to always be on time to Donna Fyffe.

1, Gay Burnett, will my quiet and timid ways to Zuelia Carwile.

1, Jerry Cole, will my ability to get out of R. H. S. in one piece to Eddie Pevehouse and David Mahaffey.

1, Charlie De Los Santos, will my kind understanding, my patience, and my ability to control my temper to Coach Jack Duvall who will need it next year with the football team.

1, Edwena Edmonds, will my job in the office to Georgia Foster and Ramona Walton since they seem to spend most of their time there anyway.

1, Pat Eschberger, will my rapid speech and ability to make long stories short to Janice Smith. I also will Billy Lee to next year's first period office girls.

1, Denny Ewing, will the school camera to anyone who can make it work.

1, Janie Fisher, will my baby ways and my Kid Day baby bottle with goat milk to Dan Collins to go with his baby white car.

1, Barbara Ford, will my ability to get parking tickets for parking by fire plugs to John Hopper.

1, Mary Fron, will my ability to keep from running into a brick wall and breaking both my arms to Connie Gilbert.

1, Idelada Garcia, will my lonely bookkeeping desk to anyone who has trouble concentrating, and had the courage to take bookkeeping.

1, Jackie Grissom, will my ability to get girls to Smoky Vinson because his 58 Impala didn't help much.

1, Linda Hatton, will all of my good friends, the Gorman girls, to Barbara Dawson so she can keep up the good relations between Gorman and Ranger, and also a certain Gorman girl with brown hair that drives a 58 Chevrolet to Dwight Rogers.

1, Ruth Ann Herrington, will my place in geometry class and my equipment to Sylvia Robinson, but I can't, I may need them again next year.

1, Milard Herweck, will my ability to get down the front steps to Gwen Adams.

1, Dillard Jacoby, will my few years in high school to John Hopper.

1, Tommy Joyner, will my ability to explain jokes to Linda Hatton, who isn't very bright, and to keep for her tabs on a certain boy, to anyone who wants a first rate nut on their hands.

1, Donald Ray Lewis, will my safe driving ability to Pat Jameson.

1, Loresta Love, will my ability to tell a deer from a buzzard to Heulon Perrin and Mike Landtroop, who can't tell the difference.

1, Julia Mendoza, will all my 100's in Business Math Class, to anybody who believes I made any 100's.

1, Arthur Merritt, will my place on the golf team to "Choker Pearson."

1, Patsy Nail, will my shy ways and my soft voice to anyone who thinks I have these qualities.

Ferrill my bottle of ink eradicator in bookkeeping to anyone who can use it as many times on one practice set as I did.

1, Carolyn Rose, will Skip Ferrill my bottle of ink eradicator for use in bookkeeping next year.

1, James Stephens, will my driving class to Julia Mendoza to anyone who has a strong heart and weak mind.

1, Larry Sullivan, will my printer's apron to Sandra Tibbels, and my ability to clean ink presses to Celeste Scott.

1, Sandra Trece, will four feet of my nine foot legs to Miss Mc so she will be able to put her bookkeeping charts on the nails and write at the top of the blackboard.

1, Jessie Underwood, will my courage to make phone calls to Emery Ford.

1, Linda Warford, will my big red Cadillac, Mabel, to Jan Watkins as it might hold at least one more passenger than her bug would hold.

1, Johnny Wells, for the benefit of next year's football team, will my eyes to Rayleen Newnam so he will be able to catch the wild passes; my right foot to Johnny Comacho so he will be able to kick field goals; my left foot to Douglas Browning so he will be able to punt footballs.

1, Glynda Wilson, will my ability to drive fast and hot rod to Celeste Scott.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hand and seal this 17th day of May, 1963.

HONOR STUDENTS NAMED BY RANGER JUNIOR COLLEGE

Ranger Junior College Dean, Ernen Haby, has announced the honor students from among the spring graduates as Janie Frances Riebe of Strawn with a grade average of 2.96 on the basis of 3.00 perfect and Melba Suzanne Wright with an average of 2.7 graded on the same basis.

Special recognition was given these two Honor Students at the graduation program, held in the college Auditorium Friday, May 24, at 8 p. m.

Miss Riebe is the 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Riebe, Jr. of Strawn. She expects to complete two more years of college at a four-year institution and has chosen teaching as a career. Her major is elementary education and a minor in social studies.

Her hobbies are all outdoor sports, and while in high school in Strawn, she was a cheerleader and played baseball and basketball. She was valedictorian of her high school class.

Miss Wright is the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright of Ranger. She was a member of Ranger High School band for 4 years and is a member of the college band.

She was 6th ranking in her high school graduating class and was Senior Class Favorite.

Both young ladies are members of Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college scholarship society.

Miss Wright, too, expects to make teaching a career and will enter Sul Ross College to complete her college work, majoring in Elementary Education.

Giants, Dodgers Continue Hold In LL Games

Giants and Dodgers continued their bulldog grasp on the winning end of the Little League baseball games Thursday night (May 23).

In the first game the score was Giants 5, Yankees 1. Volle Castro started the Giant pitching but was relieved by Floyd Parks. Larry Floyd carried the pitching task for the Yankees.

The second game ended with Dodgers 9, Indians 7. Pat Miller of the Dodgers joined the fast-mounting count on the home run roll with one over center field. This was the 6th such hit of the season for Little League batters. Dodger pitchers were Pat Miller and Jimmy Cole. Rickey Hatfield started the Indian pitching but was relieved in the latter part of the second inning by Richard Williams.

Due to graduation exercises at high school Monday night, there will not be a Little League baseball game.

So that I may tell my life at

CLASS POEM

By Patricia Eschberger

Sing a song of graduates
Sitting in a row;
Isn't it surprising just
How much we seniors know?
Years ago we came to school,
Frightened little tots,
Some were dressed in party
clothes,
Some in polka dots.
Of course, we were exceptional
The cutest little things —
To hear our mothers fondly talk.
You'd think we all had wings!
Sometimes the teachers differed, but
That was their fault, no doubt.
A parent's firm opinion ought
To put such thought to route.
In music and athletics we
Stood always at the top,
And no performances we were in
Turned out to be a flop.
As citizens we take the cake,
Each noble, grand and fine;
We need no corps of officers
To keep this class in line.
Well, as I said, the teachers watched
Us little children grow,
And marvelled as the swift years passed
That each of us should know
Enough about the subjects all
To make a passing grade;
We learned, it seemed, without a lot
Of stuffy, grown-up aid.
We graduates ourselves
foresaw
That graduation day
Would separate us from the folks
Who'd watched us all the way.
The faculty is very sad
To think that day is near,
"We'll never find another class
Like this," they say, "we fear."
The other high school pupils
weep
So awful is their grief,
The love they have for graduates.
Is deep beyond belief.
"What will we ever do," they sigh,
"When these have gone away?"
And all the school is draped in black
Until Commencement Day.
The school board members
wipe the tears
From out their streaming eyes —
To see them moved so deeply is.

Indeed, a great surprise.
We graduates? While we, too,
are sad,
There is a gladness, too;
And all the task of leaving school
Gives us a lot to do.
The future now looks very bright
With dreams all coming true —
Another member of our class
Discussed this phase with you.
With Lady Luck we'll always walk;
She's watched us all the same.
She'll lead our class of '63
To honor, wealth, and fame!

THE OBSTACLES OF GOLF
By Arthur Merritt

While enjoying the challenge
Of a fast nine
I encountered some of the Obstacles of the game,
First came the duffer who
Accidentally hit mine
And I was tempted to call him
A naughty name,
But I remembered that I had
Once done the same;
Then came the group who
Never yell, "Fore",
They play through so fast only
Their dust remains,
They fly through one round
And come back for more,
It's no wonder I can't shoot a Decent score;
And then Lady Luck
Abandoned my ship
And up came a storm with a
Thunderous roar,
The wind blew so hard I
Couldn't even chip,
I sacked up my sticks and ran
To the car,
Just to discover that I had
Four flat tires.

LONELINESS
By Barbara Bledsoe

Loneliness is emptiness,
A definite lack of joy,
It enters without knocking
And stays until disemployed.
Loneliness is no respecter of Persons,
It plagues large and small,
It fills our peaceful hours
With moments of recall,
I hate to be lonely,
Let this loneliness go away,
And don't hasten to return
Here,
Be gone with you, quickly
Away!

A SAD STORY
FOR SALE

Behind many "For Sale" signs there is a sad story: A family borrowed more than they could afford to pay for a home, or payments and interest rates were too high; the home had to be sold, often at a loss. This tragedy could often be avoided if the families would seek help from a home loan specialist, such as our Association.

We work with you to arrange for a loan that's as easy to handle as monthly rent.

BENNETTS' BUSY BULLDOG GRILL BUSTLES BRISKLY

Have you ever walked into the BULLDOG GRILL, a little before noon-time, innocently expecting to go through the old American custom of calmly ordering a hamburger, with everything on it, and quietly enjoying it before you get tangled up in the afternoon chores?

Well, if you have, you know nowhere else in this vicinity is there an experience like it. If you haven't, then you probably won't believe this, anyway. And after you have seen it, you may not be able to calmly repeat it, for the sonic booms of the jets is only a little less shattering than the noon-time events which take place around there.

No, we aren't knocking on the business of the Bennetts — it is their business — a cafe set up to cater to the hamburger-corney dog brigade of school kids. Now, it isn't that they do not want the trade of any other townspeople — they get it, but most have learned that 12 noon is NOT exactly the time to have a relaxing moment there.

The situation is this — school kids do not have much time to order a lunch, get waited on, and such, and so there is a sign that says "Counter-Service Only" so that the Bennetts can wait on them strictly at the counter and then the kids find a place to anchor and everybody gets in the act.

If you happen to be in the Grill a little before noon, you can hear the good-natured bantering of Mrs. C. E. Beck, the cook, and that oh, so scrumptious smell of her home-made pies, sometimes, her chicken and dumplings. Mrs. Bennett — Peggy — busily is getting pre-orders ready which school kids have already asked for — these she puts in one particular place in the kitchen so they won't have to wait to get their orders. Of course, now, there is another phase of this, too — that will come later.

Meanwhile, Fred has come in from his regular job to help out at the rush hour, all the time trying desperately to sneak in a few french-fries, maybe a bowl of stew or a sandwich. He is pretty calm for a while, then you notice he begins to watch the clock out of the corner of his eye.

As he talks, he begins to set a faster pace to his chatter and his step take on a little nappier pace. He keeps cutting his eyes to the clock, and then he draws out a name in the box which has been set on the counter so that the kids can stuff it until it looks like a repeated demerit system. This name, he writes on the blackboard, of course, some time you are expected to figure out the nickname, such as "Cutey" or "J. J.," he seems to know who they are, nevertheless. This entitles the lucky one to a free lunch.

He arranged the donuts in their container, and begins to fill the cups at a ridiculous speed, and all of a sudden, he grabs a CHAIN and fastens it across a small space between the icecream box and the customer. Now, this chain is the cause of some speculation — its either to lock Fred in or the kids out, or to give the kids a leaping place when they hit full force in a few seconds. This might be called the oddest segregation barrier in the vicinity — for here customer and waiter part.

Then, suddenly you are aware it is 12 NOON — no, there was no whistle, no alarm set, just a storm of high school and junior high student hit the door. Now, you know why Fred locked himself in. If the traffic light on Highway 80 were put on the door of bulldog Grill to regulate the traffic, it would be worn to a frazzle. In the door they race to the chant of "Fred, Fred, Fred, Fred" just as hard as they can talk, with their orders for the day.

The volume raises from a normal scream to a siren volume by this time, each trying to be heard above the other. NOW, for that chain, remember the pre-arranged orders in the kitchen that they don't have to wait for — there is a sudden rush for this — of course, now, you don't have to wait, but then you may have to shove, scrouge, and squeeze, meanwhile the kids stack up and they lean on the chain until they surely must be bisected or dissected — which is it —

Meanwhile, someone has decided that the silence is much, much, too depressing and so with the nickel, he sets about to remedy this right quick. It's off to guitar - twanging, fiddle-slanging, hip-swinging love truck beat-nick to the utter most blast of the volume that the juke box can blow in.

Soon with their hungry mouths stuffed with hamburgers and all the trimmings, the voice volume dies down for a while. They began to return to the counter in a little while for candy, ice cream, or what have you. Then, there must be a magic signal for everybody to be through eating. The high school girls and boys who have been hired for the clean off table campaign, really get with it — the rule is all that is not anchored down, goes off. So, if you just happen to not be through with your glass of tea, you better get a death-grip on it, or it will be involved in the fastest disappearing act of the day — the hand is quicker than the eye — you know.

In a few days there will be a drastic change in the noise and activity around the little cafe. It will be as silent as the tomb. The Bennetts will close it during summer vacation — might get their hearing restored then, too — Then

Rev. Lacy Standifer, chaplain at the school, was in Ranger Tuesday to accept the gift for the school, and extended his sincere appreciation to the college for the organ, saying at least 600 residents would attend the outdoor services this summer, beginning June 2.

Roger C. Martin, director of bands at Ranger Junior College, made the presentation of the organ in behalf of Dr. Theodore Nicksick, Jr., and the Board of Regents.

Magnified a Thousand Times

... is the common conception that it makes no difference, so why worry? The fact that a loaf of bread is taxed about 70 times has little outward criticism from the masses as we resolve ourselves into the complacent attitude that we can do nothing about it. But we should! It isn't Communism, nor Cuba, nor unpredictable Russia that are our greatest threats to survival, but taxes. If you happen to be a common laborer or one of thousands of small business men, better wake up!

WHY?

By James Stephens

Why? — does the sun continue
To rise upon this troubled
World,
To shine a constant reminder
Of hope
For a peaceful World?

Doesn't it know that tension
Aids
The Cold War and increases
With everyday?
Doesn't it know that the
Lasting peace sought
Through disarmament
May be a wish that cannot
Be expressed?

Why? — does the sun continue
To rise upon this troubled
World,
"God's in his Heaven,
But all's not right in His World!"

THE COMING DAY
By Betty L. Estes

What is this thing called death
That each must face in Life?

It comes with that final bit of Breath
That cuts through the Heart like a knife.
No more cause to worry
About what lies ahead,
For we are certain of the story
Of the rising of the dead.
Yes, 'tis our great reward,
When the day at last has Come;

If our final journey upward
Leads to that resting place Called Home.

SUNSET

By Bobby Owen

Sunset is like a broad ocean
The sun and its fiery red blast
Tapes away until at last
Nothing is left but the crimson
Clouds' devotion.
The clouds are like a vast
Ocean of roses,
Lasting until the last sunray
Remote and less than gay,
As the last of day gives way
To darkness.
