Within the hour a man reported to the Ranger headquarters that he had got separated from is wife. Naturally, assuming that the two belonged to each other, the first notice was cancelled, and the man was told that his wife had the woman with the "lost" husband was involved in ar accident in Cisco, so Department of Public Safety Sgt Roger Sosebee, having heard the Ranger broadcasts, put the word out to catch the man with the "lost" wife. That man was roused from his sleep at an Abilene motel. But the description didn't fit his wife. The woman's "lost" husband was found later in Monahans but as far as is known the man with the "lost" wife still hasn't been re-united with her.

Pointing out, Sgt. Sosebee says, that people travelinng across country together should decide on a pre-determined plan and route, so that each will be at a certain place at a certain time. It is near impossible, he says, for two vehicles, traveling in the same direction to stay together on modern highways. With changing traffic patterns, one is sure to lose sight of the

It's a SNAP when you use an Electric Dishwasher!

Dishwashing's done at the snap of a switch when you do it the modern electric way. Instead of soaking, washing, rinsing, and drying dishes by hand, you just load and start your Electric Dishwasher and you're free to tend to other things,

An Electric Dishwasher not only eliminates a tiresome daily task, it washes your dishes hygienically clean, using water hotter than hands can stand. It helps keep your kitchen tidier and your hands lovelier. And entertaining is much more fun when you're free from dirty dish drudgery.

Truck Driver Is Killed In Three Vehicle Mishap

sicle accident during rainy weather Wednesday night on Highway 80 in the west edge of Cisco. He was Jesse Von Williams, 33, who was asleep n the rest compartment of a big Burnham Van Service ruck, and he died almost instantly in the mishap. Injured was James Blue, 24, who was driving and his conlition was described as satisactory Saturday morning at raham Hospital in Cisco. Mrs. J. A. Sparks of Alabathat was pulling a concession stand on wheels, was arrested by State Highway Patrolmen from the Eastland office in connection with the mishap.

She was fined $100 and given a three-day jail sentence by County Judge Scott Bailey as she entered a plea of guilty to charges of negligent homicide in his court Friday. She was given credit for Thursday and Friday on the jail sentence and was "let off" Saturday due to good behavior. The Sparks car was headed west and, the report said, the Burnham truck swirved to miss it, plowing into a parked truck loaded with sheep. The ivestock truck was owned by Bill Taylor of San Angelo and t was damaged. The Burnham ruck was demolished, and the sparks car had a front fender

The two children of Mrs. Sparks, 5 and 11 years old, were given into the custody of Rev. Jesse Cassle, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Cisco, as police arrested their mother. Their father was in another vehicle ahead of them and was notified of the accident at Monahans. He return-
