Brashier Is New Chamber Prexy; Five Directors Are Elected in Mail Balloting

Felton B. (Pete) Brashier Jr. was elected president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce during the annual business meeting of the organization held Thursday night at the chamber offices.

Brashier, formerly vice president, succeeds W. H. (Bill) Marslander who served as head of the civic group during the past year.

Other officers are James Ratliff, vice president, and Glyn Gilliam, secretary and treasurer.

All three officers are well known business men. Brashier is co-owner with his father, Felton P. Brashier Sr., of Ranger Furniture Exchange, 45-year-old home furnishings establishment. Ratliff is owner and operator of Ratliff Feed & Seed, Highway 80 east, and Gilliam is president of the Commercial State Bank.

Mail ballots cast in an election to name five directors were tabulated and results announced at the meeting.

Re-elected to the chamber's directorate were Brashier, Bill Collings, local manager for Texas Electric Service Co., Dr. Ted Nicksick, (Continued on Page Two)

NEWS • NOTES • BRIEFS

A GOOD NEWS FLASH: Enrollment for the spring semester at Ranger Junior College has set a new all-time record. A report from RJC officials Wednesday morning indicated that more than 300 students have already enrolled for the new semester.

CONGRATULATIONS to the new officers and directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce.

And — likewise — congratulations to out-going W. H. (Bill) Marslander, immediate past president, who commanded the chamber through a notable year.

Four of the five directors—Pete Brashier, new president, Bill Collings, Dr. Ted Nicksick and Dewey Cox Jr. — were re-elected.

New director is Harold Turnipseed, the genial manager of Ranger's Montgomery Ward Store. Turnipseed has been (Continued on Page Two)

New C-C President Has Fine Record of Civic Service To Community

Twenty years ago, after peace had returned to a war weary world and after receiving his discharge from the U. S. Navy Air Corps, Felton P. (Pete) Brashier Jr. returned to his hometown and joined his father, Felton P. Brashier Sr., in the Ranger Furniture Exchange.

PETE BRASHIER

Since that time the younger Brashier over the span of two decades has proved himself an energetic, aggressive business man — a salesman and a merchandiser.

It's little wonder then that the new president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce probably will be ram-rod-ting a year of accelerated public relations and business promotion for the city's business community.

Ranger Furniture Exchange, one of the biggest volume home furnishings establishments in this section of Texas, will be 45 years old this spring.

Despite the hours and effort required by his business activity, the new chamber president has always found time to devote to civic service. His presidency climaxes a long span of years as an active member of the Chamber of Commerce. He has faithfully and diligently served on numerous committees and has been associated with a num- (Continued on page 4)

Ivan J. Allen Murder Trial Nearing Jury-Room Climax in District Court

The three-woman, nine-man 91st District Court jury is expected to be given the Ivan J. Allen murder trial for deliberation Thursday morning.

Final arguments were heard Wednesday afternoon after the defense presented its testimony of accidental gunshot.

The prosecution began Tuesday afternoon and introduced several witnesses to establish malice in the Nov. 7, 1965 shooting.

Among those testifying Tuesday were Gerald Ward, 25, of Hopesville, who told of seeing Rancher Allen shoot his nephew, Dr. Albert Reidel.

Ward said Allen had aimed the gun at Reidel, "not just pointed it." Ward's testimony was backed up by that of his wife, who said she also saw the shooting.

Ward was with a group of 11, including five children, who were picking pecans on the property where Dr. Reidel was shot. He said Allen advanced toward them telling them to "get out or I'll shoot every one of you."

Ward said he and his wife climbed over the fence (the five children had already been sent to the car). He said Allen "brought up a rifle and the man who came in the pickup fell as the shot was fired."

The purported death weapon, a deer rifle with a hunting scope, was introduced as evidence and identified by Sheriff L. E. Sublett.

Dr. W. P. Watkins, Ranger physician, said he was called to the emergency room at Ranger General Hospital and that Dr. Reidel died about an hour after entering.

He quoted Allen as saying, "I'd give anything if I could change places with Reidel. I helped send him through medical school. I'm worried about his wife and children. I don't know — I just turned around and the gun went off."

Dr. Watkins said Allen told him at the hospital, "That's my nephew. Do everything you can to save him."

Dr. Reidel died while in the X-ray room. Internal bleeding from a chest wound was given as the cause of death.

He said he later took Allen home. "He was agitated and upset. He was in a state of shock at the time Dr. Reidel died and during and after the ride home."

Dr. Watkins said he stayed at the Allen home for an hour and a half.

Others testifying were M.D. Underwood, Ranger justice of peace; and Mrs. Doris Herrington, surgical nurse at the Ranger hospital.

The state rested its case at 11:10 a.m. Wednesday.

Called to the stand just before noon Wednesday to testify in Mr. Allen's behalf was Jerry Minton, vice president and trust officer for a Fort Worth bank, who stated that he and the late Dr. Reidel were very close friends, and that he knew that the uncle and nephew were also very close.

He had never met Mr. Allen, he said, until coming to this county the day after the shooting to carry Mrs. Reidel and the children to their home in Dallas.

Mr. Minton carefully described how bereaved Mr. Allen was at that time.

Another defense witness before noon was Dr. Jerry Lewis, a Dallas physician specializing in the practice of pediatrics, who stated that he had known Dr. Reidel about eight years, and he told how the late Reidel had spoken of his uncle "with great warmth and personal fondness." He recalled too that Dr. Reidel had told how important he felt it was that he repay his uncle the money loaned him at attend medical school.

Mrs. Reidel was expected to take the stand following the noon recess Wednesday.

Selection of the jury in the Allen murder trial in 91st District Court was completed shortly after noon Tuesday and testimony began.

Allen, a prominent 72-year-old Eastland County rancher and landowner, was indicted by an Eastland County grand jury following the Nov. 7, 1965 shooting of his nephew, Dr. Albert Reidel of Dallas.

Chosen Monday were Morgan F. Roberts of Deeslemans, Mrs. Sutton Croft of Cisco, Weldon Tankersley, Vernon Walker, Charles B. Harris, all of Eastland; W. T. Easton of Ranger; E. H. Cook of Carbon, and Mrs. Waldene Lewis of Rising Star.

Chosen Tuesday were Mrs. J. D. Collier of Cisco, Jerry Carter and Ben Lancaster, both of Eastland, and Don Nicholas of Carbon.

Only 36 persons were examined to obtain the 12 jurors, believed to be some sort of (Continued on page 7)

Ranger Mayor Will Enter Race For Gibbens' Seat

Mayor Morris L. Newham, Ranger civic and business leader, announced Monday that he will be a candidate for the office of Texas state representative, 63rd District, in the Democratic primary election in May. He said that a formal statement of his candidacy will be issued in the near future.

The district is comprised of Eastland, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Callahan and Shackelford Counties. Rep. Wayne

Gibbens of Breckenridge, representing the five-county area in the Texas Legislature since 1961, has resigned to accept Gov. John Connally's recent appointment as director of the new Texas federal-state liaison office in Washington.

Newham, 43, has been serving as mayor of Ranger since 1961 and has been a member of the City Commission since 1959, when he was elected to the post of finance commissioner.

Active in the Texas Municipal League, Newham currently is serving as president of Region 6 of TML and has served on several key committees, including legislative, of the statewide organization composed of mayors and top officials in Texas municipal government.

Clyde Clips RHS, 55-40

The Baird High Bears will be gunning to knock off the Ranger High Bulldogs Friday night when the two District 19-A clubs meet in a cage duel in Ranger.

And the Callahan County

quint certainly won't be any pushover for the stalwarts of Coach Charlie Smith.

In their first hardwoods bout on Dec. 29 at Baird, the Maroon & White RHS crew was able to conquer the Bears by a hair-thin decision — 39-38.

Action Friday night begins with the tip-off of the girls' teams of both schools at 6:30 p.m., followed by the District 19-A feature of the night between the Ranger and Baird High varsities.

The Ranger High Bulldogs, beaten by the Clyde High Buldogs earlier in the season for their conference loss, were unable to turn the tide in a return engagement of the two schoolboy quints at Clyde Tuesday night — and the hosts dropped the Maroon & White charges of Coach Charlie Smith, 55-40.

It was Clyde's eighth straight loop triumph and virtually wraps up the 10-A championship for the Bulldogs of Callahan County.

The winners used a well-balanced attack, with four starters hitting in double figures. Jim Paylor had 13 points for Clyde, with Kenneth Kniffen, Greg (Continued on Page Four)

Southern TV's Managers Protesting FCC Regulation

Effective February 7 the Federal Communications commission is planning prohibitions which will profoundly affect the cable viewers in the Eastland County area. Roy Thackerson, Ranger manager of Southern Television Systems Corp., charged Wednesday.

Thackerson was joined in his protest by Kelly Coats, Southern TV's Eastland manager, and Royce Taylor, service man, of Cisco.

According to Thackerson, the new rules, will, in effect, tell all TV cable subscribers which programs they can watch and which programs they cannot watch.

"Our subscribers may have to miss many of their favorite programs if the new rules go into effect," he said.

The proposed rules will deny viewers in TV areas the right to watch distant TV channels. They will also prohibit viewing of certain channels if their programs duplicate those shown on nearby channels.

The prohibition may apply even if the nearby channel shows the program at 6 p.m. and the distant channel carries it at 8:30 p.m.

"We will have to leave certain channels black part of the time," explained Thackerson.

The two-week program of study, centered at N. Y. Field trips were made to retail stores and manufacturing facilities in the New York area.

Instructors were specialists on the staff of the Institute and outstanding executives from the jewelry retailing, merchandising, promotion and publicity fields.

The course is sponsored annually by N.Y.U. and the Joseph Bulova School of Watchmaking, in cooperation with the Retail Jewelers of America, Inc. Enrollment this year was the largest in the 26-year history of the program, according to Benjamin H. Lipson, director of the Bulova School. TOWN TALK in R-town nearly a year, having arrived to take over management of the local Ward's outlet last February.

A native of Oklahoma and graduate of McAlester High School, Turnpiseed is an 18-year veteran of the Ward organization. He began his merchandising career as a stock boy in McAlester and has been promoted consistently ever since. Turnpiseed came to Ranger for his first top managerial assignment after having been an assistant in the chain's Tyler store.

Turnpiseed is a veteran of the Korean War, served two years in that overseas country. Mrs. Turnpiseed, whom he wed in 1956, is secretary to Dr. Ted Nicksick, president of Ranger Junior College. She and the couple's three sons moved to Ranger at the close of school in Tyler last spring.

The offspring are Donald, 13, Dean, 11, and Jimmy, 7. The family attends First Baptist Church, and their father is a member of the Ranger Lions Club.

Glad to see Johnny Boyd up and around Tuesday morning. The former Ranger police officer and ex-deputy sheriff spent 17 days in bed as a result of a back injury. He's helping himself along with a cane, but he's moving rapidly down the road to recovery. Many of his friends were glad to see him when he drove his familiar Ford downtown Thursday morning for his first outing. Take care of yourself, John — and get well faster!

SCOUTS inform us that the phone lines to the residence of Mayor Morris Newnham and his Ranger Frozen Food Center were buzzing with incoming calls after the news got out Tuesday aym that he was going to be a candidate for State Representative, 63rd District, to succeed R. p. Wayne Gibbens who has accepted an appointment in Washington. The story is elsewhere in this issue of The Times. Even if we did scoop ourselves by releasing it somewhat prematurely. . . As this is written Tuesday at mid-afternoon the mercury is hovering at 35 degrees. Not a shirt sleeve temperature but certainly much warmer than the 9 degree low which brought shivers to Rangerites Sunday morning. You wives in our audience will be interested to know that a New York bank's economists have calculated your worth at $159.34 a week after a survey of the time you spend in such chores as chauffeur, cook, maid, plumber, gardner, etc.

THIS may be amazing — but it's true: During the first World War — in 1917 — more than 70 per cent of our present population had not yet been born. Almost 60 per cent of our people were not alive in the early 1950's when the Great Depression created breadlines in every major city. Nearly 50 per cent of our people were not yet born in 1939 when Hitler invaded Poland. Thirty per cent of us were not here when Korea became a No-Man's Land in 1950. It's almost unbelievable, but 9 per cent of our people were not alive when John F. Ken-come the two Democratic primary elections — and the general election next November.

R. V. (Rip) Galloway, Ranger agent for Edgar Altom, Eastland County tax assessor-collector, reported Wednesday morning that up until 4 p. m. Tuesday only 132 poll tax receipts had been issued from his office at 309 Main Street.

Next Monday — Jan. 31 — is the final deadline for payment of poll taxes, Galloway reminds. And — that's only five days away!
 Galloway's office is open from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. daily for the convenience of citizens in Ranger and surrounding area.

In addition, as an extra service to Ranger and area folks, Galloway's office will be open all day Saturday, Jan. 29, from 9 until 4 p. m. "Poll taxes certainly a real pain in the neck," Galloway said Wednesday morning.
 Last year — an off-election year — a total of 450 polls were issued to citizens in the Ranger precinct. That figure should be far exceeded for 1966 and probably will.

Citizens are advised not to participate in a last-minute rush Monday.

MR. VEON HOWARD has had a major crisis pass out of his Lake Leon home and in so doing, confidence has been renewed in the outdoorsmanship of his grandchildren's little black cocker spaniel. The children, Mitzy Kay, 8, Mary Ellen, 5, and Scotty, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas of Fort Worth, reasoned that "Snapper" was an outside dog and deserved to live at the lake with their grandparents rather than in a big town backyard. Good! Except this past week, during the bad cold spell, the dog strayed, and Mr. H. figured got lost. He was a bit frantic to say the least, thinking about having to tell those youngsters that their pet had gone. Mr. Howard spread the word, tracked (including about 1-2 a mile through the snow) on the trail of Snapper. Then Monday night, as mysteriously as he had vanished, the little long-tailed cocker came home — to a couple of happy grandparents.

THE RALPH BROTHERS? Remember them? They were the musical duo which passed through our town many moons ago, pushing a cart, and on their way to the "Jack Parr" TV show. They also were arrested for pushing the cart on the wrong side of the highway, and were locked up in the Memphis, Tenn., Commercial - Appeal, sent by brother, Willard O., that the two have made it that far.

The article by the C-A staff writer lists their tolls and tribulations in cross-country faring, including this about their stop in Eastland:

"Like getting thrown in jail in Eastland County, Texas for pushing the cart on the wrong side of the road and 'gettin' sprung," according to Dave, when Gov. John Connally sent a telegram to the local constable telling him the men were good citizens."

Well, it isn't exactly the way many remember it, but none the less the Ralphs are in for a two-weeks stand at the El Cid in Memphis, apparently still "Parr-bound."

Mrs. G. O. Strong is visiting relatives in Houston.

Final Rites For Toribio Pedroza Held Wednesday
 Toribio Pedroza, 90, a resident of Ranger since 1917, passed away in Ranger General Hospital at 4:10 p. m. Sunday.

Rev. Emil Slovacek, who conducted rosary at 8 p. m. Tuesday in Killingsworth Funeral Chapel also officiated during funeral services held from St. Rita's Catholic Church at 9 a. m. Wednesday. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Pedroza was a retired laborer for Texas and Pacific Railroad. Born April 16, 1875, at Tacuitapa, Jal. Mexico, he was a member of St. Rita's Catholic Church. He was married to Anglia Muro, who preceded him in death Jan. 24, 1962.

He is survived by three sons, Simon of Lagos de Monero, Jal. Mexico, and John and Raymond, both of Tampico, Tamm, Mexico.

Burial services were emeterio Vasquez, Joe Camacho, and Ruben Andrada.

The five directors were elected to three-year terms. Appreciation for the progressive administration of outgoing President Marslender was expressed by members of the board.

In his final report to the body, the retiring chamber leader cited two important projects upon which efforts were expended during the past year — the proposed Texas Oil Museum and the program to improve and beautify Ranger's downtown business area.

"The progress in this beautification campaign has been exceptional," Marslender said. "When this program was first outlined, plans indicated it would require three years to complete our project of doing something to improve and make more attractive the vacant buildings in the downtown area.

"However, accomplishment during the first year on this program have simply been tremendous. We owe," he added, "a vote of gratitude to the Ranger Jaycees for their splendid cooperation and assistance in this project. We also are deeply indebted to the Ranger Garden Club and to a number of business and industrial firms who have taken action to aid in the fulfillment of this beautification program."

In formal action, the directors voted to let a contract to an Eastland firm to re-roof the chamber of commerce building on Main Street.

Also it was voted that Dr. Ted Nicksick would represent the Ranger Chamber of Commerce at the annual banquet of the Breckenridge Co. C. which was held in the Stephens County capital Saturday night. Featured speaker at the affair was the Hon. John Tower, U. S. Senator from Texas.

Final committee reports were presented by Dr. John Foster and James Ratliff, co-chairmen of the chamber's agriculture committee; Dewey C. Cox Jr. on aspects of state and federal assistance, etc.; and Glyn Gilliam, chairman of the finance committee.

Gilliam's report indicated that the financial conditions of the chamber is the best it has been in several years. A number of old obligations were paid off and retired during 1965, the banker said.

Publicity Spotlight Hits Ranger College Rangers

The Ranger Junior College Rangers may have had their blaring win streak interrupted down at San Antonio this week, but over the weekend they were basking in unprecedented publicity.

Saturday morning, it was a big spread—by-lined by Frank Luska—on the sports pages of The Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Then in the Sunday edition of The Abilene Reporter-News there was another highly favorable story and pictures extolling the 1965-66 RJC squad which is the most outstanding roundball aggregation in the history of the local college.

Here's what Frank Luska wrote in the Saturday morning edition of The Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

Ronald Butler is assistant football coach, history professor, dormitory director and girls' basketball coach at Ranger Junior College, and when those duties are done he gets down to business.

And Butler's business these days is very good. As resident genius for Ranger's boys' outfit he can point to a 15-1 record.

The Rangers own a 5-0 mark at the mid-point break in the North Zone of the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference. What's more, they beat down bitter rival Cisco JC, 89-87, in an overtime tussle that jammed their 1,400 seat gymnasium beyond its capacity.

"Defense has been the difference so far," says Butler. "Plus the fact the kids came back with the attitude that they could go all the way. They feel as though they can't be beaten."

The enemy is averaging only 72.5 points per outing against the Rangers, an uncommonly low figure for a run-and-shoot league.

"If the opposition wants to run, we like to play a control game," says Butler. "If they want to control, then we like to run."

Butler has the horses to set any pace he chooses beginning with Oscar McClendon, a 6-3 1-2 sophomore recruited from an AAU team in Houston.

McClendon is the team's leading scorer (23.57 and rebounder (15 per game).

Larry Robertson, a 6-4 freshman from Jamaica, packs a 19.5 scoring average and has been nabbing 12 rebounds per outing.

"He looks chunky and slow at first glance, but I don't think there's anyone in the state who can cover him man-for-man. When he gets the ball, you're immediately on defense," says Butler.

David (Highpockets) Nowlin, a lanky 6-5 Breckenridge product, adds backboard strength and a steady eight point punch. Then there's Freddie Marshall, fourth Negro in the starting quint, a six-footer, who crams the ball on his way down.

Marshall can leave his fingerprints atop the pointed rectangle on Ranger's glass backboard. The Crockett native averages 10 points and as many rebounds.

Playmaker Bob Hughes, from Syracuse, N. Y., is Ranger's defensive hawk. In the Cisco showdown, Hughes held Preston Sheard to 12 points for 30 minutes, far below the Wrangler marksman's 30-point average.

"He puts his heart on the floor," says Butler. "It would not make him any difference if we were playing a Class B high school or the national JC champs. Hustle is his game."

Butler has top reserves in Joe Bond, 6-2 soph from Bullard, and Joe Motoger, a sharpshooting freshman from Oakdale, La.

Ranger's administration lends full support, but it's hardly surprising School president Dr. Ted Nicksick was a front-line member of Texas Wesleyan's fabulous quintet of the late 1940s that featured Clifton McNeely and Herdie Fortenberry.

The season's only loss was to Wharton, 88-74, and since the Rangers have won 13 straight.

Once the mid-semester lull ends, there's a rematch with Cisco on the Wranglers' court.

"That's like parachuting into Russia," frowns Butler.

Mike Davis, a member of the sports staff of The Abilene Reporter-News, visited the RJC campus Thursday afternoon and wrote an impressive story which appeared in the Sunday edition of the Key City newspaper.

"Ranger Relishes Winningest Club" was the headline on the story which follows:

Some 49 years ago, October of 1917 to be exact, this Big Country town was gobbled up by an oil boom and the Roaring Twenties was one step around the corner. Big names were Hasaman, McClesky, Gholson, Marston and Gordon.

Flip the time matching five decades and Ranger finds itself engulfed in another golden era—winning junior college basketball. Now the words echoed on main street and across the kitchen table at dinner are McClendon, Butler, Robertson, Hughes, Marshall, Nowlin and Bond, all big components of the Ranger Junior College basketball team.

And for those interested in this community's historical dates, the best is yet to come

That will be Feb. 17 when the Rangers pack their bags and head west to Cisco for the Region V junior college clash of the year.

The word going around town, and it is a fairly safe assumption, is there isn't a calendar in town without a notation on it by Feb. 17. Probably the biggest mark is on Coach Ronald Butler's door calendar in his office on the east wing of the field house. The Cisco game is the one that his team must play its best because the Wranglers don't lose very often on their home court.

Ranger, made the National Junior College Athletic Association's top 20 list last week on the credentials of a 15-1 won-lost mark as the winningest club in the nation. Three other nationally-ranked teams—Mineral Area of Missouri, Wharton and Lamar of Colorado—had 14 victories for the season.

The Rangers, seeded 20th behind other Texas teams, Dallas Baptist (fourth) and Wharton, (eighth), made their sterling impression in the heart-pounding 89-87 overtime victory over Cisco nine days ago.

The person responsible for the winning bucket is one Coach Butler classifies as UNCANNY. "He is actually uncanny because I can think of no better way to describe him," said Butler.

Larry Robertson, a 6-4 freshman from New York, whipped through a long jumper with one second remaining in the overtime for Ranger's 14th victory in 15 starts.

What impresses Butler most about his prize New Yorker is his ability to offset a blocked shot and release the ball again all in the same motion. "He's done it all season," Butler said. "Once against McMurry in a pre-season scrimmage, Larry had an attempt literally stuffed down his back, but he simply hunk on and let loose with one of those over-the-head type shots and we had two points."

Robertson's talent has the major colleges drooling even though he has one year left at Ranger. "He's our best big college prospect," commented Butler. "If I had time to stay in my office I would just have to answer the phone and there will be nothing but coaches wanting some information on Robertson."

Robertson's season statistics read 20.0 points and 12 rebounds per game. That's 12 rebounds as a guard. He is third top scorer in Region V.

While Robertson hit the big two-pointer in the Cisco game and tallied 28 for the night, another lad capped high game honors with 29 points. In Oscar McClendon, who his coach calls a little lazy when things are going good, sports a 22.0 point average and is grabbing over 15 rebounds per game. The 6-5 1/2 sophomore is currently the seventh top scorer in Region V.

Tallest starter on the team is a 6-6 sophomore from Breckenridge, David Nowlin, who owns an 8.0 point average, along with seven rebounds a game.

Butler's guard with the Batman leaps is Freddie Marshall, who as a six-footer can cram a basketball leaning flat-footed. "This has all the moves and jumps with the best of them," said Butler. The Crockett sophomore alternates with Joe Bond, a 6-2 sophomore from Bullard. Marshall's scoring average is an even 10.

Teaming with the other starters is six-foot Bob Hughes from Syracuse, New York. Hughes owns the third top scoring average on the Ranger team at 13.0. "Hughes doesn't have all the talent in the world, but he plays on guts and really hangs with it for 40 minutes," said Butler.

Even in this hectic time of semester papers and grades, Ranger Junior College President Dr. Ted Nicksick found time to visit the coaching office the other day. The aggressive college president is typical of the avid Ranger basketball fan. Seems the big day will be Feb. 17. That's the biggest news and it hasn't even happened yet.

"This is the most rewarding experience in my coaching career," said Butler, a graduate of Midwestern University and highly successful coach at Carlisle High in East Texas. "When my team won 22 and lost only nine several years ago at Carlisle I thought that was a great feat and now this."

Butler wants a berth in the national junior college playoffs in his second year at Ranger. He tutored the Rangers to a 20-10 record last season.

"When we win it's great for the college and the whole town of Ranger," said Butler. "I just hope we can continue to play and win."

So do 3,499 other Ranger citizens. It would be a delayed Christmas present—something like the recent snow.

TWO LOSSES

The AFB five went into the Tuesday night fray with a 34 won-5 lost record.

The San Antonio victory Monday night gives them a record of nine victories in 17 starts.

The underdog roundball crew seemed to do everything right against the potent Rangers and held a commanding 45-39 lead at the halftime intermission.

Top scorer for the Rangers was Larry Robertson, 6 foot 4 inch freshman from Jamaica, N. Y., who bucketed 26 of RJC's total points. Oscar McClendon, 6 foot 5 inch sophomore from Houston, was second with 18 points.

Facing the scoring attack of the winners was Charles Brauner who hit the mesh for 26 of San Antonio's winning point total.

Hughes paced the Rangers against Randolph Air Force base Tuesday night, scoring 34 points and McClendon was second with an 18-point total.

The Rangers led 43-37 at halftime, but the Air Force came back strong in the last half to overcome their deficit and wind up with win No. 33.

Randolph's top scorer was Bud LeFevre who scored 27 points.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hopper are spending the week in Corpus Christi.

DEDICATION CEREMONIES for Lone Star Brewing Company's administration building at San Antonio concluded the company's most successful annual meeting. Some 500 distributors and employees saw (l to r) Floyd Schneider, general manager; President Harry Jersig and Father Stuebben, set the corner stone.

MORRIS CAMPBELL ATTENDS DEDICATION LONE STAR'S NEW ALAMO CITY BREWERY

In the 25 years that Lone Star Brewing Company has been in business, not a day has passed that there was not construction under way at the San Antonio or Oklahoma City breweries. President Harry Jersig opened the 26th annual meeting with this message before the distributors and key sales personnel. On Sunday the meeting was held at the brewery where a new administration building was dedicated and the newest addition, a partly completed bottle shop addition was shown.

Attending the 26th annual meeting were more than 500 members of the Lone Star Beer family from five states: Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and Arkansas. Lone Star Beer's distributor for Ranger, Morris Campbell, attended the meeting.

John Pitt, general sales manager, who directed the meeting, set the tone of progress when he told distributors that Lone Star Beer sales were the highest in history, with an 18.02 per cent gain in 1965 over 1964. "You know that we topped a Million Barrels for the first time in 1965," said Pitt. "This is both fiscal and calendar years. Now I tell you that we also sold a Million Barrels in Texas alone in 1965. A national trade publication quoted Lone Star Beer as having the second highest sales increase in the country."

Harry McEldowney, director of advertising, urged distributors to make the most of Jerry Watson was the leading scorer for the losers with 10 points.

The game was nip-and-tuck throughout the first half, with the half ending in a 20-20 tie.

Clyde pulled out front five points in the third period, with all five Clyde regulars scoring within a field goal of one another. Clyde stretched out their lead in the final period, taking advantage of difficulties Ranger was encountering along the foul route.

The Clyde girls won 43-33 behind the 20-point effort of Delores Brannan. High for Ranger was Kathy Rogers with 25.

floors of the RJC gymnasium. They'll be going against Panola County Junior College of Carthage.

It will be the second meeting of the two cage squads. In their initial set-to, played down at Carthage on Jan. 4, the Purple & White charges of Coach Ron Butler won a close one, 74-70.

The highly touted Rangers, after an avalanche of publicity, will be prime targets for the Panola Countians and the other six opponents listed on their battle card.

After their duel with the invaders from Carthage, Coach Butler's lads will enjoy a five-day respite from game play until Wednesday night, Feb. 2, when they re-play Hill County Junior College at Hillsboro. In their last meeting—in Ranger on Jan. 15—the Hillers fell before the Rangers, 83-70.

DEVELOPMENT OF JAZZ IS TOPIC OF AAUW PROGRAM

For a program on the theme Musical Education, Miss Dorothy Linn gave The History and Development of Jazz at a meeting of the Ranger Branch of the American Association of University Women January 20, in the home of Mrs. E. H. Bobo. She enhanced the interest of her discussion by playing selections from her record library.

Mrs. Jettie Ballenger, Fellowship Chairman, reminded the Branch that February is Fellowship month and asked ber of constructive chamber projects.

Pete also is a member of the Ranger Lions Club, the Ranger Masonic Lodge and Lone Cedar Country Club. He formerly also was active in the Ranger Jaycee organization. The well known merchant also is a former member and a past president of the Board of Regents of Ranger Junior College.

Active in church affairs, Brasher serves as superintendent of the young peoples department of the First Baptist Church.

Born and reared in Ranger, Pete graduated from Ranger High School, completed two years at Ranger Junior College and then attended Baylor University, Waco, where, in 1943, he received a degree in business administration.

At the time of his graduation from Baylor, the nation was struggling for victory over the oppressive Axis foes, and World War II was approaching its most bloody crisis and climax.

Pete took Navy cadet training and later served as a gunnery instructor at the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Fla. The young officer was separated from Navy service in December, 1945, and embarked on his furniture merchandising career here a few months later.

On March 23, 1946 came another important event in Brasher's life. That was the date on which he was united in marriage with the former Miss Betty Ann Huggins of Hungerford. The couple met while she was a student at Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

Her mother, Mrs. Alex Huggins, now resides at Wharton. The couple has three sons—Alex, 19, a freshman at Ranger Junior College; Tommy, 16, a junior at Ranger High School, and Richard, 9, a third grader at Hodges Oak Park Elementary School.

Millard Herweck of Stephenville is spending the mid-term vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wm. Herweck.

members to give to her their contributions before March. The musical program featuring the Ranger High School Band and the Ranger Junior College Music Department scheduled for February 17 has been postponed because of conflicting activities. The new date will be announced at a later time.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mmes. Jettie Ballenger, Walter Daniels, Vernon Daffebach, A. B. Halbert, R. L. Hamrick, George Robinson, J. D. Drenney, Jack Umbrson, and Misses Frances Worden and Dorothy Lina.

Mrs. Patterson Honored With Birthday Party

Honoring Mrs. Patsy Patterson on the occasion of her 76th birthday, "Open House" was held in her home, 1014 Vitalious, on Monday, Jan. 24, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Hostesses were her daughters, Mrs. E. E. Shirley of Hobbs, N. M., and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elzo Patterson of Odessa.

The Patterson family have lived in Ranger since 1906. In the busy role of housewife, "Patsy" as she is known to her friends, found time for a long and successful career in nursing and through this ministry, she endeared herself to the entire community.

During the nine-week course, Lieutenant Fenter received advanced instruction in leadership, tactics of small infantry units, map and aerial photograph reading and Army administrative procedures.

The 24-year-old officer entered the Army in October 1965. The lieutenant, a 1959 graduate of Billings, (Mont.) High School and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, received a B. S. degree in 1964 from the University of Montana, Missoula.

the control of broadcasting to insure the public of as much service as possible. However, the new FCC rules may curtail service in the Ranger, Eastland, and Cisco area, Thackerson said.

"For several years, the local cable systems have been in operation. Curtailment of its services would affect not only TV viewers, but the local economy as a whole.

"Surprisingly, the FCC has previously stated that it has no control over the CATV. In fact, the regulatory agency was twice turned down by Congress in bids for such authority.

"However, on April 23, 1965, the FCC suddenly stated that it needed no Congressional approval, claiming that it already has authority to control cable TV. As a practical matter the FCC gave an ultimatum to Congress; either pass CATV legislation by the end of the 1965 Congressional Session or the FCC rules will be put into effect.

"Embroidered in the busiest session in recent years, Congress has been unable to act on this question. Thus, the FCC has indicated it will now adopt its new rules on or about Feb. 7."

Thackerson said that the FCC is exceeding its authority.

"No regulatory agency has ever before been allowed to dictate to the viewer public," he said. "And the FCC should not be permitted to usurp this power."

"It is up to Congress to decide the nation's communications policy — not the FCC. Congress should not permit the FCC to give it deadlines," Thackerson, Coats and Taylor are urging subscribers to write to their congressman in Washington, D. C. in protest of the pending FCC action.

The Hon. Omar Burleson is the U. S. Congressman from this area and the Hon. John G. Tower and Ralph W. Yarborough are the U. S. senators from the State of Texas.

'You Gotta Have One To Vote Agin 'Em'

Some see more than irony one if they want to "strike in the traditionally - Southern their blow" against the de-poll tax, and there's more of vice. There are some 16 more state constitutional amendments to be voted on later this year, and an up-to-date poll tax receipt is the key to these and all other elections. And among voting in Texas, must have the amendments will be one for the abolishment of the poll tax as a qualifier for voting. So, those "agin 'em" are going to need that poll tax receipt.

And the days are running out. Monday, Jan. 31 is the deadline — and there's no getting around them this year if you want to vote. The federal judges considering the constitutionality of the poll tax have unconditionally recommended that Texas secure their tax receipt this year. Suits are expected by the federal government, but for now, the poll tax is qualified, if not the law of the land.

Sales are lagging in Eastland County, although a heavy rush is anticipated Monday, so the wise will make their way to the selling points (at the courthouse tax office and at sub-stations all over the county) Thursday and Friday in order to avoid the last-minute push.

The price is still $1.75, and over-age persons (60 or above) are not being issued exemptions because the law does not require them in counties of this population category. First-year voters may secure exemptions however, it is reported.

And those who favor the poll tax are quick to recommend that every other qualified voter arm himself with a poll tax to be ready for the many elections coming up this year — including local elections in April for school trustees and city commissioners, primaries in May and the ensuing run-offs as well as the general election in November and any others, including possibly local options, which may come up during the year.

Several candidates have already filed for election and many others are expected soon.

A county with a long list of qualified voters is looked upon favorably — from without and within.

"A poll tax by any other name — is still the right to vote."

Irrigation OK'ed On County Farm

An Eastland County peanut grower won state approval Tuesday to irrigate his 24-acre crop.

A. R. Townsend applied for a Texas Water Rights Commission permit to use 12-acre feet of water annually from an unnamed tributary of the South Fork of the Leon River. He told commission members that there was an existing reservoir. Townsend said peanuts were grown on a 30-acre tract in Eastland County and that he wished to irrigate 24 of those acres. The permit was granted unanimously.
