Little Grass Shacks of Blue Hawaii for six days of a three week tour will be the delightful experiences of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson who left Friday for Oklahoma City to join fellow travelers for a tour of the Western states and Hawaii where they will stay at the Wakiki Grand Hotel in Honolulu.

Former residents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Hargrave were in town last week. Object of the visit was to repair the family property, 217 S. Austin St. Charlie is now pastor of the Baptist Church at Skytok, Okla. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hargrave reside in a nursing home in Weatherford. The family has many friends in Ranger who always welcome them when they are home on a visit.

We are in receipt of publication of the AAOAGF (Ancient and Aromatic Order of Amalgamated Garlic Fanatics) reminding us that July 18-25 is National Eat More Garlic Week. They solicit our cooperation in proving that garlic is really something to be sniffed at. This clever travesty on the some seventy "National Do More Something or Another" weeks during the year reminds us that we can not be everywhere at once and sometimes even newspaper editors miss local meetings, but we do hereby promise to devote the time we might otherwise spend promoting AAOAGF to the recording of community happenings.

Busy lady is Mrs. Ruby Springer who returned from a holiday visit to Hobbs, N. M., Wichita Falls and Lubbock just in time to be the perfect hostess to fourteen guests during the rodeo... and what's more, she enjoyed every minute of it.

Wayne Matthews, owner of Ranger Rexall Drug, has a sign in his store stating "Sorry... we fired the buyer and hired a seller." This sign created quite a bit of excitement Monday.

The City Police Department had their hands full over the weekend with a rash of drunks, prowlers, and a couple of guys from the West Coast causing some excitement.

Receiving the wrist watch at the Jaycee Rodeo over the weekend was Gregg Emfinger of Eastland. Gregg was the first cowboy to ride the bareback event. The horse threw Emfinger against the steel fence causing him to receive a bad cut on his head and face. He did very well in an attempt to ride the bronc.

Receiving the saddle that was given away at the rodeo was Harless Gardenhire. He was guest of Jerry Bob Greer. Gardenhire said a good horse should be given next and he will try to be guest of Greer and maybe he will win it for his two grandsons, Don and Tim Reese of Fort Worth.

JAYCEE RODEO SCENE

Pvt. Gary Harris Completes Eight Weeks Training

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Marine Private Gary G. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Harris of 1217 Young Street, Ranger, Tex., was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-calibre pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of the Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects; hygiene; first aid and sanitation; and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join Marine combat forces.

Report On Youth Conference Made By Dorothy Ann Oliver

By DOROTHY OLIVER

"The Texas Conference Youth Tour was made up of 15 members. Our sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Davis of Austin. Sonny is the Director of the Texas Youth Conference, President of Texas Leadership Institute, and works with American Legion Boys State, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Texas 4-H Councils, FHA and other organizations. Sonny is a graduate of the University of Texas, an alumnus of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, a former Assistant Attorney General of Texas, a former military advisor to the Royal Danish Air Force, and has traveled extensively abroad. Sonny and his wife were both wonderful to us throughout our tour. I know there could not have been nicer sponsors anywhere.

"Our members met at Love Field on Saturday, June 3. My room mate, Maxie Wright, was from Roscoe. I met her for the first time just three days before we left Dallas. Rhett Smith from Eastland was the only other member of our group that I knew. After 31 days, our group had become very close. We shared so many wonderful experiences that when we arrived back in Dallas on July 3, many tears were shed as we parted... but, in August we will meet for the TYC at the University of Texas.

Now—back to Love Field, June 3rd... we left for New York by American Airlines. I had never travelled by air before and when we arrived in New York at JFK airport, I just couldn't believe it. It seemed we had just left Dallas. We were there for only three hours before boarding TWA for London. Our flight was very smooth, and I love flying now.

We took an earlier flight than was scheduled from New York and it was lucky that we did because the later plane developed trouble over the Atlantic and had to turn back to New York. So we arrived in London at 7:40 a. m. on Sunday, which was two hours too early to meet our guide... but we went through the ordeal of having our passports checked, tickets checked, and baggage claim checks. We called for a bus to come for us and finally, after a long time, we reached our hotel about 11 a. m. and found that we couldn't register until 1 p. m. so we had to eat. That was a problem too as most restaurants are closed on Sunday, but finally we found one open. I ordered a ham sandwich and to my surprise - no mustard or mayonnaise - but butter! I couldn't get for that, but learned that butter is served on sandwiches throughout Europe. We finally reached our hotel for the second time and met Nicholas, our guide for the remainder of the tour. He was a young Dutchman and is studying law at the University of London. He was an excellent guide.

Later that day Don Pierson and Harry Jordan from Eastland met us at our hotel and went with us as we visited Hyde Park and the Speakers' Corner where one can voice his opinion on any subject. In London we travelled by tube (subway) to visit Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace and saw the changing of the Guard, Parliament, St. Paul's Cathedral, Big Ben, Piccadilly Circus, and then to the Tower of London which is 99 feet high and has the revolving restaurant on the 35th floor. It is a beautiful building and from it we could get a view of all of London. It was foggy and misty, but still (Continued on Page 2)

Ranger's Newest Business Called "Henderson House"

Mrs. R. E. Henderson announces the opening of Ranger's newest business, to be called "Henderson House" located at their residence, 1000 Highway 89 W.

It was in this building that Mr. Henderson began his outwest Athletic Repair shop, a business that soon grew into a housing and, or several years been established at the corner of Pine and Austin Streets.

Henderson House offers a selection of antique and semi-antique household articles, some collectors items in furniture, Southwestern Arts and Crafts, decoupage, material or producing desired effects in interior decoration in both colonial and modern type homes.

Mrs. Henderson believes that "one man's trash is another man's treasure" and for several years has visited antique sales and made some valuable finds which, added to other things secured locally, she offers to prospective customers.

In addition to regular merchandise, Mrs. Henderson will exhibit and sell on commission basis, works of local artists.

She repeats the invitation found elsewhere in this paper, "Come and browse!"

City Police Have Busy Weekend

Two out of state hoodlums kept local policemen busy during the weekend.

Frank Lamb, Jr. and John Zila, both of California, were taken into custody by local officers and charged with fighting and disturbing the peace on Saturday night.

On Sunday night, police answered a call to investigate what appeared to be a corpse in a parked automobile. At the scene, the same men were arrested. Here they were displaying a German flag Zila claimed to be a victim of "Parrot Fever." A doctor was summoned to check the offender. It was surmised that the man had taken "pep pills." They were charged with drunkenness and placed in city jail.

Monday morning, following payment of fines, they were ordered to leave town. Needless to say, the token of their unpatriotic tendencies was not returned to the departing offenders.

Investigating officers were Moseley, Highway Patrolman Rivera, J. D. Clements, Tom Fox, Ralph Veale and three Ranger firemen.

REPORT ON...

we could see. In London, mini skirts can get no shorter and I do mean that! The boys wear mod clothes, long side burns and they keep their hair longer than mine. What a sight!

From London we went to Harwich and boarded a ship for a six-hour trip to the Hook of Holland. The sea was calm and we enjoyed this ride.

At the Hook of Holland we were met by Alec, our bus driver for the remainder of the tour. He was great and we were lucky to have such a capable and safe driver. Our modern coach was huge for our group of 15 and very comfortable.

From the Hook we went to Rotterdam and then to Amsterdam. In Amsterdam we had a canal boat ride, visited the Rijks Museum where Rembrandt paintings are displayed, and also visited a diamond factory. Some of our group could not resist buying diamonds. I didn't buy diamonds, but I did buy some real wooden shoes for my daddy and mailed them then.

They arrived here yesterday. Also in Amsterdam we visited the Tower of Tears. In Amsterdam also we found that Stalin Street had been renamed. It is now Kennedy Street.

Telephone Feeding?

Well, that's not exactly what we had in mind. Telephone feeding is another one of our ways to cut out a lot of the tedious time-consuming jobs of feeding livestock.

With our telephone feeding service, you can eliminate hauling your grain to the mill and the waiting while it's ground or mixed. You can eliminate the problem of on-the-farm storage and put that valuable space to better use. In fact, you might even eliminate the job of feeding your stock altogether, since we will deliver complete Check-R-Mix rations directly to your self-feeders if you use them.

Harvest your grain. Bring it in to us and we'll store it for you in our grain bank. When you need it, just pick up the phone and give us a call. We'll Check-R-Mix it according to the research-proven Purina specifications. And deliver it to your feeders if you like.

Sound easy? It is. Just phone us and see.

State Capital NEWS
By Vera Johnston

AUSTIN—Exercising his veto power to cut appropriations, Gov. John Connally sliced off $3,214,121 of the one-year general appropriation bill and killed 37 bills passed by the 80th Legislature.

Nine of the vetoed bills called for total annual expenditures of $12,819,760 beginning Sept. 1, 1968.

By the way of explanation of his line-item vetoes in the appropriations bill, Connally said, "I endorse the actions taken by the Legislature to provide the funds needed to meet the state's increasing services to its people. However, there are several items of expenditures for which money was appropriated that I do not consider essential or justified."

Connally deleted a $500,000 appropriation which would have allowed the New Texas Research Institute of Mental Sciences at Houston to lease and operate hospital facilities.

"This item was not requested by the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation in its budget request, nor was it included in my budget recommendations or those of the Budget Board," the Governor explained.

A $300,000 appropriation for additional Phase I construction at the Corpus Christi State School also was vetoed. Connally said it was not requested by the MHMR Department or in budget recommendations submitted by the Legislative Budget Board or by Connally. He pointed out that the 1965 Legislature appropriated $2,224,000 for the proposed school.

Connally slashed $90,000 off the appropriation for the University of Texas Medical School at San Antonio. "With construction of the medical school and teaching hospital and the recruitment of faculty and staff still in process, the number of students actually enrolled will be limited during the 1968 fiscal year," the Governor said.

Even after vetoing this item, he kept in the medical school appropriation for the 1968 fiscal year will exceed my recommendation by $85,700 and will represent a 145 per cent increase over the amount appropriated for the current year."

Also vetoed was $225,000 earmarked in the State Department of Agriculture for expanding market outlets for Texas agricultural commodities. Connally explained that "The appropriation of $225,000 duplicated in purpose a major portion of the $600,000 'special program' appropriation for marketing and market outlet research, quality research, statistical reporting and other programs relating to agriculture."

Other bills vetoed included those extending the curfew for alcoholic beverage drinking until 2 a. m. in the metropolitan counties, doubling retirement benefits for legislators and improvements in state employees' retirement benefits, prohibiting employment of youngsters under 21 in stores which sell beer and liquor, permitting broader powers for the State Soil & Water Conservation Board, allowing the State Comptroller to seize property for tax debts and sell it without court action, setting up special county boards to assess tax values on agricultural land near cities, and granting cities police powers on private property such as shopping center parking lots.

Careless Texas drivers will pay more for their car insurance on policies written after July 31. They will be charged more because of their accidents or traffic law violations during the nine months which ended May 1.

Penalties which range from 15 to 90 per cent, depending on the number and importance of the law-violation — will add up to $6,419,362 during the year starting August 1.

These penalties, feeding that much more money into the auto insurance "kitty", will prevent rate increases for most drivers.

State Board of Insurance held its annual auto insurance rate hearing and got a staff recommendation for a general rate reduction of one percent in insurance rates. It varies from area to area, and from classification of cars and drivers.

There would have been a general rate increase had it not been for the more than $6,000,000 in penalties which will be charged against the drivers who violate the law and have accidents.

Board also took under consideration a proposal that high school and college students whose grades average B or better be given a 25 percent insurance rate reduction. State Farm Insurance Co. started such a program in 1962. It found that students who make high grades drive less and have fewer accidents. Hence it is a valid basis for lower rates for those who make the honor roll of the dean's list.

Local Residents Enjoy Movies Provided By Herbert Rapp

"I can remember when there was a theater in the former Smart Shop Building, and that means I've been in Ranger for a long time."

Above remark made by Herbert Rapp, owner of Ranger Drive-In Theater led to a conversation filled with questions, the answers revealing an indomitable spirit in pursuit of a worthy goal, the fulfillment of a life-long ambition.

Herbert Rapp was born in Pennsylvania and moved with his parents to Texas as a lad of nine years. The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rapp, his father was a manufacturer of nitroglycerine and an oil well shooter who came to Ranger and stayed for the remainder of his life.

"I can't remember when I didn't want to own and operate a theater," said Herbert who recalled selling bluing to win a prize — a movie projector. As a very small boy, he was happy when staging imaginary shows with self-made equipment before equally imaginary audiences.

From the family home on Homer St., Herbert attended Ranger High School and upon graduation, attended Ranger Junior College. He worked at the Arcadia, building, taking tickets and absorbing all he could about the business.

His first ownership of a theater was in 1942 when he purchased the Rex Theater in Strawn. The draft in 1943 halted operations and the bus-

Ranger, but now, as then, he lives by the philosophy that there is a specific work for each member of God's great universe and that any goal is attainable if one is willing to devote himself wholeheartedly to the task.

He makes opportunities to boost Ranger and is ready to provide the best available in entertainment for many years to come!

Annual Handicap Tournament Set At Fiesta Bowl

Fiesta Bowl of Eastland will present the Second Annual Tournament "Handicap" on July 22, 23, and July 29-30.

The five-dollar entry fee includes $2.10 for prize fund and prize fees will be returned one hundred percent, with a prize ratio of one for each ten entries.

Entries close at midnight July 20. Entry forms carry complete information concerning rules. This six game singles tournament is for men and women. It is sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress and W.I.B.C.

During these years, Ranger's other movie houses, Columbia and Arcadia were destroyed by fire, leaving residents without a theater. It was then that Rapp chose the site on Highway 80 East, one mile from city limits on which to build Ranger Drive-In Theater.

Conveniently located with parking area for 200 cars and seating for those who prefer same and a snack bar, it is an ideal spot for an evening's entertainment. The show is open nightly during the summer months and on weekends during the winter. No effort is spared to bring to the screen the type pictures one would welcome to one's living room.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Rapp with the business are Joey Lucky, Noel Judy, and Junior Hatcher. At their residence, 713 Travis Street, the couple find relaxation and enjoy years from their 25-year-old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hagar and children, Carla, Jimmy and Jana Strawn. Montgomery Ward Traces Progress Through 95 Years

Well known is the fact that in 1872, the year following the Chicago fire, Aaron Montgomery Ward established the first mail order business and revolutionized merchandising with its money-back guarantee of customer satisfaction. Little known, however, is the pioneering done by Montgomery Ward and Co. in the field of employee relations. Policies and benefits today regarded as recent innovation were instituted by Wards over 50 years ago. The 95-year old company's archives disclose the following examples.

Wards had a medical director in charge of a free clinic for employees back in 1890. In 1904 the company began publication of one of the first employee magazines. This was a digest-size monthly of 32 pages and more called "Among Ourselves," which subsequently evolved into the present tabloid called "Forward."

On July 1, 1912, a contract was signed with the Equitable Life Assurance Society which established the first group life and medical insurance program ever provided employees of a major corporation. The benefits were liberal and the company paid all premiums.

In addition, as part of the "Economic Plan" inaugurated that same year, the company introduced the employee incentives of profit sharing and stock distribution; also established a savings and loan association for employees and free study classes for self-improvement.

Other amenities provided about 1912 were a co-educational "social dancing" school, a full-fledged concert orchestra, and a unique "malted milk plan" - forerunner of the coffee-break. Double malted milk was served gratis to all employees at 10:00 and 3:00 daily. In explaining this plan, an employee handbook of the period frankly stated: "It has been observed by students of economics that a worker will apply himself with an upward curve of efficiency until about 10 o'clock in the morning. From then on the curve dips until about lunchtime. After the refreshment of food and rest, he works very well until about three in the afternoon - then he begins to lag again and reaches his lowest mark about a half-hour before closing time. A plan for anticipating and preventing these periods of exhaustion should assure a decided saving in health and energy... In so large a store many come to us after hasty or insufficient breakfasts. They cannot do good work on empty stomachs, and the 10 o'clock malted milk supplies the necessary food and heat units for the day's required energy."

Company records list the interesting detail that in the month of Dec. 1915, 12,000 glasses of the pepper-upper were served to Ward's Chicago store employees, at a cost to the company of about $500.

Beyond this, Ward employees even prior to World War I were the beneficiaries of increasingly expanded health facilities, which included an estate in the country, at Wrenville, Ill., which was operated as a rest home and vacation spot for female employees.

Perhaps the ultimate in consideration for employee health was the loaning of umbrellas to employees when it was raining at the closing hour and the supply of shoes, stockings and skirts available to women caught in rain coming to work - while their own clothing was dried and readied for wear home that night!

A company Welfare Department was maintained for many years to assist employees in all types of personal difficulties.

All of this preceded legislation of welfare by more than 30 years. The reason for it all was candidly spelled out in the preface to an early Montgomery Ward employee handbook: "We do not practice philanthropy of the old order; we do not offer soporifics. It is all a matter of working efficiency - a means of showing people how to help themselves by helping us."

Local Scout Council Gains 3-State Honor

The Comanche Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, which this city is a part, has earned two top honors among the 55 councils in the state Region Nine (Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico), Council President Manley A. Webb announced this week.

Our council is ranked in first place in percentage gain in boy membership, the basic statistic in council rankings," Mr. Webb said. "We have a 19 per cent gain in boy membership over May of 1966. The second place council, Fort Worth, had a 10 per cent gain. Our boy membership May 30, 1967, was 1730, compared to 1,432 a year ago."

"In addition," Mr. Webb added, "We ranked in first place in percentage gain in Boys' Life magazine subscriptions—and 12th in the national rankings." We do not sell Boys' Life for a commission, we believe that good reading habits are important as a part of the overall Scouting program. We are very happy that more boys than ever before are reading this fine boys' magazine in our council."

Mr. Webb further stated that the council's leaders feel that the present records being established by the Comanche Trail Council are a direct result of this long-range plan adopted by the council in December 1965. Other results of this long-range plan have been the addition of another member of the council's executive staff, and the successful completion of a camp development fund effort in May 1967.

In this city, the Comanche Trail Council receives its funds through the United Fund, however, only 60 per cent of the council's operating funds are raised in this manner, the balance being obtained through sustaining memberships. All funds for the operation of the Comanche Trail Council are received from donations, no tax funds support Scouting in any way anywhere in the United States.

DOVE CENSUS TAKEN

AUSTIN—Recently completed mourning dove call or coo counts indicate virtually no change in the breeding population from last year, according to Ted Clark, state-wide dove project leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Chisholm Trail Commemorated By Book, Coin

AUSTIN—Roger Conger of Waco, chairman of the Texas Chisholm Trail Centennial Commission announced that as part of the centennial celebration of the founding of the Chisholm Trail, two official commemorative items have been issued—a bronze medallion and a soft-bound edition of the "Miracle of the Chisholm Trail."

The bronze medallion is embossed on one side with the outlines of the state of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas and shows the route the Chisholm Trail took across the three states from its beginnings in south Texas to its end at the railroad in Abilene, Kansas. On the reverse side is a scene symbolic of the Chisholm Trail—it depicts a cowboy heading range longhorns "up the trail". This scene is encircled with the phrase "Centennial of the Beginning of the Great Cattle Trail Era."

A centennial edition of the book, "Miracle of the Chisholm Trail", by Henry B. Jameson has been published. For his colorful retelling of the Chisholm Trail story, Jameson traveled the entire length of the route from Brownsville, Texas to Abilene, Kansas, making numerous side trips to special historical sites along the way in all three states.

Conger said the items are selling for $1 each and may be purchased from either the mobile Chisholm Trail museum now traveling the three states or from the Texas Chisholm Trail Centennial Commission. Their address is Post Office Box 12276, Austin, Texas 78753.

Golden Eagle Passport Sales Show Increase

AUSTIN—The vacation season and the increasing numbers of outdoor vacationers have caused a flurry of activity in the Parks and Wildlife Department's sales of Golden Eagle Passports, according to C. L. Friou, assistant director of administrative services.

The acceleration began around the first of June, with the vacation season, and has increased ever since. Friou said the increased sales indicate vacationers are spending more of their vacation time in the outdoors.

A Golden Eagle Passport, costing seven dollars, will admit the purchaser, regardless of his mode of transportation and without further payment, any number of times to all designated Federal areas collecting entrance fees.

There are more than 2,000 of these areas in the United States, with some 68 in Texas alone.

Monies collected from the sale of Golden Eagle Passports are earmarked by Federal law for outdoor recreation. So far, some 60 per cent has been apportioned back to the states or through the states to local communities on a matching basis to provide near-to-home outdoor recreation areas.

Persons wishing to participate in Operation Golden Eagle may obtain their passport by mailing their seven-dollar check, made payable to "U. S. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation," to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas, 78701.

Value of Texas Land, Products Still Going Up

COLLEGE STATION—Texas farms and ranches continue to grow in size, value, and products sold, according to Tom E. Prater, Extension farm management specialist at Texas A&M University.

Farm and ranch value (buildings and land) reached $79.025 per farm or ranch in 1964 as compared to $51,707 per unit in 1959. The value of buildings and land has increased from $82.11 per acre in 1959 to $114.20 per acre in 1964.

Prater said the 1964 U. S. census showed investment per farm or ranch in buildings and land alone exceeded $100,000 in 117 Texas counties. An investment of $200,000 was exceeded by 46 counties, and 14 counties exceeded an investment of $300,000 per farm or ranch for land and buildings.

The average size of the Texas farm or ranch increased 60 acres from 630.7 in 1959 to 690.9 in 1964.

Farm products sold in 1960 amounted to $2,108,880,646 as compared to $2,227,339,392 in 1964. The average per farm or ranch for 1960 was $9,306 and in 1964, $10,839.

Hale County sold $61,815,031 in farm and ranch products in 1964 to lead the state in total value of products sold. Other counties close to the top in farm and ranch products sold were Lubbock, Hidalgo, Lamb, Parmer, Castro, Deaf Smith, El Paso, Floyd, Wharton, Cameron, and Swisher, Prater said.

Dr. Ball's Hobby . . .

Rattlesnake In Striking Pose Is Prize Winner For Cisco Physician

The handsome Texas rattlesnake in striking pose above was the painstaking work of Dr. D. Ball, veteran Cisco physician, whose interest in photography has grown over the past two decades.

The picture, as you might guess, won for Dr. Ball a prize in the yearbook of a national photographer's organization.

The props included a sun fried skull of a Texas steer and a live rattlesnake. The latter had to be trapped and handled with care. To get ready for the picture, Dr. Ball placed the skull before the proper background. He used tiny cord to tie the snake to the area of the skull. He then set his camera up on a tripod and got set. He did a lot of talking and coaxing before the snake rose up, shook its rattles and got "shot" with a 4x5 Super Graflex.

Dr. Ball figured that it took him about 20 minutes to do the actual photography job after the props were assembled.

you consider another Dr. Ball project — photographing birds in their nesting operations. He spent an hour and a half each day for several weeks crouched before a hole in his attic with his camera focused on a bird's nest. He was shooting native Texas birds in color.

The bird pictures also went into the photo contest but came back without comment.

To make pictures of native flowers and wildlife, Dr. Ball has made a good many trips to the Big Bend country and to the Rocky Mountains. He plans a trip this year to Glacier National Park to fish and make pictures. He has been using his camera for 15 years, and has a fine collection of nature picture slides — flowers, animals, etc.

The "staging" of picture is another hobby of Dr. Ball's. He recently took a rattlesnake picture that shows the rattles blurred as if in motion. The picture was enlarged to about 17x22 inches and mounted in his office. A snake's rattle was mounted on an electrical gadget so that when he presses a button, you hear the rattles.

Dr. Ball reported that everyone seems to come to alert attention while viewing the picture and hearing the rattles.

Another of Dr. Ball's projects was the natural size enlargement of a huge rattlesnake. The rattles were "doctored" until the snake in the picture had about 25 rattles. This picture was displayed at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce for several days and attracted considerable attention.

Dr. Ball receives frequent invitation to show slides and talk about them at club meetings and he accept as many of these invitations as he can. He shows them, too, at church gatherings and for shut-ins.

Dr. Ball is a native of Johnson County and is a graduate of North Texas State and the University of Texas Medical School at Galveston. He interned at John Sealy hospital, Galveston.

In 1919, Dr. Ball came to Cisco and set up his practice.

He has been hard at it ever since. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge here and of the "Temple Shrine." He is a member of the First Baptist Church and was a charter member of the Cisco Lions Club.

Dr. Ball and his wife are the parents of three children — N. R. Ball of the Quartermaster's Corp in Gissen, Germany; Mary Ball Black, Abilene; and D. Ball, Jr., Big Spring.
