4 Voting Boxes in County Abolished, 8 Remaining Numbered Logically

Four voting precincts have been abolished in Eastland County in compliance with recent legislation, and the remaining eight boxes have been re-numbered for easier identification.

Action came at the County Commissioners' Court meeting Monday when the Kokomo, Nimrod, Pioneer and Scranton boxes were declared abandoned and transferred into others.

Only box transfer question was the one at Kokomo, which could have been transferred to Carbon or Gorman. Commissioner Dick Foster suggested that Gorman would probably be best because most of the voters in the Kokomo precinct are generally closer to Gorman.

The Nimrod and Pioneer boxes are transferred to Rising Star (they are in the same commissioners' precinct); and voters who have cast ballots at Scranton will now go to Cisco. The changes become effective next Jan. 1.

The remaining eight boxes were re-numbered as follows: Eastland, One; Olden, Two; Ranger, Three; Desdemona, Four; Gorman, Five; Carbon, Six; Rising Star, Seven; and Cisco, Eight.

This was the first major revision of voting precincts in the county since 1958 when there were some 23 boxes. At that time, the number was reduced to 13, and in the early 1960s, the Okra box (No. 9) was consolidated without any re-numbering and since that time the county has had boxes numbered through 13, but only 12 boxes.

County Democratic Chairman A. E. Crawley of Ranger attended the meeting and assisted in the discussion of the voting place changes. The placement of the Kokomo box into Gorman will clear another point which at times has caused confusion in that the Staff box (near Lake Leon) placed in the Gorman box. Now, Staff, Kokomo and Gorman precincts are all together. (The law specifies that boxes cannot be "jumped" across other precincts).

The over-all re-shuffle is being met with general appreciation because of the confusion it will save and there has been no opposition to the changes, it was reported. The new law restricts the number of registered voters to above 50, and many counties in the state have been making revisions to comply.

Vote tabulators in this county are especially happy with the changes because their latest returning boxes were invariably the smaller ones, and more than a few can remember an election night not so many years ago when a box was slow coming in. An election worker called the judge at the box, who had already gone to bed without reporting his returns, and was told, "Wait just a minute and I'll get my shoes on and go out on the porch and get the ballot box."

Mr. Crover stated that he is happy to return to Ranger and is enjoying renewing acquaintances and making new friends. He invited area residents to drop by for a visit and for any service he is able to render.

Survivors include his wife and one son.

Other towns receiving reduction in rates are Coleman, Merkel, Rotan, Eastland and Throckmorton.

Mrs. Brazda has been active in club and church activities where her leadership ability was recognized and her counsel frequently sought. For the past three years she was employed at Ranger Junior College as matron of the girl's dormitory.

Members present were Peggy Swafford, Phyllis Shinn, Mona Christian, Charlene Summers, Johnnie Roberson, Wanda Guess and Barbara Thackerson.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, Sept. 14, place to be announced.

Cody and Jane Ann Bradford were named reserve all-around Champion Cowboy and Cowgirl at the Breckenridge Junior Rodeo Saturday night.

Cody won his title by roping his calf in 65 seconds to win first in that event. He also won third in barrel race and third in cow milking.

Jane Ann won first in barrel race, third in flag race and third in pole bending to capture her title.

Cody and Jane Ann are son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bradford, Route 3, Ranger.

Ranger Will Receive Cut In Insurance Rate

Ranger is one of six big country towns to receive a cut in fire insurance rates according to the State Board of Insurance in Austin.

Key rates are decided by the State agency through a system of charges for fire hazards and credits for fire prevention practices in Texas towns and cities.

Key rate for Ranger will be 37 cents, replacing a 38 cent rate which represents a saving of about $47 next year.

Ranger had a total of 43 cents in charges, due to power for pumping units not up to standards, supply main not in duplicate, 29 per cent of mains deficient in size in mercantile district, 40 per cent of mains deficient in residential districts and 11 per cent deficient in residential sections.

Other towns receiving reduction in rates are Coleman, Merkel, Rotan, Eastland and Throckmorton.

SHOOTING hours for mourning doves in this region begins at 1 p. m. daylight saving time on Friday, Sept. 1, and the outlook is average to below, according to Game Warden Maurice Dry. Since the dove is a migratory bird, hunting should improve with cooler weather. Food and water supply for them is pretty good in this area.

You'll need a hunting license if you expect to get out of your home county. They're available locally at the usual places. The new season for licenses begins Sept. 1 and you might as well get your fishing license at the same time. The hunting license fee is $3.15 and the fishing permit is $1.65 more.

The season extends to Oct. 30 on doves. Bag limit is 12 per day.

Dry says the sunflower fields now are the best bets for birds.

Deer season is Nov. 11 to Jan. 1, and you can shoot 3 this year but no more than 2 bucks.

Quail season is Nov. 11 to Jan. 31, and there's a good city this year. You can shoot 12 per day with no more than 36 in possession.

Happy, hunting and take care.

Miss Barbara Kilgore Becomes Bride of Larry Neal Sullivan

Barbara Ellen Kilgore became the bride of Larry Neal Sullivan in vows recited at 6 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 26, at the altar of First Baptist Church in Waco.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Jackson
Kilgore, 305 Guitard, Waco;
Rev. and Mrs. Avery J. Sullivan, 75 Cherry St., Ranger, are parents of the bridegroom.

A tree of candles and twin candelabrae with greenery formed the background before which Rev. Avery Sullivan, Dr. Henry J. Flanders, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Waco and Rev. Joseph C. Daniels, Stamford University, Birmingham, Ala., read the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. J. Wimpee of Waco was organist. Selections included the processional
"Praise Ye The Lord," Ye Heavens Adore Him" and the recessional "The Heavens Are Telling." During the ceremony, Miss Gayle Wimpee of Waco sang "O Perfect Love" and directed a group of singers of "Praise to The Lord, The Almighty."

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Ann Shrager; bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Har-rall, Misses Penny Herring, Becky McNair, Sherry Sullivan and Sherry Smith. Attending the groom as best man was Zack Deal III;
groomsmen were Bud Surratt,
Larry Evans, Jim Nelson,
Tommy Jacks, Paul Narral and Denny Ewing.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheath of crystal crepe with full-length cage of re-embroidered English net with a baroque pearl centering each flower. The skirt extended into a chapel train bordered in crystal crepe. Her shoulder length mantilla of English net was edged in matching crepe. She carried a white orchid surrounded by English ivy.

Bridal attendants were attired in identical gowns of gold peau de soie caged in champagne-beige lace. They carried small sprays of English ivy.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a cage of green lace worn over oyster white crepe. Light green accessories and white orchid corsage completed her ensemble. The groom's mother was wearing a two-piece beige double knit suit, harmonizing accessories and white orchid corsage.

Reception followed in the drawing room, Union Building, Baylor University.

A silver candelabra with white tapers and flowers formed the centerpiece for the bride's table from which wedding cake and punch was served. Orange tapers in muted brown holders, yellow flowers and greenery adorned the groom's table where chocolate cake and coffee were served.

MRS. LARRY NEAL SULLIVAN

For a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast, the bride was wearing a gold silk suit, avocado green accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Sullivan is a graduate of High School and Baylor University. At Baylor, she was a member of the Athena Club, Student Congress and Latent Society.
Her husband is a graduate of Ranger High School and Baylor University. At Baylor, he was in the Honors Program, member of Student Congress,
Alpha Phi Omega, Omicron, Delta Kappa, Alpha Chi and listed in Who's Who in colleges and universities for 1966 and 1967.

The couple will live in Washington, D. C., where he will enroll for graduate study in George Washington University.

Parents of the bridegroom hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Ramada Inn.

Lavery Is Buried In Final Services Held Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. Wednesday for Harold Charles (Hal) Lavery, 70, former Cisco city secretary, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church with Father Robert C. Wilson, pastor, officiating. Mr. Lavery died at 4:45 a. m. Monday in Ranger General Hospital after an illness of about three months.

Burial was in the family plot at the Evergreen Cemetery in Ranger with Rust Funeral Home of Cisco in charge of arrangements. Rosary was recited at 8 p. m. Tuesday at Rust Chapel.

Mr. Lavery, who retired last Jan. 1 after serving for 26 years as Cisco city secretary, was born Jan. 2, 1897, at Claridon, Penna., and received his high school education there. He was a graduate of the St. Mary's College at Warren, Penna.

Following service in World War I, Mr. Lavery spent some 18 years as a golf professional, including employment with the country clubs at Warren, Penna., Wichita, Kansas, for 12 years, and at Brownwood, Texas, for four years. He was an occasional player in early day pro circuit tournaments, and the family has many trophies that he won.

Mr. Lavery retired from golf after being injured in an auto accident in the late 1930s. He served for five years as city secretary at Ranger before coming to Cisco.

The work of Mr. Lavery as Cisco city secretary was responsible in a large part for the city's recovery from a bad financial condition, Mayor W. W. Sawyers told The Press. "Hal's work contributed very materially to the stable financial condition that we enjoy today," Mr. Sawyers said.

Mr. Lavery was a member of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church.

Surviving Mr. Lavery are his wife of Cisco; one son, Charles, of Cisco; a step-son, Worth Carlin, of Corpus Christi; a step-daughter, Mrs. Charles Krueger, Cisco; two brothers, William F. Lavery of Cushing, Okla., and A. J. Lavery, El Paso; one sister, Mrs. Sallie Overly, White Oak, Texas; and eight grandchildren.

Named as pallbearers were James McCracken, D. H. C. Brown, Anton White, Jack Rawson, and S. R. Alexander, all of Cisco, and William Bourdeau, Jr., of Ranger.

Honorary pallbearers were named as follows: Lewis Starr, A. G. Sander, Tom B. Stark, J. L. Stafford, Con Collins, Sutton Crofts, Arlin Agnew, Byron Gleason, Jim Hanlon, E. L. Jackson, J. W. Slaughter, Billy Reynolds and Nick Stilller, all of Cisco.

MR. AND MRS. GENE AGNEW and $2,000 Check!

Ciscoans Win $2,000 In National Contest

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Agnew of Cisco have won $2,000 as 1st place in a nationwide survey and drawing conducted by the American Research Bureau, Beltsville, Maryland, according to a letter received Saturday from Peter Langhoff, president of ARB.

They agreed to help, and for five days, when they listened to their radio, they noted the time, station, call numbers of the station, and type of program—music, news, variety, etc.

At the end of the five days, the Agnews put a number given them by the bureau on the diary, and returned it to ARB. A drawing was held Thursday, Aug. 24, and the Agnew's "lucky number" was drawn as grand winner.

What are the plans for the $2,000? "Well, I'm going shopping one day," Mrs. Agnew said. "And we're going to remodel and add to our house. The rest will be put into a savings account."

Mr. Agnew is employed by Lone Star Gas Co., and Mrs. Agnew is employed by Dr. Paul M. Woods. They have two children, Cheryl, 7, and Allen, 6, and live at 704 East 21st St.

Mrs. Agnew is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglas, and Mr. Agnew's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arlin Agnew, all of Cisco.

Cisco Couple Wins Lone Cedar Bridge

Five tables of bridge players from Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, Gorman, Stephenville, Houston and Fort Worth played bridge Saturday afternoon at Lone Cedar Duplicate Bridge Club.

Winners were announced as follows: first, Mrs. Dick Bearman and Mrs. E. L. Graham, both of Cisco; second, Mrs. James P. Morris of Ranger and Lloyd London of Cisco; third, Mrs. Keith Whitt of Gorman and Mrs. Charles Sandler of Cisco; and Mrs. Pat Crawford and Mrs. Frank Weaver, both of Eastland. Mr. London is club director.

BIG TIME WRESTLING EVENTS IN EASTLAND TUESDAY NIGHT

Wrestling will come to Eastland Tuesday, Sept. 5, at 8:30 p. m. at the Old Eastland High School gym, sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi of Eastland.

Four matches will be on tap for wrestling fans. The main event will be for the North American Tag Team Championship. Don "The Lawman" Slaton and Dory Funk Jr., the North American champions, will be putting their belts on the line against the giant Negro wrestler, Thunderbolt Patterson, and The Duke.

Slaton is a former Olden High and Cisco Junior College athlete who lived in Eastland. He will be returning Tuesday night to wrestle in his home town. He has been a professional wrestler for 10 years, and is his first appearance in Eastland. The Lawman stands 6'5" and weighs 245 pounds.

His partner, Dory Funk Jr.,

is another popular wrestler, and is a big favorite in this part of the country. He is one of the top wrestlers in the world today.

They will be taking on two of the most savage wrestlers—Thunderbolt Patterson and The Duke. Thunderbolt Patterson is the most savage wrestler to ever come to Texas. He will stop at nothing to win a match and he is notorious for cutting up his opponent with brass knuckles. His partner, The Duke, is equally as mean and vicious.

The Lawman and Dory Jr. will have to be at their best to keep their belts and defeat these two in Eastland Tuesday night.

The semi-final will be the girl wrestlers, Evelyn Stevens vs. Kathy O'Brien. These are two top girls in wrestling, and they combine blinding speed and great wrestling skill that keep the fans standing with excitement.

A special grudge match between The Lawman and Thunderbolt Patterson will be featured. The Lawman will be asked for this special match in Eastland because of the grudge between them. These two men have been after each other for weeks and every time they meet, it turns into a bloody brawl.

Dory Funk Jr. will also go against The Duke.

The matches are sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi of Eastland. Advance reservations may be made by calling Eastland Supply Co., 629-1595. Admission will be $1.50 ring-side; $1.25 general admission; and $1 for children under 12.

Special referee will be Dale Slaton, former All-State football player at Eastland High School.

County Opens Bids on Truck

County Commissioners opened bids on a dump truck for Commissioners Precinct Four (Cisco) Monday and awarded the contract to supply the truck to the low bidder, Kay Chevrolet of Cisco.

Two bids were received and the low bid was $27,785.52.

Miss Sue Dickerson, Lester Humbles Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Humbles will be at home in San Angelo following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M.

The bride is the former Sue Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Dickerson of Trent. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Humbles of Pineville are parents of the bridegroom.

Vows were exchanged Saturday in First Baptist Church of Trent with the Rev. Bill Irvin reading the ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Marvin Sharp; vocalists were Misses Betty and Donna Sharp and Mrs. Freddy Kiser.

Maid of honor was Gloria Goolsby of Nocona and bridesmaids were Diana Morrison and Diana Lewis.

Patti Bird was flower girl; Carey O'Dell, ring bearer. Best man was Charles Haggard of Stephenville. Groomsmen were Joe Bond of Denton and Jerry Dickerson, brother of the bride.

James Casady of Odessa and Jerry Dickerson seated guests.

Diana Brooks of Abilene and Cindy Brooks of McLean lighted candles.

Mr. Dickerson presented his daughter in marriage. Her formal gown of satin bore appliques re-embroidered with seed pearls on bodice, skirt and waltz train bordered with lace. A pearl tiara held her veil of illusion. She carried glimmellias on a Bible.

Bridal attendants wore yellow cotton satin dresses and carried green carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Trent High School and received an associate of arts degree from Ranger Junior College where she was cheerleader, member of Phi Theta Kappa, college choir, football sweetheart, basketball sweetheart, and Miss RJC.

A graduate of Pollock High School, La., he also holds the Associate of arts degree from RJC. He was captain of the basketball team, Mr. RJC, basketball team and assistant editor of the yearbook. He was a summer employee of Gooch Packing Co., Abilene.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Noah at 301 Oak St., Merkel.

ANN JACKS

Engagement Is Announced Here

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley L. Jacks of Stephenville announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ann Jacks, to Jerry Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cole of Ranger.

Wedding vows will be exchanged in the home of the bride's parents at 9 a. m. Saturday, Sept. 2 with the Rev. Odie Carruth, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, officiating.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Ranger.

Wedding Shower Honors Mr. and Mrs. Herrington

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Herrington, who were married Aug. 6 at New Hope Baptist Church, were honored with a shower of gifts at the Lacasa Community Center, Friday evening, Aug. 25.

A large crowd gathered and they presented a long table laden with gifts. These were opened and viewed by the crowd.

Carrying out the bride's chosen colors of yellow and white, the register table was decorated with a white cloth and yellow flower arrangement and the refreshment table with a yellow linen cloth with an arrangement of white daisies with yellow centers.

Refreshments consisted of white cake squares and yellow punch.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sharp, parents of the bride, Miss Nettie Suddreth, Mrs. Mary Crabb, Mrs. Phelton Herrington, and Mr. and Mrs. Toots Botts from Ranger, Wanda Nickels from Caddo, and Mrs. Oleta Jackson from California.

Hostesses were Mrs. Mabel Jackson, Mrs. A. O. Templeton, Mrs. G. V. McGowen, Mrs. Toots Botts, Mrs. M. A. Truesdell, Mrs. J. C. Bradford, Mrs. Robert Bradford, and Mrs. D. B. Raney.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt phens and son, Clay Jose, Calif., were guests in the home of aunt, Miss Anna M. Purpose of the trip to was to attend the funeral of the grandfather and grandfather of Curt phens, father of Lonnie phens, former Ranger dent, died in a nursing in Fort Worth last week.

Among Ranger friends attending the Meyers-T wedding in Comanche on Sunday evening were Miss via Robinson, Mr. and R. W. Gordon, Mrs. Matthews, Ella White Loretta Johnson, Norman Davenport, Bates and Harry Henry

For Local Businessmen

Beginning September 1, 1967, Federal Reserve Banks will not accept customers' drafts or checks on which the printed name of the bank has been changed.

In order to expedite the handling of your account, if you do not use personalized checks, we suggest that you see us about ordering some.

The avalanche of checks has caused automation of banking, and only those personalized checks which carry the customer's coded bank number printed on each check, can be used.

In order to serve your banking needs best, we're asking that after September 1, you do not accept any draft check or any check on which your customer has changed the bank's name. We solicit your help in encouraging your customers to use their own personalized checks for each transaction.

In the event that is necessary for you to accept such checks, we'll ask you to handle them separately from your regular deposit, because special handling will be required. Make a separate deposit slip for such checks.

WHAT IS A "CHANGED" CHECK? — One on which the printed name of a bank has been scratched out, and another bank's name written. High-speed, electronic scanning equipment, now in use cannot "read" such changes.
