THAI STUDENT FINDS AMERICANS FRIENDLY

by Rick Theberge
"The best thing about the United States is the people.
They have been very friendly to me."

This is the comment of the new foreign student, Raywat Parnishkul of Bangkok, Thailand.

Ray, who adopted this name when his full name kept getting confused in the process of American pronunciation, has been in the United States only a few months. He arrived on the RJC campus at the beginning of the spring semester, and after a somewhat difficult period of adjustment, has begun taking an active part in most campus activities.

Ray admits that his pronunciation of English gets him into some rather embarrassing positions at times. When he first arrived in this country, he went into a restaurant and ordered "Lice." It seems that the RJC staff naturally assumed that, for Ray, Needless to say, the waiter thought it all very funny.

Ray is not a foreign exchange student in the sense that no American student has gone to Thailand to study. Instead, Ray came to this country as part of a government program which places able and willing Thai students in the U.S. for study.

Ray came to RJC because Thai officials thought it would be easier for him to learn American customs and language in a small school rather than a large university.
Ray is majoring in Civil Engineering. His courses at RJC include chemistry, English, P.
E., and algebra. He plans to enter the University of Maryland after completing his work here and after Maryland, Ray wants to go back to Thailand and work.

ing the summer.

pointment was made by journalism sponsor Floyd Walker.

BJ, RFK, & Wallace Collide in Campus Democratic Primary

RJC Ground-up
President Lyndon B. Johnson, Senator Robert Kennedy, former Alabama Governor George Wallace (represented by Don Buntun, Bob Tavernia, and Louis Langford, respectively) are scrambling furiously for votes at the RJC version of the 1968 Democratic national convention.

The RJC mock convention is a brain child of government instructor Charles Deane, which will be held at the Gym Thursday night, April 25. Attendance is required of all freshmen and history students, and all RJC students are invited to attend.

The convention will be operating along lines very similar to those followed by the national politicians. Each candidate has been given a specified number of votes which he may trade to delegates for their support at convention. The points are good in final exams.

The student body is expected to be a large one, normally held by his state. It is up to the candidates to barter for the support of these students' first votes at the convention.

Why some of the states will be determined by a series to be held prior to the convention. Students in the history classes will act as voters of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Oregon, and California.

Oregon and Massachusetts are binding that is, will actually determine how the delegates from those states will vote at the convention. The other three primaries are merely advisory in that they will tell that state's delegate how the voters in his state would vote.

As the gathering of commitments got under way and delegates jockeyed for convention votes, the action in the "smoke-filled rooms" began getting wilder and wilder. While some delegates were holding out for the offer of Continued On Page Four the highest bidder, others were listening attentively to words from old friends and old enemies—of each of the candidates. The campus action was remarkably like the behind the scenes maneuvering that goes on every election year among the men on the national scene.

The campaign of President Johnson (Don Buntun) is being managed by Jesse Cavasovic. Ullrich Cobb is campaign manager for Robert Kennedy (Bob Tavernia). Bill Holland is manager for George Wallace (Louis Langford).

The delegates and their states they represent include: Alabama, Jimmy Hatfield; Alaska, Mack Galyean; Arizona, Theo Hale; Arkansas, Johnny McGee; California, Don Buntun; Colorado, Mike Stephens; Connecticut, Richard Howell; Delaware, Henry Whitefield; Florida, David Dunson; Georgia, Ron Truly; Hawaii, Lawrence Poling; Idaho, Willie Cantwell; Illinois, Dennis Hart; Indiana, Bobby Dempsey; Iowa, Jimmy Gazzola; Kansas, Jerry Hafley; Kentucky, Nelson Oliver; Louisiana, Loresta Vesle; Maine, Lynda Brooks; Maryland, Wilma Fahring; Massachusetts, Alfred Reeves; Michigan, Edd Tom Randle; Minnesota, Jill Waisworth; Mississippi, John Langford; Montana, Don Burkhauser; Nebraska, Lonnie Coleman; Nevada, Eddy Hamilton; New Hampshire, Patty Meizer; New Jersey, Fred Clayton; New Mexico, Sherry Sullivan; New York, James McCloud; North Carolina, Charles Veale; North Dakota, Leon Abbott; Ohio, Verganna Goswick; Oklahoma, Sue Morrison; Oregon, Paul Rayfield; Pennsylvania, Doug Crawley; Rhode Island, Terry Warren; South Carolina, Wayne Ford; South Dakota, Cecilia Camacho; Tennessee, Amy Hafley; Texas, Jack Daugherty; Utah, Tommy Holmes; Vermont, Terry Bradshaw; Washington, Linda Davis; West Virginia, Mike Giant; Wisconsin, Mike Shain; Wyoming, Ron Thomas; Canal Zone, Joe Rakocny; District of Columbia, Jo Parker; Guam, Jo Ann-Hatton; Puerto Rico, Larry Currie; and Virgin Islands, Jo White.

Who will be the Democratic nominee for President of the United States? Come by the RJC Gym the night of April 25 and find out.

WHY ARE KEOTANE SALES INCREASING FASTER THAN ALL OTHER GASOLINES COMBINED?

We think it's because people who have tried Keotane, and compared it with other gasolines can tell a difference.

Will it pay you to switch to Skelly Keotane Gasoline? Can you, too, get more mileage... or more power... or both? There's only one way to find out. Try 3 tankfuls of Skelly Keotane Gasoline in your car, in your kind of driving.

WASHINGTON
"As it looks from here"
OMAR BURLESON
Congressman
17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Congress is facing action on three separate fronts. The first is, of course, providing what is needed for efforts in Viet Nam. The second is the battle against domestic crime and riots. The third to bring about a more sound fiscal policy.

While these three confounding issues hold a serious pre-occupation of the Congress, attention is being diverted from the internal security aspect of our Nation. For years we have been intensely concerned about subversive activities but because of the recent efforts towards an eye on subversive elements have not been adequate enough.

Although opinions differ among people of good intent, many of the disturbances which have been afflicting our land have been inspired by communists and radicals. Conditions have given them a catalyst and an opportunity to foment civil strife in a most severe form. These are the people who want to see a disintegration of authority, both governmental and moral. This condition has been fed by the trend in our highest courts to tolerate such action and even assume a posture making it impossible to assert authority.

A number of us in the House of Representatives and others in the Senate, are now working to formulate legislation designed to plug loopholes discovered in some of our internal security laws and close gaps that have been blasted out by Supreme Court decisions.

As an example of some of these trends, between 1919 and 1942 the Supreme Court accepted jurisdiction in only 11 cases involving communist subversive activities. Seven of these 11 were decided against the radicals and four sustained their appeal.

Since 1943 the Supreme Court has accepted 147 cases involving appeals by communists and other subversives. Of these, 93 were decided favorably for those charged and 54 against. The fact that these radicals can win cases shows the impartiality of our judicial system in which the judges of our highest courts can overlook personal repugnance and grant justice when the law demands justice. At the same time these statistics show it has gone far to accept jurisdiction in border-line cases, and has tortured the laws in such a way that there is an imbalanced weight against the safety of our Nation.

The Supreme Court recently ruled void the Law on the statute books making it illegal for subversive elements or members of an organization found to be a communist front to hold jobs in defense plants.

We propose to draft another provision which we hope to have enacted into law to cure this situation. In addition, it hoped to absolutely prevent those who have been identified with subversive groups to hold positions in a labor organization, public schools or Federal agencies. The Subversive Activities Control Board, which has been virtually paralyzed since the Supreme Court struck down laws requiring communists to register will be revitalized. Under our proposal the Board will be empowered to determine who and what is inimical to the best interest of the Country. Since the Court's decision on a number of Federal cases have left a blank for our legal protection in this regard, greater tools are needed for our internal safety.

Other probable features of legislation being drafted are protection of Federal employees from reprisals for giving information to Congressional Committees which might implicate their superior's wrong doing; making failure to surrender a U. S. passport upon request a heavy penal offense; providing severe penalties for collusion with foreign governments to evade U. S. passport regulations; deny tax-exemption status to any organization making contri-

Group Invited To Seek Medicare Insurance Plan

Eastland County residents who were born before July 1901 and have not enrolled for doctor-bill insurance under Medicare now have a last chance to sign up. Mrs. Fay Grant, field representative for Social Security, said today, "If they do not sign up by April 1, according to Mrs. Grant, they will never have another chance to be covered by the provisions of the Medicare program that helps pay doctor bills and other medical expenses. Those born 8-01 through 9-03 can enroll early in 1969 if they miss out this time." "This coverage will involve a $4.40 monthly premium, ten per cent more than those who enroll before they are 65 will pay, and will be effective July 1." Additional information regarding enrollment may be obtained at the Abilene Social Security Office, which will remain open until 9 p.m. on April 1, to accommodate all possible near last-minute decisions.

Lyndon Johnson (Don Bunton)

Robert Kennedy (Bob Tavernia)

George Wallace (Louis Langford)

BJ, RFK, & Wallace Collide in Campus Democratic Primary

Reprint Courtesy of RJC Round-up.

President Lyndon B. Johnson, Senator Robert Kennedy, former Alabama Governor George Wallace (represented by Don Bunton, Bob Tavernia, and Louis Langford, respectively) are scrambling furiously for votes at RJC version of the 1968 Democratic national convention.

The RJC mock convention is a brain child of government instructor Charles Deaton, will be held at the Gym Thursday night, April 25. Attendance is required of all present and history majors, and all RJC students local townspeople are cordially invited to attend.

The convention will be operating along lines very similar to those followed by the national politicians.

A candidate has been specified number of delegates which he may trade to gain for their support at convention. The politics are good in final exams.

Mr. Deaton, who is presented by a student in the government class, is expected number of candidates normally held by his state. It is up to the candidate to garner the support of these students and votes at the convention.

Some of the states will be determined by the RJC. Students in history classes will act as voters of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Nebraska, and Wisconsin.

Oregon and Massachusetts are binding that it will actually determine how the delegates from those states will vote at the convention. The other three primaries are merely advisory in that they will tell that state's delegate how the voters in his state will vote.

As the gathering of commitments go under way and delegates jockeyed for convention votes, the action in the smoke-filled rooms began getting wilder and wilder. While some delegates were holding out for the offer of Continued On Page Four the highest bidder, others were listening attentively to words from old friends—and old enemies—of each of the candidates. The campus action was remarkably like the behind the scenes maneuvering that goes on every election year among the men on the national scene.

The campaign of President Johnson (Don Bunton) is being managed by Jesse Cavasovic. Mr. Deaton is managing Mr. Deaton's campaign. Mr. Deaton is managing Mr. Deaton's campaign.

While there Mrs. Parrack and her hosts toured the Island. Ala Moana is one of the largest shopping centers in the world. This 50-acre enclave houses 155 shops, each integrated with cool trees, planted malls and fountains that makes rounding every corner a delightful surprise.

In the heart of Waikiki, the International Market Place with over 50 shops, restaurants and night clubs with free entertainment such as Polynesian songs and dances each night at 7 p. m. Other points of interest included Polynesian Village, Sealife Park, the Mormon Temple of Laie, Diamond Head, Waikiki Beach with all the High Rise Apts., botanical gardens, Chinese Temple, National Cemetery at the Punch Bowl overlooking Honolulu, pineapple cannery, sugar mill and other points too numerous to mention.

There was a cruise to Pearl Harbor to visit the USS Arizona Memorial where more than 1,000 dead soldiers perished in the sunken hull when Pearl Harbor was bombed on Dec. 7, 1941.

Mrs. Parrack states that she enjoyed every minute. Tunnel roads through mountains makes it a place of indescribable beauty.

Leaving Honolulu International Air Port, Mrs. Parrack arrived at Love Field, Dallas in seven hours by way of Los Angeles, Calif. Most fragile things she brought home was a box of orchids, some of the more than a hundred varieties that grow wild on the Island.

"As it looks from here"
OMAR BURLESON
Congressman

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Congress is facing action on three separate fronts. The first is, of course, providing what is needed for efforts in Viet Nam. The second is the battle against domestic crime and riots. The third to bring about a more sound fiscal policy.

While these three confounding issues hold a serious pre-occupation of the Congress, attention is being diverted from the internal security aspect of our Nation. For years we have been intensely concerned about subversive activities but because of the great demands on time, more recent efforts towards an eye on subversive elements have not been adequate enough.

Although opinions differ among people of good intent, many of the disturbances which have been afflicting our land have been inspired by communists and radicals. Conditions have given them a catalyst and an opportunity to foment civil strife in a most severe form. These are the people who want to see a disintegration of authority, both governmental and moral. This condition has been fed by the trend in our highest courts to tolerate such action and even assume a posture making it impossible to assert authority.

A number of us in the House of Representatives and others in the Senate, are now working to formulate legislation designed to plug loopholes discovered in some of our internal security laws and close gaps that have been blasted out by Supreme Court decisions.

As an example of some of these trends, between 1919 and 1942 the Supreme Court accepted jurisdiction in only 11 cases involving communist subversive activities. Seven of these 11 were decided against the radicals and four sustained their appeal.

Since 1943 the Supreme Court has accepted 147 cases involving appeals by communists and other subversives. Of these, 93 were decided favorably for those charged and 54 against. The fact that these radicals can win cases shows the impartiality of our judicial system in which the judges of our highest courts can overlook personal repugnance and grant justice when the law demands justice. At the same time these statistics show it has gone far to accept jurisdiction in border-line cases, and has tortured the laws in such a way that there is an imbalance weight against the safety of our Nation.

The Supreme Court recently ruled void the Law on the statute books making it illegal for subversive elements or members of an organization found to be a communist front to hold jobs in defense plants.

We propose to draft another provision which we hope to have enacted into law to cure this situation. In addition, it hoped to absolutely prevent those who have been identified with subversive groups to hold positions in a labor organization, public schools or Federal agencies. The Subversive Activities Control Board, which has been virtually paralyzed since the Supreme Court struck down laws requiring communists to register will be revitalized. Under our proposal the Board will be empowered to determine who and what is inimical to the best interest of the Country. Since the Court's decision on a number of Federal cases have left a blank for our legal protection in this regard, greater tools are needed for our internal safety.

Other probable features of legislation being drafted are protection of Federal employees from reprisals for giving information to Congressional Committees which might implicate their superior's wrongdoing; making failure to surrender a U. S. passport upon request a heavy penal offense, providing severe penalties for collusion with foreign governments to evade U. S. passport regulations; deny tax-exemption status to any organization making contri-

April 1 Deadline For Medicare Doctor Insurance

April 1 may be April Fool's day to the younger generation, but it is also an important deadline for many older people to keep in mind, according to R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager for Social Security in Abilene. "Many people over 65," Tuley said, "failed to sign up for the voluntary doctor-bill insurance under Medicare. Most of these have Medicare hospital protection but did not enroll in the supplemental coverage. They now have another chance but must enroll by April 1 for coverage that will become effective July 1. "For these folks a monthly premium is involved, which pays half of the cost with other Federal revenues paying the other half. Nation-wide nearly 18 million older people now have this protection, which has helped pay over 28 million medical bills, totaling nearly $1.3 billion."

Farm Producers Meet This Week At Rising Star

There will be a meeting for farm producers concerning acreage certification on Thursday, March 28 at 7:30 p. m. in the American Legion Hall in Rising Star, it is being announced by Mr. Jesse G. Meredith, of the Eastland County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Farmers are urged to attend this meeting. It is most important that a farm producer, with a price support allotment or have become acquainted with this program. Beginning this year, it will be the farmer's responsibility to certify his acreage on wheat, cotton, feed grain, diverted acres and peanuts to the ASCS Office. Mr. Meredith, the county office manager, will conduct the meeting.

WEATHER TIPS

By JAMES DABNEY
Official U. S. Weather Observer

Tornadoes .. Part III

In the previous two articles concerning Tornadoes, we have discussed the causes and warning system as set up by the Weather Bureau, Television Stations, and local law enforcement agencies. However, I might add this. If you are reading this article, and live in any municipality other than Eastland, you should check with your local police, or fire department, and ascertain their particular method of alerting in case of tornado. Various cities and towns use various methods for this and theirs might not coincide with the one in use in Eastland, which, incidentally, is not the official warning signal as authorized and recommended by the Civil Defense.

And now, for some safety precautions to take in case your area is threatened by a tornado. The Weather Bureau recommends first of all that you seek INSIDE shelter, if at all possible. Preferably, in an underground cellar, or a steel reinforced concrete building, or any substantial structure. In downtown Eastland, there are several buildings of this type: The Court-house, Petroleum Building, Exchange Building, Village Hotel, etc.

If you are in an office building, stand in an interior hallway, or basement. If you are home, and it has no basement (as most of the homes in the Southwest do not have) take cover under sturdy furniture, or heavy tables, preferably in the center of the house. And, above all....

avoid house trailers, as they are most vulnerable to wind-storms

Children in schools should go to interior hallways on the lowest floor, and AVOID going into auditoriums and gymnasiums, because of their wide and free span type of roofs.

The weather bureau also has suggestions for people who are caught out in the open and on highways. In this case if at all possible, seek immediate cover in a ravine or ditch and lie flat. If you should be in your automobile, and can see a tornado approaching, you should move away from the path of the oncoming storm at right angles, if at all possible; for example, if you should happen to be driving into Eastland from the east, and could see a tornado approaching from Southwest of town, you would want to turn right when you reach the Square, on Highway 6, and drive toward Morton Valley. This would more than likely take you away from the direction of travel of the storm.

Another good rule to follow if you are at home is to be sure to raise some windows, on the west and south part of the house, a couple or three inches. This will allow the air pressure inside the house to equalize with the low pressure in the tornado, and prevent the house from literally blowing apart due to a sudden and great difference in outside and inside pressure.

So, in summing up... keep a close watch during the tornado season, and don't take unnecessary chances... such as being caught out on Lake Leon with unstable weather approaching

If you have actually seen a tornado, and are sure of what you have seen, report it immediately to your local police, fire department, or highway patrol, giving as nearly as possible the location and direction of travel. And, be careful not to be fooled by "inversions" and cloud pockets hanging down, or a "rushing noise". This noise is also associated with heavy hail aloft, and high winds aloft, and does not necessarily mean there is a tornado in the vicinity, although tornadoes do make the same noise. And, lets hope we don't have any tornadoes.

Dolph Briscoe's Success Is Due to Years Of Hard Work

UVALDE — Hard work and Dolph Briscoe go hand-in-hand.

Work is the name of the game so far as this prominent Texas business-man-rancher is concerned because he has built his fame and reputation on just that.

Briscoe, of Uvalde, who is a candidate for the Texas governorship, is famous in the Lone Star state's farming and ranching circles for taking on tough jobs for no pay and coming up with the tough jobs well done.

Briscoe, who would be the first to deny that he is a miracle man, has the happy faculty for "coming up with a miracle," fellow Uvalde citizens and friends are fond of saying.

"He can make it do everything but rain on command," says one, "and sometimes I'd be willing to swear he can do that, too, if he puts his mind to it."

Briscoe's formula is simple: "Progress" in his mind is the keynote and action is his byword.

The gubernatorial candidate's qualifications and accomplishments are almost too numerous to mention.

He is a banker, businessman, civic leader and a former state legislator. He is married to the former Janey Slaughter, of Austin, and has three children, Janie, 17, Chip 15, and Cele, 11.

The tall, distinguished-looking Texan looks upon his campaign to eradicate the screwworm in Texas as one of the landmarks of his career.

Several years ago, when many people, including some scientists felt the screwworm pest would never be conquered in the Lone Star State, Briscoe never lost heart or faith.

He worked hard for the success of the program, and in the process, he was instrumental in saving Texas stockmen tens of millions of dollars.

Briscoe is at present completing his fourth term as president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, which directs the screwworm eradication program, and has served as president of the Mohair Council of America.

This intently-hard-driving gubernatorial candidate has been a ranchman virtually since the day he was born in Uvalde, in 1923.

His father, Dolph Briscoe, Sr., was a prominent ranchman, businessman, wool and mohair dealer and agriculture leader before him.

It was from his father that Briscoe developed his love for the land and his fellow-feeling for the men who work the land.

He is a graduate of the University of Texas and was first elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1948 where he served eight years.

He was never opposed for re-election.

During his tenure he authored the Farm-to-Market Road Act of 1949. Today more than 36,000 miles of paved rural roads are included in the Texas farm and ranch road system. He also sponsored the Rural Telephone Enabling Bill.

Briscoe was one of the major supporters of a bill to increase teachers' pay and helped launch an investigation of the Veterans' land scandal which erupted in the state in the years following World War II.

The scope of the scandal deeply disturbed the bluff, honest Briscoe since he, himself, was a war veteran and had the interests of the veteran at heart.

He entered the Army during the war as a private and was discharged as a commissioned officer after serving in the China-Burma-India theater.

Briscoe is past president of the Texas Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association, has served as a director of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, and has also served on the Texas Beef

County's Easter Seal Campaign Making Progress

Eastland County's Easter Seal Representative reported today that the 1968 Easter Seal Appeal of the Crippled Children and Adults of Texas is going well. H. T. Wilson serves as Easter Seal Appeal Treasurer for Eastland County.

The 1968 Easter Seal Appeal will finance the Easter Seal Society's rehabilitation program for children and adults in Texas. Last year the Society helped 17,622 disabled persons through its program of assistance in finding and making effective use of services for the disabled and their families.

The Easter Seal Society helps support 21 treatment facilities in Texas where children and adults are treated regardless of ability to pay.

These centers offer physical therapy, medical diagnosis, speech and hearing programs and related services to help the disabled build happier and more useful lives.

As Easter Seal Representative Mr. Wilson is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society. He can be contacted at Eastland National Bank, Eastland, Texas 76448.

When contacted for services, Mr. Wilson will request the Easter Seal Society to investigate the needs of the handicapped person and will ask that the Society advise the handicapped person of the best resources available to help him.

Mr. Wilson added that additional contributions to the Easter Seal Appeal should be sent him as soon as possible, later Sunday, April 14, as the 1968 Appeal ends East-

THE GORDON SPOT

By DeMarquis (Dee) Gordon
Eastland County Extension Agent

We have not seen the sun very much since the first of the year, but we were fortunate enough to have two pleasant days for the Eastland County Livestock Show March 15 and 16.

From all indications we had another good livestock show. Grover Hallmark, Secretary of the Livestock Raisers Association, said $1,800 were awarded to the boys and girls as premiums.

The Eastland National Bank was nice enough to prepare the premium money in book form. The crisp new bills are the pages and the attractive cover has the title "Texas Doodle Pad." The bills are glued on the edge so they will fit as pages in a note pad. This makes the premiums extra nice because they are attractive and make an easy way for the boys and girls to keep their prize money. Betty Claborn said that when she and her husband Bill went back to clean up the show barns they found only two doodle pad covers. This means that almost all the exhibitors kept their money in the pads to take home.

Gaston Boyd said his children kept their 1967 doodle pads containing the money until last summer when they went to New Mexico. One of the children tried to buy a souvenir and pay for it with money from the doodle pad. The clerk was suspicious since he had never seen money torn from a Texas doodle pad and refused to accept the money. So merchants, if a boy or girl tries to pay their feed bill or buy school supplies with a Texas Doodle Pad please take it.

If you do not know where this $1800 comes from I'm glad to tell you it comes from the merchants and other interested individuals in Eastland County. We can never thank these people enough for their support. They buy ads in the livestock show and pay premiums on market animals sold at the show auction. I firmly believe that our 4-H and FFA programs are extremely valuable to the people of Eastland County and we are most grateful to the business people for supporting these youth programs through-

I would also like to express my thanks to all the officers and directors of the Eastland County Livestock Raisers Association and the officials and superintendents of the show for their work and efforts to have this show. I doubt there is another county in Texas that has so many people who are willing to give of their time and work to have a county show.

There are also others who worked hard and some who donated trophies and banners. These include the Eastland County Farm Bureau, The Eastland Auction Co., The First State Bank of Ranger and the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association for giving special awards. The 4-H Adult Leaders Association and Home Demonstration Agents operated the concession food for the concession. The Sheriff's Posse helped by keeping night watchmen on duty throughout each night. It takes a lot of people to make up a team.
