Creighton Urges Large Vote June 1

"It is the solemn obligation of every Texan to go to the polls on Saturday, June 1, and cast their vote in the second primary election," said Senator Tom Creighton of the 22nd senatorial district, which includes Eastland County, in a visit here last Tuesday.

Senator Creighton was on a tour of his district in the interest of the campaign of Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith for Governor of Texas. Mr. Smith is in a runoff with Don Yarborough of Houston on the basis of returns in the first primary.

Absentee voting began Wednesday, May 15, and will continue for five days — through Friday 26 — at the county clerk's office. Those who expect to be out of town on election day were urged to cast absentee ballots.

"I have served with Preston Smith as a Texas senator and for six years as our lieutenant governor," Mr. Creighton said, "and I know that he is highly qualified to serve the people of Texas as their governor. Moreover, he has earned this office through dedicated service."

Senator Creighton noted that a large turn-out of voters would be necessary for Mr. Smith to be assured of victory. He pointed out that Governor John Connally's margin over Yarborough two years ago was only 26,000 votes due to a light second primary turnout.

Every county in the 22nd district except Tarrant gave Preston Smith a lead in the governor's race. He carried Eastland County. The vote for governor included these figures in this county: Smith 1572, Yarborough 740. Carr 641, Briscoe 551, Hill 538, Locke 379 and O'Daniel 289.

The county, which has more than 8,000 qualified voters this year, had only 4,887 total votes cast in the first primary.

With no election contest except the runoff for governor on the ballot, observers doubted that as many as 4,000 votes will be cast June 1.

24 People Cast Absentee Votes

Absentee voting for the Saturday, June 1, Run-Off Primary Election ends at 5 p. m.

Tuesday, May 28, County Clerk Johnson Smith reports. Through mid-afternoon Friday, a total of 24 persons had voted in person, and 34 ballots had been mailed out by his office.

Food Workshop Slated May 31 By CHD Agents

A workshop, "Convenience Foods for Family Meals", will be conducted on Friday, May 31, at 2 p. m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room in Eastland. The public has been invited to the meeting which is free.

Convenience foods are short cuts for the busy homemaker! New ideas for preparing a variety of different dishes will be shown as well as recipe sheets distributed. Often homemakers wonder how much do convenience foods cost in comparison with those prepared at home — and how much time can actually be saved by using convenience items?

The workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Janet Thomas and Mrs. Judy Dedeck, Eastland County Home Demonstration agents. All ladies that are interested are encouraged to attend.

MRS. JOHN BAILEY WILSON ... the former Margaret Faye Reeve

REEVE-WILSON VOWS SAID IN GORMAN RITES

Miss Margaret Faye Reeve became the bride of John Bailey Wilson in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, May 4 at the Gorman Church of Christ. Rollo Tinkler, uncle of the bride and minister of the Killen Church of Christ, read the wedding vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Reeve of Cisco and Mrs. Faye Callison of Gorman and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seitem, also of Gorman. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson of Eastland are parents of the bridegroom.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with an arch of greenery flanked with baskets of white gladioli and a seven-pronged candelabrum holding white tapers. A group of friends of the couple sang traditional wedding songs, "Because," "Always," "Be With Us Lord" and "The Wedding March."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of peau de soie with long sleeves. Lace appliques enhanced the skirt and bodice with a detachable train. A headpiece of peau de soie netting held her veil of silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Tommy Carr of Deedemona, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Patchke and Miss Cecilia Self. They all wore identical dresses of blue peau de soie. Their blue tulle veils were held in place with a blue pillbox and each carried a long-stemmed white carnation.

Walter Glesson of Midland served as best man. Ronnie Cagle and Joe Paul may were groomsmen and ushers.

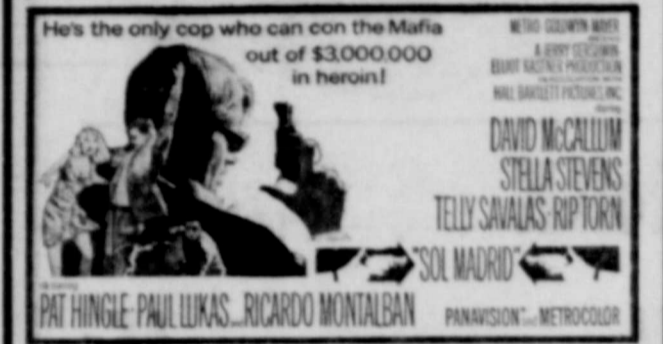

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seitem. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Gene Foster and Mrs. Rollo Tinker. Kathy Sugg registered guests.

For travel the bride chose a blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Following a wedding trip the couple is at home at 2602 Apache, Midland, Texas.

AUSTIN — State legislators will return to Austin on June 4. This time to complete the budget-writing chore they put off last year... and to pass a new $125,000,000 tax bill.

Indications are strong that the bulk of the funds will come through the sales tax route.

Gov. John Connally told reporters he is "fairly certain" he will suggest raising the two per cent sales tax rate to three per cent, then refund the increase to the cities on the basis of their 1960 populations. This would replace the present local option city sales levies adopted by 267 cities since last September.

Proposal would provide incorporated cities with $125,000,000 a year overall in state aid. State would gain $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 from the increased rate due to sales in unincorporated areas.

Other recommendations expected in Connally's sales tax package include: removing of some sales tax exemptions; taxing of services like laundry and haircuts; and increasing the auto sales tax rate to three per cent.

Governor also stated he might suggest a liquor-by-the-drink bill as part of his tax program. Legislative sources say he will suggest local option authority to sell liquor in small, one-drink-size bottles under stiff state tax and strict regulation.

Connally told reporters that overall revision of the liquor laws also may be proposed. He intends to submit no other business until financial necessities are handled.

He expressed confidence that the budget and tax bill can be passed within the 30-day limit.

If lawmakers vote the same way their constituents did on the liquor-by-the-drink referendum (May 4) the governor may have a chance with the small bottles bill. At least 82 of the 150 state representatives and 17 of the 31 senators live in districts which voted for mixed drinks, with varying enthusiasm.

Texas' law banning mass picketing in labor disputes withstood another State Supreme Court test when lower court rulings in favor of the statute were affirmed. High court agreed with intermediate Fourth Court of Civil Appeals, however, that the display of Mexican strike banners in a Laredo should not be enjoined.

Question of whether voter registration applications must be submitted individually has been taken to the Texas Supreme Court.

High court said Texas statute which allows unlimited damages to survivors cannot be applied to fatal accidents involving Texans in other states.

An Abilene man should get a full trial on his $185,000 malpractice suit against two doctors, Supreme Court held.

Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for wealthy Houston tobacco wholesaler Mair J. Schepps, who received a seven-year prison sentence on a charge of counterfeiting tax stamps.

Third Court of Civil Appeals affirmed a district court decision denying a $38,526 sales tax refund to a New York firm, which claimed it received notice of deficiency more than three years after the date taxes were due.

Texas draft quota for June has been reduced by nearly a third, says Selective Service Director Col. Morris S. Schwartz.

State quota of 1,416 men has been trimmed to 961 on the basis of a new order by Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national draft director. National quota, all for the Army, was reduced from 29,500 to 20,000 at the direction of the Department of Defense.

Call for July is expected to be only 15,000, meaning a Texas share of 700 to 750. May call was increased 43 per cent late last month (to 2,233) in order to provide some manpower for the Marine Corps, as well as the Army.

Draft boards will forward 8,500 men to examining and entrance stations next month for pre-induction physical and mental examinations. May total is 9,000.

Texas Public Safety Commission officially designated one-time high school principal Wilson E. (Pat) Seir as acting director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Seir succeeds the late Col. Homer Garrison Jr. who headed the DPS for nearly 20 years. He had been Garrison's top assistant for six years.

Seir is a veteran of more than a quarter century of service with the state police. He was born and attended schools at Gilmer, graduated at East Texas State College in Commerce and was principal of Harmony High School for a year.

Runoff campaign between Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Don Yarborough is warming. Smith boasts of his long service and slams at Yarborough's liberal record. Yarborough counters he offers new leadership and specific, progressive programs. Voters still show little interest.

Top spenders in the governor's race, Dolph Briscoe ($696,179) and Eugene Locke ($678,963) finished fourth and fifth. Leading candidate Yarborough reported he spent only $162,854. Runner-up Smith reported spending $385,537.

Food Workshop Slated May 31 By CHD Agents

A workshop, "Convenience Foods for Family Meals", will be conducted on Friday, May 31, at 2 p. m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room in Eastland. The public has been invited to the meeting which is free.

Convenience foods are short cuts for the busy homemaker! New ideas for preparing a variety of different dishes will be shown as well as recipe sheets distributed. Often homemakers wonder how much do convenience foods cost in comparison with those prepared at home — and how much time can actually be saved by using convenience items?

The workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Janet Thomas and Mrs. Judy Dedeck, Eastland County Home Demonstration agents. All ladies that are interested are encouraged to attend.

REEVE-WILSON VOWS SAID IN GORMAN RITES

Miss Margaret Faye Reeve became the bride of John Bailey Wilson in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, May 4 at the Gorman Church of Christ. Rollo Tinkler, uncle of the bride and minister of the Killean Church of Christ, read the wedding vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Reeve of Cisco and Mrs. Faye Callison of Gorman and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scitern, also of Gorman. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson of Eastland are parents of the bridegroom.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with an arch of greenery flanked

with baskets of white gladioli and a seven-pronged candelabrum holding white tapers. A group of friends of the couple sang traditional wedding songs, "Because," "Always," "Be With Us Lord" and "The Wedding March."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of peau de soie with long sleeves. Lace appliques enhanced the skirt and bodice with a detachable train. A headpiece of taupe de soie net held her veil of silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Tommy Carr of Desdemona, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Patchke and Miss Cecilia Self. They all wore identical dresses of blue peau de soie. Their blue tulle veils were held in place with a blue pillbox and each carried a long-stemmed white carnation.

Walter Glosson of Midland served as best man, Ronnie Cagle and Joe Paul May were groomsmen and ushers.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scitern. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Gene Foster and Mrs. Rollo Tinkler. Kathy Sugg registered guests.

For travel the bride chose a blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Following a wedding trip the couple is at home at 3602 Apache, Midland, Texas.
