BIG BANQUET

A GREAT DAY FOR THE DEMOCRATS OF NEW ENGLAND STATES AT NANTASKET

GUEST OF HONOR

WM. J. BRYAN OF NEBRASKA AT HEAD OF TABLE

SYNOPSIS OF SPEECHES

Senator Carmack of Tennessee and Edwin M. Shepard of New York Make Ringing Addresses—Pat Collins of Boston Presided

Nantasket, N. H., July 24.—Several hundred well-known Democrats were present at the first banquet of the New England Democratic League in the Rock Island hotel here today.

Mayor Collins of Boston presided. Speeches were made by W. J. Bryan of Nebraska, Senator Carmack of Tennessee and Edwin M. Shepard of New York.

Senator Bailey of Texas was unable to attend, but sent a letter.

Address of Edwin M. Shepard. Mr. Shepard spoke as follows:

"It is good for us to affirm the larger underlying creed upon which we are agreed whatever may be our differences in its application. It is good for us, it is useful to the country to affirm our agreement upon these questions of national policy which in this present year, 1902, are ripe for practical and present decision by the American people at the congressional election. Nor do we need, in doing this, to deny or defend or perhaps even regret the differences of past opinion whether among leaders of our party or among us of the rank and file. For Democrats equally sincere, patriotic and intelligent have, since American party life began, differed and differed widely upon practical and present applications of a party creed to which all were devoted. Nor will such differences end while we continue sound and useful."

After alluding to issues on which the Democratic party had differed and become reconciled in the past years, Mr. Shepard continued:

"Now, the latter differences over the extent to which silver may be coined at the mints or over the treaty with Spain or over military operations in the Philippines, must not and shall not prevent a genuine and triumphant co-operation of Democrats upon the questions practically pressing for popular determination at the polls. May we not renew the wise and righteous conciliations practiced by Democrats of other generations? The resolute independence of political thought illustrated by our past differences is part of the glory of Democratic doctrine and an essential condition of sound political life. The most useful American citizen is not an integral and inseparable part of any political party. His party is only his means to the political end dictated by his conscience. That is and always is Democratic doctrine. Two years ago the costly prosecution of our war of conquest in the Philippines made a present and political question—the use we shall make of the sovereignty the United States has established in those islands of the east. That question even a Republican president concedes to be an open one. If, upon the question which is now practically open before the American people, which is treated as open by the Republican president and in large part by the Republican party, the Democratic party should resort to a timid silence, it would, I believe, invite contempt even from those who, for what they deem to be a greater prospect of success would have the party stifle its deep and long time convictions.

"We cannot, however, in my opinion, truthfully say that the manner in which we shall discharge our duty on the borders of Asia is today our dominant issue. The attention of the American people is in truth fixed chiefly upon a domestic and economic question, that is whether or not there shall be continued to a number of great and enormously rich interests the special privileges which the Republican tariff confers upon them.

"We have the best of evidence that the measure of justice to Cuba which even the Republican president could not deny our obligation to grant was defeated not by any recalcitrant minority of the Republican party, but by the opinion of the Republican leaders when faced by the Cuban bill which Democratic votes sent to the senate from the house, that if justice to Cuba were done, the tariff question would be opened wide. It would, they feared, precipitate the question of justice to the great masses of the people of our own country by depriving of special tariff privileges the vast money getting combinations by which the Republican party is so largely supported. They clearly see that the tariff cannot be meddled with in one instance without inviting public attention to the iniquities of the other schedules. The American people are today thoroughly ready to deprive the great monopolistic interests of the country of the special tariff privileges which they enjoy. If the Democratic party in so doing its usual duty as it is bound to do, to the people, it has no choice. The issue of tariff reform is irrevocably at the moment."

Senator Carmack's Remarks

Senator Carmack opened his speech with a tribute to the Democracy of New England, "who," he said, "through all these years have faithfully faced this brutal Republic in majorities that exist and persist in this section of the country and who, the one of old, have always risen with renewed strength and courage from regular biennial contact with the earth."

"Let it be said in all truth and soberness," he continued, "that New England Republicanism had at least an honorable origin. Its early history was inspired by lofty ideals and surrounded with noble achievements and while we are here today in the name of an old party of Democracy, we appeal to you by those great principles that were nearest to the heart of Abraham Lincoln and of all the founders of the Republican party."

After dwelling at considerable length upon the alleged departure of the Republican party of today from the landmarks set by its founders, Senator Carmack asserted that the concentration of wealth and power in the hands of a few men threatened the possession of the republic by "a despotism of force and corruption, operating for a time within the hollow form of a republic until at last even the form shall perish with the reality of freedom."

Advancing to what he termed President Roosevelt's "insane and insane monopoly and protection," Senator Carmack predicted that "when that distinguished statesman comes to understand, as he doubtless will, that the Republican party has entrenched the trusts and more plutocracy supreme in the United States, he will prove a powerful and effective ally for the Democratic party."

ENJOYING VACATION

First Authentic Snapshot by the Mail-Telegram's Special Photographer at Oyster Bay, Showing How President Roosevelt is Spending His Summer Holidays With His Family at His New York Summer Home.

NATION'S EYES ARE ON OYSTER BAY

The President and Miss Ethel. Snapshot by the Mail-Telegram's special photographer at Oyster Bay.

The eyes of the whole nation are now turned towards Oyster Bay, New York, where the President of the United States is spending his well earned vacation in the bosom of his family. For the time being President Roosevelt, chief executive of the United States, has to give way to Colonel Roosevelt, family man and father of a horde of merry, laughing youngsters. Day by day the Mail-Telegram's news columns tell of the light-hearted, boyish delight the president is taking in his holiday and the temporary laying aside of the dignity of office. "He is the biggest child of them all," Mrs. Roosevelt recently affectionately declared of her distinguished husband. The above authentic snapshots made by the Mail-Telegram's special photographer show President Roosevelt and his family as they show themselves to the natives of Oyster Bay. It will be observed that the family group looks like any other happy American family trying to get as much enjoyment as possible out of the vacation months.

THE TWELFTH DISTRICT DEADLOCK IS STILL ON

At 3 O'Clock This Afternoon the 5050th Ballot Had Been Taken Without Change in Result.

TARRANT COUNTY'S CANDIDATE SURE

The Situation Still Looks Favorable to Gillespie—New Chairman and Secretary—Invited to Alvarado—Tarrant's Delegation Opposes Change—Interesting Gossip Concerning the Delegates.

Dublin, Tex., July 24.—(Special.) When the Twelfth district convention adjourned at noon it had taken 5000 ballots without change in the result.

Less interest was manifested in the session this morning than at any previous time, at intervals there being as few as ten delegates in the hall.

The developments looked for this morning failed to materialize. The Riddle people held a close conference in the Shofner house last night, but matters under consideration were not made public and the situation apparently stands at this time, 2 p. m., as it did yesterday.

The Riddle people deny that a deal has been proposed by Poindexter since coming here. They will consider only one, which is the withdrawal of Poindexter's name—and that, Poindexter people say, will never happen.

Johnson county has done much lobbying with Comanche and Parker counties since arrival. In the latter instance it is as a rival for Gillespie as on the day of the primaries, and the whole of Comanche's vote will not go to Poindexter if it breaks. Herein is said to lie one avenue of the Fort Worth man's success.

The matter of adjournment to another place will probably come up by night. The Riddle people now prefer remaining in Dublin, their idea being to wear the convention out by incessant balloting.

Other delegations are favorable to adjournment to Johnson county.

SOME MORE TALKEE-TALKEE

Messrs. Presler and Powell entertain the Convention This Forenoon

Dublin, Tex., July 24.—(Special.) T. O. Martin of Granbury, who was presiding officer of the convention at last night's adjournment, opened the sessions this morning announcing the absence of Chairman Barry.

Paddieford, of Johnson county, named J. M. Presler of Comanche county, as chairman pro-tem and he was elected by acclamation.

R. E. L. Roy of Tarrant county was elected temporary secretary in the absence of that regular official.

After a few roll calls Chairman Presler was invited to make an address. He spoke for about thirty minutes urging the convention to take one of the three candidates as its nominee.

He urged that the man must possess a good character of Democracy as the time was here when the party needed the best men.

After a few more roll calls, Mayor Powell of Fort Worth, was given the chair. He was called on for a speech and spoke for half an hour along the same line as Presler.

He said when the convention at Weatherford adopted the anti-dark horse plank he believed the sentiment of the several localities was correctly reflected.

Mr. Powell's remarks were well weighed and delivered in a manner that gained for him frequent applause.

The roll call then proceeded without interruption until the noon adjournment.

THE NEW CHAIRMAN

J. M. Presler is a Prominent Lawyer and Politician

Dublin, Tex., July 24.—(Special.) J. M. Presler, selected this morning by the convention as chairman in place of Dr. A. R. Barry, who was called to Weatherford, is one of the most prominent lawyers in Southwest Texas, and has often been considered a probable congressional candidate from this district.

His home is in Comanche. In 1897 he was a member of the state senate and the author of the five year uniform text book law. In 1898 he was spoken of as a candidate for attorney general and since this deadlock has been on has been mentioned as a possible dark horse candidate in the event one was nominated.

games. In view of that a $10 fine was imposed in one case and the others dismissed. The crusade against card playing publicly has been a hard one in Glen Rose, but, Mr. Dean says, there was no disposition to treat the visitors unfairly.

EACH PHALANX FIRM

Dublin, Tex., July 24.—(Special.) Manager Carlock for Gillespie said today: "The situation still remains in the same position as yesterday. The Riddle people are still in the lead, but the Parker county delegation remaining loyal, stories to the contrary notwithstanding. We have no fear of the result. Judge Moore, one of Poindexter's floor managers, gave this statement: 'Judge Poindexter is in the convention until he is either nominated or defeated. It can be either positively that the Johnson county candidate will not be withdrawn; that was done six years ago. A solution of the situation lies in a change of some county which has no candidate.' T. O. Martin of Granbury, one of the spokesmen from the Riddle forces said: 'Riddle is not the man to be withdrawn. Our forces are as solid as they were the first day. We are here until a nomination is made.'

INTERESTING GOSSIP OF THE CONVENTION

At Adjournment Yesterday 4500 Ballots Had Been Taken, Yesterday's Record Being Seven Per Minute—Chairman Barry's Funny Day—Notes, Etc.

Dublin, Texas, July 24.—(Special.) Yesterday was a record breaker in balloting done by the Twelfth Congressional convention. In the six hours continuous session 2527 were cast. This was at the rate of 421 per hour or about seven to the minute.

The total upon adjournment at 5 o'clock was 4500 which is said to be near the record of any congressional convention ever assembled in Texas. One delegate ventures the greatest number was 6500 cast in the old Dallas district some years ago. In Ohio once 38,000 ballots are said to have been taken before a nomination was secured.

A remarkable feature of this gathering is the perfect solidity of the Gillespie and Riddle forces. For 4500 ballots the former has led. There has not been a single change of vote, and perfect organization maintained by the Granbury man is one of the surprises. His delegates are a unit upon everything from adjournment to making a nomination. Its a rare thing for balloting to continue as it has with this convention and no change made. In the Odell-Wootan-Beall race in the Dallas district two years ago, each man took his turn at the top notch for several hundred ballots then gave away to another. In the Twelfth district Gillespie has led for 4500 ballots and is destined, according to good politics, to so remain.

Chairman Barry is responsible for circulation of the political legend that where a convention is in a deadlock and the candidates have an even number of votes each, none of them will succeed in securing the nomination. His authority, he says, is a political prophet of Parker county who claims he knows of it having been tested several times. In order to return what he terms political chaim, Chairman Barry has ordered the roll called backwards, but the circle of political affinity between the delegates remains unbroken.

There is an opportunity for a pleasant parliamentary tangle should a candidate secure thirty-one and a fractional votes. It has always been accepted that anything over thirty-one which is half the total vote would be a majority. Gillespie managers have figured on a split vote giving the Fort Worth man the nomination, but from the Riddle camp comes the information that thirty-two and not thirty-one and a fraction is a majority of the votes. While no squabble is anticipated Riddle's people would not permit such a situation to go without contest.

Upon O. S. Lattimore devolves the duty of giving to the convention its daily amusement. He is the star story teller of the gathering. Some years ago Lattimore was a barefooted boy in Dublin's streets, and lumbered over Erath county's rocky roads hunting plover. He knows every resident of the county and can call them by their first names, ask about their folks and talk local history.

After each roll call, Chairman Barry invariably announces "thirty-two necessary to choice—no choice," and the call proceeds as if nothing had happened. Yesterday he worked hard to change things.

"Now, gentlemen," he said, "We are about to take the 3800th ballot. Watch it close; something may happen. I do hope some one of you delegates will have the nerve to change. Just have nerve for once."

The roll was called and resulted exactly as it had 3799 times before. "Same result," Mr. Chairman," announced the recording secretary.

"Thirty-two necessary to choice—no nerve."

One Shot to Death and the Other Strung Up—There is Bad Feeling Over the Occurrence and Trouble is Feared

Phillippi, W. Va., July 24.—Two negroes, names unknown, were lynched at Womelsdorf last night by a mob. The first black man was shot and killed in the station house.

The second was taken to the park where he was hanged, then riddled with bullets and cut to pieces. Both whites and negroes are enraged and are in arms. More trouble is hourly expected.

The trouble grows out of the murder of Chief Bud Wilmoth, July 23.

New York, July 24.—The fish skinners, cutters and handlers' union has adopted an ultimatum to be presented to the salt fish combine today, says a Gloucester, Mass. dispatch to the Times. Unless the packers agree to their terms by recognizing the union every man will strike August 1.

The packers are not expected to agree to this, and a strike which would paralyze the fish industry of the country is feared.

CABINET RECONSTRUCTION

The Task a Difficult One and Hicks-Beach May Remain

New York, July 24.—The cabinet meeting has been followed by the rumor that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach has been urged to withdraw his resignation, says a London dispatch to the Tribune. The prime minister is embarrassed, without doubt, by the strong support which three or four second rate men are receiving for the office of chancellor of the exchequer who may find it easier to take the office himself than to disappoint several factions. The reconstruction of the cabinet will await the king's convenience.

Landers, Wyoming, July 24.—It is learned that in addition to killing a Mexican sheep herder and slaughtering several thousand sheep a band of one hundred and fifty masked men has surrounded all the sheep camps and forced the sheep herders to abandon their flocks.

After killing one herd of 2000 sheep, twenty-five other herds amounting to about 65,000 sheep were driven into the mountains and left to shift for themselves.

The sheep men have been threatened with instant death if they go after the flocks. The sheep are now the prey of wild animals and the loss will be very heavy.

The scene of lawlessness is 115 miles west of Landers in Fremont county. The militia may be called out to protect the sheep men.

Lawton, Ok., July 24.—(Special.) Chief of Police Hick Thomas received a telegram yesterday from Pocatello, Idaho, stating that Louis J. A. Vollers, Lawton's defaulting city clerk, was in that city. The city attorney has made complaint, charging Vollers with embezzling $975 of the public money of the city.

PACKING HOUSES AND DIVERSIFIED CROPS

Mr. Baldrige Looks at the Packing Houses from Farmers Viewpoint, and Talks Interestingly of South Texas Crops

J. Baldrige, a prominent citizen of Ennis, being both banker and farmer, is here today. After visiting the packing house district in company with Supt. L. A. Daffan of the Houston and Texas Central, he expressed not only surprise at the extent of the packing plants now being built, but gratification at the general appearance of permanency and stability indicated by the extent and solidity of the buildings and the evident thoroughness of the plans.

"I look at this with a farmer's eyes," he said, "and am impressed with the way it will benefit the farmer to have a ready market right at home all the year 'round, one he can reach whenever his stuff is ready for sale. Heretofore he has been without a market, practically after December 15, and anything he has that is not ready by that time must be kept over, which can only be done at a loss.

These institutions are going to make Fort Worth a great distributing point. They are a big thing for Fort Worth, the biggest that has ever struck this country. It has been a matter of wonder to me that they have not been established here sooner. There is a big domestic market in Texas and throughout the Southwest which can be easily supplied from here, and the distance to the seaboard is so much shorter than from the northern points that export business can be handled to much better advantage, and take it all around the advantages to the packers themselves are so great here in the midst of the producing section that it is surprising the industry has not been established here before in unparalleled extent.

However, it is here now and will grow rapidly." Mr. Baldrige is interested in farming operations in Washington county, in the rich Brazos valley, and spoke of the great diversity of crops that has recently been introduced where formerly it was said "nothing was raised but cotton and niggers." He had a letter from there a few days ago in which the writer, after complaining of the appearance of the Mexican boll weevil, stated that he had planted his cotton early and was already assured of at least half a bale per acre. He then went on to say that his oats had yielded 40 bushels; that he was now cutting the second crop of alfalfa for this season; that the Kaffir corn had a strong stand and was in fine condition, and that he was preparing now for sowing his fall oats. Mr. Baldrige, after reciting this, remarked that he considered that pretty good diversification of crops.

WANT LEGAL LIGHT ON VIADUCT MATTER

CITY ATTORNEY APPEALED TO FOR A WRITTEN OPINION

The Delay in Construction Is Becoming Serious, and Citizens Are Besieging the Council

Some members of the city council are extremely anxious that the work on Jennings avenue viaduct be resumed and pushed to completion. They have argued to this point in the council meetings whenever estimates on material furnished and work done have been presented, which has been at every meeting almost since the work was commenced.

The work has defaulted now for several months, and the contract provides a penalty for such default.

The council, however, realizing that the delay has been no fault of Contractor Leversedge, but the failure of the mines, mills or railroads—just which of these three has been an uncertain proposition—has been lenient with Mr. Leversedge and allowed every estimate presented. The only action taken having a tinge of "push" was to notify Mr. Leversedge's bondsmen of the default in the work and urge them, in protection of themselves and Mr. Leversedge, to investigate at the mills and, if possible, to have the stuff shipped. Following this action, a few car loads of stuff arrived and Mr. Leversedge was led to believe by telegrams and letters from the makers of the material that he could go ahead and there would be no further letting up in the shipments. Work progressed for a few weeks and an encouraging showing was made, but about two weeks ago material run short again and the work has been at a standstill.

Two members of the city council have called on City Attorney Williams urging him to give them a legally prepared opinion on the matter, to be presented at the next meeting of the council. These men say that if there is any possible way in which the city can get at whoever is to blame for this delay they propose to take advantage of this possibility and push matters to an enforcement of the contract, let the blame fall where it will. They have no desire to persecute Mr. Leversedge, but think that by commencing, even with Mr. Leversedge and his bondsmen, and pushing matters through their legal course to the fountain head something can be accomplished.

Citizens who are compelled to cross from the South Side to the city, or from the city to the South Side, are besieging the city authorities daily and hourly for relief, and they say something must be done, and they act with emphasis.

The books are nicely leather bound, and consist of three volumes of "A History of Civilization," "The Prehistoric World," or "The Vanishing Races," "The Students' Cyclopaedia." GALVESTON LIKES HIM

The Admiration Is Mutual and Dr. French Is Visiting

Rev. Dr. Junius B. French, pastor of the popular Broadway Presbyterian church, is visiting in Galveston. In the Houston Post's Galveston department recently appeared the following notice:

"Rev. J. B. French, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church of Fort Worth, is in the city on a brief visit. Dr. French was tendered a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of this city and filed that pulpit for several weeks last summer. He declined the call on account of the condition of his work at Fort Worth. He had a new church nearing completion there and was situated that he considered this work demanded his attention. Dr. French says that his new church is now completed and paid for and that it is handsomely furnished. A large pipe organ has been purchased for the church."

SOMETHING ABOUT ENTRIES FOR CUP

Mr. Campbell Says 5 p. m. Saturday Is the Last Day and Hour at Which They Can Be Made

W. T. Campbell is earnestly at work perfecting the race track and equipment over in the Cotton Belt bottom. The track is already in excellent condition, and he has a force of carpenters at work erecting twenty stalls, all of which have been engaged, principally by Dallas parties, for the purpose of wintering horses here. The majority of Fort Worth horse owners are provided at home or at the livery stables for keeping their stock. Mr. Campbell says he is receiving inquiries every day for stalls, and it is his purpose to build all that the demand requires. He anticipates that a large number of horses will be wintered and trained on this course, and that the future of the track is assured.

He further contemplates erecting an ample amphitheater, clearing off all trees that block a perfect view of all portions of the course, and erecting a high board fence along the east side parallel with the street car track.

With reference to the entries for the cup to be trotted for on August 7, provided there is good weather and a good track, Mr. Campbell says the entry book will positively close next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and that even J. Pierpont Morgan could not get in on the trot for the cup after that hour. Entries may be made with G. H. Colvin at the American National bank.

On the 7th there will be, in addition to the cup contest, a pacing race, a running race, and another trot.

To hold the cup finally, it must be won three times. Much interest is being manifested by local and outside horsemen over these races and others to follow.

The Best Liniment for Strains. Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by N. E. Grammer, druggist.

DAY SERGEANT ON VEXED QUESTION

A Happy Decision Which Opened Up a Blockade Caused by Teamsters in an Alleyway

A most amusing incident occurred upon police beat No. 1 yesterday afternoon during the hour of rainfall between 3 and 4 o'clock. Two teamsters entered the alleyway in the rear of Weaver's pharmacy simultaneously from opposite directions. Each kept driving until their horses' heads bumped.

"You go to the other end!" yelled one.

"You go to tall timber!" replied the other. "I came in first, an' here I stay, see? Back out."

"What, me back out? Not till the viaduct is finished."

Each teamster lighted a pipe and proceeded to wait, calmly taking the rain. Finally, each began to consign the other to a place hotter even than Dallas, their boisterous talk attracting passers by at either end of the alleyway until a hundred or more had gathered, and heads shot out in the damp from all windows in range.

Finally a bluecoat came along. "Here," each teamster yelled, "let the cop settle it—hey, you, which of us has got to back out?"

"Damfino."

After some parleying and listening to various suggestions, the copper said he'd leave it to Sergeant Newby at the police station, and forthwith hunted up a 'phone and rang in. After a consultation over the 'phone the copper came back and said:

"Say, the sergeant says 'the guy what's nearest the mouth of the alley does the backin' stunt'—now that goes."

With careful deliberation the copper procured a measuring tape, and in the presence of the spectators he went over the distance. One wagon was found to be just 37 inches nearer the mouth of the Fifth street entrance than the other. The copper ordered him to back out, and he did so, amid the jeers of the other, and the accompaniment of the voices of 100 people.

It took just 30 minutes to settle the difficulty.

THE LAST OPPORTUNITY.

This Is Positively the Last Chance for Getting Free Services at the British Medical Institute Located at Rooms 2 and 3, Dundee Building, to all Who Call Before July 27th.

A staff of eminent physicians and surgeons from the British Medical Institute have, at the urgent solicitation of a large number of patients under their care in this country, established a permanent branch of the Institute in this city, at rooms 2 and 3, Dundee block, corner Seventh and Houston streets.

These eminent gentlemen have decided to give their services entirely free for three months (medicines excepted) to all invalids who call upon them for treatment between now and July 27. Their services will consist not only of consultation, examination and advice, but also of all minor surgical operations.

The object in pursuing this course is to become rapidly and personally acquainted with the sick and afflicted, and under no conditions will any charge whatever be made for any services rendered for three months, to all who call before July 27.

The doctors treat all forms of disease and deformities, and guarantee a cure in every case they undertake. At the first interview a thorough examination is made, and, if incurable, you are frankly and kindly told so; also advised against spending your money for useless treatment.

Male and female weakness, catarrh, and catarrhal deafness, also varicocele, rupture, goitre, cancer, and all diseases of the rectum, are positively cured by their new treatment.

The chief associate surgeon of the Institute is in personal charge. Hours 9 to 8. Sundays 10 to 1.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The City Assessor's books are now ready and the Board of Equalization will convene on Monday, June 23d, in the City Assessor's office in the City Hall and continue in session every day thereafter, excepting Sunday, from 10 to 12 o'clock in the forenoon and from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

All owners of real estate are requested to bring descriptions of their property with them when coming to inquire values.

It is very important that all owners of real estate should appear before the Board of Equalization as a great many changes in values have been made since last year. Many improvements have been made since Jan. 1st, last, that may possibly appear on the tax rolls for this year and all mistakes of this or any other character will be corrected by the Board of Equalization on application of the owners.

Be sure and bring descriptions of your real estate with you.

G. H. DAY, City Tax Assessor and Collector.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE.
At midnight, 71; at 7 a. m., 72; at noon, 79; maximum, 79; minimum, 72.

Suppose Peary does find the North Pole; what of it?

Home-seekers should bear in mind that Fort Worth is the healthiest town in the state of Texas.

The practice of carrying deadly weapons is too well observed in Texas for the good of the state.

The rocky hills of New England are resounding with Democratic oratory this afternoon. A Democrat in New England is about as much of a curiosity as a Republican in Texas. Those who are there are of sturdy stock and come up smiling after every knock-down.

The movement on foot on the part of the Pythians for a street fair in Ft. Worth this fall, should, if successfully brought to a realization, have for its purpose the doing of all the good possible for the city in the bringing of strangers here and in the proper providing of entertainment for them while here. In order to do this it is absolutely necessary to have the help and co-operation of all business men, and to do this it is necessary to make the inducements to them as great as possible. A great crowd of people in the city for days benefits the business men and they know it, and are always willing to do their proper share. So if the street fair is to be held why not make it an event at the same time as the opening of the two great packing houses in October? The two events in the same week can be made one grand success, far more potent of good to the city than if two separate occasions are provided. Then, too, the railroads can be relied upon to make very low rates for a crowd such as would come to the combined events—lower rates than they can afford to make if held separately.

This matter is worthy of careful thought on the part of those interested in either occasion, and they will find the business man far more ready and willing to help along the cause of each if co-operation of the two are effected so as to do the most good to the whole city.

PRESS COMMENT.

L. A. Capps, an Abilene newspaper man, is what the Fort Worth Register calls B. A. Cox, Esq., giving the first as the chairman of the second supreme judicial district convention last week at Henrietta. Can you let this pass without a libel suit, B. A.?

A dispatch from Fort Worth announces Judge W. P. McLean's emphatic denial of the report that he is to receive the appointment of assistant attorney general as a reward for his political services to Colonel Lanham when the latter shall have entered into his inheritance. He states emphatically that he would not accept the appointment if it were tendered him. It is evident that Judge McLean belongs to that class of public-spirited citizens who recognize that the citizen owes certain duties to the State, and not infrequently the effective discharge of those duties can best be subserved by active participation in the counsels and labors of party campaigns; and when this service is rendered aside altogether from selfish personal consideration, it is the more commendable. It augurs well for the State in proportion to the increase in number of those who are actuated by such lofty motives of patriotism. Despite the croaking of pessimists and the blatant utterances of agitators and demagogues, the Democratic party, the party to which the country must inevitably turn for a redress of political evils, has within its ranks many able men who are ever ready as a labor of love to give their services to their country without the hope or desire of reward in the shape of official position.—Houston Post.

A writer in an Alabama paper says that with the establishment of the large packing houses at Fort Worth, that all the states bordering on Texas will be largely benefited, and that cattle and hogs will receive more attention from farmers than heretofore. To receive the full benefit of this stock market, forage crops must be largely grown. With large corn crops and our regular output of cotton seed, supplemented by grass, both green and cured, meat stock can be made profitable anywhere in the South, though Texas and the states adjoining will have to spread the infection.—Tyler Courier.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.
Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.

PAIN IN THE BACK

A Sure Sign of Kidney Trouble. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will Cure You.

Pain in the back is a never failing sign of kidney disease; another sure sign is the condition of the urine; if you have a pain in the back then look to the condition of your urine. Take a glass tumbler and fill it with urine; after it has stood 24 hours, if it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, pale or discolored, stringy orropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal.

F. C. Wilcox of 559 New Britain ave., Hartford, Conn., says:

"I had a frightful pain in my back, the result of kidney trouble. My physician seemed powerless to relieve me. I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it helped me wonderfully, and in a short time cured me completely."

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer on the system. It is wonderful how it makes that pain in the back disappear, how it relieves the desire to urinate often, especially at night, and drives away that scalding pain in passing water and in a remarkably short time makes you well and strong.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dulness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and promote easy, healthy action of the bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress. Smallwood & Anderson, and Anderson & Smallwood.

A Cure for Summer Complaint.
Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured and which is always kept on hand at the home of the sufferer. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer-time.—Lansing, Iowa, Journal. For sale by N. E. Grammer, druggist.

NEW TRUNK LINE WEST FROM DENVER

DENVER, NORTHWESTERN AND PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY ORGANIZED

New Trunk Line to the Pacific Coast Will Result—Headquarters of Union Pacific May Be Moved to Denver—Another Oklahoma Road—General Railroad News

The Denver, Northwestern and Pacific railroad is the latest to be incorporated at Denver. The charter was granted and the organization perfected on the same day.

Officers were elected as follows: President, D. H. Moffatt, president of the First National bank and former president of the Denver and Rio Grande; vice president, W. G. Evans,

This road will connect at Salt Lake City with the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railway, and will form a new trunk line from Denver to the Pacific coast, entering into competition with the Gould and Harriman system.

FLOODING WEST TEXAS

Railroad Business Suspended at Big Springs—Trying to Open T. & P.

Reports from the west continue to show heavy rains still falling as far as El Paso. At Big Springs the town is flooded by the heaviest rains ever known in the plains country.

Passenger traffic between Houston and Galveston is said to be booming, the travel being now heavier than has been known for a long time.

Heavy rains are also reported the full length of the joint track and the Transcontinental division of the Texas and Pacific.

MAY MOVE HEADQUARTERS

Report that General Offices of Union Pacific Will Go to Denver

The report comes from Denver that the Union Pacific system headquarters which are now located at Omaha will be removed to Denver. It is said that President Burt is dissatisfied with conditions at Omaha and is inclined to believe that the interests of the system will be subserved by such a change.

FROM EL PASO TO MEMPHIS

El Paso-Rock Island Route Makes it in 46 Hours, 35 Minutes

A. N. Brown, general passenger agent of the El Paso-Rock Island route, announces in a circular just issued that the line from El Paso to Memphis is now open for traffic, making a passenger schedule of 46 hours and 35 minutes.

ANOTHER OKLAHOMA ROAD

The Cherryvale, Oklahoma and Texas Chartered at Guthrie

A charter was granted this week at Guthrie to the Cherryvale, Oklahoma and Texas Railway company to build 90 miles of road from Cherryvale, Kas., through Independence and Caney, Kas., and the Cherokee, Osage and Fonce Indian reservations to Perry, Ok., from which point one line will be constructed to El Paso and another to Paris, Tex.

THROUGH PORT OF GALVESTON

More of the Deal Between the Rock Island and Mallory Line

A few days ago the Mail-Telegram published information from New York regarding the proposed purchase of the Mallory steamship line by the Rock Island, or intimate traffic relations being established between them.

this and other movements on the part of the Rock Island are to the effect that that road denies having purchased the Mallory line but admits having entered into a close traffic alliance with it.

It is further stated that the Rock Island will build direct to Galveston and not attempt to go to any other Texas port, and that until it has its own track constructed and in operation it will use the International and Great Northern and Missouri, Kansas and Texas tracks from Fort Worth.

The purpose of the Rock Island, it is stated is to duplicate, through Galveston, the success attained by the Illinois Central's policy through the port of New Orleans, and having the broad territory west of the Mississippi to draw from is sanguine as to the result of a vigorous policy in this direction.

TO DISCUSS MERGER

The Louisiana and Arkansas May Be Absorbed by Arkansas and Choctaw

President Buchanan of the Louisiana and Arkansas railroad, has called a meeting of the stockholders of that road to convene at Stamps, Ark., to discuss the matter of merging with the Arkansas and Choctaw, which has already been purchased by the Frisco.

Notes and Personals.

John I. Conway, live stock agent for the Santa Fe, returned this morning from a trip through the Indian Territory.

The grading work on the Frisco has almost reached Lawton, I. T., and the first train is expected to enter that town on August 10.

Orders have been issued for the removal of the general offices of the Arkansas and Choctaw road from Texarkana, Ark., to Hugo, I. T.

Passenger traffic between Houston and Galveston is said to be booming, the travel being now heavier than has been known for a long time.

W. A. McGowan, traveling freight agent of the Nickel Plate with headquarters at Kansas City, is associating with the fraternity here today.

The International and Great Northern has placed an order with the American Car and Foundry company of St. Louis for three more dining cars to be delivered by Jan. 1 next, the consideration being $64,243.80.

General Passenger Agent James Barker of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas system, and W. G. Crush, general passenger agent at Dallas, were in the city last evening and left for Hillsboro, from which point they will return to this city today.

A surveying party has begun running a line for the projected railroad line from Cleburne to Fort Worth. G. A. Human, who has charge of the work, has secured the right of way for practically the entire distance.

The plans of the new road in detail have not been given out yet.

L. A. Daffan, superintendent of the Northern division of the Houston and Texas Central, is here today in the interest of the road. In the course of the morning he escorted a friend to the packing house district, both of them being greatly impressed with the magnitude of the enterprise.

The Texas and Pacific pay car which was expected in yesterday over the joint track did not arrive until 4:50 this morning. At Hodge it became derailed and blocked traffic for several hours. No particular damage was done, though slight repairs were made in the yards here this morning.

The new Cotton Belt depot at Dallas will be constructed just across the street from the Santa Fe depot, which it now occupies, on the site of the wholesale drug house that was burned two weeks ago.

When constructed it is said it will be one of the finest in the state. The Frisco will also use these terminal facilities.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Kumpke, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child, which was sick, and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world."

White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood.

THE MURDER LIST STILL GROWING

ONE NEGRO CUTS ANOTHER'S THROAT AND ESCAPES

Quarrel Over Place at Table Results Fatally—Tragedy in Frisco Yards at Early Hour This Morning

Another entry was made on the Tarrant county murder docket at an early hour this morning, as a result of a tragedy enacted by two negro principals in a boarding car in the Frisco yards between Wheeler and Adams streets. Robert Bonden cut the throat of a fellow laborer named Toy Maples, and Bonden has gone—the officers know not where, but would like to know.

The tragedy occurred at about 6:30 o'clock, during the breakfast hour, but it was an hour later when the information reached the sheriff's office. Sheriff Clark and Deputies Dillard and Smith responded to the call, as did also Justice John L. Terrell, and at once set about making an investigation.

Aside from the fact that Maples is dead and Bonden is at large, there is little to be related.

It develops that not the most brotherly feeling existed between the principals because of the fact that both reserved a warm spot somewhere in their make-up for a negro girl engaged in cooking for the outfit. This morning when breakfast was announced, Maples took a seat at the table claimed by Bonden, and when the latter came in a war of words ensued, with the result that Bonden yanked up a knife and severed Maples' left jugular. Maples sprang up, ran through to an adjoining car and fell dying in the end doorway. Bonden left the car in which the tragedy was enacted and made his escape.

Bonden is described as a mulatto, about 26 years of age, sandy hair and blue eyes, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches tall, slender build. Sheriff Clark at once put himself in phone communication with officers surrounding Fort Worth, notifying them of the particulars, giving an accurate description, and of the fact that he held a warrant for his arrest. Thus the chances are favorable for his apprehension.

The dead negro is said to have been the more powerful, and quite black. His mother resides in San Augustine, Texas.

FISHING AND HUNTING

Two Fort Worth Parties Out for a Two Weeks' Stay

Unless all indications fail there are two fishing parties out from Fort Worth at present who will not have much trouble in finding water sufficient to cast their lines, as the recent and continuous rains have swollen all streams within a reasonable distance of Fort Worth. One party consists of H. B. Herd, Dr. J. M. Mullins and H. H. Lewis. These gentlemen headed for the Llano country. The other party consists of Messrs. Louis Day, William Hardman, John Miller, Jean McDaniel, Louis Anderson, and W. J. Beason. They, too, had the Llano river in view. This latter party figured on making a trip to Mexico for hunting purposes, and unless high water interferes will no doubt do so.

The following named gentlemen headed by employes in the railway mail service, superintendent's office, will go Saturday to the Concho country for a few weeks' stay: W. O. Davis, I. L. Snowden, Thomas Ridgway, Frank Hubert, L. D. Belden, J. H. Campbell. They will meet a party of friends at Temple, and all go to the now raging Concho.

EN ROUTE TO THE LAKES

Dr. W. A. Adams, W. P. Hardwick and Families Were in St. Louis

A recent issue of the Globe-Democrat, St. Louis, had the following mention of a party of Fort Worth people who had stopped for a brief visit in that city, among them being Dr. W. A. Adams, who is quoted as saying:

"Fort Worth is building great expectations upon the growth of the packing house industry there. We already have several of the big packing firms, and the others will have to come. It is the old question of carrying the finished product to market, instead of the raw material, and there is no more reason for shipping Texas cattle hundreds of miles to market than sending the cotton of the South to New England to be made into cloth."

The party referred to consists of Dr. W. A. Adams, wife and daughter; W. P. Hardwick, wife and son and Miss Davis, who were en route to the northern lakes for a summer's outing.

ADDITIONAL CITY BRIEFS

The Mothers' and Teachers' club of the Fourth ward will meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. W. R. Sawyer, 1019 Burnett street.

Mrs. A. C. Brown and Mrs. Anna L. Stauffer left this morning for Chicago and the lakes, where they will spend the summer.

Messrs. Ropke & Hammann are building a two-story brick building on the west side of Main street near Tenth which will partly close the gap in that block. The walls are now up to the second story. As soon as completed they will remove their business into it, and enjoy the fruits of their enterprise.

Judge W. T. League of Waco, but in reality a Fort Worth man, is here today on legal business.

Mrs. R. L. James and Mrs. J. B. St. John have returned from a lengthy visit to relatives and friends in Tennessee.

Two Sickroom Warnings.

In a recent lecture on first aid to the injured the speaker emphasized two cautions that are so commonly disregarded as to be well worth repeating in print. The first is, never rub a person with liniment that has been put on a flannel cloth, for the roughness of the flannel and the friction on the skin, with the penetrating ingredients of the liniment, will easily make an abrasion of the skin, producing a condition that may take weeks to heal. The second warning is that in any condition of unconsciousness the hot object applied, bag, bottle, brick or whatever it may be, must be wrapped in flannel or cloth before it is brought into contact with the flesh of the person to be treated. A severe burn is often made by a thoughtless attendant who puts a too hot water bottle next to the skin while the patient is unconscious or unable to move away.

Teaching a Parrot.

"There are two ways," said a bird dealer, "of teaching a parrot to talk. One way is to put him in a darkened room, to sit in a corner and to repeat over and over again the word you want him to acquire. A clever parrot will learn a word or a phrase after some 400 or 500 repetitions, while for some it takes a week or more. You must keep still in the room. No sounds from within or without the house save your voice, monotonously repeating the phrase to be acquired, must reach the parrot's ear. Some people teach their birds in a well lighted room, speaking from a place of concealment in a closet or behind a door. This method is not so good, because in the light the parrot's attention is distracted."

One of O'Connell's "Bulls."

Some extremely amusing mistakes have been made by even the most practiced speakers in their desire to carry their audience with them. O'Connell once in an election speech in Conciliation hall told his followers that if measures injurious to Ireland were brought into parliament he would go over to England and "die on the floor of the house of commons in opposition to them," and when he came back he would say, "Are you for repeal now?"—London Standard.

Palestine Viola.

The rebab of Palestine is a sort of violin. The body is a square frame covered with parchment. The instrument is played with a bow. There is but one string, a thick, coarse horsehair, but expert performers can, it is said, get considerable variety of tone from this primitive instrument.

High Explosives.

"Tommy," said the schoolteacher to Tommy Taddels, "what do you understand by the term 'high explosives?'" "Sky rockets, ma'am," replied Tommy.—Judge.

If the average man were as good as he thinks other men ought to be, it wouldn't be long until his vanity made him topheavy.—New York Press.

TECHNICAL POINTS IN JACK-POT POKER

Can a Fine Be Imposed for "Playing at Cards" and "Betting at Cards" in Connection With Same Game?

Quite an interesting point in law is being argued before Justice Terrell today, with James S. Davis for the defendant and Attorneys Cummings and Bouldin from the county attorney's office on the other side. Previously in this court and in Justice Mullin's court the defendant, J. Z. Wheat, had been fined for playing at cards at a sitting of jack pot poker over the Stag saloon on July 14 and 15. Cases were also brought against defendant for betting at cards in connection with the same sitting. He pleaded former conviction, and the point at issue is whether or not a man can be prosecuted for separate offences—"playing at cards" and "betting at cards" in connection with the same game.

There is nothing doing in any of the other courts.

Order in Partition Suit

Judge Dunklin, in the Forty-eighth district court yesterday afternoon gave consideration to and made an order in the case styled A. R. Flanagan et al. vs. J. J. Flanagan et al., action for partition. He made the following order: "Judgment decreeing that the parties to this suit are each entitled to an undivided interest in the land described in plaintiff's petition in the following portions, to-wit: J. J. Flanagan, one-eighth interest; D. F. Flanagan, one-eighth interest; A. J. Flanagan, one-fourth interest; Mrs. A. R. Flanagan, three-sixteenths interest, and Hattie Flanagan, Barney Flanagan, Rhoda Flanagan, Emma Flanagan, Della Flanagan, David Flanagan and Archie Flanagan, minor plaintiffs, each five one-hundred and one-twelfth interest. Mrs. A. R. Flanagan in open court relinquishing to said minors her right to a life estate in a one-eighth interest, which was the separate property of G. W. Flanagan, deceased, her husband, and the father of said minors. J. J. Goodfellow, M. W. Hovenkamp and Ed. Bourland are appointed commissioners to partition said property in accordance with the terms of this decree, and to make report of same on or before the first day of the next regular term of this court."

Getting Ready to Bore

Material is being placed on the ground for boring the artesian well in rear of the county jail, the contract having recently been let by the county commissioners. It is the purpose of the commissioners to secure an ample supply of artesian water for the court house and jail, and perhaps for supplying a limited number of water haulers. The main purpose, however, is to supply the court house and jail for drinking and sanitary purposes, which requires an enormous quantity. The work of boring will be commenced right away.

A DANGEROUS TRAITOR.

The Result of Pechantre's Plot to Kill the King.

Probably no well meaning poet was ever more taken by surprise than was M. Pechantre, a gentle and mild mannered French dramatist of the seventeenth century, who was one day arrested for high treason as he was peacefully eating his dinner at a village inn.

The landlord of the inn where he was in the habit of dining discovered on a table a piece of paper on which were written some unintelligible phrases and below in a plain, bold hand, "Here I will kill the king."

The landlord consulted with the chief of police. Clearly this clew to a conspiracy ought to be followed up. The person who had left the paper had already been remarked for his absent air and gleaming eye. That man was Pechantre.

The chief of police instructed the landlord to send for him the next time the conspirator came to dinner.

When Pechantre was shown the evidence of his guilt, he forgot the awful charge against him and exclaimed:

"Well, I am glad to see that paper. I have looked everywhere for it. It is part of a tragedy I am writing. It is the climax of my best scene, where Nero is to be killed. It comes in here. Let me read it to you." And he took a thick manuscript from his pocket. "Monsieur, you may finish your dinner and your tragedy in peace," said the chief of police, and he beat a hasty retreat.

Scarabæus, Egypt's Sacred Beetle. Scarabæus, "the god beetle of the lower Nile," has been worshipped, petted and feared by several benighted sects of Egypt since the time "when the mind and history of man runneth not to the contrary." Like the other sacred creatures of idolatrous countries, several mythical fancies are woven around this entomological rarity.

The number of its toes, thirty, were supposed to symbolize the average number of days in a month. On each new moon day it deposited a ball containing 300 eggs, which the Egyptian priests assured their followers referred to the number of days in the year, the brilliant golden color of the ball itself personifying the sun. In ancient times this curious beetle was declared to be of but one sex, the male, but modern investigation has exploded that one myth at least.

In connection with the Egyptian nations the Gnostics as well as some of the early Christian fathers speak of Christ as the scarabæus and symbolize him as a man with a beetle's head. The Egyptians always embalmed this sacred insect.

Half Mourning.

"That's Mrs. Giltedge-Bonds, the prominent society leader," said the man in the crowd who knew.

"What's she in half mourning for?" inquired several voices.

"Three of her six former husbands are dead," said the man, whereupon the crowd expressed great admiration for her delicacy of feeling.—Philadelphia Record.

Not Quite Sure Which.

"After all," he remarked, "it is youth alone that has real courage." "I don't know," returned the elderly spinster, with acerbity, "whether it should be called courage or foolhardiness, but it is unquestionably true that the girls who marry at all usually marry quite young."—Chicago Post.
