BIG NEW PACKING PLANT UNDER WAY

PLANS FOR NEW ORGANIZATION LEAK OUT

AN ECHO OF MERGER

BELIEF THAT HEAD SALARIED MEN OF CUDAHY PLANT BE HIND SCHEME

NEW CONCERN HAS MONEY

Will Operate Public Stock Yards and With Already Acquired Business Will Be Shortly Ready For Work

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Aug. 27.—A new packing plant, together with public stock yards will soon be in operation at Thirty-ninth street and West Forty-eighth avenue.

The new concern is said to have ample capital behind it and is preparing to engage in the general packing business and will aim to furnish a market for the cattle interests outside of that open to them at the Union Stock Yards.

As a basis for the new undertaking the plant of the Lufkin Stock Yards and Feeding Company has been acquired, and for the present it will retain its present style of name. In addition to a packing plant is being erected on the ground controlled by the Lufkin company which will have a capacity of 1,000 head of cattle a day, with ample plans for increasing its facilities as the business increases. The packing plant will be in operation in a few days. The company will be incorporated at Springfield, next week.

D. L. Lufkin will be the head of the stock yards company and William Hately will direct the operations of the packing plant.

The capital stock for the new company has been sold.

It is the general impression that the men behind this new company are none other than the head-salaried men in the Cudahy plants who are liable to lose their jobs if the reported consolidation takes place.

This new organization lends color to the story of the consolidation and tends to cause the belief that the merger is now a sure thing and that the head men of the merged plant will be out of place before very long.

FIERCE FIGHTING IS GOING ON IN HAITI

Deaths of Provisional Government Captain Limbe After Hard Fighting.

Cape Haitien, Aug. 27.—The village of Limbe, eighty-two miles north of Port au Prince, has been attacked and captured by troops of the provisional government. Limbe was in the possession of Firminists soldiers, from the Artibonite district. The fighting was severe, and lasted for twelve hours. Many men on both sides were killed. The town was completely destroyed by fire.

The defenders of Limbe were reinforced by marines landed from the transport Crete A. Pierron, which is the Firminite vessel.

General Alexis Norde has gone forward to take command of the troops of the provisional government.

A battle also took place at Marmelade, but details of this engagement are lacking. Cape Haitien is calm. The United States cruiser Cincinnati arrived here Tuesday morning from La Guayra.

Troops of the provisional government under General Norde were defeated August 9 at Limbe by forces under General Sainve, commander of the Artibonite Firminite soldiers. General Norde's cannon and munitions were captured in this engagement, and many of his soldiers were killed and a great number were taken prisoner.

Marmelade was captured August 7 by troops under General Norde. St. Michel was captured the same day. General Norde is at present minister of war under the provisional government.

BIG STRIKE OF TRAIN MEN IS NOW IN SIGHT

Waukegan, Aug. 27.—The Sentinel this morning says: By September 15, the large railway systems of the country will be confronted with a demand for 100,000 members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen for an increase in wages which will mean an annual outlay of $1,000,000 a month

BODIES OF FAIRS STILL IN PARIS

New York, Aug. 27.—The bodies of Charles J. Fair and wife, who were killed in an automobile accident, are still here, cables the Paris correspondent of the New York American. Nothing can be learned as to the date on which they are to be shipped to New York.

A HOSTILE WASHERY GOES UP IN SMOKE

FIRE DOES ITS WORK TO PLANT WHICH HAD TRIED TO BE OPERATED

(By Associated Press)

Hazleton, Pa., Aug. 27.—The Klondike washery at Treckow, owned and operated by Joseph Seeger of this place, was destroyed by fire of an unknown origin today.

The washery suspended operations when the strike began, but resumed two weeks ago.

Strikers raided the plant and closed it Tuesday of last week and two attempts to resume this week were frustrated by the strikers.

Had No Comment.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 27.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers said today that he had no comment to make on the meeting of the coal operators, held at the office of J. P. Morgan in New York yesterday.

A large number of men are reported to have gone to work today in the Danmore Colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co. At the office of the company it is said that an increased number of applications for work was being daily received.

ONE BALE TO TEN ACRES

Report on Cotton Crop From Leander—Worms Disappearing

Leander, Tex., Aug. 27.—The dry hot weather of the past two weeks has settled the cotton crop here for this year. A bale to ten acres is about the average. The crop will all be gathered by September 15, or perhaps earlier.

Many families have left here going to North Texas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma, and many others are preparing to go. Not since the settlement of this section has there been such a complete failure of crops. The most serious question now is "how can another crop be made?" No seed, no feed and no money to buy either with.

DRINKING WATER SCARCE

Corpus Christi, Tex., Aug. 27.—It has been several months since a heavy rain has fallen here and stock and agricultural interests are suffering severely. Many of the citizens in the city have become entirely exhausted and in a number of instances people are purchasing drinking water.

COTTON WORMS DISAPPEAR

Sherman, Tex., Aug. 27.—The reports come from many parts of Grayson county that the worms have subsided but that the cotton is left in bad shape, in some places more than half destroyed.

DRY AT CALAVERAS

Calaveras, Tex., Aug. 27.—Dry and dusty and if no rain falls soon late corn will be a failure. Cotton is doing poorly, few plants being six inches to a foot and a half in height with few squares.

SHIRAS HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Refuses to Discuss Reported Retirement from the Bench

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—Justice Shiras of United States supreme court who had just arrived in Pittsburg refuses to discuss his reported retirement from the bench further than to say that President Roosevelt would be the first person to learn of it and that he had not received any announcement yet.

HEAD END STREET CAR WRECK

Seventeen People Injured in an Ohio Smashup

Youngstown, Ohio, Aug. 27.—In a headend collision at an early hour this morning between electric cars on the Youngstown-Sharon Electric railway, seventeen persons were reported injured, several seriously. Accident occurred between Hubbard and Sharon.

MONT PELEE AGAIN IN STATE OF ERUPTION

MADE A FIND ON PRINCETON CAMPUS

New York, Aug. 27.—Excavations now in progress on the college campus at Princeton, N. J. have disclosed the old pump which in the early 60's was the instrument with which the sophomores mucked the freshmen. The pump is still intact and will be carefully preserved.

PERFECT WEATHER FOR THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR

ROOSEVELT SEES SIGHTS IN AUGUSTA AND GOES TO BANGOR

(By Associated Press)

Augusta, Me., Aug. 27.—The perfect weather continued today, favoring the president on his tour through New England.

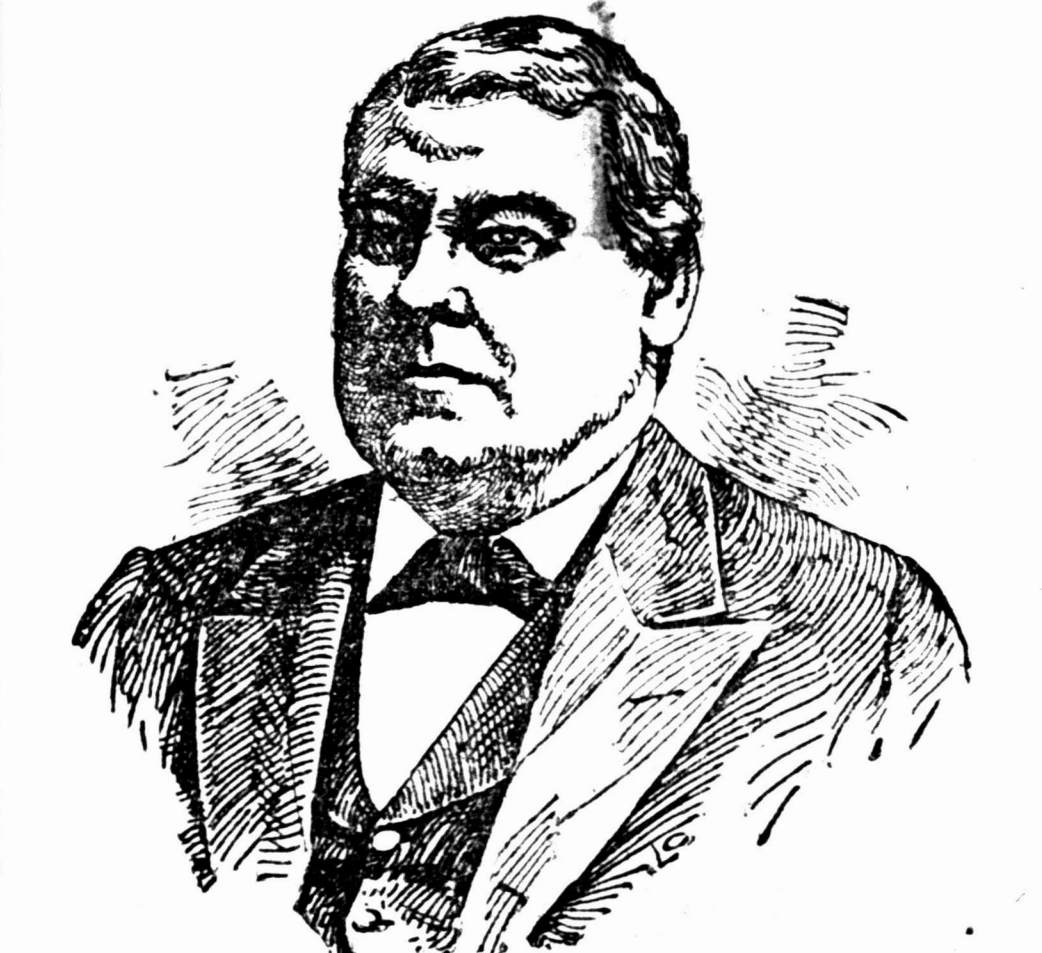

Early in the afternoon he was taken for a drive about the city. He left here at 9 o'clock for Bangor.

MGR GUIDI TO GET THE PLACE

He Will Be Made Apostolic Delegate at Manila

Rome, Aug. 27.—Although it is not to be officially announced until the end of the week the appointment of Mgr. Guidi as apostolic delegate at Manila is considered assured.

Judge J. H. Reagan is Rapidly Recovering

JUDGE JOHN H. REAGAN. Palestine, Tex., Aug. 27.—Special message to the Telegram) A telephone message from Judge Reagan's home late this afternoon reports the patient, who has been quite sick, free from fever, though still very weak and in bed on account of the high fever of yesterday. The judge will pull through all right.

CUBA AND ITS FINANCES

ISLAND HAS MONEY IN PLENTY FOR EXPENSES

The Pro and Con of the Situation as Regards the Proposed National Big Loan of $31,000,000

(By Associated Press)

Havana, Aug. 27.—Fifteen millions are estimated as the Cuban government's expenditure in the national budget which will be presented to congress next month, and the national income is placed at $13,000,000, the same as during the military occupation. This provides a surplus of three millions.

Confidence is steadily increasing in President Palma's ability to cope with the situation. The senate bill providing for a national loan of $35,000,000 which went to the house of representatives two weeks ago, is still in the hands of the house committee.

The sugar planters strongly favor the four million dollar loan in aid of agriculture, but are indifferent regarding the proposed loan of $31,000,000 to pay back salaries to the army. Members of the disbanded army, on the contrary, support the larger loan, but are lukewarm concerning the smaller. It is generally believed that the interest and principal of the smaller loan could be taken care of under present conditions, but that the payment of the larger loan would require

REPORT COMES FROM ISLAND OF DOMINICA

GREAT NOISE HEARD

SOUND COMES FROM DIRECTION OF THE PREVIOUS CATAS. TROPHE

COMMUNICATION IS CUT OFF

All Efforts to Reach the Island of Martinique Have Proved Unsuccessful—Reported Noise Began on Tuesday Afternoon

St. Thomas, D. W. I. A dispatch received here from Island Dominica dated yesterday at 6 o'clock says:

Since 2 o'clock today (Tuesday) prolonged noises in quick succession have been heard from southward.

These noises are an exact counterpart of the cannonading that was heard the same day that Mont Pelee broke forth in its awful agony.

The direction is likewise the same and there is every indication that Mont Pelee is again violently erupting.

Every effort has been made to communicate by cable with the Island of Martinique but all attempts have proved unsuccessful.

PARKER-LOWE HAS IT FOR LESS.

HE WAS PERSONA NON GRATA TO ECQUADOR

ANOTHER ECHO FROM THE BIG COAL STRIKE

New York, Aug. 27.—Firemen on a Harlem river tug boat have been almost dropped by the cost of soft coal. The dock hands also struck for $2 a day, saying the increased cost of fuel had made it almost impossible for them to live on $1.50.

LYON WINS DELEGATIONS

THE GRAYSON COUNTY MAN IS VICTORIOUS

SEVERAL BAD SPLITS

Acheson Will Be Here with a Contested Delegation—Terrell Believes Result Will Elect Him—Green Gets Kaufman

(Special to the Telegram)

Sherman, Tex., Aug. 27.—Yesterday was the day for Republican primary conventions throughout Texas, the only contest being for state chairman. From the returns received at the Lyon headquarters last night and today the indications are the Grayson county man received a large majority of the instructions and will easily be declared chairman of the executive committee by the Fort Worth convention September 9.

The most disastrous splits are conceded to have been in Dallas and Grayson counties where the fight was on between Lyon and Acheson and Lyon and Hawley. In Sherman, the Acheson people bolted, while in Dallas, the Hawley faction walked out. Minor contests are reported from the Southern part of the state, where Web Flanagan divided honors with National Committeeman Hawley. Terrell of San Antonio received few endorsements, his own county being split. El Paso was given to Terrell, the Lyon people making no fight. It is believed here that the endorsements given Hawley will be thrown to Terrell in the State convention.

SPLIT AT DALLAS

Dallas, Aug. 27.—A split occurred in the Republican county convention held yesterday, and two delegations will go to the state convention at Fort Worth, one endorsing Hawley, the other Lyon. It means the Hawley instruction will be voted for Terrell, indications throughout the state are of a Lyon victory.

RESULTS ARE SATISFACTORY

San Antonio, Aug. 27.—Reports given out from the Terrell headquarters are regarded as very satisfactory by the candidate for state chairman. While the majority of instructed delegations go to the state convention for Lyon, it is believed here with Terrell's instructions and the uninstructed delegations, which are regarded favorable to him, he will have sufficient to elect.

GREEN GOT KAUFMAN

Terrell, Tex., Aug. 27.—Kaufman county instructed for Green. "Goose-neck Bill" McDonald was the temporary chairman. James Gibbs of Terrell made a speech attacking Roosevelt and an effort to remove him from the convention delegation was voted down.

Joseph Andreszworowitzka is the name of a young Polish girl that arrived in Philadelphia from Liverpool recently.

HOW JACKSON SMITH, AN AMERICAN ESCAPED CLUTCHES OF THE GOVERNMENT

(By Associated Press)

New York, Aug. 27.—On the British steamship Colombia, Jackson Smith, an American resident of Guayaquil, Ecuador, who had made himself persona non grata with the Ecuadorian authorities, was enabled to escape from Guayaquil, says a San Francisco dispatch to the Times.

Smith was taken to Panama whence he proceeded to New York.

Smith was a sub-contractor on the railroad to connect Guayaquil with Quito, the capital, up in the Andes. He is said to have accused a prominent citizen with drunkenness, was arrested for libel, and fined $1,500 in gold, which he refused to pay, the fine having been placed in jail. United States Consul Lyon demanded his release. When the case was reported to Washington the cruiser Philadelphia was sent to Guayaquil, but the Consul was relieved.

When the Colombia reached Guayaquil on the way up the coast a small boat containing Smith and a friend met the steamer just before dawn and the men were allowed to climb aboard. A few hours later the captain of the port went out to the Colombia for the purpose of taking Smith ashore, but he had hidden in a safe place and was not apprehended.

NEW CATTLE GRAZING FIELD

Texas Ranchman Will Try the Grass of British America

Austin, Tex., Aug. 27.—Major Gen. W. Littlefield, a millionaire banker and stock man of this city, has leased 1,000,000 acres of land in British Columbia for a period of twenty-one years at an annual rental of two cents per acre per annum. He owns 750,000 acres of ranch lands in Texas and New Mexico, which are stocked with 50,000 head of cattle. He branded 15,000 calves from these stock cattle this year. He will fence the immense tract of land which he has leased in British Columbia, and as more work is completed he will remove his herd of stock cattle from his Texas and New Mexico ranches to the Canadian land.

ARE PREPARING TO EVACUATE

NEW YORK CARPENTERS TO ASK FOR A RAISE

New York, Aug. 27.—Members of the Brotherhood Union of Carpenters of New York threaten to strike on Labor Day unless a 12 1/2 per cent increase in pay is granted them. In the union are 2000 carpenters of the city. Formal demand has been made on a large construction company for a wage increase from $4 to $4.50 a day, with the ultimatum that if a favorable reply is not received on or before September 1 all members of the brotherhood will stop work. Formal demands have not yet been made on other builders. The amalgamated union of carpenters, which has about 500 members, is not in harmony with the brotherhood and may be called upon to fill the places vacated.

SENTIMENTS STIRRED OVER "CRUCIFIXION"

Public sentiment has been aroused in the city regarding the announcement which appeared in The Telegram regarding the crucifixion which is to take place at the Stock Yards Inn Saturday, August 30. A man has agreed to be suspended from a cross for a period of 12 hours, thereby presenting something entirely novel in attractions, and apparently something that will draw a large crowd.

The Telegram was not off the press two hours till comments began to reach the office, the first being by telephone as a protest against the "sacrilege." Since then other expressions have come in, one of the strongest being from a lady who writes:

"Fort Worth Telegram, Sirs—I feel so perfectly outraged that I cannot find words to express my feelings. 'A man is to be crucified next Saturday afternoon at the Stock Yards Inn,' mocking our Lord Jesus Christ. The only benediction I could call on upon holders of same is the Lord's vengeance." Other expressions of protest against what seemed to the protesters a sacrilege have been made and The Telegram has endeavored to get expressions from representative men regarding the affair.

Ministers Speak

From the ministers, Rev. J. B. French, D. D., pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church, says: "You can enter my earnest and decided protest. It is at the least, semi-barbarous."

Rev. Luther Little of the First Baptist church: "It is ridiculous, and not only ridiculous, but sacrilegious and cruel. It is a shame and you can quote me as being very much opposed to anything of the sort."

Out of the City

Mayor Powell was asked concerning the city's jurisdiction over the case and replied that he had paid no attention to the matter as it is beyond the city's bounds. Any action concerning the exhibition, he said, would have to come through county authorities.

Little Attention Paid

At the office of County Attorney Lattimore no information regarding the proposed crucifixion had been received till brought by The Telegram. No official notice had been received and no action was contemplated. "If anything is done in violation of the law, steps will be taken in this office to prevent it," said Mr. Lattimore. Having received no proper information, he could not give his legal opinion on the affair.

Probable Outcome

The outcome of the affair hinges on County Attorney Lattimore's statement regarding the "violation of law." In order to prevent the exhibition from taking place, information by the proper authorities would have to be filed, and it would have to be proven that the exhibition was a legal violation.

A recent decision handed down by the criminal court is that a party who knowingly provides means to any one for committing suicide commits no offense, because in Texas a man who commits suicide commits no offense against the law. The sacrilegious side of the question would have to be handled under different provisions.

County Judge M. B. Harris said that such an exhibition, if it could be called such, bordered on blasphemy, and one which no enlightened community should indulge. He thought it was carrying into frivolity too serious a matter, simply to gratify the morbid cravings of the curious. As an officer of the county he could not take steps to put a stop to such an exhibition until a complaint was filed.

Justice Terrell said such an exhibition should not be tolerated, be it real or a fake.

Attorney A. J. Baskin said it would be a shame and a disgrace on a civilized community.

City Engineer John B. Hawley: "Such exhibitions of barbarity should be prohibited. What earthly good can come from such, even to the present generation or those to follow? Just such things cause the youths of the country to practice acts similar upon their little brothers or playfellows. You often hear of boys attempting to do a parachute stunt, and quite frequently serious and sometimes fatal results follow."

THE NEGROES WANT GREEN

LYON HAS FRIENDS ON TARRANT'S REPUBLICAN DELEGATION

Delegates Not Named With Reference to Any Candidates Race But Rather in Interest of Harmony

Little interest was manifested in yesterday's convention of Tarrant county Republicans in the race for state chairman and nothing was said which would lead to an endorsement of any of the several factions seeking the honor. It is known the negro preference is for Green of Terrell, also that Chairman Lyon has many friends here. There are several Lyon men on the delegation to the state convention.

Leaders say the appointment of delegates yesterday was made without reference to the claims of any candidate, but rather in the interest of harmony, and with a view of welding the factions.

As to congressional matter the party will leave that alone until the Democrats finish balloting which they believe will be done at Cleburne next week. In case three candidates are released on a free-for-all, the Republicans will likely put a candidate in the field in the hope of gaining a majority, the Democratic vote being divided.

WHOLESALE DRUG FIRM FROM WEATHERFORD

Wadsworth-Bain Company to Erect a Commodious Three-Story Brick Building Near Viaduct

The Telegram mentioned some weeks ago that a large wholesale drug firm from Weatherford would move to Fort Worth, and at that time was looking for a suitable location on which to build, a site where railroad trackage and warehouse facilities could be had.

Corroborating this announcement, Architect Waller has secured from the city engineer's office a permit to erect a three-story brick business house east of the Jennings avenue viaduct. The structure is for the Wadsworth-Bain wholesale drug firm to come here from Weatherford.

The structure alone is to cost $12,000, and will be modern in every particular. This will add materially to the appearance and to property values in this special locality, and the work of excavating for the foundation will be commenced at an early date.

A large wholesale hardware firm of Weatherford will this fall consolidate with a Fort Worth firm, and move its stock from Parker's capital here, mention of which was made in these columns early in July. In fact, the deal at that time had been made, and September 1 set as the date for the transfer.

ARE LEAVING CHICKASAW

Sherman, Tex., Aug. 27.—The county attorney's office has been notified that cattle in great numbers were being driven from the Territory into Texas at Preston Bend. The number is so great that there is no place to impound them and what to do with them is a proposition.

Several cattlemen in the Territory have declined to pay the 25c per head on their cattle as required by the Chickasaw law and the officers of the Territory are rounding up the cattle and starting them across the river. The Texas stock law prohibits any stock from running at large, hence the complication.

SOUTH CAROLINA RETURNS

Primary Returns Slow Coming in—Close Contest for Senator.

(By Associated Press)

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 27.—Reports from rural districts of the state are slow in coming in from yesterday's primaries, but are sufficient to make a nomination for governor. A. C. Lattimer and John Gary Evans will probably make the final run for senator.

CORSICANA WINS ANOTHER

DEFEATS FORT WORTH IN AN EIGHT INNING GAME

Called on Account of Darkness—Awful Drubbing Given the Panthers—Dallas Wins From Paris

It was an uninteresting game between Fort Worth and Corsicana in Corsicana yesterday, the score being 10 to 1 in the champion's favor, and that in a game only eight innings long. The game was called at that time on account of darkness. In the second inning the Corsicana team took six runs from the visitors and in the seventh took four. Fort Worth still remains at the foot of the percentage list.

Score by innings and summary of yesterday's game:

Innings: 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Corsicana.....0 6 0 0 0 4 0—10
Fort Worth.....0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1

Summary—Bases stolen, Maloney, Alexander 2, Hill; two-base hits, Hill 2, Shelton, Wright 2; three-base hits, Clark; home run, Shelton; double plays, Jarvis to Wolfe to R. White, O'Connor to Wright to Alexander; bases on balls, off Wright 4, off Jarvis 3; hits by pitched ball, Shelton and Jarvis; struck out by Wright 3, by Jarvis 2; passed balls, Wolfe and Clark; wild pitches, Jarvis 2; sacrifice hit, Wright; earned runs, Corsicana 6; left on bases, Corsicana 8, Fort Worth 11; time of game 1 hour and 48 minutes; umpire, Eldridge.

PARIS LOSES TO DALLAS.

The game between Dallas and Paris in Dallas yesterday resulted in a victory for the home team. The score was 12 to 4. Dallas bunched its hits early in the game, and in the third inning took eight runs from the visitors.

UPHART AT SHREVEPORT

MAN WANTED BY LOCAL FIREMEN HAS BEEN HELD THERE FOR INSTRUCTIONS

Fire Chief Maddox has gone to Shreveport, La., to help E. F. Uphart who is now at that place, return to Fort Worth for the purpose of paying about $235 to the Fort Worth fire department, the amount due them on an advertising souvenir book which Uphart issued.

Yesterday, Chief of Police Rea received telegram from Shreveport stating that Uphart was there and Chief Maddox left last night to attempt to get the money due the department.

Today he wired Chief Rea to get requisition papers for Uphart as he intends bringing him, as well as the money, back to this city.

Uphart has been wanted by the department since he left a few weeks ago. He got out a souvenir edition of a pamphlet containing pictures of the local firemen, etc. One-third of the advertising proceeds of the book was to go to the department. Uphart, it is said, got about $700 before leaving town and failed to cash in with the firemen. He was arrested at Shreveport at the instance of Chief Rea and it is expected that Chief Maddox will bring him here as soon as the requisition papers are issued.

The Wednesday veranda concert and ball at Stock Yards Inn tonight.

Be Strong
Weakness won't win

The battle of life is a hard one. Prepare for it. If your constitution is good, preserve it. If it is weak, build it up. If your Liver and Kidneys are sound, keep them so. You'll need them in the daily struggle. If they are weak, watch them every hour of the day.

To succeed in these troublesome times, you must have a sound Liver and safe Kidneys; otherwise your blood will be poisoned and your nerves ruined. Diabetes must be unknown. Bright's Disease must be impossible. Your success would be threatened, your health shattered, so you need a safeguard against physical decay. You need good rest at night—steady, quiet nerves during the day. At the first sign of weakness, be warned.

McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm

will bring speedy relief from pain and decay. And if you have neglected these organs most essential to your success, or if other remedies have failed, it will help you, and reawaken the dormant organs back to safe and sure action.

It will remove, as if by magic, the dull, heavy ache in your back, that hurts you when you stand, sit, walk, or lie down. A bottle at $1.00 will make you a new, well being. Buy it of your druggist. Made by

TUG LINES IN A COMBINATION

New York Harbor Boats May Come Under One Head (By Associated Press)

New York, Aug. 27.—A project for combining the various towing lines of this harbor has been revived and material progress is said to have been made towards bringing about a consolidation of the more important concerns. A similar movement was undertaken last spring and options were secured on several lines, but nothing definite came from that attempt.

A STRIKE AT KATY SHOPS

HELPERS AT DENISON ROUND HOUSE GO OUT

A RAISE IS ASKED

Demand of 25 Cents a Day Increase is Refused—Negroes to Take Strikers' Places Refuse to go to Work

Denison, Tex., Aug. 27.—There was a strike at the Katy shops Tuesday, when all the machinists' helpers in the roundhouse, machine shops and spring gang and the blacksmiths' helpers at the Katy shops went out. They demanded an increase of 25c per day wages several weeks ago. A week ago an ultimatum was sent to William O'Hara, superintendent of motive power and machinery of the Katy at Parsons, that they would quit if their request for an increase was not complied with. The time was up Monday night, and the request not having been complied with, the men went out. An unusual feature of the strike is that some negroes employed in other capacities about the shops were ordered to work in the places of the striking men and absolutely refused to take the places of men on strike.

Strike at Cleburne is Over

Cleburne, Tex., Aug. 27.—The strike of the Santa Fe machinists came to an end Tuesday. The strikers yield their contention and about seventy-five of them have applied for work. The agreement with General Manager Nelson is that vacancies are to be given to the strikers without prejudice as fast as they occur.

ALL WERE SAVED.

"For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnson, of Bronchtia, Ga., "that of an I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Guthrie & Guthrie's, 502 Main street.

SHOT HIS WIFE; THEN HIMSELF

Bakerville (Texas) is Stirred Up Over a Double Killing (Special to the Telegram) Somerville, Tex., Aug. 27.—In Bakerville, Dave Wilson, a negro, shot his wife, Jennie, with a 41-calibre, double barreled pistol. Constable F. F. Snyder was notified of the trouble. When in a few yards of the house in which the wife of Wilson had taken refuge Wilson was seen by the constable going in the direction of the house and was commanded to halt, when Wilson fired the remaining charge of the pistol into his own boy. Medical aid was summoned and upon examination it was discovered that the wounds of each were of a superficial and trivial nature. Wilson is in jail and his wife is resting quietly at home. It is said domestic trouble was the cause of the shooting.

A Necessary Precaution

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Allays inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. ### THEY WANT BURT ARRESTED

President of Union Pacific Road Has Warrant Served

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 27.—Ten warrants have been served on President Burt of the Union Pacific road charging him, jointly with W. Arnett, an Indianapolis labor agent, with false imprisonment. The warrants were sworn out by ten men who allege they were hired by Arnett to work in the shops of the Union Pacific road at Denver. The warrants charge that each of the men were imprisoned in care and that they were deprived their liberty until they reached the shop yards of the company in this city.

CURED PARALYSIS.

W. S. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites, and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c. 50c and $1.00 bottle at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.

Excitement in a Coal District.

Summitt Hill, Pa., Aug. 27.—Excitement prevails throughout Panther Creek district. At daybreak the strikers assembled to prevent non-union men from going to work. Anticipating trouble, Major Gearhart sent two companies of soldiers in trolley cars from the camp in Manila park to this place, and their presence prevented a possible outbreak.

Three Houses Burned.

Honey Grove, Tex., Aug. 27.—A fire broke out among some business houses on South Sixth street in Honey Grove Tuesday. Three business houses were destroyed with most of their contents. Insurance had been canceled about two weeks ago. Extent of the loss is as yet unknown.

Don't fail to read Case 113, the serial story now running in the Telegram.

A LUMBER FAILURE

Receiver Appointed for the Property of a Bankrupt. Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 27.—The receiver appointed for the property of a bankrupt lumber company, which was organized in Chicago, Ill., with headquarters at Kansas City, Mo., and a mill, and saw factory at Kansas City, Mo., was placed in receivership hands. Assets are estimated at $500,000 and liabilities at $250,000.

A receiver was also appointed for the company's property, said to be valued at over $100,000. In Arkansas the company owns land in Green county, two miles of Sedwick.

Receivers were appointed on the application of Harry C. Culver and H. A. Culver, majority stockholders, trouble having arisen over the management of the firm. The chief creditor is the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City, Mo.

SENSATIONAL RACING.

Direct Hal Driven to Victory in the Pacing Race at Providence.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 27.—The climax of sensational racing was reached in the Great Park Brew stakes, valued at $10,000, at Narragansett park Tuesday afternoon. Ed George piloted Direct Hal to victory in three straight heats, and the black stallion's record was lowered from 2:06 flat to 2:04 1/4. The second heat was the pace that kills. Scott Hudson made a rush down the stretch with Twinkle, and would have beaten anybody but George. It was such a drive home that Twinkle went off her feet and broke almost under the wire, while Direct Hal won in 2:04 1/4. The last half was paced in 1:01 flat, with the last quarter in 29 seconds. Twelve thousand people saw the race, and they went wild with enthusiasm.

A WOMAN TIRES OF HER LIFE

Miss L. Vogel Strangles Herself in a Beaumont Hotel

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 27.—Miss L. M. Vogel of Galveston was found dead in her bed at the Oaks hotel in this city Tuesday afternoon, and from indications strangled herself to death with a handkerchief.

Miss Vogel came to Beaumont last Wednesday and went to the Oaks hotel, where she registered and was assigned to a room on the second floor. During her stay there she has not mingled with the people in the hotel, except in a business way. From what has been learned it seems she either owned or controlled some land on Galveston Island near the oil well being bored there, and she was endeavoring to sell some of this land to Beaumont oil operators. It is said that she had about completed some sales.

No One Cent Letter Postage

The bill providing for the adoption of one cent postage instead of two, on all first-class mail matter will not become a law, because the loss of revenue would be too great. It is good policy to guard against losses of any kind, but especially against the loss of your health. For this purpose Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be taken, because it will strengthen the stomach, perfect the digestion and keep the bowels open, thus protecting you from all sickness. If, however, you have lost your health and suffer from headache, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation or biliousness, you need the Bitters at once, because it is a specific remedy for these ailments, and will cure you. Try a bottle and see for yourself.

THE DUTCH ARE IN CONTROL

Political Conditions in Cape Colony Cause Uneasiness

New York, Aug. 27.—Anomalous political conditions in Cape Colony are causing uneasiness among the government journals here, cables a London correspondent. Sir Gordon Spriggs, with Colonial Secretary Chamberlain behind him, is completely at the mercy of the rands, and the royalists are dependent upon the mercy of the Dutch for indemnity legislation.

TO INCREASE GUN POWER

Uncle Sam's New Battleships to Be Great Fighters

Washington, Aug. 27.—The Connecticut and Louisiana, the two battleships authorized by the last naval appropriation bill, will carry the most powerful guns measured by caliber in the world. With the building of each new set of battleships Admiral O'Neill chief of the bureau of ordnance, has tried to increase the power of the main batteries, and for the Connecticut and Louisiana he intends to increase the length of the big turret guns to 45 calibers. Not only will this lengthening of the guns increase their efficiency as to range and velocity (and therefore penetrating power), but it will constitute a distinct advantage to the ships. The muzzles of the guns of 40 calibers when swung broadside just reach the rail and the side blast when fired prevents the use of secondary guns immediately below. By increasing the length to 45 calibers the muzzles of the guns are carried well out overboard.

Shot Three Times.

Ardmore, I. T., Aug. 27.—A man named Eblevin, residing at Elmore, was shot three times and instantly killed. The slayer was arrested. It is said domestic troubles led to the killing.

Stabbed to Death.

Tornado at Felanitx.

Barcelona, Spain, Aug. 27.—News has reached here of a fearful tornado at Felanitx, on the island of Majorca. Enormous damage is reported to have been done; houses have been destroyed and lives have been lost.

Kicked to Death

Ladonia, Tex., Aug. 27.—E. C. Burrell, living three miles east of this place, while crossing a ditch on a load of wood, fell behind his team and was instantly kicked to death. He was an ex-Confederate.

ROOSEVELT IN FAR MAINE

SPEAKS EIGHT TIMES EN ROUTE TO AUGUSTA

HAS GREAT WELCOME

During the Journey He Receives the Plaudits of a Quarter Million People—Floral Gifts Showered in Portland

Augusta, Me., Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt Tuesday passed through three states, delivered eight speeches and received the plaudits of 250,000 people. The greeting which has marked his progress through New England has been flattering in the extreme. Everywhere at the regular stops and the smaller stations along the road the people were strenuous in their efforts to catch a glimpse of him or to hear him speak, and at Haverhill, Mass., this desire assumed such a form they completely overrode the police and surrounded the president's carriage making it difficult for it to advance.

While on his way through the streets of Portland the president's carriage was stopped and he was presented with an album containing views of the city. He stood up in his carriage and briefly thanked the donor, Captain Charles F. Dam. He has been the recipient of many floral gifts, and where the admirers were unable to get near enough personally to hand them to him they threw them over the heads of the crowd into his carriage.

Conspicuous among those who boarded the train at Old Orchard to extend a welcome to the president was Congressman Littlefield of Rockland. His visit was brief and the conversation turned to other subjects than trusts. Mr. Littlefield declined to comment on the president's trust speech, pleading that he had not finished it.

When Danville Junction was reached the president was greeted by Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Garrett A. Hobart and Mrs. Chas. W. Smith. Some stops were made which were not in the itinerary. At Lisbon, Lisbon Falls and Brunswick, Me., immense crowds gathered and the president was obliged to appear on the rear platform and say a few words. Although the day was a particularly hard one on him the president gave but slight signs of fatigue.

It Needs a Tonic

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as a tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland avenue, Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. Smallwood & Anderson, Anderson & Smallwood.

Summer Terrors

An itching, burning skin disease during the hot, sultry summer weather, is a positive terror and a veritable demon of discomfort. The intolerable itching and stinging are tantalizing almost beyond endurance, and the unsightly eruption and rough, red skin keep one thoroughly uncomfortable and miserable night and day. Eczema, Tetter, and diseases of this type are caused by acid poisons in the blood, which the heat of summer seems to warm into life and renewed activity. These fiery acids keep the blood in a riotous and sour condition, and the skin unhealthy and feverish—they inflame the pores and retard perspiration, when the whole body feels like an over-heated furnace, and the escaping poison burns

TORMENTING ECZEMA.

KANSAS CITY, MO., May, 1898. In 1896 I experienced at times patches on the inside of my hands that itched and burned, causing much discomfort. As time went by it grew worse. I had read medicine in my early twenties (now 50 years of age) and was convinced that I was afflicted with a type of Eczema. I consulted several physicians and a number of specialists, and used several external applications, one of which was claimed to be a certain specific. I confess, however, I had but little faith in external applications, yet I used them, receiving but slight temporary relief. In February I decided to try S. S. S., and in less than a month I experienced a change for the better, and by May of that year all symptoms had disappeared, and I found myself entirely cured, and have had no return of the disease since.

W. P. BRUSH, Station A, Kansas City, Mo.

or check the outflow of the burning fluids through the skin. Only persistent and faithful constitutional treatment can do this. The acid poison in the blood, which is the real cause of the eruption, must be attacked, and when the blood has been cleared of all accumulated impurities and restored to a healthy condition, then, and only then, will a thorough and lasting cure be effected, and for the accomplishment of all this, no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains all requirements for cleansing and building up the acid blood, and invigorating and toning up the system. S. S. S. completely and permanently eradicates every vestige of poison, thus effectually preventing a fresh outbreak of the disease.

Cases that have resisted ordinary treatment for years, yield to the purifying, cooling effects of S. S. S. upon the blood, and when rich, pure blood is again circulating through the system, the itching and stinging cease, the eruption disappears, and the red, rough skin becomes soft and smooth again.

Skin diseases appear in various forms—sometimes in pustules or blisters, sores, rashes, or red, disfiguring bumps and pimples—but all are caused by a bad condition of the blood, and for which S. S. S. is a safe and effectual cure. No bad effects can come from its use, because it contains no Arsenic, Potash or other harmful drugs, but is guaranteed a strictly vegetable remedy.

If you are a sufferer from some summer terror like Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Nettle Rash or kindred disease, write us about it, and medical advice or any special information wanted will be given without charge.

Our Book on Skin Diseases will be sent free to all desiring it.

THE ITCHING WAS TERRIBLE. ESCOBARDO, San Diego Co., Cal., Oct. 1900. DEAR SIRS—My body broke out with a rash or eruption. The itching, especially at night, was simply terrible; it would almost disappear at times, only to return worse than ever. I had tried many preparations without benefit, and hearing of S. S. S. determined to give it a fair trial; a few bottles cured me entirely, removing every blemish and purple from my body. L. MARINO.

BAD FORM OF TETTER.

For three years I had Tetter on my hands, which caused them to swell to twice their natural size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of running sores, very painful, and causing me much discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetter had progressed too far to be cured, and they could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S. and was completely cured. This was fifteen years ago, and I have never since seen any sign of my old trouble. MRS. L. B. JACKSON, 837 St. Paul St., Kansas City, Kan.

MANY WERE KILLED.

Result of Bombardment of Ciudad Bolivar, by Venezuelan Gunboats. Caracas, Aug. 27.—Ciudad Bolivar, capital of Bolivar, has been bombarded by a Venezuelan government war ship and many persons were killed or wounded.

The place has a large British population and the British subjects have requested that a warship of Great Britain be sent for their protection.

It is alleged that atrocities have been committed at Ciudad Bolivar by both the government troops and the revolutionists. Ciudad Bolivar is still in the power of the revolutionists.

The town was fired upon day and night by the gunboats Bolivar and Restaurador, which attempted to land forces to reconquer the place. About 600 shells were fired into the city. When the ammunition of the Restaurador was exhausted she left for La Guayra to obtain additional supplies, after which the bombardment will be resumed.

There are no foreign warships in the Orinoco river to protect the interests of the powers and the British government is being blamed in certain quarters for abandoning the 3000 subjects of Great Britain who reside in the district of Ciudad Bolivar.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, AUG. 27, 1922

It looks very much as though Uncle Sam will have to take a nickle's worth of balls and see if he can knock the Cuban nigger baby down.

Our old time friend, Sir Thomas Lip-ton, has decided that he will stick to the ship that is less dangerous. He bumped up against a stone wall the other day in an automobile.

Secretary Shaw talks on both sides, says the Waco Times-Herald. Yes and not only that but he tears it up the middle makes two more sides and then skates up one of them and down the other.

The Missouri Democratic state central committee prints a list of speakers who are to open the campaign on the 9th of September. Mr. Bryan is at the head of the procession, with his faithful follower, ex-Governor "Bill" Stone in second place.

The Chicago News says: "Five green goods men have been arrested, but Texas oil-promoters are still at large, so that any one whose money is a burden need suffer no longer than it takes to get to the nearest postoffice." That's all right but did any one ever hear of a man in Chicago getting as far as the postoffice without being held up and robbed.

If Mr. Roosevelt is as anxious to "represent the best thought and purpose of the wage earners of the United States" as he proclaimed at Hartford, why don't he turn his attention to the coal field where, in the strike that is now prevailing, he will have ample opportunity to "represent the best thought and purpose of the wage earners of the United States."

When boats begin plying up and down the Trinity we can all go fishing and forget the troubles of the other fellow, says the Dallas Times-Herald. Yes, and when Texas goes Republican; when Iowa goes Democratic; when Dallas gets paved streets; when they catch Pat Crowe; when Fort Worth leans the Texas base ball league; when—but what's the use.

THE SOUTH'S PROGRESS

Some figures of Southern advancement collated by the Manufacturers' Record from census bulletins present a striking and significant record of material progress during two census decades. It is shown that from 1880 to 1900 the value of products in the Southern States increased, in round numbers, from $1,134,000,000 to $2,844,000,000—a ratio of 157 per cent, while population increased but 44 per cent. Farm property increased in value, 72 per cent, while farm products increased 92 per cent.

The fertile areas whence are drawn the semi-tropical products of world consumption no longer serve as mere storehouses of unutilized supplies of raw materials.

Cheap transportation by land and water; enormous increase of production under intensive modern methods; inventive genius as applied to machinery; the presence of a docile and teachable laboring element—these and other scarcely less potent considerations have combined to attract large amounts of new capital for investment in Southern manufacturing enterprises.

In 1880 the manufactured products of the South were worth, in round numbers, $457,000,000. In 1900 they are stated at $1,463,000,000. During the twenty years in question the rate of increase in capital invested in manufactures in the South has been 343 per cent. For the entire United States the rate has been but 25 per cent.

Similarly, the value of products in the South increased 220 per cent; in the United States 142 per cent. These are amazing comparisons, yet they only set forth mathematically the results of a movement of industrial and commercial regeneration and advancement that is none the less noteworthy and impressive because it has taken place under our very eyes and in our own time.

A FORT WORTH NEED.

In all the larger newspapers of the north and of the south there is every day printed a table of weather conditions in all or most of the leading cities of the country. The maximum and minimum temperature is given together with the rainfall. These figures are of great value to those people who are interested in them for any one cause or another.

These statistics are furnished by the weather bureau. They are wired from the various stations to the government at Washington who then attends to their distribution. In Texas only El Paso, Galveston, Palestine and San Antonio are among the stations that are given daily prominence in this general list.

There is no better advertising anywhere than to be given a place in the daily weather statistics. The advertising costs nothing. The newspapers gladly give space to the table.

Fort Worth should be represented in this daily statistical table. In the first place because the eyes of the north and south are continually sweeping the horizon in the direction of Fort Worth. There is no better known city in the north or south than Fort Worth.

People everywhere are looking toward the southwest for locations. They consult the weather maps and the weather tables are printed in their home papers. They want to know about what kind of weather we are having here.

It's no hotter these days here than it is any where else in the south. In fact it's lots cooler than in some places. We have nothing to hide in the way of climate.

Of course these are not primary reasons why Uncle Sam is going to put Fort Worth into his daily weather column.

The reason Fort Worth should be in this daily chronicle is because we are the center of a vast and important agricultural and stock raising country that has no nearby representative in the aforesaid weather tabulations.

San Antonio and Palestine are not in the same belt at all. What kind of weather those cities are having is no criterion for Fort Worth climate. The fogs of Galveston never get up here in Fort Worth.

We have a climate of our own here and we want the world to know about it. If this matter is taken up in the right way Fort Worth can get in on this tabulated weather records.

We need it. The people who are interested in weather conditions throughout the country need to know what conditions prevail here.

SCISSOR ETTES

From the Nashville American: In this period of variegated Democracy and differentiated Democrats, no man, unless he be negative and colorless of political view, could prove wholly unobjectionable or satisfactory to all factions. Unless each faction accepts in some sort a compromise candidate whom all can cheerfully support, we shall look far and in vain for a modern Moses to lead the party out of the wilderness. Perhaps the occasion may produce the man.

From the Richmond Times: If the President spends two hours per day in the garden trying to pull up trust weeds he will soon find out that they grow from the hill in which the tariff root has been imbedded.

The Denison Herald says: The cotton crop in this section is better than last year, despite the fact that the boll worms did some damage. The crop is going to turn out well in this section of Grayson county and territory contiguous to Denison in the Indian Territory. Other crops have been good or fair, and this indicates a period of unexampled prosperity in this part of the moral vineyard.

Terrell Transcript: The Fort Worth Telegram is publishing a chapter from the Bible every day. And this in Fort Worth! That any good can come out of Sodom!

Atchison Globe: Be good, but don't be too good, or you will be a white elephant on your friends' hands.

Waco Times Herald: In a thousand ways one can help his fellows and never be in the least put out. There are tears to dry, hearts to comfort, bodies to clothe and feed, and each can be of some assistance. We make distinctions that are false and erect barriers that are cruel, forgetting all the while that our best is loving service.

The Kansas City Star has been doing some hard thinking as follows: The Republican party, if it is to do anything with the tariff, must recognize two of the great evils resulting from gratuitous and wholly superfluous protective duties—the menacing concentration of capital and the in-

GOV. ODELL'S FEATHER TAP AT THE TRUSTS

(From the New York Journal and American.)
Governor Odell in his speech to the State Grange touched on the trusts. He enquired upon what combination of effort, association of capital, has done for the country. He said:

Without it the railroads, the steamship lines and other great enterprises of our State would have been impossible. Without it the results which have followed the blending together of individual efforts and the formation of great enterprises in our financial and commercial world could not have been attained.

That is all true, but what has it to do with the trust question? What is the trust question? Simply the question whether plundering combines shall be permitted to go on plundering indefinitely.

Nobody of sense quarrels with corporations as such, or objects to capital concentrating. But what every honest and patriotic citizen who sees the situation as it exists does object to is that large capital should be given artificial aid in its competition with small capital—that government should side with the combine against the individual.

The trust that needs to be suppressed is not the one which seeks to capture markets through the cheapness of production resulting from greater economies and by large sales with small profits. That is honest business.

The trusts that must be suppressed in the interests of the people are these:
1. The trust that has a monopoly of the market because it has a monopoly of natural resources, like the Coal Trust.

2. The trust that has a monopoly of the market because the tariff shelters it from competition, like the Food Trust.

3. The trust that has a monopoly of the market because it is in criminal conspiracy with the railroads, which by discriminating freight charges shut out competitors, as in the case of the Coal Trust, and the Food Trust, and the Standard Oil Trust, and most of the great trusts which are preying upon the public.

These trusts, which are simply thieving associations on a grand scale, are not to be hurt by gentle taps with a feather, after Governor Odell's fashion, but only by the hammer of the law, wielded by servants of the people elected to do the destructive work with ruthless vigor.

The criminal trusts are the arch enemies of honest business, and the foes of permanent prosperity. They have the country in their grip today, and are picking the people's pockets with both hands every hour of the twenty-four.

They will never be destroyed or restrained by the Republican party because

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS OWNED BY THE TRUSTS.

Trade expansion is secondary to either of these reforms. Yet trade would be extended, not retarded, by a proper adjustment of the tariffs. Until the text of Governor Shaw's "keynote" is received, the forecast must be regarded as disappointing.

A FEW STORIES

When Blaine was Secretary of State he had occasion to send a semi-official message to a representative of one of the minor European governments. He selected one of the young men in his office for the errand, which was not without excitement; for the foreign attache was an arrogant fellow and insulted the messenger, and was promptly kicked under his own table by way of retort. Of course, the foreigner filed a complaint with the State Department, and, equally of course, Blaine was obliged to apologize on behalf of the department and publicly rebuke the militant messenger. Privately, however, the Plumed Knight was "square" enough to tell the young fellow he did perfectly right, but added, in a voice made hoarse by fervor: "But thank God that it wasn't Pauncetote you kicked!"

Monocles are plentiful in Cape Town, but in Johannesburg and Pretoria they are conspicuous only by their absence. "K." does not like them. Capt. — of a famous cavalry regiment, out of all the swell officers, alone refused to give up his monocle for anybody. It was the current report in the regiment that he wore it in bed and also when he took his bath.

One day Lord Kitchener met the single-pane officer outside the Transvaal hotel in Pretoria. "One minute, captain," said the commander, "may I ask if it is absolutely necessary for you to wear that glass in your right eye?"

"Yaas, certainly, Lord Kitchener—er—er—I could not see without it." "I am sorry to hear that, Capt. —, as I intended to give you a staff appointment, but I must have men around me who can see well. Kindly report yourself for duty to the officer commanding the lines of communication."

The disgruntled cavalry officer obeyed the instructions. Three months afterward he was taken prisoner by the Boers, who stripped him of his clothing and sent him back into camp still attired in his eyeglass, but in nothing else. Such is fate!

A story of Abraham Lincoln would have to be older than the one below to lose its characteristic savor. In the summer of 1837 Mr. Lincoln was sitting in his office, when he was visited by one of his neighbors, an excellent farmer, but one inclined to increase the size of his crops even after harvest. He had given on the particular morning a skillfully padded account of the hay he had put in.

"I've been cutting hay, too," remarked Mr. Lincoln. "Why, Abe, are you farming?" "Yes."

"What you raise?" "Just hay." "Good crop this year?" "Excellent." "How many tons?"

"Well, I don't know just how many tons, Simpson, but my men stacked all they could outdoors, and then stored the rest in the barn."

A clergyman in a town in the coal-regions of the state where municipal improvements were under way stumbled one misty night into a deep hole dug to make a connection of sewer-pipes. The wet, slippery earth made climbing out impossible; so he cried lustily for help. A Celt who was passing heard the yells, crossed to the hole, and inquired as to the trouble. The minister explained and told who he was.

"Well, Oi'm in a bit of a hurry," said the Celt; "so, yez can stop down there 'til Oi come back. Yez'll not be wanted 'til Sunday, anny-way."

In the Chicago Chronicle the Democrats of the entire country have a special organ that has no peer as a champion of their cause. It is the best kind of Democracy at that. But one does not have to be a Democrat to be interested in the Chronicle. As a newspaper it has few equals. There is nothing of the sensational order to it. The Chronicle is a straight out and newspaper and once a reader of it one is pretty sure to cling to it. And too, the Sunday issue contains more real live interesting matter than a dozen of the papers that fill nine-tenths of the space available with headlines and sensational pictures. CASE By... Emile Gaboriau
Illustration of a man in a suit and hat.

Synopsis of Case No. 113
The morning of February 28, a man introducing himself as Count Louis De Clameran, an iron maker of Olbron, enters the bank of M. Fauvel and announces that he has come to draw 300,000 francs ($70,000) deposited in the bank by his late brother. A few minutes later the cashier, Prosper Bertomy, arrives and going in to open the safe returns a few minutes later to announce that the safe has been robbed of 350,000 francs which he put there the afternoon before, expecting that Count De Clameran would call for it early in the morning, before banking hours. The president, M. Fauvel, arrives, and he and Bertomy accuse each other of the robbery. M. Lecoq and his assistant, Fanferlot, take up the case.

Under the name of M. Verduret, M. Lecoq takes up his abode with Prosper and attempts to find more clues. Prosper receives a letter, the words of which have been cut from a prayer-book and pasted on a sheet of paper. Prosper meets Madeline and has a passionate interview. He returns despondent, but is encouraged by Verduret, who assures him of Madeline's constancy. They find that the letter enclosing 10,000 francs and sent to Prosper, had been made from words cut from a prayer book Prosper had given Madeline.

Verduret finds evidence to assure him that Lagors is an impostor and that Count Louis de Clameran was very poor before the mysterious death of his brother who had been a rich iron maker. Verduret and Prosper go to Vesinet where Verduret sees an interview between Lagors and Madeline, niece of M. Fauvel, at the close of which she puts three pieces of red and yellow paper, evidently pawn-tickets in her pocketbook. Verduret in the guise of a clown attends the Jandifiers' ball at which Madeline in the beautiful costume of a maid of honor is a center of attraction. Verduret begins a mysterious harangue to attract the attention of Mme. Fauvel who is sitting apart from the crowd.

Mme. Fauvel became interested. She left her seat and approached nearer to the clown. "Do you see anything on the banner like what he is describing?" asked the melancholy Punch of his neighbor. "No, do you?"

The fact is that the daubs of paint on the canvas represented one thing as well as another, and the clown could call them whatever he pleased. "Picture No. 2?" he cried after a rolling of drums. "This old lady seated before a mirror tearing out her hair, especially the gray ones—do you recognize her? No, you do not. She is the fair mandarine of the first picture. I see tears in your eyes, ladies and gentlemen. Ah, you have cause to weep, for she is no longer virtuous, and her happiness has departed with her virtue. Alas, it is a sad story! One fatal day she met on the streets of Peking a young ruffian, fendish, but beautiful as an angel, and she loved him—the unfortunate woman loved him!"

During this tirade he had turned about till he faced the banker's wife, whose countenance he closely watched while he was speaking. "You are surprised, gentlemen," he continued. "I am not. The heart never grows old, and the most vigorous wallflowers flourish on old ruins. This unhappy woman is nearly fifty years old—and in love with a youth! Hence this heartrending scene, which should serve as a warning to us all."

"Really," grumbled a cook dressed in white satin, who had passed the evening in carrying around menus which no one read, "I thought he was going to amuse us."

"But," continued the clown, "you must go inside of the booth to witness the effects of the mandarine's folly. At times a ray of reason penetrates her diseased brain, and then the sight of her anguish would soften the most unfeeling. Enter, and for the small sum of 10 cents you shall hear sobs such as the Odeon never echoed in its balcony days. The unhappy woman realizes the absurdity and inanity of her blind passion. She confesses to herself that she is madly pursuing a phantom. She knows but too well that he is in the vigor and beauty of youth cannot love a faded old woman like herself, who vainly makes pitiable efforts to retain the last remains of her once enchanting beauty. She feels that the sweet words he once whispered in her charmed ear were false. She knows that the day is near when she will be left alone, with nothing save his mantle in her hand."

As the clown addressed this voluble description to the crowd before him he narrowly watched the countenance of the banker's wife. But nothing he had said seemed to affect her. She leaned back in her armchair perfectly calm and occasionally smiled. "Can I be on the wrong track?" muttered the clown uneasily. M. de Clameran joined the circle.

"The third picture," the clown continued, "depicts the old mandarine after she has dismissed that most annoying of guests—remorse—from her bosom. She promises herself that interest shall supply the place of love in holding the seductive youth. It is with this object that she invests him with false honors and dignity and introduces him to the chief mandarins of the capital of the Celestial empire. Then, since so handsome a youth must cut a fine figure in society, the lady must needs to sacrifice all of her possessions for his sake—necklaces, rings, bracelets, diamonds and pearls—every jewel she possesses. The monster carries all these to the pawnbrokers on Tientsi street and then has the cruelty to refuse her the tickets, so that she may have a chance of redeeming her treasures."

"The clown thought that at last he had fulfilled the conditions. Mme. Fauvel began to betray signs of uneasiness. Once she made an attempt to rise from the chair, but it seemed as if her strength failed her, and she sank back, forced to listen. "Finally, ladies and gentlemen," continued the clown, "the richly stored jewel cases were emptied. The day came when the mandarine had nothing more to give. It was then that the young scoundrel conceived the project of carrying off the Jasper button belonging to the Mandarine Li Fo, a splendid jewel of incalculable value, a badge of dignity. It was kept in a granite chest and guarded by three soldiers night and day. Ah, the mandarine resisted a long time. She knew the innocent soldiers would be accused and crucified, as is the custom in Peking, and this thought restrained her. But her lover besought her so tenderly that she finally yielded to his entreaties, and the Jasper button was stolen. The fourth picture represents the guilty couple stealthily creeping down the private stairway. See their frightened look—see—"

He abruptly stopped. Three or four of his auditors rushed to the assistance of Mme. Fauvel, who seemed about to faint. The clown felt his arm roughly seized by some one behind him. He turned and faced De Clameran and Lagors, both of whom were pale with anger. "What do you want, gentlemen?" he asked, with his most gracious air. "To speak to you," they both answered.

"I am at your service." He followed them to the end of the picture gallery, near a window opening on a balcony. Here they were unobserved except by the man in the Venetian cloak, whom the clown had addressed as "monsieur the count." The minut having ended, the orchestra were taking a brief rest, and the company pouring into the gallery, it became very crowded. The sudden faintness of Mme. Fauvel had passed off unnoticed save by a few, who attributed it to the heat of the room. M. Fauvel had been sent for, but when he came hurrying in he found his wife composedly talking to Madeline. Not having as much control over his temper as Raoul, M. de Clameran angrily said:

"In the first place, monsieur, I would like to know who you are." The clown determined to answer as if he thought the question were a jest. "You want my license, do you, my lord doge? I left it in the hands of the city authorities. It contains my name, age, profession, domicile and every detail!"

With an angry gesture M. de Clameran interrupted him. "You have committed a gross insult!" "I, my lord doge?" "Yes, you! What do you mean by telling this abominable story?" "Abominable! You may call it abominable, but I, who composed it—"

"Enough, monsieur. You will at least have the courage to acknowledge that your performance was a vile insinuation against Mme. Fauvel?" The clown stood with his head thrown back and mouth wide open, as if astounded at what he heard. But any one who knew him would have seen his bright black eyes sparkling with malicious satisfaction.

"Upon my word," he said as if speaking to himself, "this is the strangest thing I ever heard of! How can my drama of the Mandarine Li Fo have any allusion to Mme. Fauvel, whom I don't know from Adam or Eve?" "Do you pretend," said M. de Clameran, "to be ignorant of M. Fauvel's misfortune?"

"A misfortune?" "I refer, monsieur, to the robbery of which M. Fauvel was the victim and which has been in every one's mouth."

Holds Heat Mark FORT WORTH YESTERDAY ONE OF THE WARMEST PLACES IN THE COUNTRY

Can it be that after a while people will say, "It's almost as hot as in Fort Worth."

The records of the weather bureau yesterday show that with Oklahoma City and Phoenix, Ariz., Fort Worth shared the distinction of being the hottest place in the country. Today the official mercury measured off 98 degrees at noon, and it is likely that yesterday's record was again equaled this afternoon. From Indian Territory comes the report that it was 110 in the shade at one place yesterday, but that temperature was not taken 100 feet above ground and by government instruments.

For practical purposes, as an algebra professor would say, the mercury on a level with Houston street, is not far from 105 degrees this afternoon. Were it not for Fort Worth's never-failing 6-mile breeze, the heat would be oppressive, as a thunderstorm is making goo-goo eyes at this locality.

Observer Reeder's official forecast for Fort Worth is as follows: "Thundershower with slightly cooler temperature is probable in the vicinity of Fort Worth late this afternoon or night; the center of disturbance, however, has already moved eastward."

OTHER HOT PLACES. There were other places where it was hot yesterday, even if they did not equal Fort Worth's mark. Abilene reports 98 degrees. Little Rock 94, Shreveport 96, San Antonio 98, and New Orleans 94.

Here are some of the cool places: North Platte 66, Omaha 70, Kansas City 72, San Diego 72, Santa Fe 76, Detroit and Davenport, Ia., report temperatures as low as 60.

SAVAGE DOG ATTACKS WOMAN ON MAIN ST. While Passing the Animal Springs. Burying Teeth in Her Arm—Given Treatment in Dallas

Mrs. Shannon living at the Laclede hotel while passing in lower Main street yesterday was attacked by a savage dog, and severely bitten. The animal sprang and buried its teeth in the lady's arm. Bystanders beat the dog off. Mrs. Shannon was on her way to Dallas, and when she arrived at the Texas and Pacific Union Passenger station the arm was badly swollen. Treatment was given the wound in Dallas.

ANOTHER CUT RATE IS LIKELY

MISSOURI RIVER ROADS FIGURING ON LOW TARIFF

WILL COME TO TEXAS

If $5.50 One Way Rate Goes in to Chicago Tickets From Fort Worth Will Be Sold at $20

There is a likelihood of another cut rate on Chicago passenger business the last of this week.

Roads in the Missouri river territory are voting on a proposition of making a $5.50 one way rate from Missouri river points and territory to Chicago for August 29, 30 and 31.

If the proposition carries, and the rate is put on, it will be as a basis from Texas territory, which would make the one way rate to Chicago from Fort Worth $20, or $6.40 cheaper than regular tariff.

MORE NAMES FOR THE TRAIN

Rock Island Receiving Suggestions For New Service

The Rock Island is still receiving names for its new California train. Several hundred have been sent to Chicago from the Fort Worth headquarters, and a fresh batch is on hand today.

A Houston woman suggests the name "Rock and Rye" as being one of the most expressive, and one which would appeal most to the men. A Fort Worth correspondent sends in a long list, among them being "The Occident," "New Eldorado," "Golden Escudo," "Texgold," "Texangles," "The Rockaway," "The Rockmore," or "The Soussy Route," any one of which she believes will be a winner. If none of these are acceptable she suggests "The Windy City, Lone Star and Golden Gate Flyer Route."

Another local correspondent hits upon the "Golden Chariot," or "The Searchlight."

The contest closes Monday, by which time all names must be in the office of Passenger Traffic Manager Sebastian in Chicago.

A NEW SANTA FE LINE

Pauls Valley Branch Open for Traffic—Important Junction Point

The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railway announces the opening of its Pauls Valley branch for freight and passenger traffic. This branch is known as the Kiowa, Chickasha and Fort Smith railway, and is completed to Lindsay, a distance of 24 miles westward. It is expected that another corporation will build from Lindsay to Chickasha. The new line traverses one of the richest valleys in the Indian Territory, that of the Washita river, which drains the Chickasaw Nation from northwest to southeast. Pauls Valley is also to be the southern terminal of a new line now being built by the Santa Fe through Eastern Oklahoma, thus making it an important junction point.

Choctaw's Passenger Agent

J. S. McNally, city passenger and ticket agent for the Rock Island at Lincoln, Neb., has been appointed division passenger agent for the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf with headquarters in Oklahoma City. His jurisdiction extends partly over the main line of the Rock Island.

Grand Chief Is Here

A. B. Youngson, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was here this morning returning to Cleveland, O., from South Texas. Mr. Youngson was the officer of the order who brought about a settlement of the difficulty between the engineers and the Manhattan Elevated company in New York a short time ago.

Hearing for Salt Rate Reduction

A hearing has been called by the Railroad Commission for Saturday next on a proposed reduction in the salt rate from Grand Sabine and Colorado, Texas to points on the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe. It is proposed to reduce the rate five cents per 100 pounds.

Notes and Personals.

E. P. Turner, general passenger and ticket agent for the Texas and Pacific, was here yesterday.

FOUND DEAD ON HIS BED

HEAT AND DRINK THE CAUSE OF A DEATH

Charles Dodge, a Laborer, Retires in Afternoon and This Morning Over Blood Soaked Pillow Is Discovered to Be Lifeless

Charles Dodge, a railroad laborer, aged about 50 years, was found dead on a cot in his room about 7 o'clock this morning. He, with two other men, occupied a corner front room over the Red Front saloon, Fifteenth and Houston streets, each occupying a cot separately. Charley Schroth and Bob Hunt are the two men who slept in the same room. Both left their cots about the usual time this morning and knew not of Dodge's death.

It was sometime after they had gone that some one about the place discovered that Dodge was dead. Captain Witcher and Policeman Temes were notified, and they called in Justice Mullins to view the remains. So decomposed was the man's flesh that a quantity of it slipped from the arm when Officer Temes attempted to turn the body over.

The evidence given to Justice Mullins by the proprietor of the place, Charley Himmel, and his wife, also Hunt and Schroth, was that Dodge had been in Fort Worth less than a year. For the past six months he had been working as a laborer on the Interurban line. Monday he received pay, since which time he had been drinking, though at no time was he, by reason of being intoxicated, unable to take care of himself. He was seen about his room by Himmel yesterday at 1 o'clock. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. Himmel inquired if he did not want something to eat. He declined, and asked to be let alone, as he wanted to rest. When Hunt and Schroth retired last night the moon gave sufficient light, and the lamp was not lighted. They saw Dodge, but thought he was sleeping, and were of the same opinion when they left the room this morning.

One of the cots was not more than two feet from Dodge's, the two forming a "T." The other cot was six or eight feet away on the other side of the room.

The remains were turned over to Messrs. Robertson & Witten, undertakers, and Mr. Robertson informed Justice Mullins that the man's condition from the effects of intoxicants and the extreme heat hurried the decomposition process, which was quite natural in such cases.

Himmel said that Dodge at one time resided in Hartley, Tex., and was four or five years ago a member of Union Lodge, No. 134, Knights of Pythias, at Hartley, but that he felt sure his membership had lapsed.

There were no letters or other data found by which the dead man's people could be located. He was an Englishman. Less than $1 in change was found in his pockets.

The sheet and pillow were saturated with blood, as a result of the hemorrhage.

ANOTHER MAN FOUND DEAD

Retired Last Evening After Working on Swift Building Yesterday

Justice Terrell was called to a boarding place on the North Side this morning to view the remains of P. G. McClure, who had died during the night.

McClure was a carpenter, engaged on the Swift building, and worked yesterday. He is said to have gone to his room at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was not seen again until dead this morning.

To a Telegram reporter Justice Terrell said the man died of hemorrhage of the stomach, or bowels, caused perhaps by the too free use of intoxicants and aggravated by the intense heat.

Deceased was a member of the Dallas carpenter's union, and that body was communicated with. He was about 65 years of age, and nothing is known here concerning his people. The remains were given over to an undertaker, and owing to the rapidly decaying condition of the body, an early burial was advised.

CHOATE IS BACK IN LONDON

Meets Counsel in American Side of Hague Arbitration Case

New York, Aug. 27.—Ambassador Choate has returned looking greatly benefited by the invigorating climate of North Berwick, cables the London correspondent of the Tribune.

He has met the counsel engaged in presenting the American side of the first arbitration case before the tribunal at The Hague—that of the Pious fund claims of various Roman Catholic bodies against the Mexican government. The opening session of the tribunal will be held on Tuesday at The Hague but will be mainly devoted to formalities.

TEXAS WEATHER REPORTS.

High temperatures continue the most noticeable feature of the weather in the lower Mississippi valley, Texas and Oklahoma. No rain occurred in this section during the last 24 hours, except in Oklahoma, where the showers were light and scattered.

Thundershowers occurred in Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, and also in the lower Missouri valley, and in the cotton region east of the Mississippi.

Arrangements are being made to carry on a parcel service in connection with the municipal tramways in Halifax, England.

HALF BROTHER PUTS HIM, ADRIFT

CONFEDERATE SOLDIER TRYING TO REACH HOME

Totally Blind and Has Been an Object of Charity—Was With Forrest—R. E. Lee Camp in Charge of Case

Granville Fitzpatrick of Colorado City, was at the Texas and Pacific Union Passenger station this morning endeavoring to make his way to Austin where he hopes to enter the Confederate home.

Until a few days ago he resided in Colorado City, with a half brother, who, he says, bought him a ticket to Abilene and put him adrift. At Abilene he was given a ticket to Fort Worth, arriving this morning. The case is being looked after by William McConnell, adjutant of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans.

Fitzpatrick was in the Trans-Mississippi department during the war, and later transferred to Forrest's command. He is totally blind.

QUICKSILVER IS FOUND

DR. PHILLIPS REPORTS DISCOVERIES IN WEST TEXAS

New Field Expected to Become One of the Richest in the United States—Negro Woman Kills Her Husband—Old Soldier Dead

Austin, Tex., Aug. 27.—Dr. W. B. Phillips, professor of field geology in the State University, and who is at the head of the state geological survey has made some important mineral discoveries in Brewster county, according to information received here. It is stated that while conducting the mineral survey in that section he discovered some rich veins of quicksilver. The scene of this discovery is situated about fifty miles northeast of the town of Boquillas, near the Rio Grande border, and about fifty miles east of the Terlingua quicksilver district. It is believed that the new field will develop into one of the richest quicksilver districts in the country. The rock foundation in which these quicksilver veins are found is believed to extend across the Rio Grande into Mexico and a quicksilver district will probably be opened on the other side of the river.

There is every reason to believe that it will not be many years until Texas will be producing as much or more quicksilver than any state in the union. The Terlingua district has been opened but a few years and is remotely situated from railway transportation facilities, but notwithstanding this disadvantage, it produced during the year 1901, 3932 tons of quicksilver, with an aggregate value of about $150,000. The production and development of the district has been considerably hampered by the litigation over the titles to the different properties. Now that this litigation has been settled it is expected that the production of the district for the present year will exceed 500 tons.

A WORM KILLER.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child is most relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness, 25c at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.

Mayor's Proclamation

Whereas, by law of congress and the legislature of the state of Texas, the first day of September of each and every year is set apart as a legal holiday, in recognition of the dignity, worth and respect due the laboring classes of our great country, and whereas, labor is one of the most important factors of the wealth, progress and civilization of this country, it is befitting that our city should duly acknowledge our respect to these people, as we can show to the world more monuments of progress due to their zeal and energy than any other city in Texas. Therefore, I, T. J. Powell, mayor of the city of Fort Worth, Texas, do hereby call upon our citizens to close their places of business on the first day of September, 1902, first out of respect due the laboring people, second in order that all our people may partake of the festivities and pleasures of that day.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 20th day of August, 1902. T. J. POWELL, Mayor. Attest: John T. Montgomery, City Secretary.

His Sight Threatened

"While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for awhile we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. Smallwood & Anderson, Anderson & Smallwood.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The City Assessor's books are now ready and the Board of Equalization will convene on Monday, June 23d, in the City Assessor's office in the City Hall and continue in session every day thereafter, excepting Sunday, from 10 to 12 o'clock in the forenoon and from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

All owners of real estate are requested to bring descriptions of their property with them when coming to inquire values. It is very important that all owners of real estate should appear before the Board of Equalization as a great many changes in values have been made since last year. Many improvements have been made since Jan. 1st, last, that may possibly appear on the tax rolls for this year and all mistakes of this or any other character will be corrected by the Board of Equalization on application of the owners.

Be sure and bring descriptions of your real estate with you. G. H. DAY, City Tax Assessor and Collector.

IT'S A WET YEAR UP IN IOWA

Moisture Fabrications Running Race With Corn Yarns

The man with the corn yarn is running a close race with the fellow who vends moisture fabrications in Iowa just now. Here is a sample of the ability of the last named genius that appeared in the Britt, Iowa, Tribune recently: While stopping at Ogden a few days ago we noticed bubbles continually rising on the waters that cover the farming lands. On investigation it proved to be the hired men coming up to get air. They were cutting oats under the water. The ducks went on top of the barns to lay their eggs and the eggs rolling off the roof were being hatched by the mud turtles. The rural route drivers had a seat on top of their wagons and driving into a mud hole they whipped the horse as long as it was in sight and then whipped the bubbles until it came out on the other side of the slough. They run lawn mowers on the sidewalk Sunday to scare the bull frogs off so the ladies can go to church. The farmers are all growing gills and air bladders, and fins are sprouting on their backs. It is very wet down that way this year.

LOOK PLEASANT, PLEASE.

Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, O., can do so now, though for years he couldn't because he suffered untold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a godsend to sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Untried for diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Guthrie & Guthrie's, druggists, 502 Main street.

FORT WORTH UNIVERSITY

In choosing a school for next session, we invite careful consideration of the excellent facilities, good equipment and general merits of Fort Worth University, a school that is here to stay, a permanent possession, of which the city and state are justly proud. The university, without a change of management goes right on from year to year increasing in facilities, attendance and popularity. Results show its good work. Its students stand in the front rank wherever tested. Parents, you can find no better place for your children. If you want to separate them from social demands, which hinder progress, you can do so without sacrificing the home life by placing them with us from Monday morning until Friday night. We are sure that many of our people would be pleasantly surprised on examination to find how excellent provision you have in this home school. It is Christian but not sectarian, strict in discipline, but kindly in spirit, up to date, full of healthy enthusiasm, a happy, helpful and safe place for your children and young people.

To My Friends

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength, of mind and body, depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. #### HOUSEHOLD MAPS

The map of the United States, which the New York Central railroad passenger department has been publishing in the various newspapers of the country, showing important places of the country, is indeed a happy thought as well as a well-merited advertisement. We are as a self-acknowledged advertiser, we are reliably informed that the map, which is 11x16 inches, is now being gradually used by families in the rural districts as household maps and as a rule is the only map about the premises.—Jersey Shore, Pa. Herald.

"Waken, Lords and Ladies Gay, On the Mountain Dawns the Day."—Scott.

The sleeping-car that leaves Fort Worth on our night train is ready to receive passengers at NINE o'clock, each evening, and this car is set out at Colorado Springs for guests to vacate at their leisure. The place where the car waits is only about six miles from the mountains, and a beautiful sight greets the wakers from that long, refreshing Colorado sleep—under blankets.

This night train also has a sleeper that goes into Denver, reaching there at a comfortable rising time. Both of our daily THRU TRAINS have those sleepers with "Large Ladies' Dressing rooms," also meals served in our own Cafe Dining cars—a la carte service, 25c and up per individual. These special features of distinguishing excellence are among the characteristics that have, now for some time, made appropriate the "Only-One-Road" — and "You-Don't-Have-to-Apologize" verdict of persons who are capable of appreciating good service and making distinctions.

WANT TO GO TO CLOUDCROFT?
Well, we have the best and shortest line there, too.
Just call up phone 561, or drop into our office at the Hotel Worth.

TWO FIRES THREE HURT

FIREMEN INJURED AT EARLY MORNING BLAZE

FIREBUGS SUSPECTED

NO ONE AT HUNT RESIDENCE WHEN FLAMES BROKE OUT MYSTERIOUSLY

SECOND FIRE NOT IMPORTANT

Barn Was Slightly Burned, But the Firemen Believe it was Started by Same Parties Who Were in the Hunt Home

A fire helmet saved a man's life at the fire which gutted the upper story of the A. A. Hunt residence, 1014 Cannon avenue, early this morning. The fireman was J. G. Garrett of Company No. 4, who was caught under falling bricks, most of which struck his helmet. A bad gash in the back of his head temporarily disabled him. But for the helmet, the accident would have been fatal. Captain J. M. Howell of the same company was also caught by the bricks which fell from the west chimney of the house, and one leg was considerably bruised. The third man injured at the fire was Assistant Chief W. E. Bideker whose left hand was deeply cut by broken glass. A severed artery delayed him in his work for a little time, but he continued directing the firemen, after the flow of blood was stopped.

The fire which started about 5 o'clock from an unknown cause, damaged the residence probably about $1200 and the furniture in the second story about $600. The insurance on house is $6000 and on furniture, $2000. As soon as they arrived, the firemen connected three streams and easily put out the blaze. All the furniture downstairs was saved.

Suspects a Firebug.
Assistant Chief Bideker was the first man in the house after the companies reached it. He hurried upstairs to see if anyone was in bed, the cry having been started that Mr. Hunt was missing. He went into the two bedrooms on the south side of the second story, but found no one. He noticed however that the drawers of the chiffoniers, washstands, etc., were all wide open. Later he found that the fire had evidently started downstairs in a little closet under the stairway. It is his opinion that a burglar may have ransacked the house and either deliberately set fire to it, or else dropped a match while peering into the closet, thus starting the blaze.

Mr. Hunt Absent
Mr. Hunt and son were down town last night and did not know of the fire till breakfast time this morning. Since the absence of Mrs. Hunt, who is in California, they have been boarding away from home, and last night remained down town. The residence which is one of the most handsome on Cannon avenue was recently remodeled and refurnished. The damage is such that it will be almost as expensive to repair as a total loss would have been. The roof, walls, and the west chimney are practically destroyed.

A Second Fire
Another fire, earlier in the night, which Mr. Bideker thinks also to have been the work of a firebug, was a barn on the Tidball property. Lipscomb and Magnolia avenue, which is not far from the Hunt residence. The fire was extinguished before the companies reached it, the damage being very slight.

The Faithful Alarm
In accordance with its custom, the repeater at the central station, attempted to mislead the firemen by erratic ringing. For the Hunt fire, instead of ringing 26, the repeater distinctly rang 236, but the firemen managed to get to the proper place in time. The alarm is causing the firemen to develop a remarkable aptitude to translating the mysterious, which will be valuable to them, till some time when the alarm happens to ring correctly, an occurrence which however is not likely.

Injured Men on Duty
This afternoon, all of the men hurt at the Hunt fire, were on duty. J. M. Garrett was suffering most, from severe bruises on his head and body, but he was able to work. Captain How II is still sore and stiff, and the injured leg will bother him for some time. Assistant Chief Bideker's hand will probably be the longest injury in healing. There is a long gash extending diagonally over the back of his left hand that will prevent its active use for some time. Mr. Bideker took extra precautions to avoid being cut by glass when he went upstairs, taking out a sash, but leaving a little piece, however, that did the work.

THE STATE NEEDS RAIN

ONLY A LITTLE MOISTURE FELL DURING THE PAST WEEK

Millions of broad Texas acres stared at a burning sun without even a cloud to break the monotony, and no cooling drop of moisture fell to relieve the parched pastures during the week that has closed (Aug. 25), except in a little territory near El Paso and along the gulf for a very short distance.

The average temperature for the week was 85.4 degrees which is 4.4 degrees above the normal and is the highest average temperature for any week this season. The week before had that distinction, but the past week eclipsed it. The reports of the correspondents to the Texas section of the climate and crop service of the weather bureau indicate that the excessive heat and drought has been, on the whole, bad for the cotton plants. Late cotton needs rain. Boll worms are bothersome and the general trend of the reports is somewhat discouraging. Pasturage is becoming short and where July rains were not excessive, stock water is becoming scarce. Rice and sweet potatoes are in a very satisfactory condition. Sugar cane promises a fine yield.

Itching Scalp
Stops on one application of Smith's Dandruff Pomade, three to six removes all dandruff. For sale by Brashear & Hill.

GREAT GAINS IN FREIGHTING

BUSINESS OF THE VARIOUS RAIL- ROADS INCREASES

Further Evidence of Fort Worth's Permanent Prosperity in Amount of Merchandise Received and Shipped

"Some of the railroads are showing a gain of from 100 to 200 per cent in their Fort Worth freight business this year as compared with last" is the statement of a man in position to know.

While Fort Worth has practically no local organization whereby an estimate of the total business done on the ten railroads entering the city, can be made, the statements of the different agents regarding their business is sufficient authority.

The great increase in the amount of both incoming and outgoing freight handled at Fort Worth can hardly be appreciated, unless one goes to any of the freight yards of the city and sees the work of the men who have to take care of the shipments of various kinds of merchandise to and from here.

The statements regarding the increase means that Fort Worth is steadily establishing her position as a receiving and distributing point for Northeastern Texas. There is hardly a railroad which has not a big percentage of increase over last year, while as has been stated, some have more than doubled their shipments.

Even August, the dull month before cotton shipments begin, is surpassing the freight business of former Augusts in Fort Worth's history. September will show a big increase over August.

The freight business is one indicator of the city's prosperity which cannot be padded. In conjunction with the steadily increasing bank clearings, it goes to prove that Fort Worth and prosperity are traveling on the same road, with baggage checked ahead and through tickets for success.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

Announcement of Coming Tests at Fort Worth

Announcement is made of coming civil service examinations at the Federal building as follows: October 21 an examination for the position of industrial teacher (male) in the Indian service, will be held. From the eligibles resulting it is expected certification will be made to the position of industrial teacher. Fort Spokane school, Colville, Wash., at a salary of $600 per year, positions to be given as vacancies occur. An examination will be held here September 30 for the position of instrument maker in the Philippine service at $1200 per year, or similar vacancies as they may occur. The applicants must be acquainted with the general principles of constructing physical and electrical apparatus and must have had considerable training and experience.

IS GETTING TIGHTER EVERY DAY

Anthracite in Chicago Is Now Bringing $11.00 a Ton

Chicago, Aug. 27.—"A little tighter every day" summarizes the anthracite coal situation in Chicago. A few local dealers are parting with a few tons at $9 and $10, one dealer being reported yesterday as demanding $11 and not wanting to sell at that.

Many persons who have been using hard coal in furnaces are now putting in natural gas.

FOOD SAVED HER

That is The True Cure for Most Everything

A food that will help the babies and the grown folks, too, is worth knowing of and keeping in the family.

A mother in Woonsocket, R. I., says "I have been a user of Grape-Nuts Food for quite a long time, but never thought of giving it to baby, until we had a dreadful time with her."

"We tried three kinds of baby food and condensed milk, but nothing seemed to agree with her, and at seven months she weighed not quite 10 pounds. We were puzzled to know what to do when one day my husband said, 'Do you ever try Grape-Nuts?' I thought she would throw up that food like she did the others, but to our great joy the softened food agreed with her perfectly."

"She has been using it for about five months now and, at a year old, she weighs 19 1/2 pounds, has eight teeth and her flesh and little body is as firm and round as can be. She walks from chair to chair."

"Meeting the doctor the other day I said, 'What do you think of her now?' He said, 'She don't look like the same baby. What do you feed her?' I said, 'Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food.' The proof of its value is perfectly clear. She is a wonder everyone says that saw her some months ago. I cannot praise Grape-Nuts enough. Please do not publish my name." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

READERS GET THE HABIT

"Lost and Found" Columns Induce Street Search

"The lost and found column of the newspaper is responsible for a rather peculiar habit," said an observant citizen, "and it produced a rather singular mental condition. It has caused a great many persons to make a rather close study of the sidewalks of the city, and no doubt many of them live in constant hope of picking up something very valuable. They have all sorts of wild dreams about finding jewelry more or less valuable, and big rolls of money, and things of that sort. I am not speaking of the unhappy and extremely unfortunate class we find in the city whose life is spent in searching the sidewalks and the gutters for whatever trifle they may pick up. I have in mind, a different sort of people, people who are more cultured and refined, and whose minds have by degrees bent into the groove. Maybe some of them have found something at some time or other, and this has caused them to search more or less diligently the sidewalks as they rush along the street. I know of one case along the street, a young man who has been so influenced by the habit that he goes along the street with his head down, often passing his nearest and closest friends without seeing them. He made the statement to me a few days ago that during the past year he had found six silver dimes on the sidewalk and he had gradually drifted into the habit of searching the sidewalks with his eyes as he passed along the streets. 'Besides,' he said, 'I am always reading the lost and found column in the newspapers and the thing has a sort of fascination for me. It has produced a perpetual condition of mental excitement, and of course I get a great deal of pleasure out of it.' Now, here is a curious thing. Men for some time have indulged in the foolish habit of counting cracks in the sidewalk or telegraph poles, and touching things with their hands, but few of us have been aware of the existence of a class of men who are constantly trying to find something as they brush along the street. When we have found men looking intently at the sidewalk we have supposed that they were counting the cracks or trying to keep from stepping on cracks, or making some sort of curious study of the sidewalk's topography, but instead we now learn that they are actually looking for wealth, trying to find something that somebody else has lost. What strange flights fancy doth take in these latter days."

TWO FORT WORTH MEN HAVE STRUCK IT RICH

They Have Gold Bearing Sand and Nuggets to Back up Their Claim— Mines Located in New Mexico

W. B. Bates, an old-time Fort Worth citizen, is here from Tarrilla, N. M., where he has been for the past several years prospecting for gold and other valuable minerals. As an evidence that he has been quite successful, he is representing a mining company of New Mexico, with general offices at Tarrilla, N. M.

Mr. Bates has with him here several gunny sacks filled with gold bearing sands and nuggets, also copper quartz. One of the nuggets shown by Mr. Bates is valued at $49. His other samples vary in size from fine gold, too small to be seen with the naked eye, to nuggets the size of a hen's egg, the majority, however, being about the size of a pea down to a pin head size. The value of this gold, as returns from the United States mints show, according to statements is about $18.50 per ounce. The gold is generally rough edged, pointed and jagged, indicating that it has been broken from a nearby ledge and never washed any great distance. The bed rock, Mr. Bates says, favors this theory, being of a shale formation, and this shale is known to carry values in gold.

The mines belonging to this company are located 35 miles southwest from Alamogordo, N. M., or the El Paso division of the Rock Island.

Mr. Bates is here combining business with pleasure, and will remain during the week, visiting old friends in the city. He was formerly engaged in Fort Worth in his trade, that of building carpenter. After about four years of arduous toil and privation in the mining district referred to he is now on the road to riches, peace and plenty, and is receiving the congratulations of the friends who knew him when he like they, had to work hard for a living.

Light and Shadow in the Police Court

"May Carney, vagrancy, Clark's case," called out Secretary Montgomery in the corporation court.

"May Carney, stand up," said Judge Wilkinson, glancing over at the dock. "You are charged with being a vagrant; what do you plead, guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty, yer honor," squeaked a voice from the most degraded specimen of femininity that ever disgraced the dock in the corporation court. "Yer honor, I jest served out a fine and was hard at work when that big policeman pulled me."

"Your honor," broke in Officer Clark, "she was full of coke, dirty and filthy as you see her now, scantily dressed and making a spectacle of herself on the streets."

"It's a lie," whimpered May, and buried her face in her hands. She wore only the thinnest of thin wraps, shoes worn and unlaced, no headgear, hair disheveled, face and hands dirty, snuff and tobacco juice streaked across her mouth and face. Her eyes were streaked with red and yellow, and bleared. Old and lost in disposition she was, but there was a trace left of the feminine instinct. She was seen to carefully straighten her scanty apparel and pick a bit of raveling from her waist. She acted as if she wanted to look presentable before the court.

It is hard for the human mind to follow the ramifications of the perverted intellect to the point where these things appeal to the mind as the essence of all things good and proper. But to May Carney the ribald song, the wanton jibe are the music and wit of the highest degree. She appears to wear her emblems with much the same pride that a devotee of the fistic arena wears his scars.

The badge of degradation effectually marks her as one far removed from the distressingly good of earth, who would not know a "growler" if they met it in the street.

When she comes to shuffle off this husk earthly and fare across the river all she need do is to trade her earthly kimono for an asbestos basque waist and sail right in as stewardess on the red-hot pleasure boats that one reads and hears about.

This same May Carney is one of three who, when brought before Judge Stewart in this same court some weeks ago, caused that dignity to adjust his eye glasses, glance at the dock and ask of the police, "My, my, Mr. Officer, where on earth did you find such human evidences of degradation?"

In reply to May's plea of guilty to vagrancy this morning, Judge Wilkinson said "two dollars and costs—Mr. Officer, remove her to the women's quarters at once, get her out of sight."

There is a move on foot to get the woman on the poor farm.

"H. Conness, you are charged here with being drunk and asleep in a public place," called His Honor. "What do you plead—guilty or not guilty?"

"Oh, be gorra, I'm guilty, yer honor," retorted Mr. Conness, as he stood erect in the dock, hand elevated.

"Well," said the court, "did you not know you'd get arrested if you got drunk and slept in a public place?"

"Be gorra, yer honor, I knew nothing of it until yez big guy over there trounced me."

"Why did you get drunk, then?"

"'Til be dommed if I know, yer honor, 'bout its because I'm wurking on the Cotton Belt up by Grapevines—so help me God, yer honor, this makes three of four times ol've been run in for this dommed court! It seems I can't hit yer dommed town wid a piece uv money thout gettin' boozey—dommed if I know. Say, Judge, let me go this once, and maybe when I come down agin I'll pay yez; do this now yer honor, and let a poor wurking man g'long."

"Two dollars and costs—call the next case, Mr. Clerk."

"Listen to that now," said Mr. Conness as he mopped his forehead with a greasy baudanna.

There were nineteen arrests for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock this morning. As a result of this round up the dock was again full when Judge Wilkinson rapped for order in the corporation court.

Contrary to the ordinary run of things, there was not a vagrancy charge marked up. Instead, there were six drunks, four for trespass, three for disturbing the peace, one hold-over, one for sleeping in a public place, two for affray and two for fighting. In the bunch were two negro women.
