HAS THE NEGRO BEEN DITCHED?

COLORED DELEGATES TO CONVENTION MAKE A COMPLAINT.

ROOSEVELT ENDORSED

George H. Burkitt of Palestine Will Be Presented by the Green People for Governor, Congress Fights.

The first thing Temporary Chairman Hawley did this morning when he reconvened the Republican State convention was to announce that harmony, that secured on yesterday, still prevailed. This applies to the factions which had been at odds since the delegates began to gather, but not to many of the negro representatives. The negro generally accepts the situation as meaning that he is "ditched."

Editor King, a negro, of the Dallas Express, and who was here supporting Terrell for state chairman, delivered a speech in which he accused the Democratic papers of misrepresenting the situation, and claimed he was as much of a party as he had been heretofore. When King left the floor Campbell, also colored, of Bastrop county, and claiming to have been chairman of that county for the last eight years, said King did not have the situation; that the negro had been "ditched," and that good and hard. He said it has not yet been made apparent just what part the negro was to play in the state organization. The race had the secretaryship and that was all. He "views with alarm" the situation, as he has heard it reported that there was "nothing doing" for the nigger.

The endorsement of President Roosevelt for re-election in 1904 which was secured before the convention by a resolution presented by State Chairman Lyon, was what the party leaders were anxious for. Col. P. B. Hunt of Dallas presented the same resolution which was sent to the committee, and it is understood that E. Mont Reilly, assistant postmaster in Kansas City, is here with the same kind of a document.

From the talk gathered among the delegations an announcement is soon to be made giving notice of a vigorous fight in several of the congressional districts, which is known to be the wish of the Washington administration. The presence of Jno. C. Scott, candidate in the Fifteenth district brings the statement that he will enter a joint debate with his Democratic opponent, John N. Garner of Uvalde, and has secured the assistance of a number of Republican speakers. W. R. Atwell for one has been selected to visit the lower Rio Grande country in Scott's interest.

This morning it was learned the Green people would present George H. Burkitt of Palestine for governor. He is no longer a candidate for the chairmanship. Dr. Acheson of Denison has given up his claims, and the election of Cecil A. Lyon is to be made unanimous.

As to the remainder of the state nothing definite is known. J. G. Lawson of Abilene and Judge Charles Ryan of San Antonio are probably the most talked of for places. The El Paso county delegation has withdrawn its claims presented yesterday inasmuch as it did not consent to lead it. It is believed the convention will adjourn finally tonight.

"GOOSENECK" IS OBSTREPEROUS

Bolted Into Credentials Committee Room Over Protest of Sentinel.

During the entire proceedings of the evening up to the moment that the credentials committee passed into the council chamber to pass on the credentials, "Goose-neck" Bill stood in the rear of the audience, surrounded by a number of his negro followers. When the door was shut on the committee he and a half dozen other negroes forced their way through the crowd to the committee room door. He sought admission. The doorkeeper, a Fort Worth white man, opposed his entering. Expositors followed. Finally the doorkeeper opened the door and made some inquiry of those inside, supposedly to know if "Bill" must be admitted. He evidently got a negative reply, for he stepped back into the main building and shut the door. This action incensed "Bill," for he pushed the doorkeeper aside and jerked the door open and he and his followers bolted inside. A jam followed by those in the immediate vicinity, and a "rough house" was imminent, but there was such confusion all over the house that but few except those in the immediate vicinity of the door were aware of the disturbance.

It was only a few seconds until "Goose-neck" his followers and the members of the committee emerged from the room. "Bill" expostulated wildly. He and the doorkeeper had another wordy wrangle, but the chairman's continuous rapping brought the house to partial order.

DR. A. W. ACHESON.

PLATFORM AND NOMINATIONS.

Chairman Green Announces the Committee Selected.

Chairman Green announced the appointment of the following committee on platform and resolutions: C. W. Ogden, San Antonio, chairman; First, S. J. Spencer, Bowie; Second, E. B. Mentz, Jefferson; Third, Wade Flanagan, Rusk; Fourth, C. A. Lyon, Grayson; Fifth, A. J. McCauley, Dallas; Sixth, Rube Freedman, Navarro; Seventh, R. B. Hawley, Galveston; Eighth, H. F. MacGregor, Harris; Ninth, M. M. Rodgers, Fayette; Tenth, E. P. Wilnot, Travis; Eleventh, T. J. Darling, Bell; Twelfth, C. A. Dickson, Johnson; Thirteenth, John B. Schmitz, Denton; Fourteenth, C. W. Ogden, Bexar; Fifteenth, J. J. Haynes, Webb; Sixteenth, J. G. Lowdon, Taylor.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION

The Twenty-sixth Senatorial convention met in the parlors of the Metropolitan hotel. All counties were represented. The session elected Marshal Smith of Brownwood as chairman and S. J. Weaver of Dublin as secretary. The convention was unanimous for a candidate for senator, and nominated Dr. J. F. McCarty of Comanche county.

HARMONY IS DECLARED

LEADERS STAND BEFORE CONVENTION AND SHAKE HANDS.

All Differences Are Settled and Peace Reigns in All Hearts. The Letter From Washington That Helped To Do It.

FRIENDS OF GREEN START A NEW BOOM

Last night the friends of E. H. R. Green started his boom for re-election. When it is understood, R. B. Hawley will also be a candidate. The party in Texas, and has the support of the masses. It is generally known he will be tendered a change of the campaign in Texas during the next two years, as the personal representative of the administration. Mr. Green has declined the nomination for governor.

The withdrawal of Green from the race for state chairman came in the nature of a surprise, and does not pass without claims by the Kaufman county man's friends that he had more than a safe majority of the vote here represented. Contradictory of this the Lyon people assert they were strong enough to win on the first ballot.

What is termed the "peace conference" which held a session in the headquarters of Mr. Lyon shortly after Mr. Green's letter was delivered to the other leaders, was composed of Mr. Green, Mr. Hawley, Mr. Lyon, Judge Charles W. Ogden, Dr. G. G. Clifford, Fred Terrell, all of San Antonio; Judge Walter T. Burns of Houston, Dr. E. P. Wilnot of Austin and Banker J. G. Lowden of Abilene.

Mr. Green's letter of withdrawal referred to in the Telegram of yesterday indicated that he entered the race for state chairman for the sole purpose of producing harmony, which when accomplished rendered his presence there no longer necessary. For this reason his friends say he was the victor in the situation.

Correspondence, it is said, has passed between the managers in Washington and Mr. Green, in which an implied commission was given for him to bring about a settlement of the factional differences, and last night the telegram spoken of so freely about the hotels as exhibited. It was signed by Gen. Jas. S. Clarkson, surveyor general of the Port of New York, and personally in charge of the Republican campaign in the South. General Clarkson was manager for President Harrison in his campaigns and will occupy a similar position in the Roosevelt lineup for 1904. The telegram read:

"The president is greatly pleased with your position and friendship, and relies on your good judgment for a safe action. He hopes for a united party and harmony. He is especially anxious for the election of one or two congressmen."

The date of this was last Saturday, two days before Mr. Green arrived in Fort Worth.

HARMONY DECLARED

After the opening preliminaries and the three leaders had stood before the convention and shaken hands, harmony was officially declared. Mr. Lyon said it was the sense of the party that any one desiring office whether elective or appointive, they must come through the channels of the regular organization.

Mr. Hawley, when he took charge of the temporary organization, said: "No one man nor set of men can say they dominate the Republican party. Our differences are a matter of history and we are at complete peace. I bear no ill feeling toward Mr. Lyon and from Mr. Green I expect his best efforts in producing success."

SENATORIAL NOMINEES.

The delegates from the Nineteenth Senatorial district held a meeting in the city hall yesterday afternoon and nominated Robert Brooks, and attorney of Bastrop, for the state senate.

The Twentieth district also held a session and named Dr. E. P. Wilnot of Austin, a banker, as their candidate. He told the Telegram last night that he would not accept. Nat Q. Henderson of Georgetown, who is a delegate from Williamson county, will be a candidate.

SIXTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

A. J. McCauley Named as Chairman, Retiring Chairman Indorsed.

The Sixth Senatorial District convention consisting of Dallas and Rockwall counties was called to order by George H. Green. A. J. McCauley a colored lawyer of Dallas was chosen senatorial chairman for the next two years.

A motion prevailed endorsing the administration of the retiring chairman, George H. Green.

THE IOWA HAS RUN AGROUND

BATTLESHIP STRIKES SHORE ON SAINT CATHARINE ISLAND

Returning From Target Practice She Is Fouled Near Cape Nossa De Desterro. Brazilians Send Assistance Immediately.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 11.—The United States battleship Iowa has run aground near Cape Nossa Senhora do Desterro and the Island of Mojo, on the Heron Island correspondent at Rio Janeiro, Brazil.

The Iowa had just finished target practice and was returning to Friars Island.

The Brazilian minister of marine has ordered a warship to go to the aid of the Iowa.

Cape Nossa Senhora do Desterro is on the Island of Santa Catharina, 450 miles southwest of Rio Janeiro. The island is about half way between Montevideo, Uruguay and Rio Janeiro. The Iowa is the flagship of the South Atlantic squadron. Rear Admiral George W. Sumner is in command of the South Atlantic squadron. Capt. Thomas Perry commands the Iowa. The cruiser Atlanta is the only other warship in the South Atlantic squadron.

NEW COMMITTEE IS PARTIALLY CHOSEN

Following are the members of the new executive committee so far as they have been named:

- Fourth, O. S. Johnson, Grayson county; Sixth, A. J. McCauley, Dallas; Eighth, C. C. Flanagan, Henderson county; Eleventh, C. A. Boynton, McLennan county; Twelfth, J. A. Myers, Bryan; Fourteenth, C. B. Bone, Beaumont; Seventeenth, M. H. Novells, Galveston; Eighteenth, M. M. Rogers, Lagrange; Nineteenth, William Dwyer, Brenham; Twentieth, J. R. Wren, Twenty-first, L. D. Johnson, Twenty-fourth, G. E. Johnson, San Antonio; Twenty-fifth, A. Smith, El Paso; Twenty-sixth, Marshall Smith, Brownwood; Twenty-seventh, Joe E. Williams, Hamilton county; Twenty-ninth, C. K. McDowell, Dickens county; Thirtieth, Andrew McCampbell, Tarrant county; Thirty-first, Geo. Knight.

CITY OF SANTA CRUZ WILL HAVE TO PAY UP

OLD ISSUE OF BONDS PURCHASED BY EASTERN BROKERS ARE HELD TO BE VALID

(By Associated Press)

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 11.—The city of Santa Cruz, California, will have to pay $500,000 to eastern bondholders according to a decision just handed down by the United States circuit court of appeals. The bonds were issued eighty years ago and were sold through a firm of New York brokers who, it is alleged, retained the proceeds and then went into bankruptcy. The city has sought to evade payment but has been repeatedly beaten in the courts.

TEXARKANA IS CHILLY TO VISITING ELDERS

DOESN'T SEEM TO FAVOR ANY MORE RELIGION THAN IT ALREADY HAS ON HAND

(Special to the Telegram)

Texarkana, Tex., Sept. 11.—A committee of three representing the United Churches of this place, was appointed to warn the Mormon elders now at work here, to leave town. The Mormons received the members of the committee civilly, but refused to leave, saying that this is a free country. It is rumored that stern measures may be used if the visiting missionaries do not accede to the ladies' requests. Since the recent dismissal of a "divine healer" from Texarkana, sentiment has been strong against proselyting missionaries of any kind.

AN "EXPANSIVE" GIRL Not Necessarily an Expensive One.

A little Kansas girl is called an "expansive" because her clothes require "letting out" so often. She lives mostly on Grape-Nuts since recovering from a sick spell caused by too much greasy food.

Almost all ailments of children (and grown folks as well) are traceable to the wrong kind of food, and the surest cure is to quit the old sort, the greasy, pasty, undercooked or overdone things, that ruin the stomach and bowels.

Put the children and adults on the perfectly cooked food Grape-Nuts. It is digested by the weakest stomach. Has the delicate sweet flavor of the Grape Sugar and surely and quickly rebuilds the body, brain and nerves. There's a reason.

PARKER-LOWE HAS IT FOR LESS.

RUSSIANS DISAPPROVE OF CURZON'S APPROVAL

New York, Sept. 10.—Russian newspapers are highly wroth at Lord Curzon's approval of the extension of the Indian railway system to Nushki on the eastern boundary of Beloochistan. They foresee uninterrupted railway communication between India and Europe. Russia means to have an outlet in the Indian ocean and the great railway, which would be in British and German hands, would stop the progress of Russia toward the south. A leading journal of St. Petersburg says Russia must at once build a line through Persia right down to the Indian ocean, and thus paralyze also the ambition of Great Britain. There is a general desire in Great Britain for some sort of understanding with Russia about Persia in spite of Captain Mahan's warning that any concession on England's part will impair her naval position in the far East, her political position in India, her commercial interests in both and the imperialist tie between herself and Australia.

WOULD MAKE DRINKERS PAY YEARLY LICENSE

New York, Sept. 11.—A proposition has been introduced by the Prohibition party of Courtland county, New York which demands that every man who drinks intoxicating beverages shall take out a license costing not less than $5 a year. Every six months the names of the license holders are to be published in the official newspapers of the county. The leaders of the scheme also propose to introduce a measure of this nature in the legislature.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION

IS EFFECTED WITH E. H. R. GREEN IN SPEAKER'S CHAIR.

TALK OF THE MORNING

Assertions of Different Speakers Conflict Regarding Elimination of the Negro, Convention Adjourns to Visit the Stock Yards.

The committee on permanent organization recommended E. H. R. Green as permanent chairman of the convention, with L. S. Simmons and Nat Q. Henderson as secretaries. The report was adopted.

E. H. R. Green thanked the convention for the honor they had done him, and suggested that as the hour was late, it would be best to get down to business, and carry out the purposes of the harmonized party.

The convention accepted the invitation of Mayor Powell to visit the stock yards, and named the hour of 2 p. m.

CAMPBELL CONTRADICTED

R. A. Carroll, colored, from Bastrop county, arose to answer Campbell's charge that the delegation had been discriminated against, and related the history of the trouble in Bastrop county in an effort to discredit Campbell's assertions, but there was such an uproar because of the noon hour harangue arrived he cut his remarks quite short.

ADJOURNED UNTIL 2 P. M. Chairman Green announced an adjournment until 2 p. m.

CHINESE CONSUL GOES TO HIS NEW POSITION

(By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 11.—Chow Tszchi, who has been Chinese consul at New York for three years and who has been appointed Chinese consul general to Cuba, has received his commission and will leave shortly for his new post.

"I have not heard," he said, "who my successor is but probably he will be one of the secretaries of the legation at Washington."

"There is much to be done in Havana. While there are 7000 or 8000 Chinamen in the Greater New York, there are more than 15,000 Chinamen in Cuba. During the American military control in Cuba, before General Wood left, word was given to enforce the Chinese exclusion act throughout the island. Now that Cuba has an independent government, I do not see why that law should remain in force, and one of my first duties will be to see what can be done about it."

"Another matter I shall look into will be that of a treaty between Cuba and China."

BOLIVIA IS NEXT IN REVOLUTIONARY LINE

TROOPS ARE ORGANIZING WITH THE VIEW TO FIGHT GOVERNMENT TROOPS IN ACRE

(By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 11.—Dispatches from Manioa say a revolutionary junta has been organized there with the object of attacking the Bolivian troops in the territory of Acre.

Baron de Rio Branco has accepted the post of minister of foreign affairs. The new cabinet will be inaugurated next November. There has been much comment here by the action of a detachment of American cruiser Iowa which had disembarked at Friars Island, E. S. Minister Bryan declares that the United States government has authorized all American vessels to disembark men on that island.

Two motor cars are now carrying passengers between Bulawayo and the outlying districts.

FRANK B. STANLEY,

HOUSTON TALKS PRINCIPLES.

A. J. Houston of Beaumont introduced as the son of the founder of Texas, was called to speak. He began by saying he had rather belong to a "coon" party than to belong to an "possum" party. He denied the assertion made by Democrats that all the respectable element of the Republican party resided in the North. He did not know whether all the respectable element of the Democratic party resided in the South—he doubted if he resided either North or South.

He discussed the race question and lauded the colored man for what he claimed to be the valorous deeds of "the noble son in black." He claimed there had been no discrimination against the negro in this convention. He urged the negroes to disclaim it. They said "we will."

KING'S TIRADE.

W. E. King, colored, said they had met here this year as in former years to ratify the traditions and treasure those things which were so dear to the Republican party. "What we want is harmony." One thing he was especially anxious about, what was the intention of the men who made up this convention when they returned to their respective counties and districts. All must work to the point of building up

TWO CONVICTS MAKE ESCAPE

ONE WAS RECAPTURED AFTER A SHORT RUN. OTHER STILL AT LARGE.

Jim Cumming's Break-Away From Chapman's Camp and Sam Thomas' From Wall's. The Latter Was Soon Overhauled.

Two men escaped from the county convict camps a day or two ago, one was captured and the other has made good his escape so far. One from each camp ran off.

Jim Cummings was in Chapman's camp which is near Arlington. The gang was working yesterday in a neck of woods when Cummings left the wagon and disappeared in the brush. Search failed to find him. He was convicted on an aggravated assault charge and was sent out to the camp about Aug. 1, and should have remained there until about Dec. 1. He was wearing a "spur" when he decamped, which will lead to his capture unless he can find a blacksmith to take it off for him.

Sam Thomas was the man who hiked out from Wall's camp. He was sent back to the county jail, being sick about a month ago, and was in the hospital department until a few days ago. On his return to the camp Mr. Wall put him in the kitchen, from which he made a sneak on Tuesday. He was caught after a run of two or three miles. He is doing time on a charge of swindling.

COUNTY COURT NEWS. In the county court several pleas of guilty were accepted by Judge M. B. Harris who duly assessed a fine in each case.

May Carney pleaded guilty to vagrancy and was fined $1 and costs. Bob Derrick was assessed $20 for keeping his place open on Sunday.

J. J. Johnson was assessed $25 for his fun at the St. James Baptist church last night, the charge being disturbing public worship. It seems that he used strong and vociferous language and attempted to prevent the preacher from going into the pulpit to preach.

Sheriff Clark will go to Austin tomorrow with Mrs. Julia Cook, who is from the neighborhood of Keller. She will be placed in the asylum there, having been adjudged insane.

The number of inmates at the county jail has been reduced to 65 from 88, the figure reached recently.

TO PROTECT BRAZOS BOTTOM Resolution Calling for Donations to Construct Levees.

Mr. Houston offered a resolution appealing to the national government to make a donation for the purpose of constructing levees to protect the fertile valleys of the Brazos bottoms, which have in past years been devastated by floods. The resolution was, by vote, read and submitted to the committee on resolutions and platform.

INDICTED FOR MISCONDUCT.

Prince Francis Joseph of Braganza Is Accused.

London, Sept. 11.—Prince Francis Joseph of Braganza, lieutenant in the Seventh Austrian Hussars, who was a member of the Austro-Hungary mission to the coronation of King Edward, is being indicted for misconduct under the criminal law amendment. The exact nature of the charges is unknown.

ANOTHER DELEGATE CAPTURED.

William Tamblin Arrested in Cleveland Is Taken to St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 11.—William Tamblin, a former member of the house of delegates, was brought back from Cleveland today and jailed. The grand jury reconvened today and took up the consideration of the lighting scandal of the last municipal assembly.

SAY MINERS ARE RETURNING.

Coal Operators Claim More Strikers Come Daily.

Tamaqua, Pa., Sept. 11.—The coal operators claim that more miners are returning work every day. They declare the settlement of the strike possible only by unconditional surrender of the strikers.

BIG COTTON MILLS ARE BURNED.

$125,000 Fire at Stonewall, Miss., Early This Morning Causes Big Loss. Stonewall, Miss., Sept. 11.—Stonewall cotton mills were damaged by fire this morning to the extent of $125,000. The damage was fully insured.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT COSEN.

A. F. Roome of New Orleans Goes to San Francisco.

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—A. F. Roome of New Orleans has been appointed superintendent of telegraph for the Southern Pacific railroad. His headquarters will be in this city.

Take a dose of PRICKLY ASH BITTERS at night when you go to bed and you will feel bright and vigorous next morning. It will insure you a copious and healthy passage of the bowels. Improved appetite and digestion and increased energy of body and brain.

It beats stimulating drinks because its relative influence is natural, hence permanent.

At 2:30 o'clock Chairman Green announced to the convention that the committees on resolutions would not be ready to report before 4 o'clock.

A FLY'S BITE CAUSES HEALTHY MAN'S DEATH

(By Associated Press) New York, Sept. 11.—Bitten by a fly two weeks ago, George Lindhurst of Brooklyn is dead. The physicians pronounce it an extraordinary case. Lindhurst was bitten on the thumb of his right hand. Three days later swelling began and continued rapidly. The doctors declared the fly bite had caused blood poisoning which they could not check and the victim died in great agony. Lindhurst was 56 years old and in fairly good health before he was bitten.

REPUBLICANS NOT SATISFIED

Iowa Platform Does Not Altogether Please Leaders

New York, Sept. 11.—A dispatch from Des Moines, Iowa, says: The plank of the Iowa Republican platform, which calls for tariff reform in cases where the tariff is found to shelter monopoly, resulted in the calling of a conference of the party leaders today to determine whether it should be made an issue in the coming campaign.

Speaker Henderson, Senator Dolliver the eleven representatives, all state officers and candidates on the state ticket, the central committee and other party leaders were present. An acrimonious debate took place, and while each agreed to stand upon the platform the majority of the representatives qualified their declaration, as did Speaker Henderson, who said: "I wish the plank were not there, but as, after all, it is really meaningless, for there is no such thing as tariff sheltering monopoly, I can indorse it."

Speaker Henderson said: "If the Democratic party can convince the laborers of this country that it is more truly their friend the Republican party doesn't stand a ghost of a show to elect the next congress. The country was never so wrought up by

BIGGEST TREE IN THE WORLD

It Measures 109 Feet in Circumference at Its Base

San Francisco, Sept. 11.—A few weeks ago there was discovered to the east of Fresno, in the Sierras, the biggest tree in the world. At the time it was said that it measured 150 feet in circumference. John Muir, the great naturalist, has visited the tree and reports that it measures at the base only 109 feet and at four feet above the ground it was only ninety-seven feet in circumference. It is, however, larger than "General Sherman" and "General Grant," which heretofore were the recognized monarchs of the forests.

CUBA'S DEMAND FOR COTTONS

Why American Manufacturers Have Not Captured Market

Washington, Sept. 11.—American manufacturers are overlooking certain indispensable requirements for the capture and retention of the cotton goods trade in Cuba, according to a report from Minister Squiers at Havana, dated August 12, which was made public at the state department. The minister declares that American houses should send Spanish-speaking representatives to Cuba to work up

NOTES OF CONVENTION

Marshall Smith, who is at the head of the Brownwood delegation is postmaster at Brownwood, and a prominent man in his section.

Hon. R. O. Rector of Vernon, Republican nominee for congress from the Fifteenth district, is taking an active part in the party councils.

T. P. Berner of Henrietta and W. J. Mantion of Bellevue are representing Clay county in the convention. Both are men of influence in their section of the county.

J. E. Lutz of Vernon, a member of the executive committee, is doing political work, and at the same time talking patriotically for his home town and its material interests.

Col. George W. Burkitt of Palestine announced this morning he was still a candidate for chairman, notwithstanding stories to the contrary.

R. L. Smith, colored, of Colorado county, was rumored as a possible candidate for temporary chairman by his delegation being turned down by the executive committee, Smith's influence will go for Green.

Will Return to Fort Worth C. C. Drake of Eagle Pass is among those who have been mixing freely in the political maelstrom that is whirling in and around the convention. So far the outcome has been satisfying to him, the withdrawal of Terrell from the chairmanship race being one of the things he labored hard to bring about.

Mr. Drake's home was formerly in Fort Worth and he is kept busy a good part of the time in exchanging greetings with old friends. It is with great pleasure, too, that his friends learn he will return to Fort Worth and make this his home again in the course of two or three months.

"Why," he says, "if you have once lived in Fort Worth and go away you cannot rest until you get back again. It is the best city in the state to live in and the best to do business in and I am glad to get back here again."

MRS. E. F. SHEPARD

Society is greatly interested in the divorce suit of the Elliott F. Shepards, Jr. The absence of a demand for alimony is causing considerable comment. A report unverified is going the rounds, that prominent members of the Vanderbilt family anxious to free their relative from his matrimonial yoke have offered to give Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, Jr., a sum as high as $100,000 if she carries the divorce suit to a successful conclusion.

the industrial situation as it is now, and it behooves us as Republicans to seek the confidence of union labor if we are to maintain our prestige."

NOTED HORSEMAN IS DECEASED

James Clare, Superintendent of Brighton Beach, Dead.

New York, Sept. 11.—James Clare, superintendent of the Brighton Beach race track and connected with courses about the city during the past many years is dead from blood poisoning. He was known to horsemen throughout the country.

MADDEN HORSES WILL ENTER

Good String of Thoroughbreds to Run at New Orleans

New York, Sept. 11.—John E. Madden will race a string of thoroughbreds at New Orleans this winter, and according to the World has secured the services of Harry Michael, the jockey, who has been under contract to A. L. Aste for several seasons.

A Communication

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. COAL UP.

You can not put enough steam into a boiler to carry a locomotive from Ft. Worth to New York...

Have you started a-plugging for Fort Worth?

Better save your money. The circus man is coming to town.

The weather man seems to have turned on the October faucet by mistake.

In regard to the Republican convention, there's a nigger in the woodpile somewhere.

A wagonload of watermelons, rightly placed, might yet turn the tide of the convention.

It isn't always the man with the largest girth who fills the biggest place in a convention.

Now that the Republican convention harmony is practically assured, how about the Houston street paving?

Would it not be well to have a court of inquiry regarding the mysterious barn fires which have occurred during the past few days?

O yes, when Admiral Killick of the Crete-a-Pierrot set fire to his boat, after capture was certain, he may be said to have gotten in his last lick.

Have you written your friends what a delightful place Fort Worth has been during the pleasant winter of the past few days. Talk about your summer resorts.

Almost everyone has a life-sized picture of the Republicans of Texas doing the Alphonso and Gaston act, now that "harmony" prevails, when the official pie is handed out.

A Quakertown groom gave his wife a burial lot for a wedding present. It was likely a gentle hint as to what she might expect if her cooking wasn't up to his mother's standard.

In their anxiety for striking attractions, we would respectfully advise the Louisiana Purchase Exposition committee not to overlook a faithful reproduction of the St. Louis House of Delegates.

It is persistently alleged that President Roosevelt has been keeping his eye on the Republican convention. Judging from the speed with which the President has been hurrying back to Washington, we would respectfully enquire where he left his eye in order that it might do its duty. Also, was it his black eye?

The decision of the Vatican regarding marriages in which Protestants and Catholics have been united in wedlock without a dispensation, is awaited anxiously. Not so anxiously, however, as the decisions of various parents at various times, regarding marriages in general and certain marriages in particular have been awaited. After all, pa and ma's consent is the vital question.

The candidates for the office of United States Senator to fill the vacancy created by the death of Hon. James McMillan, of Michigan, include W. C. McMillan, son of the deceased; Ex-Secretary Alger, Representative William Alden Smith, Benton Henchett and Dexter M. Ferry. General H. M. Duffield, who was regarded as a formidable candidate, is said to have come out for Alger and to be in charge of the Alger boom. Pretty soon there will be the fragrant odor of embalmed beef pervading the great state of Michigan.

While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

Generals Corbin and Young were much impressed with the German cavalry maneuvers. On their return we can expect the "goose-step" to be introduced in the army, or will it be the duel habit?

Now that the Republicans of Texas have gotten together and merged their "harmony" into one glorious sweet strain it is to be presumed that they won't forget their manners and all make a dive for the pie when 'tis passed.

The defeat of Governor Henry T. Gage for re-nomination by the California Republicans was the sequel of a bitter contest. He was backed by a machine that has long been invincible and his overthrow as a political leader brings the younger element into power.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON POWELL

For felicity of expression, clearness of thought and graceful combination of happy phrases, for an honest, straightforward, man-to-man talk, commend us to the address of welcome delivered yesterday afternoon at the Republican state convention by Mayor T. J. Powell.

Seldom it is that a man placed in the position of welcoming the representatives of a rival party to his city, expresses himself so satisfactorily, with a loss of none of his dignity and with the sacrifice of none of his own party allegiance.

Mayor Powell's address was a model of brevity and comprehensive thought. It was bigger than the city hall, larger than Fort Worth, more encompassing than the state, for it treated affairs from a national standpoint and treated them in a way that showed the speaker had studied and was familiar with his subject.

Fort Worth has reason to be proud of her mayor and his address. A man who has so evidently familiarized himself with the sayings and writings of great party leaders in the past, and who can cull from them their best thoughts, combining the whole in an original way, has better things in store than a municipal politician.

THE ST. LOUIS AFFAIR

The country at large and the southwestern portion in particular, has had its attention called the past few days, to the edifying spectacle of staid and respectable citizens of St. Louis engaged in the mad pursuit of fleeing members of the House of Delegates.

As it is, some of the delegates are still at large, or else in hiding in safe places till the storm is over. Or else they are protected by officials in power with whom they have made their peace. Wherever they are, it is safe to say that they are well provided for the contingencies attendant upon a hasty flight.

It has been brought to light that at least nineteen members of what was called the "combine" to defraud the city, were pledged to support each other through thick or thin, to the mutual advantage of all. It has been brought to light that these same high-minded and public-spirited representatives of the public safety, bound themselves together by a particularly novel "blood-and-thunder-oath," such as is used by small boys whose imaginations are fired by the reading of Diamond Dick literature.

The secrecy upon pain of death part of the pledge, is common enough, but the cutting out of the tongue and casting the body into the Mississippi was quite ingenious, were it not so disgusting. When such a condition exists, be it in ever so small a part of any municipal body, it is time to think of committees of public safety.

That such conditions have been allowed to be in St. Louis for any length of time, or even at all, is a tribute to neither the taste nor the intelligence of that city's population. The only lesson to be derived from the whole disgraceful affair is a warning to other cities, to restrict the power placed in the hands of their guardians.

BRIEF COMMENTS
Senator Quay is politely reminded that while he may be a boss in politics he is an outsider in the coal business.—Washington Star.

The literary critic of the "Philadelphia Ledger" says it is all right to speak of bituminous coal, but anthracite is a name in itself, and therefore it is redundant to speak of anthracite coal. Very well, but where is there any anthracite to speak of.—Baltimore News.

Judge John H. Reagan, of Texas, seems to hold the record for the strenuous life. He has held office continually, so the Texas newspapers claim, for sixty years, under three flags, that of the "lone star," the Stars and Stripes and the stars and bars, and has passed his eighty-third milestone.—Nebraska State Journal.

According to the "Philadelphia Ledger," "Anthracite is a name in itself and does not qualify the word coal, as camel (candle) and bituminous do. It is therefore proper to speak of anthracite, not of anthracite coal; whereas, it is not proper to speak of bituminous without adding the word coal." Exactly; but is it going to be proper to speak of the price of coal without adding words ill-adapted to a family journal?—Albany Argus.

EVENING WEDDINGS OUT OF DATE

Evening weddings are "out of date," and what woman looks her best in pure white by daylight! It is trying even to the fairest skin, and disastrous in the extreme to a brunette. So it comes about that the brides of this fall have thrown conventional ideas of costume to the four winds, and are introducing colors in their wedding gowns—just a touch here and there to relieve the monotony of the dead-white effect.—Woman's Home Companion.

FASHION HINTS

Indian and Persian designs of all sorts are having a great vogue. The silks in these patterns come very soft, so that they drape well, and for trimmings they are exceedingly rich.

Collars of lace insertion with stoles will be worn on the fall coats. These can easily be made at home by any one with skillful fingers. One of the noticeable features of the late summer gown is the wide collar of lace, which extends well over the shoulders. Sailor collars of lace in every form are to be seen, as well as the vandyke and round shapes.

The blouse coat still retains the popular favor. It is made with or without tails and with an open or closed front. The triple collars with rounded edges are considered very stylish.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip when editor Ward of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by N. E. Grammer.

THE MYSTERY OF GRASLOV
By Ashley Towne
Copyright, 1901, by Charles B. Etherington

Prince Neslerov wants to marry Frances Gordon, the charming daughter of an American who is building the Trans-Siberian railroad. Frances is interested in the fortunes of Vladimir Paulpoff, a stalwart Russian blacksmith. She asks Neslerov to use his influence for Vladimir's hut. The blacksmith has talent and shows Neslerov a picture he has painted. It is the portrait of a woman of rank copied from a miniature. The prince is excited and asks for the original. Vladimir's father says it has been lost. To Vladimir old Paulpoff confesses that he lied to Neslerov and still has the miniature. Neslerov has the Paulpoffs sent to Siberia as nihilists.

"What is this?" she cried. "It is nothing, mother," said Vladimir. "These men have found some letters, but I did not write them. Have peace. We shall soon set ourselves free."

The three Paulpoffs were thrust into a dungeon. The prince and the inspector told their stories—clear, lucid, convincing—to the governor of Perm. The word of a prince and governor and of an inspector of police was not to be doubted. There was no trial, no hearing—nothing but a report to the minister of justice at St. Petersburg.

In three days the Paulpoffs—old man, old woman and the unresisting giant—were on the way to Siberia on the railway which Gordon had helped to build.

CHAPTER IV. THE MEETING AT THE FORGE.

It was characteristic of Frances Gordon that, no matter how great the stress of social or other duties, her mind never lost room for such favorite schemes as were closest to her heart.

It was by reason of this characteristic that, while her busy father was deep in the mysteries and intricacies of the Moscow conference, the subtleties of which increased as the time for separation and departure drew nearer, Frances bethought her of a fitting opportunity to make good a promise she had made to Vladimir Paulpoff, the blacksmith.

During a conversation held several weeks before Vladimir had expressed a desire to study certain books which were apparently beyond his reach. Frances promised to obtain the books, and she did so. These made quite a respectable package, and a drosky was called to convey her to the railway station.

It was nothing new for Frances to travel alone as far as from Moscow to Perm, but on this occasion her father, with some sort of premonition, begged her to send the books by messenger.

"Oh, no," she said in her quiet manner of insistence. "We are about to return to the east, and I shall not see poor Vladimir for a long time."

"Hang Vladimir!" exclaimed Gordon as he saw his self-willed young lady step into the drosky.

Having alighted at Perm, she hired another drosky to take her and the precious books to the forge.

The driver was a huge, surly individual, whose face was covered with a thick mass of beard and whose voice, when speaking to one not established as his superior, was heavy and insolent.

Responding to the call of Frances, he swung his heavy drosky in toward the door of her hotel. A police inspector stood near, and the driver saluted in humility.

"I hate women!" he said to himself. "They pay nothing and have things happen to them. I shall get into trouble before I lose her."

Frances stepped toward the vehicle, and the driver's mouth opened.

"Such a woman!" muttered the drosky driver. "She must be English or an American. If she was a Russian, she would be a princess."

Frances had had ample experience with his class in all parts of Russia. She calmly stepped into the drosky and handed him a silver coin.

"I want to go to the iron shops of the Paulpoffs, on the South road," she said. "Paulpoff—Michael Paulpoff and his son Vladimir. Do you know them?"

"Yes, I know them. But do you know—what has happened?"

"No, has any one been ill?"

"No; but—"

The police inspector came up. "Any trouble here?" he asked sharply.

driver. "But the rain yesterday broke up the road. I did not think you would wish to come."

"Nonsense! There must be a safe way to get there."

In truth the way was as safe and comfortable as it had ever been, but the warning look of the inspector had prevented the driver from imparting the knowledge he had of the Paulpoffs. "Let the police tell their own tales—they are always true then—according to police standards," muttered the driver.

It was a long drive to the forge, and when the drosky drew near, having passed through the wild and almost unsettled region between it and Perm, Frances was struck with an air of mystery that seemed to have suddenly enveloped the place.

There was no sound of the tremendous blows of Vladimir that sent the ring of steel far into the forest. No smoke came from the chimneys. Old Mamma Paulpoff had been wont to run to her door to see every arrival, but she was not to be seen.

The wolfhound that had been Vladimir's pet sat whining upon the porch and was evidently weak with hunger.

"Old Boris!" cried Frances, leaping from the drosky. "Where is your handsome master?"

The hound, who remembered her, placed his cold nose in her hand lovingly. He seemed to feel that he had found a friend.

Frances stepped to the door and pushed it open.

"Oh!" she cried. She had opened the door on Prince Nicholas Neslerov, who stood there, about to depart, evidently, with a painting under his arm.

"Mlle. Gordon," he said, with a bow and smile.

"Where are the Paulpoffs?" she asked.

"Why, you have not, then, been informed of their misfortune?"

"Misfortune! I knew nothing of any misfortune. What has happened?"

"They are dead."

"Dead! All the Paulpoffs dead! Impossible! Papa Paulpoff and Mamma Paulpoff might die, they were so old, but Vladimir! Impossible! So young and powerful! Nothing but the weapon of an enemy could kill him in this healthy place."

"I spoke as we speak, mademoiselle. The Paulpoffs are not really dead. We speak of a man who is caught in crime and sent off—exiled—as dead. He is dead to his friends and to the world. You understand?"

Frances stood rigid and white, the package of books forgotten in the hands of the drosky driver. Her nails bit into the tender flesh of her clenched hands. Her eyes studied the face of the governor of Tomsk.

"Vladimir has not been caught in any crime," she said, with a sort of gasp. "Impossible! He was so simple and honest! What crime?"

"Conspiracy against his imperial majesty the czar."

"And where is he now?"

"On the way to Siberia."

"Siberia! Vladimir Paulpoff sent to Siberia! And where are his parents?"

"One in a family taken red handed condemns all. The old people are also on their way to Siberia."

Frances swayed a little. She had studied Russian customs and Russian justice and shuddered as she realized the horrible torture in store for these simple work people who had never, she felt convinced, harbored an evil thought against any man. To her they had always spoken in terms of loyalty and praise of the czar.

The face of Neslerov was inscrutable. He held the picture loosely and carelessly, and the girl caught a glimpse of the face.

"That is Vladimir's picture!" she cried. "What are you doing with it?"

"I am sending it to him," was the reply of Neslerov. "It so happened that I had occasion to visit my chateau near Graslov and rode by here at the time the inspector of police was making the arrest. I remembered what you said to me at Moscow and tried to do what I could for the poor fellow, at first doubting his guilt. But the inspector was certain, and so all that was left to me was to ask Vladimir what favor I could perform for him. He asked me to send him this picture, and I have arranged with the governor of Perm to permit it to be passed along to him."

"It is a beautiful face," said Frances. "Vladimir has the soul of a great artist in him. But in Siberia?"

She shuddered and ended her sentence abruptly.

"I have done more for him, for you," continued Neslerov. "There is another picture—he painted from memory. I have arranged to purchase it for a good price, and he shall not lose the money I promised him. It was a beginning to certain steps I had thought of to assist him."

REMAINS OF SAM J. DARCY RECEIVE LAST RITES AT HANDS OF COMRADES

Confederate Veterans, Sons of Veterans, and Other Friends Pay Honor to His Memory. Interment at Peter Smith Cemetery

The funeral of Sam J. Darcy, who was killed on Tuesday night by freight cars being backed over him at the Seventeenth street crossing of the Katy tracks, was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

There was an unusually large gathering at the late residence, 1003 Lamar street, where the services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. McPherson of the First Christian church. While his comrades in gray predominated, yet there was a large concourse of citizens generally of all ages and of both sexes, showing the universal esteem in which he was held by the community at large. The Sons of Veterans were given the post of honor as pallbearers, while his comrades detailed a number of honorary pallbearers. The former were George W. Clark, S. S. Potts, W. P. Lane, I. J. Stockett, J. M. Ball and W. E. H. Nicholson; while the latter were General K. M. Van Zandt, S. P. Greene, E. W. Taylor, J. C. Terrell, W. M. McConnell and J. H. Murphy.

The head of the procession formed at the house, composed of his comrades and the Sons, who marched preceding the hearse for several squares in double ranks. Then the procession parted ranks and stood at salute as the hearse and the carriages containing his immediate friends filed through, after which all sought their vehicles and followed the remains to the Peter Smith cemetery. There the comrades gathered about the grave and Chaplain W. E. Sellars of Lee camp followed the ritual of the camp, adding a few words pertinent to the occasion. Then followed the signal from the chaplain, "Comrades, deposit the emblem," and the comrades passed in single file around the grave and deposited therein, on the coffin, the evergreen, the emblem of immortality.

It was one of the saddest of the many sad occasions that have befallen the camp. One evening he goes out to his duties, which he followed industriously to the last moment, and is suddenly crushed beneath the iron wheels of fate; and before that hour on the following evening his comrades gathered about the red earth heaped over his grave, while sorrowing friends deposited thereon wreaths of immortality, including a beautifully wrought floral battle flag with its red field and thirteen stars under which he and his beloved South fought and won and lost.

CANDY MANUFACTURERS ENGAGE IN AN ENORMOUS COMBINE TO HANDLE BUSINESS

(By Associated Press) New York, Sept. 11.—A combination of candy manufacturers just incorporated in New Jersey under the name of the National Candy company with a capital of $9,000,000 will according to the Journal of Commerce, embrace 18 western candy houses, having an annual output, as claimed by the promoters of nearly 100,000,000 pounds of confectionery, mostly of the cheaper grades. The incorporations comprise Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Buffalo, Detroit and Indianapolis, Louisville, Minneapolis, Grand Rapids and one or two other western cities.

O. P. Peckham of St. Louis probably will be president and Senator Recker of Cincinnati, chairman of the executive committee.

MILLIONAIRE IS IN A CRITICAL CONDITION

W. S. STRATTON OF COLORADO SPRINGS WHO HAS BEEN ILL FOR WEEKS BECOMES WORSE

(By Associated Press) Colorado Springs, Sept. 11.—The condition of W. S. Stratton, the millionaire mining man of this city, who has been ill for several weeks, has taken a turn for the worse. A consultation of physicians was called early today and they authorized the statement that Mr. Stratton's condition was critical. He has been afflicted with liver trouble for several years and has recently suffered an acute attack of stomach and bowel trouble, that has weakened him exceedingly. The physicians do not say the attack is fatal.

Croup Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration, hoarseness and small doses of opium. Give frequent syrup (the child will cry for it), and at the first sign of a croupy cough apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50 cents at H. T. Pangburn & Co.'s.

The wheat crop of India this year will again be light—probably 10 per cent below the average of the last ten years, and little of the grain will be exported.

If You Have Pain in Your Back

Do Not Be Deceived. You Have Kidney Trouble, and You Do Not Need a Physician to Tell You So.

Let us give you a piece of advice: Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease; a sure sign is the condition of your urine. If you have a pain in the back then look to the condition of your urine. It is easily done. Take a glass tumbler and fill it with urine, after it has stood 24 hours. If it has a sediment, if it is milky or cloudy, if it is pale or discolored, stringy orropy, your kidneys and bladder are in a dangerous condition and need immediate attention, or the consequences may prove fatal.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the one medicine that really cures all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and it will take you but a short trial to convince yourself of its wonderful curative power.

G. F. Sammer of No. 409 Tioga street, Syracuse, N. Y., in a recent letter says: "I was afflicted for years with severe pains in my back and kidneys. I tried many doctors and many medicines, but got no relief; for over two years I scarcely had a good night's rest on account of backache in a most distressing form. I bought a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and commenced to use it, and I must say I never imagined I should find such a wonderful cure. Why I feel like a young man again in spite of my 59 years."

All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the new 50 cent size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

Washington Republicans Adjoin After the Hottest Convention Held in Many Years

(By Associated Press) Tacoma, Sept. 11.—The Republican State convention adjourned last night after the most exciting contest in the history of the party.

The trouble was over the railroad commission plank in the platform. The platform as reported by the committee was finally adopted. Judge Hadley was nominated for the supreme bench and Cushman Jones and W. E. Humphrey for congress. The adoption of the railway commission plank is considered as a great victory for Governor McBride.

TEACHERS' PAY FIXED

SCALE OF SALARIES ADOPTED BY SCHOOL BOARD YESTERDAY

Is a Slight Raise Along the Line—Provision Made for Increase According to Length of Time in Service

A special meeting of the school board was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, all members being present except Major Van Zandt and J. B. Sprinkle. Mayor Powell presided.

The purpose of the meeting was to take action upon the scale of salaries to be paid the teachers. The proposed scale was submitted to the board at its last regular meeting, the report of the committee being favorably received but no final action taken. The new scale, which was adopted, makes a slight increase in each grade and provides for a yearly increase for continuous service. It makes the following provisions:

For assistant teachers holding temporary primary certificates, first year, $40; second year, $45; third year, $50. For assistants holding intermediate, permanent primary, or state first graduate certificates, first year, $45; second year $50, and a $5 increase until $65 becomes the regular monthly pay.

For assistants holding state permanent or diplomas valid as permanent certificates, from $50 the first year up to $75, the increase being $5 per month yearly.

For high school assistants holding certificates the same as in the last preceding case, from $80 to $100, the rate of increase being $5.

Principals in six-room schools, $90 to $110; in eight-room schools, $100 to $125, the same increase of $3 per month every year being allowed; for principals in schools containing more than eight rooms, $5 per month for every additional room.

The salary of the superintendent will be $2000; the principal of the high school to receive $125 per month twelve months in the year.

The high school janitor will receive $50 per month twelve months a year, instead of that sum for eight and one-half months. The janitors in other schools will receive $30 per month and $2.50 extra for every additional room over six.

A Parson's Noble Act "I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure they excel anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters—the surprise of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cents. CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—In the District Court, October Term, A. D. 1902. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Tarrant County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the county of Tarrant, four weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon Lon Oliphant and Eliza Oliphant, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the district court to be held in and for the county of Tarrant, at the court house thereof, in the city of Fort Worth, on the second Monday in October, A. D. 1902, the same being the 13th day of said month, then and there to answer the petition of J. A. Hovenkamp, as plaintiff, filed in said court on the 8th day of September, A. D. 1902, against Lon Oliphant and Eliza Oliphant, as defendants. Said suit being numbered 21952, the nature of which demand is as follows, to-wit:

That on July 16, 1890, defendants owned as community property 10 acres out of the John Edmonds survey in Tarrant county, Texas, beginning 38 feet north of the J. B. Boyd 140-acre tract and the southwest corner of a 60-acre tract conveyed by H. C. Wallace to J. B. Boyd; thence west 210 varas; thence north 268 8-10 varas; thence east two hundred and ten varas; thence south with said line 268 8-10 varas to the beginning; that on said date said Lon Oliphant had abandoned the said Eliza Oliphant and fled from the country, leaving her in a destitute condition, and that as a means of securing assistance for herself to leave and return to her people in Illinois, she sold and conveyed said land to one J. G. Browning, and that the said J. G. Browning on December 15, 1890, sold and conveyed said land to plaintiff, that the deed of the said Eliza Oliphant passed to said Browning all the title and interest held by said Lon Oliphant and wife, and that plaintiff is the owner of that title. Wherefore plaintiff prays that he have judgment to him title to said land as against the defendants and removing cloud from title and for general relief. Herein fall not, but have you then and there before said court this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, W. D. McVean, clerk of the district court of Tarrant county.

Given under my hand and seal of said court in Fort Worth, this 8th day of September, A. D. 1902.

W. D. McVEAN, Clerk District Court, Tarrant County, Texas. By J. C. Branum, Deputy.

Kodol Digests what you Eat Dyspepsia Cure

The agony you suffer after eating, that feeling of fullness, flatulence (wind on the stomach) and belching is caused by decay of undigested food which forms a gas that distends the walls of the stomach and exerts a pressure against all the internal organs. The eating of more food forces out part of this gas and causes belching. Just take a little KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It will relieve you at once. It never fails to permanently cure the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. It suffered untold pains from indigestion which were always worse after eating. Two bottles of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE made me a well man and life no seems worth living. Peter Sherman, No. Stratford, N. H.

The Lieutenants of Morgan

One of the prime elements in the success of J. Pierpont Morgan, the head of the United States Steel corporation and other great industrial and financial enterprises, is his tact in surrounding himself with men competent to carry out the details of his vast projects. His chief lieutenants are George W. Perkins and Charles M. Schwab. The former looks after the Wall street interests of the great financier, while the latter, until recently compelled to take a temporary rest on account of health, managed the affairs of the corporation controlling eight-tenths of the steel output of this country which Mr. Morgan's genius as a promoter brought into being.

While in physique and mental processes Mr. Perkins and Mr. Schwab are wholly dissimilar, there is much in their careers that is analogous. Both are comparatively young men and possessed of remarkable energy and business sagacity. Mr. Perkins was born on Jan. 31, 1862, and Mr. Schwab on Feb. 18 of the same year. Each began at the lower rung of the ladder, though in widely separated spheres, and both have risen to eminence in the financial world with almost meteoric rapidity.

Mr. Perkins was the son of an insurance agent of moderate means in Chicago, where he received his early training. He was even at an early age remarkably quick and accurate at figures, though he cared very little for other studies. His business career was marked with unusual success from its very beginning, which was in a humble position in the Chicago office of the New York Life Insurance company. He became successively bookkeeper, cashier, inspector of agencies and superintendent of the western department. Then he was called to the home office of the company in New York and leaped almost at a bound into the third vice presidency.

From that time forward until he became associated with Mr. Morgan there was not a big loan made or a large investment financed by the company that Mr. Perkins did not know all about, and in most of them he was the guiding spirit.

He was instrumental to a large degree in putting up the big marble building that is the monument of the company on Broadway in New York. He went to Europe and reorganized general agencies there and then came back to reorganize them here. He introduced reforms and suggested policies that attracted the attention of business men.

Mr. Morgan knew of them, as he has known for a long time of the doings of many young men in the mercantile field with a capacity for executive management, a good head for figures and above all an ability to keep their own counsel.

One day Mr. Perkins received an offer from Mr. Morgan to get out of the insurance business and go into his office. It was an opportunity that few men would care to throw away, irrespective of salary considerations. It was said at the time that Morgan gave Mr. Perkins nearly triple the salary he got with the insurance company and that he received $12,000 a year with the latter.

However this may be, it is evident that for the business sagacity and executive ability that he brings to the aid of the great financier's big enterprises he receives an ample reward. Mr. Perkins lives in one of the most palatial residences on Riverside drive, overlooking the Hudson.

For ten years or more Mr. Perkins has been an influential man in financial circles in New York, but not in a manner that was calculated to bring his name much before the public. It is only since his name appeared as going to Ohio for a conference with Senator Hanna as to a possible settlement of the coal strike that he has begun to be talked about. Since then he has been much in the public eye, particularly during the time Mr. Morgan was in Europe, when he was in direct control of the latter's vast interests.

The confidence which Mr. Morgan has in Mr. Perkins and the close relations between them were aptly illustrated by a recent incident. Upon his return the other day from Europe Bishop Potter consulted Mr. Morgan as to the status of the coal strike and the prospect of settlement.

"Go to my office and ask Perkins," was the sole reply of the great man who controls steel and iron and railroads as the player moves the figures on a chessboard.

Mr. Morgan's other lieutenant, Mr. Charles M. Schwab, is perhaps not so closely allied to him as Mr. Perkins and operates in a very different field, though he is no less an important factor in his enterprises. No career in American industrial life has been more spectacular than that of Mr. Schwab. Born amid very humble surroundings and self educated, he was at the age of thirty-nine elected president of the largest combine in the world, the United States Steel corporation, at a salary generally understood to be $1,000,000.

In the steel industrial combination Mr. Schwab is generally considered as the representative of Andrew Carnegie, who holds a prior lien on the entire property of the corporation in the $305,000,000 of bonds paid to him for his Carnegie steel mills, of which Mr. Schwab was then president.

In dates and facts Mr. Schwab's meteoric career may be briefly summarized: Born at Williamsburg, Pa., forty years ago of poor parents, he attended a small elementary school until he was sixteen years of age and then began clerking in a grocery store at $2.50 a week. At eighteen he obtained work in the Edgar Thomson Steel works, operated by Andrew Carnegie at Braddock, Pa., at a dollar a day. He was set to driving stakes and did it so well that within six months he became assistant engineer.

Just seven years after he entered the Carnegie concern he was sent as chief engineer, then at the age of twenty-five, to rebuild the great Homestead steel plant.

In 1887 he became superintendent of the Homestead works, and five years later he was made general superintendent of the Thomson works. He subsequently built the great steel rail mill and practically reconstructed the entire plant, receiving at this time a salary of $35,000 a year.

In 1896 he was elected a member of the board of managers and in 1897 president of the Carnegie steel mills. He drew a salary of $50,000, with an interest in the amount of business done by the company. Then followed the election to the United States Steel corporation presidency in 1901, the position which he now occupies.

Since that time Mr. Schwab has been a resident of New York and has been an interesting figure in the social and financial world. He is many times a millionaire and spends his money freely, both for his own gratification and for benevolent purposes.

Mr. Schwab recently purchased a lot on Riverside drive, in New York, not far from the residence of Mr. Perkins, on which he is to build a home which it is said will be the most gorgeous private residence in America. The entire investment, house and lot, is expected to amount to about $5,000,000.

Mr. Schwab took a trip to Europe last winter, during which time he was almost continually in the public eye. First he went to Monte Carlo. Extravagant reports came back by cable of his winnings and losses at the gambling table. There was widespread comment upon these reports, and it was currently reported in Wall street, though subsequently denied, that J. P. Morgan & Co. called to Mr. Schwab inquiring into the truth of the reports and advising no more gambling. The stories of the Monte Carlo winnings and losses thereupon ceased.

When next heard of, Mr. Schwab was in Vienna. He was accorded a most gracious reception by the emperor of Austria, and it was reported that the emperor wanted to see Mr. Schwab again, but found it impossible to arrange it. Then he went to London, and King Edward and he had a half hour's talk, the details of which were more or less fully reported.

A short time ago Mr. Schwab was taken suddenly ill while driving at Atlantic City, where he has a country residence, and is now taking a vacation for his health. He, however, still retains his position as president of the United States Steel corporation, and his close friends declare that his illness is not of a serious character.

THE CLOSING UPROARIOUS

SCENES ATTENDING CLOSE OF AFTERNOON AND NIGHT SESSIONS.

Various Committees Appointed, and Results of Their Action. Response to Address of Welcome. Outline of Proceedings.

Hon. W. H. Atwell, U. S. district attorney for the northern district of Texas, was selected to respond to Mayor Powell's address of welcome. Mr. Atwell said:

"Members of the harmonized Republican party of Texas, and the on-verse-of-conversion Democrats, ladies and gentlemen." Laughter. The speaker then went into a discussion of Republican policies, reviewing the history of the party. He told of its achievements and optimistic policy and predicted a great future, saying that its craft would be found in the harbor of pure and perfected government. Great applause was accorded his statement that "the Republican party is after the great state of Texas." He said that of all the states, Texas is the greatest field for evangelizing in the union, and warned Mayor Powell that by the Republican party he (the mayor) and all Democratic office holders would soon be relieved of their burdensome and onerous duties. Mr. Atwell complimented Mayor Powell's address of welcome, saying that it had been his happy privilege to attend many state conventions, had heard many eloquent and enthusiastic addresses of welcome. "But, your's, sir, is the best I have ever heard, and coming from a man whose politics are different from ours, your's, sir, is the broadest." Applause.

Chairman Lyon Made Talk
Chairman Lyon made a brief talk to the convention, thanking the Republican party of Texas for the assistance its members had given him in the conduct of the affairs of the party on bringing it to such magnificent state of organization. There remained much to be done yet to perfect the organization, and hoped and urged that every member of the party would take up the work where he left off and assist the man who was to succeed him as state chairman to carry the work to even greater results.

Mr. Lyon was proud of the record he had made, and in making this record he had at all times had only the party's interests in view. He had recommended no man for federal patronage who was either akin to him, or who was a close personal friend. On the contrary, he had turned down many of his best friends for endorsement, because the party organization was against them.

On the proposition of harmony and building up the party, he urged all that if they had an enemy in any of the contests which had just been settled, to go to that enemy, extend to him the hand of fellowship and join each with the other in the grand work of upbuilding the Republican party in Texas. He urged them to go home at the close of the meeting, get the representative men of their respective localities together, and select the best men to get in the race for some of the elective offices on the state ticket in this fall's campaign.

Mr. Lyon then introduced C. M. Ferguson, colored, of San Antonio. Ferguson then read the report, seating all delegations but not allowing contestants to vote. The report was adopted.

Chairman Lyon then introduced Hon. R. B. Hawley, temporary chairman. Mr. Hawley said in speaking of even a united party in Texas, referring to the self-abnegation and concessions made by the former factions that no living man can truthfully say he dominates the Republican party of Texas. He next passed on to the chances of the party against the Democrats, and said the future had a rosy hue and that the latter party would be forced to a proper recognition of the Republican party and regard it as a foe worthy of its best steel. He called attention to the Republican tocsin being sounded from Maryland to Texas, and said that it will be heard in all states in the West, South and Southwest, which have heretofore been indifferent to Republican success. He implored Texas Republicans to cease fighting their brothers and direct all efforts in opposing the Democratic party. He said that the Republican party is not one of campaign expediences, but is of great national policies. Mr. Hawley then uttered praise for Roosevelt as a man and a statesman. In conclusion he pledged undying allegiance to the party.

C. M. Ferguson moved that the chair appoint three committees, one member from each of the congressional districts, as follows: one in credentials, one on rules and regulations and one on permanent organization. The motion prevailed, and the appointments were made. A motion prevailed to adjourn until 1 p. m.

Night Session.
The night session was punctuated with many sensational features and by 8 o'clock the lower floor and balcony were filled. It was 8:20 o'clock before there was anything doing. In order to entertain the crowd, J. W. Owenby, United States district attorney from Paris, was introduced. Mr. Owenby was proud of the fact that he had left the Democratic party three years ago and cast his vote with the Republicans. He was a southerner, born of southern parents, etc. He then devoted himself to what he described as the great policies of the Republican party and told of the reunited North and South. He paid tribute to the late President McKinley and uttered words of commendation for Mr. Roosevelt, picturing him as a great statesman and hero. He painted in glowing colors the prosperity of this country, which he attributed to the Republican party, and then proceeded to pay his respects to the Democratic party.

The committee announcements were then made. In the credentials committee appointments, it was announced that Chairman C. H. McDowell of Dickens county was called home, and that George A. Knight of Nocona had been agreed upon. The change was made.

An effort was made to adjourn the meeting to 10 o'clock this morning, but was defeated.

The committee then retired, following which there was much confusion, but in 20 minutes the credentials committee reported, approving the executive committee's action seating all delegates, those contestants who were defeated being allowed to participate in the deliberations, but no vote. The report of the committee on rules and procedure was presented and adopted. It was as follows: "That this convention be governed by such rules and modes of procedure as have obtained in former Republican states conventions of the State of Texas."

Chairman Lyon spoke in support of the credentials committee's report, saying that the executive committee worked for two days and nights and that the action of the committee virtually seated every man who had any sort of a claim to a seat in the convention. He said there were those who had appointed themselves as delegates, and that it was such a spirit as this that the Republicans of Texas should frown down. He said that so far, the convention had proven to be a pleasant occasion and he hoped it would continue so. He wanted harmony. There were those who came to the convention for fun, but he was glad to say the great majority came having in mind the best interests of the party. The committee had reported that the organization must be paramount; that if it was not, that there was no use in holding conventions, but instead meet in mass meetings every year and have no delegates.

He begged the convention to end the day in the spirit in which it was begun. The motion was put by Judge R. E. Hanney of Hempstead, who was presiding, and Love of Collin county walked down the aisle, asking for recognition. His conduct led the majority of delegates to believe that he would oppose the adoption of the report and Chairman Hanney put the motion to adopt and there was an almost unanimous response in favor of its adoption. Delegate Love crying for an appeal from the decision of the chair. Upon the adoption of the report an adjournment followed until this morning at 9 o'clock, though the greatest noise was made by those unfavorable to adjourning.

Devoured by Worms

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from indigestion, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25 cents at H. T. Pangburn & Co.'s.

An Abundance of Blood PAIN'S Celery Compound

Cleanses the Vital Fluid, Increases Its Supply, Banishes the Seeds of Localized Diseases, and Nourishes Every Important Organ.

The use of Paine's Celery Compound means an abundance of pure, vitalizing blood, a perfect regulating of circulation, and the banishment of localized diseases such as insomnia, neuralgia, rheumatism, eczema, salt rheum, blood diseases, running sores, and eruptions.

If your sleep is not restful and refreshing, if your spirits are low, if you are morose, melancholic, and oppressed with morbid feelings, be assured your blood demands instant attention.

Paine's Celery Compound is the one great and never failing agent for making pure, fresh blood, for nourishing the dominant organs of the body, for recruiting the strength of young and old. Often, very often, a delay of one day proves fatal. Foul and poisoned blood carries death at every beat of the heart. Mrs. C. R. Root, Mansfield, Pa., says:

"When I began taking Paine's Celery Compound I was all rundown after a severe attack of the grippe and was almost tired of life. I had salt rheum very badly in my hands, and the doctors told me there was no permanent cure for it when it had got into a person's blood so badly, but I am happy to tell you that Paine's Celery Compound cured me of salt rheum, kidney trouble, and other ailments. It is always my doctor."

THEATRICAL

RICHARDS & PRINGLE'S. Richards & Pringle's minstrels come to Greenwall's opera house Friday matinee and night, Sept. 12.

The Nashville Banner has the following to say: A big audience was present at both the matinee and evening performances of Richards & Pringle's Georgia Minstrels at the Masonic yesterday, notwithstanding the hot weather. The aggregation is better than it has ever been, and the stunts performed by the crowd of dusky entertainers are clever beyond the common run.

The dancing is the best feature of the show, and there are quite a number of comic songs.

BRAUNIG STOCK CO. Fort Worth's favorite popular price attraction, the Braunig Stock company, will play a week's engagement at Greenwall's opera house commencing Monday, Sept. 15, excepting Friday, on which occasion they will present Lawrence Marsden's great romantic play "Credit Lorraine," for which they have the exclusive southern rights. The company is much stronger this season than ever before, the plays to be presented during the week have all proven metropolitan successes, and the vaudeville features introduced between acts are all of the very highest order. The company will give daily matinees next week commencing Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The prices during the engagement will be 10c, 20c and 30c at night, and 5c and 20c for the matinee.

NYE INSTEAD OF JACK Correction With Reference to Decorations and Arrangements

In giving credit to the man who superintended the plans and building of the press boxes at the convention, decorations, etc., the name of A. N. Jack was given, when H. W. Nye was intended. Postmaster Geo. Burroughs and a committee under him planned and did the decorating, which has caused so much favorable comment.

CRIMINAL BUSINESS

SOME CASES OF LONG STANDING COME BEFORE JUDGE SMITH

Some Non-Jury Civil Cases Disposed of. Good Demand for Marriage Licenses. Colored Delegate Relieved of a Roll.

There are a number of capital cases coming up for trial before Judge M. E. Smith in the Seventeenth district court that have been before the court for some time and with which the public is generally familiar. The first to be called is that against Melvin Haley, who is charged with criminal assault. A special venire of 30 men has been ordered for this case. It will come up next Wednesday.

Thursday John Hendricks will be tried on a charge of murder of his stepfather, whom he killed a year ago last Christmas. He sets up the defense that he did it in protecting his mother from an assault. All the parties are colored. A special venire of 50 men is ordered.

J. H. Dent, indicted on the charge of killing of John C. Wilson at Azle last spring will have his trial on Sept. 24. The young men were playing mumble-leg when the deceased was cut in the leg, bleeding to death in a few minutes. Special venire of 50 takersmen.

W. I. Maples, charged with robbing a negro woman of $1.27 on the highway, will have his trial on Sept. 25. A special venire of 50 men is ordered. The case of Hy Moore will be called on Sept. 29. Moore is charged with a double murder, having shot his wife and a companion who was with her in a wine room at a saloon on lower Main street over a year ago. A venire of 50 men is summoned on each case.

Tom Kilgore, charged with complicity in the killing of J. B. Oldfield at Arlington, will have his case up for hearing Oct. 1. Milton Young was convicted of the deed but is now awaiting a new trial, granted by the court of criminal appeals.

CASES DISPOSED OF. Judge Smith has disposed of the following additional cases on the non-jury civil docket:

City Realty company vs. Henry Collins, trespass; judgment for plaintiff by default for the land sued for. Ex parte Joe Wheat, application for writ of habeas corpus. On hearing the applicant is discharged.

NEW SUITS FILED. The following new suits were filed this morning in the office of the district clerk: Annie Pouncy vs. Lewis Pouncy, divorce. R. L. Carlock vs. Edd Trigg, et al., debt.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued last evening and this morning to the following parties: G. W. Wages and Miss Carrie Hayes. Dr. E. H. Rudd and Miss Sallie Bettie Elliott. Marion Tartar and Miss Kate Cox. J. O. Hassel and Miss Willie Stanley.

DELEGATE WAS TOUCHED.

Creedy Pierce, a notorious negro character, was lodged in jail on a charge of relieving a negro delegate to the convention of his pocketbook containing money, notes, railroad tickets and other valuables to the amount of $200.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

Workmen have been engaged in tearing up the floor in the northwest corner of the Forty-eighth district court room where it has been badly rotted and charred by an electric wire running beneath it, the insulation of the wire being in bad shape.

The sheriff's force is laboring hard to get the court machinery in working order for next week when heavy business comes up.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—In the District Court, October term, A. D. 1902. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Tarrant County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the county of Tarrant, four weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon Sue Ella Tooley, a non-resident of the state of Texas, to be and appear before the district court, to be held in and for the county of Tarrant, at the court house thereof, in the city of Fort Worth, on the second Monday in October, A. D. 1902, the same being the 13th day of said month, then and there to answer the petition of J. E. Murrey, filed in said court on the 9th day of September, A. D. 1902, against Sue Ella Tooley, as defendant. Said suit being numbered 21957, the nature of which demand is as follows, to-wit:

That on July 1, 1902, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of a part of the Hayes Covington survey situated in Tarrant county, Texas, described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of lot 1 as set apart to the unknown heirs of John L. Covington, same being 366 vrs from the northeast corner of the J. Bursey 320 acre survey; thence east 642 vrs; thence south 840 vrs to the north line of the L. B. Creswell survey; thence east 452 vrs; thence north 2556 vrs to a rock in the north line of said Hayes Covington survey; thence west 1090 vrs to northeast corner of said lot 1; thence south 1716 vrs to the beginning, holding the same in fee simple and that on the day and year last aforesaid the defendant entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withholds from plaintiff the possession thereof to his damage $500. Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for said land with writ of restitution and for general relief.

Herein fail not, but have you then and there before said court this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, W. D. McVean, clerk of the district court of Tarrant county. Given under my hand and seal of said court, in Fort Worth, this 10th day of September, A. D. 1902.

W. D. McVEAN, Clerk District Court, Tarrant County, Texas.
