PREDICTS CLOSE CALL FOR THE PRESIDENT

Following is a prediction made for readers of The Telegram by Prof. Gustave Meyer, the young astrologist of Hoboken, N. J. Heretofore Prof. Meyer's predictions have been remarkable in their foresight and this one will be read with interest.

"On erecting a figure or chart of the Heavens, for our Autumn Quarter, as I am a young American Astrologer, I find that the stars indicate and impart the fact to me that some great harm is imminent to our President and to our Government, especially so, during September 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 30th inst., and during October 1st, 8th, 9th, 14th, 15th and 16th, and it would be well for President Roosevelt to guard himself from much harm or danger throughout the Autumn months, owing to the fact that the evil planet Saturn is posted in the tenth Mansion of the Heavens, or on the mid Heaven, which shows almost similar evil to President Roosevelt as that which I predicted for President McKinley during 1901. However, the indications are not as serious as could be otherwise owing to the fact that the fortunate planet Jupiter is also posted on the mid Heaven, or in the same Mansion which the evil planet Saturn and this will modify the fact to a certain extent, or in other words, I should judge that our President will have a very close call. And the evil which has but recently occurred to him only goes to follow that 'Coming Events cast their shadows before.' However, I trust that nothing very serious shall befall our President.

OIL MILL IN EAST ST. LOUIS

WINFIELD SCOTT AND M. E. SINGLETON HEAD CAMPAIGN

QUARTER OF MILLION

Construction Begins Soon After January 1—Facilities for Feeding 3,000 Head of Cattle—Mill's Daily Capacity 150 Tons

Contrary to the announcement made some days ago, Fort Worth people have practically completed the organization of the East St. Louis Cotton Oil company, and will begin January 1, building a plant. The company will be chartered under the laws of Illinois, and capitalized for a quarter of a million dollars. Winfield Scott one of the largest feeders in Texas will be the president, and M. E. Singleton who has been secretary and manager for the Fort Worth Cotton Oil company, is to be the general manager. Mr. Singleton will move to East St. Louis soon after the first of the year to superintend the construction.

The stockholders in the company are mainly Texas cattle raisers. Ten per cent of the capital stock, it is understood, has been paid in.

Purchased and Leased Land

The company recently purchased ten acres and leased from the National Stock Yards company between 130 and 135 addition for the oil plant and feeding pens. The land lies about a half mile north of the yard pens, or midway between the yards and the Merchants' bridge, and a half mile from the Mississippi river front. The property has trackage through the Terminal railroad of St. Louis to the stock yards, the wharf and the Merchants' bridge, as well as connection with all railroads entering St. Louis and East St. Louis.

Ready For Next Season

The company will soon secure a charter and a short time thereafter will begin construction, which is regarded in ample time to be in readiness for the next season.

The main building will be two stories and of brick, 40 by 170 feet. The boiler and engine room will also be of brick, 40 by 80 feet, and of one story. Two seed storage houses are to measure 60 by 250 feet, and a hull house 80 by 100 feet. These three buildings will be of frame. The office building will be a one story brick. Ten iron storage tanks of 8,000 gallons capacity each will also be put up, and when completed the mill will have a daily seed capacity of 150 tons.

Ample Feeding Facilities

The company will make ample provision for feeding cattle, the property being equipped with separate pens for both native and southern stock. It is estimated the capacity will accommodate between 2,000 and 3,000 head during all seasons of the year. The seed supply for the oil mill will be largely the product of the Southern river country and from a market that will meet the requirements of the enterprise.

JOSEPH ROSEN DIED TODAY

Had Lived in Fort Worth Six Years— Was Father of the Well Known Merchant

Joseph Rosen, aged 62 years, died this morning at the residence of his son, Samuel Rosen, 804 West Weatherford street, after an illness of only a few days. It was 7:30 o'clock when deceased breathed his last. The funeral was announced for this afternoon at the home of Samuel Rosen, Rev. Mr. Gordon to conduct the service.

Joseph Rosen came to Fort Worth in September six years ago. He came directly from Europe, purposely to be present at his son's wedding and for a visit. He did not intend remaining long, but becoming infatuated with the climate and pleased with his son's business success, he concluded to remain indefinitely. He did not engage in business, but spent much of his time about his son's place of business and at the residence.

He had only been seriously ill for a few days, though had been ailing for a week. Last Monday he was able to visit his physician's office. Deceased survived his wife, she dying in Europe several years ago. He leaves four children—a son and daughter here, Sam Rosen and Mrs. M. Goldstick; a son, I. Rosen, in Philadelphia, he having at one time lived here. A daughter also lives in Europe. The interment will be made in the Hebrew cemetery.

PORTO RICAN POLITICIANS

QUEER CUSTOMS THAT PREVAIL ON WEST INDIAN ISLE

CAMPAIGN NOT OPEN

Yet There Have Been Many Interesting Fights and the Promises Are For a Very, Very Warm Time

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 18.—On Nov. 4 will be held an election covering the entire island, at which time a resident commissioner to the United States, five delegates from each legislative district, a mayor for each municipal district, one municipal judge, three school-trustees and members of the council will be chosen. In San Juan two municipal judges and two substitutes will be voted for.

Campaign Not Begun.
While the campaign has not fully opened, yet the first few meetings have been theatrical. The Porto Rican is a good citizen, he generally minds his own business and believes in the adage: "Live and let live," until it comes to politics.

Then there are no half way measures. If you are on the opposite side, your opponent considers that you are not entitled to live and that you have lost all claim to respectability.

Thus far few meetings have been held which have not ended with a few broken heads.

But Two Parties.
Today in Porto Rico there are, strictly speaking, two parties—the Republican party now in power, and the American federation. Another party has sprung up in the past few weeks which styles itself Unionist. Its platform is Utopian to such an extent that it is not being considered seriously by the other two.

Most of the trouble occurs in interior towns where the people have little else to do except to dabble in politics, and so everybody is a politician. The recent disturbances at Humacao, Caney and Juncos were only the result of abnormally developed feeling of intolerance.

The Ready Policemen.
In certain districts the police have openly proselyted for one side or the other until brought severely to task by the higher officials, and Acting Governor Hartzell and Chief Techter have struck upon a happy plan. In Republican strongholds policemen with federal sympathies will patrol the federal towns.

It is difficult to forecast the result at this time as nominations have not even been made, but that the federals will carry a number of districts and make a very good showing in the house of delegates is conceded by those who are in a position to know.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by N. E. Grammer.

Came Near Being a Cripple

Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by N. E. Grammer.

THE GOVERNMENT'S WEEKLY CROP NEWS

CONDITIONS OF COTTON, CORN, RICE AND CANE DURING THE PAST WEEK

Following is the government crop report for the week ending September 15, 1902:

Temperature.—The mean temperature for the state was 71.7, which is 4 degrees below the usual average for this season of the year, and was the lowest average during the present crop season. The weather was relatively warm until the 11th, when a cool wave struck the northern portion of the state and swept rapidly southward, reaching the coast districts by the 13th. This cool wave caused unusually low temperatures for the season in all sections of the state. The highest average temperature for the week, 77.5, was reported from Cuero, and the lowest, 66.0, from Amarillo. The highest absolute temperature, 101, occurred at Beville on the 9th, and the lowest, 41, at Waxahachie, on the 14th.

Rainfall.—The rainfall for the week was decidedly below the normal and was reported only from extreme northeastern portion of the state and in widely scattered localities in the central and east central sections. Rain is needed in the Coast Districts, in southern and western sections and in the Panhandle. Elsewhere the rainfall of last week affords ample moisture for crops.

Cotton.—There has been little change in the general condition of the cotton crop since last report. The sharp and sudden cool wave during the latter portion of the week will probably retard opening to some extent, and check for a brief period the growth of late cotton; otherwise it is not thought that any particularly bad results will follow. Reports indicate that late cotton was benefited slightly by the rains of last week, and in some fields of the early planted will induce a light top crop. Except in scattered localities no new blooms are appearing and only a few new bolls are forming. There is less complaint of shedding throughout the state, and in northern sections the damage from boll worms has ceased. The boll weevil, however, is still infesting the crop in southern and central sections, where considerable damage is being done. Picking continued active during the entire week under the most favorable weather conditions, and in southern and southwestern sections many fields have been abandoned to stock. With a protracted spell of warm weather and a late frost there are hopes of a light top crop from the early planted cotton, and an increase in the yields from the late crop, but it is becoming more and more evident that the ultimate yield from the entire cotton crop will be extremely short.

Corn.—The gathering of the early planted corn is mostly completed, and the yields from this crop confirm all previous estimates, and in many cases are even shorter than was anticipated. Some improvement is noted in the condition of late corn, especially in sections where rain fell; much of this crop is in silk and tassel, and with a late fall will no doubt turn out fairly well.

Rice.—The harvesting of the early planted crop has practically been completed and considerable has been threshed. Late planted rice is doing exceptionally well and will soon be ready to harvest.

Sugar cane is ripening and will soon be ready to cut, and all indications point to a good crop.

Sweet potatoes are being dug with fairly satisfactory yields. The gridding of sorghum is in progress. Forage crops are beginning to mature. Preparations for fall gardens are under way, and where the condition of the ground will permit breaking land for wheat and oats is being rapidly done.

TEXAS CORN FED CATTLE

Brought a Record Price on the Kansas City Market.

An interesting experiment in corn-fed Texas cattle has just been concluded, by which all price records for this stock were broken. A dispatch from Kansas City retold of a sale of 34 steers at a price said to top any heretofore paid for corn-fed Texas cattle. These steers, 16 grade Herefords, 10 grade Shorthorns and one non-descript, which averaged for the 2-year-olds 1266 pounds and brought $8.15, and 1480 for the 3-year-old steers, which brought $c.

These steers were raised on the Long S ranch of C. C. Slaughter, near Midland, where 6000 more of the same stock are now grazing. As yearlings, for the experiment, they were sent to Running Water Ranch, near Amarillo, and were later taken to Council Grove, Kas., where they were fed on corn for a year and grazed through the summer and fed on corn.

E. Dick Slaughter states that these steers were not picked, but were the regular run of the herd.

IRON MARKET CONDITIONS

DELIVERIES OF RAW MATERIAL ARE STILL UNSATISFACTORY

FREIGHT RATE HIGHER

Is Upward Both to Atlantic and Gulf Ports—Reports From Domestic Markets Indicate a Very Heavy Consumption.

New York, Sept. 18.—The strain of unsatisfactory deliveries of raw material has been growing, being particularly severe in coke both for furnace and foundry use, says the Iron Age. Its review of conditions in the iron and steel trade. Relief has been sought by additional importations on a very considerable scale. In foundry pig iron the tide water markets are dependent almost entirely on Scotch, English, German and Canadian iron for prompt and early deliveries and even in Chicago round lots are reported to have been sold during the past week.

For future delivery in 1903, consumers are, however, purchasing only home irons, among the recent purchases being one of upwards of 10,000 ton, by the largest melter of iron in the metropolitan district. Foreign iron is called for distant delivery only in exceptional cases.

One feature which applies to all the heavy articles in the foreign trade is the upward tendency in freights, both to Atlantic and Gulf ports. They already have risen and may advance further temporarily, it being believed, however, that they will recede when the cotton and grain export movement sets in heavily. As it is delivered prices of pig iron and steel reflect the advance both in the price of the material at foreign mills and of the advance in freights.

Reports from the domestic markets reflect a continuance of the heavy consumption in the heavy lines. Orders for rails, plates and structural material, etc., are coming in steadily. In these branches the full capacity of the United States steel corporation is said to be engaged to the middle of next year. The total tonnage of all products on the books is reported to be about 4,225,000 gross tons.

SENATOR BARD IS BATTLING FOR LIFE

PHYSICIANS NOW THINK THEY HAVE HIS DISEASE PARTLY UNDER CONTROL.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 18.—United States Senator Thomas R. Bard's condition this morning is more favorable than at any time since Monday. Medical efforts supplemented by the most careful of nursing seem to have triumphed in the prolonged attempt to reduce the fearful heart strain. From a pulse of 154 the patient's heart beats were reduced to 132 with a favorable temperature. If this favorable change can be maintained Senator Bard will have a fair fighting chance for life in the opinion of Dr. Taggart, the attending physician.

PEOPLES' PULPIT

People's Pulpit.
Editor Telegram: Having noticed in your paper of recent date, headlines reading as follows: "Refused to Let Her Children Go," knowing the facts in the case as a citizen I desire you to publish them for Fort Worth Telegram readers.

In reference to Rev. I. Z. T. Morris having made arrangements to send the 13-year-old Carlew girl, who is soon to become a mother, to Rescue Home, San Antonio, and her younger sister to Orphans' Home here, will say this is a false report. Rev. Mr. Morris was going to take the 13-year-old girl, as it were, by force, but failed to do so as the girl's mother is most bitterly opposed to sending her anywhere and has never given her consent as one might infer from reading the article. Mrs. Carlew has Christian friends to look after her.

The article also quotes Brother Morris as stating that Mrs. Carlew was occupying rooms west of the court house and had been sent away. This is another erroneous statement for it is a known fact that Mrs. Carlew could have retained her rooms indefinitely had she desired to, and as to her living over in the bottom in a disreputable locality, this is another false statement, for when Mrs. Carlew moved from rooms west of the court house she had procured rooms with a Christian family in an entirely different neighborhood to what she was said to have gone, and as the neighborhood is as good as the average Fort Worth can boast of, he adds slander to good citizens of this city.

One of the children, the younger, Mrs. Carlew did consent for it to go to the Orphans' Home here in Fort Worth and go to school until Mrs. Carlew could recover her strength sufficiently to make other arrangements for her and Brother Morris agreed for her to take the child when she had sufficiently recovered to be able to look after it. Mrs. Carlew is at the home of a Mason's daughter and the daughter of a Rebekah and will be cared for. If the present condition and general surroundings make the mother not the proper one to have charge of her own daughters and if Brother Morris and Constable Mabern think they have the right to take the mother in their own hands their authority will certainly be challenged.

Pain in the back is a never failing sign of kidney disease; another sure sign is the condition of the urine; if you have a pain in the back then look to the condition of your urine. F. C. Wilcox of 559 New Britain ave., Hartford, Conn., says:

THE NEW PRODUCTS OF TEXAS

Egyptian Cotton and Fine Quality of Tobacco Being Grown

Washington, Sept. 18.—Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, in a report to the West, during a general discussion of crop conditions he said:

"The last most interesting item in connection with the work of this department is a report I have just received from Texas which states that experiments for the eradication of the boll weevil have demonstrated that this insect will not touch Egyptian cotton. The department has been experimenting with the raising of Egyptian cotton for several years with marked success. If this last report proves to be true it will undoubtedly result in the planting of Egyptian cotton in Texas in the future."

"What may be considered as another important step in agriculture is the progress of the department in the development of a fine tobacco filler. Several years ago the department began its work in the tobacco industry by Paris exposition this wrapper tobacco of the finest quality. At the count of its fine silky quality and light weight. We shipped 25 leaves to the pound more than any other wrapper tobacco produced.

"It is just as well that our filler experiments are developing rapidly, as the department experiences great difficulty in keeping its experts in this line. Just as soon as the wrapper tobacco had been developed commerce bid so high for the department experts who had developed it that they immediately left the government service. This will undoubtedly be the case also in the filler line. We are making the experiments in Ohio and Texas."

MRS. M'KINLEY AS A WIDOW

Her Daily Life at Canton Is Characterized by Simplicity

Canton, O., Sept. 18.—A year's widowhood finds Mrs. McKinley in better health than when she occupied the White House. At the time of the tragedy at Buffalo she had entirely recovered from the effects of her sickness in California the previous spring, and the president was looking forward to her taking a more active part in the social life of Washington. Then came the blow that almost crushed her. Her improved physical condition enabled her to survive the trying ordeal, and although her grief is as keen as ever, she is now better able to control her emotions. She occupies the old home, the one where she and her husband began their married life; where their children were born and taken from them; the home which had grown from a modest little cottage to a commodious, but not conspicuous, home in anticipation of their retirement to private life.

A feature of her widowhood is that she never enters the house of any of her old friends or relatives. Even the request of her sister, who now occupies the old Saxon home, has been denied, as she fears to revive old memories. Very often guests are entertained for a few days at a time. Sometimes they are relatives or old friends, and again associates of later years.

The old Canton neighbors and friends of Mrs. McKinley are frequent callers at the house. She seems glad to see them, and when in her usual condition seldom denies herself to callers she knows.

In her daily life there is scarcely any variety. At 10:30 the carriage, an ordinary surrey, such as the president used, is ordered, and Mrs. McKinley and whoever may be with her at the time enter and are driven direct to the cemetery, where the president's vault is guarded by a detachment of troops.

Mrs. McKinley and her companions enter the vault and arrange the flowers that are always kept upon and around the casket, adding some fresh ones nearly every day. They then drive through the cemetery to the McKinley family lot. Only on a very few days during the entire year has this program not been observed.

THE ALABAMA CONVENTION

FIRST IN STATE'S HISTORY WITH ONLY WHITE DELEGATES

ROOSEVELT ENDORSED

But Resolution to That Effect is Adopted Only After Acrimonious Debate on Both Sides—Negroes Are Angry.

(By Associated Press)

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 18.—After a spirited debate, lasting several hours, the Republican state convention passed a resolution recommending the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for a second term for president. After the adoption of a platform a full state ticket was nominated and the convention adjourned.

This was the first white Republican convention held in Alabama since the civil war, and the ousting of the negro delegates caused indignation among the leading members of that race. They have issued a card to the public denouncing the "Lilly whites," and say they don't believe the national convention will tolerate it.

The sentiment to endorse the present administration of Mr. Roosevelt was practically unanimous, but the opposition to the second term endorsement was based on the grounds that it was improper for this convention to pass upon a question to be decided by a convention to be held two years hence. After a debate, which grew acrimonious at times, the Roosevelt resolution was adopted.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor—J. A. W. Smith of Birmingham. Lieutenant governor—Charles P. Lane of Huntsville. Attorney general—W. H. Armbricht of Mobile.

Secretary of state—J. H. Carter of Cullman.

Auditor—T. B. McNair of Marshall county.

Treasurer—H. Lee Brown of Conecuh county.

Superintendent of education—J. C. Fonville of Crenshaw county.

Commissioner of agriculture—T. B. Morton of Fayette.

J. A. W. Smith, the nominee for governor, is a son of the late Hon. V. H. Smith, who was Republican governor of Alabama during the reconstruction period, and is a prominent lawyer of this city.

LISTEN TO THE PIUS FUND DISCUSSIONS

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION COURT IS HEARING BOTH SIDES OF THE TANGLED CASE

(By Associated Press)

The Hague, Sept. 18.—The international arbitration court ruled, with reference to points raised Monday, that Mexico's reply to the United States' memorandum shall be included in the documents in the case and that the plaintiffs have the right to introduce a written reply before Sept. 25, that after each side is entitled to make a reply through single counsel representing each side.

Senator Stewart of Nevada then resumed his presentation of the case of the United States and introduced documents from the archives of the archbishopric of San Francisco in support of his contention that the law of 1735 founding the Pius fund gave the proceeds in perpetuity for the civilization of the natives of California and the propagation of the Catholic religion in those regions, and that the expulsion of the Jesuits by the king of Spain only changed the trustees of the funds, as the Jesuits were not its owners, but merely trustees for the church.

Senator Stewart dealt at length with the Mexican contentions and was followed by Garrett McEnerney, legal adviser of archbishopric Riordan of San Francisco, who asserted that the Pius fund had been recognized as belonging to Californians by all the authorities of Mexico from 1879 until the cession of California by the treaty of Guadalupe in 1849.

Mr. McEnerney contended that the funds were administered in turn by Jesuits of Spain and Mexico and that the funds never were the property of the administrators, but always retained their original character as trust funds.

Mexico's contention that the funds were intended solely or principally for the civilization of Spanish or Mexican subjects was untenable.

Mr. McEnerney occupied the rest of the session and will resume his pleadings Sept. 22.

NO LACK OF HARMONY IN HARTFORD MEETING

ROOSEVELT IS ENDORSED AND THE TARIFF DECLARED TO BE ALL RIGHT BY HAPPY REPUBLICANS

(By Associated Press)

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 18.—The state Republican convention which organized temporarily Tuesday night, selected the following ticket after making Senator O. H. Platt permanent chairman:

Abram Chamberlain of Meriden, for governor;

Henry Roberts of Hartford, lieutenant governor;

C. G. Vinal, Middletown, secretary of state;

Henry E. Gallup-Norwich, treasurer;

W. E. Seeley, Bridgeport, comptroller;

W. A. King, Windham, attorney general.

The platform endorses President Roosevelt's administration and favors his nomination for the presidency in 1904. It opposes a general revision of the tariff, but states that congress is expected to rectify without impairing the principle of protection any important duties that are found to have been "notoriously perverted from their true purpose to the inordinate enrichment corporations, monopolistic in fact or in tendency."

ROBBER WITH DYNAMITE BOMB GOES OUT FOR MONEY

Loses His Life, Wrecks a Bank and Scars the Clerks Into Fits—$1000 in Gold Dust Blown Away by Explosion

(By Associated Press)

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 18.—A special to the Times from Skagway, Alaska, says:

About 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon an unknown man walked into the Canadian Bank of Commerce, carrying a revolver in one hand and a dynamite bomb in the other, and demanded $20,000, threatening to blow all into eternity. Cashier Pooley and Teller Wallace were the only persons in the bank. Wallace ducked to get his gun and ran quickly to the back of the room, yelling for Pooley to do the same.

"No you don't!" yelled the man, and he dropped the bomb. The clerks had just got out of the window. The bank was wrecked. The robber's head was smashed and one arm was blown off. People living above the bank were blown into the air.

J. G. Price, formerly prosecuting attorney, who was entering the bank at the time, was hurt, but not seriously. The dynamite died without gaining consciousness. The bank lost about $1000, chiefly in gold dust, which was lying on the counter.

SPINDLE TOP PROPERTY OWNERS WILL TAKE STEPS TO PREVENT RECURRENCE OF OIL WELL FIRE

Beaumont, Tex., Sept. 18.—It is evidently the determination of all those who own property on Spindletop to join in the movement to move all the boilers and furnaces off the hill and have one large battery of boilers maintained by all those who use steam. Each company using steam will be required to pay a pro rata for the steam he uses, and no boiler or fire of any sort will be allowed within a certain distance of a well. To this will be added the electric light plant, which will eliminate torches and lanterns, which have already been the source of several fires besides the big one of last week. Another meeting of the safety committee and the oil men is to be held, which will doubtless result in the formulation of definite plans.

KANSAS CITY IS IGNORED

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS FORGET ITS EXISTENCE

HARMONY AT ENDING

During the Convention, However, There is Disagreement in Plenty, but Storm Clouds Give Place to Smiling Sunshine

(By Associated Press)

Boston, Sept. 18.—Acrimony was not wanting for a time in the Democratic state convention in Tremont Temple, but in the end harmony was restored and the state ticket was enthusiastically greeted. The ticket is as follows:

Governor—William A. Gaston, Boston.

Lieutenant governor—John C. Crosby, Pittsfield.

Secretary of state—Willmore B. Strone, Springfield.

Treasurer—Thomas H. Thacher, Yarmouth.

Auditor—J. L. Chalifoux, Lowell.

Attorney general—J. J. Flaherty, Gloucester.

It might be said that in naming Col. Gaston to head the ticket precedent was shattered, inasmuch as he was nominated and then given a platform of his own dictation. Not unlike the famous conventions of 1896 and 1900, the fight was over the national issues on the platform. The test of strength was between Colonel Gaston on the one hand and George Fred Williams, once the stalwart leader of the silver Democrats, on the other. Williams was utterly routed, with the predicted result that he is shorn of all power of leadership. The platform adopted is a repudiation of the Kansas City platform, for Mr. Gaston refused to be the nominee if in any way the declaration of principles could be construed to endorse those things most prominently advocated by the party in the last two national campaigns.

GETS TEN YEARS FOR BITING OFF AN EAR

NEGRO GUILTY OF MAYHEM IS SENTENCED TO THE PENITENTIARY BY FT. SMITH JUDGE

Paris, Tex., Sept. 18.—The negro who bit of Brakeman George Bott's ear on the Frisco last Saturday morning and escaped was captured Sunday morning in a coal car and taken to Fort Smith. The grand jury was convened in extra session and found a bill against him. He pleaded guilty and was given two years in the Little Rock penitentiary. Two other negroes who were with him when the assault was committed and who were captured at Van Buren, pleaded guilty to the charge of being accessories and were given two years each.

Death Penalty Assessed.

Bryan, Tex., Sept. 18.—Joshua Price, better known as "Tobe" Prince, a middle-aged white man, charged with a nameless crime against his 14-year-old daughter, was found guilty in the district court, the jury assessing his punishment at death. The girl was the principal witness in the case. Price is a widower and lived in the southern part of the county. He protested his innocence in his testimony. Price was arrested some time ago and the grand jury indicted him at the recent term of court.

Safe Blowers Failed.

Dallas, Sept. 18.—Two burglars entered the drugstore of Charles L. Ritchie at the corner of Corinth and Ervay streets and attempted to blow open the safe. They were scared away by the appearance of Mr. Ritchie, who had returned to get something he had left. The burglars fled twice at Mr. Ritchie before leaving, the shots taking effect in a nearby wall. A large set of tools was left behind. Two policemen appeared on the scene a short time afterward and brought the tools to the police station. No arrests were made.

She Wants Damages.

Rome, Sept. 18.—A sensation has been caused in society by the announcement that a suit for damages has been brought against the Princess Di Si Faustino, formerly Miss Jane Campbell of New York, by her maid, the latter complaining that she had been beaten so badly by the princess that, according to her doctor, she would need ten days to recover.

Beat His Child.

Cleburne, Tex., Sept. 18.—A large man of the frontier type was arrested here for beating his 14-year-old daughter into insensibility. He came here from the Territory, accompanied by his 14-year-old daughter and 12-year-old son.

Advertising As An Investment

When a man invests his money in 3 per cent bonds, he does not hesitate to put up the coin and leave it up—otherwise he would get no bonds—but when it comes to advertising he wants to get his dividends without putting up the money. It cannot often be done. Advertising requires that a reasonable amount be invested before dividends can be declared.—Advertiser.

WHAT WE NEED

Fort Worth has many attractive things to offer to the merchant or business man who is thinking of a new location. We are in the center of the most prosperous section of the state. We have the best railroad and shipping facilities of any city in the state. We have the most healthful location, the best system of municipal government the most progressive people in business, of any city in the southwest.

These are not idle boasts, but they are facts apparent to any one who has remained in the city even but for a short time. They mark the difference between Fort Worth and other towns.

They are among the chief reasons why men considering locations in the southwest think first of all about Fort Worth.

We have many things to offer them but one thing we need.

That is more buildings suitable for wholesale and jobbing businesses. Good store buildings, buildings that are attractive, well located, and valuable from a business standpoint.

The lack of these buildings is not because the town is not growing, but because the most of the business buildings at present are being built

The Psalmist Sings the Glory of God

O Lord our Lord how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.
Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained:
What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.
Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet;
All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;
The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
—Psalms 8, 1-9.

away from the business center. While this is an indication that the business of Fort Worth is spreading as it does in all growing cities, yet it is no reason why the central part of the city should not keep up with the procession. Fort Worth has room to grow to an immense city and yet in the largest cities of the country there is a certain district where business is congested and such a condition is always necessary. In order to do their business rapidly in these rapid days, business men must have their offices close together.

At the present time there are few if any vacant rooms suitable for a large wholesale establishment of any kind.

We know an agency in this city which has had several applications within the past few days, for a large store room, suitably located. Three of these applications were from jobbing or wholesale houses. They could not be furnished and the applicants must either hunt another city, or buy ground and erect their own buildings. The average wholesale company has too much money tied up in business to make such an investment profitable. It pays them better to rent a suitable building.

Big business enterprises want to come to Fort Worth; we have everything to offer them in the way of a receiving point.

There is a big opportunity for those who are investing capital, to invest in store buildings. They will get good returns from their money.

Keep up Fort Worth's reputation for fine business buildings. Build large and handsome ones that you will not be ashamed of when the city has 100,000, 250,000, 500,000 population. Those days are not far off. Let us be up and building.

The problem of where to draw the line between news and advertising is often discussed. It can, however, be laid down as an excellent general rule that what the editor wants to publish is usually news and what some one else wants to publish more than the editor does, is usually advertising. This rule will be found a pretty safe one to follow.

The builders of the state are to gather in Dallas next month. That's right, Dallas does need some new buildings.

Once a shy young girl of San Antonio who disliked to go out when alone, had to walk a whole block. But so great was the shock, she sank to the ground with amonion.

SCISSORNETTES

Regarding Tom Johnson's campaign the Davenport, Iowa, Leader, says: "He has stripped himself for the fight. He has no entangling alliances. He has disposed of all his stock in corporations. He has no business cares or responsibilities. He has nothing to explain, and is creating issues every day by his efforts at municipal reform."

His indorsements of Bryan and the Kansas City platform will make him popular with that wing of the party, and his explanation of his reasons for doing so will doubtless be satisfactory to many of the other branch.

The Buffalo Express (Rep.), speaking of the attitude of the trusts, says: "Theodore Roosevelt does not scare easily. Moreover, he must realize that he has the country with him just now. His plan for abating trusts may not be the most practical in the world, but his earnestness is as undeniable as the cause is popular."

Describing the "daily stories of suffering, violence and murder" in the strike region, the New York Herald declares: "Assuredly some civilized, Christian method of adjusting these contests must be substituted for resort to primitive brute force."

The Philadelphia Ledger says that Quay's ticket should be beaten, and will be with an honest vote. The Republican candidate for state treasurer in 1901 received only 45,000 majority and the Ledger says that "frauds against the ballot were chiefly, if not wholly, responsible for his reputed election."

Under the heading "No Negro State," the Savannah News opposes the annexation of Hayti, and remarks: "The establishment of colonies means the establishment of privileged classes and already we have too many. With an office-holding aristocracy, a military and naval aristocracy and the moneyed aristocracy of trusts or monopolies, the republic is fast drifting from the old landmarks and the faith of the fathers. The people don't want any more colonies, and surely no negro state."

"Cleaning Up Things" is the headline of an editorial in the Birmingham, Ala., News and this is said to be the result of eliminating the black vote. The News thinks that now the best citizens will devote time and thought "to the work of cleansing political conditions, establishing higher ideas of state pride and local patriotism and making it exceedingly uncomfortable for any man who would drag down his state and his fellow man to a standard of citizenship for which there is no longer a place in Alabama politics."

The Cleveland Leader (Rep.), remarks: "If Colonel Watterson and Bryan want to make certain the destruction of Grover Cleveland they should put Mark Twain at the head of their humorous department and let James K. Jones do their predicting."

THE IDLER'S NOTE BOOK

I went to the postoffice the other night to post a letter. The postoffice is called so, because the man who runs it is a postmaster, and it is not a market for bois d'arc, as one might suppose. The letter was to a very dear friend of mine up North. She is dearer to me than any friend I have, and I hesitate to lay bare the matter before the public, but it goes with the story. As I was saying, she is dearer to me than any other, in fact, she costs me $10 a month. Not that $10 a month is much, but it is every month, mind you, and it comes hard.

My dear one is one of those angelic creatures who wear eyeglasses and a winning smile. They know all about your business and can tell you how to tie an ascot so it won't look as if it caught on something after you've got through.

When a girl can teach you to tie an ascot, she has you sure. And my dear one had, in fact has, me. She has me for $10 a month for 15 more weary months yet. For the way she caught me was for a set of Balzac in 20 superb volumes and only $10 per.

She got me to buy Balzac under the delicately conveyed suggestion that he is tough. Shades of boarding house beefsteak, I read worse things than Balzac before I was 14 and at the time, too, when they all said I was going to be a minister, but let that pass by.

But, as I was saying, she landed me, and I went to the postoffice to send her a letter containing my two weeks' wages (I get $5 a week).

I wasn't well acquainted with the postoffice when I went, but I know it better now. So I started to mail the letter on the north end of the office at the window on the west side of hall. I went to the window and started looking for Uncle Sam's slot machine, but I couldn't find any so I passed on to the south side of the north hallway, and tried to get the letter in at each of the two windows there.

It wouldn't work at either place, so I started down the long hall in front. Just as I turned an angle, I met an old friend whom I hadn't seen for three years and he asked me over to a place he knew on the corner. He said there was a game of dominoes going on he would like me to see. We went over and watched them play. I forgot what else we did, but finally we came back and I walked up the east steps and found myself at the south end of the front hall. The first window I tackled with my letter, was the stamp window, and there I was promptly and firmly turned down.

was beginning to get dazed, but I staggered along up the hall to the general delivery and tried it first on one side and then the other. Then I stood in the middle and tried to mail the letter in both windows at once, but the people inside seemed quite angry about something and threatened to call the janitor, so being of gentle mien, I moved away. I saw one more window and thought to myself: "Ah, Justinus, you're it now!" and bravely I walked up to it.

"Do you receive letters here?" I asked. When the clerk said "yes" I jumped so that I lost the three grains of coffee I had in my mouth to—so remind me that I was going to the postoffice to mail a letter to my friend up North.

I started to hand over the letter to the clerk, but he stopped me. "Hold on," he said, "is it registered?" "Not on your life," I says, "but my bull dog it." "Go away, you make me weary," he says, and I went off muttering "foiled again."

I kept on going up the hall till I came to the corner and before I knew it I had tried two of the windows I tried when I first entered the building, and then I remembered in time to keep from trying the third for the second time. "Shades of a window," I thought, "do I have to go down town to mail this?"

I stood still in the hall till some one approached, and then lifting my hat, I said: "Can you tell me, gentle sir, where I have to go in order to mail this letter. My mother sent me to the office with it and I should no, like it to get lost."

The fellow looked at me wondering, staggered back, and then growling out "other end of the hall," hurried off as fast as his legs would carry him.

But I was saved again. I started down for the other end of the building and ran square into the door that says "postmaster." I tried to get in, but it was locked. I then tried the two money order windows, but was driven away; I tried the other stamp window just across the way from the money order department and was told to "go to thunder," and finally just as I was beginning to become a drivelling idiot, I struck the right place, tucked away in a corner of the building a cockroach couldn't find. I thrust my head through the big window for packages, stuck a hand in each of the letter slots and shouted with all my might: "Glory in excelsior, hair mattresses, feather beds and ostermoors, I have found it!" They chased me out of the building with violence and when I finally came to, I was wandering up and down Throckmorton street trying to thrust my hands into the front gates along the way.

Then it was I found I still had my letter firmly grasped in my right hand. I gave a boy a $5 bill to go and mail it for me, and then I hurried home and took a red bath. I'm hardly over it yet.

CHAPTER IX.

DENTON TURNS LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER.

DENTON presented an unruined front. "Take me to the governor," he said.

"The governor is resting," growled a fellow whose face was a mass of greasy hair. "You will kill him."

"Nonsense! Take me to the governor. If you kill me, he will die."

"Why is that, builder of bridges? Is there a god who avenges the death of Americans?"

"It will need no god to do that now. The case is simply that Neslerov needs better care than you can give him. He is badly injured. It is necessary that he shall be taken to Tomsk at once. I can start within the hour. There will not be another train to the Obi in four days. Do you desire to keep your precious governor here and have him die on your hands?"

"No. Let us see what the governor has to say."

It was a solemn crowd that marched in two columns, with Denton between, to the hut of the village priest, where Neslerov lay.

"Why do you bring him here?" asked the priest. "Heard you not what his excellency said?"

"Hold your peace. Wait till you hear them speak together," was the reply.

Neslerov looked up at his conqueror, and an expression of hatred came into his eyes. Denton made no show of sentiment or compassion.

"I understand you commanded these villagers to kill me," he said, standing at the side of the bed and looking coldly and sternly at his victim. "I just wanted to say before they kill me—which they certainly will do if you insist—that in that case you would probably die here for lack of proper care."

"You cannot help me—you would not," answered Neslerov.

"That is for you to say. I am not a murderer. I had no desire to kill you. You attacked me, and I defended myself. I am going back to Tomsk, provided your savage villagers don't kill me, and I merely came to ask if you would be pleased to go."

"How?" he asked.

"In the same car you came thus far in."

"But how? There is no train due for days."

"I will take you to Tomsk if you promise never again to molest Mr. Gordon or his daughter."

"I promise," said Neslerov. "I will order the villagers to permit you to go."

Denton then went to the car and examined it. He discovered where a flaw in the iron had weakened the couplings.

He was followed at a short distance by several young men, among whom was the boy who had run to tell him that a woman was being roughly handled by Neslerov, and who had taken his horse to shelter. He ordered the boy to bring the horse. Mounting, he was soon out of sight. He did not go far, however. He rode along the track until he reached a siding a short distance from the bridge, where there was an old construction engine.

Denton examined the old bulk. It was fit only for drawing one or two cars. Denton carried water from the river and filled the boiler and built a fire of wood.

Soon after the villagers were surprised to see a wheezy, rickety old engine coming slowly, with a prodigious noise, into view. Denton's horse had no difficulty in keeping up with it. The old engine was coupled to the car, and then Denton went for Frances.

"The train is ready," he said. "The train! What train?" "The train that is to carry you to the Obi, where you will join your father." "But there is no train!" "There is a train, and as the steam is up and the track clear I suggest haste. Your father is probably anxious."

She went with him. At the sight of the engine she understood. "You are a wonderful—you are doing this for me?" she said. "Yes, but Neslerov will be a passenger."

THE MYSTERY OF GRASLOV
By Ashley Towne
Copyright, 1901, by Charles B. Etherington

Prince Neslerov wants to marry Frances Gordon, the charming daughter of an American who is building the Trans-Siberian railroad. Frances is interested in the fortunes of Vladimir Paulpoff, a stalwart Russian blacksmith. She asks Neslerov to use his influence for Vladimir. Neslerov goes to Vladimir's hut. The blacksmith has talent and shows Neslerov a picture he has painted. It is the portrait of a woman of rank copied from a miniature. The prince is excited and asks for the original. Vladimir's father says it has been lost. To Vladimir old Paulpoff confesses that he lied to Neslerov and still has the miniature. Neslerov has the Paulpoffs sent to Siberia as nihilists.

Frances Gordon goes to the forge with books for Vladimir. At the door of the lonely hut she encounters Neslerov. The prince presses his suit violently and Frances stuns him with a pistol shot in the head. Gordon wishes his daughter to marry Jack Denton, an American bridge engineer. Frances demands that her father intercede with the governor for Vladimir. They start for Obi. Neslerov boards the same train which breaks in two, and Neslerov has Frances alone in his power. Neslerov drags Frances before a priest and bids him to perform a marriage ceremony. Jack Denton comes to the rescue. Neslerov is beaten off. Denton nearly kills Neslerov in a duel.

It was an exciting start, though the audience was small. The villagers stared, then laughed as the little old engine puffed and screeched and scraped as it got under way. But it had a man in charge of it who was accustomed to overcoming difficulties. And the way he made it groan and work would have made glad the heart of the man who had abandoned it on the siding six months before. In the car was silence. Neslerov was too weak to talk; Frances would not talk to him if he wished. She remained at her end of the car, save to get in mercy to him and offer him water at intervals. At such times he would look up at her with an earnest, inscrutable expression on his face. She would not speak, nor he.

Suddenly at a siding toward which he had been aiming Denton turned the engine to the right and brought the little train to a standstill. They had been on the road sixteen hours and had traveled 210 miles.

Frances and Neslerov both looked up as the train stopped and saw the grimy engineer enter the car.

"There is a village near here," he said, "and just beyond this siding there is a small signal box. I have just visited it, and there is a train coming this way from Tomsk. Undoubtedly, as there is no regular train due, this is a searching party out after Frances Gordon. Now, I have no wish to start an international controversy. What story shall we tell?"

"Tell the truth," said Frances. "It does not, as a rule, harm any person who is innocent."

"No," said Neslerov; "not as a rule. But we are in a part of the world where customs are different from yours. If you tell the truth, you will never make the world believe you. But you will not understand; I cannot tell you."

"I know what you mean," said Frances scornfully. "You mean that your reputation is so bad that if it were known that you had that car left behind to compel me to marry you everybody will be sure I am your wife. Is that it?"

"Yes; something like that."

"But, then, there is my word," said Denton.

"Your story will be believed by your people, my story by mine," said Neslerov. "Let us each tell what we please. I do not care."

Denton nodded and went back to his engine. But he did not start. The whistle of a speeding locomotive was borne to him by the breeze. It came—one engine and a car, the same as that he was on, but a modern locomotive of American make. Gordon was in the car with some officials from Tomsk.

"Hey! That you, Denton?" he gasped as the grimy bridgebuilder stepped into the car, which was stopped at the side of the construction engine. "My girl and the governor of Tomsk got left behind in a car. Seen?"

"I'm all right," said Frances as she emerged from her car and flew to her father's arms.

The conversation which followed worked both men up to the fighting point and Swann struck McFarland over the head with a desk telephone. They called a physician. CONVICTIONS IN THE SEVENTEENTH DISTRICT COURT—OTHER CASES POSTPONED

An Adultery Case in the County Court—County Commissioners in Session—Poor Farm Superintendent and Physician Elected

Hattie Ferrell, colored, was convicted of assault and given two years.

Because of the important witnesses in the State vs. Melvin Haley, charged with criminal assault, being unable to appear in court, the case was postponed to a future date. It is understood that the state's principal witness, the girl in question, gave birth to a child about ten days ago, and for this reason could not appear in court.

The cases pending against Jack Wilkins and Oscar Galloway, charged with theft from person, were put off until week after next, this being necessary because the state's witness and complainant, Dr. J. O. Crenshaw, of Jacksboro, could not be present on account of his wife being ill.

Seventeenth District Court.
County Attorney Lattimore was this morning filing a number of motions to dismiss in cases where arguments were made to plead guilty in the county court, among them Ed Powe, H. Brandscheidt, W. J. Reed.

Judge Smith and County Attorney Lattimore this morning marked up settings of various cases to be tried this week and those to follow during the term.

The Newman Case Set.
The case of A. M. Newman, charged with complicity in the death of Conductor Wartenbee, is set for Oct. 9.

Defended His Own Case.
In the Seventeenth district court this morning Aaron Williams, colored, was brought into court from the jail, on a charge of burglary. Aaron had three young attorneys engaged to defend him. They had looked into the merits of the case and advised him to plead guilty as the quickest and best way out of the trouble. He declined to do so. The prosecuting attorney intimated that he was sure of conviction, but Aaron positively refused to yield, and insisted on a trial. His attorneys quit the case, and Aaron decided to defend himself before a jury. The jury was impaneled and the case went to trial, Aaron conducting his own case—and the jury acquitted him. The laugh went around—even the court smiled after he had adjourned court. Aaron left the courtroom shaking his head and smiling in a self-satisfied manner, saying: "Dem lawyers sho' tried to get me in a box, dey sho' did, but shucks, I see a putty good lawyer my own black se'f." This is a companion case to that of the state vs. Ben Williams, colored, whose case was dismissed last week at the suggestion of the county attorney.

Andy Cooper pleaded guilty to burglary in two cases, and was given two years in each case. He waived time for sentence, and was sentenced in open court this morning.

Not the Van Case.
A morning paper announced that "the Vance case will be heard on Thursday. Vance, it will be recalled, shot and killed Police Officer Andy J. Grimes; was tried, found guilty and given a death penalty."

This is an error. Jeff Van, alias Jeff Vance, shot and killed Policeman Andy Grimes. Van was convicted and the death penalty was given by the jury. The case is now pending before the court of criminal appeals, a new trial having been denied by Judge Dunklin of the Forty-eighth district court.

In the County Court
In the county court yesterday was consumed in hearing the cases of the State vs. Mrs. Mary Pate, charged with adultery with one W. E. Mobley and a similar case against Mobley. The woman was declared guilty and fined $100.

Judge Harris was busy with the commissioner's court, and Judge Shropshire was appointed to preside in his stead.

C. H. White pleaded guilty to aggravated assault, in two cases, and was fined $25 and costs in each. These are the cases tried in the county court last week, and in which the jury disagreed and was discharged.

W. H. Carney pleaded guilty to fornication, and was fined $50. By agreement to plead guilty the case against the alleged Mrs. W. H. Carney was dismissed. This is the man arrested originally on a wire from Missouri to hold Carney for embezzlement. The state officials at Aurora, Mo., refused to stand for the expense of taking Carney and the woman back, hence they were released on that charge, and one of fornication made. Although Carney pleaded guilty he states to others that he is not guilty, and that he and the woman in question are married, but that he pleaded guilty as the cheaper way out of the trouble. He says the Missouri proposition is a "job" brought about by parties in an effort to collect a debt. Both were released from custody last evening.

Nattie Roberts pleaded guilty to theft, and was fined $1 and sentenced to one day in jail.

John Vandiver pleaded guilty to assault; $5 and costs.

Dee Simpson and John Chapman, colored, pleaded guilty to betting, and were fined $10 and costs each.

Argument was being made when the noon hour recess was announced in the case of the state vs. Rev. Mobley, charged with adultery, commenced yesterday. This is a companion case to that of Mrs. Mary Pate, who was yesterday declared guilty and fined $100.

Commissioners in Session
The county commissioners, in recess since last Saturday, are in session today, having some important matters for consideration, among which was to elect a county poor farm superintendent and physician. The commissioners re-elected Dr. Carter to fill both positions at the same salary—$30 for superintendent and $40 for physician, a total of $70.

The board also authorized that all fences be taken away from county bridges over waterways and that the roads at such points be left as wide as at any other point. This action was taken because of protests that stock was shut off from watering places by reason of fences being run was also stipulated that approaches to said bridges must be as wide as at any other point of the road.

A contract was also authorized with the Land Title company for systematizing the tax records, on which the Land Title force has for some time been at work.

Brief Court Notes
The case of the State vs. George B. Holland, charged with theft from person, has been reset. A companion case is that of the State vs. Daisy Lester, in which the bond was forfeited.

Oney Gounce pleaded guilty to discharging firearms into a residence near Mansfield and was assessed $5 and costs. For a similar offense Dick Perry was fined $5 and costs.

Hermann Brandscheidt, accused of theft, was fined $2 and costs and a two days' jail sentence.
Ed. Powell, for theft, two cases, was fined $5 and costs in each with five days in each.
Mrs. J. M. Lyles has been appointed as executrix for late husband's estate.

Arthur Manning colored, has been released from custody on $2,000 bail. Manning a few nights ago killed a negro named Blackburn near Bedford.

The bond of Alice Woods has been approved by Justice Mullins and the prisoner released. She was charged with complicity in a case of theft from person.

HOW GOVERNOR DAVIS OF ARKANSAS BROKE AN APPOINTMENT

The visit of John W. Robbins, state treasurer, to the Panhandle country, returning from where he was in Fort Worth, Tuesday night, seems to have been more than an ordinary business trip.

Governor Davis of Arkansas had written Governor Sayers that he would be in the Panhandle last week for a hunt, and invited the Texas executive to join him. Owing to pressing matters of state, Governor Sayers could not be away from Austin, and delegated Treasurer Robbins to represent him.

Mr. Robbins journeyed all the way to Amarillo where he remained for a week waiting the arrival of Governor Davis. The Arkansas governor failed to put in appearance, so Mr. Robbins journeyed back to Austin.

Chicago Business Men Will Get Royal Reception Here

R. D. Bowen, of Paris, who is taking much interest and devoting much time and money in making arrangements for the entertainment of the Chicago business men who will visit Texas during the early part of November, was here today in consultation with the Fort Worth Board of Trade.

Dr. J. L. Cooper, appointed member of the reception committee from Fort Worth, conferred with Mr. Bowen this morning, and plans will be made at once to receive the visitors when they arrive here.

STRENGTH AND FOOD
The First Comes From the Last

When proper food is used in sickness the recovery is much more rapid and sure, and a food that is good and easy of digestion is right for anyone.

Mrs. H. L. Gordon of Corry, Pa., was taken down with nervous prostration and heart trouble about a year ago and for weeks it seemed that she could not live.

She says, "The medicine I took for my nerves and heart injured my stomach and I grew steadily worse until I could retain nothing. For weeks I was kept alive on one teaspoonful of beef tea and one of lime water every hour and after a while I could not even continue that. I grew weaker and weaker and finally was compelled to use sweet oil to feed the bowels, until one day my daughter suggested that I try Grape-Nuts dry, as I could not retain anything moistened. After the third day I began to steadily mend and for weeks and months I ate them three times a day.

When I began eating Grape-Nuts I weighed 75 lbs.; now I weigh 110 and am doing my housework and eating nearly and everything. I tell everybody I hear of complaining of poor stomach to try Grape-Nuts and many

Dyspepsia Cure

The agony you suffer after eating, that feeling of fullness, flatulence (wind on the stomach) and belching is caused by decay of undigested food which forms a gas that distends the walls of the stomach and exerts a pressure against all the internal organs. The eating of more food forces out part of this gas and causes belching. Just take a little KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It will relieve you at once. It never fails to permanently cure the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. "I suffered untold pains from indigestion which were always worse after eating. Two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made me a well man and life now seems worth living." Peter Sherman, No. Stratford, N. H.

Beware of the Knife
No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothers and heals. GOVERNMENT REQUESTS IRRIGATION FACTS
WANTS INFORMATION FROM FARMERS WHO HAVE HAD EXPERIENCE WITH ARTESIAN WELLS

The following letter has been issued from Washington:

"The growing demand for water for irrigation purposes emphasizes the need of more detailed information concerning the results and methods of irrigation from artesian and surface waters. The census of 1939 showed that the area irrigated from wells is greatly increasing, and that the results in most sections of the country are eminently satisfactory. Approximately 186,000 acres were irrigated in that year from wells, the value of the irrigated crops ranging from $50 to $1,000 per acre.

"In the humid states well irrigation is utilized to supplement the insufficient rainfall during early spring and summer. In the west the water pumped from wells insures the home garden and the orchard against total failure through a rainless season.

are used to augment the shortage in the streams during the irrigating season. In order to obtain the important facts relating to irrigation from these sources, the census office will soon send out inquiries to irrigators from wells, whose names were reported by the enumerators. As this list is not complete, the director asks that irrigators who do not receive these inquiries will send their names to Mr. L. G. Powers, chief statistician, census office, Washington, D. C., and blanks will be mailed to them at once.

"It is requested that all who receive these inquiries answer the same as fully and accurately as possible, and promptly return to the census office."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—In the District Court, October term. A. D. 1902. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Tarrant County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the county of Tarrant, four weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon Sue Ella Tooley, a non-resident of the state of Texas, to be and appear before the district court, to be held in and for the county of Tarrant, at the court house thereof, in the city of Fort Worth, on the second Monday in October, A. D. 1902, the same being the 13th day of said month, then and there to answer the petition of J. E. Murrey, filed in said court on the 9th day of September, A. D. 1902, against Sue Ella Tooley, as defendant. Said suit being numbered 21957, the nature of which demand is as follows, to-wit:

That on July 1, 1902, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of a part of the Hayes Covington survey situated in Tarrant county, Texas, described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of lot 1 as set apart to the unknown heirs of John L. Covington, same being 366 vrs from the northeast corner of the J. Bursey 320 acre survey; thence east 642 vrs; thence south 840 vrs to the north line of the L. B. Creswell survey; thence east 452 vrs; thence north 2556 vrs to a rock in the north line of said Hayes Covington survey; thence west 1090 varas to northeast corner of said lot 1; thence south 1718 varas to the beginning, holding the same in fee simple and that on the day and year last aforesaid the defendant entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withholds from plaintiff the possession thereof to his damage $500. Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for said land with writ of restitution and for general relief. Herein fail not, but have you then and there before said court this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Witness, W. D. McVean, clerk of the district court of Tarrant county. Given under my hand and seal of said court, in Fort Worth, this 10th day of September, A. D., 1902.

W. D. McVEAN, Clerk District Court, Tarrant County, Texas. By J. C. BRANUM, Deputy.

"Waken, Lords and Ladies Gay, On the Mountain Dawns the Day."—Scott. The sleeping-car that leaves Fort Worth on our night train is ready to receive passengers at NINE o'clock, each evening, and this car is set out at Colorado Springs for guests to vacate at their leisure. The place where the car waits is only about six miles from the mountains, and a beautiful sight greets the wakers from that long, refreshing Colorado sleep—under blankets. This night train also has a sleeper that goes into Denver, reaching there at a comfortable rising time. Both of our daily THRU TRAINS have those sleepers with "Large, Ladies' Dressing rooms," also made served in our own Cafe Dining cars,—a la carte service, 25c and up per individual. These special features of distinguishing excellence are among the characteristics that have, now for some time, made appropriate the "Only-One-Road" — and "You-Don't-Have-to-Apologize" verdict of persons who are capable of appreciating good service and making distinctions. WANT TO GO TO CLOUDCROFT? Well, we have the best and shortest line there, too. Just call up phone 561, or drop into our office at the Hotel Worth. "The Denver Road." MURDERER CONFESSES
Whittles Victim Up to Fit Fire Box,
Then Turns on Fuel Oil and Starts Blaze—Blood Scrubbed
From Floor

(Special to the Telegram)
Houston, Tex., Sept. 18.—John Warren, watchman at the plant of the Orient Textile Manufacturing company, this morning confessed to Sheriff Anderson and Justice McDonald that he found an unknown negro in the boiler room last night who attacked him with a six-shooter and in self-defense he drove the small end of a hammer several times through the skull of his assailant, killing him instantly.

Warren claims he dismembered the body with a small pocket knife, put a piece at a time into the fire box 4x6 inches, and turned on the oil literally cremating the remains.

He says the skull was too large for the aperture and he crushed it to a partial pulp on the stone floor.

Blood Scrubbed From Floor.
The fireman claims that a substance resembling a charred jaw and teeth was in the fire box when he came on duty. He punched a poker into the fire box and nothing but fine ashes remained.

There are blood marks about the building but the floor is clean in the engine room where Warren claims he dismembered the body of his unknown victim. Warren says he scoured the floor.

Officers can scarcely credit the story which is only borne out by physical facts recited. It appears impossible that the body could have been cut into pieces sufficiently small to enter the fire box.

Warren has lived in Houston for 26 years. He was formerly in the employ of the Southern Pacific railroad and has always been reliable in every way. He says that his first impulse was to conceal every evidence of the killing. After the excitement passed away, he realized that it was justifiable, hence his confession.

BE HERE FRIDAY—OFFICERS
ALERT

The report has been wanted to the police department that there is a gang of thieves and thugs following the Buckskin Bill show such as never before "came down the pike." These men, it is said, have no connection with the show—but simply follow it and show up in the towns and cities simultaneously. In order to get an insight to their operations Chief Reasent Assistant Chief Allen, Detective Thomason, Captain Witcher and Patrolman Thomason to Gainesville today to reconnoiter, and better prepare themselves to protect Fort Worth tomorrow, the date on which the show is to be here. It is said the management of the show advises this action, and will give the officers any assistance possible in their efforts to apprehend these thugs and thieves. In this connection it would be well for citizens to guard against possible raids tomorrow night.

21 Years a Dyspeptic
R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d St., Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years. I tried many doctors without relief, recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me. I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50 cents at H. T. Pangburn & Co.'s.

CITY DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT AND WARD PRIMARIES TO SELECT
CHAIRMAN FOR NEXT 2 YEARS ORDERED

The city Democratic executive committee held a meeting last night in Secretary Calhoun's office. The committee fixed Friday night, Sept. 19, (tomorrow) at 7:30 o'clock as the time for holding ward primaries, and each chairman was instructed to call such primaries. The purpose is to select chairmen to serve in the respective wards for the next two years. The committee will meet at the city council chamber on next Wednesday evening, Sept. 24, at 8 o'clock to canvass the returns and declare the result.

All the wards were represented at last night's meeting except the First and Fourth of which Messrs. S. T. Bibb and W. H. Fisher are chairmen, respectively.

The committee as it now stands is composed of the following gentlemen:
First ward—W. H. Fisher.
Second ward—B. M. Harding.
Third ward—R. Chambers.
Fourth ward—S. T. Bibb.
Fifth ward—L. M. Whittitt.
Sixth ward—W. E. Mayfield.
Seventh ward—H. L. Calhoun.
Eighth ward—R. E. L. Roy.
Ninth ward—C. T. Prewett, chairman.

Tomorrow night's primaries will be held at the following places:
First ward—Fire hall, Second and Rusk streets.
Second ward—Chemical fire hall, Third and Rusk streets.
Third ward—Fifteenth and Jones streets.
Fourth ward—Central fire hall.
Fifth ward—Tucker fire hall.
Sixth ward—No. 4 fire hall.
Seventh ward—Rosenfield's store.
Eighth ward—Skidmore's store, Magnolia avenue and Hemphill street.
Ninth ward—Rogers' grocery store, Belknap and Pecan streets.

The chairmen urge that all voters turn out and give expression to their preference for chairman to serve them for the next two years. Asked if they would stand for re-election, no one of the seven members present last night declined, neither did they say positively that they would run.

EX-GOVERNOR VISITS HERE
FRANK R. LUBBOCK OF AUSTIN
IS GUEST OF FRIENDS

Was Secretary of First Democratic Convention Ever Held in Texas at Austin in 1848—Attended the Last One in Galveston

Former Gov. Frank R. Lubbock of Austin is visiting in Fort Worth, the guest of J. B. Davies, 1404 Hemphill street. He will probably remain in North Texas until Oct. 1.

Governor Lubbock is now in his 87th year, and is a unique character in Texas history. Aside from having been governor, he served several terms as state treasurer. He was one of the principal figures in the State Democratic convention which was held in Galveston last July, and was one of the committee to notify Colonel Lanham of his nomination and escort him to the platform. Spaking of the last gathering, Mr. Lubbock said:

"I had the honor to attend the first Democratic convention ever held in Texas. That was in Austin in 1848, which was soon after the admission of Texas to the union of states. I was secretary of that gathering, and when the slogan was sounded for the meeting by the sea a few weeks ago, I attended, thinking, possibly, it might be my last."

In a Magazine Story.

Notwithstanding his age, the governor's health has been remarkably good, save a breakdown owing to a recent bereavement.

In Ainslee's magazine this month there is a story about Austin and San Antonio, in which Governor Lubbock is one of the figures. When a friend mentioned the story to him today the old gentleman smiled but said he could recall none of the incidents. While his name is not mentioned those familiar with affairs around the state capitol readily recognize him as the head of the treasury department referred to.

LAST DAYS OF POMPEII COMING
Fort Worth to Have Chance to See
Pain's Great Spectacle

B. Gregory, advance man for Pain's great spectacular play and fireworks display, is in Fort Worth arranging for the performance in this city for one week, commencing Sept. 28 and lasting until Oct. 4. The performances will be given at the old Texas and Pacific ball park. The street car company is partly responsible for the bringing of this stupendous play to town. Houston, Beaumont, San Antonio and Fort Worth are the only Texas towns Pain's will show in this year. This attraction will be only one of the things that will be in town to interest strangers and local people during the week of the fall festival and it will not be the least by any means.

A building permit was today issued to W. C. Ball to erect an $800 one-story frame dwelling on lots 21 and 22, block A, of J. W. Wray's subdivision of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Houle and daughter, Frances, returned this morning after a visit in Amarillo.

THE MOTHER AND HER BABE
THOUGHT TO HAVE DROWNED IN TYLER'S LAKE SOME TIME THIS MORN-ING

WAS TIRED OF LIFE
A Note Left at Home So Advised the Husband, and Told Him It Would Be Useless to Search for Them

A number of men have been dragging in Tyler's lake since about 11 o'clock this morning with a view, if possible, of finding the corpses of Mrs. Lee Harding and her babe, who were last seen on the edge of the lake at about 10 o'clock this morning.

The cause leading to this effort is that Mrs. Harding is said to have left home this morning, leaving a note addressed to her husband saying she was tired of life and that he need not look for her.

When this note was found the alarm was given and a search begun. Having been seen on the lake's edge it is thought she, with her babe, ended it all there.

Some do not believe the body is in the lake, because apparently every foot of the water's territory has been searched.

The husband, relatives and friends are very much distressed, and are bending every effort to find the mother and babe, dead or alive.

The exact nature of her troubles, real or imaginary, is not made public, further than the generally accepted theory of a family affair.
