COOKE LAUDS

LIEUTENANT PEARY

SAYS HE HAS MADE DISCOVERIES AS GREAT AS THAT OF POLE

Ridicules the Idea of Danger Connected With Arctic Exploration and Says Food Is the Only Difficulty Attached

(By Associated Press) New York, Sept. 19.—Dr. Frederick A. Cooke of Brooklyn, who was with Lieutenant Peary on one of his Arctic trips, and with the Belgica expedition to the South Pole as chief surgeon, expresses the opinion that Peary's latest endeavor was by no means a failure and that the explorer has added material to the annals of science which will be found invaluable, in fact, more valuable than the actual discovery of the pole itself.

All this talk about the terrible dangers to be met before reaching the pole, is sheer rot, continued Dr. Cooke.
Safe as in New York
A man, all things taken into account, is just as safe on the Arctic ice fields as he is in New York. There are no fever germs there; no contagious diseases; no miasmatic swamps; no sewer gas; no decaying vegetables; no rotting rags. Everything is on ice. There is no danger in traversing the ice fields, nor from the cold, which is not so severe as the cut of the saline blasts on the Atlantic seacoasts.
It is the food question, he added, that was the cul de sac that closed up the way to the pole.
When this problem is solved reaching the pole will, in his opinion, be quite a simple undertaking.

In the Seventeenth district court today the case of the State vs. W. E. Conners, alias Evans, and Billy Smiley, was called. Defendants are charged with theft of property valued at over $50. MAY SET FREE MANY IN THE COUNTY JAIL

NEW YORK JUDGE'S DECISION MAY LET OUT PRISONERS IN COUNTY JAIL

(By Associated Press) New York, Sept. 19.—Should the view of Judge Wilcox M. Smith be upheld, it is estimated that 2,000 persons serving sentence in the four county jails of New York may be released. Judge Smith, sitting in special term of the supreme court in Long Island City, has rendered this opinion in a decision on a writ of habeas corpus ordered for two young men who were arrested a month ago on the charge of disorderly conduct. They were sentenced to six months each in the Kings county jail. Judge Smith, after listening to the arguments in the case, ordered the immediate release of the two men and in ten minutes they were free. It was held by Judge Smith that no magistrate in the city of New York had the right to do anything more than to hold an alleged offender for a higher court or for the grand jury. He said not only that there was no such thing as disorderly conduct, but that a police magistrate could do when a prisoner was accused of intoxication was to hold him while his case was being investigated. The matter probably will be submitted to the appellate court for a ruling. Pays the Penalty for Crime Camden, N. J., Sept. 19.—Lafayette Gruff of Gloucester, was hanged today for murder. THE STATUS OF PORTO RICANS

Arguments Regarding the Question Are Being Heard New York, Sept. 19.—United States Circuit Judge Lacombe has heard the arguments relative to the legal status of citizens of Porto Rico who emigrate to this country, and will shortly decide whether they are aliens under the existing immigration laws or legally have a right to enter the United States without interference from the immigration authorities. Counsel for the defendant called the court's attention to the recent insular decision and said merchandise of all kinds is admitted free from our new possessions "except human beings." Opposing counsel insisted that the defendant is an alien and that an absolute act of congress declaring Porto Ricans citizens of the United States is necessary before they can be landed here without the supervision of the immigration authorities.

HIS DECISION UNCHANGED

HENDERSON STICKS STUBBORNLY TO FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

COMMITTEE'S RESOLUTIONS

Greatly Regrets His Decision and Retires With Sorrow Gloomily Boding Over Hearts of Its Disappointed Members

Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 19.—The Republican congressional committee of this district met here and decided to call a convention at New Hampton, Sept. 25, to consist of the delegates to the convention which nominated General D. B. Henderson, to nominate a candidate to succeed him.

This action was taken after a consideration of the Iowa election law. Before acting the members of the committee called upon Mr. Henderson and requested him to reconsider his withdrawal. He declined to do so, stating that his decision was final.

Before adjournment the following resolution was adopted:

"It is with deep regret that we find ourselves compelled to reconvene the delegates of this district for the purpose of naming a candidate for election to represent this district in the national house of representatives. This is especially true when we realize that the necessity for such action is caused by the refusal of our present member to accept the nomination heretofore tendered unanimously. In his declination we feel that we lose an able, capable leader of great worth and national prominence, such as can be attained only by one of sturdy character, unusual natural ability and ripened experience in the field of statesmanship. We part with him as a leader with reluctance. While thus compelled to release Speaker Henderson we do so with no feeling that the selection of his successor will be without merit or that there will result any danger as to the result to the Republicans of this district in the coming election."

Governor Candler Comments.

Atlanta, Sept. 19.—Gov. Allen D. Candler commented as follows upon the withdrawal of Speaker Henderson from the congressional race:

"Henderson is fleeing from the wrath to come. He sees the handwriting on the wall and he is anxious to get out. There is going to be a revolution of sentiment in this country against the Republican party and its oppressive measures and if that revolution is not successful and if the Republican party continues in power and continues its oppressive measures allowing the trusts to dominate the country there is going to come a revolution of blood, one that will stir the country from one end to the other and one which the world has never seen the like of or heard of. The people are tired of the trusts and Republican domination."

Will Not Resign.

Dubuque, Iowa, Sept. 19.—It is announced here that Speaker Henderson does not intend to resign the speakership at the coming session of congress.

The statement that Speaker Henderson will not resign the speakership was made by his secretary in reply to a direct question. Speaker Henderson could not be seen and his secretary would say nothing further.

After the Speakership.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 19.—Through the columns of the Waterloo Courier, Charles E. Pickett of Waterloo, past grand excelsior ruler of the Elks, has formally announced his candidacy to succeed Speaker Henderson. It is urged that he will unite all factions of the party.

ARE CHARGED WITH PERJURY

ST. LOUIS DELEGATES HAVE BEEN INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

ARE FUGITIVES AFTER TODAY

Six Men Will Be Given Until Tonight to Surrender Themselves to Law. If Not, Notices of Reward Will Be Posted

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Circuit Attorney Folk filed information charging former Delegates Hannigan, Denny, Albright and Bolsch with perjury. This action was taken as the result of testimony before the grand jury by the accused, who denied any knowledge of the reported payment of $75,000 to members of the house combine by the Suburban Street Railway company to secure a certain franchise. The information, in effect, is the same as an indictment, and can under the statutes of Missouri be issued at the discretion of the circuit attorney.

The one member and five former members of the house of delegates who rest under several charges of bribery and perjury and who have not yet surrendered to the authorities have until today to give themselves up. After today they will be fugitives under the law. If they do not put in an appearance during the day, Circuit Attorney Folk will issue notices to be sent all over the country, offering a reward of $300 for the apprehension of each of the six men.

The work of the present grand jury, which has been investigating municipal boodle cases, will come to an end as Circuit Attorney Folk will shortly have to give his entire attention to the trial of a number of the indicted men. The circuit attorney states that enough remains undone to keep the grand jury busy six months. As soon as these trials are out of the way that body will resume investigation.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT SAYS MR. MITCHELL

DENIES THAT A DEMAND HAS BEEN MADE BY STRIKE LEADERS ON J. PIERPONT MORGAN

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 19.—President Mitchell denied the reports that had prepared a demand in which terms for a settlement of the big strike were modified and forwarded it to J. Pierpont Morgan with a note saying that the financier will be given until Oct. 20 to accept the proposition.

"There is nothing in the report," is all he would say in discussing it. Bishop Fallows of Chicago has arrived here. He visited eight collieries and a washery enroute from Philadelphia and found none at work. On the same train was John Markie, of the firm of G. B. Markie & Co. who represented the individual coal interests at all the conferences of the operators. He said, after conversing with Mr. Markie and the miners, he had reached the conclusion that the operators had made a mistake in opposing arbitration of their differences.

The strike leaders sprung a surprise which caused the arrest of Paul Wyoda, a deputy sheriff; Geo. Gilbert and William Jenkins, members of the miner's examining board, charging them with having issued certificates to non-unionists who had not served two years in the mines as required by law. They were held under bail for the court.

Mining More Coal.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 19.—According to reports received here from the officers of the local coal companies, some of them official, the output of the coal mines of the Wyoming region is on the increase. A NEGRO HUNG IN OREGON

COAL MINERS WREAK PRIMITIVE JUSTICE ON ASSAULTER

Everything Done in Broad Daylight With No Pretense of Secrecy—Hang Him to Beam of a Bridge Where All Might See

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 19.—Alonzo Tucker, colored, who assaulted Mrs. Dennis near Libby Wednesday was lynched here. A body of coal miners, heavily armed, marched into town. The marshal, who had Tucker in custody, attempted to take him from the jail just as the miners entered and a rush was made for the negro. He managed to give his custodian the slip and jumped under the wharf into the mud flats and eluded both officers and mob. The miners stationed around guards at every point of egress from the city. The patrol was kept up all night and at one time there was loud talk of lynching the officers who allowed Tucker to escape. Every corner of the town was searched and finally two boys located the fugitive under a store. The boys fired at him with air guns and drove him from his hiding place. As he emerged a ball from a rifle caught him in the right leg. Tucker ran into the store and was followed by the miners who started to string him up in the store, but they decided to take him to the scene of the crime. A start was made but the negro died from his wounds and the mob hanged him to a beam on the south Marshfield bridge. There was not a masked man in the crowd and everything was done in broad daylight.

A QUEER CASE IN THE COURTS

ALLEGED PREACHER ENGAGES IN THE SALOON BUSINESS IN THE ACRE DISTRICT

CHARGED WITH AN AFFRAY

Had a Fight With a Man, and Testified He Could Preach, Swear and "Sell a Little Beer"—Both Men Fined

C. W. Holden, the man who preached from a house-top in the Acre at 3 a. m. about ten days since, was in the corporation court this morning, this time charged with an affray with a man named McHaffney, a machinist. Both men were fined, Holden $2 and costs and McHaffney $5 and costs.

On Holden's former appearance in court he declared that he had been sent by God to preach to the denizens of the Acre, and that he must preach wherever and whenever the necessities of the circumstances warranted. He felt called upon to preach from a house-top at the hour indicated, and did so. Citizens made complaint and he was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. After a lecture from the court in that case Holden was told to go, but to be careful of his conduct in the future.

Holden and his brother Willie then engaged in the saloon business in the house from the top of which he preached. Holden continued to carry on his evangelical work in connection with his saloon business, dividing his time pretty well between the two propositions.

The evidence this morning showed that McHaffney came to Holden's room over the saloon, his own room being adjoining, and threatened in a joking way to throw Holden out at a window. Holden got up and went down stairs to tell his brother Willie, and there met McHaffney, who repeated the threat. Holden grappled with him, and Holden's brother Willie came to the rescue, and in the scuffle a window glass was broken.

McHaffney did not deny the charges, but claimed that he was joking all through, and that he and others introduced as witnesses just did it to "josh" the preacher.

Holden admitted on the stand that he swore a little, preached a little and sold a little beer, that he and his brother Willie were equal partners in the saloon venture. He claimed his special mission was to reclaim fallen women, and to get good homes for them. He said that he had been denied admission to one resort for women, the madam saying she wanted no preachers around interfering with her girls.

Holden also declared the police were in league with the devil to destroy his business, causing toughs to shoot at him from ambush, and said his cash drawer had been robbed at the instigation of a policeman (calling names).

Judge Stewart and Attorney Roy declared that Holden, in their opinion, was of unsound mind, and should be taken care of by friends or the law—he was a dangerous man to let go unguarded, and they feared he would injure somebody, to get out or get behind himself. Holden laughed sneeringly at this declaration, and advised the court and attorney if they thought themselves capable of trying a man on a lunacy charge. He was told that such charges must be preferred in the county court.

"I thought so," said Holden, and laughed again. He then declared that he would not "cut out" swearing, nor preaching, and would continue to "sell a little beer."

BUCKSKIN BILL IN TOWN

Wild West Entertainment Being Given on the T. & P. Reservation. Buckskin Bill and his aggregation of wild west talent are here today, giving an exhibition on the Texas and Pacific reservation.

The parade was an hour late from the schedule time, but the sidewalks, cross streets and windows were crowded all along Houston and Main streets to witness the procession and gaze upon the features of the two brass bands and a steam calliope discoursed music and aside from those and a few good horses, the presentation was featureless. A number of Indians, attired in all their native garb, appeared on horseback, and caused some little attention. There were a number of women also on horseback. A huge cannon, drawn by four horses, followed by a forage wagon, was also seen, as were also a clown and a donkey. Buckskin Bill also appeared in the parade, mounted, and was a fair facsimile of the lithographed representation.

CONDEMNED MAN FIGHTS FOR LIFE

BATTLES FURIOUSLY IN CELL WITH DEPUTIES SHERIFF

Is Subdued By Cold Water and Taken to Execution While Strapped in a Chair

New York, Sept. 19.—Peter Hernia was hanged at Hacksack, N. J., today for the murder of Barney Kanter, a butcher, but before the execution was accomplished Hernia made a desperate fight.

Hernia grabbed a lead pipe, crouched in the corner and swore he would brain any one who came near him. The sheriff and his deputies were at first puzzled how to deal with the murderer but finally decided to turn the hose on him. This was done and as Hernia put up his hands to ward off the water from striking his face the deputy sheriff leaped over, grabbed the murderer in the wrist in which was the lead pipe.

The other deputies quickly rushed in. Hernia was finally overpowered, secured and strapped. They then placed him on a chair and carried him to the gallows.

His clothing was dripping wet. He was lifted from the chair and the noose was quickly adjusted about his neck. The sheriff then asked him if he had anything to say.

He replied in a weak voice: "Good bye all, excuse me." The drop was then sprung and Hernia died of strangulation. The condemned man during the night frequently asked for whiskey.

NEW FAIR COMMISSIONER.

Buffalo Woman Who Will Work For St. Louis Exposition.

Mrs. Norman E. Mack, who has just been appointed a member of the New York commission to the world's fair at St. Louis, is one of the most prominent of the young society women of Buffalo. Mrs. Mack keeps closely in touch with the various interests which concern all public spirited women. Born in Buffalo and educated there, she is a graduate of the Buffalo Seminary and is exceedingly proud of her native city and of all which tends to its further progress.

Mrs. Mack is a member of the Graduates' association, one of the leading culture clubs of Buffalo, of the Twentieth Century club of Buffalo and the Eclectic club of New York city, and is also on the industrial school committee of New York state. For a number of years she served on the executive board of the Newsboys and Bootblacks' home, one of the important charitable institutions of Buffalo.

Mrs. Mack is the mistress of a handsome home, the mother of two charming little girls and the wife of a man who is conceded to be the most potent factor in Democratic politics in western New York, being the national committee man from New York state, and who is as proud of his wife's popularity as she is of his political success.

Mrs. Mack has traveled extensively both here and abroad, and in consequence has met in a pleasant way many notable people. The hospitality of her home has been enjoyed by some of America's leading men and women. Naturally, Mrs. Mack takes a keen interest in political matters. Her work as a member of the entertainment committee of the board of women managers of the Pan-American exposition makes her well fitted to serve on the New York state commission to the world's fair of 1904. From the inception of the exposition movement Mrs. Mack has shown a marked interest in the work. It was therefore no surprise that one so versed in the details of expositions should have been chosen to represent the women of the Empire State in so important a place.

Alarmed at a report that the arduous nature of the duties of his office was rapidly telling on Pension Commissioner Ware's health, a friend recently wrote him a solicitous letter. He received the following reply by wire: "It's not work that's breaking down my constitution—it's soft-shoe crabs."

Harlan P. Hall of St. Paul, Nestor of the Minneapolis press, has announced himself as a candidate for governor of Minnesota on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Hall started five newspapers at St. Paul, four of which survive and are prosperous. Personally he is exceedingly popular.

TALK OF BIG NEWSPAPER

COMBINATION ORGANIZING TO ENTER FORT WORTH MORNING FIELD

Many Believe W. R. Hearst of New York Journal Syndicate Behind Deal. People Have Been Negotiating With Captain B. B. Paddock

There are rumors again of the establishment of a big morning newspaper and plant in Fort Worth soon, and this time they appear to have some foundation.

The company which is to be formed is said to include eastern and Texas capital, and will be prepared to begin business on a large scale, with ample telegraph facilities and improved mechanical appliances sufficient for the publication of a modern newspaper.

Captain B. B. Paddock, secretary for the Fort Worth Board of Trade, who returned after several months' stay in the east, a week ago confirmed the report and said he had been approached regarding the venture while in New York.

"I am only in the matter in an advisory capacity," said Captain Paddock to The Telegram, "and was so consulted during my trip east. The capital, I am under the impression, is from the east and Texas. Personally I am not interested in the project other than I would be through this business organization, and as for being in it financially such is not the case. I served my time in the harness, and am not seeking an excuse to re-enter the profession."

Some Think It's Hearst

Many express belief that W. R. Hearst, owner of the San Francisco Examiner, the New York Journal and the Chicago American, is the New York end of the deal, and intends to enter the Texas field. It is asserted that a representative of the Hearst syndicate was in Texas last week, paying a visit to Fort Worth and later went to Dallas for the purpose of opening negotiations with the Dallas Press for possession of the Associated Press franchise for Fort Worth, which it holds. It was stated today by a gentleman who claimed to know whereof he spoke that it had been an ambition of Hearst to have a paper in Texas, and that since the parking houses had located here he was more favorably impressed with Fort Worth than any other Texas town.

In case he comes here the information is Fort Worth is to be given a paper that has not been duplicated in Texas since that of the Gazette in the '50's, embracing leased wire service, as well as that of the Associated Press, acknowledged the greatest news gathering association in the world.

As to the intention of Hearst to come to Texas, Captain Paddock says the syndicate is not known in the transaction before him.
