NEW ORLEANS SURRENDERED

CITY IS GIVEN ENTIRELY TO THE VETERANS

HONORS FOR TEXAS MEN

MAJOR GENERAL VAN ZANDT AND GENERAL CABELL ARE RECIPIENTS OF HEARTY WELCOMES

SPONSORS CLAIM THEIR OWN

Receive the Homage of Gallant Men in Gray at Every Turn—General Gordon the Lion of the Reunion—Stories Told by the Veterans Recall War Times

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 19.—The emblem of the Lost Cause, are the most conspicuous objects in New Orleans today. The Stars and Bars are flying from every window and casement and the colors of the Confederacy adorn every column and balustrade. The pictures of the loved and famous leaders of that great strife occupy places of honor all along the principal streets, entwined with the flag they fought for. New Orleans has not forgotten. Though in prominent places the Stars and Stripes are reminders that there is a new and loyal South, the banners of the past claim first consideration on this one day of the year. New Orleans has not forgotten. She is faithful to the past, loyal to the present. She cheers "Dixie," "Bonnie Blue Flag," "The Homecoming Soldier" and "Star Spangled Banner." The band discreetly refrains from playing "Marching Through Georgia."

MARDI GRAS SURPASSED

The Mardi Gras crowds are surpassed by this gathering of thousands of veterans, the Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy, and the other thousands who come as sight-seers and then themselves become a part of the scene they think only to witness. Texas sent her special trains bearing thousands, but they were soon lost in the throngs, and on Canal street the badges of the Texas camps were not markedly numerous.

In the corridors of the St. Charles hotel General K. M. Van Zandt, commander of the Texas division of the United Confederate Veterans, and his staff are continually sought and easily found. General W. L. Cabell of the Trans-Mississippi department, holds a small court whenever he appears.

Mrs. Kate Cabell Currie is acting as chaperon for the Fort Worth sponsors and maids, as well as her Dallas charges.

Coming over, all the veterans of the Dallas coaches, and a number of others, were Mrs. Currie's guests at lunch.

En route General Van Zandt issued orders, appointing Colonel E. W. Taylor, Captain M. B. Loyd and Captain H. C. Edrington as "Sponsors" whose duty it was to be at the command of the fair maidens who are the sponsor and maids of honor. These gentlemen were valiant soldiers and have not forgotten how to obey.

The sponsors and maids are now familiar with their rights and are maintaining them.

Captain Edrington became reminiscent at Atchafalaya river and told of a feud of a nearby county between two prominent and wealthy planters. The trouble began before the war broke out and the whole country was divided. A band of whiskey-drinkers and their leader were captured by Captain Edrington in 1864, and taken to Texas and delivered to General E. Kirby Smith. The close of the war liberated them and the leader became postmaster of New Orleans and served several years.

The principals of the feud fell by bullets, as did many of their partisans. In another car General Gano of Dallas was telling a group of old soldiers that in his entire life he has never touched a drop of any kind of liquor, has never used a pipe, never smoked a cigar, never chewed a mouthful of tobacco, never danced and never was in a theater.

One was solemnly began to feel for the general's wings. He apologized for his virtues by explaining that he could and did fight.

WHERE THEY MEET

The St. Charles hotel is the Mecca for all the faithful. All day long the crowds have surged throughout the corridors and comrades have grasped the hands of comrades and eye and voice renewed the friendships the heart has kept unbroken.

The first greeting received by the general commanding the Texas division was an embrace from a soldier who had followed his command forty years ago.

But such incidents are not infrequent. They teach a lesson. Faithfulness and fidelity do exist, and the world is better therefore.

RECEPTION

Monday evening was given over to a reception in the St. Charles. The palm room was occupied in Confederate colors flanked by United States flags conspicuously hung. The rotunda railing had palms at frequent intervals against a circular curtain of red and white. The leader of the orchestra knew his crowd and the airs were better remembered by the older guests.

The band was playing when Gen. John

B. Gordon entered the reception hall. The tune may have been "Maryland, My Maryland," or it may have been "Hail to the Chief." Whatever it was, it was lost in the cheers that went around the room, cheers that were taken up outside and in adjoining suites.

And then the commanding general of the U. S. D. C. gathered together the sponsors and to each he gave a sponsor's badge of long streamers of red and white, and with each went a courtly speech that would be the despair of any youth with ambitions for mastering the art of pretty phrase.

GORDON THEIR HERO

As General Gordon passed among the crowd, all were eager for a word of greeting or remembrance—hands were outstretched, comrades, friends, young and old, and to all the same gallant grace, the same kindly smile, the same warm and human handclasp. The general was just from the train. Not quite so spry and span as some others, but there he better things in the world than creased trousers!

Among the sponsors to receive General Gordon's badge was Miss Lucy Lee Hill, daughter of Gen. A. P. Hill, now a resident of Chicago, a woman adored by all the Sons, even though, as she has been heard to say, her age has been "fixed by history."

J. William Jones of Richmond, Va., presided at the meeting of the Memorial association Monday evening. By the action of Richmond in putting up the necessary $50,000 the location of the Battle Abbey was settled.

The Rev. Mr. Jones and Mrs. Jones were close friends of Gen. Robert E. Lee and his family. In fact, one of the treasures of the Jones home is an infant's layette made by Mrs. Lee at the time of greatest invalidism, for the use of one of the first comers in the Jones family. Mr. Jones' sister is the wife of R. T. Hanks, the Baptist minister at Abilene, and formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in Dallas.

The courtesies of all the social and business clubs have been extended to General Van Zandt and Lieutenant Colonel Stone and the other distinguished men in attendance. In the Elks' club room was held an informal dance and supper complimentary to Mrs. Kate Cabell Currie, Miss Elizabeth Tarleton, Miss Virginia Van Zandt, Miss Margaret McLean of Fort Worth, Misses Cano, Misses Scott of McKinney and Sims of Wixahachie, E. P. Turner, Col. H. W. Graber, W. L. Crawford and Mr. Devereux of Dallas. Mrs. Currie responded to toasts to Dallas and Miss Tarleton for Fort Worth, the young maid of honor sharing honors with the brilliant Dallas matron.

ARRIVAL OF SONS

The train with the Texas Sons came in Monday night, with Commander Stone in charge. All talk of a national commander of the Sons was held in abeyance until the Texas delegation arrived. Fort Worth, it is understood, will present the name of O. W. Gillespie for national commander, but there is in Texas a growing sentiment that there are other states and sections entitled to recognition. Texas has now the commander of the Sons. New Orleans has a candidate in W. McEl. Faysou. New Orleans is entertaining the veterans on a lavish scale. There are courtesy demands concessions from Texas. But Fort Worth comes into the race with 167 votes and will have the last word in the matter.

REVIVAL INTEREST AT WEATHERFORD

WEATHERFORD, Texas, May 20.—Much interest is being manifested in the East Side Christian church revival conducted by Evangelist Arthur W. Jones of Comanche. The subject upon which he preached his sermon last night was "The Rich Man and Lazarus." His subject for tonight will be "The Road to Success." A large and enthusiastic choir is one of the leading features of the meeting. Chairs have been obtained so as to provide seats for the crowd of people who are attending.

The Sunday school of the First Methodist church will on next Saturday have their annual picnic at Annetta Park, seven miles west of here. The Texas and Pacific railroad will extend a round trip rate of 25 cents for the occasion.

Miss Minnie Fish, the 19 year old daughter of Mrs. Kittie Bittick, died on a morning she underwent yesterday for appendicitis.

Miss Carrie Beneke of Thurber has been here for the past week in the interest of her candidacy in the Telegram contest.

Hon. H. S. Moran went to Amarillo today.

John Neel is back from Huntsville, where he has been attending the state normal.

Mr. J. L. Riggins went to Mineral Wells today.

Sheriff Cunningham of Abilene was in town today en route to Mineral Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Littleton left yesterday on an extended trip to points in Southern Texas.

FATHER AND SON BEHEADED TOGETHER

BERLIN, May 21.—A father and son named respectively Max and Karl Bradl, who were convicted of murder, have been executed at Strawbing. Both were beheaded first. The father was beheaded first. The son was beheaded first. The father wept when he was brought to the scaffold.

Ethiopia's railway being completed Americans are exploiting that kingdom.

Play Written By a Member of Parliament Is Received with Apathy in London—Gilbert Hare Coming Over

LONDON, May 21.—"The Gordian Knot," a play by Claude Louth, M. P., was produced at his majesty's theater last night and attracted a large audience, which included many members of parliament. George Wyndham, the chief Irish secretary, and John Burns were conspicuous in the stalls, the latter wearing his usual workmanlike tweed suit.

Beebohm Tree, Robert Tabor, Gilbert Hare and Olga Nethergo strove in vain to infuse an interest in the play, which was received throughout with apathy, and at the close of the performance, was openly voiced disapproved.

The play deals with the fascination of a French viscount for a famous theatrical courtesan, who is eventually strangled by the viscount's crippled friend, who had vainly tried to break the liaison. The fine acting of Beebohm Tree as the cripple redeemed the part from commonplace melodrama. One of the characters is a very crude and unjust picture of an American woman in Europe.

Earl Rosslyn will eventually replace Gilbert Hare who is going to the United States for Charles Frohman.

ANOTHER PRODUCT OF PACKING HOUSES

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 21.—John Muir, senior member of John Muir & Sons, Leith, Scotland, who is here for a brief vacation, says he hides will soon displace rubber for cushion tires for vehicles of all kinds. He has invented a process for tanning the hide which renders it more durable than rubber, while giving equal satisfaction. American rights to manufacture have just been sold to a New York syndicate, which will organize with $5,000,000 capital. Rights have been sold in Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Germany. A plant will soon be erected in New York and tires will be manufactured for the market. Mr. Muir is confident of the success of his invention.

INFECTED BLANKETS CAUSE AN EPIDEMIC

LONDON, May 21.—An outbreak of enteric fever on board the reformitory ship Cornwall, which is lying off Purfleet, at the mouth of the Thames, has been traced to fever infected army blankets from South Africa. Thousands of similar blankets have been sold and sent all over the country without even being washed or disinfected. The army regulations provide that such articles shall be destroyed, and it is not known how the blankets came to be sent to England. The Daily Mail this morning declares that it is a scandal demanding the strictest investigation.

SENATOR BAILEY SELLS HIS FARM

DALLAS, Tex., May 21.—Before leaving Dallas Tuesday afternoon Senator J. W. Bailey authorized the statement that nearly all of his Grapevine ranch has been sold. A tract of between 200 and 300 acres has been leased to a farmer, and all the rest has been sold. This closes Mr. Bailey's farming operations in Dallas county.

Senator Bailey said he had sold the place because it was impossible for him to pay attention to it. He had, he said, spent one day on the farm in eighteen months, and such inattention as this would never bring in any profits.

The Grapevine ranch was bought from Hon. Barnett Gibbs. It originally contained about 6,000 acres. Part of it, however, was sold more than a year ago.

CAPITALIZATION IS FIFTEEN MILLION

TRENTON, N. J., May 21.—The United Leasing company has filed papers here increasing its authorized capital stock from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000. The capital stock is to be composed of $10,000,000 preferred, with 5 per cent cumulative dividends, and $15,000,000 common stock. The papers were signed by Jesse Lewis and Clarence McDavitt, secretary. The company was organized under the laws of this state some time ago. It will mine and manufacture minerals, lead, zinc, etc.

SENDS GARDENER'S WIFE TO IRELAND

NEW YORK, May 21.—Through the generosity of Mrs. Collis P. Huntington, her invalid servant, Miss Lizzie Connell, will spend the remainder of her days in her old home in Ireland and will be supported as long as she lives by her American mistress. Miss Connell was shot by Daniel Harkins, a gardener on the estate of Mrs. Huntington at Throggs Neck, six months ago. Harkins suspected the young woman, who was engaged to be married, of trying to oust him from his position so that her intended husband could have it.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS ARE TO CLOSE

DANCES AND SINGS WHILE CHILD IS DYING

NEW YORK, May 21.—Grace George, starting in a play at a local theater, went through her lines last night under circumstances so trying that her physician fears for her health. While she sang, danced and brought roars of laughter from the audience her only child, 2 years old, was dying at her apartments. Miss George is in private life Mrs. William A. Brady, wife of the theatrical manager. The moment the curtain was rung down on the final act Mrs. Brady jumped into a cab without stopping to change her costume for her street dress, and was driven to her home as fast as the horse could travel. When she joined her husband and learned that the child probably would not live until morning she collapsed.

AMICABLY SETTLE MOBILE STRIKE

MOBILE, Ala., May 21.—The strike of the switchmen of the Mobile and Ohio railroad was declared off yesterday afternoon.

The agreement entered into between the Mobile and Ohio officials and the strike leaders in substance is as follows: 1. The Mobile and Ohio agrees to advance, wages 7 and 10 per cent for freight and passenger service, instead of 5 1/2 and 7 1/2, as shown in the schedule of April 1, 1903, said increase to be effective from June 1, next.

2. The Mobile and Ohio agrees to allow the ex-employees who left the service to return without any prejudice, except in such cases where certain of the employees have been trespassing upon the property of the company after being warned, coupled with conduct indicating a purpose to obstruct the movement of trains.

THE COSTLY KICK OF A CONDUCTOR

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—Floyd Fisher, aged 14, was awarded a judgment of $11,000 against the transit company by a jury in Judge Eble's division, No. 7, of the circuit court, Tuesday morning. The testimony was to the effect that Floyd had lost the use of his limbs and was losing both speech and sight as the result of being kicked off of an Olive street car by a conductor January 9, 1902.

Floyd was represented in the suit by William H. Coker, who appeared as next friend.

He testified that he had jumped the car to steal a ride and was kicked off of the car by the conductor and his head and body were badly cut on the paving stones.

The conductor of the car could not be picked out of the men brought into court, and one witness, who was standing on the sidewalk and saw Floyd fall, was the only one examined.

It was shown that while in the city hospital, recovering from the wound, Floyd contracted diphtheria.

THE AGREEMENT

1. The Mobile and Ohio agrees to advance, wages 7 and 10 per cent for freight and passenger service, instead of 5 1/2 and 7 1/2, as shown in the schedule of April 1, 1903, said increase to be effective from June 1, next.

2. The Mobile and Ohio agrees to allow the ex-employees who left the service to return without any prejudice, except in such cases where certain of the employees have been trespassing upon the property of the company after being warned, coupled with conduct indicating a purpose to obstruct the movement of trains.

3. The company agrees and believes that there are now sufficient vacancies to accommodate 37 per cent of the ex-employees, and agrees to allow this percentage to return if there are sufficient vacancies for this number, according to the rank and priority in the service before leaving it.

Mr. Clarke of the Mobile and Ohio also agrees that within thirty days there will be vacancies sufficient to allow about 39 per cent more of the ex-employees to return to work, and believes that within sixty or ninety days there will be sufficient vacancies in the service to allow at least 25 per cent more to return.

Mr. Clarke, as general manager, agrees that Counsel Russell will dismiss the bill now pending in the Federal court at Jackson, Tenn., also pending in the Federal court at Springfield, Ill., at the cost of recognition of West's agreement is signed by C. S. Clarke, general manager of the Mobile and Ohio; C. H. Wilkins, grand senior conductor Order Railway Conductors, and W. G. Lee, first grand master Brotherhood Railway Trainmen.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 21.—In the Academy of Music, beginning with a meeting this evening and concluding with a second demonstration tomorrow evening, Methodists of Philadelphia and vicinity will celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Wesley and pay tribute to his labors in the founding of methodism. This will be one of the most notable recognitions of Wesley's life and work that has been held in the United States. Bishop Cyrus D. Fess will preside and introduce the famous orators who will take part in the celebration. Bishop Charles H. Fowler, Senator Depew of New York and Dr. Frank G. Gunsaulus of Chicago are among those who will address the gathering.

HUTTON'S IDEA ON LABOR QUESTION

Says If Unions Were Made of Competent Men There Would Be No Trouble—The Discov-ery of Gunsalus

NEW YORK, May 21.—"If the labor unions were made up of competent men there would be no trouble about their getting recognition. Capitalists would go to them, hat in hand, asking competent men to come into their employ," said Prof. Frederic D. Hutton of Columbia, addressing 200 graduates of the Packard Commercial school at Carnegie hall.

"Influence, friendship or policy may give you the opportunity to try, but it is competence only which will keep you in a position. Why is President Roosevelt in the position he now holds? Because he showed himself competent all through life. If men organize themselves into a union to force incompetent men into positions of trust, there will always be trouble."

Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour Institute of Technology of Chicago, in his address, said that young men had always ruled the world, but that young women had always ruled the young men.

THROWS OFF MASK IN FACE OF DEATH

FEAR OF OPERATION INDUCES ORAN HOSKINS TO MAKE A CONFESSION OF SHAMMING TO AT-TENDING SURGEONS

MOTHER AND SON IN CUSTODY

Charge of Conspiracy to Swindle Lodged Against Both—Home Is Guarded All Morning—Dr. Walker Tells Graphic Story of How the Young Man Finally Broke Down Under the Terrible Strain and Admitted Deception—Colonel Wynne's Statements Recalled

Mrs. Nellie Hoskins and her son Oran were placed under arrest by a deputy sheriff this afternoon.

This sensational event followed a busy day of investigation spent by Acting County Attorney R. H. Buck.

While under a great mental strain, produced by what he thought was an imminent surgical operation which might result fatally to him, Oran Hoskins, late yesterday afternoon, dropped the role of idiot and admitted to Dr. A. C. Walker, Dr. E. D. Capps and the attendants at the Protestant Sanitarium that he had been shamming. He did not admit that the case was a sham all the way through, but said that he recovered his senses some time recently. He did not remember exactly when this pleasurable event took place, but said that it was very recent. He did not implicate any one in the conspiracy and says that he did not even inform his mother.

Dr. Walker, in discussing this remarkable case today, said that the acting of young Hoskins was the most marvelous he ever witnessed, and was, in fact, almost unbelievable.

HOSKINS HOME GUARDED

Officer Dillard and Deputy Sheriff Ralph Purvis stood guard, front and rear, at the residence of Mrs. Nellie Hoskins, 901 East Belknap street, during the morning while Mr. Buck was making his investigation.

Mr. Buck called at the Protestant Sanitarium about 10 o'clock this morning to interrogate Dr. Walker and Oran Hoskins. Hoskins, however, had departed for his mother's home before Mr. Buck arrived.

After hearing the story of Dr. Walker, Mr. Buck hastened to the Hoskins home. The woman who answered the knock declared that Mrs. Hoskins was not at home, but upon being pressed, opened the door and admitted the county attorney. Mrs. Hoskins was at home, but excused herself from answering questions until she could ask the advice of her lawyer, R. L. Carlock, who, responding to a telephone summons, arrived at the house about 11:15. He conferred with Mrs. Hoskins and then asked Mr. Buck to postpone the interview until after noon. This Mr. Buck declined to do, whereupon he and Mrs. Hoskins were ushered into a room where Oran Hoskins was reclining. Mr. Carlock then left them together, after insisting that members of the press should not be present at the interview.

WARRANT ISSUED

Following the interview Mr. Buck drove directly to the court house where, under instructions, Assistant County Attorney Jordan Cummings had prepared a complaint charging Mrs. Hoskins and her son with entering into a conspiracy to swindle the Frisco railroad. This complaint was at once filed in Justice Rowland's court. It was sworn to by Detective Zimmerman. Justice Rowland issued a warrant, which was turned over to a member of Sheriff Honea's staff for immediate service.

The arrest of Mrs. Hoskins and her son followed.

Sensations crowd so fast upon the heels of one another in this case that it is difficult to tell where one ends and another begins. It is safe to say that it will be long before the Protestant Sanitarium experiences a day as full of dramatic situations as was yesterday.

DR. WALKER'S STORY

In response to questions by Mr. Buck, Dr. Walker today made the following statement:

"Oran Hoskins was brought to the sanitarium immediately after the accident befell him. He remained there three weeks. There was a slight bruise on the back of his head. He sunk into a comatose condition and remained in that condition until he was removed to his mother's home. Hoskins fooled me completely. I am willing to admit, I never examined him to find if he was shamming. Cases where there is an injury to the brain are difficult to handle and when I was asked during the trial why I did not operate on Hoskins I replied that my reason was that I did not know what to operate for."

"When Colonel Wynne testified a week ago last Saturday that it was a conspiracy I was jarred. I told the lawyers that I would have nothing more to do with the case unless the boy was brought to the sanitarium and placed under my care in order that I might make tests. They agreed to bring him to the sanitarium and he was brought in last Saturday afternoon. I had just been performing an operation, assisted by Dr. Capps and others, and hearing a commotion in the hall we stopped out to see the cause of it. It was caused by the men who were carrying Hoskins into the sanitarium. When his eyes alighted on us in our white surgeons' gowns he turned ashen. I noted this at the time and thought it strange that one who was idiotic should turn pale at the sight of us."

THE WATCH BEGINS

"I began my watch on the young man that evening and strove in every way to satisfy my own mind as to whether or not he was shamming. I was unable to catch him off his guard, although I tried every way I could think of. A surgical operation would do no good, I figured, because he could stand torture without exposing

WHEELER'S ORATION

General Wheeler after reaching the rostrum made a short address of thanks for the welcome which had been accorded him. He urged upon his hearers the necessity of providing for the needy and aged soldiers of the Confederacy and suggested that the best way to bring this about was through the various state legislatures.

At the conclusion of General Wheeler's speech General Evans resumed reading the battle abbey report.

He announced that the cash on hand and in immediate prospect amounted to $294,471. Of this amount $104,471 was in cash. The committee therefore recommended that as $200,000 was the minimum amount desired for the erection of the abbey had been secured the time had arrived for the commencement of work. The report was adopted.

HOPELESS CASES.

When the doctor leaves and says the case is hopeless, what remains to be done? Nothing, if the doctor's word is final. Much, if you will listen to the statements of men and women who were once "hopeless cases" given up by doctors, and who were perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Nothing is more sure than that thousands of men and women with diseased lungs, obstinate coughs, emaciation and night-sweats, have been restored to perfect health by the use of "Discovery." Will it cure you?

It has cured in ninety-eight cases out of every hundred where it was given a fair and faithful trial. By that record you have only two chances in a hundred of failure and ninety-eight chances of being restored to perfect health. It is worth trying.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser containing over a thousand large pages is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DENTON FARMERS ARE ORGANIZED

DENTON, Texas, May 21.—After hearing an interesting and instructive discussion by W. H. Pierce, of Denton, and A. M. Bush, of Lloyd, Denton county, on hog raising, Prof. T. H. Connell, of Dallas, on stock feeding as a business, and E. E. Smith, of Sherman, on alfalfa, the farmers of Denton county organized the Denton County Farmers' Institute in the district court room in the county court house here yesterday. The organization effected, however, was only a skeleton organization, the adoption of a constitution and by-laws having been deferred until the next meeting, July 2. The following are the officers of the skeleton organization: A. J. Nance, president; A. M. Bush, vice president; J. R. Christal, recording secretary; J. W. Underwood, assistant recording secretary; P. C. Withers, corresponding secretary; J. D. Pyle, of the Denton County News, assistant corresponding secretary; and W. C. Edwards, of the Denton County Record and Chronicle, treasurer and librarian. When the organization is completed at the next meeting, by the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, there will be a vice president elected from each precinct in the county and a committee each on live stock, good roads, education, etc., for each precinct appointed.

BISHOP POTTER ON THE LABOR QUESTION

ORANGE, N. J., May 21.—Speaking on labor unions at a dinner of the civic club of Orange last night, Bishop Henry C. Potter said the conditions which confront the people of America today are largely of their own making. He declared that one person had more to do with the situation than anyone else and that was the manager of a shop or factory, not because he tried to understand the interests of the workman, but because he wanted to get out of the workman all he possibly could for the benefit of his employer, nothing more.

"I believe," said Bishop Potter, "the folly of labor organizations in several instances has alienated a great deal of the sympathy that would otherwise have gone to them. One thing we must realize is that the community is not made up of either laborers or capitalists, but rather of those between who are very largely affected by these differences.

"The time may come when organized labor may make itself so unpleasant that it may not be able to stay in New York. The great stumbling block in organizing labor is that the freedom of the individual is invaded and it has got to be corrected.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIANS NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 21.—The seventy-third general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church convened in this city this morning. It is estimated that the attendance is over 100, many contributions being offered to the cause.

FORT WORTH FUNDS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED

No. 1164. From the Society "Sofia," Fort Worth, Texas. Has the Central Relief Committee for relief of suffering among the famine-stricken people of North Sweden, this day received 650 crowns, which is hereby acknowledged. The Central Relief Committee, Stockholm, March 4, 1903. The above receipt is in the possession of Mrs. Gust Forsell, 313 Jackson street, treasurer of the Sofia society of Fort Worth. The 650 crowns is the amount forwarded by the local society for the relief of the famine-stricken sufferers in Sweden. In United States money the 650 crowns is equal to $174.60. Contributions were made by citizens of Fort Worth, in response to solicitations made by committees appointed by the society.

Another improvement designed by the Midland is the painting of all the section houses, mile posts, cattle guards, etc., along the line designed for the purpose, which sprays the oil and does a first-class job in double quick time.—Terrell Transcript.

SHIPPING PEACHES FROM TYLER, TEXAS

Tyler, Texas, May 18.—A $15,000 fire in town yesterday morning at 2 o'clock burned seven hours. The fire boys worked hard to have the office and a few piles of lumber not directly in connection with the main yard, which was destroyed. The insurance was $7,000.

Mr. Carlton has rented the compress and an adjoining lot, where he will continue to do business. The origin of the fire is unknown. A loud explosion was heard, after which the flames leaped out and did their work. V. C. Rainwater was stricken with paralysis a few days ago. He is affected in the left side and is not expected to recover. J. F. Foster is shipping peaches of the Victor variety. He shipped four cars today. They are exceptionally fine.

GHOUlish DEED OF A FEARFUL FATHER

BEDFORD, Ind., May 21.—Crazed by the fear that grave robbers had stolen the body of his child from the Green Hill cemetery, William Rock, a contractor, took a revolver and with it forced the sexton to disinter the remains, which had been buried a year. When the sexton reached the coffin Rock grasped the spade and broke the lid. Then he seized the remains in his arms and called them by endearing names. The corpse fell to pieces in his arms. Several policemen arrested and disarmed Rock.

SMALLEST DOCTOR IN THE WORLD HERE

Dr. H. M. Haywood of New York city, formerly of Fort Worth, the smallest physician in the world, is visiting his sister, Mrs. S. A. Mabry of 808 Cherry street and intends to remain here most of the summer renewing acquaintanceships. Dr. Haywood lived in Fort Worth for many years prior to about fifteen years ago, when he went to New York, which city has since been his home.

How Morgan Beats The Art Revenue

NEW YORK, May 21.—Under the designation "household effects" J. Pierpont Morgan will be able to bring into this country most of his art treasures that are now scattered through the museum of Europe or are in London houses. The objects of art are appraised at not less than two millions, and had Mr. Morgan imported them a year ago he would have been obliged to pay almost $300,000 duty. Many of the paintings and smaller antiquities have been in Mr. Morgan's park house more than a year and therefore come under the head of "household effects," which are not dutiable.

Rosebery Says He Was Misunderstood

LONDON, May 21.—Lord Rosebery expressed surprise that the speech at Burnely on May 19, in which he dealt with Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's tariff speech delivered at Birmingham May 15, has been interpreted as in any way supporting Mr. Chamberlain's proposal to establish reciprocity between Great Britain and her colonies, and explains he purposely treated the subject unpolitically because he was addressing a non-political audience. Lord Rosebery adheres absolutely to his opinion that the liberal party is indissolubly bound to free trade.

WOLF CHARGED WITH ANOTHER MURDER

J. M. Wylder, or Boyd Wylder, as he is sometimes called, in a written confession now in the county attorney's office charges Joe Wolf, now under arrest on the charge of murdering James M. Wilson, with the murder of Walter Miller who was killed in the Rock Island yards about three years ago.

"I came to Fort Worth in 1906 in company with Walter Miller, who worked in the territory. We got off the train at the union depot. Miller and I walked over to East Second street, where we met Joe Wolf and a man named Melton Wolf. Melton and Miller went into a saloon and took a drink, and while there Miller displayed some money which he said he had saved up.

"We went over to the Rock Island yards. Miller got in a buggy with me, and the other two men, who were strangers to us, walked ahead. They met some women, among them Lizzie Melton and Susie Buchanan. One of the two men who were walking ahead marked to me to drive on a little about fifty feet, when I looked back and saw Wolf and the other man beating Miller to death.

"The murderer was comparatively slight, however, and was chiefly in lust, with near price quotations fluctuating in a nervous and uncertain fashion. At this the market became comparatively quiet, but closing cables from Liverpool indicate an utterly demoralized condition there, the near months closing at a decline of 15 1/2 to 20 points, and this brought about such a rush of realizing orders in the local market as has seldom if ever been witnessed.

"In five or ten minutes July sold from 11.30, the best of the morning, to 10.80, a loss since last night of 44 points. August sold from 10.81 to 7.62, and September from 9.52 to 9.75. Then came a pause.

"Joe Wolf was arrested shortly after the murder of Miller on suspicion that he was connected with the crime, but the evidence did not prove strong enough to warrant his being held. The murder was as cold blooded and vicious as was the murder of Jim Wilson and of Hendricks Long.

Smith had read in the newspapers of his own death and confided in his fellow choir members that he was very much alive.

recovered. The report of his death was circulated about Hoboken yesterday, and Rev. Mr. Evans, curate of Holy Innocents, went to the house to perform the rites for the dead, but found that his services were not required.

COTTON RING IS FULL OF RISKS

Little Men Fear the Big Leaders and Make the Opening Market a Conglomeration of Uncertainties

NEW YORK, May 21.—It was a badly "mixed" crowd that surrounded the local pit in the cotton market this morning. In the first place, Liverpool cables were almost as sensationally weak as they had recently been strong, and though just before the local opening they showed some irregularity, they still were from 10 to 12 points below expectations.

In addition, the weather map again reflected favorable conditions and the early estimates indicated that the port receipts for the day would greatly exceed those of last year.

These factors naturally exerted a bearish influence on the general sentiment, but on the other hand the strongly aggressive tactics of the latest bull leader has rendered the average operator fearful of further sensational showings of strength, so that at the opening there seemed to be a disposition to let the big men of either side set the pace and establish the initial range of prices.

Still there was enough business to make the opening an active one, while the speculative atmosphere is still full of excitement.

State boards had all the best of it, the price being 31 to 25 points lower, with July selling on call at 16.90, August at 16.75 and September at 9.70. Following this, after some irregularity, there was a sharp rally under the bull support.

The betterment was comparatively slight, however, and was chiefly in lust, with near price quotations fluctuating in a nervous and uncertain fashion. At this the market became comparatively quiet, but closing cables from Liverpool indicate an utterly demoralized condition there, the near months closing at a decline of 15 1/2 to 20 points, and this brought about such a rush of realizing orders in the local market as has seldom if ever been witnessed.

the paper will be called, will be conducted.

There will be a sporting department, and the club news will be complete. Speeches delivered at women's clubs will be printed in full, but what is technically known as "crime news" will not be slighted.

But each offense that is committed against the law will be reported as an effect of the general cause—disease. Manias of different sorts will be discussed in connection with the police news. A lesson will be drawn from a police story as often as possible.

It never was intended, Dr. Dickinson said, to issue the first number yesterday. Nobody will have a chance to buy a copy of the paper until $300,000 worth of stock has been subscribed for. It now looks as if the first number will come out in August.

LUMBER MEN START FIGHT ON UNIONS

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Lumbermen's association has sent the following to lumbermen all over the country: "To Lumbermen and Manufacturers of Lumber: We want to impress on your minds that the question of closing the lumber yards of this city and preventing the delivery of all lumber, to combat the unjust demands made by the united board of delegates, is something which vitally interests every wholesaler and retailer who ships to, and every sawmill that cuts lumber for this market. "It is the first step toward compelling the use of union lumber in this city and none other but union lumber, and union lumber means union labor in your sawmill and the domination of the walking delegate. Do you desire a condition like this? If not, this association invites your support in every way possible in its present condition. Will you give it? Your reply will give encouragement."

Sam H. Taylor, printer and embosser, has moved from 209 to 1214 Houston street.

COLLEGE AT AMES, IA. IS STILL GROWING

AMES, Ia., May 21.—With the dedication today of the new engineering hall of the State Agricultural and Mechanical college that institution enters upon a new era in its career of industrial training. The dedicatory ceremonies were held in the presence of a distinguished assemblage, including state officials, distinguished educators, members of the faculty, students and alumni of the college. The new building is a large and commodious structure and no expense has been spared to provide it with every convenience and with up-to-date equipment. Hereafter by means of practical tests an effort will be made to make the engineering departments more closely connected with the industrial interests of the state than ever was possible under the old equipment.

The first ice ever frozen in Mineral Wells during the summer was on exhibition in the city today. It came from the new ice plant of D. G. Galbraith and looked just like any other ice. The chunk was solid, cold and clear. The plant has a daily capacity of twelve and one-half tons.—Mineral Wells Index.

So far this year the contracts let for the construction of new railroads aggregate 18,318 miles, against 6,026 miles built in 1902.

THE TEXAS WEATHER FOR THE PAST WEEK

The following summary of Texas weather for the past week, issued from the office of the weather bureau at Galveston:

WEATHER CONDITIONS
The ground was generally in good condition at the beginning of the week, and sufficient rainfall occurred in the form of light scattered showers to keep it so. The average temperature was two or three degrees below normal. The first part of the week was cool, but the temperature of the latter part was close to the normal. The nights were too cool for cotton, but otherwise the conditions were very favorable for plant growth and cultivation.

COTTON
Planting has been generally completed, but there is still considerable replanting to be done. Considering the entire acreage planted to cotton, the stands are very uneven and on an average must be rated between poor and fair. The continued cool weather has greatly retarded growth and the crop is now three or four weeks later than usual. The plants, however, are generally in condition to respond rapidly to reasonable temperature. Injury by lice is reported from Colorado and Fayette counties, and cut worms have necessitated considerable replanting in Atascosa, Bexar, Gonzales, Karnes and San Patricio counties. The boll weevil has made its appearance in Atascosa, Lee and Washington counties.

CORN
Good stands have not yet been secured in all sections, and some fields are being replanted with June corn. The crop is generally well worked and some fields in the southern portion have been laid by. The plants are in good condition and making rapid growth.

WHEAT, RYE AND OATS
The grain crop continues to show much improvement. Wheat, rye and oats now promise a good yield, and spring oats a fair return. Fall oats are ripe and being harvested in some of the central and south-central counties.

RICE
Sowing is still in progress.

SUGAR CANE
Sugar cane is generally doing well.

MISCELLANEOUS
Grass continues good and stock is doing well. Irish potatoes are doing well and some are ready for use. Tomatoes and cucumbers are growing nicely. The strawberry harvest is nearly completed.

TO HELP SOLDIERS SUBDUED FILIPINOS

The work of replacing the old black-powder Springfield rifle in the National Guard with the Krag-Jorgensen is only now fairly under way, and already the Krag is obsolete and is to be superseded by a new Springfield. This weapon, which is now undergoing its service tests, is officially described in the current number of the Journal of the Military Service Institution.

It is a magazine rifle, centrally fed by clips. It has a rod bayonet, which may also be used as a cleaning rod. Its caliber is .30. It fires a 230-grain bullet—say half an ounce—with 43.3 grains of smokeless powder.

The bullet starts off at a velocity of 2,300 feet per second, and it still going at the rate of 835 feet per second when it has traveled a thousand yards, at which point it has left a striking energy of 447.5 foot-pounds. The energy at the muzzle is 2,581.6 foot-pounds, and the bullet will penetrate over four feet and a half of white pine at a distance of fifty-three feet.

The new rifle is made of eighty-two pieces. It is to be provided with riot cartridges, each containing two round balls made of lead and tin in the proportion of 1 to 1—ominous ratio—and propelled by three-four grains of smokeless powder. These bullets will have an effective range of 200 yards.

MORGAN INTERESTS IN UNDERGROUNDS

NEW YORK, May 21.—There are indications that J. Pierpont Morgan is going to turn his attention chiefly to England for some time to come, says a London dispatch to the Press.

Since his arrival in England four weeks ago he has been working with tremendous zeal on his new scheme for building an underground electric line from the Bank of England northeast toward Waltham Abbey, at a cost of $70,000,000. The bill authorizing the road was thrown out by the committee of parliament to which it was referred. It will, however, come before parliament next week, but in another form, and will, it is expected, go through.

Mr. Morgan is offering inducements to local municipal bodies along his proposed route. The borough council of Hackney have received from him an offer to purchase 600 feet of land on which to build a public library, providing the council will not oppose him in obtaining a site for a station in a convenient spot within their jurisdiction. The proposed new line runs through a section, part of which is now sparsely occupied, but it would tap a large suburban district beyond, occupied chiefly by workmen who have gone out into the country for the cheaper rents.

NEW ENTERPRISES FOR BELLS, TEXAS

BELLS, Texas, May 19.—A. Fager of St. Louis met the Commercial Club this evening in regard to establishing an ice factory here. He received much encouragement and we expect an ice factory to be in operation here before the season is over.

L. G. Camp of the L. G. Camp Company, of Atlanta, Ga., and Dallas, Texas, also met the club in regard to an oil mill for Bells. Outside capital is interested in this proposition and a local committee was appointed to solicit stock. Everyone is confident that the oil mill whistles will be blowing in Bells this fall. Other enterprises are under advisement.

Rich asbestos mines have been discovered near Irkutsk, Siberia.

HOW TO PREVENT A TROLLEY CAR FIRE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 21.—A passenger with some knowledge of electricity probably saved the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company the cost of a new car yesterday.

A heavy eight-wheeled Germantown trolley car was running rapidly up Wayne avenue, and had almost reached Manheim street, when there was a piercing screech, and the car began to drag. The passengers smelled the odor of burning rubber, and saw the smoke arising from each side of the car.

There was a rush to get out, and men and women scrambled to get to the doors. The conductor and motorman jumped out and looked for the trouble, but saw only the smoke. The conductor ran into a house and soon attached with the garden hose, which he applied to the pave wash. But even the water did not cause the smoke to diminish, and the men did not know what to do until one of the passengers caught the trolley rope and pulled the trolley off the wire. Then there was no more fire.

Another car coupled on to the cripple and pushed the injured car to the barn, where it was found that the insulation had rotted and had burned through. The mayor of a French town has issued an order that all cats are to be kept indoors for six weeks. This is owing to several people having been recently bitten by cats in the district. The inhabitants are perplexed as to how the order is to be obeyed.

AN UNSUCCESSFUL DODGE

The government has discovered a widow of a veteran of the civil war whose ingenuity of ideas as expressed in a pension claim baffles all competition. The veteran was a carpenter by occupation, and he was recently working on a barn. A cyclone came up and blew a joist off the building. The joist,avoriting about, struck the carpenter and instantly killed him. His widow has now sent in a claim to the pension office, saying that her late husband acquired typhoid fever in the service, resulting in deafness. The deafness thus accrued from disabilities originating in the line of duty was responsible for the death of her husband, for if he had not been deaf he would have heard the joist in its descent and could have gotten out of its way. Uncle Sam is a generous man in his dealings, but it was impossible to reconcile the claim with the letter and spirit of the law. The result is that the widow of the victim of the cyclone will have to get along without a quarterly stipend from the government.

FOR THOSE WHO LIVE ON FARMS Dr. Beglin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 50c and $1 at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.
