talked with his fellow barbers about having seen Lawrence or when he first talked with Chief Rea about it. John Adams was the next witness. He said he saw Lawrence in the pool room some time before the killing of Wilson. In January, he was sure Lawrence was in the pool room. He testified that he never told this outside of his family until a month ago. This was the first time he had testified in the case.

GERMAN GETS THE CUP

BALLY-SHANNON, Ireland, July 2.—The international automobile race for the James Gordon Bennett cup yesterday was won by Genatsy, a member of the German team, who covered the distance of 3704 miles in 6:26:09. Two members of the French team ran each other close for second place that it will not be known until Friday whether Dr. Knapp Farman is entitled to the honor.

TERRELL, Texas, July 3.—In the case of the state of Texas vs. F. H. Grinnan, charged with the murder of Felix Roberts in this city, August 15, 1900, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal. This was the third trial of the case.

BELLS, Texas, July 3.—A Katy freight went off the bridge a half mile from town. Six cars and the engine were ditched. The engine and fireman escaped. The wreck occurred at 5 a. m.

HURRY UP ORDER FOR A NEW CROWN

PARIS, July 3.—The new king of Servia seems to be in a great hurry for his crown, for through his brother, Prince Arsene, who is a resident of this city, he has ordered a gorgeous crown from a well known Parisian firm of jewelers. The firm, though appreciating the great honor, is in a quandary as they have had no intimation as to who will pay for the royal ornament, and it is known that the Servian treasury is absolutely empty; so empty, in fact, that it did not even contain money enough to pay the traveling expenses of the delegation that went to Geneva to notify King Peter. The ministers and army officers finally had to put their hands in their own pockets to get the money for the expenses of the journey, and the delegation caused some surprise by traveling second class.

Prince Arsene, however, when ordering the crown, said nothing about the money, except that the crown must not cost over 200,000 francs, and must be delivered within three weeks. A sketch designed by the king's cousin, Prince Bodjdar, accompanied the order. This rush order for a royal crown has greatly amused Parisians, who appreciate the king's hurry lest he might lose his head before he had a chance to wear his finery. Hitherto there has been no crown for Servian monarchs, and neither King Milan nor King Alexander wore a crown at his coronation ceremonies. The chances are that if there had been a crown King Milan would have worn it long ago. It has been proposed here that the museum at Lomora might let King Peter have King Satiapherne's false crown for a few francs. In the meantime the firm who so unexpectedly have been made Servian court jewelers are making their brains to find a way to get some guarantee for their work, or whether it would be against court etiquette to send the costly headgear to Belgrade, c. o. d.

PEORIA POLICE ARE OPPOSED TO NEGROES

PEORIA, Ill., July 2.—Because two negroes had been appointed to positions on the police force here, a strike of the force is imminent. Yesterday James Hirschberger resigned his position and gave up his star because he was compelled to work with a negro in the patrol wagons. Feeling began to spread, and over half the officers on the force have served notice that they will resign if a negro and a white man are appointed. Woodruff is greatly censured because of the appointments, and Chief Rhoades of the department states that he will not receive the negro members for the sake of discipline. The negroes cannot be forced to resign and the chief will not discharge them because the white officers have demanded that he do so. Should things come to a showdown, it is probable that the entire force will be discharged and appointed anew.

The murder of Detective Murphy by a negro and the narrow escape of the murderer from lynching is responsible for the feeling among the white officers.

ISSUE AN APPEAL TO FORT WORTH PEOPLE

The board of trustees of Polytechnic College are short about $5,000 in funds with which to complete the new building. The board of trustees is very hopeful that they may be ready for use by Sept. 1. An appeal for contributions has been made to the people of Fort Worth to help in the raising of the needed sum. The appeal to Fort Worth citizens is as follows: A large force of hands is now at work on the new Polytechnic building. The future success of the school depends upon its early completion. The board of trustees and the faculty of the school are impressed with the absolute importance of having the building ready for the opening in the month of September. We cannot afford to incur a debt for a public enterprise. We are dependent upon the liberality of the public for the means with which to carry on this work. As an enterprise, viewed from a business standpoint, it is second only to the packing-houses. Nothing does more for a city than schools of high grade. The completion of the building, we hope to have a plant that will bring to this city annually not less than $100,000 in trade. Then it serves as a constant advertisement throughout the country. It attracts to our midst the very best class of citizenship. It has also a moral aspect. With all these considerations we come before the public and earnestly ask that every man who is desirous of building up the city and at the same time desirous of doing permanent good for his race to assist in our work. Some have already helped liberally. We are short about $5,000. The money we must have. Do not turn away our solicitors. The city will be closely canvassed within the next few days. Will all who have contributed help more? And those who have not contributed to this building we trust will do so when called upon. Help one, help all. Remember, the work is now progressing and money is much needed today. Do not fail us in this crisis which is upon us. W. J. BOAZ, GEORGE MULKEY, W. E. WILLIAMS, J. E. BARKER, R. C. ARMEYBROOK SR., Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees.

LEUPP TO PROBE INDIAN AFFAIRS

Conditions Relative to Allocations Will Be Thoroughly Investigated and Startling Facts May Be Revealed

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The indications are that the investigation into the affairs of the Indian Territory will shortly assume a wide proportion as the period of investigation. Not only has the interior department taken active steps to investigate, but the president has taken cognizance of the situation and expressed his determination to go to the bottom of the numerous charges that have been filed here. Moreover, the department of justice has been drawn into the matter and is making an investigation on its own account into charges against some of its officials.

It was recently announced that Francis E. Leupp, the Washington correspondent of the New York paper, who has been taking an interest in seeing that the Indians were treated right and who once before was utilized in making an investigation for the government into the charges against Nesler and Major Randlett, who were prominent in connection with the opening of the Kiowa and Comanche reservations, has been asked by the president in person and by the secretary of interior to undertake an investigation of the whole middle affecting the integrity of the officials in the Indian Territory.

When it became evident that matters were more serious than at first supposed, the president and the secretary of interior and unbiased reports, upon which summary action might be taken, and Mr. Leupp had consented to inquire into one phase of the case he was asked by the president to go to the territory with a complete staff of clerks and a stenographer and with full power to act. It is understood that the charges affect in part the manner in which the townships were selected, and it is understood that prominent officials were in collusion with the railroads and other interested forces and managed to make a good thing out of the territory.

Secretary Hitchcock has gone for a short vacation at his summer home at N. H. J. in the territory with a complete staff of clerks and a stenographer and with full power to act. It is understood that the charges affect in part the manner in which the townships were selected, and it is understood that prominent officials were in collusion with the railroads and other interested forces and managed to make a good thing out of the territory.

A SPECIAL FROM THE SOUTHWEST The Fort Worth (Texas) Telegram has issued a big live stock year book, containing a great deal of information, consisting of seventy-two pages. The illuminated cover with illustrations of the Armour and Swift packing houses, which have lately made Fort Worth famous over the country, adds much to the attractiveness of the special number.

Humors They take possession of the body, and are lords of Misrule. They are attended by pimples, boils, the itching eruption, salt rheum, and other cutaneous eruptions, and feelings of weakness, languor, general debility and what not. They cause more suffering than anything else. Health, Strength, Peace and Pleasure come their expulsion, and this is positively effected, according to thousands of grateful testimonials, by Hood's Sarsaparilla which radically and permanently drives them out and builds up the whole system.

WIFE PERFORMS THE OPERATION

BETHANY, Ill., July 3.—Advice just received from China, state that Dr. W. H. Logan, formerly of this city, has entirely recovered from his attack of appendicitis, returned to his station and resumed his work.

Dr. Logan and his wife have been missionaries in China for a number of years. They were forced to flee from that country during the Boxer troubles, coming to Bethany, where the physician practiced his profession until peace had been restored in the Celestial empire, where he returned to his former station in China and again took up the work of a missionary-physician.

APPENDICITIS A short time ago Dr. Logan was attacked by an illness, which rapidly developed into an acute attack of appendicitis. Realizing that his only hope for recovery lay in an operation, involving the removal of the diseased organ, he called his wife to his bedside and imparted the diagnosis of his own case. Mrs. Logan, being a trained nurse, realized the gravity of her husband's predicament, and, under his direction, began the preparations for an operation.

OPERATION SAFE The doctor sold the journey well, and upon his examination by the attending surgeons, Mrs. Logan informed that her operation was one that would have been creditable to the most skillful practitioner.

FILE DEED OF TRUST CLEBURNE, Tex., July 2.—The Cleburne Water, Ice and Lighting company, by its president, L. W. Chase, and secretary, R. J. Corson, filed a deed of trust for the purpose of securing the franchises of the company to the Union Trust company of Pittsburg, to secure bonded indebtedness in the amount of $100,000.

CROPS ARE FINE IN SOUTH PART OF STATE BRENHAM, Tex., July 2.—J. H. Barnhill, a successful planter in the Chapel Hill neighborhood, states that crop prospects in that section are the finest he has seen in many years. Enough rain has already fallen to secure the crop, and the cotton crop is in fine condition. Fruit and other crops come similar reports. If the boll weevil will only neglect his business next year, Washington county will have a taste of the old-time prosperity.

Saved From Terrible Death. The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Barger, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most powerful medicine known was used, but failed, until consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most powerful cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. W. Fisher's drug store.

LIVE STOCK AT WORLD'S FAIR

Exhibition Will Be the Largest Ever Held at Any Exposition

F. D. Coburn, chief of the department of live stock of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, has arranged for a total of over 26,000 prizes in the classification for horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, etc., for the world's fair shows next year. These are unprecedented in amount and are divided among twelve breeds of beef and dual purpose cattle, with 2,352 prizes; four breeds of dairy cattle, 560 prizes; nineteen breeds of horses, 3,458 prizes; eleven breeds of swine, 2,772 prizes; fourteen breeds of sheep, 2,548 prizes; 375 varieties of poultry and pigeons, 10,300 prizes; fifty-seven breeds of dogs, 2,694 prizes. There are thirty-two additional prizes for single sows and herds entered in the dairy demonstration; five for oxen; fifty-five for mules and 1,310 for the estimated displays of pet stock, vehicles, etc.

FIRST PUBLIC SALES The Louisiana Purchase Exposition will be the first world's fair to provide for the holding of public sales of pure-bred stock, which are assured a crowd of appreciative buyers and good prices. Complete plans have been made for a ring for public sales apart from the main live stock amphitheater, so that sales may be held without interfering with the judging or other features of the exhibition. Public sales of prize winners and other choicely bred animals have come to be a leading feature of the exposition shows and the leading fairs, but no opportunity for this popular method of selling stock to the highest bidder has ever been offered at a world's fair.

GENERAL STOCK NOTES The New Mexico Land and Live Stock Company has been incorporated at Manzanola, with a capitalization of $500,000. The principal officers of the company will be at Springer, N. M.

POLECAT BITES A BOY A report from New Orleans says: An alliance for traffic has been announced between the Northeastern, the Queen and Crescent and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas. The agreement will give the Queen and Crescent a great deal more business than it is now handling, and it also gives the Texas line an entrance into Birmingham and gives that road a position from which it can handle much of the California and Texas travel direct by the way of Meridian and Shreveport. The new agreement became effective July 1.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC: Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Fort Worth Telegram will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given at the office, 1010 and 1012 Houston street, Fort Worth.

NOT PLEASANT READING: The Telegram this evening, in another column, gives a record of the lynchings in the United States for the first six months of 1903. It has heretofore not been the custom to preserve this gruesome record, but by clipping the newspaper accounts of the affairs it has been possible to make a synopsis of this particular branch of lawlessness for the first half of the current year.

There were just fifty lynchings during the period. Forty-five are credited to the south and five to the north. Forty-seven victims were black and three were white. Such figures do not make pleasant reading. Comparative figures as to sections or as to color of the victims are not so valuable as is the alarming total of fifty that the record shows. Comparison with other years is not possible, because the records have not been kept. But comparison is not necessary. The fact that in half a hundred instances the people of various communities have taken the law in their own hands is bad enough, regardless of provocation.

Texas is credited with only four lynchings, and the showing is not so bad as that of many other states, but it is not creditable.

By continually keeping before the people of the entire country the extent of Judge Lynch's domain, there is a hope that a realization of its enormity may move the public to take steps for its curtailment. The first six months' record is not a good one to contemplate.

Secretary Cortelyou seems to have been given supervision over the most miscellaneous assortment of quill-patch bureaus that ever fell to the lot of mortal man. He is supposed to intelligently govern the conduct of officials in the following different departments: Corporations and industries, fish commission, steamboat inspection, bureau of labor, lighthouse establishment, bureau of immigration, coast and geodetic survey, United States shipping commissioners, foreign commerce, and bureau of standards. In time there may be added the bureau of esthetic investigation, the department of airship culture, and the boll weevil commission, but for the present, at least, the new secretary has his hands well enough filled.

The inventor who imagines that by shooting a magnet into the sky from the top of Pike's Peak, he can draw electricity to the ground for commercial purposes, is not half so visionary as the merchant who believes he can sell goods by merely displaying his wares. It takes dynamite to get electricity and it takes advertising to get business.

The announcement of an investigation of affairs relative to allotments in the Indian Territory, coming so soon after Secretary Hitchcock's visit, would indicate that the secretary did not come all the way from Washington to the southwest for the mere purpose of buying bead work moccasins and striped blankets.

Ninety-seven years old and critically ill, General Cassius M. Clay has sent for his former child-wife, whose husband was killed in Illinois Sunday, asking her to again share his roof. There seems to have been something between the unwearying mated pair which a modern divorce suit could not blot out.

It took thirty-two women employed in the treasury department thirty days to count $403,000,000 in paper money, which is kept in the reserve vaults. This is considered good time, but the record would have been cut in two had the money been kept in the pockets of a few hundred pairs of trousers.

Now as to that little green bug which is said to destroy the boll weevil as a summer wind blights the growing corn, the telegram has only one request. For the sake of suffering profreaders, give it a simple name.

It is a little early to make predictions, but from present indications in China, Admiral Bob Evans is bound to make some glory out of the campaign, even if he has to declare war himself.

CRAUSTARK

Greenfall Lorry, a wealthy American globe trotter, stumbles into acquaintance with a charming foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair get left at the station when the "Flyer" goes for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry wires ahead to hold the train at the next town. He hires a wagon to drive them to the intervening four miles. They catch the train. Lorry learns the young lady's name is Miss Guggenlocker and her companions are her uncle and aunt. They arrive in Washington and Lorry is asked to breakfast with the trio.

(Continued From Yesterday.) He expostulated gallantly and delightedly and then hurried forth to call a cab. At 8 o'clock he breakfasted with them, his infatuation growing deeper and stronger as he sat for the hour beneath the spell of those eyes, the glorious face, the sweet, imperial air that was a part of her, strange and unaffected. As they were leaving the dining room he asked if she would not drive with him.

His ardent gallantry met with a surprising rebuke. Her voice, a moment ago sweet and affable, changed its tone instantly to one so proud and arrogant that he could scarcely believe his ears.

"I shall be engaged during the entire day, Mr. Lorry," she said slowly, looking him fairly in the eyes with cruel positiveness. For a moment he dared not speak.

"I have reason to feel thankful that you are to be engaged," he said at last calmly, without taking his eyes from hers. "I am forced to believe, much to my regret, that I have offended when I intended to please. You will pardon my temerity."

There was no mistaking the resentment in his voice or the glitter in his eyes. Impulsively her little hand was stretched forth, falling upon his arm, while into her eyes came again the soft glow and to her lips the most pathetic, appealing smile, the forerunner of a pretty plea for forgiveness. The change startled and puzzled him more than ever. In one moment she was unreasonably rude and imperious, in the next gracious and imploring.

"Forgive me," she cried, the blue eyes battling bravely against the steel in the gray ones above. "I was so unwell! Perhaps I cannot make you understand why I spoke as I did, but let me say, I richly deserved the rebuke. I have been disagreeable. Do not ask me to tell you why I was so rude to you just now, but overlook my unkind treatment of your invitation. Please, Mr. Lorry, I beg of you—I beg for the first time in my life. You have been so good to me, be good to me still."

His wrath melted away like snow before the sunshine. How could he resist such an appeal? "I beg for the first time in my life," whirled in his brain. What did she mean by that?

"I absolve the penitent," he said gravely.

"I thank you. You are still my ideal American—courteous, bold and gentle. I do not wonder that Americans can be masterful men. And now I thank you for your invitation and ask you to let me have my impediment removed. If you will take me for the drive I shall be delighted and more than grateful."

"You make me happy again," he said softly, as they drew near the elder members of the party, who had paused to wait for them. "I shall ask your uncle and aunt to accompany us."

"Uncle Caspar will be busy all day, but I am sure my aunt will be charmed. Aunt Yvonne, Mr. Lorry has asked us to drive with him over the city, and I have accepted for you. When are we to start, Mr. Lorry?"

"Adieu, my American!"

which she could not misunderstand. The uncle shook hands warmly with the young man and passed up the steps. She was following when Lorry cried: "Will you not allow me?"

She laughingly turned to him from the steps and stretched forth her hand. "And now it is goodbye forever. I am so sorry that I have not seen more of you," she said. He took her hand and held it tightly for a moment. "I shall never forget the past few days," he said, a thrill in his voice. "You have put something into my life that can never be taken away. You will forget me before you are out of Washington, but I—I shall always see you as you are now."

changed for the worse in your eyes." "As I first knew you with my eyes I will say that they are trustworthy," she said tantalizingly.

"I do not mean that I have changed externally." "In any other case my eyes would not serve," she cried, with mock disappointment. "Still," she added sweepingly, "you are my ideal American. Goodbye! The man has called 'all aboard!'"

"Goodbye!" he cried, swinging up on the narrow step beside her. Again he clasped her hand as she drew back in surprise. "You are going out of my land, but not out of my mind. If you wish your eyes to see the change in me, you have only to look at them in a mirror. They are the change—they themselves! Goodbye! I hope that I may see you again."

She hesitated an instant, her eyes wavering beneath his. The train was moving slowly now. "I pray that we may meet," she said softly at last—so softly that he barely heard the words. Had she uttered no sound he could have been sure of her response, for it was in her telltale eyes. His blood leaped madly. "You will be hurt if you wait till the train is running at full speed!" she cried, suddenly returning to the abandoned merry mood. She pushed him gently in her excitement. "Don't you see how rapidly we are moving? Please go!" There was a terror in her eyes that pleased him.

"Goodbye, then," he said. "Adieu, my American!" she cried quickly. As he swung out ready to drop to the ground she said, her eyes sparkling with something that suggested mischief, her face more bewitching than ever under the flicker of the great arc lights: "You must come to Edelweiss to see me. I shall expect you." He thought there was a challenge in the tones. Or was it mockery?

"I will, by heaven, I will!" he exclaimed. A startled expression flashed across her face, and her lips parted as if in protestation. As she leaned forward, holding stately to the handrail, there was no smile on her countenance.

A white hand fluttered before his eyes, and she was gone. He stood, hat in hand, watching the two red lights at the end of the train until they were lost in the night.

THIS AMERICAN HAD TO FLEE FROM EXILE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—A. A. Karalainin, a native of Junka county, about 3,000 population, in Central Finland, is in San Francisco. He had to fly from his home to avoid exile to Siberia by the Russian government, which he took exception to some advice he had extended to a countryman not to volunteer for medical examination at the recruiting stations of the czar. Karalainin was in America some years ago and took out full citizenship papers. He returned to Finland a few months ago, intending to take up residence there permanently. By aid of his American passport he managed to effect an escape in time to prevent arrest by Russian officers.

DAY ON NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 2.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 11 points to an advance of 2 points, gains being influenced by covering on fears of a bullish crop report, while the near positions were influenced by liquidation following easier cables and reports that Liverpool had been weakened by a pressure of short notices. The day's map showed favorable weather in the belt and with New Orleans prices held down slowly throughout the entire list, with near months, however, showing the greatest weakness.

BEAT NON-UNIONIST AND GOT SIX MONTHS

NEW YORK, July 2.—William J. Eweeney, a striker, who assaulted a non-union workman recently in the Hudson river tunnel, has been sentenced to six months in the penitentiary. Regarding labor unions, Judge Blair said, in passing sentence: "If you stood alone in this matter, the court might be inclined to leniency, but you represent a body of men who consider themselves above the law. Every man has a right to sell his labor for what he pleases and should not be interfered with in so doing. The question of wages is one between the employer and employed and cannot be dictated by any body of men. The right to labor must be secured as guaranteed by the law."

SAYS MUSIC WILL KILL MOSQUITOES

BOSTON, Mass., July 2.—The Brookline board of health, which is systematically exterminating mosquitoes by means of kerosene oil, is now about to take up a suggestion calling attention to a new process for lessening the evil by means of musical sounds. The discoverer of the new process says: "It has been frequent that practical application has been made by raising to a great number of vibrations per second, the particular note to which the mosquito is most sensitively attuned. This intention is produced by sudden electrical impulse upon a musical instrument, causing every mosquito near to plunge headlong to the instrument and die."

FURTHER INVESTIGATION

Grain Rate Case Before Interstate Commerce Commission. Commissioner C. A. Prouty has officially notified grain dealers in Fort Worth that on July 29 a meeting of the interstate commerce commission will be held in Fort Worth, for the purpose of investigating the matter of alleged discrimination in grain rates on the part of the Rock Island in favor of the Rosenbaum Grain Company.

This is said to be the outcome of the case recently heard in Fort Worth before United States Judge Edward R. Meek, in which the railroad commission of Texas was enjoined from enforcing its order to the Rock Island to cancel its alleged contract with the Rosenbaum Grain Company. The case is one in which every grain merchant in Texas, whose business is of any consequence, is vitally interested. It is further stated that grain merchants in other states who are competitors of the Rosenbaum Grain Company on the Rock Island, are also interested and are back of the investigation.

NEWS FROM GRANGER

GRANGER, Texas, July 2.—The recent rains have detained the farmers from threshing for a few days. However, the present outlook for corn is most flattering. Cotton is being infested by the boll weevil and the first crop will nearly all be knocked off by the little pests. Messdames C. C. Gilbey, C. M. Jones and Miss Gladys Jones have just returned from an extensive visit to Old Mexico. A. W. Starrs has let a contract to J. C. Miller of Elgin for the building of a $8,000 residence on Main street. The Katy is erecting an immense coal chute here.

OFF TRAIN INTO SHERIFF'S ARMS

MARSHALL, Tex., July 2.—This morning, in response to a telegram from Waskom, Tex., Sheriff Curtis arrested James Walker, a young negro, as he stepped off the passenger train at the station in this city. Walker was wanted for burglary near Waskom and when arrested had on his person three revolvers, one of them a .41 caliber Colt, and $24 in money. The prisoner was taken to Waskom this afternoon by Sheriff Curtis and County Attorney Gardner, for examining trial.

A NERVY OFFICER DOES GOOD WORK

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 2.—An ineffectual attempt was made by six prisoners to break jail at Jonesboro, Tenn., last night. They attacked Constable Hank in the main entrance of the jail after they had been out on public road work. Snuff was blown into the officers' eyes and efforts were made to smother him with a blanket and get his keys. He overpowered the six men and pulled a revolver off to their cells. The men were searched and several knives and a quantity of wire and rocks were found.

IN CORPORATION COURT
 Prisoners Want Time to Celebrate the Fourth of July
 The corporation court presented a busy appearance this morning, but the influence of the Fourth of July seemed to have put in an early appearance, and most of the defendants were anxious to have their cases passed over until next week.
 The case of Nannie Barnes, colored, charged with vagrancy, came up first. She protested vigorously that she was no "vag." "Now, judge, it wasn't my fault that that officer there arrested me this morning. I was just going to tell him of two women who were taking up by my room and he just said, 'You come along with me, and I had to come.' 'Deed, I'm most guilty of being a vagrant!'"
 The following fines were imposed this morning by Judge Prewett:
 Nannie Barnes, vagrancy, $5 and costs.
 Will Nichols, drunk, $1 and costs.
 Marlie Shaffer, disturbing the peace, $1 and costs.

CORSICANA HERE THIS AFTERNOON
RAIN PREVENTED TEXAS LEAGUE GAMES SCHEDULED YESTERDAY
 Westlake, the Corsicana Catcher, to Take Laird's Place as Umpire—New Players Signed by Corsicana Make First Appearance Today
 The Corsicana team opens here this afternoon for a series of three games. The attendance at these three games probably will break the record for three straight games, as they include a game tomorrow, on the Fourth, and also a Sunday game. It is Buchanan's turn to pitch today. The break on account of the rain yesterday will give some one else a chance to pitch the Sunday game. Buchanan has been on the slab for several weeks for Sunday games.
 The Corsicana team as it comes here today will present some new faces in their line-up. Manager Roberts has signed a new catcher, Buck Miller, and an infielder, George Felter. They were to play their first game at Corsicana yesterday, but the rain spoiled that. The Corsicana team this afternoon, as he has been called to Paris on business.
 Jarvis has been pitching nothing but victories this year. He has officiated in ten games since he was signed, and of those he has only lost one. A couple of his nine victories were shut-outs.
 Peer has been playing a wonderful game at second this week. He has been making marvelous stops in every game. His batting has picked up, too, and he has been hitting a hit or two every game. His two baggers in the game with Waco, Wednesday, which was followed by Barrett's single, was responsible for the winning run.
 Barrett does not seem to be up to his old form since he returned to the game. He has been charged with several errors on account of dropped flies.
 He dropped two in one inning in a game this week.
 Westlake, the star catcher of the Corsicana team, who has been compelled to give up playing on account of injuries, has been absent from the second umpire. He will take the place of Laird, who has been handling the indicator temporarily since the resignation of Tilford.

FAVORS A CREMATORY
 Fort Worth Officials Investigated Plan at Dallas
 Mayor T. J. Powell and Aldermen Henderson, Murray and Chambers, the latter members of the board of health, visited Dallas yesterday for the purpose of ascertaining the practicability of the crematory now used in that city for the destruction of garbage, etc.
 The rain and unfavorable condition of the weather prevented the visitors from inspecting the plant, but from Acting Mayor Gill they were furnished interesting data concerning the advantages of the Dallas crematory and its advantages. It cost $8,000 and has a capacity of 25 tons daily.
 About six months ago Alderman Henderson introduced a resolution in the council in favor of a crematory in Fort Worth, but until yesterday the matter had not received further attention.

THE STRIKE AT GUTHRIE
 The Telephone Tie-Up is Partially Remedied
 GUTHRIE, Ok., July 2.—Service in the local exchange of the Arkansas Valley Telephone company, which for two days has been practically paralyzed owing to a strike of linemen and operators, has been partially revived. About a dozen operators, most of them inexperienced, have taken their places at the board, three of these being daughters of Joseph McNeal, a leading banker here, and the treasurer of the company. No linemen have been employed to take the places of those who first struck out on account of the employment of a non-union switchboard tender. It is not known how long they will be able to handle its business, there being a determination on the part of the labor union here to see that the strikers secure what they have asked.

Catarrah of the Stomach.
 When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrah of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrah of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. TWO FARES FOR BOY AND BANDBOX
 BELT LINE CONDUCTOR ASKS EXTRA NICKEL FOR PACKAGE
 Conductors Talk of Practice of Carrying Bundles on Street Cars, but Say No Rule Has Ever Been Given That Forbids Small Packages
 Passengers on a City Belt car at 6:45 last night witnessed a scene that sent them home more discontented than ever with some of the features of the Northern Texas Traction Company's service. The car was south-bound on Jennings avenue and stopped in front of the post-office to take on some passengers. But before it got that far on its course it passed two women on Houston street at Ninth because they were on the north instead of the south crossing. There is a board walk on the north crossing, which renders Houston street passable at that intersection. A deep pool of water covered both tracks and extended some feet on either side of them at the south crossing. From the comments of the passengers, it was evident they thought the women were perfectly right and that it was one of the emergencies where rules should be ignored. Instead of accommodating the women the motorman sharply commanded them to wade through the mud to the other crossing and then did not stop for them there.
 This incident put the passengers in ill humor with the crew of the car, but this was nothing to the downright anger that was inspired by the incident in front of the postoffice. A boy carrying a band box boarded the car at a crossing near the postoffice. The rear platform was crowded and the boy with his bundle made the crush still greater. The boy paid his fare, and then the passengers were surprised to hear the conductor demand an additional nickel for the band box. The boy said that he did not have another nickel. Then, amidst exclamations from the passengers the boy was forced by the conductor to leave the car.
CONDUCTOR QUESTIONED
 Some of the male passengers began to question the conductor, who replied to them by saying that he had received orders yesterday afternoon to charge for bundles.
 "I received my orders two hours ago, don't blame me, for I am only doing my duty," he said.
 Then the man on the car began to fire questions at him.
 "Did you charge that woman with the big ledger under his arm an extra fare?"
 "Did you charge that woman with the big hat—she takes up more room with that hat than the boy with his band box?"
 "How about that fellow with the basket?"
 A dozen other similar questions were asked. One passenger asked:
 "Does the company prescribe what the size of the bundles to be charged for shall be?"
 The conductor replied that he was ordered to use his own judgment.
 A reporter for The Telegram happened to be on the car when the two incidents related took place and last night

APPOINT NEW MANAGER
 Directors of the New Country Club Select General Overseer
 The directors of the Fort Worth Country Club, which is soon to be opened at Arlington Heights, have appointed H. C. Cowart as manager of the club. He has had years of experience in the management of clubs and hotels, and comes here direct from the Field and Country Club of St. Louis, where he is highly recommended. He is at work at the club now getting everything into shape and he expects that he will be able to have the club house ready for the opening by the 15th of the month. When the club is opened he will have charge of the preparation of everything in the shape of the clubhouse, and will have personal charge of the dining room and grill.

ARMY OF BUGS EATS MILLIONS ANNUALLY

WHAT THE BUGS COST IN CROPS DESTROYED

Cabbage worm	$ 5,000,000
Potato bug	8,000,000
San Jose scale	10,000,000
Grain weevil	10,000,000
Apple worm	10,000,000
Cotton worm	15,000,000
Army worm	15,000,000
American peacock butterfly	20,000,000
Boll worm (cotton)	25,000,000
Hessian fly	50,000,000
Grasshopper	50,000,000
Chinch bug	100,000,000
Total	$358,000,000

Every year Uncle Sam loses $358,000,000 just on the pestiferous little plagues that attack his mammoth crops of corn, wheat, cotton, potatoes, fruit, garden truck, and other of those necessities which the American people take out of the earth every year. These figures are the official estimate of the annual cost of the twelve insects that are most injurious to the crops of the United States.

The chinch bug, which attacks the wheat and the corn crop each year, eats up $100,000,000 worth before the rest of the crop is safe. This sum would provide twenty first-class battleships. The grasshopper comes along with $90,000,000 more in depredations. The bill for this dread visitor and the Hessian fly, which was brought over by the Hessian soldiers in 1776, $300,000 a year, would pay for the United States army of 65,000 men.

BUILDING RECORD SHOWS DECREASE

RAILROAD STATISTICS IN TEXAS FOR PAST SIX MONTHS

Says Peavey & Co. Gets Rebate—Railway Employees to Imitate Corporations. General News of the Rail, Personal and Otherwise

R. A. Thompson, chief engineer of the railroad commission of Texas, has just made public the approximate estimate of railroad mileage constructed in Texas during the six months ending June 30.

This estimate is based upon reports made direct to Mr. Thompson by the chief engineers of the different railroads of the state and is thoroughly reliable. It shows that the total amount of new track constructed during the period named will aggregate 190.7 miles.

GREAT FALLING OFF
This is a falling off of more than 100 miles in the amount constructed as compared with that of the preceding six months of 1902 and fully bears out the statement made a few weeks ago that an agreement had been entered into between the Harriman interests, the Goulds and the Rock Island-Prisco whereby they are not to encroach further upon each other's occupied territory for a period of years.

COMPLETING NEW LINES
Practically all of the construction work in the state during the six months soon to close has been in the completion of lines upon which work was already in progress at the beginning of that period.

THE TABLE
The table of the work done during this six months, as compiled by Mr. Thompson, is as follows:

Chicago, Rock Island and Gulf, from Fort Worth to Dallas, thirty-two miles.
Dallas Terminal, in Dallas, .5 of a mile.
Fort Worth and Rio Grande, from Colorado river to Brady, 28.2 miles.
Gulf, Beaumont and Great Northern, from San Augustine, north, 5 miles.
International and Great Northern, the Madisonville branch, 30 miles.
Missouri, Kansas and Texas, from Granger to Georgetown, 14.9 miles.
New York, Texas and Mexican railway, Bay City to Tres Palacios, 32.5 miles.
Oklahoma City and Texas railroad, Red river to Quanah, 8.7 miles.
St. Louis Southwestern railway, Dallas branch, 9.7 miles.
Texas and New Orleans railroad, between Jacksonville and Mahl, 36 miles.
Texas and New Orleans railroad, Nome to Sour Lake Springs, 8.2 miles.
Trinity and Brazos Valley railway, Hillsboro, south, 2 miles.
Timpan and Northern railroad, 2 miles.
Total, 190.7 miles.

COMPARATIVE FIGURES
Approximate railroad mileage in operation on December 31, 1902, 10,914.7 miles.
Approximate total mileage in operation in Texas on June 30, 1903, 11,105.4 miles.
Approximate mileage constructed during first six months 1901, in Texas, 294.
Approximate mileage constructed next six months 1902, in Texas, 284.
Approximate mileage constructed first six months 1902, in Texas, 191.
Total approximate mileage constructed during year 1901, in Texas, 587.
Total approximate mileage constructed during year 1902, in Texas, 491.

FRISCO MEETING AT NEW ORLEANS

At a meeting of the officers and directors of the New Orleans and San Francisco railroad, the southern division of the Frisco system, at New Orleans, this week, some of the important plans of that company began to be unfolded. It was decided to spend $15,000,000 building the finest railroad terminals in the south. They will be located at Port Chalmette.

OFFICERS ELECTED
The following officers were elected: L. S. Berg, president; R. B. Lankford, vice president; W. H. Lyford, counsel; Farrar, Jones & Kruttschnitt, general counsel; C. W. Hillard, treasurer; G. Mc.D. Nathan, assistant treasurer; Ivy T. Preston, secretary; C. E. A. McCarthy, assistant secretary; W. C. Dotterer, general manager.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET
At a meeting of the stockholders following the directors' meeting, the execution of a mortgage was authorized to secure the issue of not exceeding $15,000,000 of fifty-year 4 per cent gold bonds, which are to be guaranteed jointly by the Chicago, St. Louis and Memphis and New Orleans Railroad Company and the Southern Railway Company. Also the name of the company was changed to the New Orleans Terminal Company, and its authorized capital stock reduced to $2,000,000, with the membership of the directory increased to six.

RAILROAD BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

The Frisco officials at Houston, in charge of Commercial Agent W. C. Conner, Jr., have been moved to the same quarters as those occupied by the Rock Island, in charge of C. E. Gouding.

At a meeting of the Galveston citizens

Wednesday, committees were appointed to raise $10,000 as a bonus to secure the rebuilding of the Gulf and Interstate railroad into that city.

Walter E. Allen of the traffic department of the Virginia and Southwestern railway, has been promoted to the position of general freight and passenger agent of that road. He is only 25 years of age.

G. R. Henderson, superintendent of motive power of the Santa Fe railway, has tendered his resignation to take effect August 1. Mr. Henderson stated that his health was such that he desired to retire and take a vacation.

It has been announced on the authority of Captain Hinkley, chief engineer, that the Frisco will at once resume work on the line between Memphis and New Orleans, which was located some time since. The rallying in the surveying parties early in June, which gave rise to the report that the work of building the line had been abandoned, was on account of the high water, which, of course, made it impossible for work to continue with any degree of satisfaction.

AMERICAN BROKE RULE

Lilies of the Valley Were Worn by Permission of the Pope

F. Montague Handley, the American sculptor, tells of an episode he witnessed at the vatican last month that is interesting. A young New Yorker well known in society spent last winter in Rome and joined one of the aristocratic clubs of the Eternal city which is known for its charitable work. Shortly after his admission he was informed that an audience was to be given by the pope to several hundred people on a certain date and that his name had been placed on the reception committee. Pull dress is always worn at these audiences and the members wear a badge to distinguish them from the guests. The New Yorker, through ignorance of the rule which prohibits the wearing of flowers at the vatican, added a few sprays of lilies of the valley to his costume.

As Pope Leo XIII. appeared, carried in his gilded throne-like chair, the reception committee walked up to kiss his hand. When the New Yorker appeared in front of the pope the holy father looked with admiration on the sturdy young American and then, noting the forbidden flowers, smiled gently. "We do not wear flowers in the vatican, my son," he said, taking the offending blossoms, as if to cast them away, but he hesitated, smelled their fragrant petals, and then, evidently changing his mind, he returned them to the owner. "Keep them," he said, in a low, sweet voice, "and may your life be as spotless as they are now."—New York Times.

HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Brings a Glow to the Cheeks.
If you get up in the morning and don't feel refreshed from your night's rest, rise easily and are low spirited, lose flesh and have indigestion, your complexion is sallow, and you are generally unattractive, it is because you are not healthy. The plainest woman, if full of health and vigor, is attractive to men.

There are many reasons why women are run down, don't seem able to gain flesh and have no endurance. It is caused by the organs of the body not doing their proper work; you have no ambition to take exercise and are daily growing weaker. When you are run down physically you cannot accomplish mental work.
Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey keeps the body and brain in perfect working order; strengthens and sustains the system; stimulates the blood, makes you gain flesh and courage out the hollows in the cheeks. The appetite is good, you sleep well, the eye becomes bright and the step elastic.
Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is prescribed by thousands of doctors exclusively as a stimulant and tonic. It is absolutely pure and contains no fusel oil. A teaspoonful taken in half a glass of water two or three times a day will build you up.
All druggists, grocers, or direct, at $1.00 a bottle. Medical book free.

TEXAS CROP CONDITIONS

The following summary of crop conditions in Texas during the past week has been issued from the Galveston office of the weather bureau, under the direction of the department of agriculture:

WEATHER CONDITIONS

There was considerable cloudiness during the week and all portions of the state east of the 100th meridian received good showers. The rainfall occurred over the inland counties on the 24th and 25th, and over the coast counties on the 26th and 27th. The northeast portion of the state and the coast counties received between one and two inches of precipitation. The showers were generally accompanied by high wind, which did some damage to corn, cotton, grain in the shock, and other crops in several counties in the northern portion. Some fields in the hill country are reported, but very little damage resulted from the storms. The average temperature was about four degrees below normal in the eastern portion, but about normal elsewhere. On the whole the conditions were very favorable and, if anything, exceeded those of the preceding week. All crops made very rapid growth.

COTTON

Cotton made very rapid growth and the plants are in a very healthy condition, though still between two and three weeks later than usual. The early planted is blossoming well up toward the northern part of the state. Some fields in the middle and northern portions are becoming grassy, as a result of the wet weather, but as yet this condition is not general enough or sufficient duration to be serious. With the exception of the boll weevil, the crop is quite free from worms and insects. The boll weevil is becoming more numerous and is at present over a larger area than last week. It is reported as far east as Liberty and Nacogoches counties, north to Navarro county, and west to Burnet, Blanco and Bexar counties. It is now working upon cotton in several counties, but is doing the most damage in the bottoms and along the timber lines.

CORN

Late planted corn made very rapid and healthy growth. The early planted is now in roasting ears in the northern counties, while the grain is hardening in the southern portion of the state. There is now enough moisture in the ground to make the early planted, and an average yield is assured.

WHEAT, RYE AND OATS

Spring oats, which made a light crop, are now nearly all harvested. Grain in the shock was not injured by the rain, but in few localities in the northern portion was damaged by being scattered by high winds. The rainfall, however, greatly delayed threshing.

RYE

Rye is generally in good condition and growing nicely.

SUGAR CANE

Sugar cane is making good growth.

MISCELLANEOUS

Festures, hay lands and forage crops are in excellent condition. Cattle are in a thriving condition. There was too much rain for tomatoes to ripen properly.

AN OPEN LETTER

To Delegates and Friends Attending Twenty-First International Convention, Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, Denver, Colo., July 9-13, 1903.

As offering the better facilities and being most convenient for the great majority of delegates and friends, we have selected the International and Great Northern and Fort Worth and Denver City railroads as THE OFFICIAL ROUTE from Texas points to Denver for our Twenty-First International Convention, to be held July 9-13, inclusive.

All who are desirous of the advantages of the Special Arrangements made for the trip should purchase through trip tickets from their home stations, reading via Fort Worth and "THE DENVER ROAD" arranging to depart from Fort Worth at 9:45 a. m., July 7. Tickets will be on sale at all Coupon Ticket Offices July 5, 6 and 7, at rate of One Fare plus $2.00 for the round trip, and will be good for return passage until Aug. 31. Holders of tickets routed via "THE DENVER ROAD" as above, will be allowed stopovers at pleasure, both going and returning at all points north of and including Trinidad, Colo.

Through Pullman Palace Drawing Room Sleeping Cars will be operated from Galveston, Houston, Waco and Fort Worth, with connecting Sleepers from San Antonio, Austin, also through Sleepers from New Orleans and Shreveport, La., and Dallas, Tex., via Texas and Pacific Railway, in which berths will be assigned in the order in which applications are received.

Meals en route will be served in "THE DENVER ROAD'S" Handsomely Equipped Cafe Cars (in cars) and at reasonable prices, affording every one plenty of time and fullest enjoyment in a leisurely way and at nominal expense. Side-trip excursions from Denver to the many beautiful spots in Colorado will be available at very low rates during and at the close of the Convention.

A full itinerary of the trip, showing all the arrangements in detail (which have been perfected with an eye single to the comfort of those who will accompany you) also for maps, illustrated booklets, schedules or other information, address A.
