

POPE IS NEARING THE END

Improvement Following Operation Was Not Such as the Doctors Had Hoped Would Be the Result

AT TIMES HEART

He Awoke Early and Wanted to Get to His Work—Realized He Was Very Weak. Crisis Imminent

ROME, July 8, 6:55 p. m.—The pope's condition is very grave. His doctors are alarmed at the continued weakness, which is complicated by certain functional disorders. His holiness is restless and drowsy, frequently falling asleep.

CAUSED BY PRESSURE

ROME, July 8, 9:40 a. m.—As a consequence of the operation performed yesterday the cyanosis of the last finger joint has disappeared, proving that it was caused by vitiated circulation, due to pressure of the pleura on the lungs.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL

LONDON, July 8.—A special dispatch from Rome, filed at 3:20 p. m., says that the pope had another fainting fit today and that the action of the heart is very feeble, and that his condition has again become very critical.

WEAKNESS IS INCREASING

PARIS, July 8.—A dispatch from Rome says: The condition of the pope has become worse since morning, and his weakness is increasing hour by hour. He is only intermittently conscious and a catastrophe is imminent.

EXTREME UNCTION FOR DYING POPE

BERLIN, July 8.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Rome says the condition of the pope has suddenly become worse and Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli has been called in to administer absolute intinction mortis. The end is said to be immediately impending.

HIS CONDITION IS NOT SATISFACTORY

ROME, July 8.—As can be seen by the morning bulletins the pope's condition today is not so favorable as last night, due to the fact that the improvement after the operation yesterday has not assumed the proportions the doctors wished. While the inflammation of the lungs is decreasing the patient's general condition has not improved and there is a tendency towards radical change for the worse. The pontiff is extremely weak and even chills occur. It is a popular belief in the church that extreme unction brings with it the grace of a happy death or a speedy recovery.

ALL CHURCHES TO GO IN MOURNING

The entire Catholic people of America and the world will go in mourning should the pope die. Every church, mission and chapel will be draped in black and prayers offered. Immediately on the official communication from the apostolic legation at Washington telling of the pope's death, the archbishops will order their suffragan bishops to have their churches draped and the pastors their flocks. A day will be set apart for a memorial mass. Every church, chapel and mission in America will have this memorial service. Prayers will be offered daily. The service will be continued every day until a new pope is elected.

ROME, July 8, 6:30 a. m.—The only nourishment Pope Leo now seems to prefer is the yolk of an egg mixed with Marsala.

ALL CROWNS ASK ABOUT THE PONTIFF

ROME, July 8.—The arrival of telegrams from all parts of the world addressed to the pontiff has been so numerous that the ministers of posts and telegraphs have been obliged to recall clerks who had gone on their vacation to attend to the mail service. In the transmission, delivering and replying to dispatches to and from the pope, Emperor William, King Edward, King Leopold, King Alfonso and the queen mother, the Prince of Monte Negro, Emperor Francis Joseph, the King of Saxony and King Carlos of Portugal make frequent inquiries by telegraph as to the condition of Pope Leo.

ROME, July 8.—The candidates chiefly spoken of are Cardinal Rampolla and Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli. They are both representatives of the conservative policy, but are antagonists of each other.

ARE WE THE CHILDREN OF NATURE?

Who can but admire the beautiful things in nature—the glory of the landscape, the trees, the meadows, the beauty of the sea and heaven? When we can admire we know that we are children of nature. The earth has nourished us through unknown ages of human existence. A mystical bond of sympathy connects us with the earth. It is not true that the earth supplies us with everything that we really require for existence? We can live on vegetables and fruit which the earth produces. We would probably be better off to-day as a race without meat. Have you ever thought that it is probable that the earth supplied us with the means to keep our bodily vigor, our health, if we only knew it? The animals know by instinct what is good for them and will search until they find in some plant what they need for correcting indigestion or constipation, etc. Is it therefore not probable that there are roots and herbs supplied by nature which will cure the diseases that afflict human kind? That is why we have such faith in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Years ago when Dr. Pierce was in general and active practice he found that a combination of certain herbs and roots made into an alterative extract, without the use of alcohol, would always put the stomach into a healthy condition, nourish the tissues, feed the blood and nerves and put healthy tone into the whole system. This "Medical Discovery" is an "all-around tonic," which restores tone to the blood, nerves, organs; restores nutrition by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart, lungs and liver on rich, red blood. In this way, vitality is increased, and one can resist the outward attack of all germ diseases. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach. In pursuit of my chosen profession I found three years ago that through getting suddenly chilled and neglecting the same over and again I contracted "catarrh of the stomach." I was in the Bain, Champion Skater of Manitoba and Quebec, of 271 Balmoral Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba. "I also found that the frequent strains told on my nervous system, causing acute dyspepsia and extreme nervousness. The trouble grew worse and worse until I realized I would have to give up my work altogether, when I was advised, to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to drive the poison out of my system and restore its equilibrium. I am pleased to say that within six weeks after I first began taking it I was once more in fine health. The rheumatism had disappeared and my appetite and digestion were all that could be desired. I now have nerves like steel and am glad to give highest endorsement to your very efficacious medicine. We advise anyone wishing a Common Sense cure, of ordinary diseases and their cure, of physiology, anatomy, and everything pertaining to the human system, to read "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," which is now in its sixty-first edition—as it costs only the amount required for postage, send twenty-one cents in one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or thirty-one cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

COMMON SENSE MEDICATION. No one ever takes cold unless congested, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. Tonics consisting of large portions of alcohol, iron or cod liver oil do not bring the desired changes in the blood, because they do not enter the system and are not absorbed into the blood, with the exception of the alcohol, which shrivels up the red blood corpuscles when it does come in contact with them. We recommend this botanical extract of Dr. Pierce's because it contains no alcohol, because it contains a reasonable and scientific method of treating the blood, improving the nutritive functions of the patient. The "Golden Medical Discovery" accomplishes this, by first restoring the exhausted digestive organs, so that food, the natural tissue builder, will be digested and assimilated. For there is always present in these cases, loss of appetite and lack of sufficient nourishment to replenish the waste of tissue.

UNUSUAL CASES IN CITY COURT. Law Partners on Opposite Sides in One Trial—Woman Puzzles the Police Department. When the case of Mrs. Annie Spear was called in the corporation court this morning, it went over for a peculiar reason. The woman was arrested on a charge of intoxication but the police now are in doubt as to whether her condition was due to strong drink or to a mental ailment. "We are waiting to find out," said one of the officers, "testimony that when that it is a case of intoxication; if it doesn't we will figure it out as mental unsoundness." A stubborn battle between partners developed when the case of Lee Mallory, a negro, charged with vagrancy, was called. Assistant City Attorney Roy is at the head of his father who is seriously ill and T. W. Dunn is acting as city prosecutor. His law partner, W. H. Slay, represented Mallory. It appeared from the officers' testimony that when Mallory was arrested he was playing "seven up" with a negro. He testified that he arrived in Fort Worth at 10 o'clock Monday morning and was arrested at 1 o'clock the same afternoon, also that he worked from 10 to 12 o'clock that same day. After considerable argument Judge Prewett took the case under advisement pending an inquiry to learn if the negro's story was true. NOT GIVEN TIME TO GET WORK. Will Cunningham was charged with vagrancy. "I don't hardly know how to plead," he said, addressing the court. "I have just worked a term on the same charge. I worked on the city chain gang, serving out my fine, up to yesterday morning, when I was released. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon I was re-arrested." The case was filed. The Mexican who yesterday was christened Anton Gorilla by the clerk of the court who was unable to make out his real name, recovered yesterday afternoon sufficiently to make bond. He did not appear in court this morning and was reported as having left town. A plea of guilty was entered for him and he was fined $1 and costs, which will be deducted from the money he left with the police clerk. J. R. Robertson was charged with intoxication. "Your honor, will you go to Mineral Wells and take the cure? you will let me off," he pleaded. On his promise to take the train this afternoon for Mineral Wells he was permitted to go. Max Dworkin, 13, and small for his age, was up on a charge of trespass. He "bounced" trains in the Santa Fe yards. Judge Prewett administered a sharp lecture and let the lad go. PLYMOUTH, Mass., July 8.—In order to complete the task begun at the meeting held in Nashville last January the members of the commission representing the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church, South, appointed to prepare a hymn-book for use in both churches are gathering at Plymouth for a second meeting, which will be of several days' duration. The new book will contain 800 hymns, about half of which have been selected. It is in order to select the remaining half that the present meeting is held. MARKET TODAY

NORTH FORT WORTH, Wednesday, July 8.—The light receipts of cattle today did not lend much encouragement to a good market and with the exception of steers the general market was weak to the lower. Late arrivals increased yesterday's receipts to about 3,000 head, a good number of which were held over for the market today.

Today's steer receipts were the lightest of any day this week, and generally sold steadily to a shade higher, while the heavy run of cows and calves sold slow and weak at the lower. One good 960-pound cow sold to a local butcher with the medium quality butchers selling at $1.90 to $1.75.

The receipts of calves today were liberal and sold weak and lower. Good fancy vealers are quoted at $3.50 to $3.75, with the common to fair kind at $2.25 to $2.50. Hog receipts today were fairly liberal and sold slow to the lower. On the morning market yesterday light receipts and late reports from the north gave the market some strength and the two bases received early sold steady to strong, but the afternoon market closed low. Today's receipts were the first bid offered by the buyers, and the early market was slow and drab, with only three cars sold up until 11 o'clock.

Choice heavy sorted hogs are quoted today at $5.00 to $5.75, with mixed packers at $4.50 to $5.00, light grades, $3.25 to $4.00, choice pigs $1.75 to $1.55, and stags and roughs at $1.45.

No sheep were received today and there was no market.

Following are today's quotations:

Choice fed steers	$2.50 to $2.60
Medium fed steers	$2.00 to $2.50
Good grassers	$3.00 to $3.50

Choice heavy fed cows	$2.75 to $3.00
Medium butcher cows	$1.75 to $2.50
Light thin cows	$1.50 to $1.75
Canners	$1.25 to $1.50

POPE NEARING THE END

stonists, Benedictines and the Trappists a strict fast will be observed until the new pope shall have been elected.

CEREMONIES WHICH FOLLOW POPE'S DEATH

As soon as the pope has breathed his last amidst the consolation of religion, and after making his profession of faith in presence of the cardinal grand-penitentiary—who usually administers the last sacraments—and of the more intimate members of his court, the cardinal chamberlain of the holy Roman church, accompanied and assisted by the right reverend clerks of the apostolic chamber, takes possession of the palace and causes a careful inventory to be made of every article that is found in the papal apartments.

He then proceeds to the chamber of death, in which the pope still lies, and instructs a notary to certify to the fact, that he is really dead. He also receives from the grand chamberlain of the court—Mgr. Maestro di Camera—a purse containing the fisherman's ring which his holiness had used in his office of chamberlain of the holy Roman church, has become the executive of the government, sends an order to the senator of Rome, who is always a layman and member of a patrician family, to have the large bell of the campanile tower tolled, at which lugubrious toll the bells of all the churches throughout the city are sounded.

Twenty-four hours after death, the body of the pope is embalmed and lies in state, dressed in the ordinary or domestic costume, upon a bed covered with cloth of crimson and gold, the pious offices of washing and dressing the body being performed by the penitentiaries or confessors of the vatican basilica, who are always minor conventuals of the Franciscan order.

TO SISTINE CHAPEL

It is next removed to the Sistine chapel, where it lies out, on a couch surrounded with burning tapers and watched by a detachment of the Swiss guard. On the following day the cardinals and chapter of St. Peter assemble in the Sistine and accompany the transport of the body to the chapel of the Blessed Sacrament in the vatican basilica, where it remains exposed for three days, the feet protruding a little through an opening in the iron railing which closes the chapel, that the faithful may approach and kiss the embowered slipper.

The anniversary of the death of the pope is observed in the vatican basilica, and a moderate business. Receipts, 9,100, all of which was American; sales, 6,000, 5,400 bales of which were American.

THE REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

The report of the finance committee will be heard before adjournment today. The report of the secretary, George W. Loudermilk of Dallas, will show a total receipt of $233,000 for the past year. The report of Treasurer M. Rains of Marshall showed a balance on hand of $39 from last year. The expenditures during the past year were $188.80. The reports of the most prosperous condition of the association, particularly regarding finances.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

During the morning session the legislative committee, comprising C. B. Sutherland, J. T. Cotton, W. L. Norwood and Ed C. Smith, reported the success of the work which had been assigned to it. The members of the association were all familiar with the details of the passage of the new law, which the association has been dealing at the present season. It provides for more stringent regulations for those practicing embalming. The report of the committee was formally accepted.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Following the report of the legislative committee, John W. Wright of Temple delivered his annual address, dwelling at length upon the new law which will soon be having effect. He stated particularly those who have labored so successfully which has come to the association.

A CHARTER MEMBER

Ed C. Smith of Dallas, ex-president of the association, addressed the meeting this morning. Mr. Smith was the first president of the association, when it was organized in Fort Worth sixteen years ago, with a charter membership of only twenty members. Today has nearly two hundred, and quite naturally ex-President Smith, who has labored so assiduously for the maintenance and upbuilding of the association, could comment with pride on what has been accomplished.

COMPLIMENTS FROM FRANCIS

P. D. Francis, manager of the Embalmers Monthly, published at Chicago, spoke at length on the progress of the association in Texas. He assured its members that they have today the best law of any state in the Union. He told them that while they have labored long and faithfully to get it they have been rewarded for all the time and energy which the faithful members have devoted to the work. Mr. Francis' remarks were especially complimentary to the Texas association and are so appreciated by every member who heard him this morning.

A WORKER FROM CORSICANA

C. B. Sutherland of Corsicana, ex-president of the association, was also called upon for an address at the morning session. Mr. Sutherland's father was one of the first fourteen members of the association in Texas, and he himself has been a member all the time with the exception of the first year. His association with the society placed him in a position in which he very effectively told of the many advantages of the organization and of its gradual growth to its present membership.

OUTLINE PROGRAM

The entire day tomorrow will be devoted to lectures and demonstrations by the members of the association, and on Friday, July 10, officers for the ensuing year will be elected and the business of the convention terminated. The selection of a place of meeting next year.

THE REAL BOYCOTT

Beaumont's citizens association has been investigating alleged boycotts in that town, and a report has been made that in some instances boycott exists. That is true of every town, and labor unions are not responsible for all boycotts. The labor union member says he has no patience with any establishment. That is the announced policy of his organization. The real boycott is the one which is not so publicly announced but which is persistently maintained. The Beaumont Journal expressed it by saying: "There has never been a day since the paper has been under the present ownership that there has not been some element of Beaumont citizenship endeavoring to wreck the paper by withholding their patronage, and frequently the aggrieved parties made vigorous campaigns with the view of inducing their friends to pursue a similar policy. While the Journal has at all times been cognizant of these boycotts, it never permitted them to excite nor serve it from duty as perceived. ... The political boycott is the most serious with which the Journal has had to contend, but there are others among those could be mentioned two merchants who were conspicuous in organizing the Citizens' Association. They have maintained a persistent boycott against the Journal for four years. ... The Journal knows that the policy has cost them dollars where it has cost the paper cents. It is the newspaper which is more often the victim of the boycott. If the paper happens to publish a criticism which does not particularly please a certain man, the certain man withdraws his patronage. If a certain policy is followed, one class refuses business. If another policy, the other class withdraws patronage. If it is on Pierce and has no policy, the two are considered."

AN UNKIND ASSAULT

Judge McLean of Fort Worth, campaign manager for Governor Lanham last year, was hired by the school book trust to go to Austin and help it to manage the governor and the other members of the text book commission. The above reference to Judge McLean is as unkind as it is untrue. Those who know the governor and his former campaign manager know them to be men who will not be "hired" for such purposes or "maneuvered" in such a matter. The integrity of other members of the commission cannot be questioned. Governor Lanham is a member of the text book board by virtue of a law passed by the legislature and so much confidence was had in the personality of the governor that the law provided that he alone was excepted when others are required to make oath when they are not now and have never been connected with a book publishing house. No man in Texas believes that Governor Lanham could be "influenced" to select books because those books were represented by a friend. The error has shown very plainly that it is not the governor all by himself and that he is not being dictated to. He is broad minded, he is conscientious and he is honest. The manner in which he has undertaken this difficult work has shown that he is endeavoring to do his duty. He is too much a citizen of Texas to take any action which would put undesirable books in the hands of the children of this state. Judge McLean went to Austin in his capacity as attorney, and as an attorney he made an argument before the text book board. He does not profess a technical knowledge of text books, but he believed that his clients had a legal standing before that board and he stated it. Those who heard his address complimented it, so the newspaper reports say. Judge McLean, the attorney, should be allowed to separate his profession from the personality attached to the pleasure he has in managing the campaign of his friend without exciting suspicion in the minds of fair minded people. The record he has of giving up public office voluntarily to resume his law practice shows that he is a lawyer and not a politician. The Telegram is not interested in the books of any company. The board should select those which will best educate the children, and it is believed such a board will do just that thing.

THE FUNERAL DIRECTORS

The funeral directors of Texas are welcome to Fort Worth. The people of this magnificent municipality, which claims distinction because it is a railroad center, headquarters for the southwest for the live stock industry, location of two great packing houses, an immense grain elevator, many wholesale establishments, etc., are glad to have you come here for your business deliberations. They want you to look about you, to gather information of the town and remember it when you go home, so that you can tell it to your neighbors. Every delegate to the convention has a state pride, and that state pride will make him proud of Fort Worth, because Fort Worth is a big thing for Texas. This city has no rival. It occupies a position peculiarly different from other towns, and this position gives it natural advantages. These advantages would be valueless if given into the keeping of a people who neglected opportunities, but this people is of the enterprising, progressive, go-ahead kind, and accepting their advantages, they have built here a city which is a benefit to all Texas. Industries which are necessary to this state and the states and territories adjoining have been invited to come here, have been urged and encouraged, and all Texas is the beneficiary. Gentlemen, bear all this in mind when you tell at home what you have seen. The Telegram wishes you a pleasant and profitable stay. Your profession is a necessary one and that you should join together to perfect yourselves by discussion and demonstration indicates your desire to do your duty well. Fort Worth extends you a joyous welcome. Come often.

Secretary of State John Hay is seriously offended because the president will not agree to an alliance with Russia, and has consented to send the petition of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith to the czar. Mr. Hay evidently thinks he is greater than the people. The request made upon the president comes from the people of the country. They are guaranteed the right of petition and they have exercised that right in requesting the executive to forward a document officially to the ruler all the Russias. It is only through the president that this can be done. If Mr. Roosevelt does as the people have requested he is but carrying out the will of his creators and they have a right to have their wishes respected. If the czar becomes offended, the American people will back up the president. It was at the request of the people that interference for humanity's sake occurred in Cuba. When Spain resented it, the American people shouldered arms and backed up the action they had taken through their official representatives. There has long been a suspicion that Mr. Hay was leaning toward alliances with foreign princes and potentates, and it begins to look like this suspicion was well founded.

Rev. R. J. Briggs of Austin has stirred up the Capital City by his repudiation of the orthodox doctrine of hell, and his church is crowded every Sunday with sinners and saints, every one of whom wants to find out where he is located on the question—whether he is to go to a tottemless pit if sinner or get a harp and crown if saint. Summed up, the minister's doctrine is given in his own words: "The doctrine which I repudiate is the orthodox doctrine of 'hell,' which still stands in the systematic theology of the churches as it was given by Tertullian, St. Augustine, Thomas Aquinas and others—a place of endless torment and hopeless retribution on which men enter at the moment of death. I want to show you today that this doctrine is not remotely hinted in the Old Testament Scriptures. Bob Ingersoll went about the country destroying ideals, but he could not offer anything in place of that which his iconoclastic hand pulled down. There is some comfort in believing all about this torment and realizing that you have lived just good enough to miss it. It is also a very good plan to offer a better theory when you show that the one of general belief is not theoretical. The Houston Post cherishes the hope and makes the prediction that the high price of cotton will continue to obtain when the farmer markets his crop. It is to be hoped the Post is right. The Post basis its opinion on the reports of the crop. The Telegram has observed that in the summer time, when farmers are trimming out weeds and watching for bolts that every buyer in the country wants the staple and is willing to pay for it. He generally bases his bid on the "bad crop reports." But along in September, when the farmer comes to town with a few bales, he finds that the bulls have taken a vacation and the bears are in complete control. The fellow who wrote reports of a short crop all summer has been interfered with by a "closed season" for his kind and cotton is down again. High prices look good on the blackboard of the commission house in the good old summer time, but they disappear when the leaves begin to fall.

Dallas is hard to satisfy. For years the people there have been dissatisfied because the Texas and Pacific trains whistle for a crossing and rush through the town, and every effort has been put forth to make the Trinity navigable, in opposition to the railroad. The government has taken the matter up, an engineer has examined the stream, a volunteer river observer was appointed, and immediately a large stage of water followed. Now the Dallas people and Dallas papers are complaining. They have too much water. They have built houses, bridges and railroads where they expected to float boats and the result is that a navigable depth is called a flood. Country people always look up at high buildings and stand in awe of a sheet of water. President Roosevelt should bear in mind that something always happens when he is absent from Washington. The post-office scandal was unearthed while he was junketing in the west and since he has been at Oyster Bay Secretary Hay has become seriously offended and will resign. The Dallas Times-Herald thinks Tom Johnson will be William Jennings Bryan's candidate for president next year. The information is very satisfactory, as far as it goes, but please advise by return mail whom the democrats will nominate. The undertakers have discovered they are in a real live town and can forget business and devote the days of their stay to pleasure. No dead ones here. While the embalmers are welcome to Fort Worth, they are assured that little business in their line is necessary here. The place is too healthy. Fort Worth does not even embalm her beef.

The Beaumont Journal is boasting that the street car strike indicates the town is a metropolis. Come to Fort Worth and you will see a metropolitan town without strikes.

If the English ladies succeed in having I eliminated from the English language, what will the Commoner do?

A man with a family depending upon him for protection who refuses to take any care of his premises in sanitary matters has dropped his back toward the savage state and is regarded as a poor sort of citizen by his civilized neighbors. —Abilene Reporter.

Suppose you enlarge that remark and say every man, instead of men with families. This sanitary question is important in small towns and large ones.

Mr. Brown of New Orleans might do well to consult Joseph Lister of Chicago. The latter is in a position to give Brown some good safe pointers on "corners." —Terrell Transcript.

Texas would think a great deal more of Mr. Brown of New Orleans if he would build the cotton market at a time when cotton is in the hands of producers. High prices for futures do not help the farmer when those futures become his spots.

The doctors swear there are millions of bacilli bugs in a man's mustache. Girls, don't you know from experience the old sawbones lie? —Texarkana Courier.

Well, to be on the safe side, there are a few hairless Jews left so the girls needn't suffer. The Courier man is evidently possessed of a "handsome mustache."

The leader writer of the Times-Herald laid great stress upon the fact that "hen lays on." The paragraph writer has always labored under the delusion that the hen lays eggs, but is glad even at this day to be informed of his mistake. —Dallas Times-Herald.

The hen rarely lays off the nest; therefore, she must lay on.—Denison Herald.

And talking of hens, a bad hen produces a hen or rooster all right.—Houston Chronicle.

Not at all. It is the bad actor who occasions the presence of a bad egg.—Austin Tribune.

Just keep this paragraph going, and you will soon have a dozen eggs. These are not half bad.

The Signal hopes some day to see a supreme court—the very highest and biggest and most powerful that can be made—sitting at Austin during sessions of the legislature under the authority to pass upon the constitutionality of proposed laws. Then we want matters changed considerably. When a bill is brought up for consideration, instead of referring it to a committee, send it to the supreme court. If it fails to meet the constitutional requirements the court can say so and the bill be dropped without further expense to the state or worry to the people. No factory sends out a piece of machinery without first testing it, and it seems to us the height of folly to put a law into force before it is passed upon by competent authority.—Honey Grove Signal.

What guarantee have you that the supreme court will not reverse itself on these laws, as it has done on law points in various cases. Let the legislature go ahead, and they will keep lawyers busy; lawyers test laws if clients are willing.

The president sent a message around the world in nine minutes.—Mineral Wells Index.

He got one to Mark Hanna in quicker time than nine minutes recently and Ohio indorsed him for renomination.

Will some of the book agents kindly explain to the text-book board why American children and the children of other Texas cities have to pay 35 cents for a schoolbook that children living just outside the city limits pay only 22 cents for? —Austin Tribune.

Books adopted by the state board are sold at a fixed price. The city schools choose to do their own selecting and do not get the benefit of state prices, because they are different books. No company will print books for 1,000 children at a rate as low as for 10,000. Let Austin bring her municipality into the fold of the uniform system.

GRAUSTARK GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

True to his word, when they reached Edelweiss late that afternoon Sitzky, Grenfell Lorry, a wealthy American globe trotter stumbles into acquaintance with a charming foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair get left at the station when the "Flyer" goes for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry wires ahead to hold the train at the next town. He hires a wagon to drive them the intervening four miles. They catch the train. Lorry learns the young lady's name is Miss Guggenlocker and her companions are her uncle and aunt. They arrive in Washington and Lorry is asked to breakfast with the trio. They leave for New York. Lorry spends a day trying to work, but gives it up and rushes to New York hoping to catch a farewell glimpse of Miss Guggenlocker before she sails. Just as the Kaiser Wilhelm steams away he catches sight of her and throws a kiss from the tips of his fingers. To his great surprise the gesture is returned. (Continued From Yesterday.)

"De're frontier police guards," responded the man in English, smiling at their astonishment. Both Americans rose and shook hands with him. "By George, it's good to hear a man talk white man's language," cried Anguish. "How do you come to be holding a job on this road? An Englishman?" demanded Lorry. He looked anything but English. "I'm not an Englishman," said the guard, flushing slightly. "My name's Sitzky, an' I'm an American, sir."

"An American!" exclaimed Lorry. Sitzky grew eloquent. "Sure! I used to be a sailor on a United States man-of-war. A couple of years ago I got into trouble down at Constantinople an' had to get out of de service. After dat I drifted up dis way and went to railroadin'." He hadn't exactly the manner of a man-of-warman. "How long have you been on this road?" asked Grenfell. "But a year, I should t'ink. Been on dis branch only two months, duh. 'Are you pretty well acquainted in Edelweiss?"

"Oh, I run in dere every other day—in an' out ag'in. It's a fine place—puttlest you ever saw in your life. The town runs right up the mountain to the t'iptop, where the monks are—clear up in de clouds. De say it snows up dere almost all de time." Later on from the loquacious guard the two Americans learned quite a good bit about the country and city to which they were going. His knowledge was somewhat limited along certain lines, but quite clear as to others. "Dis Graustark, 'er fer as I know, is eeder a sort of state or somethin' be'login' to de empire, governed by its own rulers. Edelweiss is de capital; de big guns of de land lays dere. I've walked out an' saw de castle where de princess an' de royalty hangs out. De people speak a language of deir own, an' I can't get next to a ting dey say. But once in a while you find some guy dat talks French or German. De've got a little standin' army of two t'ree t'ousand men, an' de've got de hottest uniforms you ever did see—red an' black an' gold. I don't see why de United States can't get up somethin' foxy fer her soldiers to wear. Had a war over here not long ago, I understand—somethin' like t'ree t'reen years ago. Dere's another little country up north of Graustark, an' dey got in a wrangle 'bout somethin', an' dey tell me in Edelweiss dat for 'bout a year dey fought like Sam Patch."

"Which was victorious?" demanded Lorry, deeply interested. "I'm not sure. To hear de Edelweiss people talk you'd t'ink dey licked de daylight out of de other slob, but somehow I got next to de fact dat dem other fellows captured de city an' went after a slashin' big war indemnity. I don't know much 'bout it, an' maybe I'm clear off, but I t'ink de Graustark army was t'rashed. Everything is prosperous now, duh, an' you'd never know dere'd been a war. It's de most peaceable town I ever saw." "Did you ever hear of de Guggenlockers?" asked the irrepressible Anguish, and Lorry felt like kicking him. "In Edelweiss? Never did. Friends of yours?"

"Acquaintances," interposed Lorry hastily, frowning at Anguish. "You won't have any trouble findin' 'em if dere anybody at 'all," said Sitzky easily. "De hotel people ought to be able to tell you all 'bout 'em." "By de way, what is de best hotel dere?" asked Anguish. "Dere's de Burrows, one block north of de depot." The travelers looked at one another and smiled, Sitzky observing the action. "Oh," he said pleasantly, "dere's a swell joint up-town called de Regenzet. It's too steep fer me, but maybe you gents can stand it. If you'll hang around de depot fer a little while after we get in I'll steer you up dere." "We'll make it worth your while, Sitzky," said Lorry. "Never mind dat now. Americans ought to stick together, no matter where dey are. We'll have a drink an' 'at's all, just to show we're fellow countrymen."

"We'll have several drinks, and we'll eat and drink tonight at the 'swell joint' you talk about," said Anguish. "De'y may drink dere, but I'll go eat dere. De'y wouldn't let a railroad guard inside de feedin' pen. Why, nothin' but royal gys eat dere when de'y're downtown shoppin' or exposin' de'—down to public meals."

SOME FACTS ABOUT FT. WORTH UNIVERSITY

Central Christian Advocate Tells of the Foundation of a Fine School and the Results of the Work of Several Years

The following from the Central Christian Advocate in reference to a Fort Worth institution will be especially interesting: Fort Worth University, so long as we have known it, has not sought to build its name on anything less than absolute scholarship and Christian manliness. The teachers hold the parchments of the best universities. And their work has been of a grade so high that the institution has an enviable fame, the trophies won in intercollegiate contests being more than any other in Texas, the attendance being second only to the State University and surpassed only by seven universities in all the Methodist Episcopal church. In its professional schools it has professors and lecturers whose names are known in two hemispheres. It was our pleasure to meet the medical and law faculties at a college reception not so very far back and renew acquaintance with them. There are now in all the schools fifty-four professors and instructors, with 900 students, 10,000 bound and unbound volumes, a property conservatively valued at $200,000, and an income this last year of, we believe, $41,000.

EVOLUTION OF THE INSTITUTION. Fort Worth University was founded in 1853, its original charter bearing the name of Texas Wesleyan College. In 1855 W. H. Cannon of Philadelphia and Rev. A. A. Johnson, secretary of the trustees, were able to present to the trustees a deed to the fine campus now occupied by the institution. That year A. A. Johnson was elected president and P. M. White, who had been made president, was made dean. A fine building was erected on the campus, costing $20,000, through the energetic efforts of President Johnson, supplemented by Fort Worth enthusiasm and the staunch assistance of Mr. Cannon. President Johnson's administration abounded in energy, resource and optimism. He resigned to become president of the University of Wyoming, and for some years has been an active worker in the Colorado conference. The work which Dr. Johnson did was invaluable to the university, in increasing its equipment of buildings, broadening its scope, changing its charter to its present title of Fort Worth University and thoroughly advertising the institution through the church.

FORMER PRESIDENT FISHER. Oscar L. Fisher, A. M., D. D., was called in April, 1891, from his responsible position in the Denver churches to the presidency. He brought with him a splendid physique, a well-trained mind, a genius for executive responsibilities and a balanced judgment that won the respect and admiration of his colleagues. LAMB FLEECE FOR A PRELATE

Archbishop's Insignia Which Is to Be Conferred on Farley, Has Arrived.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The precious pallium of lamb's fleece, the insignia of the Roman Catholic archbishop, was among the possessions of Monsignor Farley, who arrived in New York today from Europe. Monsignor Farley, who was accompanied across the Atlantic by Monsignor Frederick Z. Rooker, the new bishop of Nueva Caceres, was specially delegated by the pope to convey to this country the pallium that is to be conferred on Archbishop Farley of New York two weeks from today. St. Patrick's cathedral, where the imposing ceremony is to take place, is being renovated and altered for the occasion. Scores of workmen are busily engaged in installing hundreds of electric lights which on the occasion of the conferring of the pallium will be used for the first time. The presence of eminent prelates from all parts of the country, arrayed in the gorgeous vestments of their office, will contribute to make the scene one of the most brilliant pictures ever seen in the great cathedral.

LOUBET LAID WREATH ON TOMB

President of France Paid a Tribute to Late Queen of England

LONDON, July 8.—Although President Loubet did not retire until long after midnight, he rose at the customary hour of 4:30 a. m. and started on another long day's journey about 2 o'clock, when, accompanied by Foreign Minister Delcasse, Ambassador Cambon and his suite, the president proceeded to visit Windsor castle.
He traveled in the king's train and was met at the railroad station by the mayor and the corporation of Windsor, who welcomed him to the royal borough.
The president drove to the castle, escorted by the Horse Guards, and inspected both the state and private apartments and visited the mausoleum at Frogmore, where M. Loubet deposited a wreath on Queen Victoria's tomb.
The presidential party subsequently returned to London.

A MISSING COMMA TO COST A MAN HIS LIFE

On the location of a comma and the construction of a railroad, the life of William Reiss, alias William Klein, of Indianapolis, Ind., sentenced to be hanged in Nebraska for murder.
Klein's case has been fought by influential relatives, who carried an appeal to the supreme court. In the opinion given in the case it was found that a comma, which always appeared in the printed statutes, was missing in the engrossed roll, and that this changed the whole construction of the law.
Klein's lawyers argue that such a slender barrier should not stand between a man and the gallows, and that the construction put upon punctuation was a dangerous one.
The interference of the governor can save Klein, who is to die early in July.—Omaha World-Herald.

CURIOUS CONDENSATIONS

The duke of Rutland has a record of which it would be hard to find a parallel in modern politics. He has lived to see the jubilee of his first entrance into cabinet rank, and celebrated a few years ago, the fiftieth anniversary of his first cabinet council. He was a cabinet minister before Lord Salisbury entered parliament, when Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour were learning the alphabet, and when Mr. Chamberlain was beginning his business career in his father's screw factory.
The Kentucky blue grass is confined to a circle where the dolomitic limestone of the Silurian out-crop, and the Johnson grass of the South is confined to the soils of the cretaceous.
In Chicago in May, at a time when there had been no rain for three weeks, six glass plates 2 1/2 inches square were exposed in as many streets for one minute. The plates were then incubated so that each particle of dust to which a germ was clinging would soon be surrounded with a colony of germs which could be seen and counted. The average per plate was 1,450 colonies.
On the day following nearly an inch of rain fell, and on the next day similar plates were exposed at the same street corners, which, after development, showed but 270 colonies. A good rain had diminished the number of microbes more than 80 per cent.

AUTHOR SUED FOR DAMAGES.
PARIS, July 8.—The suit resulting from a historical work about Prince Jerome came up for trial today and the outcome is awaited with much interest in literary and social circles. The work complained of mentions that a certain woman was a close friend of the prince, and some of her children are suing to have the book suppressed and to get damages. A very nice point of law is involved in the case.

OLDEST MAN IN MANITOBA

DUNDYVILLE, Man., July 8.—John McNabb of this place celebrated his 102d birthday today and is looking forward eagerly to the fall, when he expects to enjoy his customary sport of duck hunting. Mr. McNabb was born in Kildonan, and is of Scotch parentage. He has been a user of tobacco from his youth and believes the constant use of the weed has tended to lengthen rather than to shorten his life. He has spent the greater part of his life out of doors, having made more than fifty voyages from Winnipeg to York factory in the service of the Hudson's Bay Company.

CORSICANA SHUT FORT WORTH OUT

Panthers Were Unable to Hit Hise at the Right Time in Order to Score

Played an Almost Errorless Game, But No Runner Was Able to Get Near Home Plate—Waco Defeated Dallas by Same Score

Fort Worth lost the first game of the series at Corsicana yesterday after a game that was full of brilliant plays by a score of 3 to 0. The game was almost errorless, Disch and Coyle being the only men to make misplays and they were both excusable for their errors.
Buchanan pitched for the Panthers and was supported well in the field, but his team did not hit behind him. Hise held the Panthers down to four safe hits while six were made off of "Buck."
Corsicana scored three of their runs in the first and second innings, after which not a single runner crossed the plate. Fort Worth had hard luck and when there were men on bases no one was able to bring them in. At one time McMurray was on first when Reitz knocked a clean two-bagger to deep center but the ball was fielded in by McMurray and was thrown to him just in time to catch the runner as he slid in.
Roberdeau, a Corsicana player, handled the umpire's position, as there has been no new man appointed by the league.
Dallas lost a 3 to 0 game to Waco yesterday. Disch's error was a double, Barrett took on two long ones which he only got after hard runs.
In the eighth inning with two out McMurray threw off his mask and started to walk to the bench. Quick as a flash Pendleton started for home. A yell from Buchanan brought McMurray back to the game and the ball was thrown to him just in time to catch the runner as he slid in.

GIDDINGS WON IT

Match Shoot at Blue Rocks Was Held at Brenham.
BRENHAM, Texas, July 8.—The match between the Giddings team and the Brenham team, five men on a side, one hundred blue rocks each, resulted in a victory for the Giddings team. The Giddings men made a margin of fifty-seven over the Brenhamites. There will be a return shoot in Giddings before long and the home team hopes to redeem their record.
Several Giddings visitors came down to root for their team. After the shoot liquid refreshments were served.

INTERSTATE TOURNAMENT

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., July 8.—An interstate shooting tournament opened here today under the auspices of the Huntsville Gun Club and will continue three days. The many valuable prizes offered have attracted a number of prominent marksmen from various parts of the country and everything points to a highly successful tournament.
The Fort Worth colored team defeated the team from Muscogee yesterday at Haines park, by a score of 15 to 11. The game was full of brilliant plays, the ball falling safe about every other time that it was hit. The number of safe hits got so large that no account was kept of them. The Muscogee team evidently came here for a holiday excursion, as was shown by the fact that several of their players appeared on the field in patent leather shoes. The plays from Fort Worth put one pitcher out of the box in the middle of the first inning, while the man that started the game for them only lasted a couple of innings more.

A LOCAL GAME

The nine representing The Telegram will line up against the team from Turner & Dinger's this afternoon at the old Texas and Pacific park near the viaduct.
Fort Worth school teachers must tell their ages. If they have ever been confirmed tapers or users of opiates they must confess. Also, if any have wooden legs it will be necessary for them to so inform the medical examiner of the school board.
It was determined at a meeting of the school trustees held yesterday afternoon that these and a lot of other questions must be asked applicants for positions as teachers in the public schools.
Dr. L. A. Suggs was appointed medical examiner. Mayor Powell, ex-officio chairman; Trustees Van Zandt, Tucker, Thompson, Zurn and Sprinkle were present. The following is the list of questions to be asked applicants:
1. Age?
2. Race and nationality?
3. Married, single or widowed?
4. What has been your occupation during the past ten years?
5. Any consumption in the family, i. e., among uncles, aunts, brothers, sisters or parents?
6. Are you in perfect health so far as you know?
7. What is your practice as regards the use of spirits, wines, malt liquors or other alcoholic beverage?
8. Have you ever been a free drinker?
9. Have you now, or ever had any habit of taking opium, morphine, chloral, coca or other so-called narcotic drug?
10. Have you ever taken treatment for alcoholic or narcotic habit?
11. Height? (In shoes).
12. Height? (In shoes).

General Debility

Day in, and out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself. Food does not strengthen. Sleep does not refresh. It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy.—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers. For this condition take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes the blood, gives vigor and tone to all the organs and functions, and is positively unequalled for all run-down or debilitated conditions.
HOOD'S PILLS cure constipation. 25 cents.

New Schedules for Katy Trains Said to Be Contemplated for August 1

WILL AFFECT THE FLYER

Local Trains Included in New Arrangements—Road After World's Fair Business—Sunday Rates and General Notes

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas is anticipating a number of important changes in its passenger schedule, beginning Aug. 1. The time of the Katy Flyer will be materially reduced and it is said No. 4, which at present arrives in Fort Worth at 10:55 p. m., will be changed to 8:30. This would give an arrival at Kansas City at about 2:30 p. m. instead of 5:40, as at present. The advantage would afford passengers for the northwest direct connections with all evening trains out of Kansas City.

The reduction of the Katy's schedule, it is said, will be made possible by the extension of the service of trains No. 1 and No. 2 on to Houston and Galveston. At present they do not go further than Taylor, thus leaving the local work from that point to Houston and Galveston for the Flyer. A great saving of time, it is said, will be gained by this arrangement.

At present the Flyer is quoted as having said that while he is not in a position to give out any definite figures, it has been settled that the present scheduled time of the Katy Flyer from South Texas to St. Louis would be cut down about three hours, and that an elaborate service, comparable to any in the west, would be installed. During the past year numerous improvements of different sorts have been made all along the line, both with the end of bettering the roadbed and improving the transportation facilities. The roadbed is now in excellent condition and the inauguration of a faster schedule becomes both practicable and necessary.

A STRONG COMPETITOR

With the inauguration of the new schedule the Katy will compete for the San Antonio business between Galveston, Houston and San Antonio. The present connection with the San Antonio and Aransas Pass at Waco will be abandoned and the Katy will run its own trains direct from Galveston to San Antonio. The Katy Flyer, which now leaves Galveston at 8 p. m. by the new schedule, will not leave Galveston until about 10 o'clock. The Flyer out of San Antonio will receive a corresponding setback in time and will pick up the St. Louis sleeper from Galveston and Houston at Smithville in the past. The Galveston train will then proceed to San Antonio direct. By the inauguration of the new schedule the Katy will become a strong competitor of the Southern Pacific and San Antonio and Aransas Pass for the Houston-Galveston-San Antonio business.

ALONG DENVER ALL IS WHEAT

Telegram's Staff Man Tells About Crops in the Panhandle

(Staff man en route.)

CLARENDON, Texas, July 8.—A wheat field nearly 200 miles long and as wide as the eye can see on either side of the car is one of the great sights that the average Texan may see without going outside the borders of the state.

The big field starts soon after the Denver passenger leaves Fort Worth, and from there until Chillicothe is reached nothing save wheat is to be seen. Most of it is in the shock, some has already been thrashed and only yellow stubble and awkwardly shaped mounds of straw are left. The wheat that remains, while still other fields are yet uncut.

But it is all wheat. The sun rises in a yellow sea and the moonlight turns the stubble to gold, while the prosperous farmer's house fixed in the middle of a big field, is the only thing to relieve the monotonous picture of Texas prosperity.

Between Chillicothe and Caldwell there is less wheat and more corn. There is also some cotton, not very far along, but promising enough if rain is not denied. The corn is for the most part tasselled and the prospect is in good condition, though the cattle still show the effects of a hard winter.

Between Childress and Clarendon corn is well advanced and farmers are still cultivating. A. W. G.

GUINAMAN HAS A FINE CROP

Gainesville Celestial Shipping Cabbages to Market in Large Lots

GAINESVILLE, Texas, July 8.—Chin Geon, an enterprising Chinaman of this city, owns a farm six miles south of Gainesville. His principal product this year is cabbages, and he has had good success. Thus far he has shipped 7,000 head, some of which weighed twelve pounds, and the season has just fairly opened. He has also shipped several hundred bushels of onions, for which he received a good price.

There were shipped from Gainesville yesterday 600 crates of tomatoes, 10,000 pounds of cabbage, sixty crates of blackberries, fifty boxes of peaches, seventy-five boxes of plums, fifty bushels of apples, and beans, squash and cucumbers too numerous to mention.

The express agents have had about all the business they can handle in the way of fruits and vegetables this season. Grain receipts have been rather light since the rains of last week.

One night later. The same couple, and still in love, and in the park. Nay, they had just come in. This time they were holding down a bench in an arbor so dusky that an Ethiopian would have looked like a ghost in it.

"Aren't the electric lights grand?" cooed she. "They cast such nice dark shadows."

San Francisco Druggists Write to This City

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22, 1903.—H. T. Pangburn & Co.—Dear Sirs: As San Francisco druggists personally acquainted with the facts we are asked to certify to you the curability of chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes, and however unreasonable it may seem to you, yet such is the fact. Up to a year ago we never heard of a genuine case of chronic Bright's Disease or Diabetes recovering. Now it is a common occurrence in this city. A great discovery has undoubtedly been made. Many prominent people here have recovered and every one of us whose names are appended hereto have either had genuine chronic cases now recovering. And the percentage of efficiency seems to be very high, for there are very few failures. Yours, etc., and many others.

is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: "I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me. In eighteen months ago and have not had a touch of the piles since."—H. A. Tideland, Summerton, S. C. For Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. "It Takes the Cake" is the usual favorable comment on the superb laundry work turned out at The Fort Worth Steam Laundry. The best of linen and other materials are easily ruined by careless and indifferent laundering. We cannot and do not hope to retain your patronage by slipshod work, and the best is none too good here.

The Hurry and Hustle of Work Often Causes Ill Results

People nowadays work the body too hard. Out-of-door work pushed to excess, is hard on the back and kidneys. So is sedentary work over a desk.

H. E. Mills of 1402 Main street, one of the oldest railroad men of Texas, who recently came here from Denison, says: "I am very glad to add my testimony to that of many other Fort Worth citizens who have publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills."

The everyday work done by railroad men is, as everybody knows, very hard on the kidneys. I was employed for years in the Denison yards on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, and about two years ago I strained my back in some way and was laid up for several days.
