NEWS OF A REVOLT IS COLLECTING

ED THAT THE INSURREC-D A FORTNIGHT EARLIER TION WAS PRECIPITATETHE OPINION IS EXPRESS THAN THE CHIEF INTENDED, LEADERS BEING DISCONCERTED

RAILWAYS ASK FOR PROTECTION

The Porte Sends Instructions to Officers of Armenian Provinces Holding Them Personally Responsible for Kurdish Excesses

erished condition of the treasury the government finds it difficult to comply with the request.

In spite of the reports to the contrary, it is confidently believed in well-informed quarters that the porte, in conformity with formal declarations, will employ only regular troops to suppress the insurrection. It is well aware how important it is for Turkey to avoid excessive such as certainly would be the outcome of the employment of undisciplined Albanians or other circular soldiery. Diplomats here entertain no doubt that the porte will continue the present policy of fighting with regulars.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 6 (delayed in transmission).—News received here as to the extent of the Bulgarian revolutionary movement in Villayet Monastir is conflicting.

In the consular dispatches from Monastir which were received this morning the opinion is expressed that the insurrection broke out a fortnight earlier than the chief intended and before the bands were in readiness, presumably because the leaders were disconcerted by the active preventive measures adopted by the authorities.

The Bulgarian inhabitants in a number of villages have fled to the mountains for refuge. The railways have asked that the troops guarding the lines be quadrupled, but this will entail the employment of 20,000 soldiers, and in view of the impoverished condition of the treasury the government finds it difficult to comply with the request.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 7.—The porte has sent categorical instructions to Valis of Armenian provinces, Asia Minor, holding them personally responsible for any Kurdish excesses and ordering that vigorous measures be taken to prevent fighting.

The British vice consul at Bitlis has been ordered to proceed to Mush, eighty miles south of Erzeroom, where the Armenian massacres by the Kurds and Turks occurred in 1894, to investigate the situation there.

A consular dispatch from Erzeroom received here this morning says the excitement in that district is quieting down, but the vali of Erzeroom reports 600 armed Hutzchaks, from Russian territory compelled the Armenians in the village of Sassam, the scene of an Armenian massacre in 1894, to take refuge in the mountains. The vali sent four battalions of troops against the Hutzchaks, who escaped to the mountains. The porte communicated this information to the Russian embassy, calling attention to the fact that the bands came here from Russian territory.

SQUATTERS ARE TOLD TO LEAVE

Fifty Families in North Fort Worth Are Ordered by Mar- shal Dick Howell to Take Up Tents and Go

SANITARY CONDITIONS UNSAFE FOR PUBLIC

Health of the Community Has Been Menaced by Disregard of Sanitary Laws—They Pay Neither Rent or Taxes—Peo- ple Glad to Have Them Go

Howell, who expects to have all served before the end of the week.

ORIGINALLY NECESSARY

The squatters who have gathered from many localities and who now number probably 300, have followed the original tenters to the stock yards ground. Over a year ago, when workmen were coming from all over the country to work at the yards and on the two packing plants, then under construction, the problem of housing and feeding the men became so serious that permission was granted to erect boarding and sleeping tents near the end of the street car line to accommodate the crowds of men who could find no other place to stay.

For a long time these boarding and rooming tents were maintained, but gradually, as the work was completed and the workmen discharged, the business fell off until finally, for the past several months, there has been no need for them. The original proprietors of the canvas-walled boarding houses have left and they have been succeeded by the squatters.

A large percentage of the latter are blacks, and many appear to be without visible means of support.

NORTH FORT WORTH GLAD

In North Fort Worth today the news that the squatters had to go was commended favorably everywhere. "It means that the last of the undesirable population brought here by the building of the packing-houses will have to leave," said one business man. "and North Fort Worth can not gain the reputation of being a city in which it has been impossible as long as the floaters stayed."

HARDSHIP FOR SOME

On the other hand, it was stated today at the yards that some of the men who have been living with their families in the tents on the stock yards ground are employed about the packing plants and are industrious, but too poor to afford house rent in North Fort Worth. It is admitted by all, however, that the squatters must go sooner or later, and that they have been given ample warning to prepare for leaving.

PLANS FOR FESTIVAL HALL

ST. LOUIS, Mo., August 7.—The plans and specifications for the world's fair festival hall, which is to stand at the head of the main canal on Art hill, have been given to the contractors. The prominent feature of the hall is the sculpture-crowned top of the immense dome, 260 feet high. The dome, it is said, is to be larger than that of St. Peter's in Rome, which is the largest in the world. The auditorium in the interior of the building will be 112 feet high from the floor of the theater to the soffit of the dome. The proscenium arch of the stage has a span of ninety-three feet and four inches, one of the largest in the country, and is fifty-four feet deep.

THROUGH THE MOUNTAINS

NEW YORK, August 7.—Representative J. C. Sibley of Pennsylvania, who has a summer home at Valcour, N. Y., and four guests including Joseph C. Cannon, congressman, speaker to be of the house of representatives, have started from Burlington, Vt., on a week's automobile trip to Mount Washington. They occupied two big motors and the Illinois congressman insisted on taking the front seat of the first automobile "because the scenery was better there."

Miss Jessie Gibson of Indianapolis, who was recently graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has just entered into partnership with her father and is the first woman architect in Indiana.

The government report puts the gold production of the world since the discovery of America at $9,811,000,000.

PLOT TO KILL IS UNEARTHED

Plan of Convicts to Assassinate General Superintendent of Reformatory Fails to Carry Out to Completion

ROB THE STORE-ROOM AND GET WEAPONS

Officers Have Been Living in a State of Terror Because of Knowledge That Desperate Men Were Armed—Keeper Is Shot by a Convict

ELMIRA, N. Y., August 7.—There is every indication that the shooting of James H. Gunderman, keeper of the Elmira reformatory, by Brooks, a convict from New York, at that institution Wednesday, came about through the mischance of a convict's plan to assassinate the general superintendent, Frank Robertson, and his assistant, McDonnell.

The investigation has unearthed an elaborate plot. One month ago the store room of the reformatory was robbed during lunch hour. Many weapons were stolen and since then officials of the reformatory have lived a life of terror, knowing the stolen articles were in the hands of the inmates.

The strain was beginning to tell on the officers and Superintendent Robertson was on the verge of breaking down when Brooks shot and seriously wounded Gunderman and the plot was unearched. Under pressure Brooks made a confession that the weapons were stolen by the inmates and hidden in a brick pile preparatory for a general assault on the keepers.

Superintendent Robertson was expected out in the yard in the afternoon and he was shot at a given signal and the other officials assaulted. The conspirators are now in solitary confinement.

DUBLIN REUNION A BIG SUCCESS

Captain R. B. Paddock returned today from Dublin, where he attended the fifteenth annual reunion of the Confederate Association of that district.

"It was one of the most enthusiastic, if not the most enthusiastic, meetings I have attended," said Captain Paddock. "The reunion is being held in a thirty-acre enclosure, in which there is a fine and spacious pavilion. Of the thirty acres, it is safe to say that twenty-five were covered by people and vehicles yesterday. It was a grand gathering, and the grandest thing about it was the undeniable happiness of every one present—nothing but smiles and heartiness and prosperity on every side."

"And the crops between Fort Worth and Dublin! You must see them to appreciate them. It is a great year for that section, as it is, indeed, for all Texas."

Captain Paddock delivered an address yesterday morning and at the conclusion was greeted by an ovation which, "The Telegram's correspondent says, lasted as long as the speech. He spoke on the fighting ability of the Confederate soldier."

Yesterday afternoon O. W. Gillespie, congressman-elect of the twelfth district, whose home is in Fort Worth, spoke on "The Racial Question."

REAL ESTATE DEALERS

At yesterday's assembly a most important action was taken by the Real Estate Dealers' Association, which includes dealers in realty from Granbury to Dublin. The association decided to establish headquarters in Fort Worth and to maintain an agent here to conduct negotiations for the members. The association will hold a meeting at Comanche next week. It is a recently organized body of energetic and enterprising men and has been very successful thus far in bringing the country it represents before the people. At next week's meeting much literature will be decided upon.

SLUMP IN MINING STOCK

NEW HAVEN, Conn., August 7.—Miss Sarah S. Platt, a young woman who has dealt in stocks for a number of years, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. She is said to be the first woman in Connecticut to take advantage of that law. Miss Platt's liabilities are only about $10,000. A slump in mining stocks is said to have caused the trouble.

SHORTAGE IS MADE GOOD

NEW YORK, August 7.—It is stated that the shortage of $200,000 reported to have been discovered recently in the accounts of a former officer of Dunlap & Co., which fell entirely upon the Dunlap private estate of which the man was an executor, has been made good. It is added that no legal action will be taken in the matter.

Counsel for the company refused to officially confirm the reported restitution. Dunlap private estate of which the man was an executor, has been made good. It is added that no legal action will be taken in the matter.

Ex-Sheriff "Tom" Dunn of New York is taken to his home that were his long since won a reputation as a never perpetrated by him. "Dunn" said a friend to him the other day, "what is the cleverest thing you ever said?" "I don't know," signed the ex-sheriff, "but it was probably said by someone else."

IS ROUGHLY HANDLED

BRITISH HIGH COMMISSIONER IS REFUSED A LANDING AT TONGA

Consul Has a Difficulty With King While Requesting an Audience with His Highness

VICTORIA, B. C., August 7.—Mail advices were received by the steamer Arongit that there is a strong adverse comment in Caledonia regarding the proposed renewal of the transportation of convicts to the island.

Sir Henry Moore Jackson, high commissioner of Great Britain, was refused a landing at Tonga on arriving there on H. M. S. Playades. The warships had gone to Tonga from Fiji and measles being epidemic the local authorities refused the commissioner a landing. The British consul was at the time roughly handled by a senary when requesting permission from the king to allow the commissioner to land. For this an apology was given by the king.

His majesty's steamship Archer, which went to the New Hebrides with the French warship Menthe, where a joint Anglo-French commission was to sit to investigate grievances existing in the island, has returned to Noumea owing to a severe epidemic of typhoid fever on board.

A rich gold discovery has been made in the Tuena district, Australia. There has been a big stampede.

RUNNELS COUNTY MAN WANTS DRINK IN HIS SLEEP

Sommabullist Climbs Fence to Get to a Saloon—Prisoner Escapes—Will Ask for Local Option Election

BROWNWOOD, Texas, August 6.—A Ballinger citizen walked out of the second story of a Brownwood hotel in his sleep, dressed only in his night clothes, climbed a six-foot fence and entered a saloon, has called for a drink. The startled barkeeper saw he was asleep and awakened him. He was unharmed by this experience.

A PRISONER ESCAPES

Jim Gray, under two years conviction for forgery, escaped from the new Brown county jail last night. It is thought he got hold of a duplicate cell key as his cell door was unlocked. He ascended to the tower and let himself down with a rope.

FISH PIRATES OPERATE

REIGN OF TERROR ON LOWER WATERS OF PUGET SOUND

When Bribery Falls They Hold Up the Keepers of the Traps at the Point of a Gun

SEATTLE, Wash., August 7.—Fish pirates have inaugurated a reign of terror on the lower sound waters. Their hold-up is unprecedented. Repeatedly, when bribery failed, they have held up keepers of fish traps at the point of the gun and rifled the nets of their entire contents. As high as $1,000 to $2,000 worth of fish has been taken at a single haul.

At the request of the receiver for the Pacific Packing and Navigation Company, Judge Hansford of the federal court has requested that sufficient deputy marshals be sent to the lower sound to protect the fisheries. It is estimated that between 150 and 200 fish pirates are operating there.

IT CAUSES EXCITEMENT

SECRETARY HAY'S NOTE IS NOT APPRECIATED IN BOGOTA

One of the Senators Says Colombia Will Fight Rather Than Suffer Humiliation in the Matter of the Canal

NEW YORK, August 7.—Advices received here from a prominent member of the Colombian government, according to the Herald's representative at Colon, that Secretary Hay, beginning in July, had called the United States minister, Mr. Bourne, telling him to inform the Colombian government of the probable action of the next American congress if the canal treaty is not ratified.

The reading of the communication from Secretary Hay in secret session of the senate caused vehement protests, they being considered an indirect threat of retaliation in case the treaty failed.

Considerable excitement is said to have ensued, the principal critic and agitator being Senator Perez Soto of Boyaca, a bitter enemy of the canal. He went so far as to say that Colombia would fight rather than "be humiliated."

Other advices from Bogota received at Colon say the outlook for the ratification of the treaty is more favorable.

HE FALLS EIGHTY FEET

Boy Drops From a Slack Wire at Fire-works Display

CHICAGO, Ill., August 7.—Frank Reese, 17 years old, who has been one of the attractions at a fireworks display at Monroe street and Fortieth avenue, fell eighty feet last night in the sight of 11,000 people as the result of an accident to the slack wire on which he was performing. The force of his fall was broken by a small staking that held fireworks under the wire, and the boy is said to be not seriously hurt.

HE FIGHTS CHINESE PROTECTING A LADY

Her Cries for Help Bring Him to Her Assistance and Amer- ican Woman Is Defended in a Foreign Land—Wedding Is the Result

CHICAGO, Ill., August 7.—A romance begun during the Boxer uprising in China has just culminated in the marriage in Chicago of Philip Herbert, former gunner of the navy, and Mrs. Pearl Seaman, the American widow of a Shanghai merchant.

Gunner Herbert served on the Olympia in the battle of Manila and afterwards saw service in Chinese waters during the Boxer uprising. While on shore leave one night he encountered a rioting crowd of Chinese clearing the way for "foreign devils." A few blows drove them away and Herbert carried her several blocks to safety.

The gunner returned to his ship, but when he left Shanghai he carried with him the heart of the young widow and the promise that she would be his wife on the expiration of his enlistment. The sailor was discharged in February. He was notified later that he had become heir to $20,000 in England.

KICKING HORSE PASS

Arrival of the Man Who Caused the Place to Be Named

VICTORIA, B. C., August 7.—Among the passengers on the steamer Arongit from Australia was Sir James Hector, the discoverer of the geological survey in New Zealand. He is the discoverer of the Kicking Horse pass, which the Canadian Pacific Railway uses to enter British Columbia through the Rockies. This pass was found in 1857 and was named in consequence of an incident wherein Sir James Hector was kicked by a horse and thought to have been killed.

READY FOR THE BIG REGATTA...

MILWAUKEE, Wis., August 7.—This morning more yachts are gathered in Milwaukee harbor than ever before on Lake Michigan, if not on the chain of lakes. The gathering includes several of the fastest boats on the lake. Yesterday the course for the regatta was accurately measured and buoyed, and all arrangements completed to the minutest detail. All that is now needed to make the regatta the most notable contest ever held on the lakes is favorable winds.

TWO CIRCUS TRAINS IN A COLLISION

ENGINEER OF THE SECOND SECTION SEES RED LIGHT AND APPLIES AIR BRAKE, BUT IT REFUSES TO RESPOND AND SERIOUS WRECK IS RESULT OF THE COLLISION

SEVERAL KILLED; MANY INJURED

Locomotive and Cars Are Tel- escaped and Sleeping Men in a Caboose Meet Instant Death—Official of Grand Trunk Is Among the Killed

DURAND, Mich., August 6.—Wallace Brothers' circus was wrecked in the Grand Trunk yards here at 4 o'clock this morning and eighteen men, mostly employees of the circus, including a few performers, were killed outright. Twenty more were injured, some fatally.

The show was traveling in two sections over the Grand Trunk from Lansing to Lapere, and the accident, it is said, was caused by the failure of the second section of the train to stop on time. The two sections were traveling near each other and the second section ran into the first at full speed. The engine of the second section and four cars of the first section were completely demolished. Much valuable property was destroyed and the loss to the circus people will be heavy. Some of those killed and a few of those injured were railroad people attached to the train.

These included Trainmaster J. McCarthy of the Grand Trunk.

Some of the animals were killed.

The scene in the Grand Trunk yards after the collision was appalling. The wreckage of the engine and four cars was strewn about and piled high, while the shrieks of the injured and the howling of the frightened animals could be heard above the hiss of escaping steam and the excited shouts of the rescuers.

It was some hours before all the injured were rescued from the wrecked cars. Some of them were in terrible agony and it is feared seven more will die.

The dead are:

James McCarthy, trainmaster of the Grand Trunk road between Port Huron and Battle Creek.

A. W. Lurge, special officer of the Grand Trunk, of Battle Creek.

John Purcell of Peru, Ind., boss canvas man.

Leo Larson of Cambridge, Ohio, team driver.

W. Thomas, residence unknown, a member of the stake and chain gang.

Three cars which were stationary at the section, telescoped, and the engine and five cars of the moving train were demolished. The rear car of the first section, the caboose in which the trainmen were sleeping and the next two were filled with sleeping circus employees. The greatest loss of life was in the caboose.

One of the wrecked cars of the second section was occupied by five elephants and several camels. One of the elephants and two camels were killed outright, while the other animals and the trainer escaped.

With the exception of this car, none of the menagerie was wrecked, the other demolished cars containing canvas wagons and there was comparatively little excitement among the wild animals. They soon recovered from the first shock and the trainers rushed among the cages, quieting the few beasts that were still excited.

The elephants in the wrecked car behaved with surprising calmness and were led out of the wreck without trouble.

prisoners are kept in separate cells until they are tried. Here we heard youths and hardened criminals together and it is a well established fact that many habitual criminals find keen delight in teaching to their less experienced companions the fine points of criminal practices gained through late experience of years of wrong doing. That such a condition should be permitted to exist is a shame and disgrace to the entire public."

HE DISCREDITS THE VARIOUS REPORTS

NEW YORK, August 7.—The Rome correspondent of the Times, cabling by way of London, discredits the "old misconceptions" fostered chiefly by the continental press, concerning the conduct of the sacred college before and during the deliberations in the conclave.

He recalls the strange tales of intrigues, counter intrigues, private rancors and petty feuds which were told at the time of the conclave which elected Leo XIII, and which were afterward disproved when the true history of the conclave was written, and he says much the same process has been taking place during the conclave of Pius X.

As it is useless to protest, the correspondent says in conclusion, one must be content to state the firm conviction based on the closest and most careful observation of the recent proceedings that the conduct of the members of the sacred college, before, during and after the conclave, was absolutely in accordance with their high office, their grave responsibilities, and the dictates of their religious conscience.

BANQUET TO CRICKETERS

LONDON, August 7.—The Surrey Club last night banqueted the Philadelphia cricket team at Kensington oval. Lord Alverstone, president of the club, occupied the chair, and in a speech highly complimented the visitors on their splendid play and the strides they had made since their first visit. He expressed the hope that he will live to see the day when they shall meet the pick of England in test matches as the Australians now do.

TWO CHILDREN DROWN

NEW YORK, August 7.—Two children about 4 years old have been drowned while at play with an express wagon on Cromwell's creek, near their homes in the Bronx. One was the son of Battalion Fire Chief Campbell, retired. Andrew McCormick, a retired contractor, was the father of the other.

CHICAGO, August 7.—"The most disgraceful thing that exists in this country in the name of law and civilization is the county jail. Idleness and bad associations make crime and at public cost we are maintaining free schools of crime in every county in the United States."

This arraignment of the penal institutions of counties was given by Dr. Charles B. Henderson at the University of Chicago last night at the conclusion of a lecture upon modern prison systems. Professor Henderson recently retired as president of the National Prison Association. He has made a special study of crime and criminals and has issued several books upon the subject.

DEMURRER FILED BY THE STATE

Attorney General Bell Gives Objections in Rosenbaum-Rock Island Grain Case

A demurrer has been filed by Attorney General C. B. Bell representing the state in the Rosenbaum Grain Company-Rock Island case. The demurrer was a matter of course, as the state had either to file it or give up the suit. The demurrer claims that the court here has no jurisdiction, and that if the case is to be tried it should be in the United States circuit court for the western district of Texas, in which Travis county is situated.

The principal clauses of the demurrer are as follows:

"That the grain company's bills states no cause of action against the Rock Island Railway Company, which defendant is not a necessary or proper party to the suit and could only have been made a party for the purpose of attempting thereby to confer jurisdiction upon the court here. That it appears from plaintiff's own showing that it is not entitled to the relief prayed for by the bill against the defendant, that the facts set up in complainant's bill do not show that it has any cause of action against the defendant; that the order shows that the railroad commission does not assume any jurisdiction over the grain company, and that the Rock Island railway is not complaining of any action taken or threatened to do anything, of which complainant can lawfully complain; that the commission has merely notified the railroad company of its intention to resort to the court for the purpose of asserting such rights as the state may be able to maintain; that it appears from the plaintiff's bill that efforts to obtain an injunction against the defendants were premature, and that it is not within the power of the court in advance to restrain the exercise of a discretionary authority conferred to another tribunal or body; that it does not appear and cannot be determined what the commission will do if its request is not complied with, and that the course of the commission might be one which the complainant would not object to; that it is not within the power of the court of the United States to enjoin proceedings in a state court, or to prevent the proper officers of a state court from resorting to the courts for the purpose of enforcing its laws, and that it appears on the face of plaintiff's bill that it has an adequate remedy at law.

Defendants pray judgment of the court whether they should be compelled to make further or any answer to the bill, and pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable costs in this behalf sustained.

JETT AND WHITE TRIAL

CYNTHIANA, Ky., August 7.—The eleventh day of the trial of the Commonwealth of Kentucky against Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of J. B. Marcum on May 4 last, was opened by the prosecution placing Denny B. Goode, a newspaper correspondent, on the stand. Goode testified he was in Jackson the day after the killing of Marcum and in a room with Hargis and Ewen and Ewen said Hargis then told him he did not know who killed Marcum. Goode stated that Ewen repudiated his statement to him the next day after the above incident, but requested that it be not published, as he feared for his life.

Goode, another chattel witness, testified that he saw Thomas White and Curtis Jett together on the streets of Jackson the day before and ten days before the killing. His testimony contradicts both Jett and White.

M. C. Bailey, foreman of the grand jury which indicted Jett and White, testified as to Ewen's good moral character and reputation for truthfulness.

"I forget whether he killed eight or nine, but I know that in describing the incident in my paper I commended the sheriff for his prompt action and bravery, and added the paragraph:

COMMONS' SPEAKER'S PECULIAR PRIVILEGES

The speaker of the house of commons has several peculiar privileges. Every year he receives a gift from the master of the buckhounds of a buck and doe killed in the royal preserves. This custom goes back so far that there is no record of it.

Later in the year, the speaker receives another tribute from a different source. The donors on the second occasion are the Clothworkers Company of London, who send to the speaker of the house of commons and to several of his majesty's ministers a generous width of the best broadcloth to be found in England.

DIES FROM DROWNING

NEW YORK, August 7.—A coroner's physician who performed an autopsy upon the unidentified man found Tuesday in the Harlem river with cuts upon his head has announced that the victim died from drowning and that he found no evidence of violence and no poison in the stomach. Three negroes are being held by the police on the confession of one of them that the man was given whiskey containing snuff and was then murdered and robbed. The authorities are somewhat at a loss as to what shall be done, in view of the report on the autopsy.

The general opinion is that the negro who confessed told a pure falsehood.

THE SANTA FE'S WELL

Road's Oil Drillers Near League City Will Go Down Fifteen Hundred Feet GALVESTON, August 7.—The Santa Fe is now boring for oil on Perry Camp's place, west of League City. The work of boring was begun about two weeks ago and the contract calls for a well 1,500 feet deep, unless oil in paying quantities is struck sooner. The contract entered into between the Santa Fe and Mr. Camp was filed for record about six weeks ago. It provides that in the event oil is struck the Santa Fe shall have the privilege of purchasing 200 acres of land for $200,000. In the event that oil is not struck the Santa Fe will be out only the amount it costs to bore the well. From signs and in the opinion of experts sent by the Santa Fe to investigate this property there is enough visible evidence to warrant the experimenting for oil. The Santa Fe has two experts in oil drilling matters constantly at the well watching for signs of oil. In the event oil in any quantity is struck arrangements will be made to at once develop such a stratum. The contract between the drillers and the Santa Fe permits works to be stopped at any time, without the drillers being the losers thereby. In this manner the inclination that is ever displayed by drillers to rush through with a contract should be entirely done away with in this instance. This experiment is being closely watched by a large number of people, especially those who own property in the vicinity of the experimental well. Should oil in paying quantities be struck there is no method of estimating with any degree of accuracy just what it will mean for this city.

SAID HE WAS ADMIRAL

His Name Was Schleyer, However—He Looked Warlike Excitement was created this afternoon about 2:40 at Fifteenth and Main streets. M. A. Schleyer was in a hilarious mood when Sheriff Honea who happened to be standing nearby tried to quiet him. He found the man unruly and clubbed him severely. A telephone message to police headquarters brought the patrol and police assistance and Schleyer was hurried to the station. Upon being asked his name by the police clerk on duty he stated he was Admiral Schley but being unable to identify himself as that distinguished warrior admitted that his name was Schleyer, which, he said, was almost the same thing. Schleyer was bleeding profusely, but his wounds are not serious.

A PERILOUS HONEYMOON

German Fur Trader and Bride Go to Arctic for Three Years LOS ANGELES, Cal., August 7.—The strangest and probably the wildest honeymoon on record was begun here a few days ago. Two young German people are the participants of the unique and hazardous trip. John Draet, the bridegroom, came to America about five months ago with the avowed purpose of journeying to the frozen north in search of fox skins. On his way across the continent he met the girl who is now his bride. He told her of his plans and rather than wait until his return before marrying she suggested that he take her along and that the trip be made their honeymoon. Draet is 21 and his wife 22 years of age.

The boat that carries them, the Alert, has been plying about these waters for many years, and although worn with age considerably, is looked upon by those familiar with her gear as a good craft for almost any kind of weather. She is too small, however, to attempt a trip over so vast and rough a body of water. The Alert is a sloop-rigged craft, measuring about thirty-three feet over all, with a twelve-foot beam. She was purchased from a San Pedro sherman for $300. The couple carried with them about $200 worth of provisions, which are expected to last the voyagers until they reach their destination. Draet and his wife are going to a point 500 miles east of the McKenzie river, which flows into the Arctic ocean, in search of black fox, whose skins are very valuable. They expect to spend the winter somewhere en route and proceed farther next summer. Draet said he would probably return to this section in three years. San Francisco will be the only stop made between here and the Behring sea. It is the intention of the German to head his boat out to sea after leaving the northern metropolis, as it will shorten his voyage considerably. Draet seemed to understand the nature of his voyage exactly, but his little girl wife stood by and wondered what to think of it, at the same time manifesting all confidence in her boyish husband.

To an acquaintance at Terminal Island Draet remarked that he had spent thirty-two months in the Arctic region and that he was perfectly familiar with the country. He said he was raised on the water and had been a mate on one of the largest German liners for many months prior to his arrival in America. Six elderly brothers, who reside in different parts of the country, are having a reunion at Lee, near Winsted, Conn. They are William Henry Baldwin, aged 78; Horace E. Baldwin, 71; Russell P. Baldwin, 68; Ames S. Baldwin, 64; Edward D. Baldwin, 61, and Frank C. Baldwin, 58. Their average height now is 5 feet 11 1/2 inches. In 1878, when they met together in Philadelphia, it was 6 feet 1/2 inch. Their average weight is now 191 pounds, or one pound less than twenty-seven years ago.

At the end of the year 1902 the Russian army had 1,386 generals, of whom 129 were "polmie generale" (full generals), 387 lieutenant generals and 870 major generals. The average age of these generals was 69 years for the "full" generals, 62 years for the lieutenant generals, and 58 years for the major generals. Fifty-eight per cent of all of the generals have seen active warfare and four of them are over 90 years of age.

Encoaled. "Remember," said the woman who tries to make people happy. "that someone the sun is shining." "Of course it is," answered her husband. "And somewhere there are tons upon tons of coal. The thing is to get all this genial warmth right here where it is needed."—Washington Star.

BEAT AND ROBBED AN AGED WOMAN

Mrs. Kate O'Brien Who Claims She Is Wealthy, Tells Shocking Story of Abuse Ending in Robbery

WEPT BITTERLY AS HER STORY IS TOLD

Says She Was Repeatedly Kicked and Beaten, and Forced to Sleep in a Straw Pile Guarded by Dogs—She Owns 100 Acres of Land

DENVER, Col., August 7.—An old, gray-haired woman, wealthy and the owner of 100 acres on Coal creek, beaten by her son-in-law, robbed by her daughter and compelled to sleep in a hole in a strawstack guarded by two faithful dogs—such is the pitiful tale told by Mrs. Kate O'Brien, a dweller in the Root block, at Platte and Fifteenth streets.

The old woman wept bitterly as she told her story. Monday night, to add to her troubles, she was robbed of her savings, $50 in money and $2,300 in certificates of deposit on the Colorado National bank. She was frantic with grief and alarm, in her ignorance of banking affairs firmly believing that the money called for by the certificates was irrevocably lost. She rushed to the bank and her joy knew no bounds when assured that the money was there in her name all right and that payment on the certificates would be stopped, thereby preventing all danger of loss.

Mrs. O'Brien next hastened to the detectives in company with a bank official, and gave them her story. Then she went to a neighbor and accused her of stealing the money and certificates. The neighbor denied all guilt.

HID MONEY IN A CLOSET Mrs. O'Brien kept her money in a little paper bag, which she hid on the lower shelf of her china closet behind a big stone jar. She thought no one would ever think of looking there for the treasure.

But they did. Yesterday morning the paper bag was gone and with it the carefully hoarded dollars, the certificates and other papers.

An officer went up to investigate. He turned everything in Mrs. O'Brien's rooms topsy-turvy, thinking possibly she had hidden the bag in some other place and had forgotten it. Failing to discover it, he went to the neighbor who is accused of the theft. To the officer this young woman also made a denial. He declined to press his investigation at the present time. It is partly for this reason that Mrs. O'Brien has decided that she will not prosecute.

She refuses to tell who the neighbor is, but says her first name is Maggie and that she is "married to a Dago."

SAYS SHE IS WEALTHY Mrs. O'Brien, in telling her own history, says she is wealthy and owns 100 acres of land on Coal creek, but being alone, dares not live on the place; so she rents it and lives in a city block where she will have company. Her two sons are dead, and her daughter, who lives in Idaho Springs, has deserted her. She says she does not want her daughter's name mentioned in her presence, because she says she tried to defraud her out of her property and succeeded in taking a good part of it. Her son-in-law, she states, used to beat her so dreadfully that she frequently fled the house and spent the night in a strawstack. She would crawl into a hole, pull two faithful dogs which accompanied her into the opening in the stack and then pile straw over the entrance. Finally, she said, tiring of these rude sleeping quarters, and being unable longer to stand the conduct of her daughter's husband, she fled to Denver and took up her abode alone in a city block. The violence of her son-in-law, according to her story, culminated in a particularly vicious attack some years ago, in which she was knocked until unconscious. The neighbors were so incensed that they organized to punish her son-in-law, but the intended attack was made known to him and he escaped.

IN THE COURTS

Sarah Burleson, one of the negroes arrested last Saturday night for disturbing the peace, was fined $5 and costs this morning in Justice Charles T. Rowland's court, the case taking up the entire morning. Nothing was done in either of the justice courts during the afternoon. A suit was also filed against this woman for keeping and maintaining a disorderly house. The case was set for next Wednesday.

STEERS BRING 4 CENTS

Seventy-three Head Shipped From Cleburne are Today's Tops G. A. McClung of Cleburne had the top steers on today's market. He sent in three head (seventy-three) which averaged 1,657 pounds, and sold at $4 per hundred. The price was considered a good one at the yards, and though it is not equal to the top for the week, the steers were lighter than those which brought the higher price.

THE MOTHER'S MISSION.

A GREAT Emperor once asked one of his noble subjects what would secure his country the first place among the nations of the earth. The nobleman's grand reply was, "Good Mothers." Now, what constitutes a good mother? The answer is conclusive: She who, regarding the future welfare of her child, seeks every available means that may offer to promote a sound physical development, to the end that her offspring may not be deficient in any single faculty, with which nature has endowed it. In infancy there is no period which is more likely to affect the future disposition of the child than that of teething, producing as it does fretfulness, moroseness of mind, etc., which if not checked will manifest itself in after days.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup

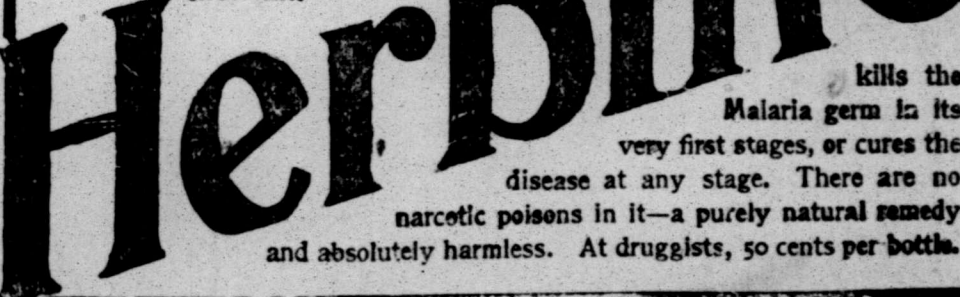

Is unquestionably one of the greatest remedial agents in existence, both for the prevention and cure of the alarming symptoms which so often manifest themselves during the teething period, such as griping in the bowels, wind, colic, etc. It is also the best and surest remedy in the world in all cases of diarrhoea in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause. Twenty-five cents a bottle, and for sale in all parts of the world, being the best remedy for children known of.

Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

"Hello! Is this 4237 Forecaster Reader? Well, how are you today? I didn't get a chance to talk to you yesterday."

"Say, I see that you are a base ball enthusiast. How's that? How should I know? Why, say, look at the way that the weather affected the Fort Worth ball players at Waco yesterday."

"Say, what do you mean as a forecast? You don't mean to call this warm? Why it doesn't get warm in Texas until the thermometer goes above the century mark and the maximum yesterday was only 92. Why, I remember a few years ago when it was 108 in the shade and I remember hearing my grandfather say that he heard of a time when it was so hot here that even the street pavements shriveled up and blew away."

"Say, it won't rain any more for a while, eh? The cotton crop needs a little sunshine now. It would save you a lot of work if you would make a good cotton crop. You won't have to go fishing in the fall to get away from the farmers who are looking for you."

"You say that area of high barometer is drifting eastward toward the Atlantic? About how long will it take it to travel the 24,000 miles around the earth and get back here with another load of fine weather?"

"Say, is it going to rain Sunday? You have been predicting showers for every Sunday that I can remember and I do wish that you would let this next one go by without an rain as I want to see those two ball games between Dallas and Fort Worth. What's that? I said that I was going to Handley with my best girl? Well so I am, but I wouldn't miss a ball game even for her! I'll go out there after the Panthers get through walloping the Kickers."

"Well, good-bye. Say, I want to tell you—What? He has rung off. I guess I will have to put some music into my conversation if I want him to stick to the finish."

ENTERTAINED AT HANDLEY The reception by the vestry of St. Andrew's parish last night at Handley's to the visiting clergy and laymen attending the quarterly missionary meeting, which was in progress for two days, was a delightful affair, and in every way a success. A bounteous dinner was served under the trees, and after a discussion of the delicacies there were a number of addresses, Rev. Messrs. Cross, Lloyd and Sherrin being called on. After the dinner and speaking the visitors took boat rides and otherwise enjoyed themselves in the park.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CROOM The funeral of Mrs. G. Harold Croom took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. R. B. Ramage of the Episcopal church officiating. A large number of friends attended the funeral services and followed the remains to the cemetery. The floral offerings were numerous, the local Elks and the Yonkers sending handsome and appropriate designs. Mrs. Croom was a native of Texas, her family being prominent in the affairs of the southern part of the state before the war. She is survived by her daughter, Miss Forrest Croom.

TWO NEW CAR LINES COMING

City Councils of Fort Worth and North Fort Worth Are to Be Asked to Grant Franchises

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS ORDINANCE READY

That Line Is Backed by $35,000, of Which Sum $10,000 Is Local Capital—The North Fort Worth Line Backed by Eastern Capitalists

At tonight's meeting of the Fort Worth city council the city fathers will be asked to grant a franchise for a new street railway from Arlington Heights to Fifth and Main streets. At next Tuesday evening's session of the North Fort Worth city council, that body will be asked to grant a franchise to a new street railway company, granting it the privilege of running cars on certain streets on the North Side.

NEW YORKERS INTERESTED Of this sum, according to Robert McCart, $25,000 is put up by New York parties who are largely interested in Arlington Heights property. The balance is subscribed by persons now residing there. The line will cross the bridge at City Park, run north on Summit avenue to Fifth street and thence will connect with Main street. Two cars will be used on the line, and a contract has been made with a local light and power company under which enough power to operate the two cars at high speed will be furnished at $5 per day. Cars will run each way every thirty minutes. This will be not only a great convenience to residents of the pretty suburb but it will be in the nature of a boon to the members of the Country Club.

NORTH FORT WORTH LINE M. L. Sansom, president of the Stock Yards National Bank, admitted this afternoon that a party of Eastern capitalists who have been attracted by the remarkable development of North Fort Worth, had written a letter asking about the prospects for a franchise granting exclusive street traction rights in North Fort Worth.

Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by all druggists.

BEATS FRIEND, STEALS HIS WIFE

Ex-Convict, Three Days Out From Prison, Flies With Warden's Daughter

PORTLAND, Ore., August 7.—Harry Riley, an ex-convict who was released from the Salem penitentiary Tuesday afternoon, today beat Elliott Parkhurst and forced Mrs. Parkhurst, daughter of J. T. Jans, formerly warden of the Salem penitentiary and a niece of ex-Governor T. T. Geer, to run away with him. Parkhurst knew Riley while a prisoner, as he was formerly a deputy sheriff of this county and had often visited the penitentiary. He met Riley at the depot when he was released for good behavior from a five-year sentence for burglary, took him to the ball game and in every way was treating him as a friend. While walking home with Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst in the evening Riley suddenly turned upon Parkhurst and administered a severe beating. Then, according to Parkhurst's statement, he was robbed by the powerful ex-convict and forced to run for his life. Riley hailed a passing hack and was driven away with the woman. Neither has been seen since. It is believed that Riley fell in love with the warden's pretty daughter while he was a prisoner.

THINGS TO EAT AND THEIR PRICES

At the opening of the potato season, new potatoes were fairly plentiful and sold at reasonable prices and even suffered a small decline, until a few days ago, when the market took a sharp advance and today potatoes are worth $1.20 a bushel, 50 cents over last week's prices. A local produce man said today that, while he did not look for prices to go sky high, he thought that they would be even better than they are at present. There are lots of potatoes yet in the ground, and they will be dug up and marketed, when the shipping prices subside. Nearly all classes of native vegetables are becoming scarce and prices are firm to higher. Cabbage is now selling at 34 cents, while tomatoes have advanced 1 to 2 cents, and are now quoted at 4 cents a pound. Plenty of late peaches are offered at 15 cents a quart. Green corn is now a luxury and the small supply offered easily brings 20 cents a dozen. In the fruit line apricots and crab apples have about disappeared and peaches are still high, which is due to the late cold weather and severe frosts. Native grown watermelons and cantaloupes are in abundance. A few shipments of the large green variety of watermelons are still coming in from southern points, and sell from 30 to 40 cents, and while the native grown may be had either from the country wagons or from produce dealers at 5 to 20 cents. The poultry market is firm with the exception of eggs which are selling at 20 to 25 cents.

MANY NEW RECRUITS

Spanish War Veterans Meet in Regular Session

A meeting of the Spanish War Veterans was held at the armory at the courthouse last evening, at which time the following recruits were mustered in and took the oath of office: Braxton C. Carter, James Conroy, L. S. Wylie, P. P. Maddox, T. A. Lewis, B. H. Dunham, D. E. Gordon, Mike Moran, Wilford Shipp, J. J. Cates, H. R. Kunz, William McGee. The officers mustered in were H. L. Leffer, captain; C. O. Elliot, first lieutenant; R. B. Beckham, second lieutenant; John J. Terrell, quartermaster; George T. West, chaplain; John H. Karberg, adjutant; Karl Utley, sergeant of the guard. Five recruits made application for membership and were accepted. The following members were appointed as a committee to investigate applicants: J. J. Cates, H. R. Kunz and D. E. Gordon.

The London Chronicle thus compares the colonel secretary and the premier: "Mr. Chamberlain has the advantage of being a politician and nothing else—a man with a single aim—whereas Mr. Balfour is as much interested in philosophy, music, motoring, golf and French novels as in politics, if not more so. He detests house of commons drudgery and detail, and he spends as little time upon the treasury bench as he decently can."

That portion of Fifth avenue, New York, which is often referred to as "Steel Trust Row" attracts attention because of the splendid entrances on many of the mansions recently erected there. Wooden doors have given way entirely, bronze, iron and polished steel having been substituted. Many of these homes have entrance ways costing $10,000 or more. A well known architect says that $1,000,000 a year is being spent in this way on fine New York residences.

J. Hamilton Lewis, the former representative from the state of Washington, has sailed for Europe to promote the Trans-Alaskan-Siberian railroad, which will be run under Behring strait and unite Paris and New York by rail. The estate of the late Daniel Wells, Jr., of Milwaukee has been inventoried at about $10,000,000. While he was regarded as a wealthy man during his life few supposed he was worth more than a quarter of the sum named.

BETTER THAN GOLD

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 60c. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. W. Fisher, druggist.

WHY BRADFORD GOES TO SEA

A Feud of Long Standing Exists Between the Rear Admiral and the Secretary of the Navy

HAS OPPOSED MOODY IN SEVERAL THINGS

Open Rupture Is Avoided and the Officer Accepts An Assignment Which Loses Him Several Numbers in Rank. Will Command the Illinois

WASHINGTON, August 7.—The request of Rear Admiral Bradford, chief of the bureau of equipment of the navy department, that he be assigned to sea duty has back of it an interesting story. Ever since 1897 Bradford has held his position in the navy department and during several years of that time there has been a feud between him and Secretary Moody while the latter was both in and out of Congress. The trouble was started by the request of the hydrographic bureau of the navy department for a large appropriation to carry on the work of charting seas, etc. This request met with strong opposition from Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, and Representative Moody, his chief lieutenant, who declared that practically the same work as that performed by the hydrographic office was done by a civilian branch of the government service and that the appropriation was not necessary. Moody and Cannon were successful in killing the appropriation for the time being, but the senate reinserted the item and stood "pat," so that the house was forced to yield and agree to it in conference. Messrs. Cannon and Moody renewed the fight on the floor of the house when the conference report was brought up. Mr. Moody made a strong speech, in which he declared that a clique of naval officers had improperly exercised the influence of the senate to have the objectionable appropriation reinserted. Although he did not mention Admiral Bradford's name, it was understood that he was hitting at that officer in particular. Mr. Moody was unsuccessful in his fight, but ever since he has felt bad about the affair. When the appointment of Mr. Moody as secretary of the navy was announced it was expected that Admiral Bradford would request sea duty. And when he held on to his position, the navy department was surprised anybody if an open rupture had occurred. However, they got along peacefully until recently, when Admiral Bradford stated that some members of the construction board when the plans for the new 12,000-ton battleships were being considered. The board wanted speed subordinated to armor and armament, which proposition was strongly objected to by Admiral Bradford. The board's plans have the endorsement of Secretary Moody and the activities of Bradford were not agreeable to the secretary. Simultaneously with the height of the controversy came the announcement that Admiral Bradford had requested to be assigned to sea duty and would have his wish granted in the winter. The "request" for the change probably came from Moody rather than Bradford. The latter had a good berth in the department in which he would not want to expire for two years more, with the title of rear admiral. When he goes to sea he will have to resume his regular rank, which is that of captain only. Therefore it is not easy to see why he should want a change, even though he is to command the magnificent battleship Illinois.

A COLLEGE IN DALLAS

The Metropolitan Business College, Dallas, is one of the most renowned institutions of its kind in the southwest. It is the leading and largest Business College in Texas. The Metropolitan Business College is introducing the celebrated Bliss system of Actual Business from the Start—the greatest system of Bookkeeping, Banking, Office Routine and Business Practice ever devised. There is no course taught by any other business college in Texas that in any manner approaches the Bliss system. During September the M. B. C. will issue unlimited scholarships, good to complete the full course in Gregg Shorthand and Touch Typewriting, for $25 as a special introductory offer. There is an expert teacher of the Gregg system. The Metropolitan is expecting a large attendance this fall and winter, and no young man or woman will make a mistake who patronizes this well-known institution.

LATE RATES AND DATES

Railroads Announce Many Convention Dates in August

The Rock Island announces an open rate of one and one-third fares to Galveston on account of the synod of the Texas Cumberland Presbyterian church, Sept. 17 to 21. Special rates are also named for the American Bankers' Association at Los Angeles and San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 29 to 31.

The Santa Fe has authorized a one-and-one-third fare to Evansville, Ind., on account of the annual meeting of the Association of Stationary Engineers, Sept. 1 to 5; to Ladonia, on account of the Firemen's picnic, August 12 and 13; to Philadelphia, on account of the National Baptist convention (colored), Sept. 16 to 22; Wayne, Texas, on account of the Baptist state Sunday school convention (colored), August 18 to 23; to Gatesville, Texas, on account of the Confederate Veterans' reunion, August 12 to 14.

VALUE OF EDUCATION

Some recent statistics bearing on this subject are of great interest. Because our grandfathers and grandmothers succeeded without an education in the days of the stage coach, there is no reason to believe that we can do the same in this age of push and progress. Reliable statistics show that an uneducated child has only one chance in 150,000 of attaining distinction as a factor in the progress of the age. Statistics show further that a common school education will make a child's chances for success four times as great as those of an uneducated child; that a high training will make the chances for success eighty-seven times as great, and that a college education will make the chances 800 times as great. These facts are worthy of serious consideration. The Thomas School, at San Antonio, Texas, is doing its share in the education of the girls of Texas. The success of this school in the past is an earnest of its success in the future. Catalogues will be sent on application.

FOR SEWERAGE SYSTEM

Enthusiastic Meeting of Citizens in the Eighth Ward

At a meeting of representative citizens of the Eighth ward last evening, Judge W. D. Harris, A. Aronson and J. Strong were appointed as a committee to confer with the city council with reference to devising ways and means of establishing a system of sewerage over that portion of the city.

The meeting was held at Brisman's, Fifth avenue and Magnolia street, and was attended by a number of officials of the city. The committee will ascertain what amount of money will be subscribed by citizens of the ward, and report at an early date. There was much interest manifested in the project, which means a great deal to Eighth warders.

WANT A CAR OF SEEDS

L. C. Hill, Horticultural Agent of the Santa Fe, Tells of Their Value

L. C. Hill, horticultural agent of the Santa Fe, says fruit growers along that line in Texas will use one car load of peach seeds in the fall planting this year, and suggests that merchants in towns where peach seeds are included in the market products of that place correspond with him relative to the sale of the same. Peach seeds are worth 50 cents per bushel, and at this rate the value of a car load will reach $250. Mr. Hill estimates that there are at least five car loads of peach seeds wasted annually between here and Kansas.

TRAIN LOAD OF VINEGAR

Large Consignment Over the Frisco Passed Through Fort Worth

The first solid train load of vinegar ever shipped to Texas passed through Fort Worth over the Frisco one day recently. The consignment of sixteen cars was direct from Pittsburg, Pa., and was destined to Sherman for distribution. It was loaded in refrigerator cars, properly banded, and made a fine showing not only for the factory, but for the Frisco as well. E. M. Winstead, commercial agent for the Frisco at Fort Worth, had a photograph taken of the train and is now distributing placards with a picture of the special properly displayed.

Wages Rock Island Employees Receive Under New Scale

According to the agreement arrived at between the Rock Island and the trainmen and conductors on that system Wednesday, passenger conductors will receive an increase of 12 per cent over their rate in force Jan. 1, 1920, which was $125. Freight conductors are to get a raise of 15 per cent over the scale, which was 3 cents a mile. Freight brakemen will get an increase of 15 per cent over their former scale of 2 cents a mile. Passenger brakemen, whose scale varies in different portions of the country, get a 12 per cent increase. This new wage scale is to date from August 1 this year.

COMEDY OF LOVE

A comedy of love was enacted recently at Olney, Ill. A bashful young man, Edward E. Bird of Noble, went to get a marriage license which would enable him to marry Miss Rose Mosser. He approached the clerk who had just finished making out a hunter's license. Turning to Bird, he asked: "Do you want one?" "Yes," said the bashful Mr. Bird. "Therefore the clerk made out a document, describing the color of his hair and eyes, giving his height, weight and age and other characteristics. Taking the license, the young man set out to find his fiancée and then to find a minister. The clergyman was about to perform the ceremony when he looked at the license. "Well," he said, "this authorizes you to hunt various kinds of game, but I don't see anything authorizing you to take a wife. The two men made an appointment to meet and look at each other. They were not disappointed. They decided on an immediate marriage and at 2 o'clock in the morning hunted up Magistrate Stout at his home, roused him out of bed, and had the ceremony performed. The magistrate in his night garments, the bride and groom took the matter philosophically and said that his son was old enough to take care of his own heart as well as his purse.

A STRANGE COURTSHIP

Jacob S. Rosenthal of Cincinnati went about his courtship in a strange way. He represents a New York house, and in the course of his traveling stopped at Indianapolis. He used the telephone on numerous occasions and fell in love with the voice of the telephone operator. He proposed marriage over the telephone and was accepted.

ROMANTIC AFFAIR

Miss Bessie McNeal of Wayne, Neb., also had a peculiar sort of wedding. She escaped from Wayne in boy's clothing with Henry A. Blunt and was married at Sioux City in the presence of her stepmother and all her relatives. The getaway in boy's clothing was just to add a dash of romance to the affair. They had been caught on the runaway by their stepmother and had been brought back to Wayne. There everything was talked over and it was agreed to permit the marriage. So the wedding party set out for Sioux City and there the marriage took place. The bride wore her hair tied with a ribbon and hanging down her back.

NOT MISSED UNTIL THE BLAZE WAS OVER

WEATHERFORD, Texas, August 7.—

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon John, aged 5 years, son of Mike Solan, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his father's barn.
Mr. Solan lives on North Main street. During the afternoon his barn was discovered to be on fire. Although the alarm was turned in at once, and the department responded the blaze had gotten such headway that it was impossible to save the structure.
When the fire was over and Mr. Solan and his family gathered about the ruins of the building, there were inquiries for the boy. He could not be found, and a search was made. The absence of the little fellow increased each moment the anxiety of the parents, and finally when a suggestion was made that the ruins be searched, the charred remains of the little fellow were found.
It is presumed the boy was playing in the barn at the time of the fire and being unable to get out of the place, and unable to realize fully his danger and make an outcry which could be heard, he was cremated.

POLL TAX EXEMPTIONS

ATTORNEY GENERAL ANSWERS A QUESTION FROM COLLECTORS

He States How Certificates Shall be Issued to Those in Large Towns Not Required to Pay

AUSTIN, Texas, August 6.—The following instructions and opinion of the attorney general has been sent to the various tax collectors of the state by Comptroller Stephens relative to the payment of poll tax by persons residing in cities of 10,000 inhabitants or more.
This question came up from the tax collectors' convention held in San Antonio through its president and was referred by the comptroller to the attorney general.
The question propounded by the collectors are:
Are certificates of exemption from payment of poll taxes under the Terrell election law to be issued to persons residing in a city of 10,000 inhabitants or over or only, or are they also to be issued to voters residing in the country?
The attorney general refers to section 26, chapter 101, acts of the Twenty-eighth legislature, which provides: Every person who is exempted by law from the payment of poll tax, and who is in other respects a disqualified voter, who resides in any city of 10,000 inhabitants or more, shall, before the first day of February of the year in which he offers to vote, obtain from the tax collector of the county of his residence, a certificate showing his exemption from the payment of a poll tax, etc.

In the latter part of section 54 of the law, which provides for voting at elections, is the following clause: Provided that those who are exempted from the payment of a poll tax and who do not reside in a city of 10,000 inhabitants or more shall not be required to obtain or present said certificate of exemption.
The latter part of section 52, which applies to primary elections and conventions, contains the following language: Provided that this section shall not apply to towns and cities with a population of less than 10,000 in so far as it applies to certificates of exemption.

From the above provisions of the law, the attorney general concludes that certificates of exemption are not to be issued to voters unless they reside in a city of 10,000 inhabitants or over.

COCOA WOMAN AS MOUNTAIN SCALER
Somewhere in the French city of Lyons is a little cocoa shop kept by a woman who has won a record in the Alps which veteran climbers may well envy. For years she has followed the French Alpine troops with her basket, marching with them on their maneuvers with her walking stick as support and her basket of cocoa as excuse. Within a few days this wonderful woman has scaled a mountain 2,500 feet high, crossed another covered with snow, ascended another to a height of 2,800 meters, climbed with the troops to the top of Mont Cenlis, and finally left the regiment at the summit of the Frejus, a height of 2,700 meters. Soldier after soldier fell out of the ranks, but the cocoa woman marched on up the Alps and down the Alps.

She was pastor in Boston a year and a half and then regularly ordained to the Unitarian ministry after which she was pastor of the church in Sioux City. In addition to her work as pastor in Des Moines Miss Stafford is state secretary of the Iowa Unitarian Association, which means that she is in some sense a bishop of the church in Iowa. She travels a great deal, organizing and stimulating churches.

LEO AS A HORTICULTURIST
The late pope, Marign Crawford tells, was fond of variety—and no wonder, shut up for life as he was in the vatican. He enjoyed directing work and improvements in the garden, where he showed himself no mean horticulturist. One day he complained to the director of the gardens, Cavaliere Cesare Balzani, that an ivy seemed to be in bad condition. "Why are you letting this plant die?" the pope asked.
"Holy father, the soil is so bad."
"You don't know what you are talking about, or else you think we believe everything you may please to tell us."
Then followed a dissertation on ivy culture which led the mortified Cesare to exclaim: "He can teach everyone from the cardinals to his gardener. You can't get over him."

MYSTERIOUS CIRCUMSTANCE
One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs, they compel good digestion and head off consumption. Try them. Only 25c at the Hevva Pharmacy.
