CURTAIN DRAWN IN MANCHURIA

No News of Russian or Japanese Movements for Past Twenty-four Hours

LAST MESSAGE OMINOUS

Conveyed Fear That Japs Had Planned Attack When Russians Leave Hills

ST. PETERSBURG, March 18, 2 p. m.—Telegraphic communication with the retreating Russian army has been cut over twenty-four hours, but the authorities hope it is only temporary, declaring they have no information that the Japanese reached the railroad in General Linevitch's rear. Nevertheless with the curtain down the war office naturally is the prey of the direst forebodings. The last word from the front was contained in a telegram from one of the Associated Press Russian correspondents, the only correspondent with the retreating army. It presaged an attack from the rear. The telegram although dated at Changtu, forty miles north of Tie Pass, 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, was sent from Layluyan, thirty miles north of Tie Pass, and only reached St. Petersburg this morning.

It is very brief, saying simply the army was retreating in good order, destroying the railroad as it went, but constantly pressed by the Japanese, their rear guard action being continuous.

There are ominous words in the concluding sentence, as follows: We believe the Japanese are making a wide turning movement north and they are ready to fall upon us when we get out of the ring-like group of mountains which surround Tie Pass gorge.

In the long retreat to Harbin, the Russians only have the advantage of the Mandarin road so far as Kaiyuan whence it bears eastward to Kirin, while the railroad continues north to Harbin. According to the general staff, however, a good wagon road runs parallel to the railroad, but for an army of a quarter of a million men encumbered with impediments, with an active enemy relentlessly pursuing and operating on its flanks and the constant threat of the enemy closing the line of retreat, it is admitted General Linevitch may be unable to bring off remnants of his army without a tremendous sacrifice of life.

If the Japanese actually succeed in throwing a strong force across the line of retreat it is recognized that the army might be forced to capitulate. In the meantime the mobilization of the new army has already begun in several provinces, although the order is not yet published. A division of the imperial guards of St. Petersburg received its orders today. Newspapers generally indicate Linevitch's selection as temporary commander-in-chief on the ground that Kuropatkin's lack of success made his supersession imperative. At the same time it is recognized Kuropatkin's failure also rests on other shoulders. Pity is expressed at his sad fate.

SECRETARY HAY COLLAPSES AS HE BOARDS STEAMER

Faints Suddenly as He Steps on Gangplank and Almost Falls—Later Taken Aboard on Wheel Chair

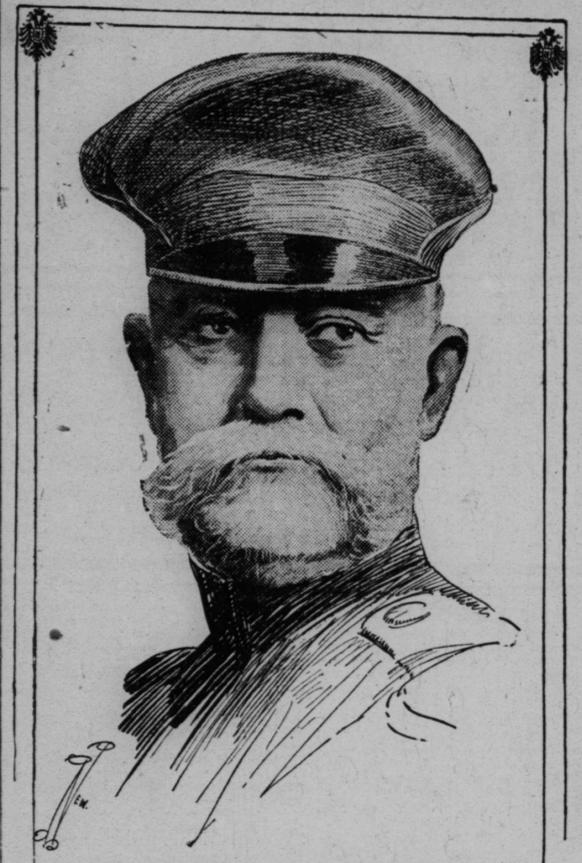

NEW YORK, March 18.—Secretary of State Hay, as he was boarding the steamer Cretic to sail for Europe today, was seized with a fit of weakness as he stepped upon the gangplank and nearly collapsed. As he was going aboard with his daughter and Henry Adams, a friend of the secretary, he was seen to turn pale, stagger, gasp as if for breath and he would have fallen had not his friend supported him. He was taken to a pile of freight where he sat down until attendants brought a wheel chair, on which he was taken aboard the Cretic.

MRS. CHADWICK'S PROPERTY IS SOLD

Personal Chattels Disposed of at Cleveland to A. D. Nelson for $25,200

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 18.—The household property of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was sold at auction yesterday to A. D. Nelson of New York for $25,200. Samuel L. Winteritz of Chicago was the second highest bidder, with a bid of $25,100. There were twenty bidders.

Kuropatkin's Successor In Command of Russian Forces In Manchuria

LIEUTENANT-GENERAL LINEVITCH

Lieutenant General Linevitch, the new commander in chief of the Russian land and sea forces in the Far East, is in the sixty-sixth year of his age. He was fighting in the Caucasus when he was 21, took part in the Russo-Turkish war of 1877-78, and has since then taken part in all of the Russian Asiatic campaigns. Linevitch was also prominent in the relief of the legations at Peking. He is greatly beloved by the soldiers because of his constant solicitude for their welfare. At the battle of Mukden General Linevitch was reported March 5 as stubbornly holding his position and as having repulsed thirteen consecutive attacks of the Japanese. But in spite of this he is said to have escaped with slight losses and March 12 he entered the Russian lines south of Tie Pass with his regiments in perfect order. The following day the Russian troops, apparently those commanded by General Linevitch repulsed a Japanese attack at the Fan river, the Japanese leaving a thousand men killed before the Russian position.

CATTLEMEN WILL NOT AUCTION CONVENTION

The executive committee of the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas in its regular session today, took action that is in accordance with the dignity and importance of that great organization, and in keeping with the traditions of that splendid organization.

The committee by unanimous vote, has determined that it will not place the next annual meeting up to be auctioned off to the highest bidder, as was suggested at the last annual meeting held in this city, but will adhere to the old custom of awarding it to the city where it is deemed best to hold these annual meetings, as has been the custom in the past.

This is peculiarly gratifying to the citizens of Fort Worth, and to the friends of the association as a whole. It shows that the greatest organization of cattlemen on the whole face of the earth will not be dominated by any form of commercialism, but will be true to its former customs, its dignity and its importance.

Now let the committee decide to hold all its annual meetings in Fort Worth, except when in the discretion of that honorable body it is necessary to go elsewhere, and future trouble on this score will be entirely obviated. Fort Worth presents a standing invitation to that effect and asks its careful consideration.

PYTHIANS VISIT MASONIC HOME

Committee on Sites for Widows' and Orphans' Home Is Here Today

The state committee appointed by the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, to recommend a site for the proposed Pythian Orphans and Widows' Home and Industrial school arrived in the city today, after having visited several Texas cities which had offered inducements for the establishment of the home there. The committee today visited the Masonic Home, situated southeast of town. From here they will go to Weatherford, the last place to be considered.

Towns visited so far are: Palestine, Corsicana, Temple and Belton, which was the home established on the car line between the two towns; Brenham, Corpus Christi, Dublin and Comanche.

After looking over the situation at Weatherford the committee will draw up a report, recommending one of the towns named, which will be presented to the grand lodge meeting, which will be held at Mineral Wells, April 25. So far no statement has been made as to which of the towns will get the home.

LIVELY CONTEST FOR PRESIDENCY

Ed Crowley and A. B. Robertson Are Being Urged for Cattlemen's Honor

From what is learned here today a lively contest for the presidency of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association is promised at the coming convention.

Ed Crowley of Midland has been mentioned in connection with the place and A. B. Robertson of Colorado City has been strongly solicited to offer for the place. W. W. Turney, the present incumbent, is to be in the race, provided the constitution of the association is modified to permit an officer to hold a third term. The general impression among cattlemen already seen is that if Mr. Turney can be legally re-elected he will be the choice of the majority of the stockmen.

Partisans of both Mr. Robertson and Mr. Crowley, however, are beginning to arrive in large numbers.

ARAB CAPITAL IS SEIZED
ADEN, March 18.—It is reported that Sana, the capital of the province of Yaman, with its garrison of 5,000 men, has fallen into the hands of Arab insurgents. The governor, it is added, previously offered to surrender, but his terms were not acceptable to the besiegers.

TRYING TO WAKE HER UP

COGHLAN WANTS A LARGER NAVY

Rear Admiral Follows President's Plea for More Battleships

NEW YORK, March 18.—Rear Admiral Coghlan spoke last night at the banquet given by the Empire State Society of Sons of the American Revolution. He did not begin his remarks until after President Roosevelt left the room to begin the return journey to Washington. He followed the line of the chief executive in an appeal for the rebuilding of the navy, and a high standard of its personnel, and his plea was that all should study the lesson of the Revolutionary war, the war of 1812 and the Mexican war.

"The president took all the wind out of my sails," said the rear admiral.

"However, let me begin with the old adage, 'In time of peace prepare for war.' The president spoke of having some forty ships. As a matter of fact we will have only twenty-seven by next spring, when the new ones are completed, and only sixteen first-class battleships to defend the country. We shall also have some twelve armored cruisers, but these cannot be called battleships.

In 1903 we will need some 65,000 enlisted men and we have to try to get the best men. We must build up our navy uniformly and rapidly. Our personnel is improving very rapidly and at the present time is equal if not superior to any navy."

MAN MUST GIVE WAY TO BIRDS

Chicago Professor Says Human Race Will Be Extinct in 3,000,000 Years

CHICAGO, March 18.—The human race will be extinct on this earth in the course of a few million years, according to Professor Samuel Williston, professor of paleontology at the University. While lecturing on the future of the earth's inhabitants Professor Williston declared that, in his opinion, instead of men at this future date, which he told the students would not come for something like three million years, the earth will be dominated by birds.

"It will only be a natural course of events that will ultimately drive men from the dominant sphere on earth," said Professor Williston. "First came the fishes. They were dominant for a while and had to give way to the amphibians. Then came the reptiles and soon they yielded to the mammals. Now the mammals are weakening and the newest class, the birds, is growing into prominence and in time, I sincerely believe, will be the dominant inhabitants of the earth.

TO DECORATE FOR PRES. ROOSEVELT

House at Austin Votes to Spend Sum of $300—Terrell Creates a Stir

AUSTIN, Texas, March 18.—The house committee on contingent expenses, at a meeting held yesterday, decided to appropriate the sum of $300 from the contingent fund for the purpose of decorating the hall on the occasion of the president's visit.

The committee did not formulate a plan for decorating the hall except that one feature should be "ROOSEVELT."

It is now understood the president will be in Austin either on the 6th or 7th of April, and remain from 1 to 5 o'clock p. m.

JUDGE TERRELL CAUSES STIR

Judge Terrell of Travis created an interesting time in the house yesterday when the election bill was under consideration. He said: "I have talked on this bill already too much, but I cannot keep silent under the circumstances. I must remove the mask from the opposition in this house. I speak with great deference to our presiding officer, yet I hold in my hand a little blank book containing thirty amendments to the bill, all in his handwriting. You said, sir, some time ago it would take three weeks to consider this bill. At the present rate of progress, and the gavel in the hands of the present man, it will take forty days to consider it. I say it with respect, God forbid that I or any member of this house should cringe or crawl before that gavel which the people of Texas have placed in your hands. If you are determined to kill a bill demanded by the democratic party and people of Texas, kill it by striking out the enacting clause and not with your gavel. I do not impugn the speaker's motives, but he is an old and avowed enemy to this measure, having fought it two years ago, and he is still fighting it with the help of a few other members on this floor.

"I protest now and here most solemnly against the ruling power in this body to use his official station on his official influence against it. If it is to die, let it be killed, I say, by striking out its head, and let this house go on and transact some other business.

"I speak earnestly; I speak in all sincerity; I impugn no man's motive, but I must speak plainly because the purity of elections in this state is at stake for years to come, and I cannot sit here in the councils of the people with sealed lips, and silent when this act is assailed, and its final passage threatened by influences which I cannot approve.

Mr. Seabury called Mr. Robertson to the chair and took the floor. He recited his connection with the bill during the Twenty-eighth legislature and during the present, admitted having prepared the amendments referred to by Judge Terrell and placed them in the hands of a member on the floor to be introduced, but declared they were for the purpose of perfecting and not destroying it.

"The purpose of my amendments," Mr. Seabury said, "is to protect the democratic voters in republican districts. I am a democrat and not ashamed of it, and I am a friend of the bill, and do not care to defeat it.

"I feel hurt, of course, at the criticism of the gentleman from Travis. His attack is surprising and unjust, and I feel sure that Judge Terrell will be one of the first men on this floor to see it."

Mr. Seabury's reply was very short. He was quite composed, and delivered his rejoinder in a plain conversational manner.

THIRD COLORADO GOVERNOR NOW IN

J. E. McDonald Becomes State Executive Succeeding Adams and Peabody

DENVER, Col., March 18.—In the last twenty-four hours Colorado has had three governors. The bargain made by leaders of the opposing republican factions of Colorado to take the governor's chair from Alva Adams and to seat Lieutenant Governor J. F. McDonald, after permitting James H. Peabody to hold office for one day, was carried to a conclusion last night.

Governor Peabody, in fulfillment of the agreement which he made prior to the action of the general assembly, resigned yesterday afternoon the office to which a day previously he was inaugurated. His resignation, of which W. S. Boynton of Colorado Springs had been custodian since Wednesday, when it was written, was filed in the office of the secretary of state at 4 p. m. James Cowie, secretary of state, immediately certified Governor Peabody's resignation and Lieutenant Governor McDonald was then sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Gabert. There was no further ceremony.

Governor Adams was ousted and Governor Peabody installed by the general assembly about 5 o'clock Thursday evening, and Governor McDonald was sworn in at 5 o'clock yesterday, thus completing the record of three governors inside of twenty-four hours.

Governor Peabody transacted practically no business of state while in the office of governor. He received many callers, who urged him to resign, and also many messages of the same importation by telegraph and telephone. To all these he replied that he did not care to hold the chair. He said that he was tired of the worry and excitement of his contest and wished to go back to his bank in Canyon City. Half a dozen members of the National Guard patrolled the corridors about the executive chamber during the day as a guard for Governor Peabody.

Lieutenant Governor McDonald reluctantly takes the chair which Peabody resigned and Governor Adams took. The lieutenant governor has taken no part in the bitter fight over the governorship, which has been waged ever since the election on Nov. 8. He absolutely refused to aid his friends in the legislature to have him made the governor and as presiding officer of the joint assembly he made several rulings against the movement in his behalf.

Senator Cornforth, president pro tempore of the senate, becomes acting lieutenant governor on the elevation of Lieutenant Governor McDonald to the office of chief executive.

The two men. For the first time in weeks the profoundest silence reigned. Even the lobby was silent.

As a matter of history the incident was very remarkable. It is perhaps the first time in the annals of the state that a member of the legislature assailed the speaker of the house face to face, specified who he was talking about and particularized as to what his grievances were.

HEAVY RAINFALL CAUSES WASHOUT

Traffic on Rock Island Delayed and T. and P. Train Wrecked

LIVE WIRE STUNS HORSE

Occupants of Buggy Have Narrow Escape—First Hail of Year Falls

The first hail to fall in the city in the year 1905 fell Friday night, shortly after 8 o'clock, accompanied by violent lightning and thunder. Hail stones as large as cherries fell in some parts of the city between 8:20 and 8:35 o'clock. No damage resulted. The storm itself lasted only a short time, rain falling only from 8:20 to 8:45 o'clock. Thunder was first heard at 8:20 o'clock and did not cease until 11 o'clock. The total precipitation registered at the weather station here was .69 inches.

During the storm the temperature dropped from 64 to 54 degrees. The wind attained a maximum velocity of twenty-seven miles an hour.

The rainy and unsettled conditions prevailed almost over the entire state yesterday. A washout is reported on the Rock Island just west of Dallas, caused by the rising of the Elm fork of the Trinity, preventing the passage of trains this morning. Rock Island trains from Dallas arrived here over the Texas and Pacific tracks. A special crew of men with a pile driver was hurriedly dispatched to the scene.

WRECK ON TEXAS AND PACIFIC
A message received at railway mail headquarters in this city this morning says that Texas and Pacific train No. 3, which left Texarkana Friday night, was wrecked west of Marshall as a result of a washout. The mail was considerably damaged, but none of the mail clerks were injured.

Rain fell all through North and West Texas yesterday and is today working toward the coast, the weather map reporting rain at Corpus Christi at 7 o'clock this morning.

TROLLEY WIRE FELL
The storm in the city Friday evening caused a trolley wire on Rusk street to fall, the live wire striking a horse driven by John Erisman, knocking the animal down and burning it so that death will probably result. Erisman was accompanied by two young women, who were not injured. Erisman was shocked and temporarily paralyzed in trying to aid the horse.

MONTHLY AVERAGE EXCEEDED
The present month of March is considered above the average so far in regard to precipitation, the total up to the present being 2.80 inches, while the normal for the month is 2.08.

Thunderstorms occurred Friday in Memphis, Tenn., Kansas City and Concordia, Kan.

to close the alley in that block, which now runs east and west through the block, and to open a ten-foot alley running from north to the south, was referred to the streets and alleys committee.

The matter of granting the Stewart-Blynon Company the right of erecting a scale in front of their building on Throckmorton street, was referred to the streets and alleys committee.

A complaint was filed by citizens living in Cleander street, complaining of the condition of the street, due to the poor drainage and the collecting of water after each rain.

A petition was read to the meeting from Kuben & Uglow, asking for the right to erect a refreshment stand in the city park, and stating that if granted that the stand would cost approximately $150 and be used for the purpose of selling ice cream, lemonade, soda water, etc.

The city democratic executive committee filed with the city secretary the names of the democratic nominees for the spring election, they giving James H. Maddox for city marshal and W. J. Gilvin for city assessor and collector.

The matter of builders extending the walls of new buildings over the sidewalks was introduced by Alderman Henderson and he asked that the city attorney be instructed to look into the matter and see if the interests of the city could not be protected and any such encroachment be paid for.

Alderman Lebane stated to the council that a delegation of the members of the Business Men's League of Memphis were to reach Fort Worth Wednesday evening, and asked that they be properly entertained. He asked that as many of the council as was possible and the mayor meet them. The invitation was accepted by the council.

At this point Alderman Moreland rose to ask that a committee be appointed to meet with the various other committees of the city in preparing the reception to the president. While addressing the meeting a fire burned out and the chamber was in utter darkness. The chair continued the meeting for a moment or two and appointed a committee as stated above.

A motion for adjournment was then made and the council adjourned. The members and spectators present were only able to find their way from the building by the judicious use of matches.

Right Living

Means Health, Energy and a Clear Brain.

The modern tendency is to take less medicine, and pay more attention to the selection of proper food.

All physicians and food experts agree that the whole wheat grain properly cooked is the most healthful and nourishing form of food known. Common flour loses some of the essential elements of right food. Other cereals heat the blood and are indigestible.

Egg-O-See is the ideal whole wheat food. It is scientifically steam cooked in air tight sanitary ovens, and its preparation retains all the elements of wheat necessary for health and strength.

Egg-O-See is not a premium or gift scheme. There is nothing but the best food in the package, and it is sold entirely on its merits as a food.

Egg-O-See is not only healthful, but it is the daintiest and most flavored of all flaked wheat foods.

"Nearly everybody eats it now."

place in Santo Domingo, and by what authority or by whose order or direction the same has been executed and enforced, and what was done by any such person in the execution of enforcement thereof.

"That said committee is furthermore expected to inquire and report what correspondence, if any, has taken place between any officers or department of the government of the United States and the Dominican government or any person claiming to represent such government since 1897, in relation to the creation of any treaty relations with said government by the United States, or in any relation to the granting of naval or coaling stations by the Dominican government to the United States, or for any protectorate over the Dominican government by the United States, or in any relation to the acceptance by the United States of any trust or fiduciary relation toward the Dominican government or its creditors, or any relation between them looking toward the adjustment of the claims of the Dominican government and the administration of its revenue laws for the payment thereof."

FORAKER IN DEFENSE. Later in the executive session of the senate Senator Morgan continued his speech in which he disclosed the details of certain concessions sought in Santo Domingo by a Mr. and Mrs. Reeder, operating under the name of the Reeder Syndicate.

Before the doors were closed he offered a resolution calling for an investigation of Dominican affairs by the senate committee on foreign relations. Later, in the secret session, he challenged the senate to adopt the resolution. He said that if this were done the charges he made Thursday connecting William Nelson Cromwell of New York with a move to bring about the offering of the gold office of the United States to adjust the financial affairs of the Dominican government would be proven. Senator Morgan spoke until 4:45 p. m., when Senator Foraker took the floor in defense of Mr. Cromwell. He read a telegram from Mr. Cromwell identical with statement which Mr. Cromwell gave to the press in New York. In the speech reference was made several times to the part Commander Dillingham had played in the Dominican affairs.

Mr. Perkins said that he had been informed on high authority at the navy department that Commander Dillingham was selected to go to Santo Domingo at the time a warship was called for because of his familiarity with the Dominican people and knowledge of the section of the country, and because his duties as a peacemaker were recognized. It was said that he was not clothed with any diplomatic authority whatever, but was told to confer with Minister Dawson. There was also some discussion of the publication of the executive session secrets.

It is not determined whether the treaty will be recommitted, or whether it will be allowed to lapse without action of any kind. The senate is continuing today it will be because of delay in getting certain nominations settled. The controversies that have been holding the senate are in relation to Illinois judgeships and the appointment of an international revenue collector in West Virginia.

FRANCHISES MUST WAIT ACTION ON REFERENDUM

City Council Decides to Follow Rule on Application Made by G. W. Armstrong

Every member of the council was present at the session of last night. The meeting was called to order promptly and from the first tap of the mayor's gavel until the minute of adjournment the council did some speedy work. Occasionally during the meeting several of the members would suggest the referendum as a solution of some of the problems before the council.

The first matter to be brought before the council after disposition of regular routine business was the complaint of Charles Baggett, asking for a rebate on his water charges on the ground that the rate was too high. The water used was consumed at four little houses he owns. The alderman from the Fourth ward put the matter before the council and called attention to the fact that every one who thought they had any kind of a grievance against this department of the city referred it to him and that to him alone they came for redress. He further stated that he was not a member of this department and was powerless to assist the applicant or any others in securing redress of this nature. He asked the members of the council to decide whether or not the rate was too high. It was the sense of the council that no exceptions could be made to the regular rules and no action was taken on the complaint of Mr. Baggett.

G. W. Armstrong asked the council to grant him a franchise to lay steam heating pipes to furnish heat to the buildings in the business section between Rusk and Houston and from the court house to Eighth streets. This matter brought up considerable discussion and the matter was finally disposed of by the matter being laid over until the referendum portion of the new charter now before the legislature at Austin be acted upon. The committee to whom this matter had originally been referred reported that Mr. Armstrong also wished a permit to lay a pipe or pipes for the purpose of conveying water, steam and oil from the Natatorium building on Rusk to a lot opposite. The second recommendation of the committee was finally granted, after much discussion with the proviso that if the pipes were used for conveying water to other parties with a rental charge attached that the grant be forfeited. Alderman Waggonman stated during the arguments regarding the matter of pipe laying across the street, that Judge Armstrong wished to make improvements that would amount to nearly $60,000.

A report of the streets and alleys committee was read, regarding the petition of Mrs. Tidball, asking that Alston avenue be widened and stated that the suggested

BACKACHE? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS!

Does your urine stain linen? Do you have an unusual desire to urinate, especially during the night? Is there a smarting or scalding sensation in passing it? Does it pain you to hold it? Are you sore, weak or lame in the lower part of the back? Do you start or jump up quickly in your sleep? Are your eyes sunken, face pale and bloated? Do you have ringing sounds in your ears? Are you easily fatigued? Is your breath short? Is your sleep not refreshing? Is there swelling around the eyes, ankles and abdomen? Skin pale, hot and dry? Do you have nervous symptoms, backache, headache, cramps in the legs? Are your bowels constipated and digestion impaired? If you have any of the above symptoms, your kidneys are diseased and your life in danger.

B. W. Irwin, of Reidsburg, Pa., wrote, on Aug. 14, 1904: "I took the best doctors two years to discover that the kidneys were the real cause of all my trouble. I kept getting weaker and sicker. My weight went down from 210 to 100 pounds. My eyes and skin were yellow; my stomach out of order, and at times the pains in my head and back were almost unbearable. I believed I'd die, and it's a wonder I didn't. They thought I had stomach trouble and treated me for it, but I got no better. Finally one doctor decided my kidneys were affected and prescribed Warner's Safe Cure. In four months I had regained my weight and never felt better in my life. The doctors and my friends were dumbfounded at my remarkable recovery, and unite with me in proclaiming Warner's Safe Cure the greatest medicine in the world for curing kidney diseases."

If you have any doubt as to the development of the disease in ANALYSIS FREE. your system, send a sample of your urine to the medical department, Warner Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y., and our doctors will analyze it and send a report with additional medical booklet free.

SPRING FEVER RULES IN PANAMA

Fred E. Stiner Returns From Canal Zone With Discouraging Report

Fred E. Stiner of Oklahoma City was in Fort Worth Friday evening on his way home from the isthmus of Panama, where he has been for several months. In speaking of the country and its conditions he said:

"No man, in my opinion, can spend several months in that country without forming two decided convictions. The first of these is that John F. Wallace, the chief engineer, is the right man in the right place and the other is that a sea level canal is the only proper one to construct.

"One seeing the situation there as I have seen it will readily agree that the entire work should be under the jurisdiction of one engineer, who should be left to decide the important points. Work cannot be carried on as speedily when three or more men on some commission must be consulted each time a new move is made. It is simply holding back the work. Mr. Wallace is wrapped up in his work and is anxious to make the canal project a successful one. If he is to be judged by his achievements in the past, my notion is that he ought to have a free hand in the matter and be permitted to work as he deems best.

"The isthmus is not a salubrious country, by any means, and even the optimism of Minister Barrett has cooled down considerably as to its healthfulness. There is considerable yellow fever there, and a person not in the best of health is likely to fall a victim. The climate is not so bad, but it is enervating and it makes all men lazy and especially the white man, who have read about the many wonderful things of that country and have decided there from all parts of the world. As a result there are more men there now than jobs, but in many cases the jobs must go begging as the men refuse to do the work.

"These conditions are going to make the labor problems difficult ones. The present forces are largely made up of Jamaica negroes and blacks from Honduras and other hot countries. A lazier and more worthless lot I have never seen. As an illustration, about a dozen of them will take hold of a piece of timber to move it that two men in this country could handle as easily. For this work they get $1.50 a day, which in our money is but 75 cents, and yet, if I had to pay them out of my own pocket I would not be willing to pay them anything the amount of work they do at more than 10 cents a day, and a full day at that too. They are as independent as they can be and there is no solution of the problem, but to hire them, for the other men won't work, you might as well let them quit work on the instant.

"It is a curious fact that these negroes on the isthmus consider themselves superior to the negroes in the United States and for that reason they would resent any intrusion on the work by colored workmen from this country, and everyone of them would quit work the instant our negroes were sent there. This has been agitated as being a solution of the labor problem there, but it would do no good, for neither kind would do any more work than the negroes there now, in my opinion."

AMUSEMENTS

FLORENCE ROBERTS

One of the most charming and interesting plays in Florence Roberts' varied repertoire is "Marta of the Lowlands," which the gifted actress will present for Tuesday night of her engagement at the Greenwall opera house. "Marta" was originally produced by Mrs. Fiske at the Manhattan theater in New York city and was pronounced an immediate success by the critics. It was written by Angel Guimera, a noted Spanish patriot and poet, and is designed to show the existing social conditions among the peasants of Spain. The scenes are located in Catalonia and afford opportunity for handsome effects. Miss Roberts will interpret the title role and Melbourne MacDowell, the well-known actor, will appear in the principal male role. "Zaza" will be Miss Roberts' opening bill on Monday night, March 20, and "Tess of the D'Urbervilles" will be produced on Wednesday night, and "A Doll's House," the celebrated Ibsen play on Thursday night. Seats are on sale for all performances. On Thursday there will be a special matinee and "Zaza" will be the bill.

"SLEEPING BEAUTY AND BEAST"

Numerous spectacular productions have been attempted by American theatrical managers, but not one from the days of Adam and Eve up to yesterday has ever been able to place before the world, anything like, in scenic grandeur and gorgeous splendor the equal to the ponderous Drury Lane, Christmas pantomime, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," which will make its first appearance when it will be presented at Greenwall's opera house Friday and Saturday nights and matinee Saturday, March 24 and 25.

The entire production is transported throughout the country by a special train consisting of two day coaches, three Pullman sleepers and four baggage cars; the company is composed of two hundred performers, one hundred working men, wardrobe women, etc., and the daily expenses would pay for ten ordinary companies. Every stick of scenery, every piece of property, no matter how trivial, the entire wardrobe comprising hats, shoes, tights, spangles, dresses, stockings, etc., were imported to this country for the production. Every man, woman and child has at some time during their career heard or read of the legend of "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," and in London at the Drury Lane, the largest theater in the world, this same production was presented as their Christmas pantomime and scored one of the biggest hits of the century.

HOLIDAY GIVEN FOR STOCK SHOW

School Board, However, Declines to Assume Charge of Pupils During Visit

Public school children of the city have been granted a holiday in order that they may attend the Fat Stock Show to be held during the coming week.

This was decided at a called meeting of the school board held at the city hall Friday afternoon. It was decided to let the principals and teachers of the schools use their own discretion in selecting one day of the show, the board simply granting the holiday, but not assuming the responsibility of caring for the children at the stock yards.

Matters pertaining to the domestic science department of the high school were also considered at the meeting. The resignation of Mrs. W. K. Scollard nee De Gore, as teacher in this department, was accepted, then, after some discussion as to whether the department was to be continued, the board decided to ask Mrs. Scollard to again resume her position.

Mr. and Mrs. Scollard were married in this city at the Delaware hotel Tuesday, March 7, by Rev. R. R. Hamlin.

Thousands of Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Almost every one, from personal experience, knows that the effects of any kind of severe physical strain are felt, first of all, in the small of the back—in other words, in those Vital Organs, the Kidneys. This is as true in the case of the very powerful as it is with one of less strength, and it is especially true whenever the kidneys are weak or out of order.

The Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, strengthens the kidneys and through them helps all the other organs. WOMEN suffer untold misery because of the nature of their disease is not always correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

It has cured me, making me stronger and better in every way, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Gratefully yours, MRS. A. L. WALKER, 331 East Linden St., Atlanta, Ga.

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

Association, which meets in Amarillo April 18, will be the best attended and the most interesting one that organization has ever held. There will be a number of interesting addresses made at this convention. One I would especially like to have mentioned is that of E. D. Funk of the Illinois Corn Breeders' farm. Mr. Funk understands corn breeding better than most any other man in this country. He will deliver an address on "Early Maturity of Corn." If we can get a corn that will mature in ninety days we can startle the world in feeding in the future. For this reason all the delegates are vitally interested in Mr. Funk's proposed address.

GREAT RAILWAY FIGHT What will be one of the greatest fights ever undertaken against railroads will be begun in Denver at the annual meeting of the Colorado Cattle and Horse Growers' Association Tuesday morning, says the Denver News.

Before the convention is over it is expected that definite plans for a crusade for better freight rates and better service will be formulated, to be taken up later by the American Stock Growers' Association which meets here May 9.

This is the question that divided the National Live Stock Association, making opponents of men who had been life-long friends. While the railway rates have been agitated for years, Denver men find that now is the time for beginning concerted action for lower charges.

Members of the American Stock Growers' Association are heartily in favor of starting the movement now, and a fight that will eventually spread over the entire country will be begun if present plans do not fail.

An attack will be made upon what the railroads call the tonnage system of transportation. By this the cattlemen say that they lose thousands of dollars yearly. Instead of shipping cattle to market as they are ready, the railroads, it is asserted, wait until they have a certain number of tons, thus keeping the cattle until they grow thin.

This is outside of the move for cheaper freight rates. The rates now are deemed excessive by the cattlemen and will be one of the main points in the war for better treatment.

THE QUARANTINE LAW The quarantine law advocated by President Roosevelt, will also be discussed. Sentiment on this point is now divided. Those who favor President Roosevelt's attitude of quarantining all cattle exposed say this is the only way to stamp out disease. Many stand against small-pox is quoted as an example.

Many cattle raisers say, however, that the strict enforcement of the law as contemplated by the president, is unnecessary and will work a severe hardship upon cattlemen. They assert that if this is carried out it will practically be impossible to ship cattle, as nearly every herd in the state has been exposed, although few to the extent that they have been seriously affected.

It is feared now that President Conrad Schaefer will be unable to be present on account of illness. The executive committee will meet tomorrow night at the Brown Palace hotel, the convention beginning Tuesday morning in the ordinary of the Brown. The convention will adjourn Wednesday afternoon.

Governor Adams is to make the address of welcome and E. W. Ammons will respond. The main address at this session will be by John W. Springer on "The Organized Cattlemen and the States." Fred P. Johnson will read his annual report as secretary. Treasurer T. S. Harper will also report.

WANT BILLIE BOLTON

GUTHRIE, Okla., March 18.—Several cattlemen are here to protest to Governor Ferguson against the action of the council in refusing to confirm the reappointment of "Billy" Bolton as secretary of the sanitary commission. It was given out after the executive session at which Bolton was turned down that the action was because of protests which had come from some of the cattlemen. The cattlemen declare that no such protests ever came from them, and that the refusal to confirm Bolton was the result of a political fight which had commenced in Woodward county. The cattlemen will ask Governor Ferguson to appoint Bolton to fill the vacancy, which will hold him in the position for the next two years.

"Billy" Bolton was at one time president of the National Cattlemen's Association, and for the last two years has been secretary of the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association. The cattlemen say he has done more for the organization of cattlemen in the territory than any other person. Among those who came to protest against his dismissal is R. M. Hreslie of Ponca City, president of the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association.

BAR MEXICAN CATTLE

Mexican cattle are not likely to go to the Canadian Northwest in the future. At a live stock convention held recently in Winnipeg this resolution was passed:

"As the importation of Mexican cattle has flooded the ranges of the Canadian west with a class of very inferior merit, from packers, consumers and breeders' points of view, and whereas the department of agriculture is spending money with a view to improvement of Canadian cattle, so that our cattle may capture the British market, and whereas the dumping of such inferior stock is a serious hindrance to the cattle-feeding business; therefore, be it resolved, that the minister of agriculture be requested to formulate some measure whereby this dumping of inferior animals to the detriment of the Canadian live stock breeding industry be stopped."

EVERY HOG HAS HIS DAY

The Telegram recently printed a suggestion to the railway managers of Texas that the time had come when it was proper that traveling men should no longer be permitted to carry a dray load of baggage into passenger cars and monopolize the seats that other good men had paid their money for, but that the baggage should be relegated to the baggage cars provided by the railway companies for that purpose. It is gratifying to be able to announce that the suggestion has been promptly acted upon. Stringent instructions have been given to a number of the leading trunk lines in this state to conductors and baggage men to limit the amount of plunder that is permitted to be carried into passenger coaches. The general baggage men of the state will take up the matter at their next meeting and the matter put in more definite and satisfactory shape.

A prominent railway official in discussing this matter says that the existing rules and regulations are sufficiently stringent if they could only be strictly enforced, as they prohibit the encroachment of selfish individuals upon the traveling public, but it has been determined to strengthen the code. It has been figured out that the carrying capacity of passenger cars is decreased about 20 per cent by the selfish travelers who usually insist on occupying two or three times the amount of space that they are paying for. The train rules obtaining on most of the Texas lines prescribe that a passenger may carry only such packages or baggage, consisting of grips, into cars with him as will in no manner interfere with the comfort of other passengers or lessen the seating capacity of the car. But a custom has prevailed for a long time allowing a man with a ticket calling for one seat only to occupy all the space he desires, and it has come to be regarded as a natural and legal right.

We have all seen the fellow who enters a car with a medium sized dray load of grips, and the first thing he does is to turn and face two seats. One of these piles mountain high with his luggage and usually assumes a recumbent position with his hat over his eyes and pretends to be asleep. The scarcer seats are and the more they are in demand the harder and more unbroken is his slumber. When a passenger who has paid his good money for one of the seats thus occupied gives him a vigorous punch and brings him to a realization of the fact that he will not be permitted to hog the whole universe, he submits with a very bad grace and it almost appears that he has been called upon to give up his dearest earthly possession. Occasionally, this same individual thus fills two seats in the first class coach, throwing in his overcoat as a further mark of pre-emption, and then hies himself into the smoker, where he turns and faces two more seats and fixes himself comfortably to enjoy a good smoke. It makes no difference to him that he has only paid for one seat, or rather one-half of one-seat, and is beating seven other passengers out of what they have paid for and have a right to demand. He is not thinking about anything but himself, and if other people do not like his style they can either walk or wait for the next train. Another walk-off official in discussing the seat hog says:

"A passenger buying a ticket is entitled to one seat, and only one, and he is no more entitled to the use of others than he would be at an opera house."

"More stringent rules are to be adopted. The class of baggage that may be carried in coaches is to be restricted and the public is to be informed of their rights. A proposition has been considered by some roads of issuing seat coupons with each ticket sold, but this is not regarded with much favor. The first persons in a car should have choice of seats. There are some divergencies of opinion as to what are really the choice seats in a day car. Generally they are considered to be the center seats on the shady sides. These are the choice ones that the selfish traveler appropriates, as a rule, with his effects. The new rules are to explicitly say that a passenger is entitled to only one seat and must use no more unless he goes into a Pullman and pays for more."

The railway managers are to be congratulated upon their determination in this matter, for it is an act of justice to the traveling public generally. The public has been remarkably patient under the former state of affairs, but the injustice of it has been none the less felt. Of course, the double seat hog is going to kick and squeal for a short time, but every hog has his day, and the number heretofore permitted to discommode the people who are compelled to travel with them have had theirs. Hereafter they will be compelled to carry their traps in the baggage car and ride on a single seat like ordinary white men.

The people in command of the cotton forces at New Orleans, have turned down the warehouse plan of Judge Eugene Williams, which was originated at Waco. This is not much of a surprise to the people of Texas, as the Georgia crowd is in the cotton saddle and riding its own particular hobby with a vengeance. Georgia is not willing for Texas to have any credit for a solution of the cotton problem. Some of her favorite sons have other ends in view.

President Roosevelt in an address to the National Congress of American Mothers, says that the first duty of womanhood is to be able and willing to bear and bring up sound, healthy children. This is a noble conception of the duties of womanhood, but there are many women who will not accept it.

The old soldiers of the country are starting a boom for Foraker, of Ohio, as the republican candidate for the presidency four years hence. And when the Fire Alarm gets fully going there is going to be a very cold spell developed up in the land of Indiana, where the Fairbanks boom is now being carefully nurtured.

The Texas state legislature has drawn up a resolution asking the pardon of Mac Stewart, the old Confederate veteran confined in a Mexican dungeon, and will forward it to the proper authorities. A very determined effort has heretofore been made to secure the old man's release, but it has not yet been accomplished.

There is something of a war spirit about much of the information that is now being given out by Russia, but there is a very strong probability that peace negotiations with Japan are already in progress and may be consummated at any time. Russia is in no condition to further prolong a disastrous foreign war. Conditions are too menacing at home.

Daniel J. Sully, the erstwhile cotton king, has been finally adjudged a bankrupt, and the proceedings absolve him from all his past obligations. This places Mr. Sully in position to take another little flyer in the rummy staple, and he will doubtless come to the front again.

Louisiana is considerably excited over the discovery of a few boll weevils in that state, but her people should remain calm and collected. The boll weevil cannot be kept out of Louisiana or any other state engaged in the production of cotton. He is the great cotton crop reducer that has been provided by Dame Nature.

It begins to appear on the surface that the Rock Island railway is also interested in the Trinity and Brazos Valley transaction, and may use that line in getting to the gulf. The attorney for the Rock Island says that road will be using its Galveston terminals within the next year.

Grand Duke Vladimir of Russia says that the war with Japan must go on, but it is a noticeable fact that the grand duke has not yet packed his traps and prepared to go to the front. He belongs to that class that believes the common herd should do all the fighting.

The Japanese claim that Russian losses around Mukden have amounted to 150,000 men, besides large quantities of arms and other munitions of war. The Japanese loss is placed a little in excess of 42,000. It can be figured from this that there has been some very desperate fighting.

The little Japs may be heathens, but they are fighters from away back, and they have demonstrated to the world that the Russian bear is too big and clumsy to be the really dangerous animal that he has been generally regarded.

Some of the pictures that have been printed in the eastern press as the likeness of John H. Reagan would as readily pass as Menelik, the despotic ruler of Abyssinia. It would seem that in the hour of emergency in the east any old picture will do.

The czar makes a very pitiful plea for every true Russian to rally to the support of the throne, but true Russians all appear to have been killed by the Japs since the beginning of hostilities. At least, one would judge so from the failure of the expected rallies.

The desire for the position of United States senator was so strong in Tennessee that an active canvass for the position began before the late Senator Bate had been buried. All of which goes to show how little real decency there is in the politics of today.

Those aged Japanese generals and admirals who have done such effective work in the war against Russia, will feel very bad when they learn of the Osler policy, which would chloroform all men when they have reached the age of sixty.

THE WHEAT BRAN SHAMPOO

By Cynthia Grey

A shampoo is supposed to keep hair clean and healthy, but it too often leaves the hair and scalp in any but a satisfactory condition. The hair is made brittle and the scalp is irritated. When shampoo is dried either hair or scalp, there is something wrong with the soap, with the water or with the rinsing and drying of the hair. The ideal shampoo is one without soap of any kind, the wheat bran shampoo. Take three pounds of wheat bran. Put this in a large vessel, cover with water and let it boil and simmer for half a day over the kitchen range. Add more water as the bran swells. After thus boiling, the water becomes thick and slippery as if it were well soaped. Remove from the fire, strain through a closely woven cloth, put into a pitcher and bottles (bottle-necked preferred) and you are ready for the shampoo. Before wetting the hair, brush it thoroughly, going through to the scalp. This loosens dandruff and brushes out much of the dust. What is brushed out won't be washed all over the scalp. From the bottle apply the wheat bran water. Begin at the side of the head and in front (No. 1). Work across the head, rubbing the mixture well into the scalp. When the front of the hair and the top of the head has been gone over, throw the hair forward and repeat the process with the back of the head (No. 2). Then the head will be thoroughly wetted. Fill a wash basin with the warm bran water and wash both hair and scalp thoroughly. Two waters are better than one. Rinse the hair thoroughly, using soft water if possible. Use plenty of water, hot water for three or four rinsings, and then gradually cool the water to prevent taking cold. Rub the head briskly with a rough towel, drying the hair at the back of the head at first. If this can be done before a wind, which, through the sun shines, luster and softness will be added to the hair. Do not throw the hair back until the hair about the base of the brain has been well dried. When the hair is thrown back, dry the front part of the head briskly and then, sitting in the sunshine, toss the hair dry, letting into it and upon the scalp as much sunshine as possible. (No. 3). Rub the scalp with the finger tips, until it is in a warm glow. Never put the hair up until it is quite dry. Leave the hair hanging as long as possible. It is good for it. When the hair is put up be careful how it is done, for it is easy to teach this newly washed hair new tricks, but these tricks are not so easily overcome. Clean the hair pins and combs before putting them into clean hair. Rub off shell or celluloid pins with soft flannel. Some pins can be washed. Of course, this hair is a place dear to every southern heart and many days, weeks, even months, and, perhaps years, could be spent here among these valuable keepsakes, studying the history of each and every article. Our party visited also the celebrated cemetery and chapel of St. Roch's, where candles are lighted and wishes made by many visitors. After a week in the Crescent City we departed for home each and every one of us regretting only that we could not remain longer. Very truly yours, PEARL BATES.

TELEGRAM PRIZE WINNERS RETURN FROM TRIP TO NEW ORLEANS MARDI GRAS

Colorado, Texas, March 16, 1905. To The Telegram and its readers: Words in my vocabulary are too feeble to express the pleasure we had or describe the many places of interest visited on our Mardi Gras trip.

Just getting to go aboard the battleship Brooklyn and seeing the guns used in the Spanish-American war, the instruments for wireless telegraphy, visiting the different apartments of the vessel, and having them explained by some of the gallant crew and standing on the very spot where Schley stood during the noted battles, etc., we felt paid us for our work for The Telegram. Even should we not have visited many more places and things of interest in the quaint old city of New Orleans, the beautiful parks, the magnificent cemeteries, the unique French Market, the old St. Louis church, over one hundred years old; the St. Roch church, where miracles galore have been performed; the Confederate Memorial Hall, with its many interesting relics of the civil war; the elegant pipe organ at the Jesuit Catholic church, the beautiful Lake Ponchartrain. It would take up too much space to mention all the places we visited. However, I cannot fail to mention the delightful trip as this one, and by party at the best theaters while in New Orleans, and also Houston, where we stopped on our return, which were very pleasant events of our trip.

In fact, Mr. Calkins is an ideal chaperone, and left nothing undone for our pleasure. Time may steal our time away and all our pleasures too, but the memory of this trip will, in part, our joys renew. Gratefully, JO DRY, Colorado, Texas.

Sherman, Texas, March 15, 1905. The Fort Worth Telegram Company, Fort Worth, Texas:

Gentlemen—I arrived home safely one week ago last Thursday afternoon, and I take the liberty of writing you this letter at this time and to thank you for my delightful trip to New Orleans during the Mardi Gras festivities. Never before have I enjoyed such a trip as this one, and words cannot express my appreciation to you for all the courtesies that I had bestowed upon me during this entire trip. It was a very happy and merry party that left here on Tuesday, Feb. 23. There were several young men from The Telegram office escorted us to the train. We spent the day before in your beautiful city, with a trolley ride in the afternoon and a trip to Dallas on the interurban electric railway in the evening. We arrived in New Orleans the next morning, Wednesday, March 1, and was met at the train by the lady whom we stopped with in the Crescent City, and was escorted to her home. In the afternoon we went out to the races and that night our chaperone, Mr. W. H. Calkins, took us to the Orpheum theater, where we witnessed a very fine vaudeville performance. One of the most interesting things to me during our stay at Mardi Gras was the battleship Brooklyn, which was anchored in the Mississippi river, having over seven hundred men on board. The officers and crew were very courteous to us and took great pleasure in showing us everything of interest on the ship. The parades were very fine, and I never expect to see anything so grand again. It would take up too much time and space for me to write everything I saw and in closing I wish to say that I have had the trip of my life. CALLIE MCAFEE.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 16, 1905. Fort Worth Telegram Company, City: My Dear Friends—I arrived home with the balance of The Telegram party a week ago last Thursday, and it seems to me that I have been in a trance ever since, and am now just beginning to wake up. I hardly know what to say in this letter, more than to tell you how much I appreciate this grand and instructive trip you have given me, and words cannot express my appreciation to you for the pleasures I had. New Orleans, is, I think, the most interesting city I was ever in, so much so that one could spend months there and then not be able to see it all. We took in two of the beautiful parks, and I do not believe there is anything to equal them in grandeur and beauty. The battleship Brooklyn was very interesting to me; also the grand parades we witnessed while there.

Mr. W. H. Calkins, chaperone of the party, did everything he possibly could to see that we had a good time. We took in the races the first afternoon and at night went to the Orpheum theater, where we saw a very fine vaudeville production. We also had the pleasure of seeing that great actor, William H. Crane, in "Business." I saw so much that it is impossible for me to tell it all; so, in closing, I again wish to thank you and wish your company much success in its future contests. BEULAH WRIGHT.

Corsicana, Texas, March 11. The Fort Worth Telegram, Fort Worth, Texas:

Dear Sirs: Having just returned from the New Orleans Mardi Gras festivities, I feel that I must write an account of my trip, which, every one knows, was won by taking subscriptions to The Telegram.

During our visit to Fort Worth, just previous to our departure for New Orleans, we enjoyed many pleasures, among them a visit to the Armour packing with Mr. Hargrove as our escort; a trolley ride over the city with Mr. Reimers and others of The Telegram force; a visit to the press room of The Telegram and a trip over to Dallas and back on the Interurban. On the morning of Feb. 23 we left Fort Worth for New Orleans and arrived in the Crescent City the following morning. During our stay there we visited several places of interest, among them being Audubon Park, the battleship Brooklyn and the Confederate Memorial Hall, Audubon park is certainly a very delightful place. Here it was that we viewed the many beautiful plants, shrubs and flowers exhibited in Horticultural Hall, and here also we rested beneath the wide-spreading branches of the far-famed and magnificent Washington oak.

The visit to the Brooklyn was quite a treat to some members of The Telegram party, who had never before had the opportunity of going over one of Uncle Sam's cruisers. And to those of us who had visited other battleships of the United States navy, it afforded an excellent opportunity of comparison, especially to those of us who have visited the New York. The Confederate Memorial Hall, which is an annex to the Howard Memorial Library, is undoubtedly a place of great interest and should certainly be the Mecca of every true-hearted southerner every time an opportunity to visit the Crescent City is offered. In the Confederate Memorial Hall are many wonderful and

Prevent Headache

As Well As Cure
If subject to headache, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills when you feel the first indication of an attack, and you will find that they rarely ever fail to stop further progress.

Pain weakens the nerves, and the longer you suffer, the more frequent will be the attacks.

On the contrary, if the nerves are relieved of this weakening influence, the attacks will be less frequent, and finally disappear altogether.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills contain no opium, cocaine, morphine or chloral in any form. They are absolutely harmless if taken as directed, and will have no other effect, except to drive out the pain.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are all right, and I can recommend them to any one in need of a remedy for headache, neuralgia, or pain of any kind. My health is not very good, and I am subject to frequent attacks of severe headache, but since I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills I do not suffer from that trouble as I used to. They never fail to give relief in a few minutes, and if taken promptly on the approach of headache will prevent an attack from coming on. Pain Pills prevent, as well as cure.

MANY EXTENSIONS OF KATY RUMORED

Two South Texas Lines and Another Road to Denison Discussed

The people of Cameron and other points on a direct route from Trinity to Granger are anxious for the Katy to build a gap of 125 miles between the two points, and it is said that the matter is now under consideration by that company. The plan is for the Katy to connect up the little line between Trinity and Colmesneil, which has proved to be a very valuable feeder of the company.

Another projection of the Katy is from Smithfield due south to deep water at Anansas Pass. The distance is 150 miles. Victoria would be included on this route. With this line the Katy would have two deep water terminals on the gulf, and would be a little better fixed than any of its competitors in the way of getting to the brine.

He will leave the Frisco April 1, and from what is understood here will be succeeded by C. W. Strain, division passenger agent of the Frisco at Wichita, Kan. Mr. Strain has been in St. Louis some days, in conference with the officials of the company, and his selection is no doubt already accepted upon but not publicly announced as yet.

EASTERN IMMIGRATION

New Orleans Planning to Claim Its Natural Rights

The report comes from New York that within the next week 25,000 immigrants will land in that port, of which 50 per cent are destined to seek homes in the south and southwest. New Orleans is considering the feasibility of seeking to have that city made an immigration station. As it is now, more than 12,000 immigrants land at New Orleans annually. The south is entering nearly all the new blood that is entering the United States, and for this reason it is urged the port should be the natural one for immigrants.

VALUABLES FOUND IN AN OLD OAK TREE

Deed Transferring Twelve Acres of Land, Silver Service and Valuable Rings, Buried Since 1879

NEW YORK, March 18.—A deed transferring twelve acres of land within the bounds of New York city, a mortgage and a note both dated Dec. 12, 1879, and other business papers running down to 1835 together with a silver tea service, knives, forks and spoons, six finger rings, a pair of diamond earrings and a pearl brooch, all incased in a stout box, have been found in the heart of an old oak tree by woodmen cutting timber north of Lincoln Park, N. J. The property has been placed in the hands of an attorney to await a claimant. It is believed the box was placed in the tree years ago, as no one of the persons named in the deed is remembered in the neighborhood. The will is that of Matthew Weatherly and to his sons, Parker and Andrew, $12,000 in money and personal property and twelve acres of land on the island of Manhattan bordering on the Hudson river, but which cannot be readily located on the present city lines from the description in the deed.

GOULD VS. HARRIMAN

Reported That Former Has Secured Control of Union Pacific

A story comes from Chicago that George Gould has forced Harriman out of the Union Pacific. The dispatch says: It is believed that Mr. Harriman is out of the stock and that his selling has been done in anticipation of his retirement from the position of controlling factor in the Union Pacific and other Kuhn-Loeb-Rockefeller properties. Mr. Harriman has had several serious fits with his associates in the last few years, and for a long time in 1902-1903 he was actually at swords' point with George J. Gould. Men who feel certain Mr. Harriman is to retire are equally certain that Mr. Gould will be his successor. Dispatches from New York to La Salle street houses here indicate that sentiment is about equally divided there. Many discredit the rumor that Mr. Harriman is to retire, but at the same time they readily concede that he has been a very heavy seller of Union Pacific shares. They argue, however, that his selling of the stock was more likely undertaken on the theory that the securities were selling too high at present, and compare his course

WALL STREET IRREGULAR

Market Opens Nervous and Uncertain as Result of War Situation—Industrial Trials Rather Weak

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, March 18.—The stock market opened nervous and irregular, with advances appearing in some issues, while declines were shown in others. The war situation had the effect of bringing about considerable selling, the prospects for peace being less than was anticipated. However, there were those who attributed the selling of stocks principally to the money situation. The artificial flurry in call money on the transfer of public funds from the national bank to the federal treasury, brought home to speculators the possibility that rates might harden a trifle later on. Call funds today were going around 3/4 per cent, but time money was steady. New York Central was a weak feature early, selling off to 16 1/2 on heavy realizing by disappointed holders, but the decline in this issue was short lived. The buying was of the same character as the trading in this issue was for weeks past and the stock finally closed fractionally above yesterday's final figures. Illinois Central, after a higher opening, met with considerable liquidation and sold off to 16 1/2. TEACHER'S DAUGHTER DIES

Twelve Days' Illness, With Pneumonia. Refusal to Cathryn McGee, Aged Five—Funeral Held Today

Cathryn McGee, aged 5 years, the daughter of Professor J. S. McGee and wife, died Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock of pneumonia after an illness of twelve days.

Funeral services were held this afternoon from the family residence, 1201 Lipscomb street, conducted by Rev. Luther Little. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Professor McGee, father of the child, is principal of the Eighth ward school. Owing to the death of the teachers' institute, to have been held at the high school this morning, was postponed one week. A number of teachers and pupils attended the funeral.

FLOTO SHOWS COMING

Arrangements Completed for a Down Town Ticket Office

The big Floto Shows circus trains come to Fort Worth direct from the winter quarters at Denver, Col., after a run of over 800 miles, will reach here early Tuesday morning next and go into camp preparatory to the four exhibitions to be given here, commencing Wednesday afternoon, March 22, and closing Thursday night, March 23.

The big free open-air street parade Wednesday morning will leave the show grounds at 9 o'clock. A down town ticket office will be open at Weaver's Pharmacy, 504 Main street, for the sale of both admission tickets and reserved seats at the same price as charged at the ticket wagon on the show grounds. This is a great convenience for ladies and business men, and no increase or overcharge will be permitted during the two days' engagement here, as it has always been the policy of the Floto management that the show's patrons are entitled to the best consideration.

Without doubt one of the most interesting features of a circus is the unloading of the show and its equipment. Immediately upon arrival work commences. The men are divided into squads, named according to their respective duties. The squads are known as the car, tent, stake, animal, driver, cooking and ring squads. Early in the morning all but the last-named squads are at work.

The animal and driver squads are at work as soon as the switching is finished. The horses are fed and harnessed. The drivers are divided into two classes, those who take the wagons, tents, poles, etc., to the show grounds, and those who drive the teams that assist in the unloading.

There are six teams and drivers employed in unloading the Floto Shows. Three teams are used in hauling the wagons down the inclines from the cars to the ground. Three more teams are employed in taking the wagons from the edge of the incline to a place out of the way, so work will not be impeded by waiting for those who are employed in taking the wagons to the show ground.

One man hooks a rope on the wagon first in line, while two more men are busy guiding the tongue from one car to another down the line. To the rear of the wagon another rope is fastened so as to steady it as it goes down the incline. One man is busy working with this rope, which is wound about a stake well fastened to the unloading car.

Two or three teams are hitched to each wagon to take it to the grounds. There are about ten such squads busy with this delivery work.

While this work is going on the animal squads are preparing their animals for removal. They unlead them and take them to the grounds, where they are carefully groomed for the morning parade.

Three hours is sufficient time for the unloading and transferring of all equipment. There are about two hundred men in these squads, each squad having its own boss. The working of these squads is very systematic, so as to economize time. The economy of time is one of the chief aims of the managers of large circuses.

TONIGHT!

And every Wednesday and Saturday night. Charninsky Bros. Dances at Imperial Hall. Dancing taught and guaranteed.

IT ALWAYS HELPS An ailment like consumption that has been months and years getting a foothold cannot be relieved in a week or day. Scott's Emulsion will always afford relief and often cure, but not over night. The consistent use of Scott's Emulsion will positively help the consumptive at any stage of the disease. We guarantee nothing beyond this, but we know that right living and Scott's Emulsion have done more to cure consumption than anything else.

Scott & Bowne, 409 Pearl St., New York.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET

NORTH FORT WORTH, March 18.—The cattle run today was very light, even for a Saturday, 500 head, against 616 at the end of last week, 906 the same Saturday in February. Prices and receipts were quiet today. Prices and receipts were quiet today. Prices and receipts were quiet today.

The steer supply was short, very short, but about enough for the week-end clean up. The market was active on everything and sales were made steadily to strong. Steers sold from $3.35 to $3.50, being of medium quality only.

The cow trade was of the same character as developed in the steer end. Activity prevailed, buyers appearing to be anxious for half holiday. Prices ruled steady to strong on the odds and ends that constituted the offerings.

Calves were an active trade on the best, but they were few in numbers. Sales at $4 for fat vealers indicated that decidedly drop has taken place in values recently placed on calves.

HOGS The hog supply was short, around 400 head, against 733 for the last week-end, 1,029 Saturday a month ago and 211 the corresponding day in 1904.

The quality was mostly heavy packers and pigs, mediums and lights being scarce. Trading was active on a strong market, and the clearance was arrived at before the noon hour. Tops, $5.10; bulk the same; mediums, $4.90@4.95; lights, $4@4.95; pigs, $3.75@4.40.

COUNTY PLANS POWER PLANT

Courthouse Elevator Goes Over
Awaiting Construction of Improvement

There will be no elevator in the court house for some time to come, according to the action taken by the commissioners court at a session held Friday afternoon. One of the commissioners stated that it was the desire of the court to first establish an electric light plant for the court house and the jail in connection with building a plant for the utilization of the water from the county well near the jail. By putting both these projects into operation the county will be able to save quite a large sum of money annually.

It is understood that when these two propositions have been provided for the matter of putting in a passenger elevator in the court house will then be taken up and put through, but the consensus of opinion among the members of the court at this time is that the lighting and water situation is of more importance than the elevator.

The most strenuous objections to the present situation come from the officials of the court of civil appeals and those who have business with that tribunal. The statement has frequently been made that there was a likelihood a move would be inaugurated by the attorneys at a distance looking to a removal of the court to some more central location and where far better and more convenient arrangements would be provided. Clerk Strong says that there is much agitation of this matter and he would not be surprised if some action of this kind were taken.

FRUIT SHIPPERS ARE HEAVY LOSERS

Storms in Southern California Delay Traffic on Santa Fe and Southern Pacific

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—Serious financial loss to shippers and the prospect of partial famine in Los Angeles in some lines of food stuffs are the principal developments yesterday in the demoralization of railroad traffic to and from this city by reason of the storm Sunday and Monday, says the Times.

Hundreds of cars of oranges, lemons, vegetables and other perishable freight destined from Southern California to points east and north are practically rotting on the side tracks, while similar train loads of supplies for this territory are tied up at various points on the Santa Fe east of here and on the Southern Pacific to the north.

FROSTBITTEN TOES WILL COST LIMBS

George Betts Will Suffer Amputation in an Effort to Save His Life.

Frost bitten toes brought on by exposure to the cold in St. Louis a few weeks ago, has caused gangrene to set in on the limbs of George Betts of this city, so that amputation of both will be necessary. Mr. Betts is now at his home in East Railroad avenue. Dr. J. H. McLean, who has attended him, says that the limbs will be amputated next week.

In St. Louis Mr. Betts was exposed to the cold and his feet were frost bitten. His injuries were not considered serious at the time. On arriving home, complications set in, all of the toes dropping off and the upper part of the limbs becoming affected. Amputation will now be necessary to save his life.

Colds cause congestion and costiveness. Fluids which should pass through the bowels and kidneys are secreted by the nose and throat. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will positively cure. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

The executive committee of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association went into executive session at 10 o'clock this morning, with an almost full attendance. The meeting was held in Secretary Lytle's office.

When the meeting was called to order by President W. W. Turney there were present S. E. Pullam of San Angelo, Ike T. Prior of San Antonio, J. D. Jackson of Alpine, Dr. E. B. Frazier of Vinita, B. H. Other members of the committee will probably reach the city this afternoon. The committee session is for the purpose of formulating reports which will be furnished and ready for submission to the convention, when it convenes Tuesday morning.

These reports embrace all transactions of the officials of the association for the past year. While specific data contained in the reports is withheld until submitted to the convention, it is understood today that the reports will show the association affairs to be in excellent condition, and the membership to have been materially increased. The work of the inspectors will also show efficient service.

NEGRO SUSPECT HELD

Supposed to Be Wanted For Murder and Counterfeiting

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—From information received from Louisville, Ky., the secret service officers here have arrested a negro whom they believe to be Luke Ray, alias Lee Smith, who is wanted there to answer charges of murder and counterfeiting. Ray was one of three negroes charged with passing raised bills and when a posse attempted to arrest the trio, the negroes opened fire, killing one of the officers. Ray was captured and taken to Memphis, but he escaped from jail. The prisoner has denied that he is the man wanted.

Nelson-Draughon vs. 'Varsity
This afternoon at 4 o'clock the baseball games of the Nelson-Draughon business college and the Fort Worth University are to play a game of baseball on the university campus. Both nines are in trim for a good game and are supported by many of the students, who have gone to the game to root for their college nines. While the grounds are a little muddy from the hard rains of last night, yet this has not deterred the players in fulfilling the match as agreed upon. The Nelson-Draughon nine has been strengthened since their games of the early part of the month and expect to make a good showing against the strong 'Varsity nine.

NEW PLAYERS IN LINE UP TODAY

The Panthers and the St. Louis Browns are scheduled for a game at Haines Park at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. The sunshine of today has counteracted the effect of the rainy weather and the diamond is said to be in comparatively good condition.

This is the third professional ball game of the season so far and indications this morning point to a good attendance. The last game as a result of the two previous games and practice between times has rounded into good form despite the earliness of the season. The Browns, too, have gotten rid of winter sluggishness and promise to cavort with considerable grace this afternoon.

Boles, Ballew and Poindexter will be seen for the first time this season, this afternoon. Boles and Poindexter need no introduction and Ballew, the new pitcher, bids fair to be well known after one or two games.

The St. Louis line up for today's game has not been announced. Fort Worth players will line up as follows: Mauch, catcher; Ballew and Johnson, pitchers; Hubbard, first base; Horn, second base; Boles, third base; Burns, shortstop; Murphy, left field; Cavender, centerfield, and Poindexter, right field.

AT HIGH WATER

The Flood Plays Many Pranks

Rev. William Alexander Smith, prominent as the author of many works on Oriental Travel, has written an interesting account of his experience in Kansas during the floods in 1903. He says: "We lived a full mile from the nearest point of the Saline river, but when the river overflowed it sent a flood clear into our doorway and we had to go about in boats, many of our neighbors suffering sad experiences both from loss of life and property."

"I and my wife and myself—had an experience quite unique and thereby hangs a tale. My wife for years past, and myself as well, had been annoyed, pained and worried so greatly at times by dyspeptic trouble as to take much of the joy of living out of life.

"I had seen Postum so liberally spoken of and we suffered so much from coffee that one day, some months ago, I decided to try some Postum for ourselves. We liked its aroma and taste so we were satisfied to give up coffee and to give our grown healthier and stronger, my sick headache left and we both could eat almost what we pleased without discomfort."

"But was this a result of the discontinuance of tea and coffee? No, it was the flood came and found us out of Postum and shut off from all supplies in the village for eight days. But we got hold of some left over tea and a little coffee and this we used as long as it lasted. This was the only respect in which our meals were different from what we had been using, but a change came over us. My wife thought I had more temper than grace, while I, in my turn, thought—well, never mind, only she did not seem to appear to be the jolly creature she was before flood days. She said she did not rest well and that made her irritable and on my part I suffered pains in my digestive organs night and day that would have caused the meekest man to speak unadvisedly with his lips."

"Well, the clouds cleared away, the flood abated, dry land appeared and we made ready to visit the grocery store and my wife suggested that we needed more Postum. To tell the rest in a few words, when Postum came back the domestic atmosphere became more genial, in fact about normal. Our troubles and sick feelings disappeared and there can be no doubt they were due to tea and coffee for they quickly yielded when Postum was used in their place."

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

"Texas is slow when it comes to getting immigrants for her state," said James E. Howard of Kansas City Friday evening. "In the northwestern states those parts of each state, which are desirous of securing desirable immigrants work on a perfected system, which has given wonderful results."

"These states have regular drummers or agents who visit the territory which is getting crowded in the east and with central states and go among the people and show them what the land they have to offer is worth to them and what the state offers as a place to settle. If Texas people would follow such a plan they could divert much of the immigration which is now going to the northwest, when really as a matter of fact, the opportunities there are not half as good as they are here. Texas has the climate, the soil, and the land and the inducements are far better than elsewhere, but the immigrants are simply coming here more from choice than from any attempt to secure them, and it is in that way that the state is missing some of the most desirable settlers."

"The railroads and some immigration agents working in harmony with these companies are doing all in their power to get people to come to this state, but there should be a more complete co-operation on the part of others to offset the active efforts of the northwest territories."

"Some of the states of the northwest have regular exhibits of products, which are shown immigrants, and this is a very telling plan. This state can get the immigrants, if she goes after them right, but by the efforts being put forth by other sections you are not going to get them unless they come here unsolicited and without information except from the railroads and those directly interested, and I regret it for there is no better land, climate or crops in the whole union."

James B. Gray of the Moon ranch, in Cottle county, has arrived to attend the cattle convention.

He reports that conditions are excellent in Cottle county, and that stockmen have a better opportunity of "making good" this year than has been the case in many seasons.

He says that grass and weeds are coming in good shape in Cottle county and with the ground thoroughly soaked with drenching rains the situation from a cowboy's standpoint could hardly be better. During the present month the total rainfall has been five inches. This, in addition to the snowfall, which was twenty inches during the winter, has allayed all fears of a drouth this summer. The heaviest fall of snow at one time was fourteen inches in Cottle county. All streams are bank full at the present time. Speaking of the published loss reports, Mr. Gray says they have been exaggerated in every case. He says that his own losses have not exceeded 2 per cent, and that the damages sustained by other cattlemen have also been light.

Mr. Gray says that there will be quite a number of stockmen from his part of the state at the convention, although most of them are pretty busy just at this time feeding.

"I expect to raise a pretty big crop of wheat this year," said Mr. Gray. "I have 250 acres in this season, and if it turns out as well as last season, when I raised twenty-one bushels to the acre, I'll have several thousand bushels for sale. Conditions now indicate that the crop will be a bumper one in Cottle county."
