ROJESTVENSKY NOT WITH HIS ADVANCE FLEET

Believed Russian Admiral Is Awaiting Reinforcement of Nebogatoff's Squadron Before Giving Battle

TOGO MAY RETIRE TO NAVAL BASE

Reports Indicate an Immediate Clash Is Not Imminent—The Russian Fleet Reported to Be Nearing Island of Java

ST. PETERSBURG, April 10.—The outburst of enthusiasm aroused yesterday in naval circles at the prospect of a sea fight which may change the whole complexion of the war finds no echo in the liberal press, which views with something akin to alarm even the remote possibility of a turn in fortune which would strengthen the government at home. The Chauvinistic organs, however, are filled with long articles discussing Admiral Rojestvensky's chances, but they are all based on the theory that the whole squadron has reached the Chinese Sea.

Novoe Vremya highly commends the admiral for having safely accomplished the difficult feat of bringing the squadron through, declaring the die is now cast. The Bourse Gazette manifests undisguised pleasure at the scare in British shipping circles and the flurry in insurance rates produced by the sudden appearance of the Russian squadron off Singapore after the British had convinced themselves the squadron would never go to the Far East.

"Japan," says the Bourse Gazette, "now stands to lose mastery of the sea, to gether with the fruits of all her successes on land." Other papers have expressed doubt whether a sea fight is imminent, expressing the opinion that Rojestvensky is likely to await Rear Admiral Nebogatoff and that Admiral Togo will retire closer to a base before accepting battle.

Strict orders have been issued to officers on duty at the admiralty not to make public any portion of the long report which arrived here yesterday from Singapore. Nothing is procurable in regard to the whereabouts of the battleships Kniaz Souvaroff and other Russian warships reported to be missing from the squadron which passed Singapore.

It is said they may be following the second division. No anxiety is manifested in the admiralty where the Associated Press was informed in reply to a question that "the foreign press and Japanese probably are more worried about the location of the vessels than we are."

There is reason to believe Rojestvensky is on board the Kniaz Souvaroff and the division which passed Singapore is in command of a rear admiral.

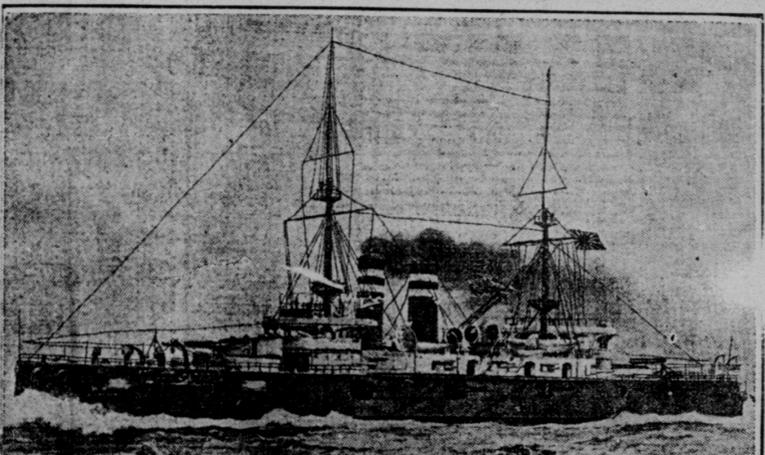

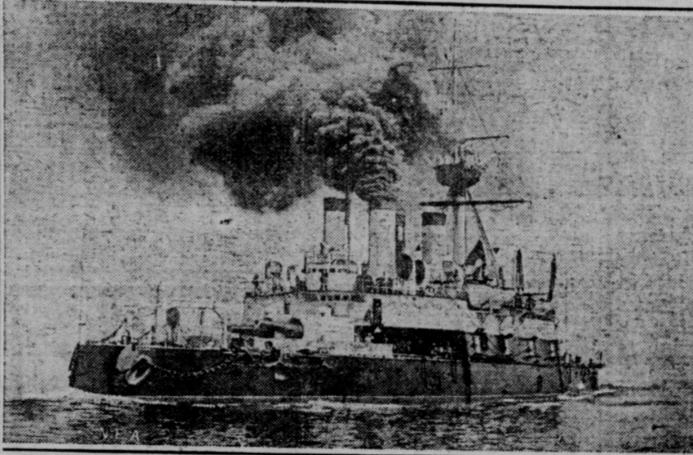

Fleet Nears Batavia
AMSTERDAM, April 10.—A dispatch to Handelsblad (newspaper) from Batavia, island of Java, says that the Russian squadron is near Muntok and that it is expected to arrive at Batavia today. There are two Muntoks in the East Indies, one comparatively near Batavia and the other far distant from that port. To reach either of them it seems the squadron referred to may have entered the Java sea through the straits Sunday, though it is possible part of the Russian squadron which passed Singapore Saturday may have turned south when out of sight of land and reached Muntok on the island of Banka, off the southeast coast of the island of Sumatra and some 250 miles from Batavia. The second Muntok is situated at the extreme northeastern part of the island of Celebes and is too far away for a squadron from there to reach Batavia under about five days.

May Be Dutch Squadron
WELTREVREDEEN, island of Java, April 10.—It is reported the supposed Russian warship sighted off Muntok are really ships of the Dutch squadron which has left its former anchorage under secret orders and is now steaming north.

AMERICAN SHIPS TO ENFORCE NEUTRALITY
Cruiser Raleigh and Two Torpedo Boat Destroyers Dispatched to Island of Palawan
MANILA, April 10.—The American vice consul at Singapore reports the Russian fleet, consisting of six battleships, six cruisers, six converted cruisers, eight torpedo boat destroyers, one hospital ship, one repair ship and sixteen colliers, passed Singapore, headed this way. The American cruiser Raleigh, torpedo boat destroyers Barry and Chauncey and the supply ship General Alvaro have been dispatched to patrol the west coast of Palawan island to enforce neutrality. Three other destroyers are preparing to sail.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS PUBLICLY DISGRACED
General Linevitch Posts Names of All Who Displayed Cowardice at Division Headquarters
GENSHU PASS, April 10.—General Linevitch pilloried a number of officers who displayed cowardice during the battle of Mukden, publicly disgracing them by posting their names at all division headquarters where some of them were ignominiously drummed out of camp.

NAN PATTERSON CASE AGAIN UP

District Attorney Asks Postponement on Grounds of Smith's Absence

NEW YORK, April 10.—Nan Patterson will be taken into court today to answer the charge of murdering Caesar Young, the bookmaker, but it is not expected the trial will proceed today. The district attorney will ask for a postponement on the grounds the case of the prosecution will not be complete until the arrival in this city of J. Morgan Smith and his wife, brother-in-law and sister of the accused woman.

The Smiths are in Cincinnati, where they are contesting extradition proceedings.

Justice Gaynor said unless Nan Patterson is tried before May 1 he would admit her to bail. The district attorney hopes before that date the Smiths will be in the jurisdiction of the New York courts.

The trial of Nan Patterson, charged with killing Caesar Young, was postponed for one week upon the request of the prosecution.

JAPANESE AGENT VISITS WEST TEXAS
Looking for Agricultural Section to Which Natives of His Country May Immigrate
Special to The Telegram.
SAN ANGELO, Texas, April 10.—Shinpei Mykawa of Osaka, Japan, and a son of the secretary of the Economic Union of that place, have been making a tour throughout this western section, investigating the conditions, prices of lands, crops raised, etc., with a view to settling Japanese farmers in either this section or some other part of the United States. He has been in the United States over a year and will soon return to his native country to make his report. From his expressions it is thought likely that west Texas will receive the most favorable reports because of the cheap land, its productivity as regards cotton and other crops. Traveling Passenger Agent Kendig of the Santa Fe was his pilot on the trip.

JAPANESE GLAD AT BATTLE'S APPROACH
TOKIO, April 10.—News of Admiral Rojestvensky's second Pacific squadron has not been reported here since it passed Singapore. It's whereabouts and the plans of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky are subjects of the keenest general speculation. It is quite generally assumed that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky does not desire an immediate battle and that he will attempt to reach Vladivostok, where there are docks and shops, or seize a base. The latter course is deemed unsatisfactory on account of poor facilities and the danger of political complications. Many believe that the Russian naval commander has a second rendezvous in the Pacific ocean and that he will speedily quit the China Sea and go eastward to the Philippines.

The Japanese newspapers and public express relief and pleasure over the approach of the Russian second Pacific squadron, as well as confidence in the ability of Admiral Togo's fleet to vanquish it.

WINDSTORM NEAR PRESIDENT'S CAMP

LAWTON, O. T., April 10.—A report today from Frederick, O. T., says that a severe wind storm crossed the pasture of the reservation there last night partially wrecking some of the tents and causing other minor damage. No one was injured. No mention is made in the report of President Roosevelt's party, but as the president left Frederick early last evening it is believed he and his party were not in the line of the storm.

Private Secretary to the President William Loeb Jr. this afternoon received no information from Frederick regarding last night's storm.

SAYS FATIGUE CAUSES CRIME

Oberlin College President Cites Saturday Night Brawls as Proof

CHICAGO, April 10.—Bodily and mental exhaustion after a week's work is the reason ascribed by President H. C. King of Oberlin College for the fact that more crimes are committed Saturday night than on other nights.

President King has occupied the pulpit of Union Park Congregational church and preached on "How to Make a Rational Fight for Character."

"No man," he said, "has a right to ignore his bodily health, for at times of fatigue all the weakest points of the body and mind tend to come to the surface. It is therefore a matter of character that we have a surplus of nervous energy. In times of mental fatigue the higher brain centers are the first to give way. It is therefore no mystery that the record of Saturday night is a tragic one. The man who is fatigued is not so able to withstand temptation as the man who has an abundance of nervous energy in store. The fagged out man cannot be what he ought to be. At times of fatigue, therefore, the man who desires to preserve his character must be doubly on his guard."

Other safeguards against evil, suggested by the distinguished educator and writer, were: Control of the emotions. Diversion of the attention from an immediate temptation to moral principles. Cleanliness in thought and statement.

SPINAL DISEASE PLAGUE RECEDING
Mysterious Malady Which Has Baffled New York Physicians Dying Out

NEW YORK, April 10.—Like the first plague of cerebro-spinal meningitis, which prevailed here in 1872, the present run of the mysterious disease is dying out. Physicians express the belief that it will have disappeared by May 1. The only explanation obtainable is that a little sunshine and a few days of balmy weather has achieved that which defied the medical fraternity.

The figures in the office of the registrar of vital statistics show that 830 persons, the majority of them children, have fallen victims so far. The number of deaths last week was about twenty less than the week before. At the various large hospitals it is announced that the number of applications for treatment is daily growing less and that the condition of the patients shows more improvement than at any time since the epidemic began.

MAN DIES FROM BITE OF A TICK
DENISON, Texas, April 10.—James Rainwater reports the death of Hosen Gilbert of Eagle county, Chocktaw Nation, from a tick bite. Gilbert while in camp picked a tick from his arm, which bled freely. Next day his arm began to swell. Blood poison set in and the fifth day Gilbert died.

These words in defense of the trusts are the most heart-breaking things in literature to those who know what is going to come in the future. Can you wonder that after that, when a man gives gifts, we have no gratitude to return?"

BIG SHOE FIRM FILES ASSIGNMENT
BROCKTON, Mass., April 10.—The firm of R. B. Grover & Co. of this city, at whose factory a disastrous boiler explosion occurred March 20, costing fifty-eight lives and $25,000 property loss, has voluntarily assigned for the benefit of its creditors. The assignees are Charles P. Hall, the American Hide and Leather Company of Boston, Judge Warren A. Reed and Fred B. Howard, vice president of the Home National bank of this city. Judge Reed, speaking for the assignees, said: "It is impossible to give an adequate idea of assets and liabilities. Assets consist mainly of Emerson shoe stores scattered throughout the country. The assignment may enable the firm to carry on business during the current season. The action has nothing to do with the legal responsibility of the firm for claims growing out of the disaster."

"It is explained the action of filing assignment papers exempts twenty-two stores of the company from attachment in case suits should be brought."

ROCKEFELLER'S WORDS SADDEST EVER WRITTEN SAYS REV. DR. HILLIS

Noted Congregational Minister Laments His Defense of Trusts

NEW YORK, April 10.—In the course of his sermon in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, Sunday, Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis referred to the gift of $100,000 made by John D. Rockefeller to the American board of foreign missions and to Mr. Rockefeller's son. He said in part:

"The saddest words that have been written in this generation were spoken before Brown University by a young man who is to inherit one of the greatest fortunes in this country. They were spoken in defense of the trusts. Listen to them:

"The American beauty rose can be produced in all its splendor only by sacrificing the early buds that grow up around it. The rose has 1,000 buds, and in order to produce the American beauty the gardener goes around it with a knife and snips 999 in order that all the strength and beauty may be forced into one bloom. In his economic argument this young man tells the working classes brutally that 999 small business men must be snuffed out of existence in order that his American beauty, the trust, may be produced. 'Listen to Christ. Let the strong bear the burdens of the weak,' and again, 'Give and it shall be given unto you.'"

"These words in defense of the trusts are the most heart-breaking things in literature to those who know what is going to come in the future. Can you wonder that after that, when a man gives gifts, we have no gratitude to return?"

DISASTER CAUSED BY WATER PIPES
Total Death List Caused by New Phase in Oregon Land Collapse of Madrid Reservoir 236

MADRID, April 10.—It appears that underneath the foundations of the reservoir which gave way with such disastrous results Saturday were water pipes used to supply the palace and Old Madrid. It is suspected that this was the cause of the subsidence and not the surface of the ground which, when tests were made, sank only eleven millimeters. The vault was built of cement with iron girders, as were also the supporting columns.

The first fall caused all the pillars to bend and the end of the iron work to stretch, resulting in a general and uniform collapse. These explanations, however, cannot be considered as final. Madrid newspapers published assertions that the disaster had been seen by engineers as well as by workmen. It is now recalled that the bad condition of the soil on which the reservoir was constructed caused keen opposition and numerous criticisms when the statement was being discussed in the cortex.

Workmen who have been questioned say that they were compelled to build too rapidly with materials so defective that a disaster was bound to happen. Many heartrending incidents and painful scenes are reported. Ten of those who were rescued alive have gone mad. A huge crowd stood around the scene throughout the night watching the electric lamps.

Crowds of workmen and women, carrying black flags, forced all theaters to close Saturday night.

King Alfonso has a telephone wire laid from the scene of the disaster to the palace and was kept constantly informed. The king again visited the hospitals this morning.

Some of the injured have died. One body was recovered from the ruins during the night, but none later. Seven hundred workmen are engaged in clearing the debris. During the day students and workmen paraded the streets collecting money for the families of victims of the disaster. The public is contributing freely.

The governor of Madrid has prohibited a great popular demonstration of mourning which the workmen wish to organize, but he received the delegates of the Workmen's Association, whom he informed that a street procession would be permitted under certain restrictions.

An exact estimate of the casualties is still impossible. It is stated that there were 236 men in the lower part of the reservoir, all of whom were killed.

SAY GRAND JUROR WAS NOT CITIZEN
Portland, Ore., April 10.—During the present week United States Senator John H. Mitchell, Congressman J. N. Williamson and his partner, Dr. Van Gessner, and Marion Biggs will be arraigned, and on Monday, April 17, Congressman Binger Hermann will be arraigned on indictments returned by the federal grand jury in connection with alleged land frauds upon the United States government in this state.

A motion in abatement in behalf of Henry P. Ford and others will be filed on the grounds that John Guiston, one of the members of the recent grand jury, is not a naturalized citizen and that therefore all the facts of the grand jury have been null and void.

The indictment to which Mr. Mitchell will plead on Tuesday is the one which involved the co-partnership agreement of the law firm of Tanner & Mitchell. On Friday Congressman Williamson, together with Gessner, Williamson's partner in the live stock firm of Williamson & Gessner, and Marion Biggs, ex-United States land commissioner at Prineville, Ore., will be arraigned to answer the charges in the indictment returned Feb. 12 last, accusing them of subornation of perjury in the alleged fraudulent acquiring of public lands near Prineville on the east slope of the Cascade mountains.

Congressman Binger Hermann is expected to leave Washington on Tuesday and to arrive in this city Saturday next. In case he arrives here in time he will be arraigned on Monday, April 17, upon the indictment returned Jan. 31, charging him with entering into a conspiracy with Senator Mitchell and S. A. D. Suter to expedite, through the general land office, alleged illegal land claims in the 11-7th district of the Cascade forest reserve.

The plea in abatement on behalf of Ford et al. is the most far-reaching move yet made in the land frauds case, and if sustained will completely undo all work so far accomplished by the grand jury.

The ground for the motion is that George Guiston, a native of Austria, is not a naturalized citizen of this country and therefore was not qualified to serve as a grand juror.

Peace in six weeks is the latest story with regard to the progress of negotiations between Russia and Japan, and it really begins to look like the end is in sight.

ROOSEVELT NOW AMONG THE WOLVES

President's Wire to Secretary Loeb in Fort Worth Only Link Binding Him with Affairs of Outside World

HUNTING BEGAN THIS MORNING

Camp Was Pitched Saturday Night and Sunday Spent in Resting—Troops Guard Approach to Big Pasture

FREDERICK, Okla., April 10.—A single telegraph wire from Kingola, Okla., to Fort Worth, where Private Secretary Loeb is awaiting his return is all that now binds President Roosevelt with the affairs of the 80,000,000 people of whom he is chief magistrate.

For the present it can be truthfully said the president is thinking more about the wolves in the big Waggoner pasture near here than matters of state. Arrangements have been made, however, whereby he can be put into almost instant touch with the executive department of the government in case some matter of unusual importance should require.

The president reached the Waggoner ranch camp late Saturday evening. The camp is in the timber fringing Deep Red creek, about eighteen miles southeast of here. Five huge loads of camp equipment had been sent in advance of the president's coming and everything was in readiness when he arrived. About twenty tents have been erected, including one large tent used as a mess hall. A pack of hounds belonging to Cecil A. Lyon of Sherman, Texas, thirteen hounds from Amarillo and more than a score belonging to J. A. Abernathy of Frederick are on hand to aid in chasing wolves.

A short distance from the president's camp is the camp of Quannah Parker, the noted Comanche chief, three of his squaws and some other Indians traveled forty miles Saturday to see the president. A hundred yards away from the president's camp is the camp of twenty troopers who are guarding the reservation while the president is there.

The president drove out to camp Saturday evening with Burk Burnett of Fort Worth, making the trip in quick time. The president has been assigned three saddle horses belonging to Tom Waggoner.

The first hunt for Wolves was scheduled to begin early this morning and its results have not yet been reported here. It is likely the president got some of the sport for which he was looking, as wolves are plentiful near the scene of his camp. The hunt will continue until Thursday morning, when the president will leave for Colorado.

In the hunting party are, besides the president, General S. B. M. Young, United States army; Colonel Cecil Lyon of Sherman, Captain Burk Burnett, Sloan Simpson, Lieutenant G. R. Fortescue, Dr. Alexander Lombard of New York, J. E. Abernathy of Frederick, the two Ranger captains, United States Marshal Bill Possett of Guthrie and L. D. Miller, one of the owners of the 101 ranch.

JAPS CHANGE DATE FOR ENTERING HARBIN
Bad Condition of State Roads Given as Reason For Not Occupying City Today as Predicted
HARBIN, April 10.—Information received at Russian headquarters seems to definitely establish the fact that only Chinese bandits under the lead of Japanese officers together with some Japanese cavalry are operating westward toward Tsitsihar, their object evidently being to cut the railroad communications. The real turning movement eastward of Kirov is said to be under command of General Oku. The roads are growing desperately bad. On the flat ground there are seas of mud. A Japanese proclamation has been issued giving the state of the roads as the excuse for the date of their entry into Harbin having been changed from April 10 to April 30.

Indigestion?

I Offer All Stomach Sufferers a Full Dollar's Worth of My Remedy Free to Try

I can afford to offer a full dollar's worth free because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary remedies treat symptoms. My remedy treats the cause that produces the symptoms.

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of nerves is ailing. Not the voluntary nerves that enable you to walk and talk and act—but the automatic stomach nerves over which your mind has no control.

I have not room here to explain how these tender tiny nerves control and operate the stomach. How worry breaks them down and causes indigestion. How misuse wears them out and causes dyspepsia.

How neglect may bring on kidney, heart, and other troubles through sympathy. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be reached and strengthened and vitalized and made well by a remedy I spent thirty years in perfecting—now known by Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

For a free order Book 1 on Dyspepsia. For a full dollar Book 2 on the Heart. For a full dollar Book 3 on the Kidneys. For a full dollar Book 4 for Women. For a full dollar Book 5 for Men. For a full dollar Book 6 on Rheumatism.

Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

BIBLE NOT END OF REVELATION

Rev. D. C. Limbaugh Says God is Revealed Today—Trust Revelation Through Nature

Rev. D. C. Limbaugh says God is revealed today. The second of the series of discourses on "Naturalistic Religion" was delivered on yesterday morning at the temple on Taylor street by Rev. D. C. Limbaugh, the Unitarian minister.

The Bible is full of rare literary beauties and is enriched with passages that are helpful and uplifting and inspiring. The book for the good I can get from it, but it is blemished with pages which we should be ashamed to read to our families.

JUMPED 210 FEET OVER SHOOSHONE FALLS

TWIN FALLS CITY, Idaho, April 10.—Harry Wilson, a young half-breed Cherokee Indian, who, on March 2, jumped over Shooshone Falls, swam out of the whirlpool 210 feet below and was assisted by some companions, is out and around again after having been in the doctor's hands for nearly a month with a smashed knee cap, the only serious result of his foolhardy jump.

Wilson says of his leap: "I was with some of the boys near the falls when we started to debate how much of a chance a man would have if he jumped. Finally I said I would do it. The boys began to guff me. I went along the bank above the falls and told them I was going to 'show them.' They only laughed. Above the rapids I jumped from rock to rock and gradually worked my way down until I got on the point in the center of the falls. Here a rock jutted out over the pool 210 feet below. I could not hear a thing for the roar of the falling water. Watching my chance through the spray, I jumped high and out. As I was falling I saw below the water a big rock, and I feared I was going to hit it. To get further over I turned a couple of somersaults. I hit the water feet first. I went down and down like a shot and hit my knee a crack on a rock. I backed up in good shape and came to the surface with a rush. The next minute I was swimming for my life at the edge of a whirlpool. Just when it seemed as though I was done for, I shot to one side and the rest was easy. I swam to a ledge and hung on until the boys came down the side and helped me out. I walked 200 feet along the side of the river and then climbed the 200 feet to the top. Yes, I might do it again, but I would want enough to buy a good farm before I would make the jump."

Wilson is about 28 years old. He came out here with the rush to take up lands last fall.

Shooshone Falls are about four miles from this city and are among the greatest scenic attractions of the west. The fall of the Snake river over the cliff is 210 feet.

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

LARGE ATTENDANCE EXPECTED DENVER, Colo., April 10.—The American Stock Growers' Association reports great progress in the matter of the coming convention to be held here in Denver on May 9.

The delegations from Texas, Montana and Iowa will be especially large and many of the most prominent packers and stock yard men will personally attend and participate. E. de Rieques, the secretary and treasurer of the organization, said that this was the main subject discussed at the Fort Worth convention, where the Texas cattle raisers had one of their most successful conventions, that Texas was coming up to Denver in trainloads to attend this convention and that many men who have never been in this city have written for hotel accommodations.

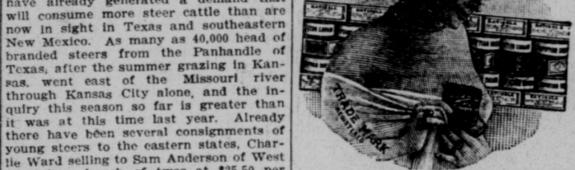

Mr. de Rieques said further that, without question, Murdo MacKenzie would be the unanimous choice for president of the American Stock Growers' Association when finally organized, that the stockmen felt Mr. MacKenzie was by all odds the strongest man for the position, that his interests were scattered from Canada to Texas and that he understood the questions before the country today perhaps better than any other stockman. Further, he said, Mr. MacKenzie would make a great sacrifice if he accepted the position that he did not want it and could not afford to take it, but Mr. de Rieques said he thought when the matter came before the convention there would be such an overwhelming demand for him to accept the presidency that Mr. MacKenzie could hardly refuse, and all the stockmen who know the conditions of affairs sincerely hope that it can be arranged in that way for Mr. MacKenzie to be president.

PREDICTS BIG PRICES AMARILLO, Texas, April 10.—In an interview with W. P. Anderson, the well-known cattle statistician, that gentleman stated to your reporter:

"Outside of the big ranches, such as the XIT, Matador, Lake, Tomb & Co., Turkey Track, et al, who have northern ranges to which annual consignments are made, including such trailers as Pemberton & Cowden and others, the demand from Kansas, and from there to Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and other eastern states, have already generated a demand that will consume more steer cattle than are now in sight in Texas and southeastern New Mexico. As many as 40,000 head of branded steers from the Panhandle of Texas, went east of the Missouri river through Kansas City alone, and the inquiry this season so far is greater than it was at this time last year. Already there have been several consignments of young steers to the eastern states, Charlie Ward selling to Sam Anderson of West Virginia a bunch of twos at $25.50 per head."

Anderson further stated that at the coming convention there will be more buyers and sellers of the smaller lots of cattle brought together than ever before in the history of Texas. There is here in sight, through the channels above mentioned, enough inquiries to take all of the well-bred steers of the Panhandle at better prices than the northwestern buyer can afford to pay.

Aged Husband and Wife Die Within Few Hours of Each Other After Long Illness

NEW YORK, April 10.—Playmates in childhood, betrothed in youth and man and wife for more than fifty years, Howard and Mary Hasbrouck died within a few hours of each other at their home in this city. Both had been ill for several months. Rousing from the lethargy of his death bed, the aged husband, feebly turned his eyes towards his life companion, who was breathing her last almost within touch of his hand. He murmured her name and she answered. Then both lapsed into a sleep from which they did not awaken. The husband passed away almost immediately. Mrs. Hasbrouck lived seven hours longer but did not regain consciousness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hasbrouck were members of families prominent in Ulster county since the days of the early settlers. At a large gathering of relatives on both sides, the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary two years ago.

THE TURN OF THE TIDE

The turn of the tide has apparently come in the affairs of the cattlemen of Texas and the southwest, in the form of the long expected and long delayed return of prosperity.

Texas is believed to contain on a conservative estimate about 7,000,000 head of cattle, and the appreciation that has already occurred in values is not worth less than $15,000,000 to the cattlemen of this state.

John D. Rockefeller's coin may be tainted with the smell of Standard Oil, but there are a whole lot of people in Texas who would not particularly object to it on that account.

When Denison navigates Red river, Waco does business with the Brazos and Dallas has a maritime fleet on the Trinity, water rates in Texas will cause a considerable reduction in railway freight rates.

President Francis denies that there is any barter and sale of the World's Fair awards. No one has ever believed such was the case except some of the parties who failed to capture a coveted premium.

Those members of congress who are opposing the call of an extra session to consider the freight rate question will be afforded an opportunity to explain before the next election.

Mexico will go on a gold financial basis the first of May, the decree to that effect having already been signed by President Diaz.

William J. Bryan is talking some mighty sound democracy to the citizens of the effete east, but the trouble with the east is that it only pays close attention to Colonel Bryan during off years.

Prince Henry, brother of the emperor of Germany, has surprised the czar by suddenly appearing in St. Petersburg. Just what the visit means is not known, but it has put all Europe to guessing.

Russia indignantly denies that her soldiers are badly fed, and Japan also brands the statement as false in every particular. And Japan is feeding the great majority of them.

The reception given the president all along the line of his travels serves to demonstrate the wonderful individual popularity of the man. The people all honor Theodore Roosevelt, the man and the president.

period of depression without faltering, it would be a great mistake to give it away now. It is certain that conditions can become no worse than they have been, but that the indications are for much better things.

The czar of Russia is said to now be the only man of any prominence in that distracted country in favor of continuing the war with Japan.

William J. Bryan is going ahead with the work of attempting to heal the differences existing in the democratic party, and if let alone will have it in fine shape for the next national campaign.

The railways of the state ought to wait until the Williams bill goes into effect before they suggest the matter of a general advancement in freight rates.

Business men in eastern cities are declaring against the further employment of women in their business, averring that the experiment has generally proven unsatisfactory.

President Roosevelt has stated that he does not want a third term and would not accept it. But if the New York World does not let up in its efforts it may force the president to alter his determination.

John D. Rockefeller's coin may be tainted with the smell of Standard Oil, but there are a whole lot of people in Texas who would not particularly object to it on that account.

It is generally believed that it was the president's gentle southern blood that was in evidence during all of his trip through sunny Texas.

Russia continues to deny that she desires peace with Japan, but there is no doubting the proposition that Russia is needing peace with Japan very badly in her business.

A BID FOR FREEDOM BY GUY BOOTHBY

"I had no idea," she said, "Mr. Gavasson, that you intended hunting in this country."

"My friend and I have taken The Retreat on the Burley road," I said.

"Really?" she answered, as if she had not taken any interest in the matter. "Poor Colonel Beverley used to live there. He was a great friend of my father's."

From the way in which she said this, it might have been inferred that she very much regretted the change of ownership. For want of something better to say, I inquired after her father.

"He is very well indeed, thank you," she replied. "Oh, here he comes."

"Well, my dear," he said, addressing his daughter and throwing a glance at me, "time is up and we shall be making a move in a few minutes."

"I am glad to hear it," she remarked. Then she added, "Papa, may I introduce Mr. Gavasson to you, as I see you do not remember him? He was poor Grenville's friend at college."

"Forgive me, sir," said the old gentleman, "for not recognizing you. It must be many years since we last met."

"I have been abroad, and only returned to England a week ago," I said by way of explanation.

"And you immediately pay us the compliment of hunting with us. Well, well, let us hope that we shall show you good sport in return. By the way, Mr. Gavasson, you must come up and dine with us one evening. The duchess will be very glad to see you, I am sure."

"I should be delighted, sir," I answered, "but as it happens I have a friend staying with me."

"Then bring him, too," was the hospitable reply. "Today is Wednesday. Shall we say Monday? Let me see, where do the hounds meet on Monday, my dear?"

"At Barnely cross roads," I answered, "but that will be just right, if the fox runs in our direction, as he should do. Then, Mr. Gavasson, we shall expect to see you and your friend, Mr. Lacey."

"Lacey," I said, "son of General Lacey of Bramstone in Devonshire."

"God bless my soul, I used to know his father well. We shall be delighted to see you both—8 o'clock—Monday. But see, the master is preparing to get on."

The master and first whip were moving toward the covert, the two other whips following. The field in the meantime was preparing itself for the work before it. Not wishing to appear as if I were anxious to thrust myself upon the duke and his daughter, I rejoined Lacey.

"You seem to be enjoying yourself, my friend," he said, with a laugh. "Half the field, I'll be bound, have been envying you."

The canine chorus swelled up. It was evident that revynar had broken covert. Then the hounds appeared, closely followed by the master, who waved his hand to the crowd to keep them back.

"Mark my words, we're in for a hot thing," said Lacey. "God, how they're streaming away! They'll take a bit of catching, my boy."

During the momentary interval that elapsed between the master's appearance and our getting away, I found time to steal a look at Lady Olivia.

She was transformed; her eyes shone, her face was flushed with excitement, while she managed her plunging horse with a dexterity surpassing anything I had ever seen. Small wonder was it that they called her the loveliest woman in England!

Lacey was not wrong when he said that we were in for a stiff thing. For the first three fields, my time was completely taken up to manage my own mount. He was only a five-year-old, and as spry as a bit of India rubber. Had I taken him by the head and tried to hold him, he assuredly would have got away with me. As we ran down the dip toward a brook that my experience told me would take a bit of negotiating, I managed to take a crafty pull at him. Already, though we had not done more than three miles, the field was falling, though the leaders were still going well and strong. I could see the old duke well on the right, where his judgment had told him the going was most sound, while a little to his left was the Lady Olivia doing all that lay in her power to hold an animal who had neither the intention nor desire to be restrained.

"I was scarcely thirty yards behind them when they raced at the brook. Both got over in safety and doubtless I should have done the same but for an idiot who endeavored to race me at it. The result was fatal. My animal took the bit between his teeth and went at it like a shot out of a gun. I saw the pollarded willows right and left and the marshy banks on either side, then before I knew where I was I found myself in the brook making for the opposite shore, with the water eddying about me."

"Perhaps that will steady you," I said to my brute as we clambered out on the further side and I set him going again. It certainly seemed to have done so, for from that time forward he no longer attempted to show fight. After that it was all fair going. We ran through Little Nunthorpe, skirted the church and killed ten minutes later in Runction Wood—thirty-five minutes of as good going as ever I have known in my life.

I am not going to pretend that I was in at the death. As a matter of fact, they'd worried him and the master had handed the brush to Lady Olivia before I put in an appearance on the scene.

The lady was radiant. Regardless of the frowns of those about her, I rode up and congratulated her on her prowess.

"You seemed to have been in trouble," she answered, with a smile at my watery garments. "It was that brook," I replied, somewhat ruefully. "However, we managed to clamber out."

"And you were in very good time, too," she was gracious enough to say. "After all, you were in the first half dozen."

"I am afraid I don't feel very proud of myself in spite of that," I remarked, and then, lifting my hat to her, I rode away to where Lacey, who had just put in an appearance, was standing.

"By Jove," he said, "it has been a clinking run. I have been down twice, and don't mind admitting it. I suppose it's all over for today?"

But not a bit of it. The master was determined to draw another covert half a mile or further on. So we jogged after him. The grooms must have had a wonderful knowledge of the country, for, when Arab blood in him, we reached the first jump together, and, to my astonishment, as we landed she turned and smiled at me, as much as to say, "I think we did that fairly well."

The hounds were still streaming away as if they were going to run till doomsday, and the master was close behind them, taking everything that came in his way as calmly and coolly as if he were riding in the park. So had he ridden in a certain famous cavalry charge that will never be forgotten so long as English history remains.

Three more fields, a small brook, a slight ascent with a farm house at the top, a dash into the farm yard, and all was over—forty-five minutes from the find, comparatively slow going and as pleasant a run as the heart of man could desire.

The day following a hard frost set in and hunting in consequence was impossible. What was worse, it looked as if it would last. The effect on Lacey's temper was remarkable. He wandered about the place, in and out of the stables, inspected the heavens continually, and at last declared himself to be bored to death and departed for town, leaving me alone in solitary grandeur. Between ourselves, I was not altogether sorry.

When he had gone, however, I scarcely knew what to do with myself. To ride or drive was out of the question, for the roads were like ice. Look where I would, I could find no relief. It only required by groom's appearance in the study to inform me that he was afraid that the gray, who had carried me so well when I had last ridden him, was favoring his left fore, to put me out of hand altogether.

"Is everything going to go wrong?" I cried in my wrath. "It certainly seemed so. I returned to the house in a humor bordering on the desperate; but though I did not know it, there was worse to follow."

My tea had been brought me, the fire made up, and I had settled myself down to a book when I received a shock that I shall never forget.

I had just filled my second pipe and had come to the last chapter of the novel, and was naturally anxious to elucidate the mystery, when Burroughs the Inimitable, as we called him, appeared upon the scene to inform me that "two furrin gentlemen" would like to see me.

"Show them in," I said, with a pretense of unconcern.

They entered. Two stately self-contained Moors, habited in their native dress. They made their reverences to me, and paid me the usual extravagant compliments.

As I looked at them all the horrors of the kashab came back to me.

"Well, what is it?" I asked. "What do you want with me?"

"Again they saluted me. True to their color they declared that they were only acting under instructions. They naturally loved me beyond all telling. They had the greatest respect for me. It was not to be received, however, by this smooth talk."

"What do you want?" I asked again. "I don't understand the reason of your presence here."

"But his majesty's orders—" "Well, he obeyed! Bear this in mind, however: if I am going to be shadowed by you men, there will be little or nothing to tell. I am doing all I can, and if you drive me too hard I shall be compelled to throw the whole matter up."

"The elder man made me another deep reverence. "Sir," he said, "I think you do me an injustice. I must serve my master, as you will do."

"Carefully veiled though it was, I could see the threat underlying his words. If I did not do exactly what was expected of me, no mercy would be shown me. Once more the chill of the kashab swept over me.

"How long have you been spying upon me?" I asked at last—feeling that I must say something.

"I beg your excellency not to think that we are spying upon you at all," he replied. "We are here to watch over your safety, for though we are but poor men we know in what esteem you are held by our master—his majesty the sultan."

I knew all about that. In such esteem was I held that a dagger thrust between the ribs or a diving death in the dungeons of the kashab would be my fortune should my mission miscarry, or if I should play him false.

When they had gone I went to the window and looked out. The afternoon was drawing in and my spirits were down to the lowest ebb. What was I to do? I asked myself.

When I thought of that beautiful girl in that fiend's clutches my whole being revolted.

Gleanings From the Exchanges

Fort Worth has long headed off Dallas by using the Trinity above the latter named city for a dumping pool, but Dallas is about to claim her rights to say no, as when the Federal appropriation for the improvement of the Trinity is invested the statute prohibits cities from dumping their sewage into government constructed waterways.—Jackboro Gazette.

The converting of the Trinity into what is designated as a navigable stream by the Federal government is going to cause both Dallas and Fort Worth some trouble on the sewage question. Just what is to be done is a problem that will have to be solved in the near future by both cities.

The democrats carried all the big cities that held city elections last Tuesday. Press dispatches indicate that they carried St. Louis and Jefferson City, Mo., Chicago, Kansas City, Kan., Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Leadville, Colo. If these cities could do this well on presidential years there might be some change in the electoral college.—Corsicana Courier-Light.

Municipal elections do not count for much except to provide berths for a few democrats when they succeed in carrying them. It is the state and general elections that count, and when it comes to these the democratic party seems utterly unable to let loose of the hind feet.

There should be a provision in our law prohibiting the introduction of more than two bills by any one member of the legislature; then we would stand a chance of having better laws, and a better execution of them. The trouble is, every member imagines that he does not introduce a cart load of bills to be enacted into laws, his constituency will think he is not doing his duty. On the contrary, if he would turn his attention to repealing a lot of the unexecuted laws on our statutes, and move an adjournment sine die, he would serve his people better.—Wallsville Age.

Members of the state legislature would resent such a proposition by voting solidly against it and it could not become a law. Still, there ought to be some method devised by which the lawmaking body could be brought down to business. There is too much valuable time wasted in the consideration of freak legislation during every session.

The Hon. William J. Bryan is already planning for the success of the democratic party in 1908, and has gone to work to get the party together, and is now making speeches over the country to that end. In a recent speech at Des Moines, Iowa, in speaking of the situation and things necessary to success, he said: "Back to the people is the phrase that best explains the tendency which is manifesting itself in the nation and most of the states. For a period of years the tendency was toward corporate domination and the voice of the people grew weaker and weaker in comparison with the influence of money. But the tide has changed and we see evidence everywhere of a determination of the party of the masses to associate themselves in the management of the parties and in the conduct of the government."—Honey Grove Citizen.

"Back to the people" is a very safe and timely slogan for the democratic party at this stage of the political game. It was democracy's departure from the people and its worship of the golden calf in the last national campaign that brought such overwhelming disaster upon it. Colonel Bryan is starting off on the right track, and shows himself to be the man for the emergency. There is nothing of the peanut politician about William J. Bryan.

BLOOD POISON MAN'S GREATEST ENEMY

The disease that has done more than any other to wreck, ruin and humiliate life, is Contagious Blood Poison. Sorrow, shame and suffering go hand in hand with this great enemy, and man has always hated and fought it as he has no other disease. It is the most powerful of all poisons; no matter how pure the blood may be, when its virus enters, the entire circulation becomes poisoned and its chain of horrible symptoms begin to show.

Usually the first sign is a small sore or ulcer, not at all alarming in appearance, but the blood is being saturated with the deadly poison, and soon the mouth and throat begin to ulcerate, the hair and eyebrows drop out, a red eruption breaks out on the body, copper-colored spots and sores make their appearance and the poison even works down into the bones and attacks the nerves. Not only is the disease hereditary, being transmitted from parent to child, in the form of scrofula, weak eyes, soft bones, weak, puny constitutions, etc., but is also so highly contagious that many a life has been ruined by a friendly hand shake, or from using the toilet articles of one infected with the poison.

To cure this blighting, deadly curse the blood must be purified, and nothing will do it so quickly and surely as S. S. S. It goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, drives out every particle of the poison and makes the blood clean and strong. It does not hide or cover up anything, but from the first begins to expel the poison and build up and strengthen the system. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable. We offer a reward of $1.00 for proof that it contains a particle of mineral of any kind. Book on the disease, with instructions for home treatment, and any advice desired, without charge.

Frisco Immigration Association Shows Immense Business—Railroads

E. A. Hughes, who is well known in Fort Worth railroad circles, has been elected president of the land and immigration association of the Frisco system, and B. Dudley Keith, whose home is in Fort Worth, was re-elected secretary. The association has 500 members located in twenty-two states and territories. Reports made from 20 per cent of these agents show 11,007 people handled, 2,007 located along the Frisco line, $165,000 for the passenger haul, $2,227,000 invested in lands and 215,000 acres of land sold. Reports made by the officers of the association indicate that there will be a very large increase of immigration to Texas and the southwest during the current year.

ORIENT BUYS TOWN Municipality Secured From Syndicate Will Be Division Point

Thomas, Ok., has been bought by Kansas City, Mexico and Orient road company from the Trinton syndicate that established the town nearly three years ago. The syndicate involves $100,000, and the agreement is made that Thomas will become an Orient division point. During the past few weeks the Thomas Commercial Club has raised nearly $50,000 to secure the Orient, which now owns and controls hundreds of lots and many acres of land around the town.

MEXICAN CONSOLIDATION According to a report here the National Railroad of Mexico has bought the Rio Grande and Eagle Pass road which extends from Laredo, Texas, twenty-five miles up the Rio Grande valley. It is believed that the line will be extended to a connection with the International at Eagle Pass, Texas, and also that it will be extended south-eastward to a connection with the Matamoros branch of the National, crossing the Rio Grande near Camarero.

ROCK ISLAND WORK

Heavy Expenditures Being Made For Improvement of System

The Rock Island system is planning extensive betterments and renewals for the present year, and several millions of dollars will be expended with the view of placing the main lines of the systems in perfect physical condition.

Among the things already decided upon is the laying of 400 miles of eighty-five pound steel on the main line in Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. This will cost the company over $1,000,000, but will bring the main lines up to standard with respect to weight of rails. For rebalasting of the same lines the sum of $600,000 is to be expended. The work will extend as far south as Becklin, Kan., and will include track in the states of Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma.

All over the system there is to be an extensive renewal of bridges, replacing the old wooden and light steel structures with heavier bridges. This work alone will cost the company nearly $1,000,000. The division and large terminals everywhere are to be enlarged and improved and fully $1,500,000 is to be used in this work during the present year.

While no statement of what the Rock Island is to do in Texas has yet been given out, it is believed, too, that the company intends to make great improvements in the state, especially at Galveston. However, no plans have yet been consummated, so far as the public is aware.

SIERRA MADRE CONTRACT LET

The contract for the extension of the Sierra Madre road, 120 miles, from Casas Grandes to Dedrick, has been let to F. H. Flick & Company of Dixon, Iowa. This firm is also financially connected with the Sierra Madre company. Mr. Flick is now negotiating for the material for constructing at once the first eighty miles of the extension. Work on this extension is to be commenced as soon as preliminary plans can be consummated. Mr. Flick is the contractor who built the short line between Kansas City and St. Louis for the Rock Island system. Until the extension of Colonel Greene's road is completed Mr. Flick will make his home at El Paso.

FEEDING EXPERIMENT DECLARED SUCCESS

Test Conducted at Union Stock Yards in El Paso Regarded as Satisfactory by Promoters

EL PASO, Texas, April 10.—The feeding experiment which was being conducted at the Union Stock Yards in El Paso this spring is declared to have proved to be a complete success.

Practically all of the cattle which have been fed have been disposed of, with the exception of about 300 head of the Shannon cattle, which will probably go to Clifton for slaughter.

"The unusual amount of drossiness this spring interfered somewhat with the success of the attempt, but the result as a whole was extremely satisfactory," declared F. B. Stuart of the Union Stock Yards Company.

"Many cattlemen have watched the experiment with a great deal of interest, making many inquiries into the details of the business. I look for a much larger feeding business at El Paso in the future. As long as hulls and meal remain at their present reasonable figure for local delivery there will be no difficulty in that direction."

Mr. Stuart has already disposed of all his fat cattle, either to local or Arizona butchers. Most of the stags went to the Kansas City market. The stuff brought four cents a pound in the local yards.

Very little stock is moving at the present time, but within the next few weeks cattlemen look for a big increase. At the close of the month shipments will become more active. The movements of fat stuff from Texas to California continue as usual.

George McHardy passed through the city in charge of nine cars of cattle for the Maier Packing Company in California.

J. H. Nations shipped a car of fat stuff to Fisher Brothers, Douglas, Ariz. Peyton J. Edwards, receiver for the Hereford Live Stock Company of Reeves county, shipped 600 head of cattle from Pecos, which he sold in behalf of the bankrupt concern.

W. W. Turney has closed a deal with Murphy & Company of Marfa for 1,500 steers from his Alpine ranch. They are for May delivery to be shipped to Marfa early in the month. The terms of the sale have not been given out.

W. W. Turney and Coles Brothers sold 400 cattle to the Los Noris Cattle Company for immediate delivery. One lot left this city for Alpine to superintend the round up.

Frank Creswell of Phoenix, Ariz., has closed a contract with John T. McElroy of Midland, Texas, for 500 head of three-year-old steers to be delivered here about the 15th of the month. Twenty dollars was the consideration. Mr. Creswell also has contracts for 300 head of steers from Carpenter Brothers of Ysleta to be delivered in El Paso at $20 a head.

Joe Cannon of Van Horn has sold 600 head of steers to Slavins & Nation for May delivery. The terms of the sale are said to be $11 and $15. Jim Pulliam has sold 2,000 head of

UNION SERVICE WELL ATTENDED

Opening Meeting at City Hall Devoted to Y. M. C. A. $2,000 Subscribed

The first meeting of the series of union evangelical services was held at the city hall last evening under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Donations to the amount of $2,000 being made for the new Y. M. C. A. building. Rev. Luther Little opened the meeting with prayer, followed by Rev. J. B. French, who read the scripture lesson. Dr. W. J. Harsha, the Presbyterian synodical evangelist, spoke to the large audience of the seal of man and cited instances where many men had made failures in life because they had never stuck to any one trade or profession. "The successful man doesn't stop at difficulties, he goes on in spite of them and is sure to win," said Dr. Harsha. "So, whether you expect to be a preacher, a business man, a Christian or anything else, you must be one thing and not forever changing." W. B. Paddock followed Dr. Harsha with a statement of the condition of the Y. M. C. A. finances. He said that the new building would not be a good investment for the city, if it cost less than $30,000 or $40,000, and asked that the people present seriously consider this. He concluded his remarks by saying that there was no better investment in the whole world than real men and that the Y. M. C. A. made them. Dr. Monk in speaking on "Applied Christianity," took occasion to say much regarding the duties of a Christian and what assistance he should lend in a worthy cause. He told of what the Y. M. C. A. had done and would do for the young men of the country and praised the work of the association. In concluding he remarked: "It will be a shame if this year ends without the completion of a beautiful Y. M. C. A. building in this city to cost not less than $50,000." Services are to be held at 10 o'clock each morning, 4 o'clock each afternoon and 8 o'clock each night in the big tent erected on the Texas and Pacific reservation. A special prayer meeting will also be held each day at noon for business men in the Board of Trade building, Seventh and Houston streets.

GERTRAUDE JENKINS.

New Strength— Increased Vigor.

It is easy to get into a run down state and stay that way and forget what real health is. We never appreciate real health when we have it. After feeling all run down, nervous and tired out, month after month, most people simply hope against hope that they will feel better soon. Instead of trying to do something to help themselves feel better, they depend on hope. The only way to really help yourself is to get new strength and increased vigor. Win back your right to feel strong and well every day. A well person ought to wake up with a laugh every morning. Health, vigor, determination, courage—in fact, all that makes life worth living depends upon a healthy supply of Nerve Force.

Paine's Celery Compound builds up the supply of Nerve Force, it revives the old force and makes new. It not only does this, but by strengthening the nerves that control all the organs of the body, it cures the real cause of headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, malaria, and the many diseases coming from a run down condition of the nerves.

Gertraude Jenkins allowed herself to gradually sink into nervous prostration, one of the final states that tired, abused nerves reach. Her experience is valuable to all those who feel "run down," "tired out" and are not helping themselves to get back to real health.

"Paine's Celery Compound cured me of nervous prostration when I was so weak and used up that I had to lie down part of each day. The doctor advised me to go away and take a vacation to build up, but I could not give the time or money. Paine's Celery Compound built me up within two weeks—my headaches disappeared, my appetite returned and the aches and pains gave way to new strength, life and increased vigor. I enjoy perfect health to-day and used less than five bottles of Celery Compound, so know by experience how valuable it is."—Gertraude Jenkins, 714-63d St., Chicago, Ill. (Member Ladies of the Maccabees.)

"Nervousness," "nervous prostration," "nerve decline,"—that run-down, worn-out feeling,—nine times in ten are simply the result of prejudice, carelessness, or ignorance.

Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth University, was the first physician to enunciate the principle which to-day is recognized as one of the foundations of the science of medicine,—the great enlightening truth, that the nerve system rules all the body's health.

He sought and found the food that builds up and restores the nerves—his celery formula, which has become famous as Paine's Celery Compound—the celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic.

Paine's Celery Compound is giving New Nerve Force to thousands every day by feeding and restoring the nerves to their full strength. It never fails to build up the run-down system to full, ruddy health.

Two days' treatment proves its marvelous power. It braces you up. You feel better at once.

Sick headache, palpitation, dizziness, and heartburn are usually relieved by a single dose of Paine's Celery Compound.

For over 18 years Paine's Celery Compound has been the most universally used nerve vitalizer and tonic in the world.

Remember this,—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, and all reputable Druggists sell and recommend it.

WEDDINGS

DOYLE-DE VERE
W. J. Doyle was married in St. Louis last Friday to Miss Anna De Vere of Jackson, Mich. Mr. Doyle, better known as "Jack," was formerly one of the most popular of the local railroad young men, having occupied a responsible position with the Cotton Belt for a number of years. He is now the traveling freight agent of that road at Waco, where he and his bride are now receiving the congratulations of their many Texas friends.

MALEK-PYLE
The Fort Worth musical public will learn with interest that Ottakar Malek, the distinguished pianist, was married to Miss Winni Pyle of Dallas yesterday morning. The ceremony occurred at the First Baptist church at 10 o'clock and immediately after they left for a tour of the larger southern cities where Herr Malek has concert engagements. At the close of the tour their home will be in Chicago.

It has been known among intimate friends for some time that this marriage was to take place. It is the culmination of a chance meeting in the parlors of the Oriental hotel on Malek's visit to Texas last year. Miss Pyle, but recently returned from a study abroad, was one of a group of Dallas musicians who were introduced to Herr Malek. In the parlors at the time were Fort Worth visitors who had gone over at the request of the Kindergarten Association who were contemplating signing Malek for a Fort Worth date. So intent was the Fort Worth date on making a just report of Malek as a musician that the sly Cupid's pranks were overlooked. Now that local people have learned Malek's pre-eminence as a musician, there will be more than the usual pleasurable interest in the fact that he has run smooth always arouses in the normal mind.

HEART BROKEN WHEN HER WORK FAILED

Fruitless Attempt to Reconcile Parents Causes Death of Girl

CHICAGO, Ill., April 10.—Coroner Hoffman today will investigate the mysterious death of Gertraude Jacobs, a pretty girl, whose heart had been broken because she had been unable to reunite her divorced father and her fatherless body had been found lying face downward in her room in Jackson boulevard. In one hand was grasped a pencil and in the other a Bible, in which several passages on "love" had been marked. There was nothing to indicate the cause of death.

For fifteen years the girl had sought to bring about a reconciliation between her father, a wealthy merchant of Mansfield, Ohio, and her mother, who were divorced when she was 12 years of age. All her efforts to reunite the little family had been in vain and the trouble had preyed upon her mind until she had become melancholy.

The April number of The Lantern, Seneca's magazine, published monthly at Dallas, may justly be said to be the spokesman of the silent millions of people who have no lobby at Austin to make reply to the large array of lobbyists for special interests who are fighting all tax reform measures and seek to place the burdens of an increased tax rate upon the land owners, stock growers and merchants of Texas, who already pay an undue proportion of the cost of the state government. The lantern announces a special offer of a trial trip for four months for 10 cents.

Don't let the children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish and cross, give them Hostler's Rocky Mountain Tea. The best baby tonic known. Strength and health follow its use. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

FEEBLE OLD PEOPLE

For All Such People in Fort Worth We Guarantee Vinol Will Create Health, Strength and Vitality, or Return Money

Hundreds of old people right here in Fort Worth need just such a strength maker and body builder as our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol; and we simply cannot understand why they will continue to drag out a half-dead and half-alive existence, when we guarantee Vinol will infuse new life, invigorate every organ in the body, stop the natural decline and make them well, vigorous and strong. If you are getting how an aged, feeble, discouraged man or woman may be made active, cheerful and vigorous, read this letter:

Mrs. Catherine Therer of Albany, N. Y., writes: "Six months ago I felt that I was broken down by age, and I was doomed to the weak and feeble condition of old people. The slightest exertion tired me, and I had no strength. My daughter brought me a bottle of Vinol. I soon felt an improvement, I continued its use, and I have been for years, in fact, I feel 10 years younger."

Vinol is not a strong stimulant which reacts on the system, but it is a genuine tonic and body builder which creates strength by building up every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended, and makes rich, red blood. In this way it stops the natural decline and replaces weakness with vigor. We wish every old person in Fort Worth would try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails. Take a dose of Vinol after each meal and every night before retiring and note its beneficial effect. R. A. Anderson, Druggist.

NAUGHTON SAYS HART OUGHT TO TRAIN A YEAR

Fighting Expert Thinks Kentuckian May Then Have a Chance to Aspire for Jeffries Match—Jabez White Has Good Manager

BY W. W. NAUGHTON. SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The native sons are on trial again. The latest accusation—and like the others it bears an eastern date mark—is that the Hart-Johnson contest was "rigged" for the purpose of demonstrating to the world that the non-irritating cathartic, Pilo is the best of all druggists or by mail at C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

marked, suggesting a mixture of swarager and savoir faire. While he hasn't exactly the soft answer that turneth away wrath, he possesses the knack of giving a humorous twist to a situation.

When Nolan, manager of Nelson, sought to corner Charley a few days ago amid the big Englishman's offer to bet thousands that Nelson couldn't stop White in ten rounds, Mitch is reported to have said, "Why, my dear boy, it was all a joke, wasn't it? I'm sure I didn't give a moment's serious thought to the matter. I'm a bit of a spoof-bird myself, you know, and when Nelson talked of stopping Jabez in ten rounds, I thought it an excellent—what d'ye call it—josh. Come round when we get through with Britt and we'll give you a go. We won't ask any concessions, either."

All of which convinces me that Charley is just the fellow to stand between White and petty annoyances.

LETTER TO FORT WORTH FURNITURE COMPANY, OF Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Sirs: Here's a 15-year yarn; you like yarns, don't you? It comes from Otwell Hardware Co., Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. R. G. Glenn's house in that town was painted Devoe about fifteen years ago, and next, this year.

A house, next door, was painted about the same time with another paint, supposed to be good. This house was painted again about 5 years ago with still another paint, that professes to be extraordinary.

Glenn's house, before it was painted just now, was in as good condition as that one. Devoe 15 years; the other 5 years—guess that's about how to put it.

But this extraordinary paint is a bluff; Devoe is the paint. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. S.—Brown & Vera sell our paint.

GENERAL CABELL UPHOLDS "DIXIE"

Commander of Trans-Mississippi Department U. C. V. Opposes Any Change

MONUMENT TO REAGAN

Committee Appointed by Lee Camp to Consider Contribution to Fund

A stirring letter from General W. L. Cabell in command of the Trans-Mississippi department, United Confederate Veterans, opposing any change in the words of Dixie was read at the regular meeting of R. E. Lee camp, today standing in the eyes of many of the grizzled veterans at its conclusion.

The communication, addressed to Mrs. W. M. Campan of Florence, Ala., is as follows:

"Your letter of the 18th inclosing a printed circular, I found awaiting me on my return home a few days since. I thank you for this circular and the kind sentiments expressed for me. I must, however, tell you, my dear madam, that I am opposed to any change, for the following reasons:

"I am a Confederate soldier, proud of his record, proud of the record of the brave soldiers of the Confederacy who served with me and under me in more than fifty hard-fought battles. I am proud of this glorious southland of ours, 'Dixie,' and the 'Battle Hymn of the Confederacy,' which was a great comfort and almost food to the old Confederate soldiers, when sitting around their camp fires on the eve of battle, without food or shelter. Yes, I am proud of it, and I am religiously and conscientiously opposed to the changing the dot of an 'I' or the crossing of a '4' in that glorious song. I consider that I would be guilty of sacrilege, that I would be dishonoring the dead heroes of the Confederacy, who are sleeping, wrapped in their old gray blankets, on more than a hundred battle fields from the Atlantic to the Rocky mountains. Our greatest respect and pride is in the glorious memory of the past. My dear madam, I am opposed to any change and will continue to object. You had as well expect me to take down from the wall the portrait of my dear old mother, who nourished me and raised me and six other brothers on southern food, and with tears streaming down her cheeks sent six sons to the war, and cut it to pieces, because she was not dressed in the modern style; to mutilate my noble old gray-headed father, who at the age of 72 shouldered his gun on the 16th day of April, 1861, and marched down through the streets of Danville, Va., behind a drum and fife playing 'Dixie,' when Mr. Lincoln issued his first proclamation.

"No negro dialect" was observed or thought of, but for every roll of the drum and the shrill note of the fife, a noble son of glorious old Virginia was enrolled. Thank God it was the same in the southern states, that while these brave Virginia boys were enrolling, the prettiest young women of that state were singing 'Dixie.' These pretty southern women never thought of this great difference between singing, 'Old Missus married the Weaver,' or the more modern dialect, 'William the Weaver.' No! Let our glorious old 'Dixie' alone! Let the old Confederate soldier, the unpaid soldier of immortal principles, who was true to the south and who fought for four long years, badly clothed, badly shod and badly armed—the best fed, the best clothed and the best equipped army in the world—enjoy the memory of his glorious deeds and the memory of glorious 'Dixie,' without a single line or word changed. It is this 'Dixie,' our brave old soldiers fought under. It is this 'Dixie,' that thousands of our best soldiers died under, hearing its glorious words.

"Mr. Lincoln said that he had captured 'Dixie,' but it took four long years to wrap up in my old gray coat, pierced in a dozen places with Yankee bullets, and when the man of God is through, let the Daughters of the South, the prettiest and the most glorious women on earth, sing 'Dixie,' so that my spirit may be taken to heaven to join my old comrades who have gone before.

"Wishing you and all the ladies of your chapter good health and a long and a happy life and that you may continue to look after the disabled and helpless old Confederate soldiers, their widows and orphans for many years to come, I am, with high respect,

"Your obedient servant, "Lieutenant General, W. L. CABELL, Trans-Mississippi Department."

REAGAN MONUMENT

Messrs. Pankey, Dr. Jackson and Abston were appointed a committee to consider the feasibility of the camp contributing to the fund which is to be provided for the erection of a monument to the late John H. Reagan. The committee will report its decision at the subsequent meeting of the camp.

William E. Mickle, in a letter, acknowledged the receipt of $40 per capita tax money from Lee camp. The sum of $242.50 was reported as the amount given to Lee camp by the Daughters as a result of the old fiddlers' contest. A vote of thanks was tendered the Daughters. The camp made a donation of $5 to the Daughters' Chapter at Cincinnati, to be devoted to a fund which is to be used in the erection of a monument over the dead Confederate soldiers who are buried on Johnson's Island, in Ohio.

DELEGATES UNINSTRUCTED

A committee reported on the proposed amendment of the constitution having reference to the election of officers of the national organization, which provides for selections by other than seniority. On motion of Adjutant McConnell the camp decided by almost unanimous vote to send all delegates to the Louisville reunion uninstructed on all questions, in line with previous action in such cases by Lee camp.

Resolutions on the death of Miss Mildred Lee, daughter of General R. E. Lee, were adopted by the camp.

Resolutions on the death of John W. Aiken were adopted. Comrade Aiken was an aide-de-camp to Colonel E. W. Taylor during the Civil war.

A sponsor to represent Lee camp at the Louisville reunion will be elected at next Sunday's meeting.

Resolutions that hereafter the roll of officers shall be called and entered on the minutes of camp No. 158, U. C. V., that future generations may see who attended the meetings most punctually, were introduced by Dr. George Jackson, quartermaster, and passed.

Reference was made by a member to the fact that Sunday was the fortieth anniversary of the surrender at Appomattox. There were seven members in the meeting who were present when General Lee surrendered. Commander Taylor also said that the day was the forty-first anniversary of the battles of Mansfield and Pleasant Hill, in which he participated.

Judge Beckham was called on to speak on the Appomattox anniversary, but he said he did not feel much like making an address over a "funeral" and declined the invitation.

At Rev. C. S. Hamlin of the First Christian church spoke the camp adjourned.

PASTORS ORDER FRAME BUILDING

Wooden Structure Will Replace Tent Erected on Texas and Pacific Reservation

Considering the tent erected for the union evangelical services inadequate, protestant pastors of the city at a meeting held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church this morning decided to erect a wooden tabernacle to seat 3,500 persons, the structure to be built immediately on the Texas and Pacific reservation near the site where the tent stands at present.

A committee comprising Rev. J. D. Young, Rev. J. B. French and Rev. S. G. Inman has been empowered to confer with contractors and order the erection of the tabernacle.

The tent erected for the meetings has proved unsatisfactory on account of being so easily damaged by the wind. No meeting was held this morning. The noon meeting at the Board of Trade building was also postponed today.

It is announced, however, that there will be a meeting this evening; one at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning; one at 10 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and also Tuesday evening. Daily meetings for men will be held on the lower floor of the old Board of Trade building, corner Seventh and Houston streets, at noon.

SPONSOR FOR PARKER HERE

Martin W. Littleton Who Made Nominating Speech at St. Louis Convention, Here

Martin W. Littleton, the brilliant young attorney who nominated Judge Parker for president at St. Louis, and who is originally from Texas, is in the city today on his way to Weatherford where he will visit his brother, who is postmaster in that town.

"In my opinion Mayor McClellan will be re-elected at the head of affairs in New York city and there is also a very fair chance that New York state will go democratic next year, which is an off year," said Mr. Littleton, when seen today. "In state affairs in New York things are distressingly close as between the republicans and democrats, but nationally the state is numerically republican, and no mistake."

Mr. Littleton says that the ovation given the president by Texas people was something marvelous. "I think there are two reasons for this more than anything else," he said. "One of these things is the fact of the president's position on the Panama canal proposition and his expansion policy. He gets near the hearts of the people because his speeches are gems of simplicity, and he evades the discussion of the most momentous questions as the tariff and kindred subjects."

Mr. Littleton said that it was just twenty-five years since he landed in Texas from Tennessee, and since that time he has witnessed many remarkable changes in this state which he says has shown remarkable growth. Mr. Littleton will leave Tuesday for New York.
