

ASSEMBLY NEARS FINAL SESSION

Work of the Southern Presbyterian Body Practically Concluded

FEDERATION UNDECIDED

Committee to Report on Question Next Year, Increased by New Members

At 1 o'clock today the Southern Presbyterian general assembly reached the end in the resolution debate after it had been discussed ten hours...

At the opening of the session this morning the assembly took up the report of the standing committee on foreign correspondence. It was adopted on its reading by Dr. Alexander Sprunt of Charleston, S. C.

ROUTINE MATTERS

An overture from the Montgomery Presbytery raising the question as to whether it is competent to install ministers by committees, was read.

REQUEST DENIED

The committee on the Leonard bequest recommended that it be disposed of by giving five-eighths to the home mission and three-eighths to the foreign cause.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

A resolution was adopted that a judicial committee, composed of nine members, be appointed by the moderator, to whom shall be referred all matters of legal aspect before incorporation is authorized.

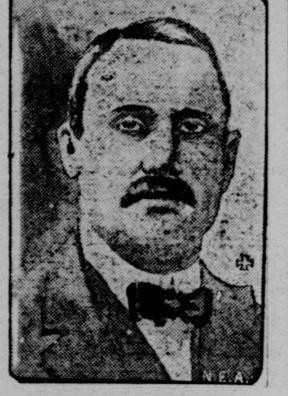

FEDERATION DEBATE

The moderator, at this juncture, announced that the debate on the federation question would be taken up. Dr. G. B. Strickler, D. D. of Richmond, Va. was the first speaker. He said, in beginning the debate, he doubted if all the spirit of fraternity with a Christian standpoint rested entirely with those who favor federation.

FAVORS MIDDLE COURSE

Dr. William Anderson of Nashville, Tenn., was an emphatic speaker for a federation plan, but not as reported to the assembly by the committee. He was in harmony with the idea of co-operation with other churches.

A NEW U. S. SENATOR

FRANK B. BRANDEGEE

Who has succeeded O. H. Platt in the United States senate, the new United States senator from Connecticut is 41 years old, a graduate of Yale, and has been in his state legislature and in congress almost continuously since his graduation.

The northern church?" he asked. "It is true this is a day of unity in Christian work, but which church will the union be? That is the question. Why not Catholics? Are they not fighting the devil? I'll say why. I would because they are too many and would swallow us up."

FEDERATION SUPPORT

Judge McKee of Prescott, Ark., made one of the strongest speeches of the general assembly on the federation question and held the assembly should adopt the committee report looking to a closer relation with other churches.

QUESTION CALLED

At this point it was evident that the commissioners were beginning to weary of the discussion, for some half dozen were on the floor calling for the question.

VOTE TAKEN

The moderator announced that the vote would be taken on Dr. Daniel's substitute, in substance being that the assembly express its inability to approve the recommendation of the committee. The vote was: For the substitute, 81; against it, 93.

BIRMINGHAM MAN KILLED NEAR HOME

MURDERER LEFT REVOLVER BEHIND IN HASTE TO ESCAPE SCENE OF THE CRIME. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 25.—The body of Isaac Walters, secretary of the Mississippi Coal Company, was found early today in front of his home at Wood Lawn suburb. He had been shot in the head.

JAPAN'S FINANCES WITHSTANDING WAR

TOKIO, May 25.—Baron Komura, minister of foreign affairs; Baron Sone, minister of finance; and Baron Shibusawa, president of the Clearing House Association, addressed the clearing house today. Baron Komura said that the financial capability of Japan is completely surprising the world. He was glad that Japan was showing a financial and productive ability as well as strength.

BARON ALPHONSE ROTHSCHILD DEAD

Was Head of French Branch of Famous House and One of Most Noted Financiers

PARIS, May 25.—Baron Alphonse de Rothschild, head of the French branch of the banking house bearing the name of Rothschild, and governor of the Bank of France, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning from acute bronchitis, aggravated by gout.

The eminent financier has been sinking slowly for many days, but there was no apprehension that death was imminent. He first took to bed two weeks ago. Several rallies gave promise of his recovery.

Two days ago the baron began to fail rapidly and his condition assumed a disquieting form. Although he kept up an animated conversation with members of his family and old servants, the patient became very weak and last night entered upon a comatose state and passed away this morning peacefully, surrounded by his family.

The deceased, who was born in 1827, will be succeeded as head of the Paris banking house by Baron Lambert de Rothschild of Brussels, whose business capacity has earned him world-wide reputation.

MUTUALIZATION MOVE BLOCKED

Restraining Order Is Granted Against Directors of the Equitable Ins. Co.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The motion of Franklin B. Lord, which sought to restrain the directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society from mutualizing the company, was granted today by Justice Maddox in the supreme court in Brooklyn. In granting the motion Judge Maddox said after reviewing the facts in the case: "The motion, therefore, is granted, but is limited to the filing and enforcement of such proposed amended charter, for it appears that such contemplated amendment has been adopted and executed by the board of directors."

SAW IRON PUT IN LIFE PRESERVERS

Witnesses at Government Trial Testify to Means Used for Increasing Weight

TRENTON, N. J., May 25.—The government's case against J. H. Stone, S. C. Quintard and Charles and James Russ, officers of the Nonpareil cork works of Camden, charged with increasing the weight of cork blocks for life preservers by inserting iron bars to attain the required standard weight, has been concluded in the United States district court.

KANSAS MURDER MYSTERY REVEALED

Willie Sell, Convicted When a Boy of 14, Again Seeks Executive Pardon

Special Correspondence to The Telegram. TOPEKA, Kan., May 25.—Convicted when a boy of 14 of the most atrocious murder in the criminal annals of eastern Kansas, "Willie" Sell has served ten years in the penitentiary at Lansing. Recently another plea was made to get him a pardon and the case now rests in the hands of Governor Hoar.

"WILLIE" B. SELL, The Life Convict.

A victim of circumstantial evidence and inflated public opinion and that it is high time the wrong done him as far as possible.

On the other hand, bitterness against the convict is so great that some of those opposing the pardon adopted a memorandum to the governor setting forth that they were "tired of trying this case every two years when a new governor was elected" and that they wanted the governor after hearing this latest effort if convinced that "Willie" was guilty, to sign his death warrant and end the case forever.

The case is remarkable for the bitterness of those who persistently fight every pardon effort and for the fact that the efforts in behalf of Sell are managed by persons whose names are not even known. People become interested in the case and spend their own money, time and labor in getting a pardon for a man whom in most cases they have never seen. Lawyers of high standing volunteer their efforts, and club women, not even known, at one time or another, have circulated petitions for executive clemency. All of this suggests that the convict is not far from wrong when he says, as he did recently: "Will this question of my innocence be settled in the public mind, it will not doubt, but will rise again and again to plague my persecutors."

ALMOST FREE ONCE

Eight years ago, a pardon board recommended freedom for the prisoner, but Governor Leedy vetoed it. It was the closest Sell had been to freedom, unless the present time be accepted. But disappointment has not soured him, adversity and nineteen years in prison have not hardened him and he has been looked upon by a long succession of wardens and trustees with confidence, even with affection.

"Willie" Sell was a Sunday school boy and the model the parents in the neighborhood held up to their offspring, when the whole Sell family was in blood-drenched clothes and his sister was beaten with an axe as they slept and then their throats cut. "Willie" Sell, who slept in the same bed with his brother, in the little cabin near Erie in Neosho county, alone escaped in blood-drenched clothes and gave the alarm. The following day he was arrested charged with the crimes. The state alleged as a motive that he was in love with a neighbor's daughter and that she had told him that she could not marry unless he had some property. The state believed he murdered the family to get the farm, which was a mighty poor piece of property and barely sufficed to give the family a scant living. Blood stains on the knees of "Willie's" drawers, the state said he had gotten while bending down beside his father to cut his throat after splitting his skull. Other bits of circumstantial evidence were adduced and the boy was convicted. A dramatic point at the trial was when a man in the jury box, who had been asked to sign a pointed question by the prosecutor.

"It is the wrath of God," said the jurors, believing him dead.

When the boy came to, he was under sentence of death in Kansas and has ever since signed a death warrant yet.

NEW EVIDENCE FOUND

Friends of Sell say it was a physical impossibility for a boy of "Willie's" stature and youth to have overpowered his father, a powerful man, and his mother, who, they say, could have pushed him out of a window any time she might have feared the bloodstains on the knees they explained by saying that when old man Sell was awoken by the intruders, he knelt down to see if he could aid his father and realizing his injuries then had dead away on an iron bar in the room where his sweetheart lived instead of to the nearest neighbor, and having given the alarm, promptly went to sleep. The opponents of the pardon see in this a sign of moral calousness. The friends, however, point to it as an indication of the theory that the family was chloroformed before being assaulted. They urge this point with strength in bringing forth the story of a druggist that sold whiskey and chloroform, the latter in a bottle with a curious neck, to four strapping men a day or so before the murder, and months later found the bottle on the Sell farm. A convict some years ago made a confession on being released that he and three other men had murdered the family for money, after chloroforming them. The confession was in great detail, but never could be verified.

The new British submarine boat B1, whose trials have just taken place at Portsmouth, represents a more advanced and efficient type than the A, from which it differs in many respects. The deck of the B2 boat, when awash, is at considerable height above the water, and in length it approaches the dimensions of a destroyer.

50 INJURED IN TROLLEY CRASH

One Passenger Is Instantly Killed and Others May Die From Wounds

BALTIMORE, Md., May 25.—William Stemer was almost instantly killed and half a hundred men and women injured, several of them seriously, in a collision between two trolley cars returning to the city from West Port, a suburb of this city, early today.

In the neighborhood of the terminus of the West Port car line are several summer resorts and the cars, which were the last that were to come to the city were filled with belated pleasure seekers. The last car, but one, had reached a point where the tracks cross those of the Western Maryland railroad's new tidewater extension. The conductor had gone ahead, as is customary, to make sure that no railroad train was approaching. Before he could signal the motorman that the crossing was clear the last car appeared at the top of a steep grade at the bottom of which the Western Maryland tracks cross the railroad. The rear car was running at full speed. The motorman, Sebastian Helderfor, attempted to stop it, but the brakes failed to hold and the car rushed down the incline with constantly increasing speed. There was a crash that aroused the neighborhood and then shrieks were heard in the city which is separated from the scene of the accident by a wide arm of the Patapsco river, known as Spring Gardens. The forward car was hurled clear across the railroad tracks and both it and the one that followed were badly wrecked. The fire bells of West Port summoned the citizens of the town and they set to work to aid the injured and telephoned to this city for ambulances and further aid, which was promptly sent. When light was obtained Stemer was found, horribly mangled, on the rear platform of the forward car, upon which he had been riding. His arm had been torn from his body. He was still alive, but died a few minutes after being taken from the wreck. Helderfor, the motorman, was found in an unconscious condition on the front platform of his car. His escape from instant death is little short of a miracle. He was taken to a hospital and not expected to live. Private carriages belonging to residents of the neighborhood were used to bring the injured to the city and as soon as possible railway sent special cars to assist in this work.

PARLIAMENT FOR THE SOUTH ENDS

Number of Important Resolutions Adopted at the Closing Session

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25.—After adopting resolutions on subjects of vital interest to the south, the Southern Industrial Parliament adjourned yesterday to meet in some southern city at a date in October, to be designated later by Governor Glenn of North Carolina, chairman of the executive committee.

Yesterday's discussions were spirited and personal. Before adjournment, however, feeling had vanished and many delegates rose and declared the parliament had been a success and the foundation had been laid for a gigantic organization. Owing to the amount of business necessary to be concluded the parliament was compelled to abandon its program. Except a brief address by Gifford Pinchot, chief of the bureau of forestry of the department of agriculture, who advised the preservation of the interests of the south, few papers were read.

The resolutions adopted were as follows: Urging the government to construct inland waterways in the South Atlantic and Gulf states and to improve the rivers and harbors of the south; requesting the secretary of commerce and labor to make immediate efforts to relieve the depressed conditions existing with the cotton milling industry; urging the establishment by each southern state of a bureau of immigration; thanking the railroads of the south for their efforts to develop the resources of that section; authorizing the president of the parliament to appoint a committee of five, of which he shall be chairman, to prepare a general statement setting forth the advantages, productions, resources and present needs of the south and directing the executive committee, together with the permanent president, to formulate a plan of permanent organization; urging congress to reduce the tax on tobacco; endorsing the proposed Pan-American College to be established in the south; urging congress to make appropriations for the eradication of the tick fever among southern cattle; indorsing the bill to authorize the commissioner general of immigration to establish at Ellis Island, New York, a bureau of information of immigrants; urging the formation of some plan whereby cotton may be marketed as the world needs it; commending a bonded warehouse system and commending the bureau of forestry of the department of agriculture for its valuable work, and urging the people of the south to prevent unnecessary denudation of their forests.

RIOTS BEGAN IN LUMBER DISTRICT

Crowd of 400 Chicago Strike Sympathizers Attack the Police

REVOLVERS SCATTER CROWD

Sight of Firearms Has Pacific Effect—Police Retire Before Air Guns

CHICAGO, May 25.—Strike riots began today in the lumber district. At Thirty-fifth and Morgan streets, twenty lumber and shoving wagons, fourteen of which belonged to the Rittenhouse and Embree Co., and guarded by upward of forty police, were attacked by a crowd of more than 400 strike sympathizers with bricks, stones and slingshots. While the police confined themselves to clubs, fighting waged indecisively. Finally the police drew their revolvers and charged the crowd. The sight of firearms quickly quieted things, the mob fleeing wholesale. No arrests were made. Many strike sympathizers armed themselves with small air rifles and from behind lumber piles and buildings fired intermittently at the police, a number of whom were struck without being able to see their assailants and finally were forced to take refuge in the offices and other nearby buildings.

SEA GIVES UP STRANGE MESSAGE

Note Purporting to Give Location of Dauphin's History Found at Frisco

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 25.—A bottle having every appearance of having been in the sea a long time was picked up at Ocean Park today and found to contain a note purporting to be from William A. Harris, a native of Pontiac, Mich., stating that on May 8, 1902, the whaler Eltoro out four days from Topolobampo, Mich., was wrecked off a small island south by southwest of Tahiti. Harris further states among the crew who were drowned was Lopez Aultemeyer, who had in his possession a French manuscript handed down in his family, giving a complete history of the lost Dauphin of France, written by a man in whose charge Robespierre left him. Harris asks that the professor of history of Yale university be notified and gives directions for finding this historical treasure, which he buried.

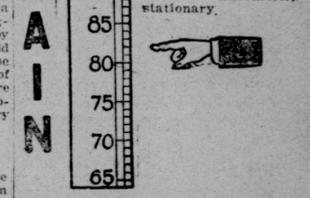

MAYOR AHEAD IN QUAKER CITY WAR

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 25.—It is the general opinion that Mayor Weaver for the present controls the situation in his fight with the republican leaders over the proposed lease of the gas works. There is much speculation as to what will be the next move. Developments today were expected to come from the "organization," Insurance Commissioner Durham and his lieutenants were in conference late last night and their deliberations were resumed today soon after Mr. Durham reached his office. Later he repaired to the office of Senator Penrose and was in consultation with him for some time. There is still some talk of impeachment proceedings against the mayor and there is no longer any denial that this course has been seriously considered by the leaders and their legal advisers. Those who advise against this step argue that any attempt to impeach Mayor Weaver at this time would only serve to strengthen his position with the public. Just now the attitude of the members of the council is giving the leaders almost as much concern as any other feature of their contest with the mayor.

TO LEAD THE FIGHT TO LET CHINESE IN

MOY KEE, WEALTHY AND INFLUENTIAL CHINAMAN AT INDIANAPOLIS. WILL DIRECT THE BATTLE FOR THE SIX COMPANIES

MOY KEE. Who is leading the fight of the Six Companies against the deportation of the Chinese.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 26.—The fight of the Chinese in this country against deportation under the exclusion act, and against the legality of the exclusion act itself, is to be waged by the famous Six Companies. And the fight is to be directed by Moy Kee of this city.

Moy Kee was brought to this country when 8 years old, in 1855, and he is now 57 years of age. He is very wealthy, being a merchant, and he is beside a well-educated man. He is broad and liberal, and with his wife is received in exclusive society here. He exerts not a little influence in state affairs, as he is a citizen. Beside, he is supreme grand master of the Chinese Free Masons, and when Prince Pu Lun visited Indianapolis last July he made Moy Kee a mandarin. He is known locally as the mayor of Chinatown. He is famous for his generosity and entertains lavishly. He contributed a large sum to the Japanese Red Cross fund and was decorated by the mikado.

While Moy Kee will not admit that he is to lead the fight now begun, he talks freely about the exclusion act. "America is a great country," he said to the Newspaper Enterprise Association correspondent. "It is too great a country to resort to such nefariousness as excluding thrifty Chinese. I shall devote my time to using arguments for the repeal of the exclusion act. My countrymen that are here have proven their worthiness as citizens. They obey the laws and are industrious. Can as much be said of the hordes of immigrants from other countries? My people are honest. They come to help build up the farms and cities. In the far west they follow agricultural pursuits. There are millions of acres of uncultivated land in this country. The Chinese can make these deserts bloom. It is manifestly unjust to the Chinese to secure the repeal of the exclusion act, who come here. In the arts and sciences, the Chinese acknowledge no superiors. The race in this country has suffered from early impressions of the people on the coast. I believe that the Chinese stand higher today on the Pacific coast than they did ten years ago. The people have learned that many of the lurid tales about Chinese were pure fakes. I claim for my race high-mindedness, honesty and industriousness. In our fight to secure the repeal of the exclusion act, you will find us honorable—straightforward. We will use only such arguments as all the people may understand."

About the attack upon the legality of the exclusion act, Moy had nothing to say. It is known, however, that the Six Companies, the mysterious society which owns, body and soul, every Chinaman in this country, has retained the ablest lawyers in the country. It controls vast wealth and is willing to spend freely to win this case. These will maintain that when the treaty with China expired, the exclusion act became inoperative. They propose to have the United States supreme court pass on the question. If this contention is sustained the Chinese will flood the country. Meantime, they are being smuggled in across the Canadian border at the rate of thousands a month.

HOW THE TERRELL LAW WAS CHANGED

Original Measure Gave Candidates Full Credit for Votes in Primaries

Judge A. W. Terrell of Austin, author of the Terrell election law, is in the city visiting his grandchildren, corner Terrell and College avenues.

Judge Terrell declines to discuss any phases of the recent alleged mistakes in enrolling the bill in the house. The trouble, from what can be learned, lies in section No. 120 of the bill. Friends of the bill say that as it was supposed to have been enrolled, it provided for a compulsory primary election in every county and, in addition to this provided that candidates for state and district offices should be entitled to a convention vote in proportion to the number of votes received in the several counties. Thus every vote a man receives in a primary election increases his convention vote in the state and district convention.

The foregoing provision was decided upon not by the senate or house but by a conference committee appointed by the two to adjust the differences. The house held out for the blanket primary system. The senate recommended a bill providing for compulsory primary election, the primary to nominate county officers, and the candidates for state and district offices which carried the counties were to have the delegations from the several counties which carried in the state and district conventions.

Differing in the matter the house and senate agreed on the provisions of the bill first given. When it returned to the house for enrollment it was enrolled as follows, whether by intent of some one or by innocent mistake, has not as yet been determined and announced.

Sec. 120. The candidate for any district office who receives a majority vote of all the votes cast in any county of his district shall be entitled to the entire convention vote of such county in the district convention.

EVERY ONE ASKS HIM

HOW HE GOT RID OF HIS OBSTINATE MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM.

Mr. Jones Tells of the Way by Which He Treated Himself Successfully When Doctors Failed.

Six physicians, all of them good, one of them a specialist, had done their best for Mr. Jones at different times during three years, and still he suffered fearfully from the tortures of rheumatism.

The rheumatism that had been dormant in his system was suddenly brought to an acute stage by exposure while he was drawing ice in February, 1901. From that time on for a period of more than three years he was a constant sufferer. He tried many kinds of treatment, but the rheumatism wouldn't budge. When regular doctors failed, and one remedy after another proved useless, many said: "I should think he would give it up and save his money."

Of his condition at this time, Mr. Jones says: "My rheumatism started in my right thigh, but in time it appeared in every muscle of my body. I lost the use of my left arm entirely and nearly lost the use of my right one. My feet were badly affected, especially the bottoms of the heels. When my right side was affected there was swelling, but the left side didn't swell when the disease settled there. The internal organs didn't seem to be involved at all. The trouble was all in the muscles and the nerves."

Among the few who still encouraged Mr. Jones to think that a cure might yet be found was a friend who had reason for great confidence in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and acting on her advice he bought a box of them in September, 1904. The story of what followed is brief, but nothing could be more satisfactory.

"When I was on the third box," says Mr. Jones, "I could realize a change for the better. I felt sure then that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were the right medicine for my case. I kept on with them for several weeks longer and now I am entirely well, and everybody is asking what I took."

Mr. Williams Jones lives at Oxford, Mich. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills effect wonderful cures in rheumatism, because they work directly on the blood which is the seat of the disease. They are sold by every druggist.

DAME NATURE HINTS When the Food is Not Sued. When Nature gives her signal that something is wrong it is generally with the food; the old Dame is always faithful and one should act at once. To put off the change is to risk that which may be irreparable. An Arizona man says: "For years I could not safely eat any breakfast. I tried all kinds of breakfast foods, but they were all soft, starchy messes, which gave me distressing headaches. I drank strong coffee, too, which appeared to benefit me at the time, but added to the headaches afterward. Toast and coffee were no better, for I found the toast very constipating. "A friend persuaded me to quit the coffee and the starchy breakfast foods and use Postum Coffee and Grape-Nuts instead. I shall never regret taking his advice. I began using them three months ago. "The change they have worked in me is wonderful. I now have no more of the distressing sensations in my stomach after eating, and I never have any headaches. I have gained 12 pounds in weight and feel better in every way. Grape-Nuts make a delicious as well as a nutritious dish, and I find that Postum Coffee is easily digested and never produces dyspeptic symptoms." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. JAP PEER WOULD LIMIT IMMIGRATION. Favors American Restriction of Influx from Orient—Suggests International Bureau. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 26.—Count Kinjiro Hiroswa, a member of the Japanese house of peers, has arrived in this city, accompanied by several Japanese naval officers.

Speaking of the recent anti-Japanese immigration agitation in America, Count Hiroswa expressed himself in favor of some rigid restriction. The best plan, in his mind, would be to establish an international bureau in Japan for the purpose of passing upon the desirability of would-be emigrants.

Count Hiroswa and party are on their way to the Woolwich arsenal in England, to make an investigation of modern European naval affairs, with the idea of benefiting their own navy. They expect to remain in England about eighteen months.

In regard to the effect of the war upon Japan, Count Hiroswa stated that his country is by no means at the end of her resources. "We have plenty of men, arms and food and money enough to last

ONLY M. E. CHURCH IN THE PHILIPPINES

MANILA, P. I., May 25.—The Methodists of this city are prospering. When the Americans came here there was not a Methodist in the islands. Now the church of Wesley is about to build a handsome edifice at the corner of Calles Nozafeda and San Luis. It will cost $30,000 United States currency, and the auditorium will seat 400 to 500 persons.

There will be a parlor, social hall, a Sunday school room and chapel, library, pastor's office, kitchen, serving room and a pipe organ will be put in. A great open veranda will be a feature on the south side of the building.

The pastor of the church is Rev. G. A. Miller. He says there will be no church debt.

Murdo MacKenzie's Views

In the course of his recent address at Denver, Murdo MacKenzie, after election to the presidency of the American Stock Growers' Association, said:

"With an association unfettered with discordant elements, united in purpose, it should be its aim to do things and not merely to resolve to do something. It should be steered clear of controversy or bickerings within its own ranks, avoiding the consideration of matters of conflicting interest among its members. It should avoid to the utmost the criticism of others, endeavoring to bring to its aid in every undertaking all of the organizations and individuals not members who have a like interest.

"Above all, let it not undertake to further any move not meritorious and confine itself as much as possible to the accomplishment of a few things, and stick to that policy until desired results are obtained.

"Let us profit by experiences of the past and be ready to meet all contingencies as they arise by adopting an intelligent, fair and conservative policy, in order that we may command the attention, respect and consideration of those to whom we apply for relief.

"You have elected your president; but a president with a committee which will not help him is something like a preacher with a congregation which will not go to church. The preacher cannot make Christians by preaching to empty pews; neither can your president make a success unless you will give him a committee which will accept the office with a full determination to do what is necessary to carry on the work to a successful issue.

"You hear some people say: 'These stockmen and those who associate with them are clamoring to get laws passed which will ruin every railroad in the country.' But, gentlemen, when you hear a statement of this kind make up your mind that the one who makes it either is interested in the railroads or receiving or expecting to receive some special advantages from them. We appreciate as much as any one the benefit we derive from the railroads and also how necessary they are for the success of our business. No one with any business sense would ask anything done which would prevent railroads from earning a fair return on the value of their property, and thus enable them to give good and efficient service. I wish to put this association on record at this time by stating that we have no fight with railroads or railroad men. Our fight, gentlemen, is against existing laws which enable railroads to charge freight rates which we consider unreasonable for carrying our products to market, leaving us without adequate remedy.

"We do not ask congress to pass a law transferring the rate-making power from the railroads to the shipper, because that would be just as unreasonable as the present law, which gives the railroads this power without due consideration for the shipper. What we do ask is that congress pass a law which shall provide for an unbiased and impartial board of arbitration whose duty it shall be to settle all questions of difference between the railroads and the shippers. Is this asking for the confiscation of any one's property? Our demands are not unreasonable. All we ask is that the present law be amended so as to give the interstate commerce commission power to correct rates where such are found to be unreasonable and discriminatory.

"Another matter which this association should take up is the modification of the existing law which pro-

THE BRIDE'S BEST DRESS

The most simple trousseau requires a best dress of wool or silk.

The gown here shown is of satin finished crepe de chine in gray. Any color can be used, according to the color most becoming to the bride. There are the delicate champagne shades, pale greens and blues. A gray or a buff is the most serviceable.

Almost any soft wool material is pretty made after this model. It can be made from a 50-cent albatross, a cheap cashmere or a cologne. The softer silks can be used with excellent effect.

The deep shirred flounce of the skirt is trimmed with ornaments made of white lace and crescent-shaped pieces of velvet matching the color of the gown. The lace is in the fashionable button pattern.

The draped bodice droops slightly in front over a wide girle, which is trimmed with wheels made of the material shirred over a cord.

The lace bertha and chemisette are made of applied lace. The lace being set onto a fine net.

The sleeve is puffed at the shoulder and over the lower edge of the puff is a Louis XV ruffle, accordion plaited, from soft chiffon taffeta exactly the color of the gown. The fall is of white chiffon edged with a ruffling of the same. The under sleeve is close fitting, and is made of lace and velvet like the ornaments on the skirts.

NORTH SIDE NEWS

An entertainment consisting of music, songs, recitations and drills was given in Collier's grove Thursday night for the benefit of the Kindergarten Association of North Fort Worth. The rendition of the program was a success in every way, and the large attendance made it successful from a financial standpoint.

The grove was illuminated with electric lights and a stage erected in the center afforded ample room to carry out the drill work of the little children that took part in the program.

Miss Pauline Eaton, director of the association, assisted by Miss Tracta Platts conducted the children through one of the favorite games with which the children are amused while in the school. This part of the program met with hearty applause.

A May pole in which twelve little girls took part was highly appreciated.

The children were assisted in musical features by Miss Will Rowlin, Mrs. Will Eaton, Miss Ruby Hayes and W. Gallies.

Doilies were arranged along the sides of the grove where candies, ice cream, grab bags and flowers were sold.

The proceeds will be devoted to the work next year, when it is believed more suitable quarters can be secured. The directors report that Miss Eaton has been very successful with the class this year, maintaining an average of twenty-five throughout the entire season.

A meeting of the Kindergarten Association of North Fort Worth will be held this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the work for another year.

TRACK HIM DOWN

The Telegram has several times referred to the changes made in the Terrell election law after it passed the legislature and just prior to its enrollment, and this was apparently just about as dirty a piece of political work as was ever perpetrated in Texas.

It makes no difference how a measure reads when it passes the two branches of the state legislature. The law as it becomes such is the measure as it is enrolled. The enrolling clerk is required to enroll the bill as it reaches him after being passed by the legislative body, and he is not allowed to tamper with its phrasing.

Things have come to a pretty pass in Texas when men who are elected to make laws for this state will stoop to such dishonorable conduct. It is a shame and a reflection upon the personnel of the entire legislature that such things can be, and the members of that honorable body owe it to the people they represent as well as to themselves to dig that thing up and lay the whole transaction bare in order that contumely may be attached where it legitimately belongs.

It is understood that Judge Terrell consented to serve the people of Austin in the state legislature only that he might be able to perfect the election laws of this state in the matter he has undertaken to do, and the fate of the measure must be a cruel disappointment to him now. He feels that all his sacrifice and labor has been in vain.

What will be done with the measure is not yet known. The governor still has it under advisement, but will probably act on it definitely this week. In the meantime, Representative Kennedy and others are in Austin trying to probe into the situation. It is stated that Kennedy has said he is able to recognize the handwriting of the man who made the change, and if this is true, his name ought to soon be made public. It is a situation that should be sifted to the very bottom and all the facts made public as soon as possible. It is a situation that is absolutely intolerable to the lover of the things that are clean.

Every time we have a big killing in Texas the fact is so thoroughly advertised abroad that many good men are kept from making their homes in the state. Texas must learn to enforce her laws with such strictness and impartiality that human life will be held at something like its true value in this state. The man who wantonly takes human life should be made to pay the full penalty demanded by the law.

The Frisco is getting ready to spend a whole lot of money on Texas extensions, and the Frisco is one railway system that always receives a cordial welcome wherever it shows up in this state. GLEANINGS FROM THE EXCHANGES

The country has a right to expect of every citizen to do his duty and to contribute to its wealth and happiness. Some one has said that the man is a real benefactor who causes two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before.—Tyler Courier.

And when every citizen does his duty the community is always progressive and prosperous. The man who feels he owes something to his country instead of the country owing it to him, is the kind of an individual who is worth something to that community.

This nation spends upward of a million and a half a year for drinks and beverages. This is somewhat surprising. Suppose all that money was to be spent in drinking water. Maybe the Austin water and light plant in getting its share would be able to declare a dividend.—Austin Statesman.

But the citizens of Austin do not take kindly to drinking water. They want something with a keener edge to take the cobwebs out of their throats.

Many differences could be easily settled by arbitration without recourse to law or harsher measures. Other extremes should be invoked when arbitration has failed.

The bankrupt treasury prevented the legislature from giving to the state reformatory that attention which is demanded by a humane civilization. In other words, instead of being a penal institution, the reformatory should be converted into a manual training school, as the superintendent recommends.—Waco Times-Herald.

The state reformatory should be changed into what it was intended to be when the institution was founded—a place where erring boys can be taught the principles that will bring them back to the straight, hard way.

A race riot in Chicago? Well, if it does occur that will be one part of the country beside the south that appreciates race prejudice. It will be able to further understand, too, that the negro is one extreme of the human species and the white the other; and that they are as wide apart on the special plane as they are ethnologically.—San Antonio Express.

Race riots are always reprehensible when they occur in the south, but when they transpire in the east the papers of that section treat them very lightly. There will be race troubles in all portions of the country just so long as the two races come in contact.

It will be pretty difficult to get the general public to make a great fuss because Uncle Sam looks for a bargain sale of canal supplies.—Bonham Favorite.

The noise is all being made by the fellows who had fixed themselves to skin the government on the sale of supplies. Many big fortunes had already been worked out on paper in connection with Panama supplies.

Governor Lanham threatens to veto the state banking bill. Hon. Alexander Watkins Terrell has the ear of the governor and the man who made history on the hurricane deck of the mouse-colored mule has no earthly use for state banks.—Dallas Times-Herald.

Judge Terrell may have the ear of the governor, but if so, he is pouring it full of lamentations over the condition of new election law. That measure will keep Judge Terrell busy for a while.

The Fort Worth Telegram has an editorial along lines that the Register has been hammering. The Telegram says that Texas people should keep their Texas money at home, and should patronize Texas at home, for they are as good as can be found in any state in the Union. The Telegram is correct. Texas schools are as good as any, and Sherman schools are as good as any in Texas. Anything in Texas is good enough for any Texan, and Texas is good enough for any man on the face of the earth.—Sherman Register.

Texas schools for Texas pupils should be the general cry. If we are to make the Texas schools what they should and must be we must extend them the proper recognition.

The potato crop failure, the effects of which are being so keenly felt throughout northeast Texas just at this time, is said to be the first failure for thirty years. Crop failures are numerous, and one failure in the potato crop would hardly have the effect of decreasing the acreage.—Clarksville Times.

If the potato crop has failed in northeast Texas, why not try another planting? Two potato crops are often raised in succession in Texas.

Very much to the point was the remark of the man who said: "If you told a man when he lives what you put on his tombstone when he is dead, it would have helped him more."—Terrell Transcript.

The point is well taken. It can make no difference to the dead what we place upon their tombstones. If some of the nice things placed on tombstones were given to the subject during life they would serve as inspiration for renewed effort and bring some feeling of real happiness to the recipient.

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

CONCHO RANGE CONDITIONS

Fred Walters of San Angelo was in the city Thursday. He reported conditions as excellent, cattle in good shape, plenty of grass and plenty of water. "There never was more good grass and water in that section before that I can remember," said Mr. Walters. "I think that the cattle on grass will be ready for market by the usual time feed stuff goes on. If the salvation of West and South Texas depends largely upon alfalfa, I have found that this plant will become acclimated, will change in some respects to adapt itself to the surroundings, and in a short time Texas would have an alfalfa plant all of her own, and I think that it would be even better than some of its neighboring states, as the warm climate will be largely of benefit, and I believe in the end would counteract the lack of water to a great extent.

"It has always puzzled me that Fort Worth has not opened a sales stable such as I mention, from the fact that all the cattle of good herds that are brought to Texas are usually bought in the east and require a special trip on the part of buyers, which cannot be afforded when but a single animal is to be bought. It is true that there are a number of dealers in the better grade of cattle who live in Fort Worth or at least have branches in this city, but if the stables were opened here they would find that they would make more sales through it than through private endeavor.

"People will buy stuff sometimes at an auction sale, will pay a good price for it, when they would not have purchased it at all if they had not seen it up for sale. Such sales as this would prove beneficial to Texas, as it would breed up the range herds, just what the better informed public of the state have been advising for the past ten years."

LOOKING AFTER THE CALVES
If more cattlemen would look carefully after the young calves and endeavor to encourage an increase, I am confident that a great many of them would be better off in the end," said Harry P. Smith of Hereford.

"I made a special attempt at this two years ago, with the result that there was their land and putting it out in good feed crops. If this is done, the cattle land of Texas would produce more cattle, more profits and with less actual trouble than any other part of the country. It would prevent the maximum from being raised.

"It is true that in some sections of Texas the climate and moisture would operate against such procedure, but little moisture is required to raise feed crops. If the salvation of West and South Texas depends largely upon alfalfa, I have found that this plant will become acclimated, will change in some respects to adapt itself to the surroundings, and in a short time Texas would have an alfalfa plant all of her own, and I think that it would be even better than some of its neighboring states, as the warm climate will be largely of benefit, and I believe in the end would counteract the lack of water to a great extent.

"I made a special attempt at this two years ago, with the result that there was a greater increase in my cattle than ever before, and, of course, that meant more money when it came time to market them.

"There should be plenty of bulls kept with the herd. Economy in this direction sometimes means wastefulness in other ways. There is not nearly as much danger in having too many bulls as there is in not having enough.

"The bulls should be well cared for. It should be seen that they have plenty of water, plenty of food and their physical condition looked after. This will be a savings in the long run.

"See that the calves do not starve to death, and when they happen to come late in the season, be sure that they do not freeze to death."

THE PECOS COUNTRY

Sam Davidson has just returned from the Pecos country and reports everything in the best condition. Cattle are doing well and grass is in fine shape. Plenty of water is to be had all along the line. Mr. Davidson owns a large ranch in New Mexico, and was among the number who sold their steers early.

WEST TEXAS CATTLE

John Scharbauer of Midland was in Fort Worth Thursday. Mr. Scharbauer is one of the prominent cattlemen of West Texas, and is probably as well posted on live stock matters as any other man in Texas. He stated to a representative of The Telegram and Stockman-Journal that conditions in the Midland country were never better than at present. A heavy and beneficial rain has just fallen in that section, and was the one thing needed to perfect conditions.

"Cattlemen have never felt better," said Mr. Scharbauer. "They are recovering from the reverses they have met in the past few years, and are content with the situation. The demand for cattle at present is very good, a very heavy demand exists for 2-year-old steers, and buyers for this class of stuff can be found all over West Texas. Another thing that makes us all feel good in that country is the fact that we will have a good crop of calves to represent the season's increase."

THE VIRTUE OF PATIENCE

By Lowell Otus Reese.

Have you wearied of the battle? Have you grown discouraged, son? Looking backward on life's pathway, is it little you have done? Does the web beneath your fingers seem to tangle more and more? While the riddle of the future seems yet stranger than before? Just be patient for a season: for at last the mystic fates Bring the tangled threads out even for the one who works and waits.

Does she shiver seem and farther from your love's entreating hands? Than his harbor from the sailor wrecked upon the barren lands? Is the call of music stronger than your heart's beseeching cries? As she whirls amid the gay ones with the glamor on her eyes? Yet be patient, Youth will waken, and at last the time will come When the heart no more is stifled and when love will not be dumb.

Have you seen your idols falling by the road you have trod? With your whole life dedicated to your people and your God? Did you lift against the dragon dauntless, by your single lance, To be stricken down by malice or the sword of circumstance? Still be patient, oh, my brother, and take courage in the fight—For your own soul will reward you in the battle for the right!

Have you wandered in the wilderness till hope is nearly dead? While the flying brush of time has painted on your face the lines of care? Is the promised land no nearer to your anxious, dimming eyes? That have watched the silent heavens for a glimpse of paradise? Patience!—Just a little longer, and the dawn will be gone, And your soul behold the splendor of the everlasting dawn!

NEWSPAPERS AND PUBLIC QUESTIONS

By Whitelaw Reid.

The free press largely rules a free country. It may make peace or war; it has done both. But it is quite capable of fomenting very grave difficulties which it never desired or intended or even thought of. In our great distances and with a candidate for town constable or the board of aldermen. Is it not time for the press, when it exercises the power, to recognize also the obligations of rule—consideration, moderation and a scrupulous regard both for the rights and the susceptibilities of others?

We have ourselves resented at times with unwonted asperity the slightest foreign interference in our own domestic discussions. More than once those of us of mature years have seen this country lashed into a fury almost bellum meretrici by the critical or carping references in foreign newspapers.

It might be well, now, in some quiet hour, to consider the other side, and reflect how they may feel over our free spoken comments on their affairs. We do not, in fact, taken sides, and led our people to take sides, habitually and even vehemently, on almost every foreign question that comes to our notice? Would it comfort better sometimes with our position now if we were a little less dogmatic in laying down the duty of this or that nation in its own domestic affairs, and a little less partisan in our view of the unhappy conflicts between contending nations?

Do not misunderstand me, I am arraigning no one, and making no criticisms of others which I do not take to myself also. But has not the time come in the development of this country and in the increased intimacy and importance of its relations to other countries when we may advantageously practice a little more reserve in commenting upon other people's affairs, a little more impartiality between countries at war, and a friendlier tone to each when we are on good terms with both, and have every interest to remain so?

What is good policy for individuals in the disagreements of their neighbors might sometimes in these international cases be pretty good policy for newspapers, too, and for the people at large—an attitude of friendly neutrality—while meantime diligently minding their own business and letting that of other people alone.

PANTHERS SHUT OUT BY VISITORS
Waco Takes Third Game of the Series by Score of 3 to 0

Waco turned the tables on Fort Worth Thursday afternoon at Haines park, winning handily 3 to 0, getting two out of the three played. It all happened in the first inning. Just as it all happened in the tenth when the Panthers lost the opening game of the series. In other parts of the game Fort Worth played even.

Metz, who had his eye peeled, opened things with a slugging two-bagger to left and went to third on a sacrifice by Curtis. Christman then presented Spencer a first base invitation and Williams followed with a hit, scoring both Metz and Spencer. White-man walked and Pruitt put one up over Burleson's head which he dropped, catching Williams on third. Egebee then went out from third over, giving the Panthers a chance to settle down; two runs to the bad.

Sullivan equaled Metz, swinging out a clean two-bagger to the fence. Hubbard, however, was an easy out at first. Burleson tried hard but a fielder got under the ball in right and Willis ended the only chance to score by fanning out. Sullivan's drive under Haley's legs as he was nearly caught off the bag in this inning started the football enthusiasts rooting. Things went one, two, three for the Panthers until their half of the fourth when Hubbard got too much steam on one for the pitcher to handle and went on to second on an untamed throw to first. Burleson drove a hot one at third that lacked a foot of being a good one, but Hubbard got back to first safely. Willis then hit a hot one upon which pitcher got an unofficial assist and Poindexter ended the inning by striking out.

In the fifth Waco scared up another tally. Metz went out from Hubbard to Willis. Curtis picked out four bad ones to let go past and then stole second. Spencer went out on an infield fly to Hubbard and Williams then got a single to right, scoring Curtis. White-man went out from Hubbard to first. This ended the run getting, though Waco gave the Panthers another scare in the seventh. Metz opened up with another two-bagger and went to third on Curtis' out from pitcher. Spencer sent one to Willis on which Metz tried to score, but Willis and Bates nailed him at the plate. Williams went out to Willis, unassisted.

Hope never dies with the fan and when Burleson sampled the left field fence with one out in the ninth the "rush or stand" for the cars stopped. Willis, however, went out from pitcher over and Poindexter followed with a fly to center. Nothing doing. Official score:

Dallas Defeats Temple
DALLAS, Texas, May 26.—Up to the fifth inning it looked as if Temple would cross the tape ahead of the Giants, the Boll Weevils being one in the lead at the close of the fourth. In the inning to follow, however, Dallas braced found Cy Mulkey's delivery for six hits and four runs, making the tally sheet Dallas 5, Temple 2. Two more runs for Dallas, one in the seventh and one in the eighth, while the Boll Weevils got two more home in the latter inning, made the final count Dallas 7, Temple 4.

BOARD OF TRADE ENTERS PROTEST

Resolutions Condemning Census Estimate for This City Sent to Washington

Resolutions regarding the misleading census estimate issued by the government and giving Fort Worth an increase of but 272 in population from 1900 have been adopted by the board of trade and forwarded to the census bureau at Austin.

Complaints of the estimate have also been forwarded by individual citizens, though so far as can be learned no reply has yet been received from Washington. The resolutions are:

Whereas, The census bureau of the United States has issued a bulletin giving estimates of the population of the ten largest cities in each of the states of the union so far as the same has been compiled; and

Whereas, Said bulletin gives the population of the ten largest cities of the state of Texas, among which is the city of Fort Worth, whose population is given as 26,960, an increase over the official census of the year 1900 of only 272; and

Whereas, It is a matter of general knowledge, known to all men, that Fort Worth has experienced a larger percentage of growth since 1900 than any city in the country; and

Whereas, The city directory of Fort Worth, compiled in the early part of the year 1904, gives the names and street addresses of 22,464 heads of families, making a population at that time by the most conservative percentage of 46,290; and

Whereas, There has been a constant and rapid increase in the population of the city during the year following the compilation of said directory; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the publication of said statement great injustice has been done this city and the census bureau is hereby respectfully requested and urged to correct the same.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the director of the census at Washington for his information.

WOMEN WIN BATTLE WITH WIND FOR TENT

Canvas First Used in Union Services Establish Record for Blowing Down—Services Successful

Tent meetings which are being held under the direction of the First Christian church at the corner of Illinois and Leuda streets are meeting with considerable distressing hindrances. Rev. R. R. Hamlin, who is conducting the meeting, purchased the large tent which was used in the union meeting recently, and had it stretched on a vacant lot by the tabernacle, which was recently built by people of the depot addition for Sunday school purposes. On account of the very stormy weather it was decided to postpone the meeting until a time when the weather would be settled, so after waiting a week when there was not a rain nor wind it was decided to commence the meeting, but no sooner was the tent stretched than it was blown down. Women of the neighborhood worked faithfully until it was saved together so that it could be raised again. But after another service was held and everything seemed to indicate settled weather the storm of Thursday morning got under the tent and rent it again. The women again came to the rescue and it was ready for services again last night. When the tent could not be used the tabernacle was available and a good service has been held under roof. The same tent was blown down during the union meetings. An unique feature of the meetings is the bible drill that is conducted by Mrs. Kendall one-half hour before each service. Seventy-five to a hundred children take part in this drill each night. The children will have their picture taken and they will be seen projected upon the screen by the stereopticon before the meeting closes. Mrs. Kendall has had her children in other places photographed and they are shown to the audience upon the screen also.

There have been large audiences from the first at these meetings and no abatement of interest or diminished attendance is noticeable because of the rain and wind.

Rev. Hamlin is compelled to be out of town tonight and Mrs. Kendall, a preacher as well as a singer, will preach in his stead.

THE WEATHER

Rain fell generally all over the state yesterday. Texas is partly cloudy this morning.

Forecast until 7 p. m. Saturday for Texas east of the one-hundredth meridian, issued at New Orleans, La.:

East Texas (north)—Tonight, partly cloudy to cloudy weather, probably scattered showers and thunder storms in the west portion. Saturday, scattered showers and thunder storms.

East Texas (south)—Tonight and Saturday, partly cloudy weather.

SEWER WORK TO COMMENCE MONDAY

Plans for Improvement on South Side Will Be Drawn Following Inspection of the Territory

It was announced from the city engineer's office this morning that work of drawing the plans for the sewer extensions in the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards will begin Monday morning. City Engineer Hawley and Assistant Engineer Cunningham will inspect the territory through which the sewers will extend and immediately thereafter the work of preparing the specifications will begin.

Mr. Cunningham has just returned from Amarillo, where he has had charge of the installation of the Amarillo water-works system, for which Mr. Hawley is consulting engineer.

He will draw the plans for the local sewer extensions and says that he will require about three months to finish them. The installation of the sewer system will cost approximately $70,000. It is hoped to have the work entirely completed by January, 1906.

FOURTH SUPREME DISTRICT

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 25.—The court of civil appeals rendered a somewhat important decision yesterday, defining the duties of a constable. The case was one in which the right and authority of a constable to execute and return process in a civil action was brought into question. It was appealed from Guadalupe county. In the lower court Adam Seideman, sheriff of Guadalupe county, had sued P. P. Mellin, a constable, for fees collected in the execution of papers sent to him and had also asked for an injunction restraining the constable from executing such process in the future. The lower court found in favor of the sheriff, giving a judgment against the constable for several hundred dollars, which represented fees collected by the constable for execution of papers. An injunction was also allowed to lie, as prayed for by the sheriff.

Judge Fly of the court of civil appeals in handing down the opinion took an opposite view from that held by the trial court. The court said that a literal construction of the statute would lead to absurdities in the serving of processes of courts and sometimes hamper and delay the operations of court in such a way as to cause harm to legitimate causes and perhaps defeat the ends of justice. It is held that a constable's authority is co-extensive with the county and that the constable in this case was acting within the scope of his plain duty in serving the processes of courts. For the reasons which are fully and clearly set out by the learned judge, the decision of the lower

WARM WEATHER HELPS

Get Rid of Your Catarrh By Using Hyomei Now

Everyone who has catarrh should take advantage of the warm weather to get rid of this annoying and distressing disease. The right treatment, faithfully followed, in May or June, will benefit much more quickly than in the winter and early spring.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head and throat by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the germs of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Hyomei is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and the only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

When using Hyomei every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head and goes into the lungs, is charged with healing balsams that kill the catarrhal germs and soothes and allays all irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement, and in a short time, especially if used at this season of the year, there will be no further trouble from catarrh.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and if after using you can say that the treatment has not helped you, R. A. Anderson will return your money.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the great source of the Power to Inspire and Encourage - All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality. Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

ATLANTA SCHOOL

LOSES CONTEST

Amendment That As. mblly Do Not Endorse Carried at Afternoon Session

With the reconvening of the general assembly Thursday afternoon the subject of endorsing the Atlanta seminary proposition was discussed by Dr. C. C. Carson of Georgia, who warmly advocated the establishment of the institution so much sought by many of the leading members of the general assembly, "Do not dream, is what this church faces," said Dr. Carson.

EXPENDITURE OPPOSED

Dr. E. C. Gordon of Lexington, Mo., spoke next on the matter, his remarks being in opposition to the proposition. He did not object, however, to such an institution at some future time, but questioned the demand for it. He did not believe that the demand of the church was sufficiently imperative for the general assembly to undertake to carry out the recommendations of the committee. Dr. Gordon said to build and equip such an institution would require the expenditure of at least $5,000,000. He said there was no call on the church at this time to go into the construction of such an enterprise, and held that it would be better to use the millions it will require in foreign missionary work. He concluded by saying he was not willing at this time to commit the church in so great an undertaking.

Dr. Ernest Thompson offered an amendment to the effect that the assembly at this time do not endorse the proposition. The amendment was carried.

ENDS LONG FIGHT

Erection of the university by the Southern Presbyterian church has been a matter that has caused considerable feeling in the denomination, and that serious conflict has not arisen is due to wise counsel on the part of several of the leaders in the church.

The plan to organize this great proposed university by the Southern Presbyterian church is the outcome of an effort made some time ago in Georgia to consolidate the Columbia Seminary located at Columbia, S. C., and the Southwestern University at Clarksville, Tenn., and to remove them to Atlanta, Ga.

This effort, however, was thwarted, it is said, by members of the present general assembly, by friends of the Southwestern University, who carried the matter into the civil courts and secured a perpetual injunction against further agitation of the movement.

This action thwarted, the friends of the movement, it is said, turned their attention to the present proposition, which, after some considerable debate, they and he also been turned down by the general assembly.

What tactics will now be resorted to in the premises remains to be seen, but from the consensus of opinion of the commissioners present at this assembly, who have fully expressed themselves on the proposition, it is quite evident that the majority of them do not feel kindly toward the proposition, declaring that the money which would be necessary to build the university and secure a perpetual injunction against further agitation of the movement.

FEDERATION

Dr. Eugene Daniel of West Virginia opened up the discussion of the federation question, which was debated at much length Wednesday. He covered the question from its first inception down to the present time, and in opposition to the proposition from beginning to end. He maintained that the question was fairly before the assembly, and felt confident that it will be voted down. He held that the proposition in itself was entirely inconsistent, and that if prevailed the church autonomy would be completely surrendered. The paper, he maintained, provides for secession. The onus would be powerful in the opposite direction. He asked the assembly to go slowly before it was too late. "We declare for Christian unity the world over, and in that position we stand today," said Dr. Daniel. He declared that if federation ever came it would have to come in the way of a natural growth. In concluding his remarks Dr. Daniel offered an amendment to his previous amendment, to the effect that the assembly is unable to approve the plan submitted to the assembly by the committee.

Others who discussed the matter were Judge Coleman of Alabama and Judge C. W. Heiskell of Memphis, the former approving and the latter opposing the proposition. Besides these gentlemen several others addressed the assembly.

covering practically the same grounds discussed by the other gentlemen. When the assembly adjourned for the day the question had not been settled.

NIGHT SESSION

The popular services Thursday night were in the interest of Sabbath schools and Young People's societies. When these subjects had been disposed of the discussion of the federation question was again resumed.

At the Sabbath school and Young People's society meeting Dr. C. R. Nisbet of Atlanta presided. The report of the standing committee on publication and Sabbath school work was made by Dr. Nisbet. R. E. McGill spoke on the work of the publication committee. He said that 175,000 evangelistic tracts were being printed and that the church was doing what it could to reach 3,000,000 white children not in Sabbath schools.

Rev. A. O. Brown, superintendent of the district lying west of the Mississippi river, spoke on his report on publication and Sabbath school work which will be taken up later. The discussion on the close relations of the church was resumed, Judge J. J. Mitchell of Florence, Ala., being the first speaker. He wanted to vote on the question, but Dr. C. R. Hemphill of Louisville was allowed the floor and discussed the subject most exhaustively and forcibly in favor of continuing the committee. At the conclusion of Dr. Hemphill's address an adjournment was taken until this morning at 8:30 o'clock.

PRISONERS FIGHT IN CITY PRISON

Pistol Used by Police Clerk to Quell Riot Over Kangaroo Court

Seems bordering on a riot took place in the men's compartment of the city prison Thursday night, when Grant Martin and Newt Servants, arrested on charges of disturbing the peace, refused to recognize the jurisdiction of the kangaroo court.

As a result Servants has a tooth knocked out and his face badly scarred, while Martin is more or less generally bruised. Other being placed in the city prison, as is the custom when all newcomers arrive, were arraigned before the judge of the kangaroo court to be tried for the crime of breaking into jail. Martin and Servants, however, would not submit to the custom and one grasping a broom, the other a shovel, they defied the other inmates of the prison. The judge of the court called his men together and prepared for a battle. Armed with their weapons the two new men stood off the crowd, dealing out some resounding thumps with their weapons. The battle raged fiercely and for a while it looked as if the supreme ruler of kangaroo court would be overthrown.

When it seemed as if Martin and Servants would gain the victory two husky guards came to the rescue. At this point the noise and yelling in the prison and the read of battle penetrated into police headquarters and attracted the attention of the police. Police Clerk Fendler rushed to the prison and drawing his pistol stopped the pandemonium.

POLICE UNABLE TO HANDLE STRIKERS

Chicago Lumber Dealers Fear Incendiarism—Mayor Orders Saloons Closed

WM. J. BRYAN TO TOUR THE WORLD

Will Study Municipal Ownership and Railroad Problems As They Exist in Europe

LINCOLN, Neb., May 26.—William J. Bryan, in pursuit of a long cherished intention, is to make a tour of the world. Announcement to that effect was made by the former as he boarded a train to participate in the picnic given by him to fifty employes of his paper, the Commoner. The purpose of the trip is to study municipal ownership and railroad problems presented in countries other than his own. Another object of the trip will be to improve the health of his youngest daughter, Grace. Mrs. Bryan and her daughter will leave in June, going to Germany, and there await Mr. Bryan, who will sail in September. During their absence, Bryan's son, William, Jr., who is now a student at Nebraska University, will enter Culver Military Academy, at Culver, Ind.

Bryan's first researches will be conducted at Glasgow into the operation of municipal ownership. His itinerary has not yet definitely been mapped out, but it will take him to Australia and New Zealand, and later to China and Japan, with the likelihood that he may touch at the Philippines. Mr. Bryan's time during the summer has already been taken up by lecture dates, but he has arranged his business so that he can be permitted to stay abroad a year, and it is possible he will visit every local union in the United States according to the plan and in addition to urging financial assistance will strive to arouse organized labor everywhere to sympathize with the present struggle.

One of the first moves of the strike leaders to keep the men in line will be to increase the weekly strike benefits. The drivers on strike now receive $10 a week. The Express Drivers' Union has arranged, according to the officials, to pay its 900 members $13 weekly, beginning next Monday. If sufficient funds can be raised the benefits paid to other strikers will be increased in proportion.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 26.—The teamsters' strike is running along like a flood tide, no barrier appearing in any direction to keep it within bounds and, while it has been spreading, interest has shifted temporarily from the strike between employers and labor unions to differences between the business interests involved and the local administrative authorities. In the face of declarations by the employers that the police department of the city is absolutely inadequate to afford protection to property as a result of conditions brought about by the strike's spread to the lumber districts, Mayor Dunne announced that there will be no necessity to call for troops this week.

The lumbermen, the latest interests to be affected by the strike, are not so optimistic. They seem to be living in terror of riotous uprising in the vast area embraced by their yards and plants—a district peculiarly inviting to incendiarism.

In anticipation of trouble in the lumber district, the mayor instructed Chief of Police O'Neill to close all saloons there between the hours of 1 and 7 p. m. in cases where crowds were permitted to gather inside or outside the premises.

In preparation for a protracted strike the teamsters' joint council has arranged to send agents to all parts of the country for the purpose of gathering funds. It is the ambition of the strike leaders to have $1,000,000 by July 1. Solicitors probably will start from Chicago next week on their mission. They will visit every local union in the United States according to the plan and in addition to urging financial assistance will strive to arouse organized labor everywhere to sympathize with the present struggle.

SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM

AUSTIN, Texas, May 26.—Governor Lanham today approved the state banking bill and filed the general election bill with the secretary of state without his approval. The latter will become a law by limitation. These are the last of the acts passed by the special session of the legislature. There were some things in the general election bill with which the governor was not entirely satisfied, but the bill contained so many improvements on the present law that he was induced to allow it to become effective without his official sanction. The banking bill contains some irregularities and inaccuracies but these, in the mind of the governor, were not considered among the reserves. Some of whom, they say, are almost in a state of revolt because the government has not kept its promise to return them to Japan. The retirement of the Japanese center is interpreted by some Russian officers as a postponement of Field Marshal Oyama's offensive because of the bad state of the roads, but this view is not shared by all officers.

YOAKUM VISITS STATE CAPITAL

Call on Governor Starts Rumor That the Beaumont Line Has Been Sold

AUSTIN, Texas, May 26.—Colonel B. F. Yoakum, vice president and general manager of the Frisco system of railroads, and president of the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico road, came to Austin yesterday and spent some time in the state house in conversation with Chairman Storey and Commissioners Allison Mayfield and O. B. Colquitt.

Colonel Yoakum had just been on a tour of inspection of his new road to Brownsville and spoke with some enthusiasm of its success and the marvelous resources and development of the country through which it passes from Denton to Brownsville.

It is an arduous but the greater part of the way, and multiplied thousands of acres are now being irrigated and planted in onions and other "truck," with practical results that stagger credulity.

One man from St. Louis, with no experience in farming, went down the rented forty acres of irrigated land, for which he paid $10 per acre. This forty acres was well cultivated, devoted to truck, and having plenty of water, netted the tenant $1,600 per acre.

Colonel Yoakum said the extension of his road from Sinton to Galveston, a distance of about two hundred miles, would be completed by Jan. 1, 1906, which would give the line close to four hundred miles.

This is a nice story so far as the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railroad and the development of Southwest Texas is concerned, but is not the significant part of Colonel Yoakum's visit to Austin.

It has been reported from New Orleans and St. Louis that the system of which he is the head had purchased the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western railway, and while L. Miller, president of the road, and R. C. Duff, the general attorney, who were also in Austin yesterday, stoutly denied that such was the case, still President Yoakum and President Miller were here by accident of course, so far as the public knows, but it was generally believed in the state house and by people who were in position to make correct judgments on such matters, that this accidental meeting between these magnates was to arrange the details of this purchase by the Frisco people of the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western railroad.

In this immediate connection it may not be amiss to say that the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western road is completed from Beaumont to Sour Lake, and the proposed extension is from Sour Lake to Dayton, a distance of fifty-two miles.

Japanese Confident He Will Make Satisfactory Showing When the Occasion Demands

TOKIO, May 26, 11 a. m.—It is believed here that the action of the Russians in sending some vessels to Shanghai is part of a diversion plan to draw off a portion of the Japanese fleet. It is thought that possibly the Russians intend to intercept the slower craft, but the visit and withdrawal of the faster vessels is regarded as without purpose unless as a diversion. The whereabouts of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet is not reported and opinion is divided as to whether it has entered the Pacific or returned to the lower Chinese coast.
