

RUSSIAN VESSELS WILL BE INTERNED

Manila Advised by President What Action to Take

CAN LEAVE IN 24 HOURS

If They Remain in American Waters Longer Than Inter- national Law Allows

WASHINGTON, June 5.—After a conference with President Roosevelt today, Secretary Morton announced that the Russian cruisers Aurora, Oleg and Jemtchug, which arrived at Manila last week, will be interned at Manila.

INTERN OR PUT TO SEA

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Secretary Taft today will call Governor Wright at Manila to inform Admiral Enquist that in strict pursuance with the international law he will be allowed to intern his ships, the Aurora, Oleg and Jemtchug at Manila.

In case he does not adopt this course, the only alternative after the period allowed by international law has expired, will be to put to sea.

It is fully expected here that Admiral Enquist will decide to intern his ships, and orders have been issued for Admiral Train to take charge of the details of internment if the Russian government decides to follow this policy.

CANNOT REPAIR VESSELS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Admiral Enquist will not be allowed to repair his ships at Manila. This government has decided that as the injuries to the vessels were not caused by either the sea or by storm, they are obliged to refuse the permission for the vessels to be repaired there.

Today Secretary Taft called the following instructions to Governor Wright at Manila regarding the ships: "Time cannot be given for the repair of the injuries received in a battle. Therefore vessels cannot be repaired unless interned until end of hostilities."

Admiral Train has been instructed accordingly. It is stated by Secretary Taft that if the Russian vessels agreed to leave Manila in their present condition they were welcome to do so, but as it did not appear that they suffered from any damage caused by sea or storm this government was obliged to take the position above outlined.

RUSSIAN CRUISER OFF WOO SUNG

SHANGHAI, June 5.—Vice Admiral Uru has arrived off Woo Sung island. He is probably coming to Gutzlaff Bay. An ex-Russian cruiser is outside this harbor.

CREW IS LANDED

Sailors of Captured and Re-Captured Ship Landed at Sasebo

SHANGHAI, June 5.—Twenty-nine of the crew of the British steamer Olhamia were landed at Swatow today from a British steamer.

(The Olhamia was captured on May 19 by a Russian cruiser. She was bound for Yokohama with a cargo of kerosene. On May 27 she was retaken by a Japanese warship during the battle of the Sea of Japan, and was subsequently taken to Sasebo, where she arrived on May 30. The captain, engineer and two of the crew were on board of her when she was recaptured.)

VOLUNTEER FLEET

Russian Volunteer Fleet is Overhauling Merchantmen

HONG KONG, June 5.—Vessels of a Russian volunteer fleet are overhauling merchantmen in the waters northeast of this port, according to the reports made by the British steamer Ping Suey, which arrived here today. The commander of the Ping Suey says he saw four steamers overhauled fifty miles from here by two volunteer steamers.

Revolt in Africa Results in Fall of German Head- quarters

PARIS, June 5.—A strong tension is developing in the cabinet as a result of the rejection of the sultan of Morocco of the French reform proposals.

The situation is similar to that when Foreign Minister Del Casse suddenly presented his resignation. He had not given any indication of his purposes, but reports circulated in well informed quarters say that he had in his Moroccan policy does not secure the united support of the ministers, and in his resignation again.

It is expected that the sultan's action in proposing to refer the question to an international conference will be submitted to the council of ministers tomorrow. Questions of its acceptance or rejection is likely to involve the cabinet situation.

JAPAN KEEPS ITS HEAD

Island Empire Accepts Togo's Great Sea Victory with Modesty

TOKIO, June 5.—English journals in Japan comment on the remarkable self-control of this people. There was more excitement over Dewey's victory and there often is more excitement over a baseball match in America than there is in Japan over Togo's remarkable achievement. The Japanese are earnest in their expressions of gratitude to the illustrious virtues of the emperor, to the influence of which with occult justice they ascribe the happy result of the battles in the Sea of Japan.

GRATEFUL TO THE NAVY

At the same time they are profoundly grateful to their gallant navy. This sense of relief and gratitude, however, shows no sign of merging into intoxication. The emperor's command that consistent generosity be shown to the vanquished and the immediate granting of indulgence to Admiral Nebogatoff and his surrendered officers has reassured the Russian prisoners.

TREATS PRISONERS WELL

By its considerate treatment of its foes Japan is giving the world a very material proof of its progress and the lesson will not be lost. If Japan is winning epoch-making victories by means of arms it is also conquering the world's prejudices by its moderation and magnanimity. It is hard to say which is the greater success.

R. F. CUMBIE BADLY HURT

A Well-Known Cattleman Gets a Bad Fall

SAN ANGELO, Texas, June 5.—R. F. Cumbie, a well-known and prominent cattleman, in partnership with Joe McCutcheon in the cattle business, was either thrown or fell from the back of a vicious horse on Thursday evening in a large pasture near the McCutcheon ranch, which is near Bronte, Coke county, and lay on the ground, unconscious all through Thursday night, being found Friday by a searching party. His jawbone was broken in several places and his head severely injured. He had not regained consciousness up to a late hour yesterday evening and the doctors entertained no hope of his recovery. The horse he had ridden was a vicious one and he had been warned not to ride the animal. The young man was a son of Rev. R. M. Cumbie of Bronte.

COMING SOUTH OCT. 17

Many Cities to Be Visited by President Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Roosevelt will start on his trip through the south next fall on the night of Oct. 17. He had intended to begin the trip early in October, but within a day or two he has decided to postpone his departure until the 17th. The trip will consume about two weeks.

The itinerary has not been definitely arranged, but it is the president's intention to visit many of the important cities of the south, including Richmond, Va.; Raleigh and Charlotte, N. C.; Atlanta, Ga.; Jackson and perhaps Tampa, Fla.; Birmingham, Tuskegee, Montgomery and Mobile, Ala.; New Orleans and Little Rock. The trip will end at Little Rock, and the president and his party will return from Washington from that city. It is likely that some other cities will be visited.

NOGI URGES MODERATION

Tells Army That Navy Was Aided in Victory by Good Fortune

GENERAL NOGI'S HEADQUARTERS IN MANCHURIA (via Fusan, Korea), June 5.—General Nogi, his officers and the whole of the army celebrated the victory of Togo's fleet, Toasting the victorious fleet, Togi reminded his hearers that they must not be too proud of their victory, for Japan had been aided by good fortune in the addition to the bravery and loyalty of the fleet and the armies. The emperor, he added, though desirous of peace, was prepared, if necessary, to press the war to the utmost against the Russians, a brave and stubborn people. "The trip will end at Little Rock, and the president and his party will return from Washington from that city. It is likely that some other cities will be visited."

REID IS RECEIVED

BY KING EDWARD

New Ambassador to Court of St. James Is Given Royal Reception

LONDON, June 5.—Whitelaw Reid, the new American ambassador, had an audience with King Edward at Buckingham Palace at noon today and presented his credentials.

Three royal carriages were sent to the Dorchester House to convey the ambassador and members of the embassy to the palace. At the palace Mr. Reid was received by the great officers of state.

While the ambassador was presenting the king with his credentials Queen Alexandra was receiving Mrs. Reid and Miss Reid. Her majesty showed them the interesting objects in the palace, and the secretary of the American embassy this morning.

The conversation between the king and the ambassador was quite lengthy, his majesty expressing pleasure at the good relations between the United States and Great Britain. He also spoke a few words to each member of the embassy.

After the official reception Mr. Reid was ushered upstairs, where he and his wife met the queen, and the ambassador was presented to her majesty.

King Edward also came in and Mrs. Reid was also presented to him. The king and the ambassador thereupon engaged in further conversation.

The visit altogether lasted forty minutes, after which the ambassador and his party returned to Dorchester house in the state carriages, with the coachmen and footmen garbed in long scarlet cloaks.

THE DOVE OF PEACE

SAN ANTONIO HAS TWO POLICE FORCES

City Affairs in a Tangle and Town Without Pro- tection

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 5.—The city affairs of San Antonio are in a great tangle as a result of the dispute over the control of the fire and police departments between the mayor and council on the one hand and the board of fire and police commissioners on the other.

Nervous people feared that the dispute might lead to a clash and bloodshed, but all danger of that, if indeed it ever existed, has now been averted. It is now believed that the whole matter will be settled quickly by submitting an agreed case to the supreme court.

When the legislature two years ago passed a new charter for this city it included in it a clause creating a board of fire commissioners and giving to them the appointment of all men serving in those departments and providing that the departments should be governed under civil service rules.

The three commissioners under the law were appointed last March by Mayor Campbell but their terms of office did not begin until June 1, the date on which Mayor Campbell went out of office and Mayor Callaghan went in. The law provides that the successors to the commissioners shall be elected next November.

Of course the commission law, if obeyed, took away from Mayor Callaghan the appointment and this was too much power for the old man to relinquish without a struggle. Before he took office he announced that he had been advised by his lawyer that the law was unconstitutional and that he would not abide by it. The day before Callaghan entered office, the commission, acting on information received that Callaghan intended to qualify at midnight and appoint his own firemen and policemen, sued out an injunction in the district court restraining him from removing or in any way interfering with the chief of police and the fire chief.

Callaghan did qualify at midnight and immediately issued an order directing the three commissioners, this moving the three commissioners, who were ignored and the three commissioners qualified the next morning. Callaghan then appointed forty special policemen and installed them in the city hall, while the regular police force, or what remained of it since he quit, is also holding the police headquarters.

Of course under these circumstances the city is not being properly policed. The special policemen are making no arrests and the regular force is so reduced in size that it is entirely inadequate. Yesterday Callaghan served notice on the fire chief and the city marshal that he had dismissed from the service all men who were loyal to the commission. This order was ignored.

Just what will be the outcome it is hard to say. The opinion is generally held among lawyers that the supreme court will sustain the commission law. In that event the city will have to pay both police forces, so the taxpayer gets the worst of it—in the end, as usual.

Oklahoma enjoyed a decisive victory and the nuptials were performed after the game.

Resignation of Minister Bowen to Be Accepted

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The complete exoneration of Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state, and the acceptance of the resignation of Herbert W. Bowen, minister to Venezuela, are now regarded as the assured outcome of the investigation which Secretary Taft has been conducting into the conduct of these officials. Mr. Loomis has established to the satisfaction of Secretary Taft the propriety of the alleged $10,000 check transaction. It now appears that the check given to Mr. Loomis was for 6,500 pesos, and that in return Mr. Loomis gave to Mr. Bowen of the asphalt company, a check for $5,000.

DEVINE IS FOR DIVORCE

New York Pastor Says Unhappy Marriage is a Sham

NEW YORK, June 5.—In a sermon at the Church of the Messiah Rev. Minot J. Savage has expressed the belief that on the whole a large number of divorces at the present time are altogether to be welcomed.

"They are," he said, "nearly always in the interest of oppressed women, giving them another opportunity for a free, sweet, wholesome life. There are cases where the divorce laws are abused, but not nearly so many as the ministers of a great many of our churches seem to imagine.

"Law does not make marriages. The church does not make marriages. Men and women, if they are ever married, marry themselves. All the law can do is to make a clumsy attempt to ratify; all the church can do is to recognize and consecrate a fact which already exists. But if there is no marriage, then it is deprecation to keep up the sham."

The strike committee read by Chairman Joseph W. Morton. The objections were that the report confined itself to the progress of the teamsters' strike, excluding all reference to the garment workers' controversy. Charges were made that thousands of dollars contributed weekly by labor unions are being spent for the teamsters' benefit while the garment workers, according to statements, are starving.

Strike Report Adopted

Teamsters who were present vigorously denied the assertions and succeeded finally in having the strike report adopted. In addition, President Doid of the federation placed himself on record as declaring that the strike committee never would consent to the settlement of the teamsters' trouble until the garment workers' dispute had been satisfactorily adjusted.

INFLUX OF FOREIGNERS

New York Reports an Unprecedented Number of Visitors

NEW YORK, June 5.—Hotel keepers of this city report that never in their existence has there been such an influx of foreign visitors in the metropolis. Cursory examination shows that there is hardly a hotel lobby where one may not hear several foreign languages nor a register that bears names of less than four or five nationalities.

While this is the season for the annual visits of business men from South America and the West Indies, hotel managers say their coming does not account for the unusual state of affairs. A feature is the large number of Frenchmen. The people of France have not been given much in the past to traveling in Anglo-Saxon countries, but this tradition seems to be breaking down and the era of cordiality between France and England again has had a reflex effect here. Whatever the cause, the French language is more frequently heard in New York hotel lobbies than ever before.

Knights of Columbus Session About to Open in California

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 5.—The city is rapidly filling with delegates and visitors to the first national meeting of the Order of Knights of Columbus, which assembles in this city the coming week. Sixteen hundred visiting knights and their friends have already arrived. The New York city delegation of 250 and the Buffalo party of 150 on two special trains, are expected to reach here today. Large delegations from Cleveland and St. Louis are also expected today.

The first business meeting of the order will be held Tuesday. The convention will last one week. The election of national officers is the chief work before the order at this meeting.

RICH NEW YORKER

OFFERS BIG REWARD

$50,000 for the Discovery of the Man Who Writes Threat- ening Letters

OSWEGO, N. Y., June 5.—Driven almost to the point of insanity by numerous letters threatening to kidnap or murder his daughter Rosamond, John Jay Tonkin, a wealthy and prominent citizen has announced the offer of a reward of $50,000 for the discovery of the person who has for two years been writing letters to him demanding a large sum of money as a result. The offer of the reward reveals a story of months of haunting fear which have made life unbearable for the members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tonkin had three daughters. One, Virginia, died three years ago. The shock affected the parents greatly. It is said the body was embalmed and kept in the house for nearly eight months, when the authorities interfered and it was finally buried. Soon after this came the first letter demanding money or threatening harm to Rosamond. Since then the missives have arrived at frequent intervals. The child has been so strictly guarded that she has grown morose and sickly.

Mr. Tonkin showed the letter to the Oswego police, but no clew to the writer could be obtained. Private detectives were employed with no better results. With nerves shattered by the strain Mrs. Tonkin took Rosamond to New York six months ago, where apartments were engaged but the letters followed Mrs. Tonkin and more detectives were engaged. They were unsuccessful as the others had been and finally, broken in health and spiritless, Tonkin returned to Oswego with the child. Armed coachmen and detectives always accompany Rosamond when she leaves the house.

The last letter received demanded $50,000, threatening the death of the daughter if it was refused. None of the letters has told how or where the money was to be paid.

Original Cause Forgotten

The garment workers' strike, which practically has been regarded as a dead issue, has unexpectedly reared its head and threatens to become an obstacle in future negotiations looking toward the settlement of the teamsters' war.

In the Chicago Federation of Labor a meeting of delegates from the tailors' union attacked the strike committee for slighting the 4,000 garment workers out of sympathy for whom the teamsters' strike was severely broken in the end was forced to acknowledge that the two strikes were inseparable and that one could not be settled without the other.

Arrives at Portsmouth Aboard The British Royal Yacht

IS GREETED BY THOUSANDS

Young King Wears Uniform of British General and Stands on Deck

PORTSMOUTH, England, June 5.—The king of Spain arrived here this afternoon from Cherbourg on board the British royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The yacht was accompanied across the channel by a strong escort of British cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers.

The royal visitors were welcomed at the British naval headquarters by an imposing army of warships, a score of which fired a royal salute as the Victoria and Albert passed through their lines.

The young king, who wore the uniform of a British general with a ribbon of the Order of the Carter, stood on the deck, evidently keenly enjoying the spectacle, despite the fact of the pouring rain.

Welcomed by Prince Edward, awaited the yacht at the quay side, and immediately after the gateway the Spanish ruler. Their respective suites were then introduced and subsequently the mayor and corporation of Portsmouth presented King Alfonso with an address of welcome.

WORKS ON SUNDAY

Day of Rest is Utilized on the Oat Crops

WACO, Texas, June 5.—The hum of reapers could be heard in many fields of this county and section yesterday, and in fact all over Central Texas, where there were oat crops to be harvested. It is claimed that there was more work done in the fields yesterday than for twenty-five years, owing to the general fear that there would be further stormy and rainy weather. Many fields of oats were bending with ripe grain, and farmers were anxious to save this last destruction follow. It was claimed to be a clear case of "an ox in the ditch," but at the same time there was a heavy per cent of the agricultural world who did not work.

THE FIGHTIN' PARSON

Handsome Memorial Window for Rev. An- drew Potter

SAN ANGELO, Texas, June 5.—A handsome memorial window is being placed in the new Methodist church here in honor of Rev. Andrew Jackson Potter, "The Fighting Parson," who was noted over West Texas during the early days for the fighting characteristics with which he maintained the power of the gospel. The money for the window is being subscribed by the people indiscriminately without regard to race or creed.

Squire, No. 1. It was the Syracuse eight which upset intercollegiate rowing circles last summer at Poughkeepsie, by winning hands down from all competitors. The genius of Jim Ten Eyck, that name so familiar to all students of American rowing, stood out so strongly in the work of the Syracuse crew whom he had coached, that in a single day the famous sculler achieved a high place as a coach. The crew which represents Syracuse this season is almost identical to that which cleaned up last year and upon whom will probably be favorite for the regatta.

FIGHTING GAME IS IN A LULL NOW Nothing in Sight Until the Next Two Big Bouts Are Pulled Off

NEW YORK, June 5.—There seems to be something of a lull in the fighting game just now and will be until the Fitzsimmons-Schreck and Britt-Nelson bouts are pulled off. If Fitz shows his old-time form in his fight with Schreck he can fairly lay claim to the title of heavy-weight champion, laid down by Jeffries. It is not on record that anybody but Jeffries ever did take the freckled-faced Cornishman's measure and before anyone else can by any claim whatever to the abandoned title, until they have fought against the matter out in the ring with the man from Cornwall.

Britt As Easy Money

Jimmy Britt is looking after easy money, too, and agreed to take on the winner of the Hanlon-Corbett fight. Incidentally, it is hinted that there may be a bust-up in the Nelson-Britt fight. Britt does not fancy the Dane's engaging in so many six-round bouts. He fancies it may affect his drawing power.

Money for Bowker

There is good money on this side of the water for Joe Bowker, the British bantamweight, if he should decide to come over, and there is a hint that he contemplates that very thing. His fight with "Pinky" Evans showed him to be a fighter and he would undoubtedly draw here if he was matched with some of our good light fellows.

Harvard's Crew

Charley Courtney, by the way, does not think very much of Harvard's crew this year. After the race, he said: "The Harvard men have not mastered the elementary principles of rowing, and they are in bad shape, unless heroic measures are adopted. Their rowing is very much below the standard set by Harvard. The men are not only crude in the execution of all parts of the stroke, but have utterly failed in assembling the various parts when racing. The men were a little looking lot and good enough to row for the world's championship, but their tutoring must have been of the dory order, for I learn that Wray was a fisherman in Australia."

Cornell is now confident of taking first place at the intercollegiate rowing meet at Poughkeepsie on May 28.

The showing at Cambridge leads to the belief that there will be little change in the varsity crew before the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie. The eight appears to be an ideal combination and capable of sustained and vigorous effort. The men seated in the boat at present average in weight 173 1/2 pounds and are within a quarter of an inch of six feet, while their average age is a trifle over 22 years. This is an ideal Courtney crew; mature enough to stand a hard four-mile struggle, well set up and not much over 170 pounds each. Courtney does not believe in heavy-weight oarsmen, and believes that candidates weighing 190 pounds or thereabout are seldom able to pull their own weight.

Mike to Leave

It now looks certain that Yale is to lose Trainer Mike. He told the members of the Yale track team, after the intercollegiate games in Philadelphia, that he had decided to accept the offer of the University of Pennsylvania, and to go there at the close of the present athletic season. The Yale Athletic Association hopes to get him to reconsider. Murphy has been promised a professorship at a salary double the figure he receives at Yale.

If he decides to accept the Pennsylvania offer, it is probable that his successor will be Michael Sweeney, now athletic director at the high school, Pottstown, Pa. Murphy was secured before by Pennsylvania in the fall of 1896. Pennsylvania won the intercollegiate championship in the spring of 1897, with comparative ease. Then followed championships on track and field in 1898, 1899 and 1900, some of the records made by Red and Blue athletes under Murphy in these years standing today. Murphy returned to Yale in the fall of 1903. The following year Yale failed to win the intercollegiate meet, this being the only instance that the remarkable trainer did not win the track and field championship of America for either Yale or Pennsylvania since 1894. But Murphy's presence soon asserted itself and Yale proved all powerful in the championship intercollegiate of 1902, 1903 and 1904, the Blue winning these meets. The Vesper Boat Club's Henley eight has started in the last stage of its preparation for its great race in the English Henley regatta, to be rowed on the Thames river next July.

The strength of the Vespers has given great encouragement to their followers and from now on there will be no let-up either in the work of the oarsmen or the committee which is responsible for the trip abroad.

The Ocean Race

Much interest was felt among all classes of sporting men in the great ocean yacht race. As the favorite won and she was an American boat, there is general satisfaction to which the breaking of the record by the Atlantic added in no small measure. In fact, all the three countries interested should feel satisfied, as the following placing of the first listed boats show:

KELLERS AT TOP IN CITY LEAGUE

Take Exciting Fourteen-Inning Game from Denvers—Armours Win

A large crowd witnessed the double-header played Sunday afternoon at Rosen Heights ball park between the teams of the City League.

The Kellers crossed bats with the Denvers, the former winning by a score of 5 to 2, fourteen innings being played to decide the contest. They played a good, stiff game from start to finish, and showed some swift ball playing. The Armours and Rosen Heights also put up a good game, Armours taking it by a score of 8 to 7.

FIRST GAME

The first game was a stiff one, both teams playing fast ball and fourteen innings being required to settle it. The feature of this game was the hitting of Stewart, who went to bat six times and landed the horse hide five times for safe hits. The home runs of Lewis and Herwick were also features. Herwick's home run was a peculiar one. He drove the ball over third and lost it in the weeds. While Curtis hunted for it, he tumbled the bags. Lewis put the ball over the fence.

The Kellers in the fourteenth inning placed the ball wherever they wanted. Together with this and the poor fielding of the Denvers in this inning, they had the game by a walk away.

SECOND GAME

Rosen Heights jumped away in the front in the second game and for a time it looked as though they would make a runaway race of the affair, leaving the Armours to founder in dust clouds. The game opened well, the first two innings developing only one tally, which went to the credit of the yellow-clothed men. The third inning, however, was selected for the grand pyrotechnic display and the Rosen Heights did the exhibiting. In this inning they sent ten men to bat and a gift, carried four men across the pan. When the Armours came in to bat they grabbed three scores with a single, a double, one gift and one error. This tied the score.

In the fourth inning each team added one to its pile. These runs were made by slamming the sphere hard. The Rosen got theirs with a single and a double, the Armours went them one better, scoring with a single and a triple.

The Rosen took the lead again in the fifth, scoring two runs on three hits and an error. They held the lead until the seventh, when the Armours stepped in and scored three runs on two hits and three bad errors. This was the last of the scoring.

Little Babb pitched sterling ball, his striking out of twelve men being the feature of the game. In addition to his box work he manipulated the stick well and came in with hits when they were needed.

Robertson was the star of the Armours. Time after time he swung the ball down and caught men off bases and it was with one of these quick flashes that he ended the game when he snapped the ball over to first and caught Babb off.

DOUBLE HEADER FOR PANTHERS

Take Two Games From Senators Sunday

AUSTIN, June 5.—Fort Worth Panthers took both games of the double-header from Austin Sunday, the first by a score of 4 to 0, the second 6 to 3. Boles, pitching for Fort Worth, was feature of the first mix up. He kept the Senators well in hand.

Austin made eight errors in the second game which was slow and devoid of special interest. Taylor, in the box for the locals, pitched good ball but received poor support. Attendance was the largest of the season.

THE BUFFALO HUNT

Everything on the 101 Ranch is ready for the big Buffalo hunt and Indian celebration on June 11. The railroads are preparing to handle thirty-five thousand people and the indications are that this number will surely be in attendance. A special cheap rate has been made on every road and the big show is all the talk in nearly every town in the southwest. There will be accommodations on the ranch for all.

RACING CIRCUIT FOR NORTH TEXAS Meeting to Be Held This Week to Discuss Proposed Plans

It is learned here today that plans for a racing circuit in North Texas are under consideration, and that a meeting will be held either Wednesday or Thursday night in Dallas to discuss the movement. A number of local horsemen will attend.

The circuit proposed will embrace this city, Dallas, Cleburne, Greenville, Waxahatchie and several other towns. Sportsmen here are confident of reviving the old-time popularity of the sport and point to the fact that local owners are running horses on other circuits as assuring success. The circuit will likely be used as a training school for the bigger events.

WACO LOSES TO DALLAS

DALLAS, Texas, June 5.—More than 3,500 spectators saw Dallas win from Waco Sunday in the snappiest game played on Dallas diamonds this season. The score was 1 to 0. Porter, the six-foot Dallas box artist, practically won the game for Dallas, his superior pitching allowing the Waco Tigers only two hits.

PORT WORTH EAGLES WIN

Port Worth Eagles defeated their rivals from Dallas in a game played at Haines park Sunday afternoon. Port Worth made two marks on the tally sheet, while Dallas was unable to get a single man around the bags. Pitchers for both teams did good box work, though Horn of Port Worth had a little the better of the argument. Horn and Hobson excelled in efficient work for Port Worth, while Simpkins lead the Dallas bunch in batting.

TEMPLE 16, CORSICANA 1

TEMPLE, Texas, June 5.—In one of the raggedest and most one-sided games ever played here, Temple won from Corsicana yesterday by a score of 16 to 1. Pilgrim in the box for Corsicana was slaughtered through the sixth inning and when he was replaced by McIver. In the sixth every member of the Temple team made a run. Adams for Temple pitched an excellent game.

THAT FACTORY CLUB

That there is a great work for the recently organized Home Industry and Factory Club to do in this city is an apparent fact, and it is gratifying to note that the affairs of the organization have fallen into the hands of men who are fully capable of dealing with the exigencies of the situation. The men at the head of this new organization formed for the purpose of pushing Fort Worth continually to the front are representative citizens, closely identified with the city and thoroughly imbued with the energy and patriotism so requisite to guarantee success.

The main purposes of the organization are to inspire the citizenship of this city with that loyalty toward home industry that will insure the success of the factories already located in this city, and in addition thereto, to stand loyally by every Fort Worth institution. The dominant principle behind all this is that if we make the success out of the present enterprises located in this city that their worth and importance merits, it will not be very difficult to land others. In connection with this idea, the plan is to reach out for all the others that can be induced to locate here, in the liveliest and most progressive city in the entire southwest.

The Telegram would in this connection admonish the people of Fort Worth of the necessity first of standing by and patronizing every home industry in preference to any other. Use Fort Worth flour, Fort Worth meat, Fort Worth ice, Fort Worth beer, Fort Worth cigars, Fort Worth crackers, and everything else that is produced in Fort Worth factories, you are assisting in providing employment for the tin bucket brigade, whose presence here makes more business for all of us. As the tin bucket brigade grows in this city, so will every line of business represented in the city continue to grow and expand.

Fort Worth is the ideal manufacturing center of the southwest. With her great network of railroads, closeness to the great Texas fuel beds, fine water supply and unexcelled climate, there is no reason why this city should not come to the front as a manufacturing center and soon outstrip every other Texas city.

The Fort Worth Home Industry and Factory Club is a good thing. Push it along.

ANOTHER PACKING PLANT

The Texas Liebig Meat Company is the title of a new organization now in process of formation for the purpose of establishing a new packing plant in this state with a capital of $5,000,000. One of the features of the new organization that is radically different from other packing propositions is that it will make use of all but the prime portions of the animal in extracts and canned products. It will not require a refrigeration plant at every point of distribution as all the present packing houses require. It is also claimed that the plant will be able to continue in operation throughout the year, and in its operation will create a better market for a class of cattle not now handled to advantage by the existing packing plants.

Concerning the new company and its plans, the San Antonio Express says: J. Ormerod of New York is in San Antonio, making arrangements for the establishment of a packing house and meat extract factory at some point in Texas. The chances are that the factory will be built and that it will go to Fort Worth. But it may be located in San Antonio. That will depend upon the action of the directors after the company is formed. The fact that Fort Worth has the best market and packing houses makes it probable that the new establishment will go to that city. The circulars say the plant will go to either Fort Worth, San Antonio or Houston. The plan of Mr. Ormerod is unique and seems to be practicable. He represents New York capitalists who propose to establish in Texas an independent beef packing and canning plant, provided the cattlemen and others will show their appreciation of the enterprise by subscribing liberally to the capital stock of the proposed company. The proposed name of the company to be formed is 'The Texas Liebig Meat Company.' It is proposed

CLEANINGS FROM EXCHANGES

Before the census takers get done with Fort Worth they will probably make Dallas and her 150,000 Club look mighty sick. When Fort Worth takes in some of the suburbs Dallas won't be in it. West Texas is betting on the Panther City.—San Angelo Standard.

Fort Worth has passed the stage where growth and development is contingent upon the disparagement of her neighbors. North Texas is big enough for both Fort Worth and Dallas, and this city has nothing but good wishes for her neighbor. West Texas has always been the friend of Fort Worth, just as Fort Worth has been the friend of West Texas.

A young man took his best girl to church and stopping at the end of the back pews turned to the usher and said: 'I guess we can squeeze in here.' 'Yes,' said the usher with a smile, 'I guess you can, but probably it would be better for all concerned to wait until you get home.'—Comanche Visitor.

And that was good advice. No self-respecting young couple should desire to occupy a squeezing attitude in public.

If all these interurban lines are built and are considered prospective the railroads are going to suffer quite a decrease in passenger earnings. As between the electric line and the steam railroads, the electric lines do the business.—Denison Herald.

In the state of Colorado the railways are meeting interurban competition by installing electric passenger equipment of the same nature. It begins to look like the electric passenger car has come to stay.

There is yet cotton in the farmers' hands in Cooke county. Some say they have not planted a seed and will keep their holdings for next season.—Galveston Signal.

The indications are that cotton will command a good price next fall, as the crop outlook all over the country is considerably below the normal.

Fort Worth now has a Home Industry and Factory Club. If properly conducted—as it doubtless will be—it will do great things for that booming city of the southwest.—Bonham News.

Anything that increases the tin bucket brigade will benefit Fort Worth. Home industry and factories are the things that will do this.

Ten reapers being set up on the railroad platform and all sold, with orders on hand for still more, is a refreshing sight to weak eyes.—Belton Journal-Reporter.

And it is a merry song the reapers are now singing in Sunny Texas. The small grain crop is turning out much better than was generally expected.

The lumber trust has put up the price of lumber again. Here is another instance of a hog with its hind foot in the trough.—Remove the tariff on Canadian lumber and we can all have a cottage.—Chico Review.

The rapid advance in the price of lumber is said to be the result of the unprecedented heavy demand. All mills are reported as very badly behind with their orders.

A Kansas man drilling for oil has gone down 1200 feet, he says he will keep on till he strikes oil, or China; he might strike a Russian warship before he gets to the level of China.—Houston Chronicle.

No danger of that. There are no Russian warships in that vicinity now.

Soon the conversation just before noon and took a room at the Red Anchor, an evil-smelling hostel overhanging the wharves. The railroads report that there is as much interest being shown in the Fort and Exposition in Texas as was shown in the World's Fair at the same stage, and this is taken as an indication that the travel this season will be quite heavy.—Brownwood Bulletin.

One of the attractive features of the Portland exposition is that it is located in a section of country of which we know so little. Many will visit it largely on that account.

It's all right to bring the editor something to fill the paper with, but once in a while bring the paper something to fill the editor with.—Jacksonboro News.

And that is the kind of philosophy that counts in a well regulated newspaper office. The filling for the editor is of far more importance than that contributed for the newspaper.

It is believed that no less than one hundred state banks will be organized in this state in the next year under the state banking bill passed by the recent legislature.—Gainesville Messenger.

There is a whole lot of Texas capital waiting to be invested in the banking business under the provisions of the new law and many of the new banks will be launched during the month of September.

Last Sunday three cotton planters were seen running on a farm two miles south of Grandview. We are of the opinion that nothing is ever gained by working on Sunday. There is no excuse for desecrating the holy Sabbath, unless to do good without hope of gain.—Grandview Tribune.

The farmers of Texas have been so badly retarded in their work by adverse natural conditions that they feel compelled to get in every hour possible. It is said that on many farms considerable work is now being done at night.

A SWORD MISLAID

CHAPTER VII. A SUPERLATIVE COQUETTE.

Now Richards, though fool, was, on the whole, a good lad and a faithful. I debated for long whether or no I should give him an inkling as to my designs, but it was a fool, I took him into my confidence before I set out for Gravesend, in this wise: 'I shall be absent some days, Richards,' I observed casually. While stuffing my pockets with sundry cosmetics, scents and powders, I watched him through half-closed lids. His eyes were fastened in charmed fashion on De Sevringer's little toe.

'Indeed, milord,' he said, surprised. 'Fact is, Richards, I'm thinking of a trip to Devonshire to see my brother Devenue.'

Richards gave an incredulous grin. 'When do you start, my lord?'

'Immediately.'

'H'm! What shall I say if you are wanted?'

'Just that, Richards.'

'And when will your lordship return?'

'When you see me again, Richards, I shall have returned.'

'Then there's a woman in it,' muttered the lad, angrily.

"WOULD MONSIEUR—IT—AH!—THERE IS ROOM HERE FOR TWO."

Richards hated me to have aught to do with women and never troubled to conceal his feelings. I laughed outright. 'And is very pretty one this time, Richards,' I cried gayly and I handed him a £10 note.

'Amuse yourself while I am absent, boy. Good-by.'

He would scarcely take the note, he was in such ill-temper, and he refused altogether to say good-by. 'It means "God be wi' ye,"' he explained, 'and it's more like the devil will be your company. I'll just say farewell.'

With a laugh I swung out, but I took the precaution to gain another street before I hired a carriage, for Richards had a trick of curiosity that would have made his fortune as a policeman.

I arrived at Gravesend just before noon and took a room at the Red Anchor, an evil-smelling hostel overhanging the wharves. The inn was choked full with sailor men, a rough lot of creatures who work long pigstails, and spat tobacco juice unceasingly. They nudged each other and whispered together hoarsely; one declared I was a highwayman, another that I was a naval officer, while a third guessed me as a French refugee.

VETERANS NAME CAMP SPONSOR

Miss Fannie Cantrell to Attend Reunion with Lee Camp. Cross Bestowed

Lee camp, United Confederate Veterans, held an interesting session Sunday, being well attended by veterans. The proceedings were opened by prayer by former Chaplain Fankey, after which the roll was called.

The minutes, after being read by Adjutant McConnell, were approved. J. S. Conn made an application for membership which was referred to the committee. T. Y. Galespie, whose application has been pending some time, was made a member.

Miss Fannie Cantrell was placed in nomination as sponsor for Lee camp to the general reunion at Louisville. She was nominated by M. D. McNeely. Miss Cantrell returned thanks to the camp for the honor.

Mrs. W. L. North presented the camp a bouquet of beautiful flowers.

The following veterans constitute the representatives of Lee camp, who will attend the Louisville reunion: K. M. Van Zandt, George Jackson, R. E. Beckham, J. W. Adams, W. M. McConnell, H. C. Cantrell, E. M. Daggert, W. K. Logan, B. B. Paddock and E. W. Yeates. Several others contemplate going, but as yet have not received their credentials.

A. McGregory, who was in the army of northern Virginia, received his first experience in being disciplined while in the service.

A communication has been received, acknowledging the receipt of $30 sent to the John Reagan Monument fund, by the camp.

At the conclusion of the session Judge C. C. Cummings announced that the Daughters would immediately bestow crosses of honor on several veterans. The camp then adjourned to the Sons' room, where the exercises were held. The names of a dozen veterans were read, but only one responded—T. M. Freeman. Judge Cummings referred to the apparent non-interest taken in the matter of bestowing crosses by the veterans and regretted that there was a lack of interest shown in this matter by the old soldiers.

The following program was then carried out: Piano, Miss Alice Eve Robinson; vocal, Miss Louise Barr; address, W. P. Lane; vocal, Little Star Redford; oration, Master Adrian Ford; instrumental solo, Miss Elsie Lofton; recitation, Star Redford; address by Judge Cummings to veterans who received crosses of honor; bestowal of crosses; reading of rules governing bestowal of crosses by Mrs. F. L. Jordan, president of the United Daughters of Confederacy.

SONS' MEETING

The meeting of the Sons of Confederate Veterans was held following the presentation of crosses to the veterans Sunday and was presided over by Commander Curtis. It was announced that an entertainment was in prospect for the benefit of the Sons and Daughters under the auspices of Miss Simon, the proceeds of which are to be used for the purchase of a new piano.

W. W. Norman was made a member of the organization.

W. E. Lane, state commander of the Sons, said that the camp is entitled to one twenty-one votes in the Louisville reunion, against 143 last year. He urged that all delinquent members pay their dues and increase the voting strength of the camp.

TELEGRAM CONTEST IS IN GREAT FAVOR

"Who, Where, What?" Problem Proves to Be a Popular One with Readers of the Sunday Paper

DELUGE OF RESPONSES COME IN

Expectations of the Advertising Department Are More Than Met in the Way the People Have Sought Out Answers to the Many Queries

The heaviest mail ever received by The Telegram in its history arrived this morning, letters addressed to the "Who? Where? What? Editor" pouring in in a perfect deluge. Mail communications were not the only ones, personal calls at the office and continual telephone summons on all The Telegram telephones adding to the responses.

All expectations in regard to the unique contest inaugurated were more than met, the answers received showing how closely the advertisements in The Telegram of Sunday were scanned by its readers. City responses received early in the morning were followed later by those from the state, which are still growing in volume.

A sample of the care used by the contestants, two slight mistakes occurring in the notice of the contest have kept The Telegram busy explaining. These mistakes were in Nos. 11 and 19. In the former a price that should have been 16 2-3 cents was quoted as 15 cents, and in the latter $16.50 was quoted as $16. Despite this inaccuracy the advertisers were spotted by many contestants, who at once began inquiries.

Still Chance to Win

Heavy rush of early answers by no means precludes the chances of others. Though many of the numbers in the contest are easily traceable, there are a number of hard ones and "catchy" ones that will cause some surprises. Largely due to these all contestants getting their replies in by Thursday at 6 p. m. stand a fair show of winning one of the prizes offered.

Merchants through the city report this morning that The Telegram has not been alone in receiving calls regarding the contest, the notice to call up the advertisers when in doubt being accepted with surprising promptness and universality.

Large throngs of women shoppers on the streets this morning, a fact commented upon by many merchants, is also attributed by some as the direct result of the "Who? Where? What?" contest.

Friday the Last Day

Remember, all answers received by 6 p. m. Thursday stand a chance to win the prizes. A list of the awards will be printed in The Sunday Telegram, June 11.

TIDEWATER PLANS AGAIN CONFIRMED

Vice President Herbert of Colorado and Southern Here This Morning

J. M. Herbert, vice president of the Colorado and Southern and the Fort Worth and Denver City; C. L. Wellington, traffic manager of the Colorado and Southern, and General Superintendent J. H. Young of the same road, arrived here this morning in Mr. Herbert's private car en route to Denver from Chicago and St. Louis, where they have been on important business in connection with the proposed extension of the Colorado and Southern to the gulf.

Mr. Wellington, when seen today, said that business in Colorado was better this year than for some time as a result of the more settled conditions following an adjustment of political disturbances that have kept the state in turmoil for a long while. He thinks that the business to be done by the Colorado railroads this season will be a record breaker. Last year, on account of the World's Fair, tourist travel was very light, but Mr. Wellington believes that this season there will be fully 100,000 people visit that state. Two years ago the number, he says, was about 65,000.

"With the extensions and improvements to be made by the Colorado and Southern in Colorado this season, which will be in the interest of the mines and farmers, the community of interest will be greatly augmented," said Mr. Wellington.

Speaking of the extensions to be made in Texas by the Colorado and Southern, Mr. Wellington said that possibly Mr. Yoakum was the only person who possesses the full particulars, but he admitted that the company would reach the gulf via Fort Worth and the Trinity and Brazos Valley to Houston. He said that he was not advised as to when this work would commence, but thought it would not be delayed, as the company was anxious to complete its through trunk line from the northwest to tidewater at Galveston. When this work has been completed there will be a heavy movement of traffic from Colorado and the northwest via Fort Worth to the gulf.

The party left here at noon over the Denver road, accompanied by Vice President Herbert, Traffic Manager J. Keeler and General Superintendent Dolan of the Denver road, in Mr. Keeler's private car. The latter gentlemen will go as far as Texline, when they will return to Fort Worth.
