GOES TO GERMANY

Fourteen-Year-Old Austin Boy to Study

AUSTIN, Texas, June 7 .- Arthur Saft, though only 14 years of age, has distingreat is his talent for the violin that it has been decided to send him to Berlin, Germany, to complete his musical edu-cation. He has studied under the competent instructors on the instrument here and has demonstrated that he is destined to become a master of the violin, so it has been decided to give the full advantage of study under the great masters. He left yesterday for Hallettsville where he will spend a few days, and then sail for Germany. He has taken part in all the leading concerts which have been

"S. S. S. for the blood" has grown to be household saying. When the blood is out of order, or needs treatment from any cause, this great remedy is the first thought of and used by thousands of people all over the country, because it is superior to all other blood purifiers. It is a purely vegetable remedy, and while it penetrates the circulation and forces out all poison and morbid matter, it also builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. During the win-

The new cotton tariff, which became ffective June 1, has had no perceptible effect on the movement of that staple thus far, according to reports. Railroad officials say that the farmers pay very little attention to the freight rate, but look to the prevailing market instead. A few cents more or less on the freight rate ONLY FOUR CLUBS of cotton in these days of a fluctuating market cuts little figure with the farmers. It's the price that worries them most.
