Plans Completed

For Soil Tour

The board of supervisors of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District has approved the following tentative plans for the annual spring soil conservation tour to be held Friday, May 6. The aim of the tour is to observe what farmers of Floyd County are accomplishing in the way of soil building and soil saving. All business men, farmers, ranchers and others interested in soil conservation are invited to attend this tour. The group will start from the Courthouse lawn in Floydada at 9:30 a. m. The exact schedule of the days activities will be made available at a later date.

Proposed soil conservation practices to be observed will be mixed pasture grasses, dryland terracing, wheat variety tests, irrigation systems, irrigation efficiency tests, winter legumes, hindweed control, crop residue management, fertilizers and other practices of interest.

Free barbecue and trimmings will be served for the noon meal. The Floydada Chamber of Commerce and the Floyd County Board of Development is furnishing beef and Lockview farm will furnish the trimmings. The barbecue will be served at Lockview farm.

The Floydada Lions club has arranged for C. B. Spencer of Texas Cottonseed Crusher Assn. who is a confined soil conservation enthusiast, to speak at the noon hour. This speech and all comments on crops and soil conservation practices will be made over a loud speaker system furnished by the Southwestern Public Service Company sound truck so that all discussions will be heard by every person present.

After the noon meal and Mr. Spencer's address, the winning teams of the window display contest will be named and the cash awards given by the Floydada Jaycees will be presented to the winners. This contest is composed of 4-H club boys and FFA boys of Floyd County who are making window displays on soil conservation and placing them in the various business houses in Floydada.

The purpose of this contest is to create interest in soil conservation in the minds of our farmers of tomorrow. These window displays will be judged May 2 by a judging committee which has been appointed by R. J. Dunlap, chairman of the board of supervisors of the soil conservation district.

After these activities the tour will continue, beginning at approximately 1:30.

Allen Dew Dies

Suddenly Monday

John Allen Dew, 69 years of age, died Monday morning in his car about a half mile north of his home. Death was presumable from a heart attack. Mr. Dew had been to Lockney and was on his way home when he was stricken. The car left the road and stopped against a fence. He was found by Jack Dollar and Norman Caldwell and was still breathing at that time. Mr. Dollar stayed with him while Mr. Caldwell came to town for an ambulance. However, Mr. Dew died within a very few minutes.

Mr. Dew had been a resident of this area, making his home in the Arick community, southwest of Lockney for 25 years. He is survived by a brother, R. W. Dew of Lubbock, and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Goen of Los Angeles.

Carmickle No. 3-B

Completed For Good Producer

PETERSBURG—A commercial oil well has been completed in the Arick field two and one-half miles northeast of Petersburg at General American Oil company No. 3-B E. M. Carmickle 990 feet from south and 320 feet from west lines of the lease in section 18, block K, TTRR survey.

The project pumped 24 hours to make an official Railroad Commission potential of 243.12 barrels of oil, gravity 37.8, degrees. Gasoline ratio was 250-1, with no water.

The Wolfcamp pay zone at 4,764-4,802 feet had been acidized with 4,000 gallons.

The discovery well of the Wolf camp in the Arick field, General American No. 2 Carmickle, has been deepened to attempt completion from the Pennsylvanian, original pay zone of the pool. At present, No. 3-B Carmickle is the only Wolfcamp producer in the area.

The Byrd No. 4 has had a little hard luck the past ten days when a drill stem was twisted off and drilling crews were unable to fish it out, so the hole was filled with concrete to a depth of about two hundred feet, allowed to set a few days and then drilling was resumed and this lost stem will be bypassed. The stem was lost at a depth of 2830 feet, and the new attempt was down to 2816 early Thursday, and drilling was proceeding very cautiously.

With about six producers in the Arick field so much oil is being produced that it became necessary to tap the pipe line running about two and one-half miles south of the field belonging to the Stanlind Oil Co. This work will be completed within a short period of time, or just as quick as right-of-way matters can be cleared up. This will be a 4-inch line.

Longhorn Baseball

Nine Beats Floydada

The Longhorn baseball nine, coached by Metz Lafollette, broke into the win column Tuesday of this week by defeating the Floydada Whirlwind team 4 to 2 on the local diamond. The game was a District 3-A affair and makes one win to two losses for the locals.

Jerry McCulloch, pitching for the locals, struck out 14 men and allowed only three hits during the game. Last Friday afternoon the Longhorns lost a close game to Abernathy, the score being 2 to 1. McCulloch struck out 16 in this game. The score was tied up to the eighth inning when Abernathy pushed off across a run to win.

Ralls is leading the district being undefeated in three games. They won over Abernathy 8 to 4 Tuesday of this week.

The Longhorns play Abernathy here next Tuesday in their next game.

HAS OPERATION THURSDAY

T. J. Honea underwent an operation at Scott & White Hospital, Temple, Thursday of last week. He and Mrs. Honea returned home Wednesday night of this week and he is doing fine.

Floyd County Asked

For $52,000 Bond Sales During Drive

The people of Floyd County are being asked to invest a total of $25,000 in Series E Savings Bonds during the Treasury Department's "Opportunity Drive," May 16 through June 30.

This quota was announced Saturday by J. M. Willson, county Savings Bonds chairman, after he had received the figure in a letter from Nathan Adams of Dallas, chairman of the Treasury's advisory committee for Texas.

Acreage Data Is

Requested By PMA

Personnel of the Floyd County ACA Office is ready to receive acreage data for the 1941, 1945, 1946, 1947, 1948, and 1949 plantings of crops was the announcement from the PMA office this week. The acreage will be used in establishing acreage allotments on cotton and wheat.

Farmers are urged to bring the data to the county office prepared in written form on the sheet previously mailed, in order to expedite the interview. Farmers are asked to not come for interview unless they have the information desired.

Those farmers who have not cooperated under recent farm programs are not shown on the county office records and it behooves them to come by the county office and secure a blank on which to compile the information desired. Unless data is filed for a farm, it will be impossible to establish a fair and correct allotment. Controls will be in the form of planting allotments and marketing quotas for individual growers. Those exceeding their allotments and quotas will be subject to heavy penalties in the form of marketing assessments and loss of government price support.

4-H Rifle Contest

Is Saturday

The Floyd County 4-H Club Rifle Contest has been set for Saturday, April 30, according to C. J. Murphrey, Assistant County Agricultural Agent. All 4-H Club boys in Floyd County will be eligible to participate in this contest, and should meet at the County Agent's office at 8:30 Saturday morning. The boys will be taken to the firing range where they will compete against each other to see who is the best rifleman.

The purpose of this contest is to give the boys some training on how to handle and care for fire arms. It is also to give the boys some recreation and at the same time determine which boys will make up the Floyd County 4-H Club Rifle Team, that will participate in a district contest held in Lubbock in June. The four high scoring boys will make up this team.

Boys of 4-H Club age handle fire arms, and we feel that they should have some training of this kind for their own protection as well as for the protection of other people and livestock in the county.

He was accompanied by a boy and a man who could not swim, it was understood.

The Ellis family lived here until about six weeks ago when they moved to Scotland. They had made their home here since 1947.

Survivors include his parents, four sisters, Mrs. Copeland of Lockney, Mrs. Boot Cunningham of Lockney, Mrs. Foye Duncan of Shannon, and Miss Anita Ellis of Scotland, and one brother, Aaron Ellis of Scotland.

Favorites Selected At Wayland College

Plainview—Being confined to a wheel chair did not keep Miss Lorene Gutter of Groom, Texas, from being elected as one of the campus favorites at Wayland College.

Jack (Neil Winston) Jeter of Sargent, Texas, was the other campus favorite chosen. Jack, a sophomore ministerial student, was among the four students elected to be a yell leader for the Wayland pep squad early in the school year.

A daughter of a West Texas farmer, Lorene Gutter, a freshman, has come to school to major in education. She hopes to take her B. S. degree in that field and enter into some kind of special religious work. Lorene is an active member in the Y. W. A. at Wayland where many of the girls living in the dormitory with her find in her an encouraging and cheering friend.

Lorene is fond of sports and faithfully backs the team at all the games she can attend. She is especially interested in girls' basketball as her roommate, Wyla Whitley, also of Groom, is on the Wayland team.

The sophomore class elected their popular classmate, Jack Jeter, as class favorite in addition to his other distinctions. He is a graduate of the Rule High School, Rule, Texas, and attended Baylor University for one year. As a ministerial student, Jack is working toward a B. A. degree. His extra-curricular activities include membership in the Ministerial Alliance and in the Volunteer Mission Band.

Set a ladder firmly at a safe angle; the base should be one-fourth of the ladder's height away from the wall. Use a ladder for climbing. Boxes, tables, chairs and machinery make poor ladders and often cause injuries.

The Navy's giant plane, CONSTITUTION, is the first to use four-wheel tandem landing gear.

Navy flying boats MARS flew 52,100,000 passenger miles without an accident in 1948.

BAFFLES SCIENCE . . . Five-year old Marguerite Missirian, Long Island City, N. Y., baffles science with a temperature ranging from 102 to 101 degrees, which she has had for the past 18 months. She is otherwise normal.

Grasshoppers Are Expected This Year

COLLEGE STATION—Grasshopper infestations tend to run in 10-year cycles—and 1949 is the tenth year of the present cycle.

There may be as many or more hoppers this year than last—and 1948 was pretty bad.

This prediction is made by H. G. Johnston, state grasshopper control leader and head of the Texas A. & M. College department of Entomology, on the basis of egg counts made by USDA grasshopper control division workers.

Hoppers will begin to hatch in South Texas within the next two weeks, he said.

The worst centers of infestation of the differential grasshopper—the big yellow one with chevrons on its legs—will be along the Brazos between Waco and Richmond and along the Trinity as far south as Polk and San Jacinto counties. Scattered infestations are expected along creek bottoms in North Texas as far east as Tarrant county and west to the West Cross Timbers.

A lesser—but still above normal—outbreak of the migratory grasshopper is expected in West Texas, the South Plains and the Panhandle.

The differential grasshopper can be controlled by dusting along fence rows and ditches, when the hoppers first hatch, with either 15 pounds of 10 percent toxaphene or 15 pounds of 10 percent chlordane per acre. After the insects move into the fields, control is more difficult.

Toxaphene or chlordane can be used against the migratory grasshopper where there is enough foliage to hold the insecticide. In areas of little foliage where the hoppers work on the ground, poison bait is necessary. County agents west of the Cross Timbers will again set up poison bran mash mixing plants if the outbreak warrants, Dr. Johnston said.

The Navy recruiting poster, "Let's Go Navy," was judged the best in 1948 by the Art Directors Club of New York City.

The Navy's CONSTITUTION transport plane is the first to use pre-rotation of landing wheels before landing.

Navy MARS flying boats carried 51,277 passengers without an accident during 1948.

Corbin Opposes Cut In Appropriations To Texas Institutions

Austin—Senator Aumer is Corbin, who last week vigorously opposed returning the eleemosynary, educational and executive budgets to the senate finance committee to be cut, declared today that he will continue to oppose any reductions in the three appropriation bills.

"Although a majority of the senate refused to pass the appropriation bills in their present form," Corbin said, "I am still convinced that every penny the Board of Control requested is sorely needed. Corbin stated further that "if there is any revision in the bills I think it ought to be upward."

Reidhimer, and Sue Nelms. Although they didn't place, they made a very good showing and we were all very proud of them.

Say, our band must be getting serious! They went to the trouble of getting up at the school house by five o'clock this morning to take off to Canyon where they are going to play in class A. Maybe they will win a pretty trophy to add to L. H.'s collection. Here's hopin, anyway!

This last week our baseball team journeyed to Silvertown and Abernathy. They are strictly on the beam some-times, and then again, they aren't. We are pulling for you guys, so keep up the good work!

Seems like the seniors are busy planning their trip. Don't we wish we could go along? I just know we would have a "time and a half", but then they might not appreciate us very much.

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet really came off with a bang Saturday night. It was strictly on the Western side! Junior Golden and Dowell Brewer played Western music throughout the evening. The Soph girls and boys served. They were dressed in Western Clothes. Velma Seale and Melba Weathers sang. Lena Sue Pylant read the class history. Eldora Jamerson read the class will. Mary Louise Manning read the prophecy. The favorites were: Most Popular—Joy Keeter, escort Jerry Cooper; Joe Keeter—escort Joanis Daniels; Most Representative—Joyce Carthel, escort Robert Huckaby; Ewell Dee Kelley, escort Illene Harris; Most Likely to Succeed—Eldora Jameson, escort Jerry McCulloch; Jimmie McGowen, escort Nova Jean Cox. Everything was very pretty and our "Thanks" go to the junior class.

Speaking of dates, you should have seen the great couples Saturday night. Some of them were: Tiney Foster and Charles Crouch; John L. Hooten and Rosalee Matthews; Charles Simpson and Nova Jean Cox; Bobby Carthel, Merrean Patterson; Jerry McCulloch and Lena Sue Pylant; Tom Simpson and Nita Stowe; Jerry Cooper and Joanis Daniels; Jack Cole and Martha Whitfill; Myrtle Newton and Joe Starns; Don McLaughlin and Mildred Rogers; Joe Keeter and Eldora Jameson; Jimmie McGowen and Mary Louise Manning.

We've made our happy, carefree way through Lockney's halls, and now the time has come for us to pause To make our farewell bow. We look around us and regret The scenes and pals we leave. But there are three bright-shining stars For whom we especially grieve. One is the jolly, jovial man Who he is quite a sight, With plans he worked out just for us— Our thanks to Mr. Wright. Another one brought on that day, As seniors we were "velley" glad He has glory that outshines the sun, A bow please, from Mr. Kelley. And yet another staged for us The play of Senior fame. With joyous gratitude we speak Of Mrs. Grimm's name. So here's to three who saw us through Our years of work and play, Until, both, safe and sound, we came To graduation day.

WHO IS A DEMOCRAT IN TEXAS? TRUMANITE BEFORE OR AFTER VOTE?

Who is a Democrat in Texas. With all that yapping about Wright Morrow, we wonder who can really qualify as a Democrat.

Is he the fellow who voted for President Truman, and follows everything now that Truman advocates, regardless of consequences?

If this is the definition of a Democrat in Texas, we are fearful there are few who can qualify.

Truman advocated, during the campaign, and still advocates stealing the rich tideland oil fields from the school children of Texas.

Who in Texas believes that Truman is right? Very, very few persons.

Truman believes in, and is trying to push through Congress his civil rights program.

Who in Texas believes in this civil rights program? Very, very few, indeed.

Senators Tom Connally and Lyndon

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

Johnson have been posing as Democrats and are generally looked upon as pretty strong for their party. But they are certainly against federal stealing from Texas; and they are against the civil rights program of the President; and they have both joined the filibuster to keep the President and his henchmen from abolishing the rights of Senators to filibuster.

Are Texans going to read Connally and Johnson out of the Democratic party?

Does the fact that one voted for Truman in November bind him to everything that Truman, the President, now advocates?

Do you believe in raising four billion more in taxes to be fed into the national government, with no regard to economy?

Truman stands for all this. Most Texans abhor the program of the President, yet a lot of so-called Democrats are seeking to set aside the will of the party in electing Wright Morrow as National Committeeman.

We know nothing about Morrow, except that he has been connected with the Democratic party for many years. Just because his opinions differ from those of the President, does not read him out of the Democratic party any more than these so-called leaders can kick Connally and Johnson out of taking a firm stand against the unwise legislation which is advocated by the President. Those who claim all Democrats should wear the brass collar of the candidate, and then wear the brass collar of the office holder, regardless of his actions or attitudes, are seeking to set up a dictatorship within the party. Such an attitude would forever damn the party with American citizens who put men and principles before party. These are the fellows who elected Roosevelt and Truman, but they will not elect another Democrat if these little dictators within the party in Texas should gain their way in national affairs.—The Crayon News.

heart can no longer respond to the sweet symphony of human sentiment, and whose capacity for enjoyment is atrophied.
In the old days man was born to burial. Years did sometimes intervene—though they really should not. Isn't happiness a divine heritage, too? Don't pass up the pleasures of this life.
The mummy hasn't had any fun for thousands of years and will never have again. He had his big opportunity. The man who buries himself in work with no thought for pleasure, intent only on the daily grind, is already as dead as a mummy. And the world could well spare him. How much better it is to live, to laugh, and to love. Let us none of us become a mummy!—Scurry County Times.

I'VE BEEN THINKING!

How much pleasure do we get from thoughts? As a matter of fact, do not some people hate them? When we are left to our own resources, are we not bored, and lonesome?
We would study how to strengthen our memory, how to train our reason, how to cultivate our imagination, and to learn how to enjoy our mind. Have you ever thought how wide a world is the thought? Your thoughts can embrace planets, all the stars, and also roam the universe.

Past and present, the thoughts, the thoughts, the thoughts, now. No man can equal my thoughts. My technicolor cannot equal the color of my thoughts for man when He made the power of thinking strange that people bored and seek to be left alone with power of thinking. Mind, are all things, and see stars, clouds, people and many things much and are my thoughts vibrate.
The cultivation of will assist in the character, assist in of kindness, courage, and we need this time in history. Times.

These are the homes

These are the people

THESE are the people who own your electric light and power company. Chances are you are one of this group, too.

They represent a cross-section of America — housewives, doctors, teachers — industrial workers, craftsmen, farmers — mechanics and milkmen. Yes, people from walks of life have put their savings into companies. They're direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too — many don't know they have a stake in the electric industry. When banks and insurance companies accept money, they must invest it wisely and productively. They use business-managed electric companies with a record of successful service, much of that invested in utility securities.

So, you see, the electric industry is owned by the people.

The 1949 Seniors of Lockney High School were honored at the annual Junior-Senior banquet held at the "Silver Horseshoe," more commonly known as the grade school lunch room last Saturday evening.

Dowell Brewer, Junior Golden, Velma Seale and Melba Weathers furnished the music for the evening, singing and playing western songs in keeping with the western motif of the banquet.

Delbert Shearer, president of the junior class was toastmaster. Jack Cole gave the welcome and Joe Keeter, president of the Senior Class, gave the response.

A toast to the faculty was given by Kay Norman with the response by Mrs. Sid Thomas.

The class history was given by Lena Sue Pylant. Eldora Jameson read the class will and Mary Louise Manning gave the class prophecy.

The favorite of the Senior Class were presented at this time and were: Most popular, Joy Keeter, escorted by Jerry Cooper, and Joe Keeter, escorted by Joan's Daniel.

Most representative, Joyce Carthel, escorted by Robert Huckaby, and Ewell Dee Kelley, escorted by Illene Harris.

Most Likely to Succeed: Eldora Jameson, escorted by Jerry McCulough and Jimmy McGowan, escorted by Nova Joan Cox.

Menues, favors and place cards were all of western motif. The lunch room was decorated with hay, cactus, lanterns, ropes, logs, saddles and horse shoes.

The members of the Board of Trustees and the faculty were special guests. The invocation was given by Robert Smith and the benediction by Leslie Ferguson.

The banquet ended with the singing of the school song.

TRAGEDY FORGOTTEN - NEW LIFE AHEAD . . . It's hard to believe that this smiling, pretty five-year old is the little girl who was buried, by her father, from the rail of 125-foot high Kosciusko bridge, in New York, on January 7. Her body was crushed, she suffered a fractured skull, internal injuries and loss of speech. Her father, Gabriel Nicoletti, also hurled her brother off the bridge and then jumped himself. Both were killed. But here, little Gail is waving happily as she is supported by her mother.

Scholar Who Dared Death Three Weeks Learns Old Secret

TEHERAN.—An American professor, who dared death every day for three weeks, said he had learned the secret of the inscriptions Persian King Darius had carved on Mount Bisitun 2,400 years ago. Prof. George Cameron of the University of Michigan and the American School of Oriental Research copied the rock carvings by means of a rubber compound. He'd his work suspended 194 feet from a mountain ledge and 100 feet above the rocky ground just east of Kermanshah in western Iran. Sometimes his son, Thomas, 15, went up with him on the scaffold and helped. "The story of Darius' life now appears with remarkable clarity," Mr. Cameron said. "I know now the secret of four huge columns of the inscriptions, which have not been read before because they were in an inaccessible spot. The full secret, however, is one that I shall not divulge until I have had further time for study." The Bisitun inscriptions, in three languages, are ranked as the most famous antiquity of the kind in western Asia.

Male Shoppers Rate Best By Girl Clerks in Stores

NEW YORK.—The department store girls wear their prettiest smiles for the shopping man, but they don't want to take all his money, Mrs. Lorraine Frankland says. "We try to sell him something within what we judge would be his wife's price limit," she explained. If he spends too much his wife will bring it back anyway and be mad at the store for selling it to him, she figures. Mrs. Frankland is the head personal shopper at Lord and Taylor's department store. To figure that price limit, Mrs. Frankland says she starts out low and works all the way up, making a mental note of the point he starts perspiring. Then she goes back and "encourages" him to buy below the boiling point. What the girls really love about the men shoppers, Mrs. Frankland said, is they make up their minds so fast. The average man, shopping for his wife and maybe his mother or daughter, spends about $50 all told, Mrs. Frankland said. And not one in 500 of them buys black underwear, she said.

Chicago Found To Have More Taxicabs Per Capita

CHICAGO.—The nation's capital has more licensed taxicabs per citizen than any other city in the land, although New York has the greatest number of licensed cabs, according to the International Taxicab Managers Association. The association, citing figures compiled by the American Taxicab Association, reported today that there were 9,024 cabs to serve the estimated 987,000 citizens of the District of Columbia, a ratio of one cab to every 109 Washington residents. New Orleans was said to have the second highest ratio of cabs to citizens among thirty-nine of the larger United States cities, with one cab per 466 citizens, or 1,500 cabs for its 700,000 inhabitants. Boston was rated third, with 565 citizens per cab, and Louisville fourth, with a 531-to-1 ratio. New York was fifth, having 11,814 licensed cabs, or one to every 638 of its estimated 7,733,000 population. Greater Cleveland (Cuyahoga County) ranked last, with a ratio of 2,601 persons to one cab.

Mrs. FDR to Devote Life To Furtherance of U. N.

PARIS.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt plans to devote the rest of her active life to the United Nations as "the best hope we have for peace." "We may slide into war," she said "but we must support the United Nations. It may yet save civilization from the terrible set-back of another war." Mrs. Roosevelt is chairman of the United Nations eighteen-nation Human Rights Commission, which will seek next year to draft a human rights treaty legally enforcing those rights.

The Navy has developed a communications robot capable of originating and sending 60 simultaneous messages.

From June 1947 to April 1948 Naval and Marine Reserve aviators flew 487,359.9 pilot hours.

A fast carrier task group of World War II could throw 200 tons of metal a minute at attacking aircraft.

BAKERY STRIKER OUT IN COLD - With six major bakeries closed in New York by an employees' strike and another five by management in support of the struck plant, this picket found himself a rather wet and uncomfortable job patrolling in the wet and snow. The strike was against a baking company, which with five others, supplied 70 per cent of the wrapped bread and cake used in the city.

AMG Top Man In Munich Has Mammoth Task

MUNICH.—Murray D. Van Waggoner, former governor of Michigan, feels that he has a big job on his hands here as military governor of Bavaria, one of the three laender (provinces) in the American zone of occupation in Germany.

Van Waggoner is less concerned with the actual execution of policy than he is with supervision of the way in which the elected German officials put these policies into effect.

But the field of this supervision is much broader than it would be in a state government at home, he says. In the absence of any federal government, the laender or state administration must be both.

Comparing the two jobs, Van Waggoner points out that governors in the United States frequently have the assistance of organized commissions in broad fields of policy like public utilities or conservation. Nothing of that sort exists in Bavaria.

He has studied the possibilities of such a reform here. But so far, he says, he has not proposed it formally or in private conversations with the Bavarian leaders.

Sees Many Callers - In the governor's office in Lansing, Mich., Van Waggoner says, he saw callers during office hours on the average of one every 15 minutes. Here, outside of his own immediate staff, he sees perhaps three each day. But the volume of correspondence and reports is immensely greater, he says.

He finds the setup of American military government is sometimes cumbersome and unresponsive. "At home," Van Waggoner explains, "when you decided to do something you called in the people who were involved and went ahead with the job. If we decide here in Munich that we want to make some move, it must be approved in Berlin, Frankfurt and a dozen other places. By the time it gets back to us, we may have changed our minds or the whole problem may even have ceased to exist."

He agrees that teaching the forms of democratic government to the Germans is a task of immense proportions. He does not believe that the Americans and the other occupying powers are proceeding too quickly in turning over authority to the local officials.

Some Never Learn - "There are some people," he says, "who never learn to swim until they are pushed off the end of a dock."

He adds tolerantly: "Of course, they will make some mistakes." - Among the bars to genuine Democratic progress are two factors, Van Waggoner thinks, which outweigh the others.

One is an entrenched and hugely jealous civil service which starts its protection at the top instead of at the bottom. "It is almost impossible to remove a policy-forming official, but the putz-frau, or scrubwoman, can be tossed to the political wolves any time," he says.

Abundance of Salisburys Pittance in Duplication

CHICAGO.—Twenty-two communities in the world are named Salisbury, but they are a pittance in the realm of duplication, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Mayor R. G. Gordon of Salisbury, England, sent Christmas greetings yesterday to the twenty-one other Salisburys. At the same time he challenged any other town or city to produce a greater number of sister places.

How about Clinton, which thirty-three cities and towns use as their name? asks Britannica. Thirty Clintons are situated in the United States, one in New Zealand and two in Canada.

And, says the Encyclopaedia firm, there are thirty-two Cliftons in the United States, New Zealand, Australia, Canada and Westmorland, England. Chester in Cheshire, England, has twenty-nine namesakes.

There are twenty-nine Cemer-ville, twenty-eight Springfields, twenty-eight Auburns, twenty-seven Belmonts and twenty-seven Clevelands, just to scratch the surface.

Division 323 of Brooklyn, N. Y., won the 1948 Naval Reserve trophy as the best submarine training unit in the United States.

Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King, wartime Chief of Naval Operations, is President of the Naval Historical Foundation.

"Rocks and Shoals", officially the Articles for Government of the Navy, were written by John Adams in 1775.

Strawberry Care Is Discussed

COLLEGE STATION—Whether you eat them in preserves, on ice cream, on a strawberry shortcake, or fresh, it's strawberry time in Texas.

Lucille Schultz, associate extension foods and nutrition specialist of Texas A. & M. College, suggests putting away several gallons in the home freezer, if you select only the red-ripe berries. This type hold their color better than the almost ripe berries.

Strawberries can be put into a container whole, or cut into halves and allowed to stand in dry sugar until it is all dissolved. The sugar—or sugar syrup—helps keep the berries in their fresh texture, color, and aroma.

They develop an off-color and off-flavor very quickly after they are defrosted if the sugar is not used. So, when you are using the dry sugar method, mix the berries until each one is well coated with sugar, Miss Schultz says.

Crushed berries used for toppings for shortcake and ice cream will hold their natural flavor better and longer than the whole or sliced berries. Here are Miss Schultz's suggestions for preparing the berries for freezing. Wash, drain and cap them; weigh them and pack, using one part sugar to three or four parts of berries. If you are using the sugar-syrup, mix three cups of sugar and four cups of water. Fill the containers with berries and cover them with cold syrup, put the cover on and place them in the quick freezing compartment at 20 degrees to freeze at once.

If further directions for freezing are needed, the county home demonstration agent has information on her Extension Service bulletin shelves, says Miss Schultz.

MUSTANGS

Wild Horses of the Plains!

MUSTANGS! WILD HORSES! Magic words to men of imagination! Hence, it is that stories of the mustangs—that lost breed of history—still intrigue all men who love good horses. Back of the story of mustangs, however, is one of the wildest odysseys in history. It is now generally held that the horse originated in America, that he spread throughout the world in prehistoric times, and that he then died out in the land of his origin. Scattered diminutive fossil remains throughout the southern Plains point to his beginnings here. Aeons later, and in historic times, hundreds of thousands of mustangs, sweeping across the Southwest in spirited and colorful bands, marked his return. The very sight of a good horse used to be—in fact still is—a challenge to bold adventure. Nothing is impossible to men who really believe in horses. History seems to prove the point. The horse of the Moors came to the Indies of the New World with the explorers from ancient Spain in the 1490's. He reached the mainland and played a vital part in the fantastic conquest of Mexico by Cortez in 1521, crossed the Plains with Coronado in 1541, escaped from numerous later Spanish exploring expeditions, reverted to the wild state, and spread, with tossing mane and flowing tail, expanding girth and hardening hoots, from the hot valleys of Mexico and the rocky ranges of the Montezumas clear across the continent to the Arctic plains of Canada—all in less than a hundred and fifty years. Thus this marvelous bundle of muscle and nerve, and of sense and stamina, returned in wild and prolific vigor to reclaim the land of his origin, and to revolutionize life in the western half of the New World. For some three hundred years he reigned free and supreme. Meanwhile, Indians mounted on mustangs that they had caught and gentled, battled with fair-faced warriors who rode hard to meet them, while men actually grown to the shape of saddles moved their longhorned cattle upon the lands the Indians lost. Eventually, other men with horses killed off the buffalo herds, and for one brief moment, as time is measured, the great and grass-grown Plains were little more than a wild horse range. These horses, usually in bands of from twenty to forty head, jealously and dangerously ruled by a single stallion, swept out from their waterings in circuits of several miles to graze their favorite range. They congregated in great herds and pawed their feet from the snow in the breaks of winter, and by hard fighting among themselves, the stallions again cut their mares and struck out in individual bunches as grass rose in the spring. For some time, both red men and white levied on this vast reservoir of horse flesh without touching the supply. But in the late 1870's, as men moved farther west and demanded more grass for their cattle, they mounted on grain-fed horses and catching mustangs in drove trailing them off to the settler's market. They became tangers, and their work developed into a sort of a science, or an art, that was known as trapping. They either "walked down" wild horses by keeping after them for days, or trapped them in by hazing or stampeding them into the wide, converging winged corrals. After trapping, they footed them and attached a fore-leg of each, which trapped horse whenever he broke to run then trailed them off in bunches to trade or sale. Yet the mustangers made a depression upon this immense range that still covered the open Great Plains. Only the iron barbed wire, and its cutting range to pieces, brought an end to the wild horse. But wherever his recumbent peacefully slept on the clear beneath his watchful eye, when colts pitched about and capers in sheer joy of life wherever he tossed his noble scented danger and challenge through resonant from afar, there he will never be gotten. For in a way that made the Western World a different place, the men never forget their

For some three hundred years he reigned free and supreme. Meanwhile, Indians mounted on mustangs that they had caught and gentled, battled with fair-faced warriors who rode hard to meet them, while men actually grown to the shape of saddles moved their longhorned cattle upon the lands the Indians lost. Eventually, other men with horses killed off the buffalo herds, and for one brief moment, as time is measured, the great and grass-grown Plains were little more than a wild horse range.

These horses, usually in bands of from twenty to forty head, jealously and dangerously ruled by a single stallion, swept out from their waterings in circuits of several miles to graze their favorite range. They congregated in great herds and pawed their feed from the snow in the breaks of winter, and by hard fighting among themselves, the stallions again cut their mares and struck out in individual bunches as grass rose in the spring.

For some time, both red men and white levied on this vast reservoir of horse flesh without touching the supply. But in the late 1870's, as men moved farther west and for more grass for their cattle, mounted on grained horses, catching mustangs in traps, trailing them off to the stock market. They became tangers, and their work developed into a sort of a science, an art, that was known as trapping.

They either "walked" wild horses by keeping them for days, or trapped them by hazing or stampeding into the wide, converging wooden corrals. After trapping, they footed them and attached a fore-leg of each, which horse whenever he broke loose then trailed them off in trade or sale.

Yet the mustangers made no impression upon this immense range that still covered the open Great Plains. Only the barbed wire, and its cutting range to pieces, brought the wild horse.

But wherever his recumbent peacefully slept on the plain, beneath his watchful eye, the colts pitched about and capers in sheer joy of life wherever he tossed his body. He scented danger and challenge through reason from afar, there he will not get. For in a way the made the Western World full men never forget these line. East of it, there is quite a bit of luxuriant growth of grasses and weeds—in the field margins, along the fence rows, ditch banks, pastures, or waste land near cultivated crops. In such areas sprays and dusts work better than poisonous baits. Out in the open country west of this vertical line poisonous baits will work to a greater advantage than the sprays and dusts.

Bait material and grasshopper poisoning information may be obtained from the county agricultural agents, says Dr. Johnston, while, printed instructions are available at county agent's offices or at the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. Ask for "Grasshopper Control With New Insecticides."

Methodist Notes

God has richly blessed us in our Revival. Many came to the altar rededicating their life and service to the Lord. We feel that the revival was a blessing to the entire church. We appreciate the splendid singing and all the work and prayers that helped us.

We received 26 new members into the church. We do not feel that Sunday night service closed the Revival, but we hope it continues on and on. There are still many who we hope to win for Christ and have join the church. God is depending on you and on me to Him make this a better world. We each have a task to perform.

The last quarterly Conference of this church year will be held Monday night, May 9, at 8 o'clock. We are anxious to have all of our officials present at that time. Annual Conference convenes in Amarillo, May 25.

Thoughts For The Week "If my religion's not all That it ought to be, The trouble's not with God, The trouble's with me." "Better have nothing to live on and something to live for, than plenty to live on and nothing to live for." "Christ is the supreme necessity of the human race."

PIONEERS VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Huddleston of Estancia, New Mexico left Sunday for their home after spending the past month here and in Oklahoma visiting relatives.

The Huddlestons are pioneers of this section having spent many years here about the turn of the century. They left in 1917 for New Mexico where they homesteaded for their farm. While in this area Mr. Huddleston farmed and taught school at what was known as Bobbitt, Roseland and Sandhill schools. In New Mexico he farmed and operated a hardware store until his health failed.

They were accompanied home by their son, Oscar Huddleston who lives in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

RUDD PARSONS AT HOME

Rudd Parsons was returned to his home here Wednesday night after receiving treatment for a heart ailment at the Plainview Hospital.

MAIN STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

"She Has Done What She Could"

Mark 14:8

Many are doing what they can in religious work. Comparatively a few limit their work to what God says is right, and the others do only what they feel or think is right:

"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God." Rom. 10:3.

ARE WE DOING WHAT WE CAN? ARE WE DOING ONLY WHAT GOD SAYS IS RIGHT? ARE WE WORKING, SHIRKING OR JERKING?
