Clemency Denied Jones After Plea By Preachers

No clemency will be recommended for W. Fred Jones of Floydada, scheduled to die in the electric chair early next Sunday morning for the shotgun slaying of a young war veteran, the Board of Pardons and Paroles announced Monday of this week.

The announcement came after a delegation of ministers from West Texas asked the board to commute the death penalty to life imprisonment, saying that Jones had become a convert to religion and should not pay with his life for the killing of H. C. Love Jr., outside of Jones' Floydada grocery store on September 27, 1946.

The ministers in a later statement said that they considered Jones' sentence too harsh under the circumstances.

District Attorney John Stapleton and Sheriff Leland Hart were in Austin Monday and appeared before the board opposing the clemency.

Stapleton told the pardon board that he felt the sentence was justified because of Jones' past record of "scorning the law."

None of the ministers were from Floyd County, according to the best information available to The Beacon. One was from Lubbock and the others were from the Wichita Falls and Vernon area.

McEntire Discusses Wheat Acreage

More than 25,000 acres will be taken off of Floyd County's 1950 wheat acreage by the new allotment released through the Production Marketing Administration office, Ray S. McEntire, Secretary, said today. The 1950 goal for the county has been set at 213,854 acres, giving this county a greater reduction than the nation-wide 17 per cent reduction set in the program. However, this is less than the average Texas state reduction of 22 per cent with some areas cut as much as 40 per cent.

Individual acreage allotments were mailed to producer August 2. Histories and individual acreages were based on records from 1944 to 1949, McEntire said. The reduction on wheat for individual farms will vary due to the difference in crop rotation and cash crops on the farm.

With the release of the allotments producers are interested in the eligibility requirements for price support on the 1950 wheat crop. An eligible producer will be any individual that has an interest as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper in a farm (operating unit) on which the acreage planted to wheat for harvest in 1950 is not in excess of the farm (operating unit) acreage allotment, and the county committee determines that the total of such producer's shares of the 1950 wheat acreage seeded for harvest on all farms within the county in which he has an interest does not exceed his total share of the wheat allotments or permitted acreages.

No specific use will be required to be made of any diverted acreage in 1950 in order to be eligible for price support on wheat. The only eligibility requirements for price support were outlined above.

2300 Register At Tech For Second Summer Term

LUBBOCK.—A total of 2,300 students completed registration for the second term of the summer session at Texas Technological college. As compared with the second term enrollment of 1948, which was 2,332, the year's figure does not show a startling drop in the number of students attending college.

The Division of Arts and Sciences led in enrollment with 719, and Engineering is second with 592. Others are: Business Administration, 328; Graduate, 323; Agriculture, 228; and Home Economics 110.

There is not much change indicated for enrollment of veterans for the second six weeks. There were 1,400 at the college during the first summer term, and approximately the same number of new ones have enrolled as dropped out after the first term.

Commencement exercises will be held at 8 p. m. Friday Aug. 26 in the Administration building green.

Pvt. Reecer was with General Patton's Third Army, 76th Division, 417th Infantry. He trained at Fort McClelland, Ala., and Camp McCoy, Wisconsin.

Farm People Lose Much Time From Avoidable Accidents

College Station.—One resident out of every six farms in this country had an accident involving one day or more lost from regular activities during 1948.

Were you one of the injured? If you were, says E. C. Martin, assistant agent of the Texas A. & M. College-Extension Service, and chairman of the State Farm Safety Council, you know what it costs to be out of circulation for a few days.

Farm people, last year, spent 36 million dollars for medical, dental and hospital care because of injuries and this does not include the cost of accidents to those who were killed, or who suffered permanent disabilities, or costs other than those resulting directly from the care of injuries. Insurance covered about one-fourth of the medical costs.

The big cost, says Martin, was the 17 million days lost from regular activities. Accidents always seem to happen when you are busiest and are needed most. This is the time, he adds, when you should be most careful. Don't rush a job—the minute you save may cost much more in time lost if something goes wrong.

The common causes of farm and home accidents are falls, machines, animals, motor vehicles, handling objects, hand tools, stepping on or striking against objects, falling and flying objects and burns or shock. It's easy, says Martin, to find plenty of scars in your neighborhood left there by one or more of these causes.

Martin suggests that a community-wide project be started to clean up and eliminate these accident hazards. You'll be proud to live in a community that can boast of having no serious farm or home accidents or fires during the year. You and your neighbors can do just that, concludes Martin, if every citizen, young and old, will make it his or her responsibility to remove causes and then be careful and thoughtful every minute. This will develop a community attitude that can make your farm and home the safest place on earth.

Mrs. A. J. Vlasman of Britt, Iowa, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell.

Slow Rain Falls Here This Week

A slow rain started falling here early Wednesday morning, let up during the afternoon and started again Thursday morning to bring this area moisture amounting to .80 inches up to Thursday noon.

Temperatures dropped with the coming of the rain and the thermometer was standing at 70 Thursday noon compared to the high nineties the first of the week.

Most farmers were glad to see the rain but those of the Providence area are hoping for dry weather. The Providence community had between eight and nine inches of rain during the month of July and have had a hard fight to keep the weeds down. They are looking for dry weather.

Cotton Good

Cotton in this area is good and with the increased acreage local gin men are predicting a 50% greater production this year than last. Although most cotton in western Floyd County was planted late and got off to a slow start, it has grown rapidly the past two or three weeks and the stalks are loading up with bolls and squares.

K. N. Clapp of Lubbock, representing Anderson, Clayton & Co. estimated this week that Floyd County would produce 50,000 bales for the year 1949 as compared to 30,000 bales last year.

The greatly increased acreage is responsible for the higher estimated yield although the per acre yield is expected to be at a good figure if weather conditions continue favorable.

Funeral Services For Mrs. D. E. Cox Held Saturday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. D. E. Cox were held at the First Methodist Church in Lockney Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Rev. N. S. Daniel and Rev. W. B. Vaughn conducted the services. Interment was in the Plainview Cemetery with Carter Funeral Home of Lockney in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Cox passed away at her home here Wednesday night of last week within a short time after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

She was born August 18, 1880, and she and Mr. Cox, who is the local agent for the Santa Fe railway, have lived in Lockney for many years.

Methodist Notes

Written by Mama

Mr. Daniel returned Sunday afternoon from Beeton, where he preached in a 10-day revival meeting. There were 10 additions to the church.

Monday morning Mr. Daniel who is Director of the Intermediate Camp for the Plainview District, left for the Methodist Camp ground at Ceta Canyon. 21 boys and girls from our church went with him. They are: Patsy Pierce, Jimmy Myers, Clydene Terrell, Peggy Livesay, Phillip Daniel, Wendell Sims, June Wiley, John Alvin Dorman, Clara Lee Smith, Oddie Mae Rogers, Bettye June Jackson, LaJuan Henderson, Dorsey Lynn Baker, Joe Taylor, Bettye Sue Farish, Pat Leaverton, Sandra Sams, Ann Cooper, Harleen Workman, Orland Gilbert and Bettye Jean Jackson. Wesley Newton Daniel went as Director of Recreation. They will return Friday afternoon. We appreciate those using their cars to take the boys and girls to camp and those going for them.

Our attendance was off Sunday.

day. A little shower can scare people. You know if it showers Saturday afternoon everyone comes to town; but if it showers Sunday morning it is just too bad to get out. I wonder what the Lord thinks?

Thoughts for the week. "Existence was given us for action, rather than indolent and aimless contemplation; our worth is determined by the good deeds we do, rather than by the fine emotions we feel. They greatly mistake who suppose that God cares for no other pursuit than devotion."

Prayer is a shield to the soul, a sacrifice to God, and a scourge for Satan. Little Eugenia and Deborah Marr, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Marr spent last week in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Marr while their parents made a trip to Wyoming.

Mrs. Ruth Bennett of San Antonio left Sunday after spending the past two weeks here with her mother, Mrs. Sula Julian and brother, Murray Julian.

FLOYD COUNTY EXCEEDS BOND QUOTA BY 6% IN RECENT DRIVE

Floyd County exceeded its quota by 6 per cent in the Opportunity Drive for the sale of Series E Savings Bonds. Total sales were $55,375.00, as compared to the county quota of $52,000, according to J. M. Wilton, county Savings Bonds chairman. He received the final report of the drive today in a letter from Nathan Adams of Dallas, chairman of the Treasury Department's advisory committee for Texas.

Harry Owens of Dallas, state director of the Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department, said that the Opportunity Drive was an outstanding success throughout the state also. Sales for Texas were $46,835,896.75, or 126 per cent of the state quota of $36,950,000. The drive was held throughout the nation from May 16 through June 30, with bond purchases through July 18 being counted in the final totals.

Mr. Owens said that Texas sales during the drive were $3,293,930.50 more than Series E sales during the similar period of 1948.

Mr. Adams described the Opportunity Drive as "the most successful Savings Bonds campaign since the war" and praised the county chairman, his committee and other local volunteers "for the fine success you have achieved in your county."

He said that results of the drive indicated a sharp increase in the number of employees buying bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan which they work in and the number of persons participating in the automatic Bond-A-Month Plan at their banks.

This drive has been proof that increasing thousands of our citizens are recognizing thrift as the surest means to economic security," he said. "At the same time, our business and civic leaders are daily becoming more aware that the Savings Bonds program, instead of being merely a wartime expedient, is a powerful and continuing force for stabilizing the business and economic structures of the state and nation."

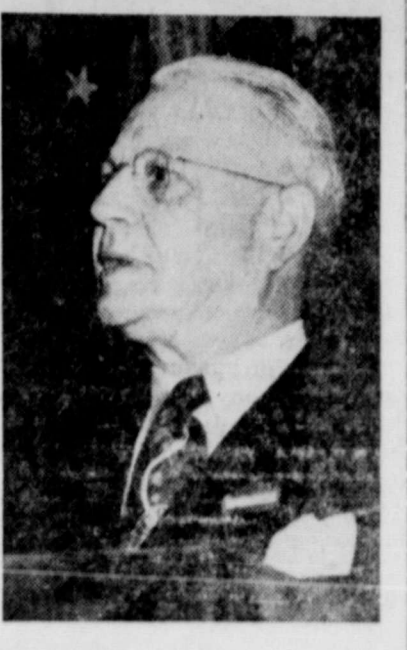

"Consequently, throughout the state the finest kind of cooperation for the drive from county Savings Bonds committees, business management, banks and other financial institutions, newspapers, radio stations, organizations and clubs, and just plain, every-day citizens. "I think the people of Texas can be proud of their accomplishment in this drive, not only in the large sales total but especially in the increased financial security that their investments in Savings Bonds give to them."

Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than themselves.—Philippians 2:3.

Congress expects to end its session about August 17. Much of the President's program will have to wait until next session. As a matter of fact the President handed the Congress considerably more than it could get done in one session.

The production of synthetic rubber in this country built up during the war is still paying dividends. The bulk of the natural rubber comes from the Far East and is controlled by the Dutch and the British. With the means for making synthetic rubber in this country we are not too dependent upon natural rubber supplies and consequently cannot be forced to pay an excessive price. Without the influence of synthetics, tire company executives think natural rubber would be bringing a dollar a pound instead of 16 cents. Dollar rubber would make a $15 tire cost about $24 and 100 feet of garden hose $19 instead of $7.

A move is on by independent movie theatre operators to form a corporation to finance independent picture production. National Exhibitors Film Co., president S. H. Fabian says Exhibitors hope by this means to maintain their film supply and have a voice in the kind of pictures they show in their houses. The company will be wholly Exhibitor controlled and will produce about 15 pictures the first year.

It has been estimated that the recommendations of the Hoover Commission for the reorganization of the government would save three billion dollars. Allowing for a fifty percent error the saving would be $1,500,000,000. To most taxpayers who are skimping and saving to pay their tax even this seems worth while. Applied to our present debt the saving would pay it off in 168 years. This may seem like a long time but it is a lot faster than the present indifferent lackadaisical system will do it.

The attitude of Paul Robeson, American singer and his professed love for the Russian Communists, his statement that in the event of war between this country and Russia, American negroes would fight on the side of Russia, has done more injury to the cause of tolerance, and has contributed more to racial hatred than any single act or statement made in the last fifty years. Robeson is a blatant and an ignorant ingrate. He has no just cause for complaint over the manner in which this country has treated him. It is a credit to right thinking colored people that they promptly repudiated him and declared that his statement concerning their loyalty was untrue.

There are two kinds of people in the world. Those who can't rest until they have a little money put away in the bank and those who can't rest when they get a little money until it is spent.

One point never before mentioned concerning the prodigal son for which the young prodigal is entitled to some credit is this: He didn't bring a wife home with him to share the hospitality of his forgiving family.

If an ancient Hebrew prophet were here he would not be boasting about the atom bomb, but warning against profligacy, sensuousness, drunkenness and selfishness which is the ever increasing spirit of millions of our people.—Rev. William Ward Ayer, New York City.

The effort to keep up with the Jones' causes a good many people to lose their old age security fund, but the damage done isn't nearly as bad as that suffered by the Jones' in their effort to keep ahead of everyone else.

This generation should see to it that the children get the best education possible. They are going to have to be pretty smart to pay a 250 billion dollar national debt. So far the present generation hasn't been able to make a dent in it.

LIVING WITH A MEANING

A man working on a metropolitan daily newspaper recently wrote the following reason for his wanting a job on a weekly newspaper:

"I want to be able to build a paper, a town and a way of life. I want to be able to plant a tree and watch it grow; to watch friends grow old along with me instead of always meeting strangers."

The writer of that paragraph had once been employed on a weekly, but due to family health reasons, he was forced to move to a city and get employed on a large daily newspaper.

What does it mean to you? "I want to build a paper. . . . Nothing too unusual there. Men want to build newspapers because they like the financial returns a good paper commands. They like the power a good newspaper wields and the prestige the success of anything inspires.

...to build a town. . . . Now that is a little different. This phrase has an importance of great magnitude. Some publishers do more than others because they have more courage than others. Some do more than others because they can see the needs better. Some do less than others because they are too interested in personal gain, too concerned with "pleasing everybody," too "busy" or just too tired.

There is the reason for everything. This man stated that he wants to "be able to plant a tree and watch it grow; to watch friends grow old along with me instead of always meeting strangers." All of which is a way of life.

America was built on pastoral progress. Sure the powerful-appearing things are done in the massed areas. But the soul is in the small towns and on rural fields.

There is no denying that if America's rural residents lose democracy—if America's grass roots rot—there will be no "land of the free and home of the brave" in the future.

Yes, that metropolitan daily newspaper was truly thinking of a way of life, our way of life, when he said he wanted to "be able to plant a tree and watch it grow; to watch friends grow old along with me instead of always meeting strangers."

LITTLE TOWN QUESTION MARK

Big town, Little town—what makes one bigger, the other smaller.

The causes are too numerous and complicated to explain in detail why small towns get smaller; but they boil down to greater job opportunities and entertainment facilities offered by the big towns, along with a complementary failure by small town merchants and other civic leaders to develop fully their business' and their town's opportunities. Resources on which to base small industries are too often neglected. Negligence in working for adequate roads that would bring agriculturists to their towns, turns traffic in

The right word of inspiration and kindness restores courage, revives hope, stimulates energy and ambition.

The crown of all faculties is common sense. It is not enough to do the right thing; it must be done at the right time and place. Talent knows what to do; tact knows when to do it.

If you cannot enter pleasantly into a conversation, either change your attitude or change the subject.

Failure to modernize business houses and enlarge stocks, lack of good educational facilities and adequate, modern health and medical institutions turns people to larger communities where they are available.

The result is that the ablest, most ambitious of small town youngsters, deprived of the work opportunities that such development would afford, and bored with lack of diversion, go to the larger towns. As one student of this mass tendency put it, the net result is the same as a stockman would get if he systematically killed off the best animals in his herd.

"A small town. . . . if" is the answer you will get most of the time in asking anyone who ever lived on the farm or in a small town where they would rather live. And that is the point, the big IF.

Hereford checks off far better than average down the list, but complacency won't keep it that way. Hereford should be growing today because of its geographical location alone. Take away the IF's and we will always have the finest small town in West Texas.

Wheat Varieties For Plains Discussed

College Station.—The acreage of hard red winter wheats has expanded in recent years into the North Central area of the state as better varieties have become available, says J. E. Adams, head of the Texas A. & M. College department of agronomy. Either hard or soft red winter varieties may be grown in the area north of Dallas-Ft. Worth but only rust resistant varieties or very early maturing ones should be grown in the Rolling Plains area.

Results of recent tests by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations in the northern part of the Rolling Plains show that of the early maturing varieties of hard wheats, Wichita is recommended because of its better baking qualities. Triumph is about two days earlier than Early Blackhull in the North Central area, plants are shorter in height and it stands better than Wichita or Early Blackhull. The grain of Triumph is of good test weight and of approved quality for general purpose flours. The early maturing varieties are all highly susceptible to rust but usually escape serious injury because of their earliness.

In the group of later maturing hard wheats, Comanche and Westar are similar in appearance, although Comanche is often shorter and slightly earlier. Comanche is resistant to bunt and both varieties are moderately resistant to leaf rust. Both are susceptible to stem rust and loose smut, and both produce flour of high quality for commercial baking.

The soft red winter wheat varieties Red May, Denton, Fultz, Mediterranean and Austin have not yielded as well as the better varieties of hard wheat at the Denton and Greenville stations. The research workers suggest that recommended hard wheat varieties be substituted for them.

These wheat variety tests were conducted under the supervision of Superintendents J. Roy Quinby, of the Chillicothe station; L. E. Brooks, of the Iowa Park station; D. I. Hooten, of the Greenville station; B. C. Langley, of the Stephenville station; R. E. Dickson, of the Spur station; J. R. Johnston, of the Temple station and D. I. Dudley and agronomist and small-grain research leader I. M. Atkins, of the Denton station.

The county extension agents or the nearest Experiment Station can supply the per acre yield figures for the varieties tested. It is given in a May 1949 Texas Agricultural Experiment Station progress report. They also have information on the prevention and control of leaf rust, stinking smut and loose smut.

School Children Should Have Pre-School Examination

AUSTIN.—The month of September brings a return of school days, and thousands of Texas boys and girls will be returning to classrooms for the next nine months. Every one of these children, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, should be as free as possible from physical defects that can be corrected, and protected against other diseases which frequently spread through classrooms.

A complete medical and dental pre-school check-up is of the utmost importance in getting the child ready for school. Eyes, ears, nose, throat, and teeth should be carefully examined, and all remediable defects corrected or placed under treatment. Such defects can lead to serious impairment of growth and progress academically, socially and emotionally.

Defects of hearing and vision handicap a child in his class work, and often result in the false impression that he is backward and unable to learn. Such defects can often be corrected, and the child is not only more progressive in his school work, but is a happier, better balanced individual as a result of being more socially acceptable. Dental defects should be corrected not only for cosmetic reasons, but because good teeth enable a child to chew his food properly and thus promote good digestion and bodily nourishment.

"In addition to correcting such defects as already exist, young children should be protected by immunization against disease, when possible," Dr. Cox said. "Immunization is safe and dependable, and every child is entitled to this protection against disease."

By Mrs. Walter Sammann (Delayed from last week)

On Sunday, July 24 at 6 p. m. members of the Trinity Lutheran Church enjoyed a chicken fry with all the trimmings on the church grounds, after which singing was enjoyed. Rev. H. L. Anderson led in a devotional reading and prayer. Special guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Scholemer and Janie of Amarillo. The supper was sponsored by the Ladies Aid Society.

We are very happy to report that Mrs. M. C. Scheele is improving rapidly and is expected to return to her home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLaughlin and family spent Friday and Saturday visiting relatives in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Jochen and children of LaGrange, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Melton Schuette and children of Idalou were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sammann and girls Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sammann and their guests visited Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schuette Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLaughlin and family have returned home after spending the past three days in Albuquerque, New Mexico visiting friends and relatives.

A bountiful rain of 2 inches fell in the Providence community on Tuesday evening and early Wednesday morning giving farmers a few days of leisure and a happy smile.

Vacation Bible school is still in progress with an enrollment of 36 pupils. We still have a full week so those of you who missed out may still come and join us the last week.

The Providence Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Ted Boedeker with Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner as co-hostess on Tues. July 26 at 3 p. m. Due to rain only a few were present. Miss Leila Petty gave a very interesting demonstration on salad dressing and mayonnaise. Present were Meses. Sam Jones, Ben Brandes, Walter Sammann, Wilfred Stoerner, Robert Buhrkuhl, Ted Boedeker, Miss Leila Petty and one visitor, Mrs. Calvin Palmer of Plainview. There was no business meeting. Next meeting will be Aug. 22 at 3 o'clock with Mrs. R. C. Matthews as hostess.

August Dangerous For Motorists

AUSTIN.—Pointing out that August of 1948 was the most dangerous of the year for motorists, Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, appealed today to all drivers to exercise extreme caution in this month.

During August of 1948, 212 persons lost their lives in Texas traffic accidents surpassing the month of December for the first time. December, Colonel Garrison stated, was normally the month of most traffic fatalities.

Contributing factors toward August's high death rate, ac-ording to Garrison, is the fact that this month is a period of many vacation trips during which numerous people travel unfamiliar roads and devote too much attention to the scenery rather than their driving; too, August heat results in fatigue and induces drowsiness thus making this month the highest than 1949 traffic deaths in 1949. If not more than 162 persons are killed this month it will mean a saving in human lives of 50 over the same period last year and this, alone, would effect a 2½ reduction for the entire year.

Frosted Tweed

This chic combination of soft tweed and crisp linen was found guilty of traffic-stopping by Cosmopolitan's Male-Tested Fashions jury. The dress is part of the $150 wardrobe featured in the magazine's August issue. A Surrey Classic with leather belt and bone buttons all in a row, it sells separately for about $17. You can vary its effect with a silk ascot at the neck while collar and cuffs are in the wash. Eric Pinza, Peter Lawford and Montgomery Clift were the "all in favor" of this dress. Available in brown, green or black mixtures.
