Gridsters Begin Spring Training Here Monday

Coach Curtis Kelly said Wednesday that Spring training for the Lockney Longhorn grid-iron team would begin next Monday and continue for the next 30 calendar days. Kelly will be assisted in the training period by Line Coach Elvin Lyon and Assistant Coaches Robert Foote and Bill Birdwell. He expects about 35 candidates out for the Spring training period.

Although the Longhorns lost a number of stalwarts by graduation from last year's team, Kelly still has a number of boys that have proven themselves and several very likely prospects, he said.

Lettermen from last year's team are Guards Orland Gilbert and Joe Taylor, Tackle Kenneth Williams, End Teddy Cartel and Backs C. B. Smart, Norton Baker, Bill Sherman and Lewis Foster. In addition to these the following boys are B squad lettermen and have seen a lot of action: Aubrey Cox, Alvin Ray Pinner, Bill Paschal, Deanie Henderson, Roger Conner, Jimmy Williams, Johnnie B. Griffin, John Alvin Dorman, Marion Cross, Wayne McClure.

Kelly's chief worry is replacing Barry Thompson at center and Ray Ferguson at fullback although he has several other vacancies that are going to be hard to fill, he says.

The guard positions will be well taken care of by Taylor and Gilbert and Kenneth Williams is expected to do a good job at left tackle. Kelly thinks that Deanie Quisenberry may make a whale of a tackle with some experience. Teddy Cartel will be on hand to take care of one end position but the other one is vacant. Aubrey Cox from the B squad and Billy McAda, a squadman from last year, Marion Cross and John Dorman will all be working for a starting position, Kelly said.

Kelly is very optimistic about his freshmen players. They are mostly big boys and will furnish a lot of beef in the line as well as backfield when they have had some experience.

Freshmen boys who are expected to be a lot of help include Elmo Fortenberry, Lerel Foster, Jimmy Scott, Clifton Williams, Weldon Lovvern, Verbie Robinson, Phillip Daniel, Doyle Couch and possible several other boys.

Rural Mail Box Improvement Week April 28-May 3rd

The Post Office department has designated the week of April 28 through May 3 as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week. It was announced this week by Postmaster H. B. Machen.

Rural mail boxes which are not properly erected or which are not in good condition retard the delivery of mail and expose it to damage from the elements, Mr. Machen pointed out.

It is the desire of the department to encourage patrons of rural delivery service to provide suitable mail receptacles and to erect them in such manner that they will be readily accessible to the carrier and present a neat appearance.

It is especially desirable that the boxes be maintained in a condition that will assure proper protection to mail placed therein, that the names of the box owners be inscribed on the side of the box visible to the carrier as he approaches them, and that the boxes and their supports be kept painted.

The loan papers should be filled out soon, however, due to the short time before the deadline, he said.

A quarter of an inch of rain fell here Tuesday evening accompanied by a display of lightning and thunder and gusts of wind that moved things about. The moisture was the first that had fallen here in several weeks but was not of sufficient quantity to help much. The storm came in with a cold front that dropped temperatures to 34 above early Wednesday morning. It was expected to get warmer Thursday.

Plainview reported only a shower and Lubbock had 43 of an inch of moisture. Floydada moisture was reported at 46 of an inch and Matador had 20.

Clean-Up Drive Is Set Friday

The Spring clean-up drive in Lockney will reach a climax Friday of this week when an all-out effort will be made to give the city a thorough cleaning.

All residents of the city are urged to clean their premises of trash and rubbish, pile it next to the alley where city trucks may pick it up and eliminate all disease-breeding places if possible.

Business will be requested to close from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. on this day and aid in the clean-up effort.

Community Health Chairman Joe Holt said that awards would be made this year, as they were last, to the block in each quarter section of the city that showed the most improvement in the campaign. The city is divided into quarter sections with Locust being the dividing line east and west and Main Street dividing the city north and south. Some appropriate marker will be placed on the block winning the award.

A sound-truck, furnished by the Southwestern Public Service Company, will be on hand and with Mort Crapster at the microphone will keep residents reminded to clean up.

Elderly people who need help in moving trash and rubbish may receive it by calling 3368. Explorer Scouts will be on duty to aid such people.

Plans have been made to thoroughly fog and spray the city during the Spring and summer, Mr. Holt said.

Dairy Show Will Be Next Week

The 25th annual Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show will be held in Plainview, on April 12-18. Breeders of Holstein, Guernsey, Jersey, Brown Swiss, and Milk- ing Shorthorn cattle from Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma will compete for premiums offered by the businessmen of the host city totalling $3,636.00.

The Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show ranks among the five largest such expositions in the United States and is unique in being financed entirely by donations. It is the only dairy exposition known to have vacuum milking facilities serving each stall.

Last year 470 head of cattle were competing in the show. Several of the breeds hold sales during the week of April 12-18. Because of the quality of the cattle entered, these sales are attended by dairymen from a three state area.

Insect Control Is Major Problem

College Station.—The problem of controlling insects may soon become a major job on a lot of Texas farms. Never before in history have agricultural producers been asked to plant and harvest crops as large as those asked for in 1952 and Allen C. Gunter, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says the final production figures for the year will reflect just how well crop destroying insects were controlled.

He says there is a lot more involved in a good insect control program than buying an insecticide and applying it to the crop. First he suggests that farmers secure copies of bulletins and circulars from their local county agents that describe the insects and list the recommended control measures. The second suggestion is of prime importance. Know what insecticide is needed and then read the label on the container to make sure that it is the one recommended, says the specialist.

J. EDD McLAUGHLIN, Ralls banker and civic leader has been named a lay director for District 3-South of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division, which includes 18 Northwest Texas counties. Mr. McLaughlin will aid in emphasizing the pressing need for public acceptance of cancer education as a positive means of controlling the disease.

of spray material and water — will be obtained if only enough water is put in the sprayer tank to get a good mixing job done. After the solution is mixed, add enough water to fill the sprayer tank to the desired level and then thoroughly mix the solution before applying the spray to the crop.

Gunter says farmers should remember that all insecticides are poisons and all precautions given on the labels should be strictly followed. Special precautions should be taken when handling TEPP and Parathion to avoid prolonged contact with the skin or breathing the vapors or drift from either spray or dust.

The specialist urges farmers to get their spraying and dusting equipment in top operating shape. Preparations made early may well be a determining factor in whether the insect control program on any given farm is a success or failure. It is good management, says Gunter, to be ready and waiting for the bugs. When they once go to work, time is on their side and successful control calls for immediate action.

Plan To Make Rain At Matador And Paducah

Matador. — Approximately 90 landowners and businessmen meeting Tuesday night in the District Court room here were enthusiastic over the "rain-making" plan presented by Ford Hubbard of Houston, representing the Water Resources Development Corporation of Denver.

Rancher D. I. W. Birnie was named president of a county organization to raise the estimated $6,700 cost of applying silver iodide through generators to rain-bearing clouds. Ralph Stapleton was named vice-president of the county organization and Elbert Reeves, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Reeves served as temporary chairman during the Tuesday night meeting.

"We are rain increasers, not rain-makers," Mr. Hubbard told the group Tuesday night. He said the contract would continue from April 1 through March 31, 1953. He pointed out the success of the modern plan in other states and answered questions.

He said five counties in Oklahoma would take part and that the following Texas counties have already organized to raise the money: Hall, Donley, Collingsworth, Childress and Armstrong. Counties in the process of being organized are Cottle, Motley, Briscoe and King.

Paducah. — A little less than half of the money needed to participate in the rain-increasing program has been subscribed, but acreage is still shy. L. V. Anderson, president of the Cottle County Weather Association, said Wednesday.

Of the 540,000 acres in the county, 74,000 have been subscribed at the maximum of three cents per acre, as set by the organization at their first meeting. The group must get at least one-third of the county, or 180,000 acres, to subscribe to the program before they can get the go-ahead signal. If they can annex the full 540,000 acres, the cost will be only one cent per acre to land owners.

All sections of Cottle county are being worked to secure sufficient funds for the county to go into the rain-increasing program. Mr. Anderson said that they had more subscriptions promised but could not be added to the total until they were definite. Interest is increasing daily in the program and promises to be successful.

The organization was recently initiated into Cottle county in order to try and increase the rainfall in this area by the use of silver iodide generators.

The annual Texas Round-up will be held at A. & M. College in

CHRYSLER FirePower is so much more than HORSEPOWER

- + It's worth remembering that today's Chrysler V-8 is not a "warmed-over" engine, but basically brand new... the first truly new type engine of modern times. It does, indeed, open new horsepower potentials, but what it can mean to you goes way beyond just that...
- + FirePower is also a better-built engine throughout. It doesn't require premium fuel. It runs with less waste, less heat, less wear, less carbon deposit than other type engines can do. More of your gasoline's energy is turned into actual road power, greater reserve for passing and top speeds when needed...
- + FirePower gives your gasoline a better place to work... the first hemispherical combustion chamber in a stock-car engine. It makes possible more power from every drop of gas. You feel it the minute you open up a Chrysler, in greater accelerating power than you've ever had at your command...
- + Why not drive this revolutionary new-type engine, and feel its wonderful difference for yourself? Let your Chrysler dealer show you how much more than horsepower your money can buy in the engine Chrysler has designed from scratch to do an engine's job better, longer, and more efficiently than previous engines can hope to do!

Registrants Should Report Change

Plainview — The secretary of the Floyd-Hale-Swisher-Motley county draft board today warned men of draft age in the four-county area that it is to their advantage to report changes of status which are affected by the draft law.

C. C. McGlasson, the board secretary, said the board especially wanted to warn young married men who have no children to report expected birth of a child.

"If such men don't report the expected birth of a child and they should get an order to report for induction," Mr. McGlasson said, "the board, under the regulations is powerless to defer them."

"If they do report it before they get an order," he continued, "the board then puts them in a deferred class because of dependency."

Mr. McGlasson said notification should be in the form of an ordinary certificate from a licensed physician stating that a child has been conceived.

The secretary also warned men who happen to be in college that they must ask the board for a deferment to continue study if they want to be considered.

"The fact that the college reports a student's class standing, or that the board is furnished results of his taking the draft qualification test is not sufficient for the board to give consideration," Mr. McGlasson said.

"The student must write the board a letter requesting deferment for this purpose," he continued. "If the student does this, then we can properly consider his request under the regulations."

Mr. McGlasson said that men sometimes waive rights by not keeping the draft board informed. He advised men to protect their rights by making the board aware of changes in address and status.

Federal Control Of Water Feared

Abilene — Introduction of a measure in congress designed to bring under federal control all water resources of the United States may be expected almost any time, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce told members of its water resources committee in a bulletin issued today.

The statement referred to legislative proposals, made public recently, that are based upon a report of the President's Water Resources Policy Commission.

The statement commented upon the proposed legislation as follows:

"The proposed bill calls for completely federal planning and development of the water resources of the nation through 15 federally dominated River Basin Commissions and a Federal Board of Review.

"Only lip service is paid to ernments a part in the planning and administration of their water giving the states and local governments, although the plan calls for their assuming a much larger share of the financial burden. All costs are to be reimbursable as far as possible, not just those allocated to electric power and reclamation. Wherever possible, costs are to be repaid by the direct beneficiaries, otherwise by the state and local governments. Only the cost of intangible benefits are to be borne by the federal government. No project is to be authorized or built without approval of the Commission and the Board of Review."

New Starting Date For Social Security

The new starting date for figuring old-age and survivors insurance benefit payments is important to everyone now employed or self-employed in work covered by social security.

In explanation of this statement, Jean G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office, points out that work after 1950 can be used alone for figuring the amount of the benefit payment. Everyone who has been in work covered by social security continuously since January 1, 1951, will be fully insured by the middle of the present year. If he reaches age 65 and decides to retire, he will be eligible for old-age benefit payments, if he should die after a year and a half of covered work after 1950, his survivors can get benefit payments. He and his family will have this insurance protection until July, 1954. They will continue to have this protection if he stays in covered work for at least one-half the time after 1950 and up to the time of retirement at age 65 or later, or up to the time of his death.

Hutton advises everyone who plans to retire during 1952 to contact the Social Security representative before making a decision. He points out that an employed person will not immediately get the highest benefit payments if he files his claim during 1952. Moreover, he says, "Self-employment earnings for the year in which a claim is filed are not used to figure the amount of the payments. It may be to the advantage of both the employed and self-employed insured person to defer filing a claim until January 1953."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

When there is a football or baseball game everyone goes to the game and supports the players. Why can't the people of Lockney do this for our young people? The only thing you can do here is to go to the show and if you are lucky enough to get the car ride around. You may think that is enough, but it isn't.

Just last week the Methodist young people went to Plainview to go skating and to the show, so did the band. Sure they had fun but if we had something like a skating rink here we could have come down here and saved our parents lot's of worry and had just as much fun.

Sermonettes From Revival Tabernacle

"Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32.

"Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord." Amos 8-11.

There has been a famine in the land not for food but for the Word of God. Jesus said, "I am the truth" and the "truth shall make you free." There is deliverance in the Lord.

To be free means to be free to worship God in Spirit and in truth, to be free from sin; to be free from sickness, oppression of the devil; to be free from fear, frustration, worry; to be free of habits that harm body and soul. Man cannot free himself from many things but there is freedom from every thing in Jesus. When you know the Truth, the Truth shall make you free. Jesus said

In Luke 4:18-19. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He is no respecter of persons. So He has freedom for you.

Services will begin at the Revival Tabernacle at a future date.

Concert To Feature Trio Of Instruments

On Thursday, April 17, the Floydada Municipal Concert Association will present one of the most novel and entertaining attractions in the concert field to-day—the Concert Trio. The Trio consists of two accordions and a contra bass, the latter more often referred to as the "bull fiddle." Long associated with the more popular kinds of music, these three instruments will be heard performing the most intricate works of the great masters from Bach to Strauss.

Five years ago, Bill Hughes, Bill Palmer and Len Manno put into practice their views on music—a fine belief that classical music could be played properly on the accordion and contra bass. Mr. Manno, the contra bassist, was a member of the Kansas City Philharmonic and the Houston Symphony Orchestras. Mr. Palmer and Mr. Hughes, the accordionists, have long been serious students of music. It was the conviction of the three musicians that through the medium of the instruments on which they were specialists, great music could be made even more enjoyable than when heard on the conventional instruments to which the public was so accustomed. A few practice sessions soon proved they were right. A concert was arranged, and the response was so overwhelming that from then on the Trio plunged ahead full force and audiences ever since have been cheering them across the nation.

The Floydada Municipal Concert Association wishes to advise its members that this concert will be guest night and all members are urged to bring a guest for this concert at no additional cost.

The concert will be held at the Floydada High School auditorium, and will begin promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, and his redeemer the Lord of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.—Isaiah 44:6.

The school trustee election last Saturday was only one phase of a battle that has been underway for several years and will continue for many more years to come. Those in this district who believe in standing for right—and there seems to be quite a few—will do well to keep their armor on and their weapons sharp. The battle isn't over. The idea that "everybody in the county is going to consolidate with our school whether they like it or not" is one that is prevalent, not only in this county but in other counties on the plains as well.

In Crosby county, according to the newspapers, the same objective is being pushed by one school and it is also happening elsewhere. We do not believe that eventually we will be forced ed to send our children to the Floydada school even though that seems to be the long-range planning of some people of that city. And we do not believe that every other school district in the county will be forced to consolidate with that district. Resentment at the high-handed tactics used in this drive to have a "one-school" county will eventually bring a reaction that will more than wipe out the temporary advantage gained by such tactics.

We suppose that if one must choose between them, it is better to be in the right than to be the winner. The Lockney school district has no desire to force attendance at school here by a district that does not want to come. We do feel that when a district, or the majority of that district, does want to attend school here they should be given that privilege.

Let us remind you again that this battle is not over and will not be over for some time. The people of this district and all districts of the county who are interested in seeing justice and right prevail must stand together and continue the fight. The battle may be long, and it might get pretty rough, but eventually the right will prevail.

Next week, if The Beacon force holds out and nothing breaks, the 50th anniversary edition will be put into the mails. It will not be as elaborate as we would like but it will be as good as we can make it with our limited help. There are some things we will miss but we are trying to cover the main things of interest at the time The Beacon was founded—in 1902 and the few years preceding and following that date.

The drought in West Texas is getting serious. We note that "rain-makers" are now setting up for business in Motley and Cottle county and possibly others. They, with the "hail preventers" of this area ought to be able to do something to bring moisture to thirsty, parched West Texas. If we remember rightly, the last real rain we had was in September or October. That's some six months back. It's about time for Old Man Weather to loosen up and give us all that moisture he's been hoarding probably in one big flood.

With Our EXCHANGES

THE PRESIDENT'S DECISION

Like Topsy in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," President Truman "just grewed" Saturday night. With his dramatic announcement at the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner in Washington that he is out of the White House race, he grew in the estimation of millions of his countrymen about as much as it is possible for a man to grow within the time limits of such a short speech.

It was up to the President and the decision he made seems to us a wise one. While we've never harbored serious misgivings about the Democratic party's chances of winning the presidential election with or without Truman, we feel now, as do millions of others, that whoever gets the convention nomination will have a united force behind him. President Truman might easily have gone ahead and chosen the other course, thereby bringing down upon himself fresh accusations of "bull-headed, pig-headed, pin-headed, etc." However, we feel that his decision came straight from the heart and that he did not withdraw, as some have intimated, through fear of losing the race. We believe his statement, "I have served my country long and, I think, efficiently and honestly," was made in all sincerity.

While the President's statement that he is not a candidate for reelection detracted from his reputation in some quarters of being stubborn, we don't believe his prowess as a first-line "scraper" will suffer. He is not expected to take a back seat role in the choice of a nominee at the July convention.

The President's decision leaves the way open for the nomination of one of a number of good men at the convention in July. While we do not feel that the party would have lost either way, we believe it's for the good of the country that he just as little discord as possible within the party that sweeps to power. Behind a man of such calibre as Sen. Estes Kefauver or Sen. Richard Russell or Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois or Sen. Robert S. Kerr, to mention a few, the Democratic party will have no reason for letting discord sour the fruits of victory. — Hockley County Herald.

Appropriate observations anent Attorney General J. Howard McGrath's removal of Newbold Morris as corruption investigator in the government, followed swiftly by McGrath's resignation under pressure, appear to be these:

McGrath never should have been tendered the appointment as investigator; and McGrath should have been removed from the Presidential cabinet long ago.

Morris was an unknown to most Americans when he was named a special assistant to the attorney general to direct the corruption inquiry. Even so, it made him subordinate to McGrath, whose official conduct long has been under something stronger than suspicion. The attorney general was in position to suppress any reports that a group headed by Morris might make. The disclosure of Morris' left-wing tendencies and some of his professional actions as an attorney which were questionable as to ethics aggravated the objections to him.

Many charges have been made against McGrath, and few have been answered satisfactorily. For example, he reportedly has accumulated upwards of a million dollars in personal wealth while serving in political offices at comparatively small salaries. This report he ridiculed. But he "blew up" when he received a questionnaire from Morris inquiring into his sources of income other than his official salaries. He flatly refused to answer the questions.

It is to be hoped James P. McGranery, a former congressman and federal district judge in Eastern Pennsylvania, as attorney general will prove the first step toward a cleanup and more efficient administration of that department. It is to be hoped also that he will select a corruption investigation in whom confidence can be placed.

Neither man — McGrath or Morris—was worthy of the responsibility entrusted to him. The ouster of both long has appeared in the public interest. — Lubbock Avalanche.

The outboard motor plays an important part in the fishing trip today, as it enables the fisherman to reach the distant parts of the lakes and rivers that takes many hours to reach rowing by hand. The secret of getting the limit of bass lies in the fisherman's ability to get where the fish are, and the little motor helps wonderfully in placing the fisherman near the feeding grounds.

He practiced general law until 1940 and since that time has been practicing civil law.

Homemakers who use greased paper to prevent breads and cakes from sticking in the baking pan should remove the paper immediately after the product is removed from the pan. Paper also scorches easily and should not be used when high temperatures are required for the baking job.

When wading a river it is necessary to tote a creel in which to carry your bass. Select one large enough to hold six fair sized bass, as this is usually the limit allowed to take. A landing net is used when wading and also when fishing from a boat. The folding net is best adapted for use when wading, and the long handle style when fishing from a boat. An elastic shoulder cord is used to hold the net when wading. A fly book or a bug box is necessary for carrying the lures while fishing. Select a combination fly and bug box when possible, as such a box permits the carrying of flies, bass bugs, and spinners in the same box. For bass flies alone, the fly book will answer very well.

A good jackknife, mosquito dope, and leader box are other accessories necessary to carry when fly fishing for bass. All fishing trips should be remembered with the aid of a good camera, and by carrying one of

Water Users Are Warned By Martin Judge

A warning has been sounded to water users by Judge J. E. McMorris of Martin county.

Speaking to a group of county and district officers in a district 2 meeting of Texas Farm Bureau Federation in the Lubbock Hotel Monday afternoon, Judge McMorris related the experience they are having in the Martin county water conservation district. The courts have refused to accept the established boundaries, thereby rendering the entire district unacceptable because territory outside these boundaries was said to be able to produce more than 150,000 gallons a day. Therefore it was contended that the established boundaries were not true boundaries. McMorris insisted the same thing could happen to other districts unless better defined laws are enacted to safeguard our rights to our underground water.

In Martin county's case, municipal interests were threatening to draw water away from farmers while other sources were available. He asked that all water users support them in their fight to hold these water rights for use on the land under which the water is found.

Another warning was sounded by Bill Tilson, state director from District 2. He said that the farmers' income had fallen 11 per cent while the cost of production had risen 11 per cent. This means that farmers net earnings were 22 per cent less than they had been. According to Tilson, this means that a constant watch must be maintained by the Farm Bureau to see that this trend does not continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Viall of Amarillo spent Monday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beall.

How to have a winning TELEPHONE PERSONALITY

by EMILY POST

We're often judged by the way we use telephone service. Good telephone technique and good telephone manners are important to a winning personality . . . and help you get the most from your telephone service.

A friend of mine who travels a lot tells me she has found a way to improve her telephoning on trips.

"It saves a lot of trouble," she says, "to have a list of the numbers you may want to call with you. I carry mine in a handy little book. And you would be surprised how much faster long distance calls go through when you give the operator the number you want." Incidentally, the telephone business office will be glad to give you a pocket-size book—handy for use at home, office, or when traveling—to list your long distance numbers in, and it's free for the asking.

My mail shows that many people have friends who use an extra-loud voice over the telephone. They ask, "Does shouting over the wire help?"

No, quite the contrary. A loud voice is always unpleasant and does not mean that you can be heard better. A special effort to talk clearly and distinctly into the receiver makes it easier for your friends to understand you, and it brings rewards in the form of a more pleasant telephone personality.

A correspondent who lives in the country on a party line asks, "Should emergency calls be given special priority?"

I think the obvious answer is "Yes, of course." Don't you? After all, it's just plain good manners to let your party line neighbor use the telephone when some special need arises. And then, too, the more consideration you show, the more consideration you will receive.

Easter Pageant To Be Held In Wichita Mt.

The twenty-seventh annual production of the Easter Sunrise service will be produced in the Wichita Mountains of Oklahoma on April 13th, Easter Sunday. The Service begins at midnight and continue until dawn.

At the present time, extensive preparations are being made for the Easter pageant. Women are busy making costumes for new scenes: Electricians are working on the grounds, moving the flood lights from an area which will provide a roadway for the fifty mounted horsemen in the King Arthur scene, riding full speed in search of the Holy Grail; Stage props and back-props are being erected; The gallows on which Haman is to be hanged, in the "Queen Esther and Mordecai" scene, is being built; The loud speaker staff is getting ready to install equipment; The Oklahoma Highway Patrol is making preparations to receive the largest crowd in pageant history; The Red Cross has organized first aid assistance, ham radio to broadcast messages to any part of the world, by anyone in the audience desiring its service which is free; The Lawton Fire Department will bring out equipment to the holy city for protection against fire; And the refreshment stand on Audience Hill is preparing to serve 30,000 gallons of milk, sandwiches, potato chips, ice cream and other items of food to the 200,000 people who migrate to Zion's Holy Hill in the greatest religious pilgrimage in America.

A cast of 3,000 people constitutes a unique fellowship and a rare event in religious participation. This year the performers are coming from ten states, and several officers from far away Korea will perform as priests in "The Eleven Great Faiths." One of these Koreans will play the role of Balthazar and bring his gift of gold to the infant Jesus in the manger.

The Wichita Mountains Easter service operates as a non-sectarian organization. People of every faith, race, color and creed, attend it and participate in it.

TECH ENROLLMENT

TOTALS 5,634

The total includes the enrollment for the fall semester, plus the new students who came to Tech for the first time in the spring semester. Tech's enrollment for the fall semester was 4,908, and the spring semester student body numbers 4,532. Of the total, 3,896 are men and 1,738 are women.

For a BETTER COTTON CROP

PROPER SEED TREATMENT MAY MAKE THIS DIFFERENCE

The photo above shows ten good cotton seedlings, well on the way to the kind of growth which can produce a good crop of cotton. This is the result you may expect when properly treated cottonseed is planted. ... seed that has been treated with a recommended seed disinfectant.

Below, the effects of seed decay, sore-shin, and both pre-emergence and post-emergence damping-off are illustrated. This seed was not treated and this is one reason why it is often necessary to replant.

Treated seed can be planted 3 to 5 days earlier—can get off to a good start even in cool weather. Once a good stand is established and growing well your chance for a better cotton crop increases.

4-H Club Roundup Set For June

College Station. — The annual Texas 4-H Club Roundup will be held at Texas A. & M. College on June 9-10. The statewide gathering sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service, for years has been recognized as one of the highlight meetings for 4-H Club members.

According to information released by Extension Director G. G. Gibson, each county may send as official delegates two boys, two girls and two local adult leaders. This number does not include members who will participate in the many judging and team demonstration contests. Only one team from each Extension district may participate in each of the 14 announced contests. District winning teams are to be selected in district contests.

Since the annual Extension Conference will be held later in the year, only a limited number of county Extension agents will attend.

In addition to the contests, delegates will participate in recreation programs, assemblies, training meetings and visit points of interest on the college campus. The State 4-H Council will meet during the Roundup to make plans for other activities covering the remainder of the year.

ONE-A-DAY HOME HINTS

Gas appliance experts suggest that before you use delicate china — this is, new china — you place it in a deep pan of cold water. Bring gradually to a boil on your gas range and let stand in water until cold. This process tempers the china, strengthening it to withstand sudden expansion caused by heat.

Public Invited To Library Meeting

Mrs. Jim Barnard, chairman of the library steering committee, urges all members and all interested citizens to please attend the committee's regular monthly meeting on Monday, April 14, in the Library Room, second floor of the Courthouse, at 3:30 p. m. The help of all is needed as plans are made to circulate a petition whereby a Floyd County Library may come into being. If such is the wish and will of a majority of our citizens. No increase in taxes will be made because funds for a library come from the regular county funds. A special tax or election is impossible under the County Library Law, Mrs. Barnard said.

Librarians Meet On March 28, Library District Number One held a workshop at Levelland in order for the librarians of the Panhandle and South Plains to become better acquainted and to learn from one another better ways of bringing together books and readers. The High School Librarians met at 10 o'clock in the High School Library in Levelland's new and adequate high school. The displays were unique, thus proving that librarian, teachers, and students were working together. The County Librarians gathered at the same hour in the delightful Hockley County Memorial Library Building.

At noon the two groups met together for a delicious luncheon, followed by an inspiring and pertinent talk delivered by Dr. J. B. Roberts, Dean of the Graduate School, West Texas State College. He urged his hearers to making reading enjoyable and available to all ages. He said, "Be ingenious to find ways to interest people in books. People do only those things for which they have a motive." He stressed the importance of adult education and from personal experience he had proven that poor readers can become excellent readers with a minimum amount of personal attention, provided the reading matter is carefully selected. The County Librarians profited by talks of Miss Lillie Hostetler, Librarian Hutchinson County, Mrs. Inez Ragsdale, Librarian Hockley County Memorial Library, Judge L. I. McCann of Hockley County, Mrs. Luella Carroll, Midland County Library, Miss Emerson, Amarillo Public Library, and Miss Dela Dority, Children's Library at Amarillo. All were interesting and gave their hearers a great deal of information.
