Production Tests Set For Adams Well This Week

Operators were preparing to set casing and take production tests at the Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Minnie Adams, wildcat in south-central Floyd County.

The 7 inch casing will be set at 7,602 feet. Production tests will then be made from 78 foot open hole above total depth of 7,680 feet.

The project is bottomed in an unidentified lime, thought to be Pennsylvanian. Operator representatives say the exact age, however, has not been determined, despite reports that it is the Cisco.

Core from 7,672 to 7,680 feet recovered eight feet of lime, with good porosity and bleeding oil in horizontal and vertical fractures.

Production previously was indicated on a pair of drillstem tests between 7,598 and 7,637 feet. Two attempts at a drillstem test while hole was bottomed at 7,672 feet failed.

New Location
The county came up with one wildcat location when Poff & Brensmere announced their No. 1 Krause, 660 feet from the north and west lines of Section 29, Block K, TTRR Survey. That puts the well about 10 miles west and 5 south of Floydada.

The new location is in no way connected with the new discovery, it being 14 miles west and 2 miles north of the Standard of Texas test on the Minnie Adams land seven miles southeast of Floydada.

The Poff and Brensmere test will be 3 miles east of the Arick Field in Floyd and Hale Counties.

Court Upholds DWI Conviction

Austin. — The State court of criminal appeals has affirmed the conviction of Vergle Trice Bennett in Floyd County for driving while intoxicated.

Bennett's sentence, with prior convictions charged to enhance the punishment, was for two years in jail and $1,000 fine. One of the previous convictions was in Hale County.

It will be six weeks before he can use the ankle but it is not expected that he will suffer a permanent injury. He was treated at the Crum Clinic here and is at present in the local hospital.

Court Is Given Library Petition

Petitions bearing the names of 2252 qualified voters of Floyd County and asking the Commissioners Court to provide for a free county library in the 1953 county budget were presented to the Court Monday afternoon in a meeting in the county court room at Floydada. The entire Court was present along with 25 or 30 members of the county library committee, headed by Mrs. J. H. Barnard, chairman.

Three communities of the county have not yet turned in petitions concerning the matter but only something over 1800 names were needed on the petition since the law requires that more than half of the qualified voters of the county must sign it. The names on the petitions must be checked against the poll list of the county to ascertain that all are qualified voters.

During the meeting members of the committee voted to ask the court to make a statement to the public concerning the establishment of the library. Mrs. Barnard said. The problem the Court faces is securing the money to provide the library expenses, it was said.

Attending the meeting from Lockney were Mrs. E. L. Stapp and Mrs. Henry Bollman.

Wheat Harvest May Be In Full Swing Monday

The Floyd County wheat harvest is expected to be going in full swing by Monday of next week, local elevator men said this week. Both Gilbert Bean of Patterson Grain Co. and Charles Baxter of Baxter & Smith said that they expected the harvest to be going good by Monday and that the dry land yield would average 15 bushels per acre.

Some wheat has already come in here with each local elevator having received around a carload thus far. The first wheat in the county was harvested by Hall Ferguson who lives just south of Lockney, and delivered to the Muncy elevator at Muncy Thursday afternoon of last week. This wheat tested 61 pounds to the bushel with 14.27 moisture content. Mr. Muncy bought the wheat for $2.03 and gave Mr. Ferguson a $10 premium for bringing in the first load.

County Agent Robert Gibson is predicting a good wheat turn out for the county. He estimates that 200,000 acres of wheat will be harvested in the county and that 150,000 acres of that will average 15 bushels with the other 50,000 acres averaging 10 bushels.

Production in the east part of the county is expected to be high with the wheat unusually good around Cedar, Hillcrest, Fairview, and Dougherty.

Irrigated wheat in this part of the county will also be good and will run much above the 15 bushel average, local elevator men say. Some fields are expected to yield 30 to 40 bushels and possibly more.

The wheat market has fallen lately and a lot of wheat is expected to go into the loan providing it qualifies on the moisture content. The present temporary loan price nets the farmers $2.02 1/2 stored in the elevator. The permanent loan price, which will be set around July 1, is expected to be about 4 cents higher than that although what it actually will be is not known.

Despite the good yield expected the total wheat production for Floyd County will not be as great in this area as in former years because of the smaller amount of acreage. Gilbert Bean estimated that the wheat acreage here was less than half what it was a few years ago. The large amount of cotton acreage has reduced that devoted to wheat, he said.

Sufficient equipment and storage to handle the crop is available here and very little trouble is expected in completing the harvest quickly.

Patentable Ideas Protected By Simple Precautions

Many people have good ideas about new or improved machines or gadgets, but never do anything about them because they don't know how to protect their rights while perfecting such items and going through the necessary patenting procedure. Here's what you can do to protect your invention before you have it patented.

Under the patent laws of the United States the person who first conceives of a new and novel patentable idea is entitled to it. Therefore, if conflicting claims arrive as to who is entitled to a patent, it is necessary to establish who first had the idea, not who filed the first application for patent.

Of course, it is always advisable to make application for patent as soon as possible in such cases. But don't forget to protect yourself while you are completing your final drawings and ultimate plans and making such tests as may be needed to perfect your patent. To do this, you should, as soon as you conceive the idea, make a written record of the facts, dating the same, including a general statement of the nature of your invention, and a rough drawing if possible. This should be witnessed by two persons who could be called on later on to certify that they witnessed the same on the dates set out in the instrument you have drawn.

Some inventors place such witnessed statements and drawings in an envelope. This they seal and mail to themselves by Registered Mail. Their post office stamps each seam of the envelope in such a way that any opening of same can be detected. Upon receiving the registered envelope and its contents, the inventor merely files it away in a safe place unopened. Then, if a contest should later develop, postal records will lend additional support to the testimony of his witnesses.

By taking the above precautions, you will establish a preliminary date showing the time when your original idea was conceived. After that you can continue with your work, perfecting your idea, and after the same is perfected, make application for a patent, if you feel that you have a patentable idea.

One should not just make a preliminary sketch and put it away and think that is sufficient to protect his rights. That is just one additional bit of evidence to help him establish his rights to the patent. The patent should be sought as soon as one possibly can after conceiving his patentable idea and working out details of the same.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Tech Enrollment About Same

A total of 2,745 students attended summer school at Tech last year. W. F. Clement, registrar, said not many more are expected this year.

NO HELL

Said a skeptic to a Christian:
 "George what would you say, if when you die, you found there was no heaven after all?" The believer replied with a smile: "I should say — well, I've had a fine time trying to get there anyway. But Fred what will you say, if when you die, you find there is a hell?"

MRS. EDDIE JOE FORTENBERRY

Gayle Sherman Is Bride Of Eddie Joe Fortenberry

Miss Billie Gayle Sherman and Eddie Joe Fortenberry exchanged marriage vows Saturday, June 7 at 7:30 p. m. in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Meriwether in Lockney. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Sherman of Pleasant Valley community and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fortenberry of Cedar Hill community. Rev. J. G. Strickland, minister of the Assembly of God Church of Rails, performed the double-ring ceremony before a fire place flanked by candelabra and tall baskets of pink roses interspersed with babybreath, blue larkspur and fern. For the benediction the pair knelt on a white chenille rug.

Preceding the ceremony Miss June Wiley, pianist, played "I Love You Truly," "Indian Love Call" and the Wedding March from Lohengrin by Wagner.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly type lace over satin. The fitted bodice was sleeveless and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. The full circular satin skirt had an overskirt of lace which graduated from the hips to a full length skirt in the back.

Her finger-tip length veil fell from a tiara of white satin adorned with seed pearls and lilies of the valley. She wore lace mitts and carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white rose buds showered with satin streamers. For something old she wore a string of pearls, something new was her veil, something borrowed was the wedding dress worn by her cousin, Mrs. Don Richards of Fort Worth. Something blue was a garter.

Miss Mavis Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate, Lockney, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a ballerina length dress of pale blue organdy over blue taffeta. Her corsage was of blue carnations and she wore a blue headdress decorated with the same flowers.

Wynette Sherman of Haskell, Texas, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore a ballerina length dress of pale pink organdy over pink taffeta.

Bill Sherman, brother of the bride served as best man.

Mrs. Sherman, mother of the bride, wore a dress of navy blue trimmed with white. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pale blue carnations. Mrs. Fortenberry, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a deep blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Reception

At a reception held at the Meriwether home the bride's table was covered with a hand made crocheted cloth centered with a three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Pink roses surrounded the punch bowl. Pink and white tapers in crystal holders completed the table decorations. Serving the cake and punch were Mrs. G. T. Meriwether, Mrs. Austin Meriwether and Mrs. Raymond Meriwether, aunts of the bride. June Wiley played soft popular music during the reception. Fifty guests were in attendance.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico the bride chose a linen dress with white accessories and a corsage of white rose buds. After June 12 the couple will be at home in Lockney. Mr. Fortenberry plans to farm.

The bride was a member of the 1952 graduating class of Lockney High School. She was chosen as the friendliest girl during her senior year and was also chosen as a Junior-Senior banquet favorite. She was secretary-treasurer of the Senior class as well as editor of the 1952 edition of the yearbook. Mr. Fortenberry played football and was manager of the team last term. He also graduated with the 1952 class.

Fishing at Lake Texoma this past week were the Woodson Terrell family, of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Terrell and Mr. and Mrs. Berdwin Tilson of Plainview.

Visitors in the E. C. Stapp home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rogers and son, James of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Alice Strickland spent last week with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Waidroupe and family.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.—Psalms 33:12.

Building lots are getting to be quite a problem in Lockney. More and more people are saying "We need a new addition." Just where a residential addition could be worked out we do not know, but at the rate the city is growing now, it must be done and it could be done profitably by someone experienced in such things. New houses are going up on almost every block where there is room to put a house. If you haven't driven out in the west part of the city lately you should do so. It will surprise you to see the amount of building going on.

Speaking of building, have you noticed that nearly all the houses being built here are nice houses. They are well built, well-planned and roomy. The building experts have recently issued a warning against building small houses. They say that such a house is a poor investment since most people want a house with enough room to live comfortably.

and that the resale value of a small house may drop due to lack of demand. Lockney people have a right to be proud of their residential district. Some of the nicest houses you will find are to be found right here in this city.

Present indications are that farm labor will be more plentiful this year than last. For some reason or other, the average farm laborer is more anxious this year to find a job. Perhaps he has used up all his ready cash, if any, or he is afraid of the future and wants to get the jump on saving a little for a rainy day. Whatever the cause, it is a good sign when people get back to the realization that work is a necessary part of everyday living.

The Sherman Rogers Publications has issued an amusing and informative booklet, done in cartoon style, called "Who's Profiteering in Food?" It deals with the search of an irate housewife, Maude Murdock, for the villains who are responsible for running her meat bill up. The pot roast that cost her 33 cents a pound in 1939 costs her 69 cents now and she means to find out why.

First she levels her guns at the butcher — only to learn it isn't his fault. Back in 1939, butchers received 26 cents of each meat dollar spent by consumers — now they take less than 16 cents. And out of it they must pay today's high taxes, wages, rents and so on. They handle a lot of money, but very little of it sticks to their fingers.

Maude then advances on the packers — and again she learns she's chosen the wrong victim. In 1939, packers received 16 cents of that meat dollar — today their share is under 14 cents. And that isn't profit — it's their gross. Their actual profit averages about one cent for each dollar of sales — and works out to a fraction of a cent for each pound of meat we buy.

That leaves the farmers and the ranchers, and Maude's dead sure she's on the right track at last. But again she gets some tremendous surprises. The farmers are doing well, as they should, but they aren't profiteering and few of them are getting rich. The cost of everything they buy has gone way, way up. In 1939 a hired man averaged $30 a month and part of his subsistence — now he makes $175. And average farm family income is well below that of the city dweller.

Maude winds up by discovering that today food represents only one cent more of the purchasing dollar than it did 15 years ago. In other words, our incomes have increased right along with prices. The only one who's profiteering is "the other fellow" and nobody can find him!

According to law, a minimum of three people may create a riot.

NEW WHEAT REGULATIONS

Government inspectors will sample wheat in the country elevators if filth of any kind is present, the grain will be condemned for food. Obviously, the local elevator must of necessity insist that grain delivered to it meet the standards set up by the Food and Drug Administration.

Since much wheat delivered to the elevator is out of farm storage, the chances for contamination on the farm are great. Many farmers do not have mice proof and bird proof granaries. Fumigants and insecticides are not applied in such a manner so as to achieve maximum effectiveness.

Perhaps the greatest problem is excessive moisture in the grain. This moisture encourages weevils. This has long been a major problem of the grain elevator. In the past, elevators have tried to handle an occasional load of wet wheat by mixing it with dry. But it isn't going to be so easy to do that from now on. —Tulia Herald.

EDITORS PRAYER

Blessed are the merchants who advertise and the woman who sends in a written account of a party or a wedding. Blessed are they who do not expect the editor to know everything but tell him whenever an interesting event occurs, and blessed are they who get their copy in early; they shall occupy a warm spot in the editor's heart. Blessed are those who do not think they could run the paper better than the editor — yes, thrice blessed are these, because there are so few of them in the community. — Woodward (La.) Enterprise.

Luther League Sponsors Chicken Fry Honoring Fathers

The annual chicken fry sponsored by the Luther League of Trinity Lutheran Church was well attended. Those attending from Plainview as special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett White and family, Ann, Mike, Camellia Sue White, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jones of Sterley community. A clever program was put on by the following: Rev. H. L. Anderson.

Robert Matthews, Weldon Smith, Albert Schee, Cecil Boedecker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Faver. The program opened by group singing, "Faith of our Fathers," followed by scripture reading by Rev. H. L. Anderson.

A court room scene with Rev. Anderson as judge, tried a father who had neglected his responsibilities in providing the spiritual food needed so badly by the American youth. A living example of providing a spiritual background for our youth. The group then sang "O Bless The House What'er Befalls." Program closed with benediction by Rev. Anderson.

Ernie Brock expressed his thanks on behalf of those present for invitation to chicken fry and the enjoying of the religious program put on by the Leaguers.

Candle Light Circle Meets

The Candle Light Circle met Sunday, June 1st, in the educational unit of the church. Mrs. Richard Matthews was hostess and program chairman. The program opened with singing of the theme song, "Come into My Heart," followed by scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Anderson. "Bibles, Not Bombs" was discussed by Mrs. Albert Sammann. In this article of Womens' Missionary Outlook stress for the month of June is Japan. Life membership chairman Mrs. Ted Boedecker reported. Stress was made of St. Johns Ladies Aid Society of Craig Iowa, who have a 100% life membership record for every member. This was made possible by birthday offerings through sale of greeting cards. This is indeed a splendid goal reached. May our own Candle Light Circle strive for such a goal.

Mrs. Ben Brandes was Outlook Editor for the month in place of Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner who was absent, attending the Church Workers Institute at Texas Lutheran College, Seguin. Bible Study included Deuteronomy 27-34. On presidents page, stress was laid on fact that our first mission package located at Duluth, Minn., was dedicated. This is a big day for W. M. F. The Lord has certainly blessed us with this mission for this we give our humble thanks. Our W. M. F. President, Miss Dorothy Haas will leave aboard a 7-passer Strato-cruiser for Hanover, Germany. She will attend the international meeting of the W. M. F. Roll call shower 10 members present and five members absent. A card of thanks was read by the secretary, Mrs. Ben Quebe expressing her thanks for memorial given in memory of Ben Quebe by the Candle Light Circle.

A motion was made and seconded to share in the expenses.

Sermonettes From Revival Tabernacle

"The Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power." I Cor.
 4:20.
 Paul said in I Cor. 2:4 "And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power."
 Have you ever stopped to think of what power and demonstration of the Spirit means? It does not mean words of man's wisdom.
 It does not mean words of worldly learning. In this day many are deceived. The devil is an arch deceiver and many are going along asleep and unaware it takes a personal experience with God. When God tells me
 "Ye must be born again." He tells you and everyone "Ye must be born again." God does not lead his people in several different directions. God doesn't divide—Man divides God's people.

In the early church, Peter preached with such anointing of the Spirit, men cried "What must we do to be saved?" They had such power Peter said to the lame man, "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give
 I thee; In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk." Acts 3:6. The sick were brought in the streets and laid so that the shadow of Peter passing by would fall on them and they would be healed. Acts 5:15-16 Power and demonstration of the Spirit in action.

Where is our New Testament church? God is restoring. Signs and wonders are again being seen. With the restoring of the ministries, gifts, and the unity of the Spirit, God is moving in power and demonstration of the Spirit. In Revival Tabernacle
 we are earnestly contending for the faith once delivered to the saints.

Revival Tabernacle is open to services and we extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Flowers from OLD NYLONS

Making gay, colorful flowers and corsages from re-dyed nylon stockings is latest hobby sweeping nation.

Cost of making the long-lasting flowers is trifling.

First use color re-
 mover on nylon.
 Then tintex hose in floral color desired.
 Next, make petals by stretching square of nylon over a strand
 of copper screen-wire. Five or more petals are assembled to form flower. With waxed crocheted cotton for center, wire and stem covered with green floral tape.

Simple directions
 for making the flowers are previded in an illustrated "Nylon Flowers" guide
 from the Textile
 Home Economics
 Bureau, 455 Fifth
 Ave., New York 17.

WTCC Helps Keep Defense Contracts

Abilene. — The West Texas
 Chamber of Commerce joined in an effort that has just resulted in an OPS ruling that prevented diversion of defense garment contracts to New England "labor distress areas" from the south and southwest.

The Defense Production Act
 provides that such contracts be awarded the lowest acceptable bidder. Using the Secretary of Labor's designations of "labor areas," the organized labor leaders had sought for months to have defense contracts given
 New England manufacturers without taking of bids. Their plea was that surplus of labor exist in the north and northeast.

The OPS decision was to abide by the bid-taking provisions of the law. Southern and southwestern manufacturers are now making 65 per cent of so-called
 "fatigue" garments for the Armed Forces because they have been able to under-bid the New England firms, they declare.

Among those who testified in a May 22 Washington hearing on the issue was A. B. Lankford of T. S. Lankford & Sons, Abilene.
 He reported that a CIO representative contended that that organization and the AFL should place the contracts "because they know the people with the equipment and the know-how to do the job."
